WEST VIRGINIA MOUNTAINEERS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Pat White was arguably the most exciting player in college football from 2005-'08 and became the first QB in NCAA history to win 4 bowls as a starter and broke Missouri QB Brad Smith's NCAA record for career QB rush yds (4,480). In 2008 HC Bill Stewart tweaked the offense to add more passing. White threw 58 more times but for just 118 more yards (1,842) hitting 66% with a 21-7 ratio (974 rush, 5.1). Jarrett Brown (who OC Jeff Mullen referred to as his "Eric Dickerson") played often and started vs Syr and was also used as a power RB. Brown rushed for 169 (4.7) while hitting 22 of 30 passes. Last year they had to replace White (#2DC MIA) who set 25 WV or NCAA records. They added VHT true frosh Geno Smith (PS#4). Brown threw for 266 ypg the first 3 and became just the 4th Mountaineer to register 400+ yards of offense in a game (vs EC) but he suffered a concussion on the first drive vs Marshall and was never the same. He threw for 2,144 (63.2%, 11-9 ratio) with 466 rush (4.0). Smith had a huge 4th & 10 conv vs Marshall guiding them to the win and in 5 gm threw for 309 (65.3%, 1-1). He also played the 2H of the bowl after Brown suffered an ankle inj. This year they lose Brown. They add Barry Brunetti (PS#9). This unit is not as exp'd but could put up better numbers provided Smith stays healthy.

RUNNING BACKS - Steve Slaton rushed for 1,128 (5.5) including a Sugar Bowl record 204 as a true frosh in '05. In '06 he broke WV's single season record (Avon Cobourne, 1,710 in '02) with 1,744 (7.0) despite being banged up late. In '07 Slaton started to share his carries with Noel Devine and his numbers dropped to 1,051 (5.0). Slaton has gone on to two fine seasons in the NFL (#3DC HOU). In '07 Devine avg 8.6 ypc (627) and WR Jock Sanders had 105 (6.6). Devine led with 1,289 (6.3) in '08 while Sanders had 250 (5.2). Devine has a 41" VL (tm high), 435 lb bench and 4.3 speed. QB Brown was their power RB. After not having a solid short yardage RB in '08, Ryan Clarke emerged in '09 with 250 (4.2) and 8 TD's. Devine had an injury plagued season (ankle, hammy, hip) but still rushed for 1,465 (6.1) and Sanders had 175 (5.0) moving to RB from his slot WR spot when Devine was inj'd. True frosh Tavon Austin (PS#15) surprisingly only had 47 (7.8) and Shawne Alston (PS#141) added 18. Not listed in the 3 deep below are FB's Ricky Kovatch (6'2" 239 Jr), Matt Lindamood (6'0" 234 So) and Bryan Logsdon (6'5" 258 Jr). Devine turned down an early trip to the NFL, making this one of the nation's finest RB corps.

RECEIVERS - In 2008 WV had an inexp'd receiving corps and Alric Arnett led with 466 (13.3) while Jock Sanders had 462 (8.7). Brad Starks (PS#41QB) had 168 (9.9) and Wes Lyons had 104 (9.5). Four of the top 5 were back last year. Sanders was susp (spring) landing him in the doghouse but worked his way back into the rotation and led with 688 (9.6) while also playing RB. Arnett improved to 586 (13.6) while Starks had 405 (14.0) and Lyons had 263 (13.2). This year they lose Arnett (13 st) and Lyons (10 st). I look for a big impact out of Tavon Austin, who moves from RB and this unit is in about the same shape as '09.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Having a mobile QB always helps the OL stats but WV outdid themselves in 2006 with 303 ypg rush & 6.7 ypc! In 2007 they lost long-time OL coach Rick Trickett to Fla St as well as a 1st Tm AA at C and a 1st Tm BE OG. WV still avg'd 297 ypg (6.2) with 13 sks allowed (4.9%). In '08 the line ret'd intact. Partly due to Stewart wanting to get more passing into the offense, the rushing numbers dropped to 210 ypg (5.3) with 18 sacks (5.9%). Last year they had to replace 4 multiple year starters (1st and 2nd Tm BE). As you would expect they dropped even further to 186 ypg (4.8) with 24 sks (6.9%) the most allowed since 2001. In a couple games, Stewart turned to mostly a rush attack in the 2H due to his QB's being under pressure. This year they lose 2nd Tm BE RT Selvish Capers (13 st, 3Y st'r, #7DC WAS). Nine of the top 10 return making them much stronger but it must be noted that the 4 ret st'rs took an amazing 98.9% of the snaps in 2009.

DEFENSIVE LINE - WV usually has a tough run D and in '06 allowed just 93 ypg (3.0). In '08 they had to replace 2 starters (1st and 2nd Tm BE) from the 3-man group. WV allowed 132 ypg and the ypc rose to 3.6 (113, 3.0 in '07). Last year they had to replace 2 players (comb 11 sts, 41 tkl). They did have their top 2 DL's back in NT Chris Neild and DT Scooter Berry. Berry had just 5 starts due to inj's (250 ply '09, 900+ '08). Neild, who is a space eater that occupied double teams, earned 2nd Tm BE. Julian Miller had 9 sks (3rd Tm BE). Surprisingly they slipped to 3.7 ypc (127 ypg) with 29 sks. This year the unit returns intact and should get a full year out of Berry and adds PS#5JC Bruce Irvin (16 sk at JC '09). Adding depth are Joe Rhein (6'1" 265 Jr), Glenn Gress (6'2" 250 Jr), Jamal Nelson (5'11" 272 Jr), CJ Huffman (6'1" 278 Jr), Donovan Pearson (6'0" 270 So), Curtis Feigt (6'6" 284 rFr) and possibly Tevita Finau (6'5" 290 Jr, PS#18JC). This is clearly one of the BE's top D-lines.

LINEBACKERS - WV plays a 3-3 stack D but I limit the secondary outlook to 4 positions and include the Bandit in this unit. 2006's starting BS moved to LB in '07. Last year they had to replace their #1 tkl'r (1st Tm BE), their #2 tkl'r and a backup (31 tkl). They got back Reed Williams (107 tkl '07) who missed all but 2 gm of '08 (inj). LB's Pat Lazear (rock), JT Thomas (speed) and Williams (red hair) were nicknamed Earth, Wind and Fire. Williams was banged up often but was the #4 tkl'r (2nd Tm BE). This year they lose Williams (10 st, 6 tfl), S Nate Sowers (11 st, 43 tkl, 2 pbu), BS Franchot Allen (5 st, 22 tkl), LB Ovid Goulbourne (20 tkl, 5.5 sk) and Zac Cooper (10 tkl, 3.5 sk). They do return their #1 (2nd Tm BE Lazear) and #2 (1st Tm BE Thomas) tkl'rs and have 5 with starting experience with SS Sidney Glover moving to BAN this year.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - WV had an exp'd secondary in '07 and climbed from #64 in my PDR in '06 to #19 (15-16 ratio). In '08 they had to replace all 4 st'rs plus 3 backups. Stewart did a great job as the unit (4 car sts) finished #34 (11-17 ratio). LY they only had to replace 1 starter (#7DC) and had 8 back with starting exp and moved up to #26 allowing 53% with a 19-17 ratio. This year they lose CB Kent Richardson (24 tkl), CB Guesly Dervil (3 tkl) and Anthony Wood (13 tkl). Not listed in the PSL is Lawrence Smith (5'9" 178 So). This is a very exp'd and improved secondary.

FS Robert Sands

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Mountaineers always finished near the top of my ST rankings under Rodriguez. In his final 4 years they were #35, #32, #8 and #37. In '08 Pat McAfee was a Ray Guy finalist (40.5 net) and hit 17 of 20 FG's (L/52). They had to replace their top PR and KR and WV dropped to #43. A surprising weak spot was their KR defense (28.0). Last year they had to replace P/K McAfee (#7DC) and their top PR and dropped to #55. New K Tyler Bitancurt (PS#7) hit 13-15 FG's (L/45). WV is one of the few tms that has a holder on the roster and he is Sr Jeremy Kash. Added to the mix at K is Alabama transfer Corey Smith (PS#9). Josh Lider had 1 TB on 48 KO's and Bitancurt had 3 on 19. Scott Kozlowski was the punter in 2006 but lost his job until he regained it in '09 avg 44.4 (38.4 net). Mark Rodgers improved his KR avg from 21.1 to 22.9. This year they lose Kozlowski (1st Tm BE) and Rodgers but could improve in my ST rankings.

COACHES - After Rich Rodriguez left for Michigan in '07, Bill Stewart was the interim HC for the bowl and was given the job after the upset of Oklahoma. Stewart was the Assoc HC and is in his 11th year here. He hired OC Jeff Mullen away from WF (QB coach). Jeff Casteel is in his 10th year as DC. They also have an Asst HC in Steve Dunlap (DC at NCSt, Marshall and WV). One large loss this year is Assoc HC/ Recruiting Coor Doc Holliday who is one of the top recruiters in the nation, but left to become HC at Marshall.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Rich Rodriguez went 3-8 in his first season but rebounded to win 9, 8, 8, 11, 11 and 10 and won at least a share of the Big East Title in 4 of his last 5 years (only previous BE Title 1993). In his final 3 seasons WV finished #5, #10 and #6 (in the AP). In 2007 they ret'd 15 st'rs including Heisman candidates QB Pat White and RB Steve Slaton. WV opened #3 and when they hosted Pitt in the reg season finale, they were #2 and only needed to win to play in the National Title game. Stunningly Pitt, a 29 pt underdog, upset them. WV was +109.2 ypg which was 192.4 ypg better than co-champ Conn. Rodriguez left for Michigan and Bill Stewart was interim HC for the bowl. When Stewart engineered a 20 pt Fiesta Bowl win over #3 Okla, he was given the HC job. That WV team benefitted from +13 in TO's in '07 and they had just 11 ret starters in '08 (2nd fewest BE). Stewart also tweaked the playbook adding more passing (why mess with a good thing?) so all signs pointed to a weaker record. WV actually att'd 40 more passes than '07 but threw for 111 less yards and their ppg went from 39.6 to 24.5, despite the presence of White and Noel Devine. In White's final collegiate game, he managed a 1 pt win over NC in the Meineke Car Care Bowl and WV finished 9-4. Last year in my magazine I said WV could open up 6-1 but had 3 tough Big East road games down the stretch and probably would not top '08's 9 win total. WV did throw the ball 42 times more and this time saw an increase of 528 additional pass yards. They only had a slight improvement in scoring to 26.2. WV opened 2-0 and had a 509-400 yard edge vs Auburn but was -5 in TO's and lost on the road. They dispatched Colo, Syr and Marshall as expected to move to 5-1 and then got a 56 yard TD run by Devine with 2:10 left to pull out a 28-24 win vs Conn. On a short week, travelling to USF on a Friday, they lost 30-19. L'ville started a 3rd string walk-on QB and WV barely got past them 17-9 despite being outgained 301-273. They played before the biggest crowd in Nippert Stadium history vs #5 Cincy and WV lost by 3 after a TD w/:39 left. They were entering a great situation facing #8 Pitt. It was basically a meaningless game for Pitt as the following week vs Cincy would determine the Big East Title and a BCS bowl berth. WV needed a FG on the last play to win by 3. WV pulled out another 3 pt win at Rutgers the next week. In the bowl WV faced a tough situation as they were taking on Fla St in the final game for HC Bobby Bowden and lost QB Brown in the 2Q and WV lost by 12 matching their 9-4 record of 2008. They had 2 net close wins and despite their 5-2 Big East record, they were -2.9 ypg (4th best). This year they have 16 ret starters but are less experienced at QB. This is Stewart's best team yet and they have my #1 rated D in the Big East. That makes them a prime contender for the Big East Title and a BCS bowl bid.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score WV	Final Score Opp	W L
Sep. 4	Coastal Carolina	A					WV is 10-1 in home openers winning by 27 ppg. Chanticleers went 6-5 LY and their 1st yr of FB was in 2003. This will be CCU's 4th FBS opp (0-3 being outscored 133-13).
Sep. 10	at Marshall (Fri)	A					WV is 9-0 (avg win by 33 ppg) in this instate rivalry played for the "Friends of the Coal Bowl" Trophy. LY QB Brown was injured in the 1Q and WV trailed 7-3 at halftime.
Sep. 18	Maryland	A					WV is 4-0 vs the Terps since getting waxed in the '03 Gator Bowl, outgaining MD in each gm (+83 ypg). Into 2010, WV had won 13 str non-conf home gms (last loss in '05 to #3 VT).
Sep. 25	at LSU	G					First meeting. The Mountaineers are 3-9 their last 12 non-conf AG's vs BCS schools. West Virginia is 10-4 since 1979 vs SEC opponents but did lose at Auburn last year.
Oct. 2							BONUS: Into 2010 West Virginia has won 8 straight weekday home games.
Oct. 9	UNLV	A					UNLV will be the 3rd first time opponent TY. The last time WV played a current MWC opponent was in 1984 vs TCU. WV is 4-2 vs current MWC teams incl 3 straight wins.
Oct. 14	USF (Thur)	A					In their 5 all-time meetings these schools have combined to avg just 37 ppg. HT has won 3 str and WV has been upset by USF 3 of L4Y also being outgained in 3 of 4.
Oct. 23	Syracuse (HC)	A					This is played for the Schwartzwalder Trophy and West Virginia is on a 8 game win streak. Last year WV led 27-0 and had a 286-62 yard edge at halftime in the 34-13 win.
Oct. 29	at Connecticut (Fri)	G					WV is 6-0 vs UC w/the avg score 40-17. WV was outgained by 114 yds LY allowing a ssn high 501 yds but won on a 56 yd Devine TD run w/2:10 vs an emotional UC squad.
Nov. 6
Nov. 13	Cincinnati	A					WV is 7-2-1 hosting UC but has dropped 2 of the L/3 but by just a comb 5 pts. After LY's 3 pt loss HC Stewart said "This is one that is going to stay with me for a long, long time."
Nov. 20	at Louisville	A					WV is 9-2 vs UL and LY they combined to score just 26 pts while avg 73 ppg the prior 5. After gaining a season high 498 yds vs UL in '08 WV had a season low 273 yds LY.
Nov. 26	at Pittsburgh (Fri)	G					This year will mark the 103rd edition of the "Backyard Brawl" (played every yr S/'43). Last year Taylor Bitancurt kicked a GW 43 yd FG on the final play vs #8 Pittsburgh.
Dec. 4	Rutgers	A					West Virginia is 31-4-2 all-time vs Rutgers winning 15 straight (just 5 decided by a TD or less). LY WV had an 18 pt lead early 3Q and the tms combined to go just 3-29 (10%) on 3D.

CINCINNATI BEARCATS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - HC Brian Kelly did a tremendous job with the QB's in his 3 years. He had six different starting QB's and each one won their first start. In '07, it was a 3-way QB race between Wake Forest transfer Ben Mauk (PS#32), Dustin Grutza (former HC Dantonio called QB of the future) and Tony Pike. Mauk took command at midseason and threw for 3,121 (61%, 31-9, 377 rush). Grutza played in 2 (432, 4-0 ratio) and Pike in 5 (91, 1-3 ratio). In '08 Mauk was denied a 6th year for a final time in Aug. Grutza started but broke his leg in the 4Q in gm 2. Pike (38 car att) got his first start vs Miami, Oh but then broke his non-throwing arm vs Akron. Zach Collaros replaced him but it was Chazz Anderson (PS#95) who started vs Marshall. Pike ret'd vs Conn (plate in his arm) but was pulled at half. He started again and guided the team to upsets vs USF and WV and threw for 2,407 (61%, 19-11). Grutza threw for 613 (67%, 5-1) and Anderson threw for 520 (61%, 2-3). Pike had a hot start to '09. He was inj'd vs USF and Collaros got a 75 yd TD run on 3rd & 11 and gave the QB position a running threat. Collaros was also deadly accurate. After 3 starts, Kelly was faced with a dilemma every coach wants which is either starting a Heisman contending QB in Pike or the red hot Collaros. Pike threw for 2,520 (62.4%, 29-6) and Collaros threw for 1,434 (75%, 10-2). Anderson played in 4 (6 att). This year Pike (#6DC CAR) departs and adding depth are Brendon Kay (6'4" 232 So, PS#42, 2 att) and Demetrius Richardson (6'2" 233 So), who transferred in from USMAPS, as well as 3 true frosh. Despite the loss of an outstanding QB, Collaros should be one of the top QB's in the Big East.

RUNNING BACKS - From 2006-'08 the Bearcats used a RB-by-committee approach. Their leading rusher in '06 was Greg Moore (709, 4.4). All of the top backs ret'd in Kelly's first year and Butler Benton led with just 499 (5.0) while Moore had 450 (5.2) and Jacob Ramsey 362 (3.8). Three of the top 4 RB's departed with Ramsey (top returnee) leading in '08 with 664 (4.4) and John Goebel (PS#154) adding 607 (4.6, 283 rec yd). True frosh Isaiah Pead (PS#52) only played in seven (194, 6.5). Last year the unit ret'd intact but Goebel missed 4 and was not 100% all year (12 att). Jacob Ramsey (PS#106) became the first UC RB to top 100 in a game since '07 but missed 1 and finished with 439 (5.9). Pead had the best ypc of any RB in the Big East (6.7) and his 175 vs WV was the best single gm total for UC since '04. He led with 806 (9 TD's). This year they only lose Ramsey. Not listed in the PSL are Darrin Williams (5'7" 177 So, PS#121, 37 yd), George Winn (5'11" 192 Jr, PS#144), Quentin Hines (5'11" 195 So), Jared Rains (5'10" 199 So). FB Colin Lozier (6'0" 217 So). Pead could become the Bearcats first 1,000 yard rusher since Richard Hall in '04.

RECEIVERS - In '07 Dominick Goodman led with 869 (12.8) while rFr Marcus Barnett added 862 (13.9). Mardy Gilyard (Scout Tm POY '06) had 536 (14.9). Gilyard led in '08 with 1,276 (15.8) while Goodman had 1,028 (12.2) and became UC's career leader. Those two accounted for 65% of the rec yards with Barnett #4 at 277 (9.2). Last year Goodman departed and Barnett moved to DB (10 rec limited time). Gilyard was double teamed often but led again with 1,191 (13.7) surpassing Goodman as the all-time leading rec. Armon Binns (6'3") was #2 with 888 (14.6) and soph DJ Woods (PS#55) added 640 (12.5). TE Ben Guidugli was #4 with 364 (13.5). This year they lose their star in Gilyard (#4DC STL) and TE Kazeem Alli (1 st, 12 rec) but add USC transfer Vidal Hazelton (PS#6) who had 9 sts with the Trojans in '07 (540, 10.8). Not listed in the PSL are Danny Milligan (5'9" 175 So, PS#180), Tomaz Hilton (6'3" 205 Jr), Lynell Payne (6'3" 207 So, PS#85) and TE's Blake Annen (6'5" 230 rFr, PS#77) and Travis Kelce (6'6" 249 So, PS#109). They also add a VHT JUCO and a VHT true frosh and this still figures to be one of the BE's best receiving corps but will be down a notch or two with the loss of Gilyard.

WR Armon Binns

OFFENSIVE LINE - Mark Dantonio favored a larger O-line but Brian Kelly wanted a slimmed down version. Kelly's first squad ('07) paved the way for 148 ypg rush (4.0). In '08 they had 3 st'rs back but the numbers dropped to 118 ypg (3.6) while allowing 31 sks (6.6%). Last year they had to replace 2 multiple year st'rs (3 sts back) and this time improved to 139 ypg (5.0) allowing just 15 sks (3.2%). Having a mobile QB like Collaros (344 rush yds) helped. This year the Bearcats lose 1st Tm BE C Chris Jurek (13 st, 3Y st'r) and 2nd Tm BE LT Jeff Linkenbach (13 st, 2Y st'r) but have 8 of the top 10 back including a pair of 2nd Tm BE OL's in LG Jason Kelce and RG Alex Hoffman. This unit is equal to '09 in experience and could be more productive.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Brian Kelly had an exp'd D-line in his first year and the Bearcats allowed just 114 ypg rush (3.2) while the D had 42 sks. In '08 they had to replace both DE's but did return both DT's including 2nd Tm AA Terrill Byrd and moved TE Connor Barwin to DE. They again yielded 114 ypg (3.3) with 39 sks. Last year they shifted to a 3-4 and lost all 4 st'rs (#2DC, comb 26 sks). They did bring in VHT Minnesota transfer Alex Daniels (PS#34) and surprisingly the numbers only dropped to 144 ypg (3.6) and the D still had 37 sks. This year they lose DE Daniels (12 st, 56 tkl, 8.5 sk) and 1st Tm BE DE Ricardo Mathews (13 st, 44 tkl, 12.5 tfl, #7DC IND). Last year's 2 deep had combined for 68 tkls and 8 sks in '08 and this year's returns 137 tkl, 12.5 sk. They have just 1 starter back to their new 4 man line but are more experienced than '09.

LINEBACKERS - In '05 the Bearcats had to replace their entire 2 deep at LB and that defense allowed 31.4 ppg. The next 3 yrs, they had exp'd units and the D improved allowing 19.6, 18.8 and 20.1 ppg. Last year they switched to a 3-4 D and lost all 3 st'rs (#1, #3, #4 tkl'r). Only one LB had 25+ tkls in a season and that was Andre Revels (66 in '07 and 59 in '08). Revels led with 109 tkls. They also moved in QB Demetrius Jones (PS#6) and he started 4 (36 tkl). JK Schaffer (4.5 spd, 12 tkl true) earned 2nd Tm BE (#2 tkl'r). This year they lose 3rd Tm BE Revels (13 st, 4.5 tfl), OLB Curtis Young (10 st, #9 tkl'r, 11 tfl), Jones, Marcus Waugh (1 st, 11 tkl) and Craig Carey (1 st, 15 tkl). Since they return their #2 and #6 tacklers and move back to a 4-3 scheme, this unit is more experienced than '09. Not listed below are Ryan Paxson (6'6" 215 rFr), Brady Slusher (6'4" 250 rFr) and Austin Cook (6'0" 197 Sr).

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Cats finished in the top 43 of my pass D rankings 6 of 7 yrs heading into '09. The '08 unit had 3 CB's that Kelly felt could start for any team in the country and last year all 3 were NFL DC's (#1 and #2 career int's). As you would expect, UC dropped to #75 in '09. This year they lose 1st Tm BE FS Aaron Webster (13 st, #3 tkl'r, 4 int, 5 pbu) and CB Brad Jones (13 st, 52 tkl, 1 pbu). With 2 st'rs back they are more exp'd and should head back up to their usual spot in my PDR. Not in the PSL is Romel Dismuke (5'8" 184 rFr, PS#254).

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Dantonio's 3 years UC was just #106, #113 and #82. In Kelly's first year here they had to replace their P and K but surprisingly moved up to #21 (P Kevin Huber 39.6 net). In '08 Huber avg 45.0 (amazing 41.5 net, #1 FBS). UC had two of the longest droughts in the FBS, in not having a KR TD (S/'97) or a PR TD (111 gms). Gilyard ended the KR streak in '08 with 2 TD's (27.6). Jacob Rogers had 11 TB on 73 KO and Connor Barwin blk'd 2 punts. Kelly used a lot of 1st stringers on ST's and UC finished #1 in '08. Last year they lost their star Huber (#5DC) and top PR but UC still finished #8. Rogers hit 13-19 FG's (long 47, 2 miss 50+). He also had an outstanding 23 TB's on 92 KO's. Rogers and true frosh Patrick O'Donnell combined for a net punt avg of just 33.7. Gilyard ended the PR TD drought (12 yrs, 126 gms) and he avg 12.6 while also adding another 2 KR TD's (30.5). RFr Darrin Williams (30.6) also had a KR TD. This year they lose Gilyard and should slip out of the top 10.

COACHES - Brian Kelly led UC to the Big East Title and their first BCS bowl in just his 2nd year here. Last year he topped that by leading UC to a 12-0 reg season, Big East Title and 2nd straight BCS bowl. Kelly moves on to bigger challenges at ND. Butch Jones also replaced Kelly at Central Michigan and led them to B2B MAC Titles and 3 straight bowls (27-13 3 yr). Jones spent 2 yrs as WR coach at WV but prior to that was an asst at CM from '98-'04. OC Mike Bajakian has served as OC/QB coach the last 3 yrs under Jones at CM helping develop 1st Tm MAC QB Dan LeFevour. Tim Banks and John Jancek are co-DC's. Banks served as DC at CM the last 3 years while Jancek spent the last 5 yrs at Georgia as the LB coach and served as co-DC there in '09.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In Brian Kelly's first year (2007) Cincinnati was the most exp'd team in the Big East but had to learn new schemes. UC was last in the Big East in attendance in '06 (20,373) but improved to 30,246 in '07. Thanks to a softer non-conf schedule the Bearcats opened 5-0 and were ranked for the first time since 1976! When they knocked off #21 Rutgers on the road they moved to #15 (6-0). After getting upset the next two weeks by UL and Pitt they beat #20 USF and pounded #16 Conn. After a loss to #5 WV they beat Syr to move to 9-3 and then dispatched SMiss in the Papajohns.com Bowl. It was the first time in UC history that they finished the season ranked (#17). The school record for points in a season had been 409 ('02) but Kelly's first edition put up 472. The Bearcats had just 12 ret st'rs in '08 (2nd fewest Big East). One of my 8 sets of power ratings called for an 11-2 season. They were actually picked 5th in the Big East (I had them #4) but they had a dream season. Kelly did a fantastic job as 4 different QB's played due to injury. The Bearcats won the Big East Title and were +59.9 ypg in BE play (2nd best), the key being a 3 pt home win over Rutgers. They climbed to #12 but were outgained 398-310 by VT in the Orange Bowl and lost 20-7 and finished #17 (same as '07). Their offense actually only avg 25.9 ppg (10.4 fewer than '07). Last year they had 8 st'rs back on offense and more stability at QB but just one starter back on defense (lost 11 of top 13 tkl'rs). They benefited from 6 net close wins in '08 and were -8 in turnovers. I'll be honest, I did not think they could match the previous year's 11 win total. UC went into the opener at Rutgers and dominated 47-15. They won at a very tough venue beating Oregon St 28-18 two weeks later. Fresno St controlled the ball for 43:42 and outgained them 443-357 but Cincy prevailed 28-20 as FSU blew some chances. UC did not have another close game until Conn, a game the Bearcats led 37-17 late 3Q but Conn missed a 2 pt conv late 4Q. Cincy did have a 711-462 yard edge. They had the biggest crowd in Nippert history vs WV and held on for a 24-21 win. After dispatching Illinois 49-36, they played Pitt for the Big East Title on the road. It appeared their hopes were gone as they trailed 31-10 and later 44-38 but got a 29 yd TD pass with :33 left to pull out the win, the key play was a 99 yd KR just before the half which put them back in it. They lost Coach Kelly to ND and with an interim HC in Tim Tebow's final game, they were waxed in the Sugar Bowl by UF, being outgained 659-246. Butch Jones steps into a tough situation as UC finished #8 last year and this season has just 12 ret st'rs. They also benefitted from 4 net close wins and were +9 in turnovers. On the positive side, they improved their ypg in Big East play to +132.3, this time the league's best. Cincy has the best offense in the Big East and are much more experienced on defense than '09. UC won't however match the 11 or 12 wins of the last 2 years. Butch Jones will still have them a prime contender in the BE and the Big East Title may be decided on December 4th.

Phil's Homefield Edge-4.25

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score UC	Opp	W L
Sep. 4	at Fresno St	G					Last year in the schools only meeting UC allowed 290 rush yds (5.1) and FSU had the ball for nearly 3Q's (43:42) but the Bearcats scored quick (4 TD drives avg 2:08).
Sep. 11	Indiana St	A					UC is 10-1 in home openers (avg score 39-12). UC is 3-1 vs ISU (loss in '87). Sycamores finished 1-10 & are 2-54 the last 5 yrs including 7 losses to FBS tms by an avg of 47-11.
Sep. 16	at NC State (Thur)	G					First meeting. Cincinnati is 8-29 vs ACC members incl a loss to VT in the 2008 Orange Bowl. UC was 0-6 the L6Y in AG's vs non-conf BCS schools before beating Oreg St LY.
Sep. 25	Oklahoma (Paul Brown Stadium)	A					UC trailed from start to finish in their only meeting in '08 (lost 52-26 being outgained by 266 yds). Paul Brown Stadium is home to the NFL Bengals (just 15 min from the UC campus).
Oct. 2							BONUS: Cincinnati is just 4-16 in their 1st gm away from Nippert. BONUS: Butch Jones was the HC at CM ('07-'09) & faced Miami, Oh once in the '07 MAC title gm (won 35-10).
Oct. 9	Miami, Oh	A					The schools' bill this as the oldest rivalry West of the Allegheny Mountains (115th meeting). UC has won 4 straight by an avg of 25 ppg outgaining MU in each by 99 ypg.
Oct. 15	at Louisville (Fri)	A					This is the Battle for the Keg of Nails and these schools are only 106 miles apart. QB Zach Collaros made his 1st career start LY vs UL going 15-17-88%-253-3-0 w/52 rush (4.7).
Oct. 22	USF (Fri)	A					UC has won 4 str overall & all 3 in Cincy by 17 ppg & LY QB Collaros replaced an inj'd Pike & had a 75 yd TD on his first series. The Bearcats have won 7 str Big East home gms by 11 ppg.
Oct. 30	Syracuse (HC)	A					LY UC was tied w/SU 7-7 after 1Q but the Bearcat defense allowed 0 pts & just 144 yds the final 3Q's. UC has won 5 straight vs SU & over the L4Y has had a 130+ yd edge.
Nov. 6							BONUS: Butch Jones was the WR coach at WV in 2005-2006.
Nov. 13	at West Virginia	A					UC is 3-14-1 vs WV but has won 2 straight. LY the gm was tied at HT despite a UC fum, dropped TD pass, missed FG & int. Into 2010, UC has won 6 straight BE AG's by 14 ppg.
Nov. 20	Rutgers	A					LY vs RU it was 7-7 early 1Q then UC closed the 1H out with 24 unanswered. The Bearcats have beat the Scarlet Knights 4 straight yrs (3 upsets) outgaining them by 111 ypg.
Nov. 27	at Connecticut	G					Collaros had 480 pass yds last year vs Conn (2nd best mark in school history). UC was upset their last trip to Storrs which was the Bearcats only loss in this series (5-1).
Dec. 4	Pittsburgh	A					UC is 2-7 vs Pitt but has won B2B gms. The last 3 gms have been decided by 7 pts or less. LY UC trailed 31-10 w/1:26 left in the 1H, scoring the GW TD w/:33 left.

USF BULLS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - USF ret'd their top 2 QB's in '06 but rFr Matt Grothe (PS#55) sparked the offense in the 2H of the opener and surprisingly took control of the job. Comparisons were made to Marquel Blackwell, who replaced then-starter Glen Gauntt in the opener in '99 and started the last 42 of his career. Grothe did get banged up. He avg'd 70 ypg rushing in the first 6 but just 29 ypg the last 7 but still led USF (622). He threw for 2,576 (64%, 15-14). In 2007 Grothe was banged up early but his 872 rush set a USF QB record. He threw for 2,670 (59%, 14-14). In '08 Grothe was healthier throwing for 2,911 (63%, 18-14) and was the #1 rusher (591, 4.0). BJ Daniels (PS#76) played in 2 (5 pass) but got a MedRS. Grothe broke the BE career record for total yards offense (Pat White, WV) with 10,875 and would have finished the school's career leading passer but tore his ACL in Gm 3. Daniels took over but had a roller coaster year at QB. In Daniels' first start he threw for 215 (126 rush) and led the upset vs Flor St. He had a bad game vs Pitt, good game vs WV, bad vs Rutg, good vs L'ville and a bad game vs Miami. In USF's losses, he hit 48% with a 2-7 ratio (126 ypg) with 262 rush. Daniels finished with 1,983 (53.7%, 14-9) and accounted for 58% of USF's offense despite not starting until Wk 4 and was the #1 rusher (772, 4.4). Evan Landi (PS#235), who is also working at WR, hit 3-5 for 36 yds and also battling for the #2 spot are Ryan Eppes (6'1" 185 So) and true frosh Jamius Gunsby (PS#131). Daniels should be one of the top QB's in the Big East but must remain healthy or there is a big dropoff.

QB BJ Daniels

RUNNING BACKS - The last 4 years this unit has been hit by injuries and has lacked production. In '06 walk-on Ben Williams led the RB's with 436 (3.6). In '07 Bama transfer Mike Ford (PS#46) led the RB's with 645 (4.7). True frosh Jamar Taylor (5'9" 200 Sr, PS#42) had 1 start and 147 (3.1). Williams added 425 (4.0). Ford was banged up in '08 but led the RB's with 407 (4.0). Moise Plancher was #2 (322, 4.7), Williams was #3 (308, 4.3) and Taylor had 300 (4.8). Last year the only loss was Williams but Taylor (knee) played in just 4 (30, 3.8). Ford was susp'd the first 2 and had 243 (3.4) during the season but 207 (10.4) in the bowl. Plancher was the starter and snapped a 16 game USF streak without a 100 yard rusher (115 vs WKU) but finished with just 581 (4.5). Lindsey Lamar (PS#173, 4.35 spd) who Matt Grothe said has the quickest feet he's ever seen had 174 (4.4). This year they lose Ford. Not listed below are Aston Samuels (5'10" 180 Sr), Jonny Sitton (5'7" 170 So), FB Joel Miller (6'0" 190 Jr) and Isaac Virgin (6'4" 245 rFr). New HC Holtz often used an RB by committee and has decent depth to work with. The top guy is back and VHT JC Michael Hayes is added.

RECEIVERS - Jim Leavitt's receiving corps were usually filled with size and speed the last 5 yrs. Carlton Mitchell who is 6'4" and set a school record in the 400M (47.28) led with 537 (14.5) in '07. Jessie Hester (PS#29, father Jessie played NFL) was #2 with 418 (11.9). Taurus Johnson (PS#90) was #3 (407, 12.0). Surprisingly the numbers were down in '08 as Hester led with 579 (10.7) and Johnson had 498 (13.1), Mitchell (405,14.5) and soph AJ Love emerged with 370 (11.9). Last year they had to replace Johnson and their TE. Mitchell was the team's deep threat but inj'd his ankle vs WV and was not 100% thereafter. He still led with 706 (17.7). AJ Love had 121 vs L'ville and was #2 with 489 (18.8). Dontavia Bogan was #3 (305,13.9). True frosh Sterling Griffin had 265 (18.9). Hester (ankle) did not get his first rec until Wk 6 (192, 12.8). This year they lose Mitchell (#6DC CLE), Hester (2 st), TE Busbee (5 st, 5 rec) and Theo Wilson (7 rec). Adding depth are Jeffrey Wilson (6'0" 175 Jr), Bermanley Augustin (5'11" 175 So), Tyler Stowell (6'4" 189 So), Faron Hornes (5'6" 170 Sr), Ed Alcin (6'2" 185 Sr, PS#287) and TE Chase Boswell (6'1" 216 So). It seems the injury bug continues as Love tore his ACL in the spring game, but this is still a solid unit.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 they only had to replace 3 OL (comb 13 sts) but even with mobile QB Grothe (#1 rusher) they averaged just 165 ypg rush (4.2) while allowing 29 sks (7.1%). Last year this unit was a major question mark as they had to replace 4 st'rs and went from having 87 car sts in '08 to just 32 (#106 FBS in '09). Three JC OT's DNQ which set the unit back. Thanks to mobile QB BJ Daniels (772 rush) they still avg 171 ypg rush (4.4) but allowed 38 sks (12.8%). Not listed in the PSL is Steven Jacques (6'4" 292 rFr, PS#260). Skip Holtz inherits a veteran group as the entire 2 deep returns with 99 career starts (#15 FBS).

DEFENSIVE LINE - USF is always tough vs the rush with their "worst" showings in FBS ball being 3.9 ypc allowed ('05 &'09). In '07 DE George Selvie broke the Big East single season tfl record with 31.5 (1 away from NCAA rec) while leading the conf with 14.5 sks. In '08 they only had to replace 1 starter. Selvie, facing constant double teams, had just 5.5 sks. USF allowed just 95 ypg (2.8) but posted just 23 sks. Last year they had to replace 2 players (comb 17 sts, 5 sks). They got the large addition of PS#3JC Jason Pierre-Paul who did not arrive until early Aug. With 3 starters back and the addition of Pierre-Paul (1st Tm BE), it's surprising that USF's rush D slipped to 135 ypg (3.9) and had just 25 sks. This year they lose 1st Tm BE DE Selvie (13 st, 42 tkl, 3.5 sk, #7DC STL), Pierre-Paul (7 st, 45 tkl, 6.5 sk, #1DC NYG) and DT Aaron Harris (6 st, 20 tkl, 3.5 sk). They add another top-notch JC in Claude Davis and have 5 back with starting exp. They could actually improve upon '09's numbers but are not as exp'd or talented.

LINEBACKERS - In 2008 USF started a nickel back many times instead of 3 LB's. Last year they had to replace their #1 tkl'r (#3DC) and a 5 gm starter (17 tkl). PS#22JC Kion Wilson was the lone ret st'r and he had an outstanding year (1st Tm BE, #1 tkl'r, 9 tfl). USF allowed just 19.8 ppg. This year they lose Wilson (12 st) and Chris Robinson (10 st, #4 tkl'r, 9 tfl). While just one starter returns in Sabbath Joseph (#5 tkl'r), Leavitt said that Sam Barrington (6'3" 220) was one of the best LB's he's had as a true frosh and that includes players like Ben Moffitt, Kawika Mitchell and Stephen Nicholas. Those two team up with 2009's PS#14JC Jacquian Williams (28 tkl) and could be just as strong.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '06 and '07 USF possessed perhaps the NCAA's best set of CB's in Trae Williams and Mike Jenkins. The 2 shutdown corners allowed USF to blitz often. USF was #21 and #7 in my PDR with an amazing 23 int's in '07. In '08 those two departed (#1, #5DC) and USF dropped to #49. Last year they had to replace two starters and 2 bkps (7 st, 54 tkl). SS Jerrell Young missed 3 gm (inj). USF was #41. This year they lose 1st Tm BE FS Nate Allen (13 st, 85 tkl, 4 int, #2DC PHI) and 1st Tm BE CB Jerome Murphy (13 st, 77 tkl, 4 int, 8 pbu, #3DC STL) but have 3 back with 6+ sts. The 6 CB's in the 3 deep did only account for 2 int and 3 pbu.

SPECIAL TEAMS - HC Jim Leavitt has had some top-notch ST units as they were #17 in my ST rankings in '01, #14 in '02 and #9 in '03. Surprisingly the last 6 years they dropped to #58, #55, #97, #78 and #56 and in '09 plummeted to #102. They lost starting K Bonani prior to '09 and Delbert Alvarado (1-5 FG's) was replaced by Eric Schwartz (11-16 long 50). The duo had just 4 TB on 67 KO and Alvarado's net punting dropped from 36.4 to 34.6. KR Dontavia Bogan also saw his avg drop (26.6 to 21.4). Not listed below are LS's Corey Schomp (6'2" 240 So) and Nick Pisasik (5'10" 235 So). This year they lose K/P Alvarado but can only move up in the ST rankings.

COACHES - Jim Leavitt had a 95-57 record in 13 years at USF and was 68-40 the last 9 years in IA. Leavitt turned down opportunities to leave USF in recent years, and was released in January after allegations of an altercation with a player. USF grabbed proven EC HC Skip Holtz. Holtz has been very successful at EC (38-27) including B2B CUSA Titles finishing 9-5 in each of the last 2 years. He will face his former team Connecticut (HC '94-'98) yearly now. OC Todd Fitch followed Holtz from EC (Co-OC there L3Y). The new DC is Mark Snyder who was the HC of Marshall the last 5 years (23-37 record). He was Ohio St's LB coach from '01-'03 and their DC in '04.

PHIL'S FORECAST

On Sept 6, 1996, 75 players assembled for the 1st practice ever as the Bulls established their football program and in 1997 they played their first game. Jim Leavitt did a solid job building this team as they went 8-3 in their first year of IA ball in '01. In '02 they were an outstanding 9-2 with their only losses to Ark and Okla on the road. In '03 they joined CUSA and went 5-3 in conf play, but won three double OT games (-44.6 ypg). In 2004 I called for them to have their first losing record since 1997. The D yielded a school worst 31.9 ppg and they finished 4-7. In '05 they joined the Big East and lost a conf high 28 lettermen and were picked 7th in the BE poll. After being -10 in TO's in '04 they improved to +5 and earned a bowl bid at 6-5 (tied 3rd BE). USF had just a 13-17 record vs IA teams from '03-'05. In '06 they had their youngest team since Leavitt's first year and he said every spot was up for grabs except for LB and CB. In the season finale they won at WV which cost WV the BE Title and a BCS bowl and then beat EC 24-7 in the bowl. They finished 9-4 despite QB Grothe having an injury plagued season. In '07 they had both WV and L'ville at home and I called them a darkhorse National Title contender. They upset #17 Auburn on the road in OT and beat #5 WV at home and climbed to 6-0 and #2. USF was the talk of the national media and they were favored in every remaining game. Unfortunately they dropped 3 straight. After rebounding to win their final 3, they complained of chilly practice conditions prior to the Sun Bowl and were destroyed by Oregon 56-21. USF tied for 2nd in the BE (4-3) and was #2 in ypg (+45.7). The Bulls were +9 in TO's in '07 but had 17 ret starters in '08 and received their first ever AP preseason ranking at #19. Things started out great as they knocked off #13 Kansas at home and rose to #10 after their blowout of NCSt, 41-10. They hosted Pitt on a Thurs night and were stunned 26-21 and surprisingly went just 2-4 in their last 6. While they were 2-5 in the Big East, they were +23.6 ypg and they beat Memphis in the bowl 41-14. That '08 squad was -8 in TO's and had basically underachieved as they lost more games as a favorite than any other team in the NCAA the previous few years. USF opened '09 with a cream puff non-conf schedule knocking off 3 teams that had been in 1AA the previous year but lost QB Grothe to injury. BJ Daniels had a great first start at Florida St in a 17-7 win and when USF whipped Syracuse, they moved to #21 (5-0). They had a big HG vs Cincy and led 7-3 and were driving for a 2nd TD but UC got an 83 yd IR to set up a TD that turned the game around. After that loss, they were whipped by Pitt (41-14). They rebounded to beat WV at home on a Friday night. They talked about gaining revenge on Rutgers who beat them 49-16 at home in '08 but were embarrassed 31-0. After rolling over L'ville to move to 7-3, they were pumped up for a visit from big brother Miami, Fl but lost by 21. They played better than expected in the cold at Conn and led 27-26 with :40 left but gave up a FG on the final play and lost. Once again they had an impressive bowl win (27-3 over NIll). USF was just 3-4 in Big East play (-25.9 ypg). Coach Leavitt was let go and Skip Holtz (led EC to L/2 CUSA Titles) takes over. It's a great mix as Holtz gets the most out of his talent and USF has had the fastest team in the BE the last few years. He inherits 15 ret st'rs. Skip Holtz won conf titles with less talent and will have the Bulls a Big East contender in his first year.

Sep. 4	Stony Brook	G					First meeting. The Seawolves were 6-5 LY and co-champs of the Big South Conf. USF will be the 1st FBS opp Stony Brook will play in its history (FB program started in 1969).
Sep. 11	at Florida	G					First meeting. USF is 10-2 vs instate schools with the avg score 29-16. The Bulls have won 4 straight road openers including the 26-23 OT upset of #17 Auburn in 2007.
Sep. 18							After the Florida St win last year, USF put up a billboard that read "Welcome to the club (Florida, Miami, Florida St)".
Sep. 25	WKU	G					The Bulls are 3-2 vs the Hilltoppers but have won the L/3 meetings (S'99). Last year USF only led 21-13 after 3Q but scored two 4Q TD's (WKU was SOD at the USF13).
Oct. 2	Florida Atlantic	G					USF is 2-0 vs Florida Atlantic outgaining the Owls by 120 ypg (L/meeting in '07). In the last meeting the #6 Bulls led only 21-17 into the 4Q but won the game 35-23.
Oct. 9	Syracuse	G					The Bulls have won every meeting (5-0) with the Orange by at least 14 pts but last year were outgained taking advantage of 7 SU TO's that resulted in 27 of their 34 pts.
Oct. 14	at West Virginia (Thur)	A					LY USF lost despite QB Daniels having 336 ttl yds which was 13 more than the entire WV tm. Skip Holtz was 1-2 vs WV as the HC at E Carolina as every game was decided by DD's.
Oct. 22	at Cincinnati (Fri)	A					USF is 0-3 at Nippert Stadium dropping gms by 22, 17 & 14 pts. USF has been upset by UC in 3 of the L/4 yrs. Coming into 2010, USF is 6-12 in Big East road games.
Oct. 30
Nov. 3	Rutgers (Wed)	G					The Bulls beat the Scarlet Knights in their 1st meeting in '05 and since have dropped 4 straight. LY vs Rutgers, USF was shutout for the 1st time ever in its 13 yr history.
Nov. 13	at Louisville	A					Visitor has dropped every gm (0-7) by 20 ppg. LY vs UL QB Daniels became the 1st BE player ever to pass for 300+ & rush for 100+ in a single gm (just 28th time in FBS history).
Nov. 20	Pittsburgh	G					Coming into 2010, the Bulls are 11-6 in Big East home gms. The L/2 gms vs Pitt at Raymond James Stadium have ended in upsets (In '08 USF was 5-0 & ranked #10 coming in).
Nov. 27	at Miami, Fl	G					USF is 0-2 vs Miami being outscored 58-17 & outgained 752-394, both gms were vs ranked UM squads (#19 & #6). LY USF trailed 21-3 at HT with just 6 FD's and 98 yds.
Dec. 4	Connecticut	G					Skip Holtz was the HC at Connecticut from 1994-'98 compiling a 34-23 record prior to their move to the FBS. The home team is 6-0 since 2001 in this series.

CONNECTICUT HUSKIES

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - The Huskies have struggled passing the football ever since Dan Orlovsky (#5DC) departed after the 2004 season in which the Huskies averaged 281 ypg passing (63%). In 2005 the numbers dropped to 149 ypg (51%) and to 141 (51%) in '06. In 2007 they did improve to 186 ypg (56%) thanks to PS#10JC Tyler Lorenzen. In '08 Lorenzen ret'd but was injured. He threw for just 869 (49%). Notre Dame VHT transfer Zach Frazer (PS#7) took over but was injured after throwing for 536 (55%) and Cody Endres (PS#186) threw for 411 (46%). Overall the team's dropped to 140 ypg (49.8%). They brought in a new OC last year who promised more passing and Lorenzen was the only loss. Frazer was the clear-cut starter but struggled early then got injured. Endres took over and even when Frazer was back and healthy, Endres remained the starter throwing for 1,354 (63.6%, 6-4). Endres was lost vs Rutgers and Frazier had a 7-2 ratio the last 5 to reclaim the job (1,461, 53.2%, 10-9). Heading into the fall, the 3rd & 4th string QB's were rFr Casey Turner (PS#87) and Johnny McEntee (6'3" 216 So). True frosh Michael Box (PS#101) passed both up and was the #3 QB but when Endres was lost 8 games in, the staff opted to RS him. UC had their best passing total since 2004 avg 217 ypg (57.1%). Adding depth this year are Box (6'3" 194 rFr) and Leon Kinnard (IFS). This year the unit returns intact and is in the 2nd year of the new system, so they should show continued improvement.

RUNNING BACKS - In 2006 Donald Brown (PS#103) won the starting job over the final 5 and led with 896 (5.6). In '07 he was joined by Andre Dixon (PS#130) who was susp'd the first 2 but tallied four 100 yd gm (2nd Tm BE) and led with 828 (5.0). Brown was banged up and finished with 821 (4.8). In '08 Dixon injured his ankle and Brown had 4 TD's in the opener and never looked back. Week 5 was the first week he did not top 100 in the 1H! Brown was the BE OPOY and was a 2nd Tm AA finishing #1 in the NCAA with 2,083 (5.7) and 18 TD's (21 rec). Dixon only played in 10 (37, 4.1). True frosh Jordan Todman (PS#124) was #2 with 296 (6.3) and rFr Robbie Frey (PS#150) added 71 (3.7). Last year they had to replace Brown (#1DC) but Dixon finally got out of the coaches' doghouse. Dixon was the bowl MVP and he and Todman became the first duo in UC history to rush for 1,000+ yds in a single season. Todman led with 1,188 (5.1) while Dixon had 1,093 (4.6). Frey played in 8 with 69 (13.8). FB Anthony Sherman was the #2 rec in '08 with 270 (10.4) but in the new offense had just 74 total yards. This year they lose Dixon and not listed below are Jonathan Jean-Louis (6'0" 200 Sr, PS#180), Martin Hyppolite (6'0" 210 rFr, PS#221), Kelmetrus Wylie (5'10" 223 Jr "Meme") and FB Bret Manning (5'11" 255 Sr). With Brown in '08 the top 2 rushers combined for 2,379 (5.7) and last year their top 2 combined for 2,281 (4.8), just a slight drop. While the numbers will still be strong, I expect another slight drop.

RECEIVERS - UC has not had a 1,000 yard receiver since Carl Bond and John Fitzsimmons in 1998. The unit was generally regarded as a weakness from 2005-'08. Their leading receiver in '08 was Kashif Moore who had just 273 (10.1) with their FB #2. Last year they had to replace 3 of their top 4 rec's. The school paper said that Michael Smith, Moore and Marcus Easley were not Div IA rec's which they took exception to. They did play 10 different WR's in the first 4. True frosh Dwayne Difton (PS#64) played immediately but was slow to pick up the system (8 rec). Easley did not catch a pass in the first 3 and had just 5 in his career heading in but the 6'2" 219 WR with 4.4 speed finally lived up to his potential and put together 3 straight 100 yd gm, the first WR here to have B2B 100+ gm since 1999. Easley finished with 893 and an impressive 18.6 ypc including some spectacular catches (8 TD). Kashif Moore (PS#157) had 370 (16.8), Brad Kanuch (PS#99) was #3 with 325 (12.0), Isiah Moore was #4 with 286 (11.9) and rFr TE Ryan Griffin had 272 (11.8). This year they lose their star, Easley (#4DC BUF, 7 st), as well as Kanuch (7 st). This year's unit is more exp than '09 but will anyone have the same type of season that Easley had?

C Moe Petrus

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '07 with a veteran unit, UC surprisingly only avg 161 ypg rush and their 3.9 ypc was their lowest since 2002 (30 sk). In '08 they had six back with 8+ career starts but one was inj in the opener (3 st'rs back). With the emergence of Donald Brown, UC set a school FBS record with 216 ypg rush (5.1) while allowing just 15 sacks (4.6%). Last year they had to replace a #2DC LT and a 2 year starting C. The unit did a fine job producing a pair of 1,000 yard rushers although the numbers dropped some to 171 ypg (4.2) with 21 sacks (5.6%). This year they lose 2nd Tm BE RT Mike Hicks (13 st, 4Y st'r), LT Dan Ryan (5 st) and 2nd string G Alex LaMagdelaine (3 gm). Five return who started 5+ in '09 which includes 1st Tm BE C Moe Petrus and 1st Tm BE G Zach Hurd. This could be the Huskies' best O-line in their FBS history (since 2000).

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Huskies' D-line has performed as expected with veteran units in 2005 and '08 allowing just 3.4 ypc rush and the less exp'd units in '06 and '07 allowed 4.5 and 4.4 ypc. Last year they had to replace 3 players who combined for 34 starts and 18 of the DL's 28 sacks. As expected, they allowed 133 ypg rush (3.8) but did have 33 sacks. Their star, Lindsey Witten earned 1st Tm BE (11.5 sk). This year they lose Witten (13 st, 45 tkl), DT Brandon Dillon (7 tkl) and DE Mike Cox (10 tkl) but add LB Greg Lloyd so it is like having 4 starters back. Even with the loss of their top DL, this unit falls into the experienced D-line category.

LINEBACKERS - UC had basically one LB starter back in '05, '06, and '07. In 2008 they had to replace their #1 tackler but had 2 starters back (#2, #3 tkl'rs). Last year they had their most exp'd LB corps of the decade (all 3 st back) but unfortunately SLB Scott Lutrus, who was called the heart and soul of the defense, missed 5 gm (shoulder). His replacement Kijuan Dabney was injured in his first start. This year they lose Greg Robinson (2 tkl) and MLB Lloyd moves to DL so they basically have 2 starters back (3 w/st exp) plus add true frosh Michael Osiecki (PS#103, IFS). Lawrence Wilson earned 1st Tm BE and he and Lutrus make a fine combo at LB.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In 2007 they only had to replace one starter and with a 12-23 ratio moved up to #25 in my PDR. In '08 they only had to replace one player (#4DC) and UC improved to #16 (9-18 ratio). Last year they had to replace a #2DC and the starting SS then at midyear they suffered the tragic loss of Jasper Howard (6 st, 35 tkl, 3 pbu). As you would expect, the Huskies' pass D plummeted to #93. This year they lose 2nd Tm BE CB Robert McClain (#7DC CAR, 13 st, 64 tkl, 4 int, 6 pbu), 2nd Tm BE FS Robert Vaughn (13 st, 63 tkl, 5 int, 3 pbu) and Aaron Bagsby (1 st, 19 tkl). They lose their top 3 DB's but Dabney slides in from LB (1 st) and they could move up in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Conn has been up and down in this area finishing #115 in my ST rankings in '03 and then #70, #36, #96, #30. Surprisingly in '08 they had their K and P back but both performances dropped off and they fell to #103. LY they had to replace one of their K's and their top KR. Jasper Howard was the top PR (9.1) when his life was tragically cut short. Robert McClain led in PR's (12.6) and Robbie Frey in KR's (29.5). Jordan Todman (25.3) and Mike Lang (30.5) joined Frey and each had a KR TD. Desi Cullen improved his net to 37.6 and also had 12 TB on 74 KO. Dave Teggart (PS#46) hit 13-15 FG's (L/47) in '08 but LY had 2 key misses vs WV and finished 14-23 (L/47). This year they lose P Cullen and PR McClain. With improved kicking, they could match last year's #28 finish.

COACHES - Randy Edsall was the JAX Jags' DB cch from '94-'97 and the Georgia Tech DC in '98 and has been Conn's HC for the past 11 years. You have to figure if Edsall was going to leave it would have been in '08 when there was an opening at his alma mater (Syr) but he opted to stay. He was again mentioned in various openings this offseason including Kansas and ND. Joe Moorhead returns for his 2nd yr as OC and was an asst at Akron the previous 5 seasons (OC L/2). The DC is Todd Orlando (6th year, 12th as LB cch). Hank Hughes is the asst HC for the defense (DL cch 9 yr).

PHIL'S FORECAST

UC had just 11 ret st'rs in '05 (24 lett lost). They had a soft non-conf schedule and four HG in Big East play but suffered their first losing season in four years. Their six senior st'rs were the 6th lowest in IA. In 2006 they opened at 2-1. Despite having the second most returning st'rs in the Big East (14), they were -106 ypg in BE play (1-6) with their lone BE win being a miracle comeback against Pitt (2OT). In 2007 they again had 14 st'rs back and added a brand-new training center. UC had a highly successful season thanks in part to being +14 in TO's. After knocking off #11 USF they got their first ever appearance in the AP poll at #16 which was the highest debut for a team since FSU entered at #10 in 1964 (AP only ranked 10 teams then). With the Big East Title on the line, they were throttled by #4 WV 66-21 and ended up as Big East co-champs with a 5-2 record but amazingly were -83.2 ypg in league play. They were 7-0 at home in Rentschler Field in '07 but had four Big East road games in '08. After having a lot go in their favor in '07, I noted in 2008's magazine that with 16 st'rs back, Conn was a stronger team than the prior year's version but would not match '07's nine win total. They did have some fortunate wins in '08 like an OT win vs Temple, a late score to get past Baylor and were outgained by L'ville 508-279 but won all 3. When they beat Buffalo in the bowl game 38-20, they finished 8-5. Although they did drop in the Big East standings from 5-2 to 3-4, they had a better ypg in conf play (+15.4). Last year they lost their top RB Brown and top defensive player CB Butler then during the year had to deal with the emotional loss of CB Jasper Howard. They had just 12 ret st'rs but outperformed my expectations. After an expected win over Ohio they were leading NC 10-0 but lost QB Frazer to injury and lost on a safety with 1:32 left. Baylor was off a bye and at home but Conn had a pair of 100 yard rushers and beat them with a 382-266 yard edge. At 3-1 they were outgained by Pitt 489-303 but still led 21-6 late 3Q coming up 3 pts short. After beating L'ville, they gave up a 56 yard TD run to WV with 2:10 left and lost by 4. They rallied to take the lead vs Rutgers (week after Howard's funeral) but gave up an 81 yard TD pass with :22 left and lost. They allowed 711 yards to Cincy but came within a 2 pt conv of tying the game. They upset ND in South Bend in OT which Edsall called the biggest win in school history. There was no let down the next week when they beat Syr 56-31 although they did get 2 late TD's. They got a FG on the last play to beat USF in the snow. They dominated their bowl vs SC to match 2008's 8 win total. Conn had 5 close losses (also 3 close wins). They have 16 ret st'rs this year and last year had a 3-4 record in the Big East, and were -35.9 ypg (3rd worst). Connecticut had their most successful three year run in school history from 2007-'09 (25 wins). The Huskies should get to their 4th straight bowl and this could be Edsall's best team yet. UC has never finished a season ranked but have a shot this year. My 9 sets of power ratings have them going anywhere from 6-6 to 12-0 (yes, I said 12-0!).

RUTGERS SCARLET KNIGHTS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Ryan Hart departed as the Knights' all-time career leading passer (32 straight sts). In his final year ('05) he threw for 2,135 (61%, 18-8). Mike Teel, who has a stronger arm than Hart, threw for 683 (51%) with a poor 2-10 ratio in 3 sts in '05. Teel was 23-0 as a high school starter and finished his college career 29-13. Teel was maligned in '06 throwing for 2,135 (55%, 12-13). Jabu Lovelace (PS#63) only played in 3 (1 pass). Mich St transfer Domenic Natale (2 gm '05) sat out '06 and missed '07. Teel was a pocket passer (longest rush 20 yd). Teel threw for 3,147 (58%, 20-13) in '07. Lovelace threw for 69 (7 of 23). In '08 they added true frosh DC Jefferson (PS#20) and Steve Shimko (PS#74). In the first 7 Teel had a poor 3-7 ratio but had a great 2H. In the final 6 he threw for 343 ypg (69%). Lovelace broke his leg early while Natale played in 5 (8 pass att, 6 rush). Last year they had to replace their new all-time leading passer, Teel (#6DC). Natale (PS#29) won the starting job but had 3 int's in the 1H of the opener and true frosh Tom Savage (PS#9) took over. Savage became just the 5th true frosh QB to start here (1st to win BE gm). Savage did suffer a concussion vs FIU and Natale led them in the road win vs MD but hit just 4-12-42 yds in the rain. Savage started the rest of the year and showed good poise. He set Big East freshman records for pass yds and TD's (2,211, 52.3%, 14-7). Natale played in 5 (213 yds). They used the Wildcat often with WR Mohamed Sanu who hit just 1-7 (TD) but was a dangerous runner. This year they lose Natale and Lovelace (4 pass) but Savage goes from the least exp'd QB in the Big East to one of the most exp'd!

RUNNING BACKS - From 2002-'04 Rutgers avg just 91 ypg rush (2.5) but in '05 true frosh Ray Rice became the 2nd 1,000 yard rusher here in 30 yrs (Terrell Willis '93 & '94) with 1,120 (5.7). In '06 he set RU and Big East records with 1,794 (5.4) and reset the records a year later with 2,012 (5.3). His top backup was little-used Mason Robinson who had 202 (5.6). RB was my biggest team question mark in '08. The coaching staff was very high on Kordell Young (5'9" 190 Sr, PS#78) and he had 94 vs Fresno but then missed 4 (inj). He started 8 and led with 554 (3.9). Jourdan Brooks (6'1" 230) gave them a big back (516, 5.2). RFr Joe Martinek (PS#49) emerged and had 404 (5.3) while Robinson (PS#59) added 139 (3.4). Last year everyone ret'd but Young was again injured (28 yds). Joe Martinek does his best work in the 4Q and led with 967 (4.7). Brooks rushed for 124 vs Howard (7.3) but had trouble on short yardage even at 230 lbs and had 282 (4.7). Schiano offered a scholarship to De'Antwan Williams (PS#35) over Pitt Fr AA Dion Lewis. Williams showed potential with 89 (6.4) vs Howard but surprisingly played in just 6 (235, 5.3). This year they lose FB Jack Corcoran (10 st, 5 rec) and Brooks. Not listed in the PSL are Tyrone Putman (5'10" 190 Jr) and FB's Junior Solice (6'3" 230 rFr, PS#365), Robert Joseph (6'2" 230 rFr, PS#132), David Presby (6'0" 225 So) and Nick DePaola (6'0" 195 rFr). RU RB's did most of their damage in non-conf games and should have a more productive season.

WR Mohamed Sanu

RECEIVERS - In 2005 Tres Moses left as the school's all-time leading receiver. It took Kenny Britt just 3 years to top his numbers and in '08 Britt led with a RU rec 1,371 (15.8) while Tiquan Underwood added 494 (12.4) one year after having 1,100 (16.9). They were #1 and #7 DC's last year. Tim Brown (5'8") had 565 with a team high 20.9 ypc. Brown was the go-to man in '09 and became just the 4th RU player with 1,000+ rec yd (1,150, 20.9!). True frosh Mohamed Sanu (PS#111, miss Sr yr HS or higher PS#) was #2 with 639 (12.5) and was also the #2 rusher (346, 5.6). No #3WR emerged. TE Shamar Graves was #3 (159, 11.4), #4 was RB Martinek and #5 was ex-QB, TE DC Jefferson (108, 21.6). Mark Harrison (4.38 spd) played in just 8 (inj). This year they lose Brown (13 st) and Graves (4 st) but I look for Harrison and Tim Wright (PS#101) to emerge. Not listed below are Jamal Merrell (6'4" 200 rFr, PS#118), Eddie Poole (6'3" 185 So PS#326), Carl Harris (6'0" 190 So) and TE's Paul Carrezola (6'2" 250 rFr, PS#18), Malcolm Bush (6'4" 230 rFr, PS#20), Beau Bachety (6'4" 235 So) and Fabian Ruiz (6'4" 245 Jr, PS#83). Despite the loss of the electrifying Brown, this unit is equal in exp to '09.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '06 RU (2 st'rs lost) rushed for 180 ypg (4.7) while allowing only 8 sks (#1 in IA, 2.7%). In '07, they had to replace 2 st'rs (#5DC and a Rimington finalist). True frosh Anthony Davis (PS#7) started the final 8. The Knights improved to 198 ypg (4.8) with 11 sks (2.9%). In '08 they had to replace 3 st'rs. They had 28 car sts (10th lowest FBS) and I noted that after 3 years of improving their ypc, they would take a step back. They dropped to 128 ypg (3.9) with 19 sks (4.6%). True frosh Art Forst (PS#25) started 8 at RG. Last year their OL coach Kyle Flood said that the '09 OL (86 car sts) could be his best unit yet. While the talent was there they dropped to 134 ypg (3.6) with 40 sks (12.2%). This year they lose 2nd Tm AA LT Davis (12 st, 3Y st'r, #1DC SF), RT Kevin Haslam (13 st, 3Y st'r) and C Ryan Blaszczyk (13 st, 3Y st'r). Forst made 1st Tm BE. Not in the PSL are David Osei (6'4" 260 rFr, PS#330) and Joseph DeNovellis (6'2" 285 rFr). Even though they have just 2 st'rs back (48 car sts, less exp) they could improve on '09's numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2001 the Knights allowed 5.4 ypc rush (worst 10 yr) but they showed improvement the next 5 yrs allowing 4.7, 4.2, 4.3, 3.3 and just 2.9 ypc in 06. An inexp'd group in '07 yielded 157 ypg (4.0) but with 3 st'rs back in '08, they improved to 136 ypg (3.8) although the sacks dropped from 41 to 29. Last year they had to replace 2 starters. RFr Scott Vallone is lightning quick for his size and backup DE Jonathan Freeny led in sacks with 9.5. The Knights improved allowing 103 ypg (3.0) with 40 sks. This year they lose 3rd Tm BE DE George Johnson (13 st, 44 tkl, 6.5 sk) and DT Blair Bines (9 tkl). Schiano likes to rotate his DL to keep them fresh and 6 of the top 8 are back. Adding depth are Michael Larrow (6'4" 250 rFr, PS#105) and Clem Udovich (also LS). Three starters return as does Freeny making this a more exp'd unit.

LINEBACKERS - Last year the Knights had to replace their #1 tackler but had 5 of the top 6 back. This year the Knights lose MLB Ryan D'Imperio (13 st, #3 tkl'r, 8 tfl, #7DC MIN) and SLB Damaso Munoz (12 st, #1 tkl'r, 8.5 tfl). The D did allow just 17.9 ppg. Manny Abreu (PS#15) had 7 sts in '08 (18 tkl '09). This group is less exp'd but still looks strong.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Rutgers had inexp'd DB's in both '04 and '05 (#104, #111 PDR). With exp'd units in '06 and '07 they moved up to #42 and #32. Surprisingly in '08 with just 1 starter lost, they dropped to #106. Last year they had to replace 2 starters (#6, #7DC). The team's MVP was shutdown CB Devin McCourty (also ST demon). Even with just 2 st'rs back, RU climbed to #51 (56% 13-15). This year they lose 1st Tm BE McCourty (13 st, #2 tkl, 1 int, 10 pbu, #1DC NE), FS Zaire Kitchen (13 st, 65 tkl, 5 pbu) and CB Billy Anderson (22 tkl). They add rFr Darrell Givens (PS#29) who orig signed with Penn St and PS#65 Duron Harmon (9 tkl true) and not listed below is Jawann Westerman (5'11" 170 Jr). With the loss of their top guy, they may drop a few notches.

SPECIAL TEAMS - RU was #40 in my ST rankings in '04 and #21 in both '05 and '06 but dropped to #103 in '07. In '08 they rose to #57. Last year they had to replace their top KR and PR. K San San Te (12-17, long 50 '08) hit just 18-28 (long 49, 2 miss 50+). Teddy Dellaganna who avg 41.2 (34.3 net in '08) improved to 42.3 (net 36.9). The ST units were poor early but Devin McCourty (7 car blk kick) emerged. McCourty avg 25.4 on KR's and Joe Lefeged avg 32.4. Steve Beauharnais blocked a punt and rec for a TD vs Army. Despite the slow start, RU finished #25 and while McCourty and LS Andrew DePaola are big losses, they could finish just as high.

COACHES - New Jersey native Greg Schiano enters his 10th year as HC here (Miami, FL DC in 2000, NFL cch CHI '96-'98). Despite a 3-20 record (0-14 BE) following '02, he received a contract ext through '07. RU earned their first ever Top 10 ranking in '06 and Schiano was named the FWAA's COY. If Schiano was going to leave RU, it would have been in '06 when Miami offered him $2.2 mill/yr, but he signed an ext here through '16 (turned down Mich '07). Schiano took over the DC duties himself in '05 but last year he handed over the def play calling to Co-DC's Bob Fraser (LB coach) and Ed Pinkham (DB coach). OC John McNulty left for Ariz (NFL) in '09 and Schiano appointed co-OC's in Kyle Flood (OL cch) and Kirk Ciarrocca (QB cch) who worked together for 3 yrs at Delaware ('02-'04).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Coming into 2006, Rutgers had just 5 winning seasons the previous 24 years despite the fact that they are the only FBS college football team located in the highly populated NY/New Jersey area. HC Greg Schiano endured a 25 game Big East losing streak. In '05 I called for Rutgers to achieve their 2nd ever bowl game. They were +70.4 ypg in BE. They went 7-4 but blew a 24-10 lead in the bowl vs Ariz St. In '06 RU was picked #4 by the BE media, its first ever upper half prediction. They were ranked in the AP for the first time in 30 yrs at 4-0 and after beating L'ville, rose to #7 with talk of a possible BCS Title Game. They suffered a letdown (1 of 4 unbeatens) vs Cincy. They still could have won the Big East with a win at WV but lost in 3OT's going from a possible BCS bowl down to the Texas Bowl. Schiano did a great job and they bagged their first bowl win in their 137 year history and finished #12. Their 11 wins tied the 1976 team's record. The D allowed just 14.3 ppg (best S/'80) and the off avg 29.8 ppg (best S/'93). RU doubled season ticket sales heading into '07 and made the preseason AP (#16) for the first time. RU opened 3-0 and moved into the Top 10 (2nd time school hist) but lost to Maryland. They were 7-5 but destroyed Ball St 52-30 in the bowl. Rutgers became the first team in NCAA history to have a 3,000 yd passer, 2,000 yd rusher and two 1,000 yard rec in the same season. Rutgers finished in a 3-way tie for 2nd last in the BE at 3-4. RB Ray Rice opted to leave for the NFL. In '08 I said they had a shot at matching '07's 8 win total. That forecast looked dead wrong as the Knights opened 1-5, fans were booing at home and recruits were changing commitments. Rutgers, which averaged 13.2 ppg vs FBS teams after the first 7, scored 43.3 over the last 6. Rutgers was the first BCS team to go from 1-5 to a bowl since '03 (7th FBS history). While they finished in a 3-way tie for 1st place in the BE at 5-2, RU was a BE best +62.4 ypg ending on a 7 gm win streak. They did have just six starts lost to injury in '08 and had just 12 ret st'rs but faced one of the easiest FBS schedules and had all of their main BE Title contenders at home. Last year RU started off with an embarrassing game vs Cincy (47-15) in their newly expanded stadium. They did manage a road win at Maryland 34-13 and moved to 4-1 the week after. Pitt got their first win over Rutgers in 5 years (Fri night HG). The Knights won their next 3 and moved to 7-2 but shockingly Syr (only 58 players available) outcoached and outplayed Rutgers (424-130 yd) in an embarrassing 31-13 loss. After a win over L'ville, RU came up just short at home vs WV. They buried UCF in the St Petersburg Bowl and finished 9-4. RU was an amazing +20 in TO's and also had an offensive ypp of 11.3 (pg 299). They had just 4 sts lost to inj all year and despite their 3-4 BE record, they were -82.7 ypg in conf play (2nd worst). This year they again have just 12 ret st'rs and have just 3 BE HG's. I will admit the Knights let me down in '09 and with the loss of 5 of their top 6 tkl'rs and a tougher schedule, I do not see them matching last year's 9 win total.

SYRACUSE ORANGE

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Since Donovan McNabb departed, this team has been plagued by erratic QB play. In former HC Greg Robinson's 4 yrs the team completed just 46, 52, 53 and 47%. Cameron Dantley, who threw for 1,298 (48%, 11-5) in '08, returned LY. Andrew Robinson (11 st '07, 1 in '08) moved to TE. RFr Ryan Nassib (PS#93) was the projected starter out of spring. After my magazine went to press, the Orange brought in Duke basketball player Greg Paulus. Paulus was PS#4 in '04 and had not played football in 4 yrs but started all 12 and did well despite a weak rec corps. Paulus set the school record for comp % in a season (Bill Scharr, 63.3 in 1989) with 67.7% and also set the school rec for comp's (RJ Anderson, 186 in '03) with 193. Paulus threw for 2,024 but did have a 13-14 ratio. Ryan Nassib, who is more mobile and has a stronger arm threw for 422 (52.9%, 3-1) in 9 gms and was used in the "Stallion" (Wildcat) formation as he runs the zone read well. This year they lose Paulus and Dantley (DNP) and added to the mix are Marrone recruits rFr Charley Loeb (PS#135), James Jarrett and this year's true frosh. I look for the Orange to improve upon their 16-15 ratio of 2009.

RUNNING BACKS - Delone Carter (PS#98) is powerful and explosive and led with 713 (4.6) in '06 as a true frosh. Curtis Brinkley (PS#42) added 571 (4.1). In '07 Carter suffered a freak hip injury (Bo Jackson type) and RS. Brinkley started 8 despite never being fully healthy and led with 371 (3.3). In '08 while neither Brinkley or Carter were 100%, Brinkley rushed for 100+ in 5 consec gms breaking the SU record. That is very striking considering SU has had some outstanding runners including Larry Csonka, Jim Nance, Joe Morris and 3 who wore the famed #44 in Ernie Davis, Floyd Little and the great Jim Brown. Brinkley led with 1,164 (4.9) and Doug Hogue was #2 (232, 6.6). True frosh Antwon Bailey (PS#86) had 126 vs ND but had just 221 (6.7) on the season. Carter (hamstring) played in just 5 (137, 6.0). Last year they had to replace their 1,000 yd rusher and FB Tony Fiammetta (#4DC). Marrone called it the team's deepest unit as they added rFr Averin Collier (PS#25) and Mike Jones (PS#117) so they moved Hogue to LB. Carter became just the 9th RB in SU history to reach 1,000 (1,021, 4.3) despite the constant shuffling of the OL. Bailey was #2 with 312 (4.7) and was the #5 rec. Surprisingly Collier had just 82 (6.8). Not in the PSL are FB's Carl Cutler (6'2" 234 So, PS#223, 2 st TE LY, tore ACL in spg '10), Robert Nieves (6'0" 214 Sr) and Thomas Trendowski (6'2" 225 Jr). Mike Jones (1 st, 61, 7.6) left the team in spring, but everyone else is back, and this should be one of the better RB corps in the Big East.

RECEIVERS - SU has produced many famous rec's including TE John Mackey and WR Marvin Harrison. True frosh Mike Williams (PS#97) led an inexp'd group in '06 with 461 (19.2). In '07 Williams set a school rec with a TD in 9 straight gms (837, 13.9) while his 60 rec tied Kevin Johnson's school rec. In '08 they had to replace their #2, #3 and #4 rec's and then Williams was susp and RS! The lightly exp'd group was led by Donte Davis, who had just 312 (10.8) and TE Mike Owen (175, 9.2). Lavar Lobdell (PS#38) had 165 (12.7) and Marcus Sales had 160 (11.4). It's highly unusual for the top 4 rec's to combine for just 812 yds (10.8) but all four were back in '09. They got speedy 6'2" Williams back and he was a Biletnikoff semifinalist (top 10). He had 746 (15.2) in just 7 gms but after a susp, he quit. Sales started 5 and was #2 (324, 11.6) and true frosh Alec Lemon (PS#116) who beat out Davis, started 6 and was #3 (295, 10.2). He had 9 rec for 140 yds in the finale. Davis had 257 (10.7). Marrone likes a TE/FB type but the unit suffered attrition and both Nick Provo and Cody Catalina were lost. They even tried LS Dalton Phillips but he too was injured. This year they lose Williams (#4DC TB), Lobdell (4 st, 10 rec), Owen (10 st, 12 rec) and Davis (4 st). They add two Hofstra transfers and remember, Williams was gone the 2H of '09. Not in the PSL are Michael Acchione (5'11" 168 Jr) and TE David Stevens (6'4" 220 So, PS#64) who moves over from DL.

C Ryan Bartholomew

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 Syracuse had the most athletic OL of Robinson's tenure and they made a big improvement from 63 rush ypg (2.0) in '07 to 149 ypg (4.6) with 29 sks (9.7%). Last year they had to replace a pair of 3 year starters. They shuffled the line to make it bigger for better run blocking but the numbers dropped to 127 ypg (3.6) with 27 sks (7.6%). Only one OL started all 12 and he started at 2 diff positions. This year they lose C Jim McKenzie (9 st, 3Y st'r), RG Tucker Baumbach (6 st, 2Y st'r), RT Jonathan Meldrum (9 st) and LT Nick Speller (9 st). They have 33 sts lost and just 27 returning from '09 (40 car sts). This unit is my biggest concern on the 2010 squad but they did add some JC's and are in the 2nd yr of Marrone's system and should be more stable.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Despite having a veteran D-line in '07, SU yielded 208 ypg rush (4.8), their worst ypg since 1986 and the D had an FBS fewest 9 sks but NT Arthur Jones still had an amazing 17.5 tfl's. In '08 they had to replace 5 who comb for 35 sts (168 tkl) but moved LB Vincenzo Giruzzi (7 st '08) to DE. SU "only" yielded 189 ypg (5.0) with 16 sks. Last year they had to replace 2 starters but the 2 ret st'rs were Jared Kimmel (inj 4 sts '09) and Arthur Jones (not 100%, 9 st with inj). Marrone did a phenomenal job as they somehow led the Big East in rush D (102 ypg, 3.0). Syracuse had 9 sks vs Rut when both Kimmel and Jones were out and 35 on the season! This year they lose 1st Tm BE NT Jones (9 st, 19 tkl, 1.5 sk, #5DC BAL) but have 7 of the top 8 back and add PS#149JC Deon Goggins. While it will be tough to improve upon '09's numbers, this is a deeper, more exp'd group.

LINEBACKERS - Last year the Orange had to replace their #1 tackler and then the #3 quit after spring along with a proj starter. Derrell Smith (#2 in '08) was then lost after 10 sts. It got so bad that Marrone lost a JC prospect, signed another penciling him in as a starter only to have him leave as well. The star LB Doug Hogue (#3 tkl'r, 9.5 sks, 6.5 tfl) moved from RB in spring '09. LB Coach Dan Conley compared Hogue to Keith Bulluck only more aggressive. True EJ Carter (PS#257) started 8 and Smith was #1 in the FBS in FF (4), #18 in sks and #36 in solo tkls when he was lost and he also called the signals. This year they only lose Mike Stenclik (2 st, 15 tkl). With the top 3 back they are one of the Big East's top LB units.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - With an exp'd secondary, SU finished #36 in my PDR in '05. The next 3 years they were inexp'd and finished #90, #117 and #107. LY they had to replace 3 players (comb 16 sts) and basically had 3 starters returning. Even with the more exp'd squad, SU finished #111 allowing 64.9% with a 24-9 ratio. This year they lose CB Nico Scott (5 st, 28 tkl), CB Grant Mayes (5 tkl) and S Randy McKinnon (14 tkl, 2 sk) but have 7 of the top 10 back including 5 who had 7+ sts last year. Not listed below is Ryan Ahern (6'2" 194 Sr). I'm not exactly going out on a limb, but I will call for SU to have their best finish in my PDR since '05.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Under Paul Pasqualoni, Syracuse had some fine finishes in my ST rankings including #2, #11, #8 (1995-'97) and #15 in '02. In Greg Robinson's 4 years the team finished #80, #45, #51 and #46 showing that even in down years SU does well in the ST rankings. Last year they had a K job that nobody wanted (3 quit). The job went to walk-on true frosh PS#47 Ryan Lichtenstein (61 yd FG HS) who hit 13-17 (L/44). P Rob Long had just 3 TB's on 55 KO's (23.3 KR D). Long did avg a solid 43.9 in '08 (37.4 net) and 43.8 last year but with depleted coverage units, the team net dropped to 36.1. They also suffered 2 blk punts vs Rutgers. They only had 145 PR yards (6.9). Long (semi for Ray Guy) returns however KR Mike Jones (24.1) departs. With better depth, the Orange should have a much improved ST unit (#93 LY).

COACHES - In 2009 Syr brought in just their 6th HC since 1949 in Doug Marrone, who was the OC with the NO Saints ('06-08) and an OL coach with the NYJ ('02-05). OC Rob Spence was fired after 1 season and Marrone will call his own plays in 2010. DC Scott Shafer was the DC at Michigan in '08, Stanford in '07 and W Michigan in '05 and '06. In '06 his WM defense led the FBS in int's and sacks.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Paul Pasqualoni only had one losing season in his 14 years. In his final season (2004) they faced the toughest schedule of any Big East team. They still won a share of the Big East Title (4-way tie) and went to a bowl. Orange fans were enthusiastic when Greg Robinson was brought in as the new HC. Any time you switch from an option based attack to the West Coast offense, you can expect a 3 to 4 year learning process (ask ND and Neb). SU fans craved more passing in the offense but Pasqualoni's "boring" run offense avg 349 ypg in '04 (3rd lowest in his 14Y, worst 322). In Robinson's 4 yrs the offense avg 258, 264, 292 and 270 ypg. In 2005 they had their first 10 loss season in school history. They went 3-25 in the Big East in Robinson's 4 years and they finished in the basement each year in record and ypg (-142, -158, -187, -141 ypg's). Doug Marrone came in and a lot of players headed to the door. I circle players that are either injured or leave the program on my magazine pages and amazingly SU had 30 circles by the end of the year and lost a few more prior to this spring. They brought in Duke basketball player Greg Paulus to be their starting QB and almost upset Minn in the opener (lost OT). After an expected loss to Penn St they upset N'wstrn and then beat Maine for a 2-2 start. After getting whipped by USF and WV they beat Akron 28-14 to move to 3-4. They only trailed Cincy 14-7 at the half. After getting whipped by Pitt they played 2 solid games. They had a 266-151 yard edge at L'ville but lost by 1. The next week they dominated Rutgers with a 424-130 yard edge in a 31-13 win in their FHG. The final score would indicate that they were blown out by Conn 56-31 but they actually had a 489-377 yard edge. UC got an 80 yd KR TD in the 1Q and scored 2 TD's in the final :47. Despite SU going 1-6 in the Big East they were actually +4.9 ypg in conf play which was the 3rd best. They have 15 ret starters (10 on def) this season and in '09 had 41 sts lost to inj or departure. Their def ypp was 12.1 (pg 299) and they were -6 in TO's. SU will only be around 76 scholarships this yr but that is an improvement over '09 when they had 58 dress for the Rutgers game. This is a much stronger team and will top last year's 4 win total giving them their best record since Pasqualoni was let go. Check page 19 to see if they made my Most Improved List.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score SU	Opp	W L
Sep. 4	at Akron	A					This will be the 3rd str meeting (1st in Akron). SU was upset 2Y ago being outgained by 125 yds but LY got revenge holding the Zips to 191 yds. SU held UA to 0 rush yds (fewest all'd S/'91).
Sep. 11	at Washington	A					Orange are 2-10 on the road vs non-conf opponents since 2004. In their last meeting ('07), SU was outgained by 237 yds in a 30 pt loss. The Orange are 1-2 vs the Huskies.
Sep. 18	Maine	A					The Black Bears finished 5-6 LY as members of the FCS CAA conf. Last year in their 1st meeting SU was down 4 at HT but scored 28 straight 2H pts. Maine is 3-5 vs FBS opp's.
Sep. 25	Colgate	A					Syracuse has faced Colgate 65 times (2nd most behind Penn St at 70). The Raiders were 9-2 last year and last played and beat an FBS team in '03 (38-15 vs Buffalo).
Oct. 2							BONUS: Orange are 1-7 in home openers the L8Y (7 vs current BCS schools).
Oct. 9	at USF	G					SU has lost all 5 meetings but LY actually outgained USF after being outgained by 245+ in the first 4. Orange have either tied or increased their pt production each yr vs the Bulls.
Oct. 16	Pittsburgh (HC)	A					These schools have played ever year since 1955. SU has dropped 7 of the L/8 but was 16-1-1 prior. Last time here SU had a 14-3 2Q and a 24-16 4Q lead but lost by 10.
Oct. 23	at West Virginia	A					SU has been outgained in 7 of 9Y by at least 108 yds vs WV (-198 ypg). Teams have played every yr S/'55 & SU is on a 8 gm losing streak (previously never lost more than 3 str).
Oct. 30	at Cincinnati	A					SU hasn't won in Cincinnati since 1994 (last/only). Coming into 2010, Syracuse has won one Big East road gm the L/5 years (1-16), including 9 straight losses by 18 ppg.
Nov. 6	Louisville	A					SU has outgained UL the L2Y (75 ypg) after being outgained the previous 3 (-157 ypg). LY SU allowed a 15 yd TD pass w/1:24 left & then was int at the UL32 with :24 left.
Nov. 13	at Rutgers	A					The winner the L4Y (each gm won by 18+ pts) has outgained the losing tm by at least 172 yds (+262 avg ypg). LY Syracuse tied a school record w/9 sks & held Rut to 130 yds.
Nov. 20	Connecticut	A					SU is 2-4 vs Connecticut w/the series beginning in 2004. LY SU did lose by DD's but had the yd edge as 2 fum resulted in 14 UC pts (also missed a 47 yd FG & were SOD at C39).
Nov. 27	Boston College	A					1st meeting since BC left the for the ACC ('04). SU won the L/2 meetings by 26 ppg (+107 ypg). Syracuse is 12-5 in Carrier Dome finales but has dropped 2 of the L3Y.

LOUISVILLE CARDINALS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - UL has had some excellent QB's in the last decade including Chris Redman, Dave Ragone, Stefan LeFors and Brian Brohm who all earned CUSA Off POY honors and were drafted by the NFL. Brohm left after '07 (#2DC) throwing for 4,024 (65.1%, 30-12) despite the team's 6-6 record. Hunter Cantwell was an NFL prospect who played well in 4 starts in his first 3 years (1,419 yds). Cantwell only threw for 2,493 (59%, 16-16) in '08. Last year his replacement QB's, Matt Simms (PS#20, Phil's son) and Tyler Wolfe both transferred after the spring and the unit had 0 career passes here returning. Justin Burke (PS#12) hit 2-3 at NCSt in '07 before transferring here in '08. Adam Froman who is 6'4" but the most mobile of the QB's suffered back and shoulder inj's in Aug, so Burke started the opener. Burke suffered a bruised sternum and played in just 5 (3 st) throwing for 654 (50.5%, 3-5 ratio). Froman rushed 16 times in his first start vs Pitt and vs Conn hit 16 straight passes (best S/Ragone's 18 '02). Froman was inj'd in the 3Q vs Cincy and Burke also left with injury so 5'10" walk-on Will Stein took over. Stein won his first start but then lost his first road start at WV. Froman regained the job and threw for 1,354 (60%, 6-5). Stein (4 gm) threw for 450 (55.1%). Combined the QB's hit just 56.4% with a 9-11 ratio. This year the unit is much more exp'd but they do have to learn a new offense. New coaches like their own recruits and Luke Woodley (PS#97) was IFS, so he has a shot as well.

QB Adam Froman

RUNNING BACKS - Bobby Petrino and his predecessor John L. Smith both believed in utilizing big, powerful RB's. In 2006, had Michael Bush not been injured, not only would he have been a #1DC but the Cards would have been playing in the National Title game. Instead he was lost (inj) after a dominating first game. Four RB's replaced him and Kolby Smith led with 862 (5.6). Kragthorpe inherited big backs but by his 2nd season most had either graduated, transferred or were dismissed. Victor Anderson (5'10" 190, PS#30) emerged in '08 and rushed for 1,047 (5.7). Brock Bolen (238 lbs) was #2 with 505 (4.1) and Bilal Powell had 354 (4.7). Last year Anderson and Powell ret'd. Anderson added 12 lbs of muscle (4.4 spd) but unfortunately he played in just 8 and was only 100% for a few. He still led with 473 (5.3). Darius Ashley was #2 with 462 (4.4). Powell had 29 carries (87 yd) vs Conn but was also banged up (392, 3.6). This yr they only lose FB Joe Tronzo (8 st, 33 yd) and Ashley moved to CB. Added to the mix are Blayne Donnell (5'8" 192 Sr, 7 yds), Malik Curtley (5'10" 185 So), Eugene Sowell (6'0" 208 Sr, PS#99) and James Miller (5'9" 182 So). Powell trimmed 20 lbs and was the talk of the spring. With Anderson's return to health, this should be a much improved unit.

RECEIVERS - In 2008 UL had to replace their top 4 rec, who combined for 2,711 yards (3 drafted). The leading returnees were Scott Long (358, 13.3) and Trent Guy (177, 16.1). Long played in just 3 (11 rec, inj) and the team was 3-0 with him. Guy played in 9 (inj) and had 216 (15.4). VHT soph Doug Beaumont (PS#24) led with 750 (12.1) and VHT rFr Josh Chichester (6'9") had 341 (11.4). Those four ret'd last year and Scott Long managed to stay healthy and led with 727 (13.7). Beaumont, who has 100 career rec without a TD (had one null vs WV) now has 24 consec gms with a rec and was #2 with 465 (12.2). JC Cameron Graham took over as starting TE with Pete Nochta out early and was #4 with 323 (12.0). Their dangerous returnman, Trent Guy, was #3 with 329 (18.3). Chichester had a reputation for drops in '08, but improved and had 202 (11.9). This year they lose their top guy Long (11 st) and Guy (1 st). Kragthorpe said that Damian Copeland (PS#193) is going to be a phenomenal receiver here. Not listed below are Mike Hayes (5'10" 180 Jr), Lincoln Carr (5'10" 158 So), Stephen Goodwin (6'0" 185 rFr), Jahmal Lawson (6'5" 200 So) and TE's Stephon Ball (6'4" 218 So, PS#150, 2 st), Nate Nord (6'5" 241 So, PS#23), Chris White (6'4" 215 rFr) and Zach Meagher (6'4" 239 Jr, PS#41). Even with the loss of their top guy, this unit should at least equal last year's numbers.

OFFENSIVE LINE - From '03-'06, the Cards O-line paved the way for 5.7, 5.6 and 4.8 ypc rushing with the '06 version having to replace 3 st'rs. In '07 they had to replace 2 st'rs but did lose one to injury after Wk 7. In Kragthorpe's first year, the numbers fell to 146 ypg (4.2) with 24 sks allowed. They had to replace 3 st'rs in '08 but by adding a couple of JUCO's they improved to 165 (4.3) with 21 sks (5.4%). Last year they had to replace a #1DC C and #5DC LT but had 4 back with 6+ sts. The Cards dropped to 125 ypg (3.5) and the sacks rose to 37 (10.1%). This year they lose LG Abdul Kuyateh (11 st, 2Y st'r) but have 9 of the top 10 back (7 w/st exp). Kragthorpe also said that rFr Kamran Joyer is a Sunday-type player. Even learning a new system, I look for much improved numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Bobby Petrino's final 3 D's allowed just 3.1, 3.0 and 3.4 ypc rush. In Kragthorpe's first year they had to replace 2 st'rs, then lost 2 st'rs to inj (9 st comb '07) and allowed 165 ypg (4.4) rush (worst ypc S/'98) with just 18 sks. They had 2.5 starters back in '08 and improved to 130 ypg (4.2) but only 14 sks (#106 FBS). Last year they had to replace 3 players (comb 31 sts) and while they had 5 of the top 8 back, they were banged up from the start. The rush D slipped to 165 ypg (4.3) with 23 sks. This year they lose NT LT Walker (8 st, 26 tkl, 1.5 tfl), 3rd Tm BE DT LD Scott (12 st, 41 tkl, 3 sk) and DT Tyler Jessen (4 st, 14 tkl, 1.5 sk). This is not an overwhelming unit but it is equal to '09 in exp.

LINEBACKERS - In '08 the unit had 3 JUCO's, a true frosh and a converted RB as 5 of their top 7 LB's and the D allowed 29.8 ppg. Last year they had to replace 2 players (comb 7 sts) and they ret'd #1 tackler WLB Jon Dempsey who moved to MLB. With their more exp'd LB corps, UL improved to 26.3 ppg. This year they lose Dempsey (12 st, #1 tkl'r, 4.5 tfl), Chris Campa (9 st, #2 tkl'r, 14 tfl) and Stephen Garr (2 tkl). They return 2 (comb 15 sts) who were #6 and #9 tkl'rs. I list them as having just 1 starter ret but they do have decent experience.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - With only one starter back in '07, the Cards finished just #113 in my PDR. In '08 they had an injury plagued unit with 3 starters lost to injuries after Gm7 and were #102. Last year they only had 2 starters back and 5 DB's were inj'd in the first 7 gm and they moved WR Andrew Robinson to CB midseason but then he was also inj'd. They took the RS off of true frosh Shenard Holton (7 gm). The Cards finished just #106. This year they lose FS/CB Chaz Thompson (11 st, 63 tkl, 3 int, 2 pbu), S Richard Raglin (8 st, 63 tkl, 2 pbu), S Justin Mathews (6 st, 45 tkl, 2 pbu), S Daniel Covington (2 st, 20 tkl), CB Maurice Clark (1 st, 2 tkl) and Andrew Robinson (1 st, 11 tkl). While they have just 1 starter back, 5 return with starting exp including converted RB Darius Ashley and this group can only stay healthier and should improve in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '08 UL plummeted to #102 in my ST rankings (#65 in '07). LY all of the key players ret'd and as expected they moved up to #60 with returnman Trent Guy perhaps the tm MVP. Guy set up a key couple of TD's with his returns and avg 24.7 on KR's and 23.2 on just 6 PR's. The FG kicking was much improved (tm 5-11 in '08) as Ryan Payne hit 8-13 FG's (long 42) and Chris Philpott hit 5-5. Philpott had 5 TB's on 43 KO's. Cory Goettsche avg 40.5 on his punts, (net 35.8). This year they lose Goettsche, Payne and Guy and figure to drop some in the ST rankings.

COACHES - The Steve Kragthorpe experiment is over after 3 straight non-winning seasons (15-21). The Cards bring in Florida DC Charlie Strong who has been lobbying for a HC job for quite a few years and deservedly gets his chance. Strong served as the Florida DC since '03 under Ron Zook and Urban Meyer and as SCar's DC under Steve Spurrier and Lou Holtz. Strong made a smart move hiring former UNLV HC Mike Sanford ('05-'09) as the OC. Sanford was Urban Meyer's OC at Utah for 2 years, so look for L'ville to have a major offensive resurgence. Strong brought Florida CB coach Vance Bedford along to take over as UL's DC. Bedford was the DB coach of the Chicago Bears from '99-'04.

PHIL'S FORECAST

When former HC Howard Schnellenberger got UL's program turned around, he said the Cardinals were on a collision course for the National Championship. 2006 may just have been that season for UL, but unfortunately they missed by inches. Bobby Petrino did a fine job here as his '04 team finished 11-1 and #6 AP. In 2006, after their defeat of #3 WV at home, the Cards needed to win out to get to the National Title game. The next week Rutgers was off a bye, had their biggest ever HG on a Thurs night and caught UL off their big win. The Cards still had a 25-7 lead, but blew it. That tough loss was not the only bad break they had as in the opening game they lost superstar RB Michael Bush to injury. They also lost QB Brohm for two games. Opportunities to play for and win a National Championship do not come around often, especially for a program like L'ville and Petrino left for the NFL. Brian Brohm turned down the NFL in '07 and they ret'd 8 starters on offense. It was an extremely disappointing season in Kragthorpe's first year. They came in ranked #10 but needed a 41-38 win over Rutgers in the finale to avoid a losing season (6-6). That snapped a streak of 9 straight winning seasons. They were 3-4 in the BE (+31 ypg). In 2008 they had just 8 ret starters (fewest FBS). They had been picked #1 or #2 in the Big East every year since joining in '05 but in '08 they were picked 7th. The Cards were 5-2 including upsetting #14 USF and it appeared that Kragthorpe had turned things around. Shockingly they lost to Syr for a 2nd straight year and would lose their final 5 (final 4 by 26 ppg). It was their first losing season since 1997. They finished tied for last in the Big East at 1-6 but were only -44.7 ypg, almost 100 ypg better than Syr. The Cards were -12 in TO's. In 2009 I mentioned Kragthorpe was on the hottest seat of any coach. After an expected win over lowly Indiana St, they had a 378-346 yard edge vs Kentucky but blew some opportunities and lost by 4. After an expected loss at Utah, they led Pitt 10-7 at the half on a Friday night. QB Burke was out and Froman got his first start. Unfortunately Pitt rolled in the 2H to a 35-10 win. A desperate Louisville team faced a SMiss squad without their QB and won at home 25-23. The next week at Conn some blown opportunities resulted in a 13 pt loss. They faced another backup QB vs Cincy but Collaros had a huge game and they were rolled 41-10. Third string QB Stein got his first start vs Ark St due to injuries and they won 21-13. The next week at WV they had a 301-273 yard edge but settled for 3 FG's and had a TD called back and lost by 8. They finally got past Syr but only 10-9. They were beaten convincingly by USF and Rutgers, finished just 4-8 and Kragthorpe was shown the door. L'ville finished tied for last in the Big East at 1-6 but this time they were a league worst -104 ypg. Charlie Strong inherits 12 ret st'rs and last year had an offensive ypp of 18.5 (pg 299). They should maintain better health, especially at QB. The Cards should get off to a solid start and have a winning record after 5 and new HC's usually have success in that situation as players buy into the program. This still looks like a rebuilding year with the coaching change (new schemes) and the loss of 6 of the top 8 tkl'rs on D.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score UL	Final Score Opp	W / L
Sep. 4	Kentucky	A					UL is 14-6 in home openers but 5 of the L/6 losses were vs BCS tms (3 to KY). This gm is played for the Governor's Cup & Louisville is 7-4 since 1999 vs UK but has dropped 3 straight.
Sep. 11	Eastern Kentucky	A					Louisville is 16-8-1 vs EKU with the L/meeting in '91 (UL won 24-14). The Colonels finished 5-6 LY but 2 losses were vs FBS opp's Indiana (19-13) & Kentucky (37-12).
Sep. 18	at Oregon St	A					Cardinals are 6-3 away vs non-conf opp's (0-2 LY). UL beat OSU 63-27 in '05 (only meeting) w/a 553-419 yd edge (UL lead 56-13 after 3Q's as 158 yds came in the 4Q for OSU).
Sep. 25							BONUS: Into 2010, Louisville is just 5-13 in BE road games and have lost 10 straight.
Oct. 2	at Arkansas St	A					LY was the first & only meeting as UL lead 21-3 w/2:00 to go in the 3Q but had a hard time putting ASU away. Third string QB Will Stein got his 1st career start (20-39-51%-232-0-1).
Oct. 9	Memphis	A					Coming into 2010, UL is 12-2 at home vs non-conf foes since joining the Big East ('05). UL has won 2 straight and 6 of 7 but has been outgained in each of the L/4 (-116 ypg).
Oct. 15	Cincinnati (Fri)	A					The L3Y vs Cincinnati, UL has been outgained by 96 ypg but the 3 yrs prior they had outgained the Bearcats by 185 ypg. LY's loss was the most lopsided in this series since 1953 (41-0).
Oct. 23	Connecticut	A					UL went 7-0 in BE HG's their first 2 yrs in the league ('05 & '06) but since have gone 4-6 (2-5 L2Y) & each win has been by 7 pts or less. The avg MOV in this series is 14 ppg (6 meetings).
Oct. 30	at Pittsburgh	G					Cardinals are 7-2 vs the Panthers but have dropped B2B gms being outsored in each by 25+ pts. Adam Froman made his 1st career start at QB LY vs Pitt (18-30-60%-166-0-0).
Nov. 6	at Syracuse	A					LY vs SU 45 of UL's 151 yds (30%) came on the final game winning TD drive w/1:24 left. The previous two years Syracuse pulled huge upsets as 13 and 37 point underdogs.
Nov. 13	USF	A					UL has been outgained in each the L3Y (-111 ypg) after outgaining USF the 1st 4 matchups (+175 ypg). LY USF blew a DD 1H lead but scored 20 of the games final 26 pts for the DD win.
Nov. 20	West Virginia	A					UL is just 1-4 vs WV in BE play (the win came in '06 when they were ranked #5 vs #3 WV). LY QB Stein made his 1st rd start (14 of 26, 100 yds) & RB Ashley had 164 (5.0).
Nov. 26	at Rutgers (Fri)	A					Louisville as never won in New Brunswick dropping all 4 by an avg score of 41-15. Last time here UL fumbled their opening drive then Rutgers scored 49 straight points.

PHIL STEELE'S 2010 MOUNTAIN WEST FORECAST

1. TCU - In my mind, the Frogs have been the best non-BCS team in each of the last 2 years but have not finished highest in the ratings. They have dominated their MWC foes the last 2 seasons at +261.9 ypg in '09 and +211.4 ypg in '08. This year HC Gary Patterson has his best team yet and 8 of my 9 sets of power ratings not only call for TCU to not only go unbeaten in the MWC, but have a perfect season overall.

2. UTAH - In 2004 and 2008 some of my power ratings called for Utah to have an unbeaten season. Part of the magic of my forecast of Utah as my top non-BCS team in '08 was the fact they had both TCU and BYU at home and that is the case this year. Talent-wise, the Utes have the capability of beating TCU at home on Nov 6th and they have my #3 rated O-line and #2 rated D-line plus the best set of RB's in the conf. There was a large gap last year between Utah and TCU last year (outFD'd 32-11) and I'm not sure they have made it up yet.The Utes also lost 6 players to the NFL draft, a high for non-BCS teams.

3. BYU - As of presstime the question remains about Harvey Unga's availability. Naturally, there would be a sizeable drop off if he is not back. The Cougars only had 4 starters back on offense last year and avg 35.5 ppg and now have 7 back this season but do lose Max Hall. BYU has the best record in the MWC over the last 3, 5 and 10 seasons. They have to play both TCU and Utah on the road and that has me pegging them for 3rd among the Big 3 of the MWC.

4. AIR FORCE - While the Falcons benefitted from +22 in TO's last year, that is offset by the fact that they had 4 net close losses and could have easily been a 12-1 team. The Falcons do get to host both BYU and Utah so they have a shot at improving upon back-to-back fourth place MWC finishes.

5. SAN DIEGO ST - It's rare when a team on my Most Improved List does not have a winning record the next year and even rarer when I use them a 2nd straight season on that list. The Aztecs fit the bill. At one point last year they were 4-4 but dropped their final 4. This season they are tied as the most experienced team in the MWC (16 ret st'rs), in the 2nd year of their new coaching staff and last year they were -10 in turnovers (pg 312). QB Ryan Lindley is now in his 2nd year of the new offense and should be better adapted and they have outstanding receivers. Rocky Long's defenses are always tough and I will call for the Aztecs to achieve a winning record.

6. WYOMING - This year's Wyoming team is much stronger than LY's Cowboys squad. WY finished 7-6 last year but was fortunate to do so as they did not defeat any FBS team that finished with a winning record and their 6 losses were by an avg score of 32-5. They have 15 returning starters and are in the 2nd year of HC Dave Christensen's schemes. The Cowboys did average 19.9 ppg once Carta-Samuels took over at QB (13 without) and 2 of my 9 sets of power ratings call for them to be bowl eligible again.

7. COLORADO ST - In HC Steve Fairchild's first season, the Rams were very fortunate to get to a bowl, and then win it, but they did not catch the same breaks last year. CSU actually finished in the basement at 0-8 but was only -67.0 ypg (4th worst). They did have 38 starts lost to injury. They now have a VHT QB and RB but my major question mark with them is their O-line. If the OL comes around quickly, CSU will contend for a bowl.

7. UNLV - HC Bobby Hauck steps into a great situation as UNLV could easily have been bowl eligible in each of the last 2 years. He inherits plenty of talent with 15 returning starters including QB Omar Clayton, WR Phillip Payne and LB Starr Fuimaono. The Rebels finished 6th in the MWC each of the last 2 years and although there is talent, it may be tough to match that. They have to learn new schemes and play a tougher schedule.

9. NEW MEXICO - Rocky Long surprised the NM faithful by stepping down after '08. HC Mike Locksley inherited 9 returning starters and drastically changed the schemes on both sides of the ball. There was also internal turmoil throughout the season. I projected the Lobos for the basement but they beat CSU at home in the 2nd to last game and avoided that fate. The Lobos were -78.6 ypg in MWC play and once again have just 11 returning starters. Two of their 4 MWC HG's are vs TCU and Utah but it will still be tough to move up in the MWC standings.

MWC Notes: The MWC has been the best non-BCS conference the last few years and the Big 3 are all BCS caliber teams. In 2008 the MWC finished with TWO Top 10 teams, including #2 Utah, and 3 in the Top 25. They were 8-5 vs BCS schools. Last year TCU was the first preseason favorite to win the title since the Frogs joined the league. It is now their 2nd title since joining the MWC as they won a title in their inaugural 2005 season despite being picked 6th in the preseason media polls. Since 2001 every MWC champ has finished unbeaten in conference play on the road. Last year TCU made it to a BCS bowl but came up short against Boise and finished #6 and the MWC had three Top 20 teams with BYU #12 and Utah #18. The MWC was 5-9 vs the BCS during the regular season but was a very impressive 2-0 in bowl games (4-1 overall) with BYU and Utah beating a couple of Pac-10 teams by a combined 81-47. The MWC produced 13 NFL draft picks which was the best of the non-BCS squads. If you check out my toughest conference rankings in the front you will see that the MWC finished ahead of the Pac 10 in 2009. TCU has an amazing 10 players on my 1st Tm MWC this year with Utah being the next closest with 5 players. This league clearly has had a "Big 3" the last two years as TCU, BYU and Utah are a combined 36-0 vs the rest of the MWC. Will that streak continue in 2010? The MWC should land another BCS bowl but will they get a team to the title game?

TCU HORNED FROGS

QUARTERBACKS - Jeff Ballard (PS#44) won 90.5% of his sts ('05-'06) and set numerous school and MWC records. Marcus Jackson (PS#74) filled in well for Ballard when he was injured early in '06 throwing for 386 (59%) with a 2-1 ratio. In '07 rFr Andy Dalton (PS#74) beat out Jackson. Dalton threw for 2,459 (60%, 10-11), broke TCU's single season comp record (Max Knake '93) and was bowl MVP. Jackson threw for 368 (51%, 3-1). In '08 Dalton missed 2 sts (inj) but still had solid numbers throwing for 2,242 (59%, 11-5). Jackson threw for 372 (56%, 3-2) with 384 rush (5.5). Even with this school producing QB's like Sammy Baugh and Davey O'Brien, Dalton entered '09 as the #3 career passer. Last year they added true frosh VHT Casey Pachall (PS#27, IFS but RS). Jackson spent time at both S and QB (2 pass, 18 rush att). Yogi Gallegos (6'1" 205 So, PS#91) inj'd his knee and played in just 2 (1 rush). Dalton att 371 passes in '07, 307 in '08 and 323 LY and set a new career high with 2,756 yds (61.6%) with an outstanding 23-8 ratio and 512 rush (4.4). Dalton is 29-7 as a starter (Baugh 29-7-2, 1934-'36). Dalton was overlooked by his hometown for the Davey O'Brien Award (not even a semifinalist) but is a sure bet to make it this year. Gallegos and Rick Settle (5'10" 185 rFr) add depth.

RUNNING BACKS - TCU's most famous alum is LaDainian Tomlinson, who rushed for over 4,000 yards in his last 2 yrs here and went on to NFL stardom. Joseph Turner (PS#163) led in '07 (597, 5.2), '08 (577, 4.0) and once again in '09 (754, 5.1). Both Matthew Tucker (PS#96, 676, 6.4) and Ed Wesley (PS#183, 638, 6.3) topped LT's frosh numbers (538, 4.3). This year they lose Turner (12 st) and Chris Smith (51, 3.9). Adding depth are Dwight Smith (IFS), Jercell Fort (5'11" 195 Jr, 99 yd LY), Jai Cavness (5'8" 175 Jr, PS#173, 58 yd), Aundre Dean (6'0" 215 So, PS#6, UCLA trans) and FB's Luke Shivers (6'0" 220 Jr) and Ryan Hightower (5'9" 215 Sr). It's unusual to say, but with 2 frosh who averaged 6.3 ypc in '09 returning, despite replacing their 3 year leading rusher, TCU could be just as good.

RECEIVERS - In '08 the top WR by far was Jimmy Young who had 988 (16.7) earning my 2nd Tm MWC honors. Young set a school record with 226 vs WY. Walter Bryant (6'4") who had 337 (12.5) in '07, was #3 with 298 (11.0). TB Ryan Christian was #2 with 321 (10.7). Last year they had 2 st'rs ret but 1st Tm MWC KR/PR Jeremy Kerley led with 532 (12.1). Young was #2 with 517 (15.7) and Antoine Hicks, who orig sign with Texas (PS#38), was #3 with 478 (20.8). Not listed in the PSL are Garrett Winsett (5'9" 180 Jr), Alonzo Adams (6'0" 190 Sr), Sam Shutt (6'0" 178 So), Billy Pizor (6'0" 180 Sr), Michael Berry (5'11" 185 So), John Brown (6'3" 200 Sr) and TE's Walker Dille (6'4" 242 So, PS#73) and Robert Deck (6'4" 255 Jr). This year they only lose Christian (4 st, 24 rec). Keep an eye on Skye Dawson, who was rated the fastest man in Texas (10.5 100M) in HS and had 111 (8.5) rushing as a true. This is TCU's best receiving corps in some time.

OFFENSIVE LINE - HC Gary Patterson has done well with few returning st'rs. In '06 TCU had to replace 4 st'rs but surprisingly improved to 4.5 ypc rush while allowing a MWC low 15 sks (4.3%). They had just 2 st'rs back in '07 and rushed for 165 ypg (3.7) with 23 sks allowed. In 2008 with 4 st'rs back they improved to 220 ypg (4.5) with 18 sks (4.9%). Last year they had to replace 3 st'rs but this time improved to 240 ypg (5.2) while allowing just 12 sks (3.7%). This year they lose 1st Tm MWC LT Marshall Newhouse (12 st, 3Y st'r, #5DC GB) and LT Nic Richmond (1 st, 16 car st). They have 4 st'rs back including two 1st Tm MWC players C Jake Kirkpatrick and RT Marcus Cannon. Since they are more exp'd, they could even top last year's fine numbers. Not listed below are Michael Rosner (6'3" 295 So), Trevius Jones (6'3" 310 So, PS#221), Kirby O'Meara (5'11" 208 rFr) and Daniel Shelley (6'1" 210 So).

DEFENSIVE LINE - Patterson always fields a top-notch D-line and they have yielded 2.9 or less ypc rush in 10 of the last 11 yrs. The only year they did not was '04 when they had to replace all 4 st'rs (still only 3.2). In '07 Kelly Griffin became the first true frosh under Patterson to start every game. Surprisingly in '08 he lost his job leaving them with 2 st'rs back and they still led the NCAA allowing just 47 ypg rush and a paltry 1.7 with 43 sks. The star the last 2 years has been DE Jerry Hughes, who led the FBS with 15 sks in '08. Hughes was the lone ret starter LY and was the focus of most offenses but still earned 1st Tm AA for a 2nd straight yr. Despite losing 3 st'rs (although Griffin won his job back) the numbers only dropped to 80 ypg (2.6) with 33 sks. This yr they lose Hughes (MWC DPOY, #1DC IND) but have 7 of the top 8 back. This is a more exp'd D-line but Hughes had 11.5 sks (35% of tm) and the returning 7 comb for 14.5. The top returnees are DE Wayne Daniels 1st Tm MWC (5.5 sk) and 2nd Tm MWC DT Cory Grant (2.5 sk). Not listed below are Sean Cady (6'3" 220 rFr) and Jon Koontz (6'2" 230 rFr).

LINEBACKERS - TCU runs a 4-2-5 and all of their safeties are legitimate S's but I'll list the SS here as I limit the DB's to 4 positions. Last year they had to replace their #1, #2 and #3 tkl'rs and all 3 were NFL DC's! I noted that despite the inexp I liked the talent and forecasted that Daryl Washington would be the team's leading tackler. Tank Carder had the best Aug of any Frog and won a starting job (1st Tm MWC). This year they lose 3rd Tm AA SLB Washington (13 st, #1 tkl'r, 11 tfl, #2DC ARZ) but have 5 of the top 6 back. Adding depth are Logan Sligar (5'10" 225 So), Clay Hirt (5'11" 190 rFr), David Stoltzman (6'0" 205 So) and Christopher Cisi (5'9" 195 rFr). This is a more experienced unit and as usual, one of the nation's best.

MLB Tank Carder

DEFENSIVE BACKS - TCU has recorded 4 straight Top 10 finishes in my PDR (#4 in '06 w/1 ret st'r, #9, #2 and #5). Coming into last year, CB's Rafael Priest and Nick Sanders each started 39 consec gms (most exp CB duo in FBS). The Frogs allowed just 47.4% with a 10-14 ratio. This year they lose 1st Tm MWC CB Priest (11 st, 18 tkl, 8 pd), 1st Tm MWC CB Sanders (11 st, 29 tkl, 3 pbu) and WS Corderra Hunter (9 tkl). They signed PS#28JC Malcolm Williams (orig Okla PS#35) last year but he only had 10 tkls. FS Tejay Johnson earned 2nd Tm MWC. Not in the PSL are Evan Kern (5'10" 175 Jr) and James Miller (5'9" 180 rFr). Even with the loss of two 4 year starting 1st Tm MWC CB's they could record their 5th straight Top 10 pass D finish but are down a few notches.

SPECIAL TEAMS -TCU almost always produces a top-notch ST unit under Patterson. In the last 9 years they finished in the Top 35 seven times (#2 in '07). They have had a 1st Tm MWC returnman for 5 straight years. In '08 they had to replace PR Brian Bonner (2nd Tm MWC) but Patterson said Jeremy Kerley would be even better. Kerley had 25 PR (13.9). Aaron Brown was my 1st Tm MWC KR in '08 (29.2). The '08 unit had to replace both their outstanding P and K. Ross Evans was the only frosh on the Lou Groza semifinalist list hitting 12 straight FG's (16-20 long 50) but he missed 6 xp's. TCU finished #18 in '08 and despite losing KR Brown, moved up to #11 last year. Kerley ended a TCU 89 game stretch without a PR TD (7th longest NCAA). Kerley was the top KR (26.6) and PR (14.4, 2 TD, 563 PR yds school rec) and was the MWC STPOY. Greg McCoy added 10 KR (35.9) & TCU's 29.2 avg was #1 in the NCAA. Evans hit 15-18 FG's (long 48) and Kevin Sharples had 5 TB on 80 KO. Anson Kelton (260 lbs) only had a tm net of 34.8. This unit returns intact with the exception of 2x Unsung Hero Awd winner LS Clint Gresham and will contend for #1 ST honors.

COACHES - Gary Patterson has done a tremendous job since taking over when Dennis Franchione bolted prior to the 2000 bowl. Patterson was named CUSA's COY in '02 and the MWC COY in '05 & '09. His 85-28 (75%) record is the 4th best % among active coaches. Last year he led the Frogs to a 12-0 reg season (#4 AP) and earned a BCS bowl bid and was the Walter Camp and FWAA Eddie Robinson COY. Last year Patterson lost 11 year OC Mike Schultz. He elevated Jarrett Anderson (13Y here, WR cch 8Y prior) and Justin Fuente (RB cch 2Y, QB cch TY) to co-OC. Patterson had been an asst under DC Dick Bumpas at Navy and hired the solid DC away from WM. Bumpas (7th year) was a Broyles Award finalist the last 2 yrs. Patterson, who is a hot topic in rumor mills each year, is the longest tenured coach in the MWC.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Despite not getting the most highly touted HS recruits, TCU has a great weight training program which builds bigger, stronger and faster athletes. Almost 75% of the roster can bench 400 lbs and each year they appear to be the fastest team in the MWC, especially on defense. After being a member of the SWC, TCU has had some outstanding seasons incl 10-2 ('02 in CUSA) and flirted with an '03 BCS bowl berth before losing a late game at S Miss. They have been to a bowl in 11 of the last 12 yrs. In '05 they moved into their 4th conf in 10 yrs. They had to replace 25 lettermen (MWC's highest) and ret just 12 st'rs. They were picked 6th in the '02 CUSA media poll and 6th in the MWC '05 poll and won both titles. In the '05 opener they knocked off #7 Okla on the road (highest rated opp beat S/'61). They ended Utah's 18 gm win streak and achieved their fourth 10 win season in 6 yrs and first outright conf title since 1958 (SWC). That was their 3rd diff conf title in 8 yrs and they finished #11 AP (#9 Coaches). In '06 TCU opened 3-2 but won their final 8 to finish #22. TCU was the preseason pick to win the MWC in '07 and their preseason goal was 12 wins and a BCS bowl. Unfortunately they lost 2 key DL's and struggled to a 4-4 start but rebounded to go 8-5. Despite a 4-4 MWC record, they were +107 ypg (2nd best). From '05-'07 they beat five Big 12 teams. In '08 TCU was arguably the best non-BCS team despite their 2 losses. One loss came against Okla (played Nat'l Title gm) only being outFD'd 17-16. They whipped the MWC's preseason conf favorite BYU 32-7. The Frogs were at a disadvantage having to face Utah on the road on a short week and despite a 416-275 yd edge, missed 2 key 4Q FG's and Utah got a TD with :48 for the 3 pt win. Facing an undefeated Boise in the bowl they had a 472-250 yd edge and should have won easier than the 17-16 final. They won their 4th consec bowl for the 1st time school history. TCU had their highest finish (#7) since 1959 (#7 in '59, #6 in '55, #1 in '38). They had a school record 437 pts and 56 TD's. They were +211.4 ypg in the MWC which was double that of unbeaten Utah (+100.8). TCU had just 10 ret st'rs last year. They had to play Virginia, Clemson and BYU on the road but 5 of my 9 sets of power ratings called for them to go unbeaten. At 2-0 they went into Death Valley and won 14-10 with Clemson getting inside the TCU20 twice in the 4Q but coming up short. The Frogs dominated their opp's the rest of the reg season with an average win of 43-12 (484-229 avg yds) but lost the bowl rematch vs undefeated Boise in the Fiesta Bowl. TCU faced 6 teams that went to a bowl in '09 and all 6 of those teams won their bowl game. TCU was ranked #3 when they lost to #6 Boise 17-10. TCU returns 16 st'rs (most MWC) and will be ranked in the preseason Top 10 for the 4th time (#9 '52, #7 '56 and #8 '58). The Frogs have ranked #1 in the FBS in def 4 times the last 10 years! They outgained MWC foes by 261.9 ypg (169 ypg more than #2 BYU) so the league has a lot of ground to make up. Eight of my 9 sets of power ratings call for the Frogs to go 12-0 and this could be Patterson's best team yet!

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score TCU	Final Score Opp	W L
Sep. 4	† Oregon St (Arlington)	A					First meeting. This gm will be played at the new Dallas Cowboy Stadium. TCU is 9-11 vs current Pac 10 teams & is 9-2 vs BCS tms incl wins at Virginia & Clemson last year.
Sep. 11	Tennessee Tech	G					TCU has played 3 FCS teams the last 2 years winning all 3 by 43 ppg. The Golden Eagles went 6-5 last year including a 49-7 loss at Kansas St and a 38-0 loss at Georgia.
Sep. 18	Baylor	G					Played every year from 1945-'95 as SWC members. TCU has won the 2 meetings since ('06 & '07) & in the last game QB Dalton made his first start in the 27-0 shutout.
Sep. 24	at SMU (Fri)	A					These two play for the Iron Skillet. LY Jeremy Kerley ret'd a punt 71 yds for TCU's 1st PR TD in 7 years. TCU has won 3 straight and 9 of 10 (avg score in win was 34-7).
Oct. 2	at Colorado St	A					HC Patterson is 6-0 vs Colo St and has won 5 of those 6 by more than 12 points. Last time here CSU went 78/9pl on the 1st drive but TCU all'd just 121 yds the rest of the game.
Oct. 9	Wyoming	G					Last years game was tied at 10-10 in the 2Q after a 98 yd FR TD by Wyoming but TCU scored 35 unanswered in the 45-10 final holding Wyoming to 178 yds and 5 FD's.
Oct. 16	BYU	G					The Frogs have shown their speed each of the L/2 years defeating BYU by a combined 70-14. Coming into 2010, TCU is 18-2 in MWC HG's (10 straight wins by 35 ppg!).
Oct. 23	Air Force	G					LY in icy, freezing rain, TCU had 3 TO's incl 2 inside AF10 & one late-4Q which AF turned into a TD w/:57 left pulling within 3. TCU has held AF under their ssn rush avg by 92 ypg the L/5.
Oct. 30	at UNLV	A					LY TCU shutout UNLV for a 6 str series win. The stout TCU D held the Rebs to just 160 ttl yds (40 on one run). The off rushed for 390 yds (8.1), most since they joined the MWC.
Nov. 6	at Utah	A					The previous 4 in this series had been decided by 26 COMBINED pts. LY's MOV was 27. LY TCU scored 3 TD's in 2:30 early in the 2Q to break it open in front of a record home crowd.
Nov. 13	San Diego St	G					LY TCU scored TD's on 5 of their first 6 possessions. The Frog D forced 4 TO's which led to 13 TCU pts. TCU is 5-0 vs SDSt winning by 20 ppg & outgaining them by 304 ypg.
Nov. 20							BONUS: TCU is 45-1 when even or plus TO's, they're 8-9 when losing the TO battle (negative TO margin vs AF, WY & Boise LY). Since winning the MWC in '05, TCU is just 3-5 vs Utah/BYU.
Nov. 27	at New Mexico	G					TCU is 5-0 vs the Lobos in MWC play outscoring them 190-62. Last year New Mexico scored its 10 points in 1:12 late in the 2Q and TCU held them to 172 yds on 74 plays.

UTAH UTES

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Utah produced the #1 overall pick in the '05 NFL draft in Alex Smith (68%, 32-4 ratio, 631 rush '04). Brian Johnson and Brett Ratliff held down the spot the next 4 years with Johnson missing '06 and not being 100% in '07. In '08 Johnson led Utah to an undefeated year throwing for 2,972 (68%) with a 27-9 ratio (1 of 5 finalists for Unitas Award). Corbin Louks was brought in as the running QB (27 rush att) and att just 7 passes. Louks was the frontrunner out of the spring in '09 but had to hold off Terrance Cain, who led the NJCAA in passing yards (3138, 68%) in '08 and hit 72% in '07 and true frosh Jordan Wynn (PS#52), who was IFS. It was a 3-way tussle into Aug but then Whittingham announced that Wynn was #1, Cain #2 and Louks #3 (Louks transferred to Nevada). Cain overtook Wynn at the end of Aug. After 5 games his stats were very similar to Johnson's except he brought more running ability. Cain's arm strength limited the offense but he still threw for 1,624 (63.7%, 11-5) and was the #3 rusher (318). Wynn appeared headed for a RS season. In the 2H vs Wyo (gm 8) they took the RS off of Wynn and he sparked the team to a win. Wynn then started the final 5 and the offense avg 34.2 ppg in those games (27.1 ppg prior). This year both QB's return. Added to the mix is Griff Robles (6'4" 226 rFr, PS#39) who knocked a LB out for 12 wks with a tough hit last Aug and this year's true frosh. This unit is vastly more exp'd and Wynn should be one of the top QB's in the MWC.

RUNNING BACKS - In '07 Matt Asiata (PS#17JC) won the starting job but broke his leg in the opener. They were planning to RS Darrell Mack but he started in Wk 3 and rushed for 1,204 (4.8). In 2008, Mack and Asiata ret'd but were banged up in Aug and Mack's numbers dropped to 541 (4.4). Asiata also lined up in the Wildcat package and led but with just 707 (4.8, 12 TD). Whittingham had said he wanted to use the elusive Eddie Wide more but he had just 183 (6.1). Last year they had to replace Mack (11 st). In the first 3 Asiata rushed for 304 but was lost for the year in Wk 4. While Asiata is a power back (229 lb), Wide (4.47 spd) brought a different skill set. Surprisingly Wide set a school record with 6 consec 100 yard gms becoming just the 11th RB in school history to top 1,000 with 1,069 (5.3). Depth at RB was limited by injuries. Sausan Shakerin (6'2" 222 So, PS#48) rushed for 100 vs NM but was banged up (198, 5.5). They used Shaky Smithson (who is moving to WR) in the Wildcat package and he rushed for 99 (3.7). Adding depth is Beau Burton (5'9" 204 rFr, PS#189), Mychal Robinson (5'8" 192 Jr), Tauni Vakapuna (5'10" 229 Jr) and Jake Cook (5'10" 171 rFr, PS#107). This season Asiata has been granted a 6th year and he and Wide make up the best RB combo in the MWC.

RECEIVERS - In '08 Utah had to replace 3 of their top 4 rec's. They generally travelled with 8 WR's but in '08 mainly used just 5. Last year had to replace their top 3. The top returnees in '09 were David Reed, who had 427 (17.1) and Jereme Brooks, who had 331 (11.0). Reed was by far the top guy LY setting school records for rec (81) and yds (1188, 14.7). Brooks got off to a slow start but was one of Wynn's favorite targets and finished with 696 (12.4). Aiona Key (PS#57JC, 1 rec '08) finished #3 with 227 (8.7). John Peel (PS#82) was the only other WR to top 200 (209, 13.1). This year they lose Peel (4 st), Reed (13 st, #5DC BAL), Key (11 st) and TE Chris Joppru (2 st, 0 rec). Not listed below are Sean Fitzgerald (6'3" 205 rFr, PS#248), Griffin McNabb (5'8" 168 rFr) and Jake Orchard (6'2" 194 So). While they have to replace 3 of their top 4, they have equal exp to '09.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 Utah had 9 of the top 10 OL's back. While the Utes had their highest ever finish in the AP poll, the OL stats were only avg with 156 ypg (4.1) with 25 sks (6.0%). Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs but their top OL, 1st Tm MWC LT Zane Beadles was back. Despite some minor injuries that forced a rotation that included inexp'd players, the Utes improved to 160 ypg rush (4.3) and trimmed the sks to 20 (4.9%). This yr they lose their star 1st Tm AA Beadles (4Y st'r, #2DC DEN) and 2nd stringers RT Viliamu Nau (4 gm) and C Tyler Williams (3 gm). Four st'rs return incl 1st Tm MWC LG Caleb Schlauderaff, 2nd Tm MWC C Zane Taylor plus they add in PS#18JC John Cullen. Not listed below are Mike Steckling (6'6" 240 rFr) and Nick Binks (6'5" 260 So, PS#180) who moved from DE.

DE Derrick Shelby

DEFENSIVE LINE - This is Utah's primary recruiting emphasis annually and they have sent many DL's to the NFL. In 2008's magical season they had to replace 1st and 2nd Tm MWC players for the 2nd straight year but led by DE Koa Misi and Paul Kruger, allowed just 99 ypg rush (3.1) with 29 sks. Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs (#2DC) but 4 returned with starting exp. They expected to add PS#2JC James Aiono but he did not enroll until Jan '10. The unit was also hit hard by injuries with no player starting all 13 and only 1 starting 10+. As you would expect, the numbers slipped (138 ypg, 3.7). This year they lose 1st Tm MWC DE Misi (12 st, 71 tkl, 5 sk, #2DC MIA) and NT Kenape Eliapo (7 st, 16 tkl). DE Derrick Shelby tore his ACL (Wk 10) and hopefully will return 100%. They have 5 back who started LY. Unlike the last 2 years when they lost their top 2 DL's, this year they only lose one star and get a big addition in Aiono.

LINEBACKERS - Last year the Utes had all 3 st'rs back and it was regarded as the deepest, best unit on the team heading into '09. Nai Fotu (9 st '08) moved to DE. The team's top LB, Stevenson Sylvester (#1 tkl'r) earned 1st Tm MWC. This year they lose Sylvester (13 st, 5 tfl, #5DC PIT), MLB Mike Wright (13 st, #2 tkl'r, 5.5 tfl), Kepa Gaison (10 st, #11 tkl'r, 4 sk) and Fotu (1 st, 23 tkl) who tore his ACL early spg. Chad Manis (PS#52JC) moved from QB last year (4 tkl) and JJ Williams (7 sts '06) is now 2 yrs removed from his mission. They also add in a VHT true frosh. Adding depth are Kalen Adams (6'0" 220 Fr) and Dave Fagergren (6'0" 204 So) and naturally this unit is my biggest concern on the D. This unit much less experienced.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - After a young Utah secondary finished #4 in my PDR in '07, they had 9 of their top 10 back in '08 and finished #22. Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs (#2 and #6 DC's) but had plenty of speed at CB with RJ Stanford and Brandon Burton both sub-4.4's. The Utes finished #10. This year they lose 1st Tm MWC FS Robert Johnson (13 st, 70 tkl, 6 int, 6 pbu, #5DC TEN), 3rd Tm MWC Stanford (13 st, 46 tkl, 8 pd, #7DC CAR), SS Joe Dale (11 st, 48 tkl, 5 pd) and CB Justin Jones (12 tkl). Not listed in the PSL are Chris Sciarretta (5'10" 220 rFr), Lolo Tenifa (5'11" 197 Jr) and Tyler Whittingham (5'10" 190 Jr). Burton is solid at one CB slot and they usually produce a solid secondary, but this unit still looks to be down a few notches.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '06 Louie Sakoda led the nation in net punting (41.4) and hit 16 of 20 FG's. Utah moved up to #16 in my ST rankings. In '07 Whittingham noted that the new KO rule actually helped them as Ben Vroman (28 TB in '06) had a strong enough leg. Vroman had 17 TB. Sakoda was the best ST player in the country as he avg 44.3 on punts (36.6 net) and hit 19 of 22 FG's (long 51). Derrek Richards was #9 in the FBS in PR's (14.7) and they finished #23. Sakoda was back in '08. After blocking just 2 punts in Whittingham's first 3 years, he brought in Aiona Key (5 blk punt JC). Key was not eligible until Wk 4 but blk'd 3 punts (1 ret for TD). Sakoda hit an amazing 22-24 FG's (long 53) and avg 42.1 punting (35.7 net) while Vroman had 44 TB giving the Utes an FBS leading 3 year total of 93. JC David Reed avg 25.4 on KR and the unit finished #20. Last year they had to replace Sakoda. Vroman hit just 1-4 FG's. Joe Phillips took over and hit his first 7 FG's but just 2 from over 44 as Whittingham passed up some FG opportunities. Phillips was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award (20-22 FG's, L/48). Vroman had 32 TB's on 75 KO's. Sean Sellwood took over at P and the South African native avg 42.9 (net 37.0). This year they only lose Vroman and should improve upon last year's #38 finish.

COACHES - Kyle Whittingham was fought over by BYU and Utah for the HC job but he opted to stay. Whittingham started as the DC here in '95 and is a BYU grad. He made some great initial hires in OC Andy Ludwig and DC Gary Andersen but LY Ludwig left for Cal and Andersen became the HC at Utah St. Whittingham elevated RB coach Dave Schramm to OC and LB coach Kalani Sitake to DC. Whitt promoted Aaron Roderick (WR's) to co-OC. He also hired record setting QB Brian Johnson (QB cch).

PHIL'S FORECAST

In '04 I mentioned that 4 of my then-7 sets of power ratings called for the Utes to have an unbeaten season and they achieved that AND became the first BCS buster. They dominated #19 Pitt 35-7 in the Fiesta Bowl while outscoring opp by an avg of 45.2-19.5 (+132 ypg). Their closest gm was a 14 pt win. Their #4 finish in the AP poll was their highest ever at that time. In '05 they lost HC Urban Meyer as well as QB Smith. They moved the ball well in '05 avg 474 ypg but scored just 30 ppg. They had a 4-4 record in MWC play but were +86.5 ypg (league best). With backup QB Brett Ratliff, they knocked off BYU then upset #24 GT 38-10 in the Emerald Bowl. The Utes had 12 ret st'rs in '06 and finished 3rd at 5-3 with 2 tough losses as they led NM 24-3 and BYU 24-10 (BYU TD last play). In '07 they had to face BYU and TCU on the road and injuries greatly affected them with top OL Boone, QB Johnson, RB Asiata, WR Casteel and other key players being lost for part or all of the ssn. They knocked off Navy in the Poinsettia Bowl but for the 3rd straight year, finished unranked (9-4). While they were +11 in TO's, they had 51 sts lost due to injury. In '08 BYU was pretty much the consensus pick to win the MWC and of all the sources documented by football.stassen.com. my mag was the only one to pick Utah to win the MWC Title outright and some had the Utes picked as low as 3rd. I mentioned that 4 of my then-8 sets of power ratings called for Utah to go unbeaten and I picked the Utes as my top non-BCS team (pg 22). I never really knew how many football fans there were in Utah until my mag hit the newsstands and my website was bombarded by BYU fans wondering about my overall football IQ (to put it nicely). Utah had some close calls but when they beat #16 BYU they were unbeaten and advanced to the Sugar Bowl. They thoroughly dominated Bama 31-17 (349-208 yd) and received 16 first place votes in the AP poll finishing #2 and were the nation's only undefeated FBS team. Utah did benefit from +13 in TO's and 5 net close wins (pg 299). The Utes only had 12 starts lost to injury and just 11 ret st'rs in '09. They once again had to play both TCU and BYU on the road and as expected, the record dropped some to 10-3. They had the nation's longest winning streak (16) end in Autzen Stadium which is one of the toughest venues to play (only outgained by 15 yds). They trailed Colo St 17-3 but got two 4Q TD's to pull out the win. They were outgained by 51 yds vs AF but pulled out a 23-16 OT win. They trailed Wyoming 10-3 at the half but rallied for the win. They were pumped up for the road matchup at TCU but were thrashed 55-28 even with scoring a TD with 2:29 left. In a TCU/BYU sandwich they wiped out SDSt 38-7. They trailed BYU 20-6 heading into the 4Q but ended up losing in OT by 3. In the bowl Cal jumped out to a 14-0 lead but Utah dominated after that and finished 10-3 and #18. This yr the Utes get both BYU and TCU at home. They have 12 ret starters but are much more exp'd at QB. Once Jordan Wynn took over at QB, Utah went from avg'ing 27.1 ppg to 34.2 ppg. Despite their 6-2 MWC record, they did only outgain MWC foes by 44.1 ypg. Their 9 straight bowl win streak is the longest in the NCAA and they had 6 players drafted. The MWC Title probably rides on the outcome of the Nov 6th gm vs TCU. Unlike '04 and '08 none of my power ratings call for an unbeaten yr (tough non-conf schedule) but it will be another successful season.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score UTAH	Final Score Opp	W / L
Sep. 2	Pittsburgh (Thur)	A					Utah is 16-5 in home openers including 3 str vs BCS tms (Ariz, A&M & Indiana). The only meeting was the '04 Fiesta Bowl (Utah won 35-7) being the 1st tm to crash a BCS bowl.
Sep. 11	UNLV	A					Utah is 13-1 vs UNLV with the loss a 27-0 shutout in 2007. LY despite being out'FD 23-14 the Utes had control after an int led to a 8/2pl TD and on the next drive got a 64 yd IR TD.
Sep. 18	at New Mexico	G					LY in this game, true frosh QB Wynn made his 1st start (18-28, 6470, 297, 2-1). RB Wide set the Utah record with his 6th 100 yd game and totaled 122 rush yds in the 3Q alone!
Sep. 25	San Jose St	A					Last year this game was tied at 7 until the 4Q. SJSt pulled within 7 but Phillips hit a 24 yd FG with :13 left to seal the 10 pt win. Utah did miss 2 FG's and was SOD at the SJ1.
Oct. 2							BONUS: The Utes are 10-0 under Whittingham with more than a week off.
Oct. 9	at Iowa St	G					Utah is 0-4 vs Iowa St but the last meeting was in 1976. The Utes are 3-7 on the road (reg ssn) vs BCS tms but beat Mich in '08 and have beaten a BCS team 7 of the L8Y.
Oct. 16	at Wyoming	A					The Utes have outscored Wyoming 112-17 combined the last 3 ssns. Utah has won 9 of the L/10 gms vs Wyoming. Coming into 2010, Utah is 9-4 their L/13 MWC AG's.
Oct. 23	Colorado St	A					LY Robert Johnson had 3 int, 2 of which led to Utah points. Cain comp 12 of 13 (1 thru hands) in the 2H to rally from a 17-3 deficit. Utah have beaten CSU 4 str yrs (avg score 34-15).
Oct. 30	at Air Force	A					Utah has won 3 of the L/4 but the avg win is by 5 ppg with none being decided by more than a TD. LY Sylvester stuffed AF's QB on 4&2 from the 7 in OT to preserve the win.
Nov. 6	TCU	A					Last year's 55 points were the most allowed by a Ute squad since 1996. Despite LY's loss, Utah still leads the all-time series 5-2. The home team is 4-1 in MWC meetings.
Nov. 13	at Notre Dame	G					First meeting. Utah is 8-3 since '02 on the road in November. This will be the latest non-conf match up scheduled in the regular season for the Utes since MWC play began (1999).
Nov. 20	at San Diego St	G					Utah has won 9 of the last 11 in this series including 4 straight (by an avg of 32 ppg). In the last 2 meetings the Utes have led at HT by a 38-0 & 35-0 score.
Nov. 27	BYU	A					The Utes have lost 3 times in the last 4 years to the Cougars (4 str wins prior). This game has been decided by a TD or less 11 times in 13 games incl LY's OT loss.

BYU COUGARS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - When I think of BYU I think of outstanding QB's. John Beck left here (#2DC) as the school's #2 all-time passer behind Ty Detmer in '06. Beck was the MWC OPOY throwing for 3,885 (69%, 32-8). Ariz St transfer Max Hall (PS#52) had not played in 4 yrs (RS, mission) but set the MWC single season soph record for total offense as well as pass yards in '07. Hall suffered a grade-3 shoulder separation vs WY but still att every pass over the final 3. He threw for 3,848 (60%, 26-12). Hall was healthy for all of '08 and threw for 3,957 (69%, 35-14) and was the #3 rusher. Last year they added in Utah St transfer Riley Nelson, who is not your prototypical BYU QB as he is an undersized running QB without a powerful arm (Parade AA). He started 7 at Utah St in '06 throwing for 925 (55%, 6-7) sparking what was then a moribund offense. Hall got stronger and faster in the offseason and threw for 3,560 (67.2%, 33-14) LY. He was the MWC OPW 5x. Nelson was supposed to play about 10Q's but only played in 7 gm (7-10-99) with 21 rush att (5.8). Hall became the MWC career passing yard leader topping Beck and his 32 wins topped Detmer's career mark. This year Nelson will battle true frosh Jake Heaps (PS#2, IFS), James Lark and Jason Munns. Naturally with the loss of a 3 year starter this unit, while still productive, will be down a few notches.

RUNNING BACKS - Curtis Brown led in rushing for 3 straight years topping 1,000 in both '05 and '06. He also led in rec's in 2006 and figured to be very difficult to replace. RFr Harvey Unga not only broke Ronney Jenkins' 1996 frosh rushing record (733) but the MWC record as well finishing with 1,227 (5.0) with 44 rec (14.9). Manase Tonga (8 st FB '06, 427 ttl yd) added 305 (3.5) and the 3rd member of the "Tongan Trio", Fui Vakapuna had 252 (3.5). In '08 Tonga was ruled ineligible and Unga's stats dipped a bit to 1,132 (4.7) while Vakapuna had 263 (4.9). True frosh JJ Di Luigi (PS#94) was compared to LaDainian Tomlinson but had just 48 (3.7). Last year they had to replace Vakapuna but got Tonga back. Unga had the swine flu over the summer and was rarely 100% during the year (injuries) but still topped 1,000 for the 3rd straight year (1087, 5.2). Di Luigi had 248 (5.5) and Bryan Kariya, who started the opener (118 all-purp vs Okla), had 199 (3.6). Tonga, who gave the team an added jolt of energy and enthusiasm had 148 (3.7). This year they lose Tonga (11 st). Not listed below are Peni Maka'afi (5'10" 238 rFr), David Foote (5'11" 212 So) and Malosi Te'o (5'10" 203 rFr). Unga left school in April and his return is questionable. If he is back, he will be the 9th player in NCAA history to top 1,000 for 4 straight years. If not, this unit is clearly weaker.

RECEIVERS - In 2007 BYU had to replace their top 4 rec but did get the huge return of Austin Collie (MWC Frosh POY in '04). While Collie led with 946 (16.9), TE Dennis Pitta was #2 with 813 (13.8) and Michael Reed added 449 (11.0). All 3 ret'd in 2008 and Collie led with 1,538 (14.5) while Pitta had 1,083 (13.0) and Reed added 589 (12.0). Last year they had to replace Collie (11 st, #4DC) and Reed. Their two TE's, Pitta and Andrew George both ret'd and Mendenhall called them among the best TE's ever to play here. They also got back McKay Jacobson (PS#38) who had 547 (19.5) as a true. Jacobson was the team's deep threat and avg 24.2 ypc but was only #2 (556) as he missed 4. Pitta (#4DC BAL) led with 829 (13.4) and 6'2" O'Neill Chambers added 376 (11.8). Luke Ashworth (PS#160) had 387 (13.8) while George had 408 (13.6). This year they lose both outstanding TE's but the WR's are much more exp'd and they add in true frosh Ross Apo (PS#30).

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 BYU had 9 of the top 10 back and the unit had one of the best G combos in the country in Ray Feinga and Travis Bright and was the 2nd biggest OL in the FBS (avg 327 lbs). They failed to meet my expectations as they only opened holes for 134 ypg rush (4.1) with 19 sks (3.9%). Last year they only had 23 career sts back (#117 FBS). Their lone returning starter, Matt Reynolds fractured his hand in August and projected starting LG Jason Speredon missed the year. Surprisingly, the young O-line nearly matched '08's stats with 146 ypg rush (4.0) and 23 sks (5.5%). This year they only lose C RJ Willing (13 st) and have 9 of the top 10 back (66 car st) plus Speredon returns. This much more exp'd unit is clearly one of the top OL's in the MWC.

DEFENSIVE LINE - BYU had an exp'd DL in '08 but due to an inexp'd back 8, saw the rush numbers slip to 140 ypg (3.9) with the D having just 22 sks. Last year it looked like they would have one of the top DL's in the MWC as DE Jan Jorgensen was already the MWC's career sack leader and almost the entire 2 deep ret'd. Surprisingly the rush D numbers only improved to 110 ypg (3.4, 25 sks). NT Russell Tialavea did only start 6 (11 tkl, inj) and departs this year along with DE Brett Denney (13 st, 41 tkl, 2 sk, HM MWC) and Jorgensen (13 st, 56 tkl, 6 sk, 1st Tm MWC, 52 car st). NT Romney Fuga (7 st) is the lone returnee that started but they do get back Eathyn Manumaleuna (13 st '07 incl key blk FG in bowl, mission). This is a much less exp'd group but still looks strong and new DE Vic So'oto had a solid spring.

LINEBACKERS - Last year the Cougars had to replace 2nd Tm MWC David Nixon (#2 tkl'r), who left as the MWC's all-time tfl leader and another LB (#9 tkl'r) but they had a veteran senior laden LB corps that incl their #1, #4, #7 tkl'rs. Naturally this year the losses are heavy. Gone are BLB Shawn Doman (12 st, #2 tkl'r, 4.5 tfl), WLB Coleby Clawson (13 st, #5 tkl'r, 5 sk, HM MWC), MLB Matt Bauman (12 st, #6 tkl'r, 5 tfl), MLB Terrance Hooks (2 st, inj, #10 tkl'r), SLB Grant Nelson (3 st, 19 tkl, 2 sk) and Jeff Bell (6 tkl). They have just 10 career sts ret and this is the least experienced unit on the team but they do add 2 VHT true frosh.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In 2006 BYU was #19 in my pass D rankings and in '07 they had to replace 2 st'rs and by the end of the year, all 4 DB starters were walk-ons. They still surprisingly finished #15. In '08 the unit ret'd just 7 career sts and as you would expect, plummeted to #93. Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs and CB Brian Logan (PS#149JC) played well despite being 5'6". BYU climbed to #33. This year they only lose FS Scott Johnson (12 st, #3 tkl'r, 4 int, 8 pbu) and SS Shiloah Te'o (5 tkl). Three starters return making this unit more experienced but they may not match '09's PDR.

CB Brian Logan

SPECIAL TEAMS - Mendenhall's first unit finished #100 in my ST rankings and I called for them to be one of the most improved ST units in IA in '06 and they moved up to #20. They had to replace most of their key players in '07 and dropped to #60. In '08 everyone was back and they moved up to #26. Last year they had to replace their P but ret'd O'Neill Chambers (23.1 KR, 5.9 PR) and added McKay Jacobson (1 PR TD true). K Mitch Payne (10-14 FG's, long 46 in '08) had an uneven Aug and almost lost his job. He held on and again hit 10-14 FG's (long 49). True frosh Riley Stephenson (PS#14) took over the KO's (12 TB) and punting (41.3 avg, 36.9 net). Chambers was once again the top KR (25.6) and PR (6.0). BYU was just #69. This year the unit returns intact and I'll call for them to have their best finish since 2006.

COACHES - Bronco Mendenhall was the DC at New Mexico 5 years prior to coming here in '03. His OC is Robert Anae, who was the Texas Tech OL coach ('00-'04) and is well versed in the spread offense. In '06 Mendenhall surprisingly switched from his 3-3-5 to a 3-4 and they allowed just 14.7 ppg (best S/'85, 4th best schl hist). Mendenhall had been his own DC, but in '08 promoted Jaime Hill. Mendenhall called the defensive plays prior to last year but Hill (5th ssn here) took over as the play caller in '09.

PHIL'S FORECAST

When Gary Crowton took over in 2001, it was a dream season as they piled up 44.1 ppg, 524 ypg and at one point were 12-0 lobbying for a BCS bowl berth. Unfortunately they lost their last 2 then had 3 straight losing seasons. Bronco Mendenhall took over in '05 and inherited a 5-6 (losses to Stanford, USC, Boise) team that was actually +54.5 ypg in MWC play (2nd best). In Mendenhall's first year they finished just 6-6 (2 losses were to Top 25 tms) but made it to a bowl. In the second year of OC Anae's system, senior QB John Beck had a phenomenal year and BYU avg'd 36.8 ppg. BYU could have easily been unbeaten and playing in a BCS game but they gave up a last second FG to Ariz and despite outplaying BC, lost in 2OT's. BYU had the NCAA's best margin of victory at home, +35.2 ppg in '06 (old record '79, +34.2). In '07 the Cougars had to replace QB Beck and had just 11 ret st'rs. For the 2nd straight year they steamrolled through the MWC at 8-0 (+157.3 ypg, +15 ppg) and earned their 3rd straight bowl bid (1st time S/'94). They did overcome a 4th & 18 on their final drive getting a TD with :38 left for a 7 point win over Utah. They were fortunate in the bowl as they blocked UCLA's game winning FG. They had 9 ret starters on offense but just 3 on defense in '08 and I learned just how passionate BYU fans are about their football. While BYU was the consensus pick to win the conf and was the only ranked MWC team to start the year, I actually picked the Cougars in a TIE for 2nd in the MWC and Cougar fans swamped PhilSteele.com to let me know their feelings. BYU was expecting a BCS bowl and they had the longest FBS win streak snapped by TCU (Frogs led 23-0 half). They got an int in the EZ to escape vs UNLV and then got a TD with :22 left to sneak past Colo St. They lost by 24 to Utah and dropped their bowl to Arizona (31-21) and finished just 10-3 (tied 2nd MWC) and #25. Last year BYU had just 11 ret st'rs but had senior QB Max Hall. Coming into 2009, whenever BYU has had a senior starting QB they had a combined record of 106-23-2 and the last 4 senior QB's all bagged conf titles. The '08 squad had benefitted from 3 net close wins and only had 12 sts lost to injury but they got both TCU and Utah at home. They opened up the season in great fashion knocking off #3 Oklahoma and appeared to be the frontrunner for a BCS berth and even possibly a National Title Game spot. It was their first win vs a Top 10 team since 1990 and they moved up to #7 prior to Fla St but were done in by 5 TO's in a 54-28 thrashing at home. It was #16 BYU (6-1) vs undefeated #10 TCU and Gameday was on hand but once again they were thrashed at home, this time 38-7. BYU rebounded to win their final 4 including a 26-23 OT win over rival Utah and then blasted Oregon St in the bowl 44-20 to finish 11-2 and #12. BYU again had 3 net close wins (see pg 299) and their 12 ret st'rs are tied for 5th in the MWC plus they lose their Sr QB. The Cougars have the best record in the MWC over the last 3 (21-3) and 5 years (34-6). Mendenhall is the only coach in BYU history to lead his team to bowl eligibility in each of his first 5 years and has a different attitude than most as he does not get the team "up" for big games, trying to keep them at an even keel all season. RB Unga is not on the team as I write this and they face Florida St and both TCU and Utah on the road so I do not see them matching 2009's 11 win total without him.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score BYU	Final Score Opp	W L
Sep. 4	Washington	G					BYU is 3-4 vs Washington, but has won the last 2 including blocking a game tying xp on the final play in 2008. BYU is 7-2 in home openers including 4-2 vs BCS teams.
Sep. 11	at Air Force	A					Bronco Mendenhall has never lost to AF as a HC & BYU has won 6 straight w/a high scoring avg of 41-22. Last year BYU scored 3 TD's off of AF TO's jumping out to a 24-0 2Q lead.
Sep. 18	at Florida St	G					BYU had lost 12 str vs ranked non-conf opp before beating #3 Okla LY. LY FSU handed BYU its 1st home loss S/'05 (18 gm streak) & worst home loss since 2004 (42-10 vs USC).
Sep. 25	Nevada	G					Overall, BYU leads this series 4-1-2 (never lost to Nevada in Provo) but has not faced Nevada since 2002 (a 3 pt loss). The Cougars are 76-60-5 vs current WAC foes.
Oct. 1	at Utah St (Fri)	A					Battle for the "Beehive Boot." BYU has won 10 straight in this series (20 out of 21). Last time here mid-3Q BYU had held USU to 117 yds & led 34-0 before all'g 2 garbage TD's.
Oct. 9	San Diego St (HC)	G					BYU has beat SDSt 8 of 9 gms and have won 7 of 8 in Provo by 21 ppg (loss by 1 pt). BYU has scored a TD in 16 of 17 Q's vs SDSt (no TD 4Q 2006 leading by 47-10).
Oct. 16	at TCU	G					Two years ago, TCU crushed BYU's "Quest for Perfection." BYU was determined to return the favor LY but lost by 31. BYU has been outscored 70-14 by TCU the last 2 years.
Oct. 23	Wyoming	G					BYU has matched a series long win streak with 6 str (41-9 avg score). Many on the WY side consider this a rivalry. BYU has shutout WY each of the L/2Y (outscored them 96-0).
Oct. 30							BONUS: BYU has won 11 straight games decided by 7 pts or less, longest active streak in NCAA.
Nov. 6	UNLV	G					LY BYU led by DD for all but 12 minutes of this game. RB Unga ran for 3 TD's in the first 20 minutes of the game. For the 1st time since 2006, BYU scored DD in every quarter.
Nov. 13	at Colorado St	A					LY BYU was up 21-0 converting 2 int's & a blk'd P into TD's in the 1Q (15 yd, 39 yd & 18 yd TD drives). The Cougars were outgained 438-373 on the day as BYU had just 12 yds in the 2Q.
Nov. 20	New Mexico	G					Last year BYU was outgained, outFD'd & was -2 in TO's but survived. They blocked a FG, stopped a 2pt conversion and the Lobos had 3 kicks hit the crossbar (2 FG and 1 xp).
Nov. 27	at Utah	A					In the L/21 meetings, the visitor has won 12x's. LY marked only the 2nd time in 6Y that this gm did not help decide the MWC Title. Eleven times the L/13Y this has been decided by a TD or less.

AIR FORCE FALCONS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Shaun Carney became the first ever true frosh Falcon QB to start an opener and left after '07 as the school's career leader in passing, total offense, TD passes and comp %. In '08 AF went from a 4th year senior to a very inexp'd unit. Shea Smith (7 gm, 84 ttl yds 2Y) and Eric Herbort (0 car yd) battled for the job. Calhoun said he would platoon the 2 early but Smith took almost all of the meaningful snaps and Herbort quit after 1 gm. AF went on a 7Q drought without a completion from the mid-3Q vs WY to late 2Q vs Utah. Smith was sick and left the Navy game with 11:00 left and true frosh Tim Jefferson led an 84 yd TD drive and took over the starting job. Jefferson won his first 5 sts and threw for 655 (55%) with 387 (3.8) rush en route to being named MWC FPOY. Jefferson missed time in spring '09 (acad), so RB Asher Clark worked at QB and spent much of the spring and Aug there. Jefferson ret'd full-time in Aug and was named the starter but was injured vs NM and Connor Dietz started 3 (SDSt, TCU, Utah). Jefferson seemed to be favoring his ankle vs WY and Dietz started vs Utah but broke a bone in his hand. Jefferson started the last 5. Dietz is more of a runner but fires up his teammates with his yelling while Jefferson is a quiet leader with a better arm and better grasp of the offense. Jefferson started vs Colo St and was a much improved QB but was inj again vs BYU. Ben Cochran moved in from S and took most of the snaps. Jefferson threw for 848 (57%, 5-2, 254 rush) and Dietz threw for 197 (47.4%,1-0, 369 rush). This unit should remain healthier.

FB Jared Tew

RUNNING BACKS - The FB was the main ball carrier in Fisher DeBerry's wishbone offense but in 2006 Chad Hall became the first HB to be the #1 rusher since '94. Hall was moved to ZWR in Calhoun's first year but was basically an RB. He was the MWC OPOY rushing for 1,478 (6.4) and was #1 in rec (524, 10.5), ttl TD's (16) and ret yds (681). AF had to replace their top 5 rushers in '08 with the leading returnee being TB Savier Stephens (148, 4.1). Of the teams 3,894 rush yds, 75% were by a TB/WR in '07. In '08 the top 4 TB were all frosh and soph. FB Todd Newell led with 594 (4.2) and converted QB Asher Clark rushed for 588 (4.5). Kyle Halderman had 350 (9.7) from the ZWR slot. FB Jared Tew added 328 (6.6) and Stephens had 236 (3.5). Last year 4 of the top 6 RB's ret'd (lost #1 Newell and #3 Lumpkin). Clark was working at QB which slowed his progress. He began the year avg 81 ypg but went thru a 5 gm slump where he didn't top 40. In the final 5 he had 481 and finished #2 with 865 (5.7). FB Tew led with 970 (4.1) but with 87 more rush att than Clark. They both topped 100 in the bowl (173 and 129). Stephens had 417 (5.0) and ZWR Jonathan Warzeka added 267 (5.6). This year the unit returns intact. Not listed in the PSL are FB's Ryan Southworth (5'10" 220 Sr, PS#158) and Mike DeWitt (6'1" 210 So) along with TB's Darius Jones (5'9" 160 So) and Cody Getz (5'7" 170 So, PS#248). AF has an unusual amount of experience at the RB position.

RECEIVERS - You had to expect AF to possibly double '06's passing output in Calhoun's first year as they talked about a new wide open passing style offense. DeBerry's "stodgy" wishbone off avg 148 ypg passing in '04 and 171 in '05. However, Calhoun's pass offense totaled just 120 ypg in '07. In '08 their leading returnee was TE Travis Dekker (miss 4) and their deep threat Spencer Armstrong was lost after 3 (ret'd bowl). Kyle Halderman led with 266 (22.2). Kevin Fogler was #2 with 214 (19.5) and Josh Cousins (PS#142QB) added 176 (11.0) but the Falcons avg just 82 ypg. All 3 ret'd last year but Halderman played in just 6 (4 rec, inj). Fogler had a key 73 yd TD rec vs Army and led with 567 (22.7). ZWR Jonathan Warzeka was #2 with 246 (13.7). AF avg just 88 ypg passing. This year they lose Cousins (7 st, 2 rec) and TE Sean Quintana (11 st, 6 rec). I look for more WR production in 2010.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '06 three OL's who started the final 5 in '05 ret'd but AF only avg 4.2 ypc rushing (lowest S/'97) with 19 sks (13%). In Calhoun's first year they had to replace 3 st'rs (comb 42 sts). Three did return with 6+ career sts and all 5 st'rs played the majority of the snaps. The unit opened holes for 300 ypg rush (5.4, best S/'96). In '08 they had to replace 3 st'rs (37 car sts ret, #101 FBS). They still rushed for 267 ypg (4.5) with just 5 sks (3.6%). Last year they had 3 st'rs back and Calhoun called it a team strength. They had 5 senior st'rs. The numbers were about the same at 283 ypg rush, 4.5) with 11 sks (7.2%). All 5 st'rs depart in 1st Tm MWC LG Nick Charles (12 st, 4Y st'r), 1st Tm MWC RG Peter Lusk (13 st, 2Y st'r), LT Ryan Gonzales (13 st, HM MWC), C Michael Hampton (13 st) and RT Chris Campbell (13 st, 2Y st'r). Their 1 career start returning is the 2nd lowest in the FBS but service academies do a great job with inexp'd units and while weaker, they will be better than expected.

DEFENSIVE LINE - AF switched to a 3-4 D in '07 and had an exp'd front and allowed 136 ypg (3.5) with 28 sks. In '08 they had 2 st'rs back and surprisingly slipped to 142 ypg (3.7) but with 34 sks. Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs (1st Tm MWC DE) but did return Ben Garland who at 6'5" 275 had unusual size for an AF DL. Garland was, by far, the team's top DL (1st Tm MWC). Despite being less exp'd overall, AF allowed 134 ypg (3.7) with 24 sks. This year they lose Garland (13 st, 45 tkl, 10.5 tfl) and DE Myles Morales (11 st, 42 tkl, 3.5 sk) but have 4 of the top 6 back including 2nd Tm MWC DE Rick Ricketts (#4 tkl'r, 4 sk).

LINEBACKERS - In '08 AF had to replace 3 starting LB's incl a 1st Tm MWC (#1, #3, #5, #10 tkl'r). Last year they had to replace their #3 and #10 tkl'rs but returned their #1 and #7. Unfortunately Ken Lamendola (118 tkl '08) was lost after 5 sts and Patrick Hennessey after 2. In fact, vs Wyoming, 4 LB's were out. On the season, 2 true frosh comb for 8 sts (59 tkl). This year they lose ILB Justin Moore (13 st, #2 tkl'r, 5.5 tfl) and 3rd Tm MWC ILB John Falgout (8 st, #1 tkl'r, 2 tfl). Despite the losses, with Lamendola's return they are more experienced and should remain healthier.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '05 AF was only #112 in my PDR (#114 in '06). In '07 they improved to #69 and in '08 had to replace 3 st'rs but new CB Reggie Rembert was called the team's most explosive player while true frosh CB Anthony Wright started the last 10. The inexp'd unit climbed to #48 (highest ever). Last year CB Rembert missed 2 (susp) and SS Chris Thomas was not 100% most of the year but they only had to replace 1 st'r and 2 bkps. As you would expect, AF had an even higher finish at #24 allowing a 10-20 ratio. This yr they lose HM MWC SS Thomas (12 st, 57 tkl, 5 int) and Luke Hyder (4 st, 41 tkl, 1 int) but have 3 st'rs back including their fine CB combo of Wright (1st Tm MWC) and Rembert (2nd Tm). Wright's 3 int in the bowl (7 for yr) tied an AF record (Cyd Maattala '68 and Jim Miller '75).

SPECIAL TEAMS - AF was #11 in my ST rankings in '07. They had to replace their dangerous returnman Chad Hall in '08. Ryan Harrison (PS#45) hit a school record 24 FG's and had 23 TB's on 74 KO's, AF dropped to #64. Last year they had to replace Harrison. P Brandon Geyer avg 48.9 (9 punts) in '08 but with little hang time. He worked to improve and had an incredible year with a net of 39.5 (18 I20) and just 3 TB's. Erik Soderberg was the #3 K to start but ended up making the 2nd most FG's in AF history (22-30, long 50) and had 15 TB's on 71 KO's. Reggie Rembert (25.1) and Jonathan Warzeka (27.9) split KR duties and Warzeka had a KR TD in the bowl (1st at AF S/'85). Soph Anthony Wright took over as the top PR (18.2) with an 88 yd TD vs Army. AF made a remarkable climb up to #4. While most of the unit returns, they will likely drop some in my ST rankings with the loss of Geyer.

COACHES - Troy Calhoun is a 1989 graduate of Air Force (1st alumnus to be HC here) and is just the 6th coach in school history. In 2006 he was the OC for the Houston Texans and was an asst with Denver prior. He was also the OC at Ohio ('97-'00) and Wake Forest ('01-'02) where his '02 Demon Deacons led the ACC in total offense! Despite a rumored offer from Tennessee, he chose to stay at his alma mater. In July 2007 his OC quit so he promoted QB coach Blane Morgan and OL coach Clay Hendrix to co-OC's. DC Tim DeRuyter left in January to become the DC at Texas A&M. Matt Wallerstedt was elevated to Assoc HC/DC this year after coaching the ILB's and being co-DC in '09.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Troy Calhoun stepped into a great situation in 2007. In Fisher DeBerry's last year in 2006 AF suffered 5 close losses and despite a 4-8 record and having to face #11 Tenn and #9 ND, they were only outscored by 2 ppg. Calhoun's first team went 6-2 in the MWC which was AF's best ever MWC record. While they had 3 fortunate wins during the season, in the bowl they led Cal 21-0 but QB Carney was inj and they lost by 6. There were some factors pointing to a weaker record in '08. Despite their 6-2 MWC record, AF was -13.6 ypg. After going 4-11 the previous 3 yrs in games decided by 8 or less, things bounced their way in '07 (3-1). They benefitted from +10 in TO's, had just 8 ret st'rs and lost 25 lettermen while returning just 23 (48%). They were picked 6th in the MWC in '08 (picked 7th in '07) and had 15 soph and 16 seniors on the 2 deep. Calhoun did a great job getting AF to 8 wins in '08 (1 less than '07). They did catch some breaks again (see my '09 magazine). The Falcons got to 8-2 before losing their last 3. The '08 squad benefitted from +13 in turnovers and only had 12 sts lost to injury all year. Last year they had 44 lettermen ret and just 21 lett lost. AF went 5-3 in the MWC and for the first time under Calhoun, had a positive net ypg at +35.5 in MWC play. They are 16-8 in the MWC under Calhoun. Last year's squad repeated going to the Armed Forced Bowl vs Houston but this time won which allowed them to equal '08's overall record of 8-5. Calhoun is now 13-5 in the 2H of the reg season. On page 299 you will see that teams that had 4 net close losses the previous year have stronger records 31 out of 36 times (86.1%) and AF had 4 net close losses last year including 2 in OT (Navy and Utah) and a 3 pt loss to powerful TCU. AF was +22 in turnovers. The Falcons have to face Oklahoma and TCU on the road this year. A few of my 9 sets of power ratings are calling for a 10-2 season and how they fare at home vs BYU and Utah will probably be the determining factor in whether they can achieve that.

Sep. 4	Northwestern St	A					First meeting. Air Force is 16-3 in home openers with 5 straight wins by 33 ppg. The Demons went 0-11 LY including losses to Houston (55-7) & Baylor (68-13).
Sep. 11	BYU	A					AF has had trouble winning vs the "Top 3" in the MWC (BYU, TCU & Utah) with a 2-15 rec'd S/'04 (2-7 under Calhoun). AF has lost the L/6 in this series by at least 14 pts.
Sep. 18	at Oklahoma	G					AF has lost 14 consecutive games vs ranked foes. The Falcons are 0-1 vs Oklahoma, losing 44-3 in 2001. Air Force is 12-2 in road openers including a loss at Minn LY.
Sep. 25	at Wyoming	A					LY AF had just 79 1H yds and inserted "bkup" QB Dietz (had been seeing time w/Jefferson inj'd) after half. He led them to the 10-0 win. It was AF's 1st shutout over a conf opp S/'97.
Oct. 2	Navy	A					AF has lost 7 straight in the series with 6 decided by a TD or less. Last year vs Navy they were held without an offensive TD and missed a 31 yd FG in OT in the 3 point loss.
Oct. 9	Colorado St	A					Only up 17-10 at half in last year's meeting, Air Force scored 17 unanswered 2H pts. The visitor is 3-9 in this series but has won 2 of 3. Air Force has gone 8-2 after Navy.
Oct. 16	at San Diego St	G					Last year AF scored 2 defensive TD's and PK Soderberg tied a school record for FG's (4). The visitor has dropped 4 of 5 but AF did win last time here with a 482-165 yd edge.
Oct. 23	at TCU	G					LY in freezing rain, AF forced 3 TO's (2 inside their 10) & scored w/:57 left but TCU recv'd the onside. AF had just 4 off plays that were 15+ yds. Falcons 1-6 at Amon G. Carter (only win LY's bowl).
Oct. 30	Utah	A					Sixteen of the L/19 in this series have been decided by 10 or less. AF has lost 6 of the L/7 with many decided on the final play (LY Dietz stopped on 4&2 from the 7 in OT).
Nov. 6	at Army	A					Air Force has won 12 of 13 vs Army and has won 6 straight at West Point by 19 ppg. LY's gm was tied at HT (7-7) before the Falcons scored TD's on 4 of 5 possessions.
Nov. 13	New Mexico	A					Air Force has won 5 of the last 6 in this series. HT is 9-3 in MWC play (conf began in '99). LY QB Jefferson was inj'd early but the D forced 4 TO's and held NM to just 10 FD's.
Nov. 18	at UNLV (Thur)	A					Air Force has won 7 of the last 8 vs the Rebels. LY, in the snow, AF held UNLV to more than 90 yds under their pass avg. The AF win sealed UNLV HC Sanford's departure.
Nov. 27							BONUS: In each of Calhoun's 1st 3 seasons, AF has opened 2-1 in conference play. Thru 6 gms LY (vs IA) AF had scored just 116 pts, lowest since 1993 (101 in same stretch).

SAN DIEGO ST AZTECS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In '07 Kevin O'Connell finished as the school's #3 career passer (#3DC) and also led SDSt in rushing in '07. He earned my award for MWC Most Important Off Player in '07 throwing for 3,063 (59%, 15-8). I expected Ryan Lindley (PS#74) to win the job in '08 and Former HC Chuck Long said he'd never been around a frosh that was able to read D's like he did. Lindley set frosh records for att (427), comp (242), passing yd (2,653) and TD's (16). He had three 300 yard games and one 400. He inj'd his shoulder in the 2Q vs TCU and Drew Westling started vs AF. In 4 games Westling threw for just 206 (48%, 0-2). Last year Lindley ret'd but went from operating out of the shotgun to taking snaps under C and it took awhile to adjust. Lindley threw for 3,054 but completed just 54.7% with a 23-16 ratio. Westling played in 2 (9 att) but departs. Battling for #2 are Hoke recruits Jake Bernards (PS#182), Colton Morrison (PS#117, GS), Chris Forni (IFS) and Ryne Clark (6'2" 200 rFr, up to #2 QB on post-spg depth chart). It wouldn't surprise me if Bernards or Morrison see a lot of action but Lindley should be a much improved QB in his 2nd year in the system.

RUNNING BACKS - The Aztecs have had some fine RB's including a guy named Marshall Faulk. In 2007 the leading RB was Brandon Bornes, who had just 354 (4.0). Their leading returnees in '08 were Brandon Sullivan who had 220 (3.8) with 119 rec yds and Atiyyah Henderson who tallied 183 (4.2) with 202 rec yds. Sullivan missed 4 and rushed for 185 (3.9). The diminutive Henderson (5'9") had 100 (4.8) vs Idaho and 177 (7.1) vs Colo St but surprisingly only had 213 in his other 9 but still led with 490 (4.1). Last year there was much talk about how the rush game would be improved as it was unacceptable to avg just 73 ypg (3.1). Henderson missed '09 with injury. Sullivan led but with just 558 (3.6, DNP 2). True frosh Walter Kazee had 2 fumbles vs S Utah but rebounded and ran for 101 vs NMSt, the first true frosh in 6 years to top 100 in a game. He finished with 371 (4.3). Anthony Miller was ahead of the other true frosh in Aug but finished with just 81 (2.3). Davon Brown had 31 (2.1). This year they lose Henderson (denied a 6th year) and added to the mix is Robert Gregorio (5'10" 170 So, Scout Tm POY). Despite a poor spring game (46 att, 8 yd counting QB sks) it's the 2nd year of the system meaning they should improve greatly on last year's weak numbers (78 ypg, 2.9) especially adding a FB (new 2 RB set).

RECEIVERS - In 2008 SDSt had to replace their top 2 rec's. The top returnees were converted QB Darren Mougey (368, 11.5) and Vincent Brown (349, 11.3). True frosh Dominique Sandifer was one of the top WR's in Aug but RS. Brown led in '08 with 631 but just 9.9 ypc while Mougey was #2 with 437 (12.9). Roberto Wallace (PS#64) had 405 (13.1) and TE Matthew Kawulok had 231 (11.0). Last year they only had to replace Mougey but did lose 2TE's over the summer. Brown emerged as a big-time threat. In the first 6, he avg 130 ypg (#3 NCAA) but unfortunately was lost for the season vs Colo St and finished #2 (778, 17.3). DeMarco Sampson, who was injured and in the coaches doghouse throughout his first four years emerged after Brown's inj. He came in with just 17 career rec but had 15 for 257 vs CSU and led with 851 (13.7). Wallace was #3 with 463 (12.9). Sandifer came in at mid-year and had 298 (11.5) while TE Alston Umuolo was #5 with 243 (11.0). This year they must replace Wallace (4 st), Mekell Wesley (3 rec), Jon Toledo (3 rec) and Kawulok (3 st, 4 rec). Not listed in the PSL are Osmond Nicholas (6'3" 210 rFr, PS#358), Doug Deakin (6'0" 180 Sr), Marven Jones (6'4" 210 rFr, PS#289), Dylan Denso (6'2" 205 rFr), Javier Nicholas (6'0" 200 So) and TE's Hunter Hewitt (6'5" 245 So), Josh O'Brien (6'4" 225 Sr, PS#248) and Jesse Ben-Ron (6'3" 240 rFr). Sampson (NFL caliber) was granted a 6th year and Brown turned down a shot at the NFL so this unit may be the MWC's best.

OFFENSIVE LINE - This unit was hurt by injuries and defections during the Chuck Long era. All four OL that he recruited in '06 were no longer on the squad in '08. In '08 their 26 career OL sts ret were #110 in the FBS. The unit then lost both projected starting OT's over the summer. They had their weakest totals in over 5 years as the OL paved the way for just 73 ypg rush (3.1) while allowing 21 sacks (4.3%). Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs (#7DC). Five ret'd with starting exp and while the O-line trimmed off almost 19 lbs per man, they shifted from pass blocking to more power run blocking. Surprisingly the numbers only improved to 78 ypg rush (2.9) with 16 sacks (3.6%). This year they lose RT Peter Nelson (12 st, 2Y st'r), RG Ikaika Aken-Moleta (8 st, 2Y st'r) and C Damian Shankle (2 gm). Eight return with starting exp incl 4 who started 7+ last season plus they add in two large JC OT's. In the 2nd year of Hoke's schemes, I look for significant improvement.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '07 SDSt only had to replace 2 DL starters but surprisingly yielded 242 ypg rush and 5.3 ypc, their worst since before 1961 with 15 sks. In 2008 they had to replace 2 st'rs again but did have 5 back with starting exp. Unfortunately the unit was decimated by injuries and they yielded 248 ypg (worst S/'83) rush (5.1) with just 13 sks. DC Rocky Long inherited a veteran group and switched it to a 3-3-5. At NM, Long's rush D's yielded under 3.8 ypc in 9 of his 11 years. As you would expect, the numbers improved greatly to 166 ypg rush (3.9) with the D having 19 sks but Long felt his blitzing D was handcuffed at times due to poor man-to-man coverage. They are now in the 2nd year of Long's system and they only lose DE Jonathan Soto (1 st, 26 tkl, 2 sk), Zachary Shapiro (18 tkl, 1 sk) and return 5 who have started 5+ career gms. Adding depth are Garrett Riggio (6'4" 240 rFr), Frederick Trujillo (6'1" 225 So) and Larry Gibbs (6'0" 240 Jr).

LINEBACKERS - At NM, Rocky Long's LOBO was technically a S but basically an LB type (remember Brian Urlacher?). I list the Aztec position in the LB write-up. Last year they had 3 st'rs back to 4 positions but did have to replace their #1 tackler. Long was extremely high on the unit saying they were 14 deep. Naturally the Aztecs allowed 6.7 ppg less. This year they lose WLB Jerry Milling (12 st, #1 tkl'r, 9.5 tfl), MLB Luke Laolagi (12 st, #5 tkl'r), AZTEC Nick Sandford (11 st, #3 tkl'r, 2.5 tfl) and Martrell Fantroy (35 tkl). Even though they lose 3 st'rs, Long alternated his LB's and he has 3 back who had 35+ tackles. Andrew Preston had 20 st in '07/'08 and although an '09 bkp, was still the #6 tkl'r. This is the 2nd year of Long's system and, despite losing 3 of their top 5 tkl'rs they have back their #2, #6 and #7, and could be just as strong.

S Dey Juan Hemmings

DEFENSIVE BACKS -The Aztecs' Darkside Defense finished #26, #34 and #7 in my PDR from '03-'05 but slipped to #79, #96 and #116 from '06-'08. LY they not only had to replace 3 st'rs, but the lone returnee, Aaron Moore lost his job. Even with 4 new st'rs, they finished #65 allowing 58.6% (15-11 ratio) in Rocky Long's new D. This year they lose CB's Davion Mauldin (7 st, 23 tkl, 4 pbu), Kwincy Edwards (7 st, 48 tkl, 3 pbu) and Moore (10 tkl, 8 gm). Adding depth are Andy Gregorio (5'9" 190 Sr) and Colin Lockett (6'0" 175 rFr) This is a much more exp unit and should continue to move up in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Chuck Long inherited a unit that was #67 in my ST rankings. In his 3 years they were #108, #46 and #98. Last year they added new ST Coach Dan Ferrigno (21 yr Pac-10 asst) who was Cal's ST coach from '96-'99 with a high rank of #6. Basically everyone ret'd last year. K Lane Yoshida who hit 8-12 FG's (L/49) in '08, hit 10-17 (L/48) with 1 miss from 54. P Brian Stahovich was on the Ray Guy midseason watch list. He improved from 39.5 (32.9 net) in '08 to 43.8 (38.0 net) LY. Their return game was avg. This year they lose Yoshida but they should improve upon LY's #94 finish with Stahovich back.

COACHES - Brady Hoke lettered at Ball St from '77-'80. He was the Michigan DL coach ('97-'02) before becoming HC at Ball St in '03. His first four BSU teams had just 4, 2, 4 and 5 wins. He was on the hot seat heading into '07 but got them to a bowl and in '08 led BSU to a 12-0 reg season while recording their highest ever ranking in the polls. Hoke has some of the best coor's in the MWC. OC Al Borges was the Aub OC from '04-'07 (led SEC in pts scored '04 & '05). Borges was also the OC at Oregon, Cal and UCLA (finalist Broyles Award in '97 & '98). Rocky Long was an amazing hire at DC. Long knows the MWC inside and out and has produced top-notch D's every year with NM (HC 11 ssn). LB coach Mark Smith was Hoke's DC at Ball St (6 yr). The Aztecs' QB coach is SDSt alum and former Cleveland Browns MVP (1980) QB Brian Sipe.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Amazingly SDSt has not had a winning season since 1998! The Aztecs were just 27-48 in MWC play this past decade. In 2006 they were outgained in MWC play by 89 ypg and followed that with -127 and -200 ypg the next 2 yrs. The '08 team was just 2-10 overall and 1-7 in the MWC as 30 of SDSt's 79 recruits from 2002-'04 either DNQ or left for some other reason. In Chuck Long's final year of '08 they had just 10 seniors and 20 juniors and were -6 in turnovers with 2 net close losses (see pg 299). SDSt's avg attendance has dropped by over 10,000 S/'04. They were #20 in the FBS in starts lost to injury (34 in '08) and also had numerous bkps inj'd. Last year they had 14 ret st'rs. SDSt became one of the rare teams to make my Most Improved List and not go from a losing season to a bowl. They opened the year 2-3 and were tied with BYU late 3Q in a 10 point loss. After knocking off Colo St on the road and NM at home, they moved to 4-4 and still had a shot. After taking an expected 55-12 loss to TCU, the key loss happened vs Wyoming. They were in complete control leading 27-6 in the 4Q with 23 seniors playing in their FHG but amazingly lost on a FG with :23 left. After losing by 31 to Utah on the road, they had an ironic situation vs UNLV. In '08 the Rebels needed a win to get to a bowl but SDSt was playing their FHG for their outgoing coach and upset UNLV. Last year UNLV was playing their FHG for an outgoing coach. The Aztecs led 24-7 in the 3Q but lost. They doubled their win total to 4 and signs still point upward this year. They make my Turnovers=Turnaround list (-10) and QB Lindley was banged up in numerous games. They have 16 ret st'rs (tied most MWC) and despite their 2-6 MWC record, their -61.4 ypg was 5th best. They again make my Most Improved List as all 9 sets of my power ratings call for the Aztecs to be bowl eligible for the first time since 2003 and I will call for the Aztecs to have their first winning record since 1998!

Sep. 4	Nicholls St	G					First meeting. SDSt is 2-3 in home openers and were upset in '08 by Cal Poly being outgained by 104 yds. Colonel's went 3-8 LY including a 72-0 loss to AF & 48-13 loss to La Tech.
Sep. 11	at New Mexico St	G					The Aztecs are 7-1-1 vs the Aggies but LY they were tied at 17 into the 4Q as the teams combined for just 28 FD's & 486 yds. SDSt has dropped 17 straight road openers.
Sep. 18	at Missouri	A					SDSt is 0-2 vs Missouri but the L/meeting was in 1980. The Aztecs haven't won a road gm vs a current BCS conf school S/'99 (Kansas) and they have dropped 15 straight.
Sep. 25	Utah St	G					The Aztecs are 9-1 vs the Aggies with all the meetings occurring when SDSt was in the WAC ('78-'98). The home team in SDSt/WAC games is 8-0 S/'04 winning by 21 ppg.
Oct. 2							BONUS: The Utah St game is the KGB SkyShow (always largest crowd). Since the MWC was formed ('99), every tm in the conference has made it to a bowl except for SDSt.
Oct. 9	at BYU	G					The Aztecs have lost 13 of the last 15 meetings and 4 of their last 5 losses have been by 21 or more pts (last year's by 10). SDSt is 2-15 all-time in Provo w/4 str losses.
Oct. 16	Air Force	G					LY, with a banged-up finger on his throwing hand, Lindley threw 4 int. AF scored 23 of its 26 pts off TO's and did not score an offensive TD. SDSt has now lost 3 str to AF.
Oct. 23	at New Mexico	G					Rocky Long has won 9 straight in this series (8 as NM HC & last year as SDSt DC). San Diego St has dropped 4 straight in Albuquerque including 70-7 last time here.
Oct. 30	at Wyoming	A					The visitor is 5-15 in this series and has lost 6 of the L/7. Last year SDSt was up 27-6 but WY drove for the GW 43 yd FG with :23 left. Lindley's Hail Mary fell incomplete.
Nov. 6	Colorado St	G					SDSt rallied for its largest road comeback win S/'00 in this gm LY. They also snapped a 10 gm road losing streak. Lindley threw a career-high 6 TD's and Sampson had 257 rec yds.
Nov. 13	at TCU	G					The Aztecs have put up 364 total yds COMBINED the L/2Y vs the Frogs. San Diego St is 0-5 vs TCU. Coming into 2010, SDSt is 3-13 in MWC road gms the last 4 years.
Nov. 20	Utah	G					SDSt has lost 9 of 11 in this series, incl 4 straight. In those 9 losses they've been outscored 35-11. Last time here the 49 point home loss was the worst S/'79 (63-14 vs BYU).
Nov. 27	UNLV	G					Third straight year as season finale. LY SDSt led 24-7 but all'd UNLV to score 21 unanswered. The Aztecs have had an interception return TD vs UNLV an amazing 6 straight meetings.

WYOMING COWBOYS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

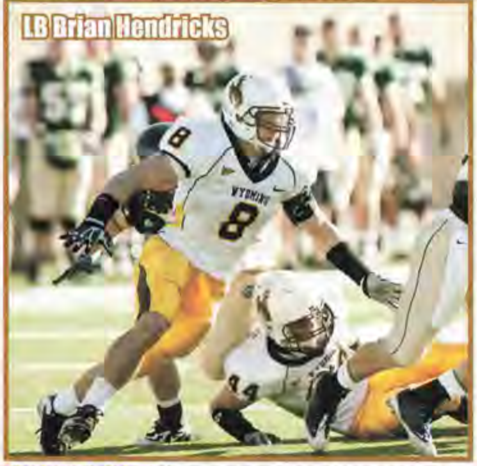
QUARTERBACKS - In 2006, VHT rFr Karsten Sween (PS#28) was 5-2 as the starter throwing for 1,304 (60%, 9-8). He was the clear-cut starter in '07 and threw for 2,028 (60%) but had a 12-17 ratio. Due to the 17 int, Sween lost some of his swagger in 2008 and Joe Glenn alternated QB's on a weekly, and sometimes series-by-series basis. At one point Glenn announced that they would pull a QB if he had a turnover so four different QB's played vs BG. The 4 QB's combined for 52% with a 7-17 ratio. Last year Sween was the frontrunner out of spring but new HC's usually like their own recruits and in Aug newcomer Robert Benjamin (PS#78JC) barely beat out true frosh Austyn Carta-Samuels (PS#85). They both took snaps the first 3 (0 comb TD pass) then Carta-Samuels was given the job and won MWC OPW in B2B weeks (first time in WY history) and once more vs SDSt. He became WY's first MWC Frosh of the Year. Carta-Samuels threw for 1,953 (58.6%, 10-5) and was the #3 rusher (366, 2.6). He led the team to five 4Q comebacks incl the bowl win. Benjamin threw for 269 (45.5%, 1-1) and opted to transfer. Sween played in 8 (27 yds) and graduated. Battling for #2 is Dax Crum (PS#91JC) who had 5 sts in '08 throwing for 429 (53%, 2-6 ratio) and 4 true frosh. Carta-Samuels should be one of the MWC's better QB's.

RUNNING BACKS - Wyoming has had just one 1,000 yard rusher since 1998 (Devin Moore 1,301 in '08) and last year they had to replace their "Thunder and Lightning" duo of Moore and Wynel Seldon. The top returnee, Brandon Stewart, had just 78 (4.9) and was moved to WR. After the second spring scrimmage, Christensen said he wasn't pleased with the RB's as they were not very physical. They also had to start running pass routes unlike previous years. True frosh Alvester Alexander (PS#329) led with 640 (4.7). Stewart was moved back after the opener and finished #2 with 498 (4.0). Darius Terry, who had 43 (2.7) in '08 began as the starter but in 7 games had just 117 (3.4). Not listed below is Tedder Easton (5'11" 235 rFr). They lose Stewart (6 st) and Terry (3 st) but with Alexander now a soph, they should have improved numbers.

RECEIVERS -The Cowboys have had great success with their 3 career leaders all ranking among the top in the NCAA. In 2008, they had to replace 3 of their top 4 and dropped passes plagued the unit as did an unstable QB position. Greg Bolling led with just 271 (10.4) while TE Jesson Salyards added 225 (10.7). Last year during the spring and Aug, drops were again plentiful. Bolling was suspended for the first two and only finished with 170 (9.4). Once again the stats were underwhelming as David Leonard, who had 187 (11.7) in '08, led with 705, avg just 9.2 ypc. Zach Bolger was #2 with 314 (11.2), Travis Burkhalter (PS#152) added 213 (10.1) and TE Orlando Arnold had 172 (10.1). In this offense the TE's are mostly receivers but Salyards only had 3 rec. This year they lose Salyards (5 st), Arnold (6 st, 17 rec), Bolling (1 st), Donate Morgan (3 rec) and TE Greg Genho (4 st, 2 rec). After a recent slide they add in 2 JC's and I look for good sized improvement in 2010.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2008, the Cowboy's O-line, which had struggled the previous 8 years (never topped 132 ypg or 3.6 ypc) was much improved with 5 starters back (91 car sts). They paved the way for 178 ypg rush (4.3) while allowing just 18 sks, their lowest since 1997. Last year they only had to replace 2 starters and while not as experienced, they still had 4 back who had been full-time starters (75 car sts). WY slipped to 136 ypg rush (3.6) and the sacks zoomed up to 37 (9.0%). This year they lose C Russ Arnold (13 st, 2Y st'r), LT Ryan Otterson (13 st, 3Y st'r) and RG Zack Kennedy (L/4 st). Once again, 3 starters return (70 car sts) but now are in the 2nd year of Christensen's system.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2007, Wyoming's 3 soph starters had a comb 1 career start. Surprisingly the Cowboys allowed just 123 ypg (3.0) while the D had 33 sks (29 sks '06). In 2008, the unit ret'd intact so it was surprising that they allowed 140 ypg (3.7) with just 17 sacks. Last year they only had to replace 2 players (comb 3 sts) and the 3 soph's were now seniors so the unit was acknowledged as the strength of the team. Surprisingly again, even though Wyoming finished with a winning record for the first time in 3 years, they had their weakest rush D allowing 173 ypg (4.4) with 23 sacks. This year they lose DE Mitch Unrein (13 st, 41 tkl, 4 sk), NG Fred Givens (11 st, 42 tkl, 5.5 tfl), 1st Tm MWC DT John Fletcher (12 st, 52 tkl, 7 sk), DT Mike Neuhaus (18 tkl, 1.5 sk) and DE Corey Orth (1 st, 5 tkl). They switch to a 4-3 and move in starting LB's Gabe Knapton and Josh Biezuns so actually they have 2 st'rs back for 4 positions. When a team loses three 3 yr starters, you would expect a large drop in the D-line numbers, but the unit has gone against expectations 4 straight years and adds 2 starters.



LB Brian Hendricks

LINEBACKERS - Wyoming's rush D has been driven by their LB's. In 2007, they had a veteran group and allowed just 3.0 ypc. In 2008, they had 1 starter ret but Glenn did say that rFr Gabe Knapton could be one of the best WY LB's ever. Due to turnovers (-22), the D was on the field in bad situations (27.8 ppg). Last year they had to replace outstanding LB Ward Dobbs (#1 tkl'r) as well as their #6 and #12 tacklers. They did return their #2, #4 and #13 tkl'rs including Knapton. Their DC said that Brian Hendricks was even faster than Dobbs so much was expected of the unit. Hendricks had a monster game with the most tackles in school history (23) vs AF, the first to top 20 tkl in a game since Frank Erzinger's 21 in 1972. Later Knapton had 17 vs UNLV. That productive duo finished #2 and #3 in tackles. This year they lose OLB Weston Johnson (13 st, #4 tkl'r, 13 tfl) and Matt Barella (7 tkl) plus they move their #2 & #7 tkl'rs to the D-line. Hendricks earned 2nd Tm MWC but is the only returnee to the new 3 man unit.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Wyoming had an inexp'd secondary in 2008 but still finished #55 in my PDR. Last year they only had to replace 1 starter and returned the Gipson brothers at CB and Chris Prosinski, who coaches thought was the Def MVP mid-2008, at FS. True frosh Shamiel Gary (Frosh AA) got his first start vs Weber St and grabbed 3 int (dropped 4th). The Gipson brothers, dropped 7 or 8 picks in '08 (0 int) but Tashaun got 3 int in '09. Christensen called Marcell Gipson (CB school rec 340 bench) perhaps the most explosive player on the team as he was the top KR. Christensen said both Gipson brothers have NFL potential. Surprisingly WY slid to #73 LY, their lowest finish since '03. This year the 2 deep returns intact and I look for a solid move up the PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Joe Glenn's first five years, this unit finished #44, #10, #47, #87 and #85. All the key players departed in '08 and they plummeted to #118. Last year they only had to replace their KR and I said they should make a good sized climb in the ratings but honestly they overachieved my expectations (#30). Austin McCoy, who avg 37.9 (31.6 tm net) in '08 greatly improved to 43.3 (tm net 38.2). David Leonard improved his PR avg from 7.4 to 12.9 and with a 42 yd PR vs AF, he ended WY's 30 game drought without a PR of 20+ yds. Marcell Gipson took over as KR (22.6). Walk-on McCoy hit 4-6 FG's (0-2 from 30+) but lost his job to true frosh Ian Watts who, hit 12-15 FG's (L/43). Jake Scott had 6 TB's on 49 KO's. This year they only lose Scott and could improve again.

COACHES - In Joe Glenn's 2nd season ('04) he turned WY around with a 7-5 mark and made the cover of The Sporting News as one of the hot coaching prospects for BCS schools. Unfortunately, he did not have another winning season in his final 4 years. Dave Christensen took over as HC last year (OC for 12 yrs under Gary Pinkel at both Toledo and Missouri). His OC is Marcus Arroyo, who was previously the co-OC at SJSt and a former QB of the Spartans. The DC is Marty English, who is in his 8th year here and was the LB coach under Glenn. English had 8 starters back from a unit that allowed just 330 ypg in '08 and yielded 393 ypg LY.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In the first 3 years of the decade, the Cowboys, after not having a losing season since 1992 opened 5-29. Joe Glenn took over in 2003 and was here for six years. In 2004, they earned their first bowl berth since 1993 and upset BCS member UCLA. Things were sailing along in 2005 as they were 4-1 and had a win over SEC member Ole Miss. They had 7 TO's vs TCU and from there on, Glenn's troops went just 15-27 catching a lot of tough breaks. In both '05 & '07 they were -12 in TO's and in his final year were -22. In '08, four different QB's combined for a 7-17 ratio. Naturally Wyoming qualified for my Turnovers=Turnaround (pg 312) last year and had 8 starters back from a defense that allowed just 330 ypg. While they had an attractive home schedule for the fans (Texas, BYU and TCU), it made reaching '08's 4 win total a challenge. Last year Wyoming was a fortunate team. They had an amazing 6 net close wins (pg 299) and had only 6 starts lost to injury all year. They went from -22 in TO's to +8. Despite being 4-4 in the MWC, they were -108.3 ypg (2nd worst). WY only had a 434-411 yd edge vs Weber St but pulled out a 7 pt win. After expected losses to Tex and Colo they trailed UNLV 27-20 in the 4Q but pulled out the win despite being outgained. They trailed Florida Atl 28-24 before getting a TD with 4:29 left. After beating NM at home 37-13, they stood 4-2 but their 4 wins were over teams that were a combined 5-17. Against AF it was 0-0 at the half but they came up short 10-0. They led Utah 10-9 in the 4Q but lost by 12. They were blown out by BYU 52-0 and the next week vs SDSt they were dead in the water. Trailing 27-6 in the 4Q, they rallied for a miracle win, 30-27. After an expected blowout loss to TCU, they needed to win their final game at Colo St. They were outgained 352-233 but for the 4th time in their 6 wins, managed a come-from-behind win in the 4Q, 17-16. They followed that same MO in the bowl game as they trailed Fresno St 28-17 but scored 11 pts in the 4Q including a FG with :20 left to force OT and they won it in 2OT. WY does have 15 ret starters but were a very fortunate 7-6. In the regular season Wyoming did not defeat an FBS team with a winning record and their 6 losses were by an avg of 27 ppg. This year's team is stronger than the '09 version but I do not think they will match last year's 7 win total.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score WY	Final Score Opp	W/L
Sep. 4	Southern Utah	A					Wyoming has won 19 str over current FCS opps. First meeting. Thunderbirds finished 5-6 LY with losses to Utah St & San Diego St. SUU will play 2 FBS tms for the 2nd straight yr.
Sep. 11	at Texas	A					Christensen is all-to-familiar w/UT and has been outscored 211-97 the L/5 times he's faced them (OC at Mizzou '01-'08). LY WY was up 10-6 with 1:32 left 1H before all'g 35 unanswered.
Sep. 18	Boise St	A					Wyoming is 0-4 vs Boise St with an avg loss of 14 ppg (last game 2007, 24-14 at Boise). Wyoming plays 3 BCS participants from LY & is the only tm to face two in B2B weeks.
Sep. 25	Air Force	A					Entering LY's gm, WY was avg 32 ppg w/a 3 gm win-streak behind true Fr Carta-Samuels. The Pokes never got inside the redzone. LB Hendricks tallied 23 tkls but WY has now lost 4 str vs AF.
Oct. 2	at Toledo	A					First meeting. Wyoming is 5-2 vs current MAC teams. They played 3 during the last 3 years beating OU by 1 point in B2B years and losing by 29 at home to BG in 2008.
Oct. 9	at TCU	G					LY Chris Prosinski had a 98 yd FR TD mid-2Q which tied the game at 10. That lasted 16 seconds until the kickoff was ret'd for a TD and the Cowboys would be outscored 35-0.
Oct. 16	Utah	A					Wyom has been outscored 112-17 the L/3Y in this series and has lost 9 of the L/10. LY the Cowboys led 10-9 into the 4Q but Carta-Samuels was sacked 5x, all in the 2H.
Oct. 23	at BYU	G					The Cowboys have been shutout by BYU in each of the last 2 years. LY's 52-0 loss was the most lopsided since 1985 and WY was outgained 543-225 incl 175-0 in the 1Q.
Oct. 30	San Diego St	A					Last year WY was down 27-6 before rallying for 3 TD's in the 4Q. Walk-on Watts kicked the GW 43 yd FG w/:23 left. It was Carta-Samuel's third 4Q come-from-behind win.
Nov. 6	at New Mexico	G					Snowy weather LY and the Cowboys win snapped a 4 gm series losing streak. WY scored their 1st TD on NM S/'06. Cowboys are just 1-5 in Albuquerque since 1993 losing by 24 ppg.
Nov. 13	at UNLV	A					Carta-Samuels made his 1st career start LY. WY was fired up for the gm after words from a LV reporter. UNLV had a chance to tie it but fmbl'd the snap on a FG and WY recv'd w/1:19 left.
Nov. 20	Colorado St	A					The home tm had won 6 str in the "Border War," but the visitor has won the L2 giving WY their 1st win in Ft Collins S/'98. LY Watts hit the GW FG, sending Wyoming to a bowl.

COLORADO ST RAMS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In HC Steve Fairchild's first season ('08) the Rams had to replace veteran QB Caleb Hanie (29 car st) who had thrown for 2,455 (64%, 18-15, #1 MWC pass eff!) in '07. QB Billy Farris had played in 8 games (2 yr) throwing for 239 (51%). Farris won the job in '08 and threw for 2,934 (61%, 19-13). Klay Kubiak was #2 and threw for 252 (51%, 0-2). Grant Stucker got in 5 att and TJ Borcky moved to WR. In mid-August last yr Fairchild said, "We're not very good at quarterback. We're far from game ready." Later Fairchild said that one Aug practice was the worst QB practice he'd witnessed in 30 yrs as a coach. They brought in Jon Eastman, who led his team to the JUCO National Title game 2Y in a row. Interestingly, both Fairchild and QB cch Daren Wilkinson were JC transfers that played QB at CSU. After 2 gms Fairchild said that Stucker was further along than Farris was at that point. Stucker hit 31-51 for 372 yds vs BYU and threw for 297 vs Idaho. Unfortunately, CSU QB's struggled after that. Stucker was pulled vs NM (inj) and Eastman started the final game. Stucker threw for 1,874 (53%, 12-12) while Eastman threw for 494 (62.3%, 2-3). For a second straight yr a Sr QB graduates and Eastman decided to transfer. While Kubiak is back (shoulder surg LY), Nico Ranieri (rFr, PS#92) and true frosh Pete Thomas (PS#21) battled it out in the spring. Also available is Kansas St trans MJ McPeek (6'4" 218 So, PS#284). Despite the loss of their starter, I look for much improved QB play and expect to see a frosh QB starting.

RUNNING BACKS - The Rams usually have a solid rush attack and in Fairchild's first stint here (asst cch), they had a pair of 1,000 yard RB's twice ('96 & '97). CSU struggled running the ball from 2004-'06 with just 112 ypg (3.1), 122 (3.5, did have 1,000 yd rusher) then a Lubick era low of 77 (2.5). Gartrell Johnson rushed for 100+ in each of the final 3 in '07 and they improved to 167 (3.8). In '08 Johnson came on late and rushed for 1,476 (5.3). The team's 4.2 ypc was the best since '03. Last year they had to replace Johnson (#4DC) and the leading returnee was John Mosure (122, 4.1) but he was inj'd early. Leonard Mason had a big improvement from spring to Aug. Mason had 107 in the opener and was the leading rusher in 6 of the first 7 including 130 vs Utah. Mosure had 130 vs SDSt with Mason inj'd and later 177 vs NM (Mason in cch's doghouse) and finished #2 with 650 (6.2). After Mason got out of the doghouse he rushed for 119 vs Wyoming and finished with 766 (4.9). RB cch Hill called true frosh Chris Nwoke (6'0" 208 rFr, PS#267) and Lou Greenwood "Thunder and Lightning" and while Nwoke RS, Greenwood (6'0" 183 So, PS#124) rushed for 147 (3.5). Also FB Zac Pauga has caught the attention of some NFL scouts with his solid blocking. Not listed below are Derek Good (5'10" 193 Jr), Amadeus Waters (5'10" 217 Jr) and FB's Jason Klingerman (6'1" 253 So, PS#279), Doug Richau (5'11" 227 rFr), Joe McKay (5'10" 235 rFr), Joe Brown (6'3" 218 rFr, PS#128) and Akeelo Rhoden (6'0" 245 Jr). However, they may all have to step aside for UCLA transfer Raymond Carter (PS#14). This year the only loss is Alex Square (36 yd) and in the spring Fairchild said he was 5 deep and had the conf's best rush unit.

RECEIVERS - In 2008 6'1" Rashaun Greer earned 1st Tm MWC honors with 1,114 (17.7) and Dion Morton (PS#95QB) earned 2nd Tm with 859 (16.8) and both returned in '09. They did have to replace TE Kory Sperry (2nd Tm MWC). Due to ineffective QB play, their numbers dropped as Greer had just 734 (15.0) and Morton 443 (17.7) with FB Pauga tied for #2 in receptions. TE Eric Peitz (miss 3) had 114 (8.1). This year they lose Greer (10 st), Morton (10 st), Ryan Gardner (2 rec) and TE Norman Gee (2 rec). Not in the PSL are Michael Liss (6'2" 200 rFr), Alex Johnson (6'2" 195 So), Jason Cook (6'1" 179 rFr), Chris Robinson (6'4" 162 rFr), Adam Winick (6'1" 168 So) and TE's Cameron Moss (6'5" 236 rFr) and Cameron Bourdon (6'5" 206 rFr). This unit is less exp'd and loses a pair of quality WR's but could actually put up better numbers.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2008 Fairchild inherited 4 ret st'rs and as you would expect, had their best numbers in 5 yrs with 148 ypg (4.2) and just 26 sks (6.1%). Last year they only had to replace 1 starter and returned 129 career starts (#1 FBS!). In October, Fairchild felt that all 5 starting OL's would make it to an NFL camp (4 did). Surprisingly the numbers were similar (144 ypg, 4.2, 21 sks). This year they lose 3rd Tm MWC G Adrian Martinez (12 st, 4Y st'r), C Tim Walter (12 st, 3Y st'r, HM MWC), G Shelley Smith (#6DC HOU, 8 st, 3Y st'r), T Cole Pemberton (12 st, 3Y st'r) and backup G Scott Benedict. This unit is a lot less experienced (30 car sts).

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '07 the Rams had their entire 2 deep back but surprisingly allowed 207 ypg rush (4.9). In '08 they had to replace 3 st'rs but had 42 career sts after moving SLB Jake Pottorff. While the ypg dropped to 190, the ypc rose to 5.3 with just 10 sks. Last year they were inexp'd again having to replace 4 DL (comb 39 sts '08) and had just 13 career sts ret. It's surprising that a team whose record dropped from 7-6 to 3-9 actually improved their key defensive numbers yielding 152 ypg rush (4.2) with 24 sks. This year they lose DT James Morehead (12 st, 26 tkl, 2.5 sk) and DE Sam Stewart (1 tkl, 4 gm). This is the Rams' most exp'd D-line in 3 years and watch for soph CJ James to explode onto the scene.

LINEBACKERS - In '08 two starters were back (#1, #3 tkl'rs) plus they added Mychal Sisson, who became the first CSU player to earn consensus Frosh AA honors (#1 tkl'r, 8 tfl). Last year they had the unexpected loss of #2 tackler Ricky Brewer (12 st '08) who was susp'd. They also had to replace their #3 tackler and 2 bkps. Alex Williams (7 st) and Michael Kawulok (8 st) won starting spots but were lost with injuries. Sisson started all 12 (2nd Tm MWC). This year the unit returns intact and Brewer (scout tm '09) returns so they have 7 w/st exp. Not in the PSL are Andy Clements (5'11" 214 So, PS#207) and Cam Loughery (6'1" 215 rFr). This should be one of the most improved LB corps in the country as they return 70 career starts.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Rams have only finished #86, #66, #90, #101 and #104 in my PDR the last 5 yrs. Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs but got Klint Kubiak back from injury. Kubiak had his 3rd straight season shortened by injury (6 sts) but still finished as the #6 tkl'r. This year they lose 3rd Tm MWC CB Nick Oppenneer (12 st, 63 tkl, 4 int, 6 pbu), SS Kubiak and bkp Josh Gabler (4 tkl). Six return who started last year including hard hitting FS Elijah-Blu Smith (3rd Tm MWC). Adding depth are Robbie Ford (5'7" 155 rFr), Dayton McMillan (6'0" 199 rFr), Austin Gillmore (6'0" 203 So, PS#258), Dillon Holliam (6'1" 191 rFr), Scott Zick (6'0" 199 Sr) and Beau Brittenham (6'2" 188 So). Aided by a more exp'd front 7, I look for the Rams to make good sized improvement in my PDR.

S Elijah-Blu Smith

SPECIAL TEAMS - This unit was almost always a strength under Lubick with five Top 13 (two #1) finishes in my ST rankings from 1997-2001. In his final 2 yrs they were just #90 and #76. In '08 they had to replace their P, top KR and PR and finished #100. Last year they had to replace their K, P and KR but Fairchild brought in true frosh Pete Kontodiakos (PS#20, top P at Ray Guy camp). He avg 40.9 (net 31.6). Chad VanderMolen had 2 TB's on 32 KO's. Ben DeLine hit 12-16 FG's (4-4 40-49). Dion Morton was the top KR (24.6). They were -2 in blk/TD and finished #105. Even with the loss of their top KR I like their K and P and will call for their best ST finish in 5 yrs.

COACHES - CSU had been to just 2 bowl games prior to Sonny Lubick's arrival. Lubick guided them to 9 bowls in 14 seasons along with 6 league titles. In '03 the home stadium was renamed Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium. Those were some large shoes to fill for Steve Fairchild. Fairchild was an OC in the NFL (BUF and STL) from '03-'07 and is a CSU alum. Fairchild's 7 wins in his first season here were the most ever for a 1st year CSU HC (5 had 5 wins). OC Greg Peterson was demoted with 3 games remaining in '09 and OL coach Pat Meyer was elevated to OC for 2010, but Fairchild calls the plays. Fairchild brought back DC Larry Kerr who was the DC here for 10 years prior to leaving in '02. Kerr was at Duke ('06-'07) and the DC at UCLA ('03-'05).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Sonny Lubick had recorded 10 straight winning seasons including winning or sharing the conf title 6 times from '94-'03. In 2000 they were 10-2 and ended #14 AP, their highest finish ever. CSU had won at least 7 games for 10 consec years heading into '04. Unfortunately they did not have a winning season in any of Lubick's final 4 yrs and got to just 1 bowl ('05). In '06 they opened the season 4-1 and led AF 21-3 but blew that lead and lost their last 7 (-73 ypg in the MWC). In Lubick's final year he had his most ret starters ever (18) but had 4 close losses, 31 sts lost to injury and went 3-9. Those factors pointed to improvement for '08, despite the fact that Steve Fairchild had just 12 ret st'rs. They trailed Sac St with 1:29 left before pulling out the win. They got the benefit of Houston being disrupted by the hurricane (practiced in Dallas) and int'd a UH pass in the EZ with :08 left to win by 3. They trailed UNLV 28-27 with 6:05 left but got a TD with :09 left. SDSt started a backup QB and CSU won. At 4-6 they beat both NM and WY to land a bowl where they got a comeback win vs Fresno. Some things pointed to a weaker season in '09. Colo St had 3 net close wins (pg 299). They also had to replace their QB, RB and 5 of the def front 7. They only had 34.8% offensive yds ret (#107 FBS). I said I did not expect them to match '08's 7 win total. They opened 3-0 including their first win over rival Colorado in Boulder S/'86. They barely got past Weber St (WSU fmbl at CSU10 w/:42 left). They benefitted from +5 in turnovers vs Nevada and at that point had the 7th longest winning streak in the country at 6. They blew a 20-7 lead at Idaho and gave up a TD to Utah with 3:40 left and lost by 7. They began their MWC season playing BYU, Utah and TCU and vs the Frogs, only trailed 6-3 late 1H before a PR TD with :49 left. Even after losing those 3, a bowl still seemed possible and they led SDSt 21-7 at the half but lost by 14, yielding 531 yds. Their QB's combined to hit just 7-19 for 87 yds vs AF and they demoted their OC after the 18 pt loss. They suffered their first ever loss to UNLV in Vegas and had a bye prior to facing 0-10 NM who had 14 straight losses. Unfortunately they fumbled at the 5 with 5:59 left and lost by 2. They lost at home to Wyoming 17-16 for the first time since 1998 despite having a 352-233 yard edge. They shockingly became the first team to lose 8 MWC games and it was the first time they had zero conf wins S'81. There are a lot of signs pointing to the positive. They blew several 14 pt leads, lost 4 games despite outgaining their foe and had 38 starts lost to inj. Despite their 0-8 conf record, they were only -67 ypg in MWC play (4th worst). This year's group will more closely resemble the '08 bowl squad rather than the 0-8 MWC squad of '09. They have my #4 rated D in the MWC. However, their O- line is my biggest concern and they will need that unit to play beyond its experience level to avoid a 2nd straight losing season.

Sep. 4	† Colorado (Denver)	G					Played in Denver 9 of 12 years. Only two 1st time starters have won Matt Newton ('94) & Stucker (LY). CSU is now 2-5 vs their in-state rival as they dominated early LY leading 20-3 at HT.
Sep. 11	at Nevada	A					The Rams lead this series 9-1. Last year CSU used 5 UN TO's (2 int's and 3 fmbl's) to score 28 of their 35 points. For the 1st time S/2003, CSU held an opp scoreless in the 1H.
Sep. 18	at Miami, Oh	A					In only prior meeting, CSU was upset at home by 20 pts in 2003. That was the last time the Rams played a current MAC team and they are 2-2-1 vs the conference.
Sep. 25	Idaho	A					Last season Colorado St built a 20-7 lead but couldn't hold on. They trailed 31-23 (early 4Q) & went on an 89/5pl drive to score w/1:41 left but were stopped on the 2pt conv run.
Oct. 2	TCU	A					The Rams trail this series 6-1. Last year was the 1st time they didn't score a TD in a game S/'07. Colorado St has been outscored by an avg 32-9 in the last 5 gms vs the Frogs.
Oct. 9	at Air Force	A					CSU has now dropped 4 str for the Ram-Falcon Trophy. Last time here each tm had just 4 2H drives w/CSU having 2 int, SOD & punted while AF had 2 TD's, a FG & took a knee.
Oct. 16	UNLV (HC)	A					Colorado St lost for the first time ever in the city of Las Vegas LY. It snapped CSU's 6 game win streak (and 1 tie) over UNLV which was its longest over any MWC team.
Oct. 23	at Utah	A					Colorado St has lost 6 of last 7 vs Utah. Despite being up 17-3 with just 5 min left in the 3Q, CSU could not hold on. Then backup RB Mason finished with a career high 130 yds rush.
Oct. 30	New Mexico	A					There have been 6 upsets in the series the L7Y. LY there were 4 lead changes in the 2H as NM kicked a 27 yd FG w/:12 left. The Rams have dropped 5 of 7 to the Lobos.
Nov. 6	at San Diego St	G					LY John Mosure rushed for a career high 130 yds, but the Rams couldn't hold onto a 21-7 HT lead. Colo St has now dropped 4 of 5 meetings to SDSt getting upset in each loss.
Nov. 13	BYU	A					Colorado St is just 5-25 vs BYU and has dropped 6 straight by 14 ppg. Last game here, there were 5 lead changes into the 4Q & Colorado St gave up a TD with :22 left.
Nov. 20	at Wyoming	A					The Rams are 8-2 vs the Pokes (avg score 26-15). These two meet for the "Bronze Boot" & LY in the 100th "Border War" CSU led 16-14 late 4Q but all'd a 69/13pl drive & 33 yd FG w/1:27 left.
Nov. 27							BONUS: Last year Colorado St began the season 3-0 for the 1st time in 15 years. BONUS: LY CSU lost to the MWC's Big 3 (Utah, BYU, TCU) by a combined 110-46.

UNLV REBELS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In '07 UNLV lost their VHT starting QB prior to the year. Omar Clayton, a 5th string walk-on heading into Aug, got his first start in 50 mph winds at midseason at Colo St and amazingly became the first player in UNLV history (40 yrs) to top 300 passing and 100 rushing in the same game. I say amazingly because Randall Cunningham played here. Clayton threw for 618 (61%, 4-5) with 179 (3.5) rush in 7 gm (3 sts) as a true. Travis Dixon (9 st '07) was moved to DB in '08. Clayton was having a fine year in '08 when he took a cheap shot late hit vs Iowa St and was later inj'd and OFY vs TCU. He still threw for 1,894 (59%) with an 18-4 ratio. Mike Clausen (PS#311) started the last 3 (2 wins) throwing for 767 (56%, 5-2). Last year Clayton was the clear-cut starter but was bothered by knee and shoulder injuries early. In the first six games he played, he threw 9 int (4 ttl in '08). Clausen came in the 4Q vs Oregon St with the team down 20-7 and guided them to a 21-20 lead in what should have been a win. Clayton threw for a career high 340 the next week vs Hawaii but missed Nevada. Clayton threw for 2,230 (60.1%, 13-12) while Clausen threw for 463 (59.1%, 4-2). True frosh Caleb Herring (6'3" 175, PS#120) was very impressive with the scout team but RS. He could contend TY. Adding depth is Les Obie (5'10" 185 Sr). Keep in mind, new coaches like their own recruits. This is an exp'd group but now must learn to take snaps under center although, I still look for improved numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - In 2006 David Peeples had the lowest total for a top rusher here since 1996 with 519 (3.9). In '07 I projected 240 lb JUCO Frank "The Tank" Summers as the starter. Summers is a big, powerful back who drew comparisons to Jerome Bettis. Summers surprisingly had only 63 in the final 2 coming up just short of 1,000 (928, 4.6). In '08 Summers' numbers dropped to 740 (4.0) but he was still a #5DC. The #2 RB CJ Cox had 191 (3.5) and Channing Trotter had 110 (10.0). In '09 Cox was banged up in Aug and lost his starting spot to Trotter. In the first 4, Trotter rushed for 295 (5.0) but had just 246 over the last 8 but still led with 541 (4.7). The QB's were the #2 and #3 rushers and Cox only contributed 173 (3.5). They talked about true frosh Bradley Randle (PS#146) in the spring and summer but he RS. This year they only lose Chris Brogdon (150, 4.4). Not listed below are Imari Thompson (5'9" 200 So, PS#182, 5 att), Thomas Downs (5'9" 195 Jr) and FB's David Blair (6'1" 235 So, PS#84LB) and Robert Adell (5'9" 210 rFr). With basically everyone back the numbers can only improve.

RECEIVERS - In 2006 Ryan Wolfe led with 911 (16.6) and Casey Flair had 816 (12.2). In '07 Wolfe led again with 784 (11.9) and Flair added 622 (11.5). Both ret'd in '08 and they added spectacular true frosh Phillip Payne. Payne became known for his one-handed catches including one in the EZ with :18 left to force OT vs Ariz St and the winning TD vs Iowa St. Flair became the school's career leader in rec's but Wolfe passed him up by the end of the year! Wolfe became the first 1,000 yard WR here since 1994 (1040, 11.8) and Flair was #2 with 560 (11.4). Payne missed 3 (436, 15.0) while Rodelin Anthony added 227 (13.4). Last year they only had to replace Flair and their TE. Surprisingly Wolfe's numbers dropped to 760 (10.3) while Payne improved to 661 (11.4). Soph Michael Johnson (853 KR yds '08) was #3 with 484 (11.3) after relinquishing his KR duties. Anthony (concussion & ankle inj) had his numbers increase slightly to 240 (15.0) while Jerriman Robinson added 342 (17.1). This year they lose Wolfe (10 st) who broke the MWC record for career rec (#4 in yards) as well as Robinson (10 st), Anthony (2 st) and Renan Saint Preux (1 rec). This unit is not as deep and loses its career leader but could actually put up better stats.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2008 UNLV had 4 st'rs back and avg 6'4" 303. Surprisingly UNLV's rush numbers dropped to 122 ypg (3.6) but they trimmed the sks to 14 (3.6%). They had to replace 2 st'rs (incl top OL) last year but had 4 back with 8+ career sts. UNLV was a little less exp'd but still improved slightly to 127 ypg rush (3.9) with 15 sks (3.6%). This year they lose RG Joe Hawley (12 st, 3Y st'r, #4DC ATL) and LG Mike Donato (2 st, 12 gm). With 4 ret st'rs (86 car sts), I look for improved numbers despite the coaching change.

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Rebels switched to a 4 man DL in '07 but surprisingly yielded 184 ypg rush (4.6) with 22 sks. They had an injury plagued unit in '08 and the numbers slipped to 213 ypg rush (5.0) with just 11 sks. Last year they had 4 DL with starting exp (replaced 1 st'r). They expected PS#95JC BJ Bell (Beau's brother) to contend but he RS. The more exp'd unit surprisingly yielded 221 ypg rush (5.7), their worst number since 1999 (worst ypc S/'96) and they had just 15 sacks. This year they lose DT Martin Tevaseu (11 st, 28 tkl, 1 sk) and DE Heivaha Mafi (6 st, 37 tkl, 2 sk). Six of the top 8 return and this unit should stop the trend of 4 straight years of weaker rush D numbers.

LINEBACKERS - Last year UNLV had a veteran LB corps including Jason Beauchamp, Ronnie Paulo (#1 & #2 tkl'rs '08) and Starr Fuimaono (2 sts '08, inj). Unfortunately the unit was injury plagued again with Beauchamp missing 1 start and parts of others. Fuimaono started 9 but was not 100% most of the year and Paulo started 10. This year they lose WLB Beauchamp (#1 tkl'r, 6.5 sk) but have 5 of the top 6 back. Not listed in the PSL are Sage Nua (6'1" 250 rFr, PS#478), Anthony White (6'1" 210 Sr) and Dominic Bonetpels (6'1" 225 So). While not as exp'd as the '09 version, if they remain healthier, this unit could be stronger and returns the #3, #6 and #7 tkl'rs.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - UNLV was #115 in my pass D rankings in '05 and #113 in '06. Surprisingly, with just one starter back in '07 they climbed to #51 but with basically 2 st'rs back in '08, slipped back down to #110. Last year they had to replace 3 st'rs who were their #3, #5 and #6 tacklers. HC Sanford said all 4 starting spots were wide open prior to the year as the lone ret st'r, Quinton Pointer missed spring. Converted QB Travis Dixon started 7 at S and UNLV only finished #109 allowing 65% with a 21-5 ratio. This year they lose SS Terrance Lee (7 st, #4 tkl'r, 4 pd), FS Marquel Martin (4 st, 34 tkl, 1 int) and SS Ryan Tillman (2 tkl). This is a more exp'd unit and 7 return with starting experience.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Sanford's five seasons this unit finished #78, #43, #102, #62 and #61 in my ST rankings which is pretty decent considering the team was just 16-43. Last year they had to replace their P, top PR and top KR Michael Johnson (23.1) concentrated on WR. Kyle Watson, who hit 7-8 FG's (long 38) in '08, hit 9-14 (long 39) LY. Ben Jaekle who hit 5-11 FG's (long 52) in '08 had 0 FG att '09 but had 15 TB's on 58 KO's. Watson took over at P and had a solid 42.6 avg and 37.8 net. Deante' Purvis was the top KR (23.3) and had a 94 yd KR TD vs BYU (1st KR TD S/'99). The PR's were average but only had 9 att. This year they lose their double duty K/P Watson and may drop a notch or two from LY's rank. They did sign their first scholarship K since 2003 in PS#29 Nolan Kohorst.

COACHES - Mike Sanford tried for 5 years to get UNLV to a bowl and had near misses in each of the last 2 years, but was let go after 5 losing seasons. Bobby Hauck takes over as the new HC coming here from Montana where he guided the Grizzlies to an 80-17 record and 3 FCS Champ games in his 7 years. Hauck is the winningest coach in Big Sky Conf history (47-6 conf record, Title all 7Y). Rob Phenicie returns as the new OC and was the OC at Montana the last 7 years. His '09 Montana offense was #2 in the FCS in scoring (35.8 ppg) and #9 in total ypg (427.4). Phenicie's first stint here was in '99 under John Robinson. New DC Kraig Paulson spent the last 6 years as the DC at Montana and his '09 defense led FCS in turnovers gained (37) with an amazing 26 int.

PHIL'S FORECAST

UNLV has had just one winning season the last 15 years (8-5 in 2000). Mike Sanford took over in 2005 and in his five years the team was a league worst 8-32 in MWC play with the next closest being Colo St 12-28. UNLV had their moments almost upsetting #5 Wisconsin in '07, knocking off Utah 27-0 that same year and then in '08 beat #15 Arizona St on the road in OT and another BCS school, Iowa St, the next week at home again in OT. They led AF 28-20 and BYU 35-34 in the 4Q but lost both and lost their starting QB. Last year they again had 7 home games and 14 returning starters. They suffered a tough loss to Oregon St as a questionable pass interference on 3rd & 26 with OSU at their own 15 set up the game winning 33 yard FG with :07 left. Against Wyoming, UNLV had a shot at a game tying FG but fumbled a snap on the attempt (1:15 left) and earlier on 3 trips inside the 10 settled for 2 FG's and had an int. They were tied at 28 late 3Q vs Nevada but the Wolf Pack erupted for 35 unanswered points and toasted UNLV's D for 773 yards. The next week BYU had 611 yds in a 59-21 rout. The week after an expected 20 pt loss to Utah, they ended a 20 game MWC road losing streak vs the Lobos (34-17) with NM HC Locksley suspended. After losing to TCU 41-0, they needed to win their final 3 to make it to a bowl. They beat CSU 35-16 with 171 of CSU's yards coming in the 4Q. Versus AF they played in 20° and snow and mailed it in the 2H in a 45-17 loss. In Sanford's final game, they beat SDSt at home trailing 24-7 in the 3Q getting a 17 yd TD pass with 1:24 left for the win. This year they bring in their new HC Bobby Hauck from Montana. Last year's squad remarkably only had 5 starts lost to injury and despite their 3-5 league mark, were -119.1 ypg (MWC worst). They have 15 returning starters which is tied for 3rd most in the MWC. Hauck steps into a good situation as UNLV could easily have been bowl eligible the last 2 years but underachieved. They could be a surprise team this year and have a veteran QB and defense. With a tough non-conf schedule, I will call for a 7th straight losing year but better things are in the offing.

Sep. 4	Wisconsin	A					UNLV has won 4 str ssn openers but has dropped 4 str home openers vs BCS tms. The Rebels are 2-6 vs Wisc & the 3 largest home crowds at Sam Boyd Stadium have been vs the Badgers.
Sep. 11	at Utah	A					LY vs the Utes, Clayton was held without a TD pass one gm shy of a MWC rec of 15 str gms. The Rebels are 1-13 vs the Utes and 0-7 at Salt Lake City losing by 20 ppg.
Sep. 18	at Idaho	A					The Rebels are 3-2 vs Idaho but were never WAC foes (UNLV 1996-'98 & Idaho since '05). UNLV is 1-9 away vs non-conference opponents including 1-5 vs the MAC.
Sep. 25	New Mexico	A					LY UNLV snapped a school rec 20 game conf rd losing skid. LTH, QB Clausen made his debut & led UNLV back from a 14-3 2Q deficit. First B2B wins vs conf opp S/'02 & '03.
Oct. 2	Nevada	A					LY this gm was tied at 21 at HT. UNLV all'd 773 yds ttl off (3 UN players over 170 rush) and the Rebels have now lost 5 consec games to their neighbor from the north.
Oct. 9	at West Virginia	A					Rebels 1st game vs a Big East team and first game in the Eastern Time Zone S/'04 (Tenn). Could Apply: UNLV is 1-12 vs ranked opps with the avg score 40-16.
Oct. 16	at Colorado St	A					UNLV beat CSU for the first time ever in Vegas last season (did have 1 prior tie). Last time here UNLV led 14-0 & 28-27 (mid-4Q) but allowed 2 TD's in the final :09.
Oct. 23							BONUS: Hauck was the Montana HC L7Y compiling a 80-17 mark incl 3 trips to the FCS Title gm. BONUS: UNLV will play 13 reg season games for the first time in team history.
Oct. 30	TCU	A					The Rebels have scored a combined 37 pts vs TCU in MWC meetings (0-5). LY UNLV failed to score for the first time since 2003 (68 gms). It was the 1st shutout on the road S/'95.
Nov. 6	at BYU	G					Deante' Purvis scored a 94 yd KR TD vs BYU last year, UNLV's first KR TD since 1999. LTH the game was tied at 7,14,21 & 28 but BYU went 74/11pl for a TD w/1:46 left.
Nov. 13	Wyoming	A					The home team has won the last 3 years with an avg MOV of just 5 ppg. UNLV has dropped 5 of the last 6. Last year UNLV fumbled the game tying FG snap with 1:15 left.
Nov. 18	Air Force (Thur)	A					UNLV's loss in this game last year ensured another losing season and Mike Sanford was fired the following day. The temp was 33° and much of the 2H was played in the snow.
Nov. 27	at San Diego St	G					In '08, SDSt's coach was fired just after the UNLV gm. LY, Sanford was fired prior to the SDSt gm. In '08, SDSt beat UNLV. LY UNLV returned the favor with a 17 yd TD with 1:24 left.

NEW MEXICO LOBOS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - At the end of HC Rocky Long's tenure at NM he had a lot of trouble keeping QB's healthy. Due to multiple injuries in '06, Donovan Porterie started 5 and threw for 967 (53%, 6-2). In '07 Porterie threw for 3,006 (58%, 15-9). Those were the best passing yards that NM had since 1994. In '08 Porterie threw for just 372 (67%, 0-5) prior to being lost for the year. Brad Gruner (6'2" 226 Jr) started the final 8 and threw for 1,037 (54%, 3-6) with 331 rush. Last year Porterie ret'd from injury and rFr BR Holbrook (PS#96) beat out Gruner for the bkp spot. NM did not have a TD pass in the final 4 of '08 or in the first 3 of '09. Porterie was pulled a couple of times and had an uneven season. He had some solid games especially in the 2H of the year and threw for 2,411 (57.6%) but with a 12-13 ratio. Holbrook took over vs Air Force in the 1Q and on his 3rd series led the team 72 yards to their first offensive TD of the year but he came down with mono and played in just 5 (170, 55.9%, 1-2). Porterie applied for a 6th year but was denied. Keep in mind, Locksley's own recruits have a better chance to get the job and he brought in true frosh Tarean Austin and Stump Godfrey. While the unit is not as exp'd, they could put up better numbers in the 2nd year of the system.

RB Demond Dennis

RUNNING BACKS - NM had a 1st Tm MWC RB every year from 2002-'07 (DonTrell Moore and Rodney Ferguson #1, #3 career rush). In '08 Ferguson played with an inj'd shoulder but still rushed for 1,105 (5.0). Last year the leading returnee was soph James Wright (PS#250) who was #3 in '08 with 348 (6.4). Wright did not impress the new coaching staff with his work habits and landed in the doghouse. He did not see his first action until Wk 3 when he took his first touch of the season 43 yards for a TD and his 5th went 84 yards for another TD. True frosh Demond Dennis (PS#118) was very impressive in August and started the first 5 until a knee injury (missed 2). Dennis had a career high 133 vs Colo St and led NM with 427 (5.5). Surprisingly Wright finished with just 291 (5.8) and true frosh Kasey Carrier (PS#175) had 269 (4.4) after taking off his RS late (gm 7). AJ Butler (6'0" 200 So, PS#391) had 102 vs TT but fumbled late and finished with just 177 (3.5) as he missed 5 (ankle). Butler and Terence Brown (6'0" 193 Sr) may both move to S and not listed below are FB's Josh Fussell (6'2" 255 Sr, 5 st LY) and Chris Biren (6'2" 253 Jr, PS#312). This year the unit returns intact and should be much more productive.

RECEIVERS -This unit was a question mark heading into '08 as they had to replace a pair of 1,000 yard rec's (both 1st Tm MWC). The leading returnee was Roland Bruno who had just 186 (8.9) in '07. The top 3 in '08 did not even combine for 1,000 which could be attributed to the inexp and injuries at both WR and QB. Chris Hernandez led with 428 (13.0), Bryant Williams had 272 (7.6) and Bruno had 242 (10.1). Last year all 3 ret'd and they went to more of a passing offense so improved numbers were expected. RFr Ty Kirk (susp 2) led with 427 (11.9). Victor James moved from QB and was #2 with 398 (11.4). Daryl Jones (4 sts, 5 rec '07-'08) was #3 with 369 (10.5). Williams had 283 (10.9) and Hernandez only had 177 (12.6). Bruno was lost after 5 gms (6 rec). This year they lose Bruno (1 st), James (8 st) and Jones (12 st). Not listed in the PSL are Myles Daughtry (6'1" 180 rFr), Demarcus Rogers (5'11" 170 rFr) and Nelson Musselman (6'0" 191 So). In the 2nd year of the system I expect improved numbers from this unit.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Under Rocky Long the Lobos annually featured one of the biggest OL's in the NCAA and they nicknamed themselves "The Hitmen". In Long's final season they returned just 14 career starts (2nd fewest FBS). Surprisingly the inexp'd group opened holes for 208 ypg rush (4.6) and allowed just 18 sks (6.2%). Last year they only had to replace 2 starters (8 of top 10 ret) and 3 OL started at least 11. Locksley felt that RG Joshua Taufalele had an all-conf type season but did not get the recognition due to the team's poor record. The Lobos took a drastic turn downward avg just 100 ypg rush (3.3) with 41 sks (8.7%). This year they lose 1st Tm MWC C Erik Cook (12 st, 3Y st'r, #7DC WAS), RG Taufalele (12 st, 2Y st'r) and RT Ivan Hernandez (10 st). While this unit is less exp'd, they can only improve upon last year's poor numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Rocky Long always did a fine job with his 3-3-5 D-lines. For example, in '04 he had a small, inexp D-line but surprisingly NM allowed just 2.8 ypc (42 sks). In his 11 years, their worst ypc rush allowed was just 4.3 (his 1st yr) but steadily improved. In '08 the unit allowed just 122 ypg rush (3.3). I expected a big drop off last year as they shifted to a 4-3 scheme and had to replace all 3 starters from '08. While the numbers were their worst in 9 years, they were still respectable at 165 ypg rush (3.9) with 23 sks. The star of the unit was 2nd Tm MWC DE Johnathan Rainey (9.5 sks). This year they lose DT Kendall Briscoe (12 st, 46 tkl, 13.5 tfl, HM MWC) and DE DeAndre Davis (3 st, 20 tkl). They have 3 starters back and add in VHT Illinois transfer Reggie Ellis making this a vastly improved D-line.

LINEBACKERS - Last year with the departure of Long the LOBO position made famous by Brian Urlacher disappeared from the NM defense. The 2009 group also had to replace 2 starters (#2, #5 tkl'rs). They ret'd their #1 tackler Clint McPeek but he only started 10 (inj) and finished #2. Carmen Messina who had just 1 start and 35 tkls off the bench in '08 led the FBS in tackles (162) and earned 1st Tm MWC and tm Def MVP. This year they lose McPeek (94 tkl, 3.5 tfl) and WLB Tray Hardaway (12 st, #4 tkl'r, 6.5 tfl). They are equal to last year in terms of experience but in the 2nd year of the new system, should be stronger.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '07 the Lobos had 4 starters back and climbed to #22 in my PDR. With a veteran unit in '08 they still dropped to #56. Last year they had to replace 3 starters (#4, #6 DC's) then Ian Clark (9 st '08) injured his shoulder (gm 3). The lone returning starter was SS Frankie Solomon. As expected, the unit dropped to #114 allowing 62.9% with a 29-7 ratio. This year they lose Solomon (12 st, #3 tkl'r, 1int, 6 pbu), FS Frankie Baca (11 st, #5 tkl'r, 1 int, 2 pbu) and SS Clark (1 st, 6 tkl). They have 2 starters back and should be improved.

SPECIAL TEAMS - NM produced a 1st Tm All-MWC K in 2 of Long's final 3 years. They finished #14 in my ST rankings in '07. In '08 James Aho tied a school record with 5 FG's vs AZ hitting 18 of 24 (long 48). He recorded the best season by any frosh K in NM history. RFr Drew Zamora had 14 TB's on 57 KO's. NM has gone 142 gms without a KR TD but in '08 had its best KR avg since 1995 at 24.9 and also avg an outstanding 15.4 on PR's. New P Adam Miller had a 33.1 net and surprisingly NM slipped to #53. Last year they only had to replace their #2 KR. Miller earned 1st Tm MWC (36.5 net, 3 blk'd). Aho had a disastrous game vs BYU where he had 3 kicks bounce off the upright (2 FG, 1 xp) and also had a FG blk'd. His numbers dropped to 13-21 (long 48). Garrett Hentrup had just 1 TB on 45 KO's. Frankie Solomon was the top KR (22.6) and PR (3.3) but NM was -4.3 net ypc on KR and -5.9 ypc on PR's. The unit finished a poor #107. This year they lose Miller and Solomon but could still improve.

COACHES - Rocky Long had a tremendous 11 year tenure but resigned after the '08 season. Mike Locksley spent the previous 4 years as the OC at Illinois and 2Y at Florida under Ron Zook. He is known as an outstanding coor and recruiter. This year they go into year 2 of switching to a no-huddle, high tempo, wide open spread offense piloted by OC Darrell Dickey who was N Texas' HC from '98-'06 (OC at Utah St '07-'08). DC Doug Mallory was the co-DC at LSU in '08 and the DB coach there from '05-'08. NM's D allowed just 336 ypg in '08 (#45 FBS) but fell to 419 ypg allowed in '09 (#100).

PHIL'S FORECAST

I think Rocky Long did a tremendous job here. Fans will complain about his "boring offenses" but keep in mind from 1987-1991 the Lobos had a wide open offense under Mike Sheppard but taking away 4 wins vs their outclassed (at that time) rival NMSt, they won a total of 5 other gms in those 5 yrs. Long's first season was just 3-9 but he improved to 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 wins the next 5 yrs. Long had the team bowl eligible in 7 of his 8 final seasons, a remarkable streak as they got their first bowl win since 1961 in 2007. Long failed to win a MWC Title but had 3 close 2nd place finishes. The Lobos have not won a league title since 1964 and when Long unexpectedly stepped down after a disappointing 2008 season, he cited that as a factor. Heading into '08 NM was the only MWC team to be bowl eligible in each of the last 7 yrs and in '07, their 9-4 record was mainly attributed to a D which finished #13 in the FBS. In '08 they had just 10 ret starters (2nd fewest MWC). They could have easily had a winning record in Long's final season. When attempting to take a 17-0 lead, AF ret'd a fmbl 96 yds, they were SOD at the Utah 5 (lost 13-10) and had a 370-258 yd edge vs UNLV but lost 27-20 (led 14-6). Despite being 2-6 in the MWC they were +41.7 ypg (4th best) and had 3 close losses. Last year's team did have just 9 ret starters (fewest MWC) and lost 5 scholarships from 2009-'11 due to an NCAA penalty. They also had to break in new schemes on both sides of the ball. Lobo fans still expected a decent season. I pegged them LAST in the MWC although they had never finished lower than 6th. They opened on the wrong end of 3 straight blowouts. They did have a 356-218 yd edge vs NMSt but lost by 3. After losing by 20 to TT, the Lobos had to travel 45 miles on a closed highway behind 2 snowplows to get to the Wyoming game just 2 hours prior to the game and lost 37-13. HC Locksley was susp for UNLV (lost 34-17) then facing ex-coach Long (DC SDSt), the Lobos had a 386-303 yd edge but lost 23-20. They had 2 FG's and an xp hit the upright and also had a 46 yd FG blocked in a 5 point home loss to BYU. The next week they finally broke through with a 27 yard FG with :12 left to knock off Colo St before losing to TCU by 41. Amazingly 3 players were voted 1st Tm MWC, more than any team except the Big 3. The Lobos had poor off and def ypp (pg 299) and 2 net close losses. They only have 11 ret st'rs, which is tied for #8 in the MWC. This is a stronger team but they are probably still a year so away from contending in the MWC and most likely won't win many more than they did last year (3rd straight losing season).

Sep. 4	at Oregon	A					NM has not won or scored a TD in a ssn opener S/'05 & have been outscored by an avg of 26-5 the L3Y. The Lobos went 0-2 LY visiting BCS tms losing by 28 ppg but did win at AZ in '07.
Sep. 11	Texas Tech	G					The Lobos are just 5-17 vs teams from the state of Texas since 1998. LY NM was only down 14-7 at half but TT scored 28 consecutive pts in a 17:12 span to blow it open.
Sep. 18	Utah	G					LY NM put up 200 yds in the 1H but had just 134 after (33 in 3Q) and Utah scored 3 TD's in the 3Q behind a true Fr QB to break it open. NM has lost 3 straight to Utah by an avg 17 ppg.
Sep. 25	at UNLV	A					Last season New Mexico was without HC Locksley for this game (suspended). The Lobos are 7-4 vs UNLV in MWC play and have won 3 of 4 in the series in Las Vegas.
Oct. 2	UTEP (HC)	G					The home tm has won 5 str incl B2B upsets. Last time here ('06) NM outgained UTEP 289-241 & held the Miners to 3 pts & 93 1H yds. The Lobos have been outgained 4 str by 107 ypg.
Oct. 9	at New Mexico St	G					101st meeting. The Lobos had won 6 straight until LY's 3 point loss. NMSt scored on 4th & goal with :39 left and NM drove for a 47 yd FG to tie it, but it sailed wide right.
Oct. 16							BONUS: LY NM began the year w/2 blowout losses, being outscored by 69 pts which ties ('01 squad) for the worst by a NM tm in 99 yrs (1910 tm outscored by 89 pts to open the ssn).
Oct. 23	San Diego St	G					The Lobos had won 8 straight vs SDSt, but LY met their former HC Rocky Long (now DC at SDSt) for the 1st time. SDSt went ahead with 7:54 left & NM never got past its own 40.
Oct. 30	at Colorado St	A					NM snapped a 14 gm losing streak LY. After recovering a fmbl at the NM5, the Lobos kicked a FG then starting at the CSU45, Porterie conv on 4&2 and Carrier got a 22 yd run to set up the GW FG.
Nov. 6	Wyoming	G					Last year the roads were closed and NM was escorted by 2 snow plows and arrived just 2 hours before kickoff. NM is 5-1 at home in this series with an avg win of 29-9.
Nov. 13	at Air Force	A					NM is just 2-8 at Air Force with 4 straight losses. Last time here New Mexico led 10-0 and was about to go up 17-0 but fumbled and AF returned 96 yds for the 14 pt swing.
Nov. 20	at BYU	G					LY NM's K bounced 3 off the uprights (2 FG's, 1 PAT) & another was blk'd. NM recovered a fmbl but Porterie was sk'd 2x and on 4&27 only gained 20 yds on a scramble. NM has lost L/5 vs BYU.
Nov. 27	TCU	G					New Mexico was held to just 172 yds (on 74 plays) including 3 FD's and 67 2H yds. NM is 0-5 vs TCU in MWC play and has been outscored 114-13 the last 3 years.

PHIL STEELE'S 2010 CUSA FORECAST

CUSA WEST 1. HOUSTON - The Cougars have one of the most explosive offenses in the NCAA with the return of QB Case Keenum, three 1,000 yard receivers, their two top RB's and my #1 rated O-line in CUSA. Keenum is a legitimate Heisman contender and has a good chance of breaking the NCAA's all-time career passing record. They should also have an improved defense and are a legit contender for a BCS bowl. The Cougars had a 557-413 edge in the CUSA title game last year but lost. They are my favorite to win the title in 2010 and have a shot at an unbeaten year.

2. TULSA - Tulsa figures to be one of the most improved teams in the NCAA. They do draw Southern Miss out of the East and have to play both SMU and Houston on the road but 5 of my 9 sets of power ratings call them the 2nd best team in CUSA and I expect a big turnaround from their 3-5 CUSA record of last year. Tulsa is a legitimate contender in the West.

2. SMU - SMU was on my Most Improved List last year and did not disappoint and this season loses just 13 lettermen. The Mustangs tied for the CUSA West Title last year and this season get Houston at home. They actually have my #3 rated defense in CUSA and a potent offense and will contend for the division title. June Jones' team improved by 7 wins last year and at Hawaii after his team improved from 0-12 to 9-4 they slipped back to 3-9 the following year. This team is better equipped to get back to a bowl and contend in the West.

4. UTEP - I picked UTEP to win the West last year and they beat both preseason favorites Houston and Tulsa at home as I expected and were +77.3 ypg in CUSA play, which was the 2nd best mark in the league. UTEP suffered some late, tough losses and only finished in a tie for 3rd. The defense however is still a question with just 5 starters back from a unit that allowed 447 ypg. The offense will be potent with QB Trevor Vittatoe and LY's CUSA leading rusher RB Donald Buckram.

5. RICE - Rice figures to be one of the most improved teams in the country. Last year was an obvious rebuilding year and this season they are the most veteran team in the league with 18 returning starters, 77.2% of their lettermen returning and they were -9 in turnovers last year. They have a PS#22 Alabama transfer at QB and a PS#7 Michigan transfer at RB and are much stronger in 2010.

6. TULANE - Tulane was -92.3 ypg in CUSA play last year and have just 11 returning starters (2nd fewest in the league). They play in the tough CUSA West in which the other 5 teams are all bowl caliber. The Wave also draws the top two teams out of the East in SM and UCF, so it looks like a 2nd straight finish in the cellar.

CUSA EAST

1. UCF - UCF has alternated winning and losing seasons for the past six years but will break that streak this season. They have 15 returning starters and the 2nd best defense in the league plus the 2nd best special teams unit. They get the key game vs Southern Miss at home and that may be enough to give them the East Title. They also face Rice out of the West while Southern Miss draws Tulsa.

1. SOUTHERN MISS - Six of my 9 sets of power ratings call Southern Miss the most talented team in the East. Unfortunately they draw the toughest schedule as they draw both Tulsa and Houston out of the West. They also have to play UCF on the road. While they have just 3 returning starters on offense, I rate them #4 in CUSA on offense, provided their young O-line comes around quickly and they have my #1 rated defense in the league and just like last year, they face their prime competition in the East on the road at the end of the season.

3. UAB - UAB made large strides last year as they were +15.5 ypg in CUSA play (5th best). The Blazers' offense last year was Joe Webb, who accounted for 3,726 of their 5,111 yards. Webb is gone but I like the Blazers' defense and they now have depth, something they lacked in HC Callaway's first three seasons as they have 54 lettermen returning. Callaway has built this team the right way and even with the loss of their star QB, they have a good chance of reaching bowl eligibility for the first time since 2004.

3. MARSHALL - Marshall lost a couple of DB's in the spring to suspension and they also lost RB Darius Marshall, TE Cody Slate and DE Albert McClellan. Still the extra bowl practices should pay dividends and The Herd has my #4 rated defense in CUSA. New HC Doc Holliday brings in his fast-paced offense and it will be interesting to see if Clemson transfer QB Willy Korn (PS#2) can win the starting job and live up to his VHT billing. Marshall has a shot at a 2nd straight bowl bid in 2010.

5. EAST CAROLINA - The Pirates have bagged the last 2 CUSA Titles but this year lose an amazing 30 lettermen (most in FBS) and undergo drastic scheme changes on both offense and defense. Last year's squad was +11 in turnovers and despite the CUSA Title, were only #4 in the league at +49.5 ypg. I'll call for a large drop in the standings in an obvious rebuilding year.

6. MEMPHIS - Memphis was -75.9 ypg in CUSA play last year and now go through coaching and scheme changes and also draw both Tulsa and Houston out of the CUSA West. While Memphis was better than their 2-10 record last year, they have 25 lettermen lost which is tied for 2nd most in the league and this looks like a rebuilding year.

CUSA Notes: East Carolina has been a great story the last two years as they were only 6th best in CUSA in ypg in '08 (+2.8) and they were outFD'd in the title game 28-14 but thanks to +6 TO's they won the CUSA title. Last year they were 4th best at +49.5 and then were outgained in the title game 557-413 but thanks to +3 in TO's they won the title in B2B years. Heading into last year CUSA had had a different league champ for 7 straight years in TCU/Cincinnati in '02, SMiss in '03, L'ville in '04, Tulsa in '05 Houston in '06, UCF in '07 and EC in '08. EC has the best record in CUSA the last 3 years at 19-5, followed by Houston at 18-6 and 2007's champ UCF and '08 runner up Tulsa at 16-8. Houston has the best record in CUSA over the last 5 years at 29-11 with Southern Miss #1 over 10 years at 51-27. Tulsa has the 2nd best record among current CUSA teams the last 10 years at 27-13. There are 3 new HC's with Ruffin McNeill taking over in a tough situation as his team (EC) can't do better than winning the title like they have done the last 2 years, but he also has just 8 starters back. New Memphis HC Larry Porter figures to improve upon last year's 2-10 record and expectations are not as high there. Doc Holliday takes over a bowl squad (Marshall) and figures to have a solid team. CUSA teams were just 4-23 vs BCS conferences during the regular season but that was more BCS wins than the WAC, MAC and Sun Belt. CUSA had 5 bowl teams in 2006 and has increased that to 6 in each of the last three years. After going a strong 4-2 in bowls in '08 they slipped to 2-4 in '09 with Marshall and SMU earning the wins. Every team in the league had been to a bowl since 2002 with the exception of SMU but the Mustangs made my Most Improved List and ended their 25 year (1984) bowl drought. CUSA produced 6 draft picks which was more than the WAC and the MAC. Houston leads with 6 players on my 1st team CUSA followed by Southern Miss with 5.

HOUSTON COUGARS

QUARTERBACKS - Kevin Kolb started as a true frosh and had a storied 4 year career topping David Klingler as the school's all-time leading passer. His backup in '06 was Blake Joseph (56 yds). In 2007 Joseph battled rFr Case Keenum. The two alternated starts and at times series over the first 8. Keenum, a mobile, cerebral QB took over and threw for 2,259 (69%, 14-10, 412 rush). In '08 Keenum had a streak of 13 straight 300 yd gms end in the bowl (1 shy FBS rec). He set an FBS record with 25 straight comp over a 2 game span (Tee Martin 24 at Tenn,'98). Keenum threw for 5,020 (67%) with a 44-11 ratio while avg 386 ypg!! Keenum had another record setting year in '09 (#8 Heisman vote). He set new career highs almost on a weekly basis and set a CUSA record with 56 comp's in the CUSA Title game (2 short NCAA rec). Keenum threw for 5,449 (71%) with a 43-9 ratio in the reg season but had miserable bowl with a season low 222 yds and a career high SIX int. Keenum is 4,167 yds behind Timmy Chang (Hawaii) to become the NCAA's all-time leading passer. Cotton Turner (PS#104) played in 5 (30-40-373, 3-0). Adding depth are Drew Hollingshead (6'3" 210 rFr, PS#73), Austin Elrod (6'1" 185 Jr), Crawford Jones (6'1" 193 So) and this year's true frosh. It will be tough for Keenum to top last year's numbers, but he is a legitimate Heisman contender.

RUNNING BACKS - The Cougars have had some top-notch RB's in recent years including Joffrey Reynolds who set a CUSA single season rush record (1,545 in '02). They also produced 1,000+ yard rushers in '03 and '05. In '06 Anthony "Quick Six" Alridge rushed for 959 with an amazing 10.1 ypc! In '07 Alridge had 1,597 (6.2) while adding 42 rec (10.2). In 2008 true frosh Bryce Beall, who is physical, strong and fast, took over. He had his first 100 yard game in wk 5 and finished with 1,247 (6.3) along with 496 rec yds (14.6). Andre Kohn (5'11" 207 Sr) who had 146 (5.2) in '07, added 257 (4.1) and Justin Johnson (6'1" 223 Jr, PS#96QB) had 97 (4.0). Last year Beall split carries with true frosh Charles Sims (PS#124). Sims finished with 698 (5.3) and 759 rec yds (10.8) while Beall had 670 (4.8) and 311 rec yds (9.7). Kohn missed '09 (inj) and Johnson had 84 (4.7). Chris Wilson (5'11" 214 So, PS#180) had 105 (4.4). Not in the PSL is Marc Woods (5'9" 197 Jr, PS#311). This year the unit returns intact and is one of CUSA's best RB corps.

WR Patrick Edwards

RECEIVERS - Houston had to replace their career leading receiver Vincent Marshall in '07 and in '08 had to replace their top 2 WR's including Donnie Avery (1,456, 16.0). Tyron Carrier (sprinter trk tm, 4.29 spd) led in '08 with 1,026 (12.8) and Patrick Edwards had 634 (13.8) before a gruesome broken leg vs Marshall. Last year Iowa transfer James Cleveland (11 st, 464, 12.9 in '07) emerged to lead with 1,214 (11.7) despite missing 2 (inj). Carrier added 1,029 (11.3) and Edwards, back from injury, had 1,021 (12.0). Chaz Rodriguez added 524 (12.5) while LJ Castile who had 531 (17.1) in '08, slipped to 217 (9.9). VHT AJ Dugat (PS#31) was cleared very late and had just 170 (12.1). Not in the PSL are Gino Collins (5'11" 187 So), Andrew Stewart (6'1" 205 Sr) and TE Wesley Scourten (6'6" 235 Sr, PS#169). This year they lose Rodriguez (10 st), Tim Monroe (2 st, 12 rec), Dugat (170, 12.1), Castille (1 st), and TE Fendi Onobun (2 rec, #6DC STL). With all three 1,000 yd rec's back, this is my #3 rated rec corps in the country.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2007's magazine I called this unit UH's most talented O-line in yrs and they opened holes for 224 ypg rush (4.9), their best since joining CUSA (34 sks, 7.8%). In '07 Briles' offense ran the ball 58% of the time vs 40% under HC Kevin Sumlin, so in '08 despite having 8 of the top 10 back, UH saw their rush drop to 161 ypg but their ypc rose to 5.2 and the sacks allowed dropped to 4.4% (27 sk). Last year they had to replace 2 multi-year starters (#2 DC) and two bkps (comb 6 sts). Starting LT Jacolby Ashworth was lost after just 4 (inj). The numbers dropped to 130 ypg rush (4.5) but with just 18 sks (2.4%). This year they lose 3rd Tm CUSA C Carl Barnett (3Y st'r), 2nd Tm CUSA RT Jarve Dean (14 st) and OT Matt Hart (7 gm). Isaiah Thompson moves in after starting 14 at NT LY.

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Cougars' rush D improved in each of Briles' first 5 years from allowing 209 ypg (5.1) in '03 to 140 (3.8) in '07 (see right). In '08 the unit ret'd 3 veteran senior st'rs but they switched to a 4-3 and lost a returning st'r after 2. DE Phillip Hunt became the CUSA DPOY (14 sks). Surprisingly UH allowed 175 ypg rush (4.2). Last year they had to replace Hunt and 2 other st'rs and I wrote that the DL was my biggest concern on the '09 squad. They were undersized and inexp'd. Not unexpectedly the Cougars allowed 227 ypg rush (highest S/'94) and 5.1 ypc. This year they lose 2nd Tm CUSA DE Tyrell Graham (13 st, 69 tkl, 7 sk) and NT Thompson (14 st) moves to the OL. They add BYU transfer Matangi Tonga and keep your eyes on David Hunter who strength cch Larry Jackson called "freakishly strong" (450+ bench). They shift back to a 3-4 and are bigger and stronger but lost DE Zeke Riser (14 st in '09) to a torn ACL in the spring.

LINEBACKERS - Last year the Cougars had to replace their #3 tkl'r but ret'd #1, #4 and #7. Matt Nicholson (inj spring) ret'd to start the opener, but unfortunately was lost after 3 sts and Kris Johnston after 2 sts so true frosh Phillip Steward started 9. This year they lose 2nd Tm CUSA CJ Cavness (14 st, #2 tkl'r, 5 tfl) and Nicholas Thurston (19 tkl, 2 tfl). Marcus McGraw (#1 tkl'r '08) was #3 in FBS with 156 tkls in '09 and Steward was the #4 tkl'r as a true. Nicholson (#7 tkl'r '08) is back and they add PS#104JC Sammy Brown. UH's D can only be stronger.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Cougars finished #55 in my pass D rankings in '07 and while they only had to replace 2 st'rs in '08, they surprisingly slipped to #94. Last year they were a less exp'd unit with just 1 starter back and then lost my top 2 proj'd FS over the summer. UH actually improved a little to #84 allowing a solid 15-11 ratio. This year they lose 2nd Tm CUSA CB Brandon Brinkley (12 st, 75 tkl, 4 int, 12 pbu), SS Carson Blackmon (11 st, 63 tkl, 4 pd) and S Tim Mercer (30 tkl). They return 2 st'rs and Jacky Candy (PS#59JC, proj st'r in '08) is also back. They should move up my PDR once again.

SPECIAL TEAMS - UH's best finish in my ST rankings under Briles was his first season at #50. In his final 4 years they were #115, #106, #92 and #90. In Sumlin's first year they had to replace their top KR (28.3) and PR but still moved up to #59 despite losing KR Patrick Edwards Wk 8. Last year I said they should be one of the top ST units in CUSA. The ST units were a major part of the team's success as they blk'd 6 kicks, had 5 KR TD's and finished #29. They used 3 diff K's but rFr Matt Hogan hit 12-12 FG's (51 yd gm winner vs Tulsa), although he missed 2 xp's and a 3rd was blk'd vs EC. P Chase Turner had his net drop from 36.5 in '08 to 34.4 but Tyron Carrier avg 29.0 on KR's with 4 TD's and was also the top PR (10.4). This year the only loss is Turner and this could be the top ST unit in CUSA.

COACHES - Art Briles did a great job here in his 5 years guiding the team to 4 bowls but left for Baylor after '07. Kevin Sumlin picked up right where Briles left off (18-9). Sumlin was Okla's ST's coach from '03-'05 before being elevated to co-OC ('06-'07). He was mentioned in several coaching searches in the offseason (Cincy, Kan, TTech). Co-OC Dana Holgorsen left for Okla St but Jason Phillips (co-OC, WR cch here '07) remains. Sumlin promoted former TTech QB Kliff Kingsbury (quality control asst L2Y) to co-OC/QB cch for '10. DC Brian Stewart begins his first year here after a NFL coaching career with stints at HOU, DAL (DC), SD and PHI.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Art Briles took over a team that won 3, 0 and 5 the previous 3 seasons and had just 7 starters returning. His brand-new multiple offense dumbfounded opponents and they avg 34.5 ppg (458 ypg) despite using a true frosh at QB in '03. UH went from zero wins to a bowl in 2 years. It was a magical season in '03 as UH achieved their 7-6 record. With a tougher schedule (#2 Okla, #4 Miami, #8 L'ville) they dropped to 3-8 in '04. In '05 I called for UH to return to a bowl and while they had 3 net close losses, they did just that (Ft Worth Bowl). They were my pick to win the CUSA West in '06 (media picked them #3) and they delivered as they won the CUSA Title going 10-4 with one of their losses on a last play Hail Mary. 2007 was Briles' first year without QB Kevin Kolb but surprisingly they avg 34.5 ppg tying '03 for his most productive offense. They had tough losses to EC (2 miss FG) and Bama (int in EZ) but still achieved a 8-5 record despite being -7 in TO's as they were +137.3 ypg in CUSA (2nd best). UH did have just 2 sts lost to injury. In '08 UH had just 11 ret st'rs. My main concern was how they would adjust to the new playbook. Kevin Sumlin's offense increased the ppg to 40.6 (best S/'90). UH finished 8-5 again but probably had a more successful season (see Hardcore Fans). All they had to do was beat Rice in the "Bayou Bucket" game and they would have won the CUSA West Title, but they lost by 14. They got their first bowl win since 1980 when they knocked off AF 34-28. Last year they had the league's top returning QB and #2 RB from a team that was #1 in CUSA in ypg (+190.7). In Wk 2 the Cougars caught #5 Okla St the week after their titanic battle vs Georgia and pulled the upset on the road, 45-35. It was the first win over a Top 10 foe since 1988 and their 3rd straight win vs a ranked foe. The next week they got past TT at home 29-28 after TT was SOD at the UH1 in the 4Q (rose to #12). It was their turn for a letdown spot and they gave up 581 yds to UTEP (17 pt loss). They traveled to face Miss St and didn't take their first lead until 6:23 was left but won 31-24 and then dispatched Tulane and SMU. They led SM 40-22 in the 4Q and after they allowed a TD with :57 left to tie they went 77 yd for a TD with :21 left for the win. The next week at Tulsa, it appeared their hopes were gone when after a TD they missed on the 2 pt conv. UH rec'd the onside kick then got a 51 yd FG on the last play. They beat Memphis and Rice (comb 128-28) but in the CUSA Title game, they were -3 in TO and lost to EC. In a rematch of the Armed Forces Bowl vs AF, they were -5 in TO's and were outgained 563-331 and lost. Still, the Cougars did well to improve their record to 10-4 and once again were #1 in CUSA at +143.3 ypg. They do have 14 ret st'rs (3rd most in CUSA) but had 3 net close wins (pg 299). Houston should have an improved defense with 6 st'rs back and have one of the top offenses in the country. Not only are the Cougars my pick for the CUSA Title, but 2 of my 9 sets of power ratings call for an undefeated season and that would mean a BCS bowl.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score UH	Final Score Opp	W / L
Sep. 4	Texas St	G					UH is 0-3 vs TSU but the last meeting was in '48. The Bobcats were 7-4 LY incl a 56-21 loss to TCU. The Cougars have won 4 straight home openers beating the 2 FCS tms by 50 ppg.
Sep. 10	UTEP (Fri)	G					UH has outgained UTEP in each of the last 4 meetings by 162 ypg. UH is 30-16-1 in conf openers. LY UH had leads of 10-0 & 17-10 but spent most of the 2H down by DD's.
Sep. 18	at UCLA	G					The Cougars are 2-2 vs the Bruins but have dropped the last 2 ('97 & '98). In 1998 UH lost 42-24 despite a 475-421 yard edge (blk'd punt & 2 ints resulted in 21 UCLA pts).
Sep. 25	Tulane	G					UH has won 7 straight & over the L/8 yrs have outgained the Green Wave in each by 219 ypg. UH only led 9-6 at HT LY w/a 211-179 yd edge before outscoring TU 20-0 in the 3Q.
Oct. 2							BONUS: The 2 Fri night gms are the 1st S/'79 at hm when UH won 14-10 vs TT at the Astrodome. BONUS: Coming into 2010, Houston has won 11 straight CUSA home games.
Oct. 9	Mississippi St	G					UH is 7-1 vs MSU, (lost in 1972). Last year Houston didn't lead until the 4Q, (tied at 7,14 &17) but used B2B 78/10pl & 76/2pl TD drives to pull away mid 4Q in the 31-24 win.
Oct. 16	at Rice	A					In the L/8 gms of this rivalry UH has outgained Rice in each by 152 ypg. LY the Cougars scored 59 pts in the 1H which tied a school record. They led 59-0 at HT w/a 455-139 yd edge.
Oct. 23	at SMU	A					UH is 10-2-1 vs SMU & haven't lost in Dallas S/'92. LY QB Keenum had his lowest reg ssn output (221 ttl yds) but UH took advantage of 2 early SMU fumbles for a quick 14-0 lead.
Oct. 30	at Memphis	A					Visitor is 6-2 & each tm has pulled a pair of upsets. UH has outgained UM in each of the L/3 gms by 181 ypg. LY QB Keenum tossed 5 TD passes (just 2+ quarters) leading to a 42-14 HT led.
Nov. 5	UCF (Fri)	G					HT is 3-0 in this series. LY UH was up 17-10 at HT but UCF scored 27 of the gms next 30 pts with a 224-57 yd edge in that span. UH scored 2 late TD's for a misleading final.
Nov. 13	Tulsa	G					UH has won 4 of the 5 CUSA meetings as the winner has outgained the loser in each by 166 ypg. The Cougars are 7-1 their L/8 home finales (5 straight wins by 30 ppg).
Nov. 20	at Southern Miss	A					Visitor has dropped 5 str incl the '06 CUSA Title gm but UH has outgained SM in each by 124 ypg. QB Case Keenum threw for a career high 559 yds (81%) LY vs SMiss.
Nov. 27	at Texas Tech	A					Old SWC rivals that played every yr from 1976-'95 but 1st trip to Lubbock since '92 for UH. Into 2010, UH is 3-15 in non-conf AG's vs current BCS opp's but beat Okl St & Miss St LY.

TULSA GOLDEN HURRICANE

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In Paul Smith's first year as a starter ('05) he flourished in the new no-huddle offense. Billy Guy Anderson previously held the school's single season passing record (3,464 in 1965, 10 gm). Smith threw for a CUSA record 5,065 (60%) with a 47-19 ratio. His TD passes topped Jerry Rhome's 1964 record (32) and he left as TU's all-time passing leader. David Johnson (14 passes '06) got in 8 gms with 8 passes in '07. Contending with Johnson in '08 was Jacob Bower (PS#49 at BYU '03). Johnson had a much better season than anyone could have expected throwing for 4,059 (65%) with a 46-18 ratio (186 rush). He was threatening to set the NCAA record for pass eff in a single season, but had 5 int in the CUSA Title game. Bower played in 14 (15 att). Last year Texas transfer GJ Kinne (PS#24) beat out Bower. Unlike Johnson, who had a veteran supporting cast, Kinne had an inexp'd O-line and backfield. Kinne still had a solid year throwing for 2,732 (60.9%, 22-10), but threw 8 of his 10 int in the L5 games (tm went 1-4). Bower played in 7 (289 yds). They also used true frosh Shavodrick Beaver (PS#23) in Wildcat packages (3 pass att, 63 rush yd). Kinne became the first TU QB to pass for 300 and rush for 100 in a single game (Hou) and was the #1 rusher with 711 gross yds (393 net). Bower departs and not listed below is Lucas DeVilliers (6'0" 180 rFr). This is the first time in the Graham era that TU has a returning starter at QB, and I expect Kinne to be one of CUSA's top QB's.

HB Charles Clay

RUNNING BACKS - In '07 Tarrion Adams rushed for 1,225 (5.6) with 30 rec (10.0). True frosh FB Charles Clay rushed for 304 (5.3) but had 1,024 yards rec (14.8 ypc)! When Adams was injured vs Tulane, powerful inside runner Jamad Williams (5'9" 212 Sr, PS#329) had 153 on 31 carries and finished with 458 (4.3). Everyone ret'd in '08. Adams rushed for 1,523 (6.2) and became the school's single season and career rushing leader with 207 in the GMAC Bowl. Williams rushed for 523 (6.1) and Charles Opeseyitan (5'10" 205 Jr, PS#87) had 355 (7.9). Battling injuries, Clay had just 145 rush and 464 receiving. Last year they had to replace Adams and with a struggling O-line, the numbers were way down. GJ Kinne became the first QB to lead the team in rushing since 1968 (Mike Stripling). His 393 yds was the lowest total for a leading rusher here since 1971 (Mike Ridley, 311). Williams had 389 (3.9) while Clay added 236 (3.7) and also had 530 rec (13.6). Opeseyitan added 218 (4.8) and true frosh Alex Singleton played in just 1 (12 yds). Not listed below is Trey Watts (5'11" 199 rFr, JC's son). Everyone returns and they add Derrick Hall (PS#33 '08) who had 1011 (8.9) at JC in '09 and originally signed at A&M. This will be one of the most improved rush attacks in the FBS.

RECEIVERS - In '07 the rec were very inexp'd but the top two were productive in true frosh Trae Johnson (1088, 15.5) and JUCO Brennan Marion (1244) who had an NCAA record 31.9 ypc. In '08 those two ret'd and they added VHT Tenn transfer Slick Shelley (PS#9). Shelley finished #3 with 627 (16.1). True frosh Damaris Johnson was a dangerous KR/PR and was #2 with 743 (14.0). Trae Johnson's numbers dropped to 475 (23.8). Marion led again with 1,112 (25.9!). Last year they had to replace Marion. Damaris Johnson was one of the most valuable offensive players in CUSA and led with 1,131 (14.5). Shelley had 511 (17.6), AJ Whitmore 238 (9.2) and Trae Johnson was #4 with 311 (14.1) as they worked in some true frosh. This year they only lose Shelley (8 st) and TE Jake Collums (3 rec, 2 st). Not listed below are Freeman Kelley (5'11" 175 So, PS#234), Jordan James (6'2" 200 rFr, PS#151), Genesis Cole (6'1" 182 Jr), Tyler Pistoia (6'0" 204 Sr) and TE's Michael Britton (5'10" 240 Jr), Matt Hesterberg (6'2" 225 So) and Nathan Largen (6'1" 225 Sr). They add PS#8 Okla transfer Jameel Owens who is appealing to the NCAA to play immediately.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 Tulsa had an inexp'd QB but avg 570 ypg and 47.2 ppg. In '09 TU again had an inexp'd QB but only avg 410 ypg and 29.3 ppg. Perhaps the key difference was the exp of the O-line. The '08 unit only had to replace one starter (268 ypg rush, 5.6, 24 sks). Last year they only had 2 st'rs returning and one, LT Tyler Holmes, missed 6. The O-line was retooled at midseason due to inconsistent play, injuries, inexp and poor pass protection. The team really struggled in the six Holmes missed and the numbers dropped to 151 ypg (3.8) with 46 sks (11.8%). This year the Hurricane loses 2nd Tm CUSA RG Curt Puckett (12 st, 3Y st'r) but has 9 of the top 10 back (9 w/st exp) and gets some solid additions. This should be a much improved O-line.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Rush D had not been a strength at Tulsa. In 2006 I called for their best numbers in the last 2 decades and they trimmed their ypc to 4.2 and their 138 ypg rush allowed was their best in 17 yrs. With 2 st'rs back in '07, they slipped to 185 ypg (4.4). They had to replace one starter (5 back w/st exp) in '08 and they allowed just 130 ypg (3.8). Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs but HC Graham called the trio of DE Cory Dorris, DE Odrick Ray and NG Wilson Garrison probably the best group he's had at Tulsa. The less exp'd unit did well allowing just 147 ypg rush (3.9) but the sks dropped from 38 to 25. This year they lose Garrison (12 st, 32 tkl, HM CUSA) and DE Un'Tavious Scott (28 tkl, 6 sk). Dorris and Ray combined for just 4 sks but this is a more exp'd group and adds JUCO NG Darrell Zellars (IFS). Not in the PSL are Brannon Scott (5'11" 230 So, Okla St trans), Shawn Santos (6'3" 304 Sr, PS#465JC) and Jared St John (6'2" 230 So).

LINEBACKERS - Tulsa had all 4 st'rs back (#1, #2, #6, #8 tkl'rs) in '09 and all 4 started all 12. Surprisingly Tulsa still allowed 27.3 ppg. This year they lose RLB George Clinkscale (#10 tkl'r, 6 tfl), 2nd Tm CUSA MLB Mike Bryan (#2 tkl'r, 9 tfl), 2nd Tm CUSA SPUR James Lockett (#5 tkl'r, 4.5 sk), MLB Kaipo Sarkissian (23 tkl, 6 tfl) and SPUR Ade' Manga (20 tkl). Tanner Antle (#4 tkl'r) and Curnelius Arnick (#7 tkl'r) do return. Antle sat out most of the spring (pers reasons) but ret'd for the spring game. They moved BAN DeAundre Brown (#1 tkl'r) to SPUR and Graham called him the best tackling S he has ever coached. This is a less exp'd unit but could surprise.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Tulsa had three top 30 finishes in my PDR from 2003-'06. They were a disappointing #99 in Graham's first year and #97 in '08. Last year they only had to replace 1 starter but then lost FS Charles Davis after 3 sts. They moved up to #60. This year they lose CB Kenny D Sims (12 st, 36 tkl, 10 pbu), CB John Destin (10 st, 44 tkl, 4 int, 5 pbu) and S Josh Burris (4 tkl). They add JUCO Milton Howell (PS#77). Graham said FS Dexter McCoil reminds him of Bobby Blackshire ('04-'06) but 3" taller. Davis was granted a 5th year and moves to CB while John Flanders moves from CB to BAN and Brown to LB. This unit is a little less exp'd but still solid.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In 2006, Tulsa finished #42 in my ST rankings. In Graham's first year they had to replace their top KR, PR and P and as you would expect, fell to #96. In '08 the unit ret'd intact plus they added true frosh Damaris Johnson who set a school KR record (1382, 25.6). They added Cory Jefferis, who was nicknamed Sonic Boom in HS, to handle KO's (14 TB on 92 KO). Tulsa moved up to #66. Last year they had to replace their career scoring leader Jarod Tracy. Nebraska transfer P Michael Such had a fine year avg 44.5 (tm net 37.1). New K Kevin Fitzpatrick (PS#74) hit 13-14 (long 51). Fitzpatrick had 8 TB on 54 KO (Jefferis 1 TB, 13 KO). Johnson avg 24.6 on KR and 14.2 on PR. The Hurricane moved up to #37 and with everyone back has my #11 rated ST unit.

COACHES - Steve Kragthorpe guided the team to 3 bowls in his 4 seasons. Kragthorpe's 3 yr DC Todd Graham left to be Rice's HC in '06. Graham guided Rice to their first bowl in 45 yrs. He ret'd to Tulsa as the HC in '07 (Kragthrope left for L'ville) and brought in co-OC's Gus Malzahn (Ark OC '06) and Herb Hand who spent 2000-'06 at WV. Malzahn moved on to Auburn in '09 and Hand became the sole OC. This year Graham added Chad Morris as co-OC and QB coach. Morris was a Texas HS football HC (16 yrs, 3 state titles). Graham had co-DC's in Keith Patterson and Ron West (LB cch at Clemson 10Y) in '09. This year West left to become the OLB coach at Illinois and DL cch Paul Randolph was promoted to co-DC.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Tulsa was in just 5 bowls from 1964-2002 and after consecutive one win seasons, they brought in HC Steve Kragthorpe in '03. Tulsa is the smallest FBS school but under Kragthorpe they had the largest turnaround in the country (1-11 to 8-5). In '04 they had 16 ret st'rs but surprisingly went just 4-8 (-11 TO's). In '05 they moved from the WAC to CUSA. They got to the CUSA Title game where they dispatched UCF and then beat Fresno in the Liberty Bowl. Tulsa did benefit from +19 TO's and the offense avg'd 33.1 ppg (best S/'75). They opened '06 at 7-1 but finished just 8-5 including their bowl loss to Utah. Kragthorpe left for L'ville and Todd Graham came back after his 1 year stint at Rice. In his first year ('07) Tulsa had just 3 st'rs back on offense but one of them was super QB Paul Smith. They knocked off BYU early but at 2-2 in CUSA play, it appeared their title chances were out the door. They rallied to get to the Title game, including a 56-7 win over Houston. While they lost the Title game to UCF by 19, they destroyed BG by 56, the largest bowl win ever, breaking Alabama's 1953 Orange Bowl record (61-6). It was their first 10 win season since 1991. They were the first school in NCAA history to have a 5,000 yard passer, three 1,000 yard rec's and a 1,000 yard rusher. In '08 they had to break in a new QB but I noted that I had their RB's ranked #1, WR's #1 and OL #2 in CUSA. I also mentioned that 2 of my then-8 sets of power ratings had them going unbeaten, so they were my pick to win the CUSA West. Tulsa opened 8-0 and was #19 and there was talk of being a BCS buster before they lost at Ark 30-23 and then were destroyed by Houston 70-30. They won their final 2 and got to the CUSA Title game and had a 28-14 FD edge vs EC but lost due to -6 TO's. They got another bowl blowout with a 45-13 win over Ball St in the GMAC. Tulsa was +180.7 ypg (#2 CUSA). Last year they had to replace their QB again and their new QB only had 5 ret st'rs to work with. That combo saw the team go from 47.2 ppg in '08 down to "just" 29.3 ppg. Tulsa opened with a couple of easy wins on the road vs Tulane and NMex and were thinking upset vs a Sam Bradford-less Okla but suffered their first shutout loss in 65 games. After expected wins vs SHSt and Rice they were 4-1. At the end of the Boise game, a 4th & 6 pass to a wide open Clay was underthrown (:37 left 4Q) or they could have tied it. They lost to UTEP 28-24 (gave up TD w/:29 left). SMU stunned them 27-13 at home (outgained 429-322 yd). Tulsa was still alive in the CUSA West race and appeared to have beaten Houston when they stopped a late 2 pt conv but UH rec'd the onside kick with :20 left and got a 51 yd FG on the final play handing TU a devastating 46-45 loss. They lost to EC and SMiss the next 2 weeks yielding 44 pts in each and clinched a losing record. In Tommy West's final game as HC for Memphis, Tulsa rallied for a 33-30 win and it had been 18 years since Tulsa won on a FG on the last play as a TD with :32 forced OT. Tulsa was 3-5 in CUSA and -11.6 ypg (5th worst). There are a lot of signs pointing upward this year. They had 2 net close losses. Tulsa returns 98% of its rushing and 91% of its passing yards from '09, a stark contrast to last year. Tulsa makes my Most Improved List and 4 of my 9 sets of power ratings call for a double digit win season.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score TU	Final Score Opp	W/L
Sep. 5	at East Carolina (Sun)	G					Last year Tulsa trailed EC 20-0 and cut the deficit to only 6 after 3Q's but a horrible 4Q that included 2 IR TD's, a SOD at the EC7 & a 49 yd EC FR TD led to the 44-17 blowout.
Sep. 11	Bowling Green	A					TU has outscored BG 108-17 in the 2 prior meetings. L/gm ('07 GMAC bowl) the Hurricane outgained the Falcons by 333 yards (35-0 at HT). TU has won 4 straight home openers.
Sep. 18	at Oklahoma St	A					71st meeting. TU last won in Stillwater in 1951 dropping 19 str visits. L/gm ('04) TU lost 38-21 but trailed just 14-7 HT before allowing 24 unanswered. TU is 0-19 vs BCS tms (avg score 42-14).
Sep. 25	Central Arkansas	A					In the only prior meeting TU won 62-34 in '08 w/a 641-435 yd edge but only led 21-14 at HT. The Bears went 5-7 LY incl a 25-20 loss to Hawaii and a 28-7 win over WKU.
Oct. 2	at Memphis	A					Tulsa has won all 3 conf meetings. Last visit to the Liberty Bowl ('06) TU was up 28-7 after 3Q's as they scored TD's on their 1st 3 drives & had a 13:00-2:00 1Q TOP edge.
Oct. 9	at SMU	A					Visitor is 2-6 but has won B2B yrs & outgained the HT by 120 ypg. LY the gm was tied 7-7 at HT but Tulsa allowed the next 13 pts. They did cut it to 7 in the 4Q but their L/2 drives were SOD.
Oct. 16	Tulane (HC)	A					Tulsa has won both meetings as hosts ('06 & '08), and have outscored the Green Wave by at least 35 pts & outgained them by 300+ in each. TU is 1-4 their L/5 CUSA HG's (outgained by 69 ypg).
Oct. 23
Oct. 30	at Notre Dame	G					First meeting. Into 2010, TU dropped 16 str vs BCS schools away from home. In their last BCS road game, TU was outgained by 260 yds but in '08 TU outgained Ark 528-435.
Nov. 6	Rice	A					LY Tulsa allowed just 10 pts & 191 yds vs Rice (series best in modern era). Last time hosting the Owls ('08) Tulsa hung 63 on them which is a series high as they also took advantage of a 4-1 TO edge.
Nov. 13	at Houston	G					Tulsa led 45-37 LY w/3:23 left but allowed a 61/13pl TD drive (2ptng, :21 left) & then failed to cover the onside kick as UH kicked a 51 yd FG as time exp. TU had 4 TO's & gave up a 98 yd KR TD.
Nov. 20	UTEP	A					The momentum shifted 3 times LY as Tulsa trailed 13-0 after 1Q being outgained 162-48 but scored 24 unanswered to take a DD 4Q lead only to give up 2 TD drives in the final 6:25 (last one w/:29 left).
Nov. 26	Southern Miss (Fri)	A					The home team is 5-1-1. TU has outgained SM in each CUSA meeting by 222 ypg but was -3 in the TO ratio and lost LY. The Golden Hurricane are 6-1 in home finales.

SMU MUSTANGS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Prior to 2006, SMU's completion % for a season only topped 52.8% ONCE in the previous 10 years and that was in '04 (54.4%)! The last time a Mustang QB threw 10 TD's in a season was '99, while the last QB with double digit TD passes and single digit int's was Lance McIlhenny in '83. In 2006, Justin Willis broke Chuck Hixon's record (1968) for TD passes in a season (21). Willis threw for 2,047 (67%, 26-6). In '07 Willis threw for 2,944 (59%, 25-18) and was the #1 rusher (699). Willis was susp for the '08 spring and true frosh Bo Levi Mitchell, who was originally going to sign with Hawaii, won the job. Willis was only used a couple of times in running situations at QB (0 pass). Mitchell threw for 2,865 (58%, 24 TD) but also had 23 int (worst NCAA). Last year Mitchell suffered a rib inj, then a stomach ulcer caused him to lose 20 lbs. He threw for 1,725 (56%, 12-10). True frosh Kyle Padron (Southlake Carroll HS which also produced Chase Daniel and Greg McElroy) started vs Tulsa (354) but the next week vs Rice he held on to the ball too long (5 sks). Padron threw for 1,922 (67.2%, 10-4) and had a school record 460 yards passing in the bowl. Padron's 159.9 passer rating ranked 5th in the nation. Mitchell transferred to EWash. Added to the mix is New Mexico St transfer JJ McDermott. Padron should have a huge soph season.

RUNNING BACKS - The key to this unit's '09 success happened the day before the opening KO when Miami, Fl transfer VHT Shawnbrey McNeal (PS#39) was ruled eligible. In 2008 the top rusher had just 190 (4.1) and the top returnee was Chris Butler (174, 5.3). McNeal (1188, 5.0) became the first ever 1,000 yard rusher in June Jones' 11 seasons as a college HC. True frosh Zach Line was #2 with 189 (3.9) and the #3 and #4 rushers were both QB's. No other RB had a rush attempt. McNeal left early for the NFL (undrafted) and not listed below are Billy Dugal (6'2" 232 So), Chris Butler (5'10" 215 Sr, PS#361), Ryan Armstrong (5'8' 165 Jr) and Ryan Moczygemba (6'1" 225 Sr). Jones compared true frosh Darryl Fields to Eric Dickerson and Kevin Pope to Earl Campbell and they figure to lead the RB's.

RECEIVERS - In '06 rFr Emmanuel Sanders led with 605 (13.2) and led again in '07 with 889 (12.0). In '08 they had to replace 3 of their top 4 WR's. Jones said that Sanders' great work ethic reminded him of Jerry Rice. Jones also said that Aldrick Robinson may be the best outside receiver he's ever coached and he coached Andre Rison and Terance Mathis in Atlanta! Those two did not disappoint as Robinson led with 1,047 (17.7) and Sanders added 958 (14.3) even though both were susp for the final 2. True frosh Cole Beasley had 366 (8.7) and rFr Terrance Wilkerson added 233 (9.7). Last year everyone ret'd and Sanders became the school's all-time leader and also set a CUSA record for rec in a game (18 vs Wash St). He led with 1,339 (13.7) and was #3DC PIT. Robinson was #2 with 800 (17.0) and Wilkerson added 527 (12.5). Jones is very high on soph Darius Johnson (11 rec, 5 gm inj as true). Jones called last year's group as fast a receiving corps as he's ever had. While very exp'd, with the loss of their star they'll be down a few notches.

WR Aldrick Robinson

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2007 SMU had 9 of the top 10 OL's back and as expected, improved the rushing totals to 170 ypg (4.3) with 30 sks (6.9%). In June Jones' first year they had to replace 3 multi-year starters then suffered injuries and had to learn a new system. The numbers plummeted to 41 ypg rush (2.3) with a respectable 27 sks allowed (5.7%), despite having 3 frosh starters. Last year they had to replace 3 OL (comb 24 sts) and were in the 2nd year of the system. Naturally the numbers improved to 110 ypg rush (3.8) but with 36 sks (7.6%). This year they only lose C Mitch Enright (12 st, 2Y st'r) but return 9 of the top 10 and go from having 4 soph st'rs to 5 Jr's incl LT Kelvin Beachum (2nd Tm CUSA). I expect continued improvement.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '06 I said SMU had one of CUSA's strongest D-lines and the exp'd unit allowed their 2nd best rush defense since the Death Penalty (3.0, '99) with just 3.2 ypc and 31 sacks allowed. In '07 they had to replace 3 st'rs then lost their only ret starter after 6 gms. As expected, SMU's rush defense numbers ballooned to a Bennett era high 5.0 ypc (20 sk). In '08 they had 2 st'rs back but yielded 226 ypg, the most since '95 (4.9). Last year they had to replace 4 DL (comb 31 sts) but did get back NT Chris Parham (8 st '07) and added PS#61JC Marquis Frazier (DNP in '08 inj). They also got the unusual addition of Margus Hunt who is 6'8" 272 (SMU trk tm) and '09 was his first year in organized football (world class shot put and discus athlete). Hunt (2.5 sk, 8 tkl, 7 blk kicks) now has exp. The lightly exp'd unit still improved to 167 ypg rush allowed (4.4). This year they only lose Parham (13 st, 32 tkl) and figure to be an underrated defensive front with surprising undersized NT Aaron Davis (6'3" 255) running #1 after spring.

LINEBACKERS - SMU switched from a 4-3 to a 3-4 last year and moved DE Youri Yenga into the LB spot. They also moved #2 tkl'r MLB Justin Smart (10 st) to DL so it was like having 2 st'rs back. The coaches didn't know what they had in Chase Kennemer in '08 (only 2 sts) but he emerged and was by far the #1 tkl'r with 135 (12 tfl) earning 1st Tm CUSA. This year they lose Kennemer (13 st) but return 6 with starting exp and 4 soph who were in the 2 deep last year. Smart also moves back to LB and despite the loss of their top guy, this unit is improved.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - After finishing #84 in my PDR in 2006 and #86 in '07, SMU had just 1 starter back in '08 and slipped to #117. Last year they ret'd all 4 st'rs but they did lose CB Derrius Bell after 1 start (inj). FS Chris Banjo was chosen to wear Jerry LeVias' #23 jersey and was the #2 tackler as a soph. SMU had just 8 int in '08 but had 9 in the first 2 gms LY. The DB's were banged up late and true frosh JR McConico started vs Tulane. As expected, the more exp'd unit moved up to #44. Not in the PSL are Jeremy Gray (5'11" 188 rFr), Chris Castro (5'8" 188 Jr, 10 tkl 2Y) and Robert Lloyd (6'0" 187 rFr). This year they lose HM CUSA CB Bryan McCann (12 st, 54 tkl, 3 int, 10 pbu), HM CUSA SS Rock Dennis (13 st, #4 tkl'r, 7 pbu) and NB Bryce Hudman (2 st, 26 tkl, 2 pbu). With 2 starters back, they'll probably drop a notch or two in the PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - SMU was #53 in my ST rankings in '07. Everyone ret'd in '08 and Jessie Henderson became the NCAA's all-time leader in KR yards (2,945) breaking Tulane's Jeff Liggon's record ('93-96). Thomas Morstead (#5DC NO) had a 37.2 net as a punter and hit 11-15 FG's. Those two both had to be replaced in '09 but they brought in Texas A&M transfer Matt Szymanski. Szymanski hit 11-16 FG's (3 miss 50+ incl 58), he also hit the 3rd longest FG in school history (53). Szymanski avg 41.9 on punts (35.2 net). Bryan McCann was the top KR (24.2) and Emmanuel Sanders the top PR (13.8). SMU had to overcome the tragic loss of their ST coor, Frank Gansz who passed away last spring and they now play the SMU/Navy game for the Frank Gansz Trophy. They allowed 3 return TD's but led the nation with 9 blk'd kicks. SMU dropped to #88 but with Szymanski and Margus Hunt (7 blk) back (do lose their top returnmen), they should improve in '10.

COACHES - June Jones took over 0-12 Hawaii and guided the '99 team to a winning record including a bowl win and was named National COY. Jones was 76-41 at Hawaii and was his own OC. He was lured here in '08 with a salary of $2 million per year and enjoys better facilities and a bigger budget. Jones took a 1-11 SMU team to 8-5 including a bowl win in his 2nd year. He has now led 3 squads to the Most Improved Team in the NCAA, incl last year. Dan Morrison is the offensive asst HC and was the QB coach at UH for 9 yrs prior to SMU, where he mentored the NCAA's all-time leading passer Timmy Chang and all-time TD pass leader Colt Brennan. The DC is Tom Mason, who was the LB coach at Fresno St for 7 years. All 3 enter their 3rd seasons here.

PHIL'S FORECAST

From 1981-1984 SMU was among the best teams in the country going 41-5-1 but the "Death Penalty" hit and since their return in 1989, they had one winning season from 1989-2008 and that was back in 1997. Phil Bennett had them knocking on the door with 5 and 6 win seasons in '05 and '06. In '06 they were 4-4 in CUSA (+47.4 ypg). In '07 they had 13 ret st'rs. SMU had many close losses including 3 in OT and finished just 1-11. In June Jones' first season a lot of things pointed toward success for SMU. In Jones' first year at Hawaii they had the largest turnaround in NCAA history. SMU was -9 in TO's and had a 5 net close losses in '07 as it was a very frustrating final year for Bennett. During the spring Jones susp QB Justin Willis and true frosh Bo Levi Mitchell started. Once again SMU suffered some close losses and in the final 2 Jones susp'd his top 2 WR's and a shorthanded SMU team was whipped in each game. SMU was -122.7 ypg in CUSA play (2nd worst). Coming into last year SMU had lost 17 consec CUSA games. I pointed out that they were -13 in TO's in '08, in the 2nd year of Jones' system, had 16 ret st'rs and in '08 they played well vs league powers Tulsa and Houston, leading both in the 4Q. Their 5 net close losses were #1 in the NCAA and they were #6 in my "Going Up" section due to their easier schedule (pg 318). SMU made my Most Improved List and did not disappoint. SMU was outgained vs SF Austin (460-355) and trailed by 9 in the 4Q but won. They blew a 28-7 lead vs UAB but stopped a 2 pt conv to win by 2. Their 2-0 start was the first since 1996. They had the Wash St game in hand, up 24-7 late 3Q but 2 IR TD's turned into a 30-27 loss despite a 504-276 yd edge. They lost to TCU in a downpour. After beating EC they were 2-0 in conf play for the first time since 1986. They led Navy 21-7 but lost in OT. QB Mitchell was inj'd and true frosh Kyle Padron burned his RS, but they lost to Houston by 23 despite a 397-394 yd edge. The next week Padron got his first career start throwing for 354 yards and they upset Tulsa on the road 27-13. They blk'd a FG on the final play of the 1H and ret'd it for a TD and a 21-20 lead vs Rice holding on for a 31-28 win. UTEP got to the SMU 14 late 4Q but SMU got a huge sack on 4th down and while SMU was outgained 627-437, they held on for a 4 pt win putting them in 1st place in CUSA West. After dropping a road game to a Marshall team that was without RB Marshall and TE Slate, they got past Tulane at home but thanks to the 3 pt loss to Marshall, no longer controlled their destiny. They finished as CUSA co-champ but Houston went to the title game. SMU snapped a 25 yr bowl drought and was a large underdog to Nevada in the Hawaii Bowl but rolled to a 45-10 win. SMU's 7 game jump was the best in the country. June Jones had an NCAA record in his first year at Hawaii as they went from 0-12 to 9-4. The year after that historic jump at Hawaii, they went just 3-9. This year's SMU team has 15 ret st'rs (3rd most CUSA) but did benefit from 3 net close wins and despite their 6-2 CUSA record, they were -24.4 ypg (4th worst). This is a stronger team with just 13 lettermen lost and they get both Houston and Tulsa at home. They must be considered a prime contender for CUSA honors.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score SMU	Final Score Opp	W L
Sep. 5	at Texas Tech (Sun)	A					Old SWC rivals. SMU has dropped 13 str vs TT (S'89) with the L/5 decided by 34 ppg. In the L/gm ('08) SMU was outgained by 419 yds & down 43-0 before a garbage TD.
Sep. 11	UAB	A					The Mustangs are 3-0 vs the Blazers but have been outgained in 2 of the 3 games. SMU is 4-8 in home openers but they've dropped 6 straight openers vs FCS teams.
Sep. 18	Washington St	A					First meeting LY & SMU lost despite a 228 yd edge (held WSU to a ssn best 276 yds). SMU was up 24-7 mid 3Q but allowed 2 IR TD's, an 80 yd TD drive w/:28 left & tossed an int in OT.
Sep. 24	TCU (Fri)	A					SMU is 1-9 S'99 vs TCU (3 str losses) including a ssn low 224 yds LY. SMU led 7-0 in the 2Q before allowing 25 unanswered. This instate series is played for the Iron Skillet.
Oct. 2	at Rice	A					SMU has dropped 10 str visiting Rice getting outgained by 104 ypg the L3. LY SMU blocked 3 kicks incl a FG that was returned for a TD (10 pt swing) for their first win in L/4 years.
Oct. 9	Tulsa	A					Last year Fr QB Padron made his first start throwing for 354 yds (67%). Last time here SMU was a huge dog but dropped a would be GW TD pass with under a minute left.
Oct. 16	at Navy	A					SMU is 1-6 vs Navy S/'95 incl B2B losses the L2Y being outgained by 142 ypg. LY SMU led 21-7 at the half but allowed 4 straight TD drives & then missed a 43 yd FG in OT.
Oct. 23	Houston (HC)	A					SMU has dropped 4 straight and 7 of 8 to Houston. LTH ('08) SMU led 35-23 after 3Q's but allowed 14 pts in the final 2:34 (GW score was a 26 yd TD pass w/:24 left).
Oct. 30	at Tulane	A					Mustangs are 3-8 vs the Green Wave. The only time SMU has won 2 str in this series was '80 & '82. SMU was outgained by 163 yds ('08) in their last visit to the dome (trailed 31-7 at HT).
Nov. 6	at UTEP	A					Visitor is just 3-9. SMU hasn't won at the Sun Bowl since 2002 (3 straight losing visits). LY SMU stopped UTEP's final drive with a 4th & 6 sack at the SMU14 in the 35-31 win.
Nov. 13
Nov. 20	Marshall	A					Home team is 3-0 in this series (1st game in 2005) outgaining the visitor in each by 144 ypg. SMU has been outsk'd 12-1 vs MU. SMU is 6-3 in Ford Stadium finales.
Nov. 26	at East Carolina (Fri)	G					LY the Mustangs beat the Pirates for the 1st time in this series (started in '05). SMU trailed 7-0 early but took the lead for good on a 96 yd 3Q TD pass (tied for longest in SMU history).

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In '07 five QB's battled to replace UTEP's career leading passer Jordan Palmer. Trevor Vittatoe (monster arm) played on a team in HS that ran the ball or he would have been higher in the recruiting rankings (PS#164). Vittatoe started all 12 setting a UTEP frosh record throwing for 3,101 (55%, 25-7). In '08 Vittatoe was injured early and was never really 100%. He had 3 int's in the opener and 3 in the finale but was nearly flawless in between. Vittatoe threw for 3,274 (59%) with a 33-9 ratio. His bkps were walk-on Kyle Wright (6'1" 200) and James Thomas (5'11" 190, PS#209). Thomas was the #2 rusher in '08 (351, 6.8) throwing for 134 and became the 3rd Miner QB since '82 to rush for over 100 (142) when Vittatoe was inj'd vs NMSt. Wright played in 10 (1 of 9). Last year Vittatoe was fully healthy but did not have the year I expected. Dropped passes were a major culprit but he also missed some open throws but he did become the first UTEP QB to top 3,000 in 3 consec seasons. He threw for 3,308 (54.8%, 17-13). He threw for a school record 517 (old rec Bob Craigo 1970, 507 yd) vs Marshall. Wright had 8 passes while Thomas rushed for 46 (3.3). RFr Tim Curry (PS#61) only got in 1 game (1 att). Curry will battle Carson Meger (6'0" 195 rFr, PS#187, 3 TD spg gm) and Thomas for this year's bkp spot. I expect Vittatoe to be one of CUSA's top QB's.

RUNNING BACKS - Mike Price has had success with transfers from BCS schools. Marcus Thomas (PS#23 at Ariz) rushed for a school record 5 consec 100+ gms in '07. I had called for UTEP to have the most improved rush attack in the NCAA and they did, going from 58 ypg to 148. Terrell Jackson (PS#17 at Oreg) added 202 (5.2). Vernon Frazier (5'7" 170 Jr, PS#299), who Price called a future star, RS. In '08 they had to replace Thomas (#5DC). In the first 6, four different RB's led and Jackson finished #1 but with just 451 (4.2). QB James Thomas was #2 and Donald Buckram was #3 (348, 4.6). Frazier added 176 (5.7) and Daniel Palmer (PS#169) had 132 (3.2). In '09 Palmer was the proj starter but was susp'd. Frazier was injured and it turned into the Donald Buckram show. Buckram avg 74.5 ypg in the first 4. In the first 7 vs CUSA foes, Buckram avg an amazing 182 ypg (262 vs UH, #2 all-time at UTEP). Buckram broke the single season rushing record held by Fred Wendt (1,546 in 1948) with 1,594 (6.2) and 18 TD's. Buckram was also the #3 receiver (453, 15.1). Jason Williams (PS#162) was the #2 RB with just 126 (3.2). UTEP sent out dollar bills with Buckram's face on it saying "the buck stops here" to promote him for AA. The only flaw I saw was 2 costly fumbles in the last 5:02 of the Rice game. Not listed below are Leilyon Myers (6'1" 235 Jr), Joe Banyard (6'0" 205 Jr, PS#221) and Michael Farrar (5'7" 200 Jr). Buckram is the #2 returning rusher in the FBS but it will be tough to improve much upon his 2009 stats.

RECEIVERS - In 2007 UTEP had to replace 3 of their top 4 rec's. Jeff Moturi (1 rec '06) led with 891 (13.7) as the team dropped to under 300 ypg passing for the first time since '04. In '08 they had to replace 4 of their top 5 rec's but did return Moturi who finished #2 with 655 (12.8). 6'3" Kris Adams led with 958 (19.2). TE Jamar Hunt was #3 (367, 11.8). Last year they lost Hunt and struggled to replace his production at TE with Jonny Moore (PS#66) the #1 TE with 135 (10.4). UTEP has hindered with drops most of the year. Moturi led with 974 (18.4) and Adams was #2 with 580 (13.8). This year they lose Moturi (10 st) and Tufick Shadrawy (11 st, 24 rec). Not listed in the PSL are Jeken Frye (5'10" 165 So, PS#325), Alberto Navarro (6'2" 210 rFr) and TE's Kevin Perry (6'5" 225 rFr, PS#235) and Geoff Amato (6'2" 240 Sr). I expect a bigger contribution out of exciting returnman Marlon McClure (doghouse '09). Even though UTEP loses its top guy, the Miners should cut down on the drops.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '06 nine different OL started (inj's). UTEP avg just 58 rush ypg and 2.4 ypc (lowest S/'68). Three frosh started at times. Naturally the numbers have been better in each of the last 3 yrs. Last year UTEP had 86 career sts ret (9 of top 10 OL). The unit paved the way for their best ypc rush in over 20 years (4.5) while allowing 25 sks (5.9%). This year they lose 1st Tm CUSA LT Mike Aguayo (12 st, 3Y st'r), HM CUSA LG Cameron Raschke (8 st until inj, 3Y st'r), LG Colby Meek (4 st) and C Daniel Garcia (4 gm). While less exp'd (62 car sts) with 3 starters back, they could be just as strong.

DE Robert Soleyjacks

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 the first year of the switch from the 4-3 to the 3-3-5, a veteran group (7 w/st exp) allowed 5.1 ypc (199 ypg) with 23 sks. Last year they had to replace 3 DL (comb 14 sts) but had 2 st'rs back and added two JUCO's, Aaron King and Tory Robinson (cleared late '08) that were finally up to speed. Surprisingly UTEP did not improve (201, 5.0) with 15 sks. This year they lose DE King (12 st, 37 tkl, 4.5 sk, HM CUSA), NT Steve Riddick (11 st, 29 tkl, 1 sk, HM CUSA), DT Chris Moore (1 st, 12 tkl), NT Robinson (24 tkl, 2 sk) and DE Landon Goodwell (16 tkl). Only 2 of the top 7 return but I felt last year's unit underperformed and they now switch back to a 4-3.

LINEBACKERS - Last year they had to replace 1st Tm CUSA LB Adam Vincent (#1 tkl'r) and their #5 tackler. They did return #2 tkl'r Da'Mon Cromartie-Smith and Anthony Morrow (#6). Morrow missed 4 (just 6 sts). Jeremy Springer arrived at UTEP as a QB but started all 12 at LB (#4 tkl'r). At one point due to injuries, there were just 4 exp'd LB's vs Tulane and they switched to a 4-2-5. Price said at the end of the year that he needed LB's who had played LB in Pop Warner, in HS and JUCO, not someone they had convert to a LB. This year they lose 1st Tm CUSA Cromartie-Smith (#1 tkl'r, 4 tfl), Roddray Walker (6 st, #9 tkl'r, 4.5 tfl) and Brian Wilkins (1 st, 26 tkl). They do return 2.5 st'rs (#3, #4, #11 tkl'rs) and should be stronger behind the 4-man front.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - UTEP's DB's have played to their expectations recently. With 4 st'rs back in '04 they finished #36 in my PDR and with 3 back in '06 they were #58. With inexp'd units they finished #90 in '05, #83 in '07 and #104 in '08. Last year UTEP had to replace 2 st'rs (#3 & #4 tkl'r) but ret'd 3 players with 23 combined sts in '08 plus Braxton Amy (#1 tkl'r '07, miss '08). UTEP improved to #87. This year they lose CB Melvin Stephenson (12 st, 58 tkl, 2 int, 4 pbu), HM CUSA S Clarence Ward (12 st, 73 tkl, 1 int, 8 pbu), CB Cornelius Brown (8 st, 41 tkl, 8 pbu) and CB Dustin Bell (2 st, 23 tkl). Amy missed 4 (inj), and is appealing to the NCAA for a 6th year. As long as Amy is back they have their #5 & #7 tkl'rs returning, add JUCO Travaun Nixon (PS#101JC) and they could surprise.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Price puts an emphasis on ST's. In his first 4 years UTEP finished #17, #48, #25 and #34 in my ST rankings. In '08 they surprisingly dropped to #80. Last year they had to replace their star K Jose Martinez as well as their top KR/PR. K Logan Barrett hit 13-18 but just 1-4 from 40+. Ken Paolinelli took over the KO duties late and had 4 TB on 9 KO. P Greg Hiett avg 42.9 with a super net of 37.8. The KR's were avg until true frosh McClure got out of the doghouse (23.7). This year they lose their P, K and PR but still could improve upon '09's #81 finish.

COACHES - Mike Price enters his 7th year here. He previously guided Wash St to a pair of Rose Bowls and three 10 win seasons in his 14 years there. He was the Pac-10 COY in 1992, 1997 and 2001. They have co-OC's in Bob Connelly, who was an OL coach at UCLA and Alabama and Aaron Price (Mike's son). UTEP shifted to a 3-3-5 in '08 but after a poor 2 yr run they switch coor's again. The new DC is Andre Patterson who was UNLV's asst HC/DL cch L/2Y, DL coach LY and previously coached under Price at Weber St and Wash St. Patterson was the HC of Cal Poly from '94-'96.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In 2004 Mike Price stepped into a great situation as he took over a team with 17 ret st'rs that was -15 in TO's in '03. There had been just 3 winning seasons here since 1971 prior to Price's arrival. I called them the WAC's surprise team and my #3 Most Improved Team. While they opened 1-2, they finished 7-2 moving as high as #23 (AP). Despite having just 11 st'rs back in '05, they were arguably the most talented team in CUSA. After opening 8-1 (#24), UTEP needed just one win to advance to the CUSA Title game but dropped their final 2, both vs tms with losing records. They were also embarrassed in the bowl and finished 8-4. It was, however, their first B2B winning seasons since 1987-'88 although amazingly, they did not have a single 1st Tm CUSA player. UTEP set a school record with 13 straight crowds of 40,000+. Price had 26 seniors but took on a more difficult schedule in '06. They had 51,500 on hand vs TT but the Raiders' 49 yd FG bounced in off the upright in OT and UTEP lost. At 4-2 they were thinking CUSA Title but went 1-5 down the stretch. In '07 they had to replace 13 of their top 17 tkl'rs and also QB Jordan Palmer! At 4-2 they suffered a tough loss to EC and they lost 3 gms they led late. After their disappointing 4-5 start they lost their final 3 by 15, 26 and 16. Some of my 2008 power ratings had them one of the top teams in CUSA and others had them among the weakest. They played like that during the year. They upset SMiss in 2OT. They led Rice by 10 but lost in a shootout and later led Houston 28-9 in the 3Q but allowed a TD with :41 left. That squad had just 12 ret st'rs and 6 were injured. They benefitted from +12 in TO's and despite their 4-4 CUSA record, were -72.4 ypg (4th worst). Last year they had 55 ret lettermen (most CUSA). I went out on a limb and called for them to tie for the CUSA West Title. If you would have told me prior to the year that they would knock off Houston 58-41 and Tulsa 28-24 (both at home) and finish +77.3 ypg in conf play (2nd best), I would have thought my prediction had come true. Unfortunately, UTEP was once again an up and down team. Facing a rebuilding Buffalo in the opener, they had a 372-309 yard edge but a game winning TD with :14 left was nullified by penalty. They had expected losses to ranked Big 12 teams to open 1-3. After beating Houston they dropped 2 TD passes vs Mem and lost on the road. They beat Tulsa and again appeared to be in the driver's seat for the West but shockingly, despite 607-375 yd and 36-18 FD edges, they lost at home to UAB (99 yd IR TD). Tulane got an improbable late drive for a TD with :01 left to force OT and UTEP lost. SMU got a TD with 4:34 left and UTEP was at SMU's 14 but on 4th & 6 Vittatoe was sacked in the 4 point loss. UTEP had a 395-227 yard edge but thanks to 6 TO's (-5) they actually lost at Rice, 30-29. UTEP amazingly had lost 20 straight reg season finales but finally snapped that in a 52-21 win over Marshall. The Miners' 5 losses by a TD or less were the most in school history. Mike Price's UTEP teams are 26-20 prior to Nov 1st but just 8-18 after. UTEP qualifies for a strong system on pg 299 with 4 net close losses and as mentioned, they were +77.3 ypg in CUSA play and bring back QB Vittatoe and RB Buckram. They do have just 12 ret st'rs but were much better than their 3-5 CUSA record last year and 8 of my 9 sets of power ratings call for them to be bowl eligible.

Phil's Homefield Edge-3.5

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score UTEP	Final Score Opp	W L
Sep. 4	Arkansas-Pine Bluff	A					1st meeting. Golden Lions went 5-5 LY and are members of the SWAC. This will be just the 2nd FBS opp in UAPB's history (lost 20-17 vs NMSt in '07). UTEP is 1-3 in home openers.
Sep. 10	at Houston (Fri)	G					LY RB Donald Buckram rushed for a career high 262 yds (8.2). UTEP's win LY vs #12 UH was the 1st over a ranked opp S/'97 (2nd highest ever, beat #7 BYU in 1985).
Sep. 18	New Mexico St	A					This is the Miners longest running series (88th meeting, 50-35-2). Last game in El Paso ('08), QB Trevor Vittatoe was injured early 1Q & UTEP couldn't overcome 3 TO's.
Sep. 25	Memphis	A					UTEP has been upset in all 3 meetings but has outgained Memphis in 2 of the 3 as they are a combined -12 in TO's. The Miners are 6-2 the last 2 years hosting CUSA opp's.
Oct. 2	at New Mexico	G					Visitor is just 2-8 (5 straight losses). In the last meeting ('07) UTEP was outgained by 188 yds, lost the TO battle (-1) but held New Mexico to 6 pts (20 & 40 yd FG's).
Oct. 9	Rice (HC)	A					UTEP has dropped 4 straight by a comb 20 pts. LY UTEP blew leads of 13-0, 20-10 & 29-17 as 6 TO's proved costly incl 2 fumble's in the final 5:02 (1 on GL & other on RU39).
Oct. 16	at UAB	A					The visitor has pulled the upset in all 3 meetings but the Miners have outgained the Owls by 147 ypg. LY UTEP was behind 21-3 & never got within DD's until its L/score w/1:12 left.
Oct. 23	Tulane	A					Home team is 4-0 (1st meeting in '05 was in Ruston, LA due to Katrina). LY UTEP led w/1:13 left but all'd an 11 yd TD screen pass w/a second left and then lost in OT.
Oct. 30	at Marshall	A					The visitor is 0-3 but UTEP has outgained Marshall in each meeting. Last year QB Trevor Vittatoe passed for a school record 517 yds (passed Bill Craigo's 1970 mark 507 yds).
Nov. 6	SMU	A					In L8Y UTEP has outgained SMU in each by 140 ypg. LY down 4 UTEP had a 1D at the SMU18 w/:50 left but was sk'd on 4th&6. UTEP is 5-15-1 in home finales (won L2 by 29 ppg).
Nov. 13	at Arkansas	A					Just one prior meeting in 1989, the Miners lost 39-7 to a #8 Razorback squad. Into 2010, UTEP is 4-22 in non-conference & last beat a BCS team on the road in 1974 (0-38 since).
Nov. 20	at Tulsa	A					Visitor has dropped 6 straight. In UTEP's last visit the game was deadlocked at 28 after 1Q but they were outscored 49-7 the final 3Q's, and allowed 791 yds (a school high).

RICE OWLS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Usually when a team moves from the option to a spread offense, it's a 3 to 4 year process but Chase Clement had Rice going against the grain. In the option offense of '05, Clement had one start (582, 43%) and contemplated a transfer. In '06, their first year of the spread, Rice was 6-2 with Clement in the lineup (1-4 when he was inj). Clement threw for 1,707 (58%, 21-5 ratio). In '07 Clement rewrote the Rice record books throwing for 3,377 (59%, 29-16) and was also the #1 rusher (535). In '08, Clement became the first player in Owl history to top 10,000 yds total offense and the first in CUSA to top 1,500 rush and 8,000 pass. Clement threw for 4,119 (67%) with an amazing 44-7 ratio (693 rush). Backup John Thomas Shepherd (PS#308) played in 15 gm in 3 yrs (26-49-297) and ret'd in '09 along with rFr Ryan Lewis (PS#80). I expected Alabama transfer Nick Fanuzzi (PS#22) to win the starting job. Shepherd, who had the exp edge and is mobile started the opener but Fanuzzi also played. Fanuzzi is the biggest of the 3 with the strongest arm and had more snaps than Shepherd vs Okla St but missed the next 2 (inj). While he was out, Shepherd and Lewis combined to hit just 29-75 (2-5 ratio) and Fanuzzi took most of the snaps afterwards. He threw for 1,598 (60%, 11-8) while Shepherd threw for 506 (53.6%, 2-5) and Lewis for 240 (38.6%, 1-4). This year Fanuzzi will have to hold off Miami, Fl transfer Taylor Cook (PS#47) as well as Taylor McHargue (PS#170) who almost burned his RS LY. Adding depth is Michael Poynter (6'1" 200 rFr). This unit is much more exp'd and I look for Fanuzzi to have a fine year.

RUNNING BACKS - In the first year of the new spread offense, Quinton Smith rushed for 1,096 (5.2) and left as the #2 career rusher here (2,505). In '07 the Rice RB's combined for just 766 yards. In 2008 QB Clement was the team's leading rusher in 5 of the first 6 but CJ Ugokwe finally emerged and finished with 809 (4.8). Last year the top ret rusher was Jeramy Goodson (69, 5.8). Five RB's had carries but Tyler Smith missed 4 (toe). True frosh Charles Ross had 11 TD's and took direct snaps in the "Jumbo" package. He had two 3-TD games and led with 491 (5.1). Smith had 428 (4.2) while Goodson added 223 (3.9). This year they lose Goodson (5 st) and Marcus Knox (2 st, 82, 3.4). Not in the PSL are Shane Turner (5'9" 175 So, PS#227) and FB Kevin Pool (5'7" 215 Jr). Not only do the top 2 rushers return (more exp), but they add Michigan transfer Sam McGuffie (PS#7) and should be one of the most improved RB units in the FBS.

RECEIVERS - WR Jarett Dillard set a CUSA single-season record for TD rec (21) in '06. In '07 he had 1,057 (13.4) and James Casey a "true" frosh (3 yr White Sox farm system) was #2 with 585 (12.7). Toren Dixon had 448 (9.7). All 3 ret'd in '08 and Dillard and QB Clement became the most prolific TD producing combo in NCAA history (59). Dillard became the 1st player ever to have two 20 TD rec seasons (1310, 15.1) and was an FWAA AA. Casey broke the single season school record for rec (111) and led with 1,329 (12.0). Dixon added 598 (12.0) and Corbin Smiter had 487 (16.2). Last year they had to replace a pair of NFL DC's in Casey and Dillard (Casey would have been the starting QB had he stuck around). Dixon led with 660 (11.0) and Patrick Randolph, who had the best August of all WR's, had 356 (9.1). Taylor Wardlow had 347 (11.2). Those 3 combined just reached the 1,300 that Casey and Dillard EACH topped in '08. This year they lose Dixon (12 st) and Wardlow (12 st). Adding depth are Randy Kitchens (6'3" 215 Jr, PS#181), Donte Moore (6'1" 170 rFr) and Will Allday (5'8" 150 So). While this unit has less rec yards returning than '09, they are not losing 2 NFL caliber receivers, so I'll call them improved.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Under former HC Ken Hatfield Rice ran the option offense and was traditionally on top of the NCAA in rush ypg. In 2004 they led FBS with 307 ypg (4.9). Naturally with the shift to the spread offense, the rushing numbers have been cut by more than 50%. In '07 they had 9 of the top 10 OL back. They only rushed for 111 ypg (3.5, lowest S/'89) with 30 sks (5.7%). In '08 they had to replace 2 st'rs and improved to 144 ypg (4.2) with 29 sks (5.6%). Last year they had to replace a pair of 4 year st'rs and had just 2 st'rs ret (31 car sts, #108 FBS). One of those 2, RG Jake Hicks, missed 5 (inj). Naturally the numbers dropped to 109 ypg (3.2) with 30 sks (6.6%). This year they only lose backup G Travis Mason (1 gm) and their 91 car starts returning are tied for #22 in the FBS. This is a much improved unit.

DE Cheta Ozougwu

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 Rice had to replace 2 st'rs but still trimmed their rush ypg allowed to 183 (lowest in 5 yr) but allowed 5.2 ypc and the D had just 22 sks. Last year they only had to replace 1 starter and 4 backups but ret starter Chance Talbert had just one start (6 tkl, inj 6 gm) so it was like having 2 ret st'rs again. Rice allowed 191 ypg rush (4.7) with 21 sks. DE Scott Solomon has solid strength and a constant motor and was not 100% in 4 gm (foot). He was also forced to play DT yet was 2nd Tm CUSA. Not listed in the PSL are Richard Ledo (6'0" 220 rFr), Josh Skinner (6'4" 240 rFr, PS#268) and Ross Hill (6'2" 220 So). This year they only lose Talbert but have 9 with st exp back and a solid DE combo (#1 & #2 tkl'rs among CUSA DL), so Rice could have their best rush D since 2002 (143, 3.8).

LINEBACKERS - While Rice plays a 4-2-5, I list the KAT safety as a LB. Injuries decimated Rice's LB corps in '08 so they basically had zero ret st'rs. Their #2 and #3 tkl'rs from '07 combined for just 7 sts (36 tkl). Last year they only had to replace their #9 and #14 tkl'r and ret'd #2, #3 and #5. Robert Calhoun (7 st, #9 tkl'r '08) was lost (knee) in the opener. KAT Travis Bradshaw ended the season with 6 straight double digit tkl gms and had almost double the tkls (121) of anyone else. This year they lose WLB Terrance Garmon (10 st, #5 tkl, 2 sk) and Calhoun (1 st, 0 tkl) but return 7 with st exp including their #1 and #6 tkl'rs and add Justin Allen (12 st, 68 tkl at Idaho '08). Adding depth are Nic Hammett (6'4" 240 rFr, PS#180), Michael Kutzler (6'0" 190 rFr) and Bobby Kiesewetter (6'1" 260 rFr).

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Rice finished #96 in my PDR in '06 and #102 in '07. With an exp'd unit in '08 they improved to #70. Last year they had to replace 3 players (comb 14 st) but did have 4 back with 6+ career sts. Their top DB, FS Andrew Sendejo, was lost after 7 sts but still finished as the #2 tackler. A pair of true frosh CB's combined for 10 starts. They dropped to #118 allowing 66.5% with a 28-6 ratio. Not in the PSL are Tolu Akinwumi (6'1" 200 rFr) and Tanner Leland (6'2" 210 rFr). This year they lose Sendejo but have 8 back with starting exp and should have a solidly improved pass D.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Rice was #86 in my ST rankings in '06, #116 in '07 and #92 in '08. Last year they ret'd 4 year K Clark Fangmeier (6-10 FG '08) as well as P Kyle Martens (33.8 net '08). Fangmeier only hit 8 of 15 FG's but Martens avg 43.6 with an impressive tm net of 38.2. Andrew Sendejo did well as a PR (14.3). Shane Turner missed 5 but still had 881 (23.8) KR yds. Brandon Yelovich had 4 TB's on 47 KO. This year they do lose Fangmeier and Sendejo but Chris Boswell (PS#15) could improve upon '09's FG % and Rice should have a solid finish (#68 in '09). I will call for Turner to end the FBS's longest drought without a KR TD which is 284 gms ('94) and Rice also has the longest streak without a PR TD (141 gm, '97).

COACHES - Rice was a pillar of stability with Ken Hatfield as the HC for 12 years ('94-'05). In '06, Todd Graham took over and did a great job taking a 1-10 team to its first bowl in 45 years. Graham left for Tulsa and Rice got its 3rd HC in 3 years. David Bailiff, who spent the prior 3 seasons as Texas St HC (21-15), came in and did a tremendous job in '08 getting Rice to 10 wins (most S/'49 Cotton Bowl). Bailiff signed a 5 year extension (2013) after '08. David Beaty becomes the 3rd OC in the L3Y at Rice. Beaty was the WR coach at Kansas the last 2 yrs and was the WR coach here in '06 under Graham. Bailiff's DC for the L3Y has been Chuck Driesbach.

PHIL'S FORECAST

A 45 year drought ended in '06 as Rice had not been to a bowl since 1961. The Owls had just 6 winning seasons in that time frame with Ken Hatfield being responsible for 3 in his 12 years here. Rice is the 2nd smallest FBS school with just 49,641 alumni and an enrollment of 5,556. They tried to fill a 70,000 seat home stadium and in '05 avg just 10,072. Not much went right for Rice in '05 as they had their worst year S/'88 (0-11) going 1-10. Some things indicated they were poised for a turnaround as they were -17 in TO's (pg 312) and 29 of their top 44 were either frosh or soph with just 10 Sr's in '05. In '06 Todd Graham switched the offense from the wishbone to a spread pass attack. With 10 starters back on offense and the emergence of QB Chase Clement, they improved their ppg to 26.9 (21.9 in '05). They would have improved more but played a tough non-conf slate (UCLA, Texas, Fla St) and Clement missed 5 sts. The Owls refurbished Rice Stadium (reduced capacity TO 47,000) including a new $1.1 million FieldTurf surface which kept them healthier after playing on rock-hard artificial turf. They did have 4 net close wins in their 7-5 regular season record (+8 TO's) including 3 wins on the last offensive snap in '06. Rice was 6-2 in CUSA play but -28 ypg and Graham left for Tulsa. In '07 Rice was learning their 3rd system in 3 years. Despite QB Clement and WR Dillard both returning, I called for Rice to drop below .500. Rice's 3-5 CUSA record (3-9 overall) was tied for 3rd in the CUSA West but they were -59.2 ypg (3rd worst CUSA). Of the 43 on the depth chart, 34 ret'd in '08 and I called it Rice's best team since 2001 (8-4) giving them a shot at their 2nd bowl in 3 years. With the senior duo of Clement and Dillard plus TE Casey, Rice rallied for some big wins. Bailiff looked at the media guide and saw the team started out 1-5 in '06 and rebounded for a bowl so he thought their chances were still good at 3-3. Rice won their final 6 then beat WM in the Texas Bowl. Despite their 7-1 CUSA record, they were just +21.3 ypg (5th best). The '08 squad had 22 seniors and benefitted from +15 in TO's and had 3 net close wins. Last year they had to replace Clement, Casey, Dillard and their top RB. They had just 3 st'rs back on offense. I called for a 6th losing season in the last 8. As expected, Rice struggled. They lost their first 8 by an avg of 46-15. Off a bye they led 20-7 vs SMU but had a FG blk'd (ret for TD) and ended up losing by 3. Tulane led 14-0 in the 1Q but Rice blk'd a punt setting up a go ahead TD and rallied for a 28-20 win despite being outgained 402-331. UTEP outgained them 395-227 but Rice was +5 in TO's and pulled out their 2nd win. UH had a school record 59 points in the 1H and sat their starters in the 2H in the finale. While Rice was 2-6 in CUSA play they were by far the worst at -146.1 ypg. Pointing upwards this year is the fact that they had poor off and def ypp's (pg 299) and almost made my Turnovers=Turnaround List (-9). Last year they had 14 st'rs that were frosh or soph tying them with LA Tech for youngest in the FBS. This is a much improved Rice squad with 9 st'rs back on offense plus the addition of VHT RB Sam McGuffie and 9 st'rs back on D incl 24 of their top 26 tkl'rs. I give Rice a good shot at bowl eligibility.

Sep. 4	† Texas (Reliant Stadium)	G					Rice is 1-38 vs UT including 10 straight losses. Rice has been outgained in each of the L/8 by 303 ypg. This gm is at Reliant Stadium & is the 3rd matchup here ('03 & '06).
Sep. 11	at North Texas	A					Rice is 1-1 vs NT. In the L/meeting ('08) the Owls had "only" a 502-412 yd edge turning 6 TO's into 28 pts. The 77 pts scored was the most since 1916 (146-3 win vs SMU).
Sep. 18	Northwestern	A					Owls are 4-1 vs the Wildcats but lost the L/gm ('98) 23-14 being outgained 317-214 (wishbone held to 204 yds, 3.6). Coming into 2010, Rice is 0-17 vs BCS tms (avg loss by 30 ppg).
Sep. 25	Baylor	A					Old SWC rivals who played every yr from 1945-'95. Just one meeting since ('07) as Rice lost 42-17 being outgained 521-349. Rice doesn't leave the state of TX until Oct 23rd.
Oct. 2	SMU	A					Played every yr S/'26 & Rice hasn't dropped B2B gms S/'85 & '86. LY Rice was up 20-14 but a 37 yd FG was blk'd before HT & ret 74 yds for TD as the 10 pt swing changed the gm.
Oct. 9	at UTEP	A					Rice has beaten UTEP 4 straight marking the 1st time S'96 they have won 4 in a row vs any opp. Prior to '09 Rice was 8-4 in CUSA AG's but went 0-4 LY being outgained by 138 ypg.
Oct. 16	Houston (HC)	A					This rivalry is played for the Bayou Bucket (started in '74). At 6.1 miles apart these schools are the closest of any major colleges. LY it was 24-0 before Rice recorded its initial FD.
Oct. 23	at UCF	G					Visitor is 3-0 but Rice has been outgained the L/2 yrs by 123 ypg. LY Rice was banged up on the OL allowing 5 sks. HC Bailiff after the gm "Obviously we weren't ready to play."
Oct. 30
Nov. 6	at Tulsa	A					Rice has dropped 6 of the last 7 meetings being outgained the L/2 yrs by 159 ypg. LY the gm was tied 10-10 at HT but Rice had just 9 yds on 9 plays in the 3Q falling behind by DD's.
Nov. 13	at Tulane	A					The visitor is 6-3 in this series and has outgained the HT in each of the L/3 years. Last year Rice trailed 14-0 after 1Q but scored 21 unanswered to take the lead for good.
Nov. 20	East Carolina	A					The home team is 3-0 outgaining the visitor in each meeting by 139 ypg. Last time here the Owls trailed 17-9 into the 4Q but scored a TD w/2:37 left & a 40 yd FG w/:03 left.
Nov. 27	UAB	A					Home team is 3-0 but Rice has been outgained in each meeting by 110 ypg. LY Rice had a ssn high in FD's (23) & yds (391) vs UAB. Rice has won B2B home finales.

TULANE GREEN WAVE

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Believe it or not, Tulane sent four consecutive QB's to the NFL in Shaun King, Patrick Ramsey, JP Losman and Lester Ricard who left after '06. In 2007 Tulane used 3 QB's who threw for just 195 ypg (10-12 ratio) with their 51% being TU's lowest comp % since 1996 (49%). Kevin Moore was one of those QB's and the 6'5" 239 rFr threw for 432 (56%, 2-0). There was talk of Moore splitting snaps with rFr Joe Kemp (PS#148) in '08 but early on Moore took almost every snap and hit 62% in his first 5 (incl Bama and EC). Kemp started seeing action at midseason and threw for 344 (57%, 2-1) before he broke his collarbone vs Houston. Moore started all 12 and threw for 2,194 (56%, 8-13). Kemp, who has a powerful arm won the job in '09. He started the first 6 and threw for 1,038 (64.6%, 4-6). RFr Ryan Griffin started the final 6 and threw for 1,382 (63.5%, 9-6). Moore appeared in 4 (27 yds). This year all 3 return (Kemp may move to WR) and Tulane should have the best QB play of Toledo's four years.

RUNNING BACKS - Bob Toledo likes to have one feature RB and he inherited a great one in 225 lb Matt Forté (4.45 spd). Forté was the leading rusher for TU the previous 3 years but his highest total was 859 (5.3) in '06. Toledo saddled up and rode his workhorse in '07 and Forté rushed for 2,127 (5.9) with 23 TD's (#2 DC CHI). André Anderson (PS#110) replaced him in '08 and after the first two had just 114 yds. He then rushed for 738 in his next 4 but unfortunately was lost for the year or he would have easily topped 1,000 (864, 5.0). True frosh Nathan Austin (PS#187) rushed for 292 (3.1) and rFr JT McDonald (5'9" 212 Jr) had 124 (3.4). Big things were expected from true frosh Albert Williams but he missed the final 4 (109, 6.4). Last year Anderson remained healthy and rushed for 1,016 (4.3) and was the #3 receiver (230, 7.7). Showing Toledo's workhorse mentality, WR Jeremy Williams was the #2 rusher (38 att). True frosh Payten Jason (PS#170) was impressive in Aug but was inj'd in Wk 5 and rushed for just 85 (4.5). FB Antoine Duplessis had 58 (5.8) with Albert Williams adding 17 (2.4). The FB is Kasey Stelly (6'1" 244 Jr, PS#189, 10 gm). This year they lose their top guy Anderson and both Duplessis (left tm prior to spg) and Jason missed the spring with injury. This unit is clearly weaker.

WR Casey Robottom

RECEIVERS - Jeremy Williams led in '07 with 773 and an impressive 16.8 ypc despite being in the doghouse part of the year. In '08 he was on par for an even bigger year with 437 (16.2) after just 5 but suffered a season ending knee injury. Brian King (PS#208) led with 544 (13.3) while TE Cody Sparks was #3 with 245 (12.2). Last year they only had to replace King. As expected, Williams had a big year with 1,113 (13.2). Williams had an amazing game vs McNeese St in which TU had 10 completions and all 10 went to Williams for 222 yards. Casey Robottom was #2 with 584 (11.7). TE Sparks (knee) only played in 9 and had 81 (8.1). Exciting true frosh DJ Banks (PS#93) was used in the "Pelican" formation but only had 7 rec. This year they lose their key guy but everyone else returns. I saw a drop off after Williams was injured in the 2H of 2008 and there figures to be another one this year. Adding depth are Chandler Davis (6'1" 186 Sr, PS#376), Brandon Clark (5'11" 189 So), Charles Gaspard (6'0" 182 Sr) and TE's Kevin Burris (6'2" 240 So, PS#138, 5 rec LY) and possibly Asim McQueen (6'7" 265 Sr, 4Y hoops).

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2008 they only had to replace one starter but without Matt Forté in the backfield and top RB Anderson getting injured after 7, the rushing totals dropped to 118 ypg (3.6) and they allowed 21 sks (5.1%). Last year they ret'd 3 st'rs but 4 of the players who won starting jobs were playing in new positions. They struggled again with just 105 ypg rush (3.2) and 29 sks (7.8%). One reason for the rise in sacks could be attributed to QB Kemp holding on to the ball too long. This year they lose RT Nick Landry (12 st, 2Y st'r), RG Tyler Rice (3 st) and LG John Landa (1 st). Four starters return (87 car sts) and TU should have their best numbers in 3 years.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Tulane had a veteran front in '07 and allowed just 3.9 ypc (133 rush ypg), their lowest ypc since 1997 (3.8). In '08 they had to replace 2 DT's (83 car st). The numbers still surprised me as they yielded 218 ypg and their 5.7 ypc allowed was their worst in over 20 yrs. Last year they only had to replace 1 starter but only improved to 205 ypg (4.9) with just 15 sks. Tulane's 3-technique DT is more like a 3rd DE and 3 year starter Reggie Scott filled that role but had just 1 sack (susp first 2). This year they lose DE Logan Kelley (12 st, 39 tkl, 4 sk) who was not 100% (knee), DE Adam Kwentua (12 st, 43 tkl, HM CUSA) and Scott (8 st, 31 tkl, 9.5 tfl). Oscar Ponce de Leon was lost after 3 sts and he returns giving them 5 of the top 8 back (6 w/st exp) and they add Iowa transfer Dezman Moses (PS#197). Emmanuel Aluko (3 st) moves to OG. Despite losing 3 starters, this unit could show improvement again.

LINEBACKERS - Last year TU had to replace 3 players who combined for 19 sts and 123 tkls (#2 and #4 tkl'r). They did return their #9 and #10 tkl'rs but had 3 frosh and a walk-on in the 2 deep at the start. This year they lose WLB Travis Burks (12 st, #2 tkl'r, 2.5 tfl), MLB David Kirksey (10 st, #7 tkl'r, 2 tfl), James McMurchy (7 tkl), Adam Podet (10 tkl) and then suffered the tragic loss of Sule Osagiede in January in a fatal car accident. SLB Shakiel Smith (10 st) moves to S but they add Duke transfer Trent Mackey (PS#60). This unit has even less experience than '09 but could surprise.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - When Tulane had super CB Lynaris Elpheage they finished #11 in my PDR ('02) but since then they have finished #65, #96, #93, #106, #116 and #84. Last year they had 3 starters back and played less man-to-man D as Toledo said it was hard to get int's in that coverage. It was surprising that they slipped 32 notches in the PDR (#116). This year they lose CB Charles Harris (10 st, 34 tkl, 5 pd), 3rd Tm CUSA SS Chinonso Echebelem (10 st, #1 tkl'r, 4 pd), S Jordan Garrett (2 st, 27 tkl) and FS Corey Sonnier (1 st, 18 tkl). They move SLB Smith in (#4 tkl'r) and can only move up in the PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In 2006 Tulane finished #110 in my ST rankings and Toledo had to replace most of the key ST players in his first year. Toledo's ST units have finished #114, #107 and #118. Last year they had their K/P Ross Thevenot back. He hit 9-13 FG's (only 2 att 40+). He did hit a 50 yd FG in '08. When Thevenot was first handed the punting job he objected but he was on the Ray Guy Watch List in '09. Thevenot's hang time improved in Aug to 4.75, but unfortunately his avg dropped from 45.8 to 41.4 and they had 4 blk'd LY (net 28.8). Thevenot had 2 TB on 43 KO. Jeremy Williams was the top KR (24.1) but true frosh DJ Banks surprisingly only avg 19.1 on KR and 2.8 on PR. This year they lose Thevenot and Williams but add Ryan Rome (PS#22) who had two 50+ FG's in HS. TU can really only move up in the ST rankings.

COACHES - In the 14 seasons prior to Chris Scelfo taking over, some pretty good coaches in Tommy Bowden, Buddy Teevens, Greg Davis and Mack Brown combined for just a 54-103 record here. Scelfo won 37 games in just 8 years. He had to go through the hurricane disruptions of '05 which affected the program into '06. In '07 they brought in a new HC in Bob Toledo who was the HC at UCLA from '96-'02 and the OC at New Mex in '06. Dan Dodd is the OC (OC at NM 6Y prior to Toledo's OC stint there). Last year he wanted a more exp'd DC and brought in Steve Stanard, who was the DC at Colo St ('03-'07) and the DL coach at Ohio in '08. He was also the DC at NMSt from '99-'02, and the HC at Nebraska Wesleyan (NAIA) from '94-'95.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Only one coach since 1982 has had consecutive winning seasons here (Tommy Bowden '97-'98). Chris Scelfo led the team to winning records in 2 out of 3 years from 2000-'02 but he had 4 losing seasons to end his tenure. In '05 the team was hurt by hurricane disruptions. In '06 they showed improvement but were still feeling the effects as some players were allowed to transfer without sitting out a year. They did, however, upset Miss St on the road. The team also lost 10 players (6 st'rs) to season ending injuries and was -11 in TO's. Those were all positive factors for Bob Toledo's first year ('07) but a tough schedule kept me from calling for Tulane to top their previous year's 4 wins. Tulane was -117.9 ypg (CUSA) in '06 and improved to -14.0 ypg in '07. They also improved their conf mark from 2-6 to 3-5. They lost 3 close games or could have easily had a winning record. Tulane was the last FBS team to begin their preseason drills as their first game wasn't until Sept 8th. Being a game behind in preparation, they lost their first two to bowl squads but did go 4-6 after that. In '08 they had 14 st'rs back. Toledo said that in '07 the strength and conditioning was the worst of any team he had been HC of but he thought they were much improved in '08. They did, however, have to replace their outstanding RB Matt Forté (2,127 in '07). Tulane had its moments including a 318-172 yd edge over Alabama (12-0 #1 end reg ssn) and led #14 EC 24-21 but allowed a TD with 1:41 left. Both Bama and EC were in letdown spots. After winning their next 2, Tulane lost star WR Jeremy Williams then their top RB André Anderson went down. Seventeen players were lost to injury. They also used 3 diff QB's and suffered their 6th straight losing season as they lost their last 5 by 32 ppg. With all of the injuries it's not surprising that TU finished 1-7 in CUSA (-127.7 ypg, worst). They finished the last 25Q's without having the lead and their 10 losses tied a school record. Last year they got both Anderson and Williams back but their 13 ret st'rs were the 2nd fewest in CUSA and they drew BYU and LSU in non-conf play. After expected losses to Tulsa and BYU, they trailed Army 16-7 but rallied for a 17-16 road win. Tulane was pounded the next 4 weeks (Marshall, UH, SM, LSU) by an avg of 40-8 but shockingly upset UTEP 45-38 in OT. At Rice they botched an xp at the start of the 4Q which would have tied it and gave up a TD with :54 left and lost by 8. They were outgained by UCF 504-50 in a shutout loss. In the season finale, they gave up a TD with 5:23 left to bowl bound SMU and lost by 5. Tulane was -16 in TO's in '09 and their ypp's on both offense and defense were at the bottom (pg 299). They do have just 11 ret st'rs (2nd fewest CUSA) and last year were -92.3 ypg in CUSA play (2nd worst). Toledo spoke of the lack of a home field advantage saying sometimes it's like going to practice with a small crowd that lacks excitement. TU has not beaten a ranked team since 1982. The CUSA West has 5 bowl caliber teams that Tulane must face and they draw the top 2 teams out of the East. This looks like another difficult year for the Green Wave and they may have a tough time topping last year's 3 win total.

UCF KNIGHTS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In '08 UCF had to replace their starting QB. NCSt transfer Michael Greco (PS#39) was the bkp in '07 and won the starting job. O'Leary was impressed with true frosh Rob Calabrese (PS#78). Greco took most of the snaps in the first 3 but was inj and Calabrese started the next 4. A few weeks after O'Leary anointed Calabrese the starter but then Greco played the entire game vs EC. Calabrese started the last 4 but was just 4 of 17 vs Marshall. Calabrese threw for 664 (39%) and Greco 571 (49%). Greco moved to DB in '09 and they added Wake Forest transfer Brett Hodges (PS#125), who had thrown for 402 (66%) in 3 yrs at WF. The talk over the summer was how improved Calabrese was and he started the first 2 but in each he was relieved by Hodges. Hodges started 10 of the last 11. After the team threw for just 1,395 in '08, Hodges threw for 2,438 (59.9%, 17-13) LY. Calabrese came in for the 4Q vs Miami and was booed. This year Hodges departs and battling Calabrese will be true frosh Jeffrey Godfrey (PS#32, IFS) and Stanford transfer LD Crow (PS#50, strong arm). Hodges was clearly the best QB last year, so this unit looks to be down a few notches.

RUNNING BACKS - Kevin Smith had a record breaking career and actually became UCF's and the state of Florida's all-time leading rusher (Errict Rhett, Florida 4,163, 1990-'93) finishing his 3 year career with 4,679 yards (left early #3DC). In '08 the team's leading RB's were 2 true frosh and a rFr. Ronnie Weaver started the first 6 but Brynn Harvey started the final 6 and led with 519 (4.2). Weaver had 348 (3.4) and Latavius Murray (PS#43) surprisingly only had 132 (2.9). Last year Murray tore his ACL and Harvey had a fine year with 1,109 (4.2) and 14 TD's. VHT true frosh Jonathan Davis (PS#24) was the #2 with 310 (4.8). Weaver (6'0" 211 Jr) had 86 (4.5) and Brandon Davis (5'9" 193 Jr, PS#71) added 44 (4.0). This year Murray moves to HB but this unit figures to be one of CUSA's best. Not in the PSL is FB Billy Giovanetti (5'11" 230 So, 4 st LY). Harvey suffered a knee inj in spring and is expected to miss at least 4 games, so Davis and FB Brendan Kelly will get the bulk of the carries in his absence.

RECEIVERS - In '07 Rocky Ross led with 658 (13.2) while Kamar Aiken (PS#87) had 584 (17.7) and AJ Guyton (PS#42) added 253 (11.0). In '08 Guyton suffered a torn ACL and Ross broke his collarbone and RS. Brian Watters (161 in '07) led with 594 (14.1) while Aiken had 244 (12.2) and Ross (4 gm) was #3 with 180 (13.8). Last year the unit ret'd intact. AJ Guyton (PS#42) became the first UCF player since 1990 to catch and throw a TD pass in the same game (Rice). Aiken, who makes a lot of acrobatic catches (also drops some easy ones) led with 610 (16.9). True frosh Quincy McDuffie, who had the 2nd fastest 400m in the country in '09, had just 126 (15.8). Guyton was the only starting WR that played in all 13 and was #2 with 572 (13.0). Ross was #3 with 461 (11.2). Jamar Newsome was #4 with 289 (12.0). TE Adam Nissley who is a solid blocker (ex-OT) added 159 (15.9). Not listed below are Khymest Williams (5'10" 178 Jr, PS#121), Matt Slack (6'0" 174 rFr), Brian Watters (6'2" 192 Sr, PS#275), Austin Hudson (6'1" 200 Sr), JT McArthur (5'10" 187 Jr), TE Jim Teknipp (6'6" 227 rFr, PS#66) and TE DJ Brown (6'4" 230 rFr, PS#82). This year they lose Ross (10 st) and HB Corey Rabazinski (5 rec, 2 st) but add some more talent and should continue to improve.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '07 UCF's O-line had 124 career starts and I called for significant improvement and they delivered. They went from 139 ypg rush (3.8) to 235 (4.9), their best in IA ball while allowing 20 sks (5.8%). Four players earned All CUSA accolades. In '08 they had to replace two 3 year st'rs, a 4 year starter and 3 other OL's were gone after 4 gms. As you would expect, the numbers tumbled to a 4 year low of 113 ypg rush (3.0) with 32 sks (10.4%). Last year they had to replace a 2-time 1st Tm CUSA LT and 2 others (comb 12 sts). They did have 3 back who had 7+ sts and improved slightly to 131 ypg rush (3.5) with 33 sks (8.7%). This year they lose C Ian Bustillo (13 st, 2Y st'r) and G Steven Robinson (4 st). Eight of the top 10 return including 1st Tm CUSA RT Jah Reid making this the most experienced O-line here since '07.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 UCF had a veteran D-line and allowed just 126 ypg (3.4) with 30 sacks and their 8.2 tfl per game was #3 in the FBS. Last year they had 7 of the top 8 back including star DT Torrell Troup (314 lbs) who had NFL scouts watching. He was always double teamed and will be the toughest player to replace this year. His presence helped UCF have an unbreakable rush D (#4 FBS) allowing just 83 ypg (2.6) while the D had 38 sks. This year they lose 1st Tm CUSA DT Troup (35 tkl, 2 sk, #2DC BUF), 1st Tm CUSA DE Jarvis Geathers (2 st, 29 tkl, 11 sk), DT Travis Timmons (11 st, 14 tkl, 1 sk) and DT TJ Harnden (3 tkl, 1 sk). This unit is less exp'd but does return CUSA DPOY DE Bruce Miller who is the NCAA's active leader in career sacks with 27 (13 in '09). O'Leary said they have a JC DT signing over the summer and he could end up as the starter with very little depth at DT.

LINEBACKERS - Last year Derrick Hallman (#4 tkl'r '08) moved to FS but due to injuries started the last 8 at SLB. The unit also got back Cory Hogue, who missed most of '08 (28 sts '05-'07, 72 tkl in '07). Hogue started all 13 and was #1 with 103 tkls (11.5 tfl). First Tm CUSA MLB Chance Henderson missed the year with a knee inj (#5 tkl'r '08). UCF's veteran LB corps helped the D allow just 22.5 ppg (best S/'01, 18.5). This year they lose 1st Tm CUSA Hogue, OLB's Jordan Richards (3 st, 22 tkl) and Alex Thompson (2 st, 24 tkl). Henderson was granted a 5th season so it's like having 3 full-time st'rs ret with Hallman (HM CUSA) and 2nd Tm CUSA ('08) Lawrence Young (#2 tkl'r '08, #3 '09), plus they add FIU transfer Michael Dominguez (16 st, 3 yr, 145 tkl). Not in the PSL are Jordan Becker (6'4" 223 Jr), DJ Williams (6'1" 218 So, PS#136), Chad Alexander (6'2" 230 Jr), Javen Harris (5'11" 229 rFr) and Nick Black (5'11" 232 So).

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '07 the unit ret'd intact and climbed all the way up to #14 in my PDR with 24 int's. In '08 they had the most exp'd secondary in the FBS. UCF moved up to #8 (14-18 ratio). Last year I said this was BY FAR my biggest concern on the team. They had to replace 186 career sts and 50 career int's. O'Leary did say that Josh Robinson (PS#102), Kemal Ishmael, AJ Bouye and rFr Jarrett Swaby were further ahead than any frosh he'd coached at UCF. Robinson started 11 (#5 tkl'r) and his 6 int's led all FBS frosh. They did lose proj'd starting CB Emery Allen after 2. Ishmael emerged at FS and allowed Hallman to move back to OLB. They also moved PS#39QB Michael Greco (4 st, 789 yds at QB in '08) to SS. As you would expect, they plummeted to #83. This year they lose SS Greco (8 st, 45 tkl, 4 pbu) but have 7 of the top 8 back and should make a nice sized climb in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In 2007 UCF was #8 in my ST rankings. They had to replace their K in '08 but did return Joe Burnett who was the only person in the FBS's Top 20 in both PR (#10) and KR (#7). Blake Clingan had a 35.9 net and UCF finished #24. Last year they had to replace Burnett but did not miss a beat. The team avg 12.0 on PR and 24.8 on KR and UCF set a school record with 3 diff players having a KR's of 70+ yds. True frosh Jamie Boyle (PS#14) hit a 57 yd FG in a scrimmage but missed his first 2 and Nick Cattoi took over and hit 14-20 (long 50) and had 11 TB's on 63 KO's. P Clingan avg 37.3 (net 35.5) and the unit finished strong at #24. This year the only loss is #2 PR Ross (12.2) so it should be another Top 25 finish.

COACHES - George O'Leary was on top of the world after leading GT to a 52-33 record and five bowls in 7 yrs. He took the HC job at ND but a resume snafu knocked him out of that job and he was an NFL asst prior to UCF. In 6 yrs here he had 2 trips to the CUSA Title game (one title) and 3 bowls (only bowls in UCF history). O'Leary was the CUSA COY in '05 and '07. OC Charlie Taaffe joined the tm LY (OC at Maryland 2001-'05). He was also the HC of the CFL's Hamilton team for 2 yrs (5-23) and HC with Montreal (25-14) previously. He was also 55-47-1 as HC of The Citadel. Dave Huxtable enters his 3rd ssn as the DC and was the LB/ST cch here for 4 yrs prior to that.

PHIL'S FORECAST

George O'Leary inherited a 3-9 team and a tough non-conf schedule (first 3 foes were BCS). There was a large amount of attrition over the summer with the new HC (73 scholarship players) and UCF finished 0-11. In '05 I did not make a lot of friends in Greenville, NC or Huntington, WV when I forecasted UCF to finish ahead of EC and Marshall. I picked the Knights higher than any other preseason magazine (most had them last). Nine of their top 68 were walk-ons, but after UCF extended their losing streak to 17 with an 0-2 start, they became the 7th team in NCAA history to go from being winless to bowl-eligible. They had the biggest turnaround in the NCAA in '05 (+8 wins) before dropping the CUSA Title game (51,978 crowd) and the first bowl in their 10 year IA history. With an enrollment of 53,000+, they are the 3rd largest FBS university. In '06 I pointed out that despite their 7-1 CUSA record in '05, they were only +2.9 ypg. They also benefitted from +12 TO's and 3 net close wins (pg 299). Despite having the 2nd most ret starters (17) in CUSA, those factors had UCF pointed towards a disappointing 2006 (4-8). In '07 numerous factors contributed to me picking UCF as one of my Most Improved Teams. In '06 they had 3 close losses and were -7 in TO's. UCF also opened Bright House Networks Stadium and that energized the fan base. They nearly upset #6 Texas in the first ever sellout at UCF and whipped Tulsa 44-25 at home for their first ever conf title. It was their first 10-win season since 1990. In '07 the team was +139.1 ypg (CUSA best). Prior to Kevin Smith announcing he was leaving, O'Leary thought that '08 would be his best team yet. UCF did, however, have to face 3 BCS schools and the '08 squad had just 13 seniors. Offense was a problem with just 230 ypg (dead last in FBS). While UCF was 3-5 in CUSA play they were -109.3 ypg (3rd worst). Last year they had 7 games in Bright House and O'Leary had alternated winning and losing seasons in each of his first 5 years. UCF made my Most Improved List and as expected, made it back to the postseason. Their offense improved by 9.6 ppg and the defense allowed just 22.5 ppg (best S/'01). They did trail Samford 21-13 but rallied for a 28-24 win. They were outgained by SMiss 384-194 but only lost by 7. They got past Buffalo at home but lost to ECar (trail by 12 w/2:23 left). They trailed Memphis 14-9 late in the 3Q but rallied for a 32-14 win. They had a sellout crowd as they hosted Miami, Fl and down 17-7 had a 1st & gl at the 2 but were int'd at the UM10 and lost by 20. After their 42 point road win over Rice (biggest school hist, 31 yrs), they trailed Marshall 20-7 but got 2 TD's in the last 8:00 incl a fortuitous FR at the MU30 with 2:12 left to win. They sat QB Hodges and RB Harvey in a throwaway game at Texas. They wore black jerseys vs Houston (usually gold) and pulled a 37-32 upset. It was their first win over a Top 25 tm. After blasting Tulane 49-0, they beat UAB 34-27 despite yielding a surprising 527 yds. They had the crowd edge in the St Petersburg Bowl vs Rutgers but lost by 21. O'Leary is under fire as the program was put on 2 years probation. The '09 squad benefitted from +8 in TO's and had 3 net close wins. They were +64.5 ypg in CUSA play (3rd best). I will call for UCF to have their first B2B winning seasons since '01/'02 and the CUSA East Title game may be Nov 13th when they host SM. UCF will top last year's 8 win total. Check philsteele.com for impact players they may add this summer.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score UCF	Opp	W L
Sep. 4	South Dakota	G					First meeting. Coyotes play in the Great West Conf & went 5-5 LY and are in the 3rd yr of transitioning from DII to the FCS. UCF is 11-3 in home openers as an FBS member (7-0 vs FCS).
Sep. 11	NC State	G					O'Leary was the HC at GT from 1994-'01 going 6-1 vs NC State (7-1 in career as HC, beat NC St in '07). UCF is 0-9 hosting current BCS schools since moving up to the FBS level.
Sep. 18	at Buffalo	A					MAC opp's from 2002-'04. Last trip to Buffalo ('04, only loss in series) UCF had a 473-440 yd edge but 3 TO's resulted in 21 UB pts. Knights led 13-10 (2Q) before allowing 24 unanswered.
Sep. 25	at Kansas St	A					First meeting. UCF is 0-3 vs the Big 12 (avg score 36-20) incl a loss at Texas LY. The Knights are 1-20 S/'01 on the road vs BCS tms (win was by 2 at NC St in '07, avg loss by 21 ppg).
Oct. 2
Oct. 6	UAB (Wed)	G					UCF is 6-1 vs UAB (4-1 in CUSA action). LY the Knights DN punt till the 4Q and held a DD lead most of the 2H. LTH was only the 2nd home shutout and 1st as an FBS member.
Oct. 13	at Marshall (Wed)	A					After starting this series 0-3, UCF has won 5 str outgaining MU in each of the L/4 (+95 ypg). UCF trailed 20-7 after 3Q's LY but a huge sk/fum on 2D set them up for 30/8pl GW TD drive w/:23 left.
Oct. 23	Rice (HC)	G					UCF is 6-0 all-time vs CUSA West Division teams at Bright House Networks Stadium. LY's 49-7 win over Rice marked the most lopsided road victory in UCF's 31-yr FB history.
Oct. 30	East Carolina	G					UCF's 1-8 mark vs EC is the worst among any CUSA member. In the last meeting in Orlando ('08) the Knights led 10-0 mid 3Q but allowed a 46/10pl gm-tying TD w/1:51 left & lost in OT.
Nov. 5	at Houston (Fri)	G					In the only prior trip to Houston ('06), UCF had a season high 530 yds but after a 31-31 early 4Q tie allowed 3 TD's. Last year was UCF 1st win ever vs a ranked foe (1-23).
Nov. 13	Southern Miss	G					UCF is 1-4 vs Southern Miss (1st gm in '05) being outgained in the L/2 by 130 & 190 yds. The Knights are 20-11 all-time in home finales (2-1 at BHN Stadium w/a shutout LY).
Nov. 20	at Tulane	A					UCF's 504 yds LY vs TU was a ssn high (the 50 yds allowed were also a ssn best). The Knights are 3-1 vs the Green Wave outgaining them in each by an avg of 157 ypg.
Nov. 27	at Memphis	A					UCF is 5-0 vs Memphis in CUSA matchups including LY when RB Brynn Harvey had a career high 219 yds (5.2) helping the Knights break open just a 15-14 lead in the 4Q.

SOUTHERN MISS GOLDEN EAGLES

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

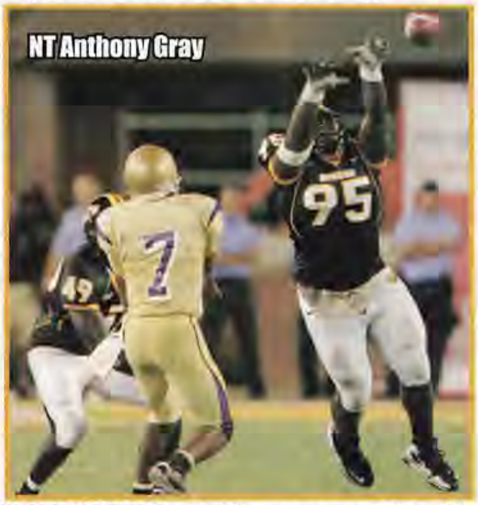
QUARTERBACKS - When I think of SM's QB position, I think back to their most famous alum, Brett Favre, who is the Golden Eagles' career passing leader. In 2005 Dustin Almond set the single season mark with 2,860 (55%, 23-12). SM QB's threw for 161 ypg in '06 (56%) and in '07 just 188 (57%). Due to injuries, rFr Martevious Young got a start vs Rice in '07 but broke his leg on the 3rd play. Young, who has a powerful arm and is very mobile, had the 3 career snaps for SM QB's heading into '08 and he battled rFr Austin Davis. Davis started and set numerous school single season records (like Favre's 16 TD passes by frosh) throwing for 3,128 (58%, 23-8) and was the #2 rusher (508, 3.3). He set school records with 461 pass yds vs Rice and 5 rushing TD's vs UAB. Davis was also MVP of the bowl game. Young played in just 3 (2 att). Davis was the clear-cut starter in '09 and improved his arm strength. He opened with 159 passes without an int but was lost in Wk 5 (foot). He threw for 1,165 (69.2%, 10-2). Young (3 sts), who may have the strongest arm at SM since Favre, played well throwing for 1,861 (57.4%) with an outstanding 16-3 ratio (#3 rusher 294). Adding depth are Chris Campbell (6'4" 180 rFr, PS#90), Adam Fayard (6'0" 215 Jr) and this year's signees. Davis should be one of CUSA's best QB's and Young the best backup.

RUNNING BACKS - In 2006 true frosh Damion Fletcher broke Derrick Nix's frosh rushing record with 1,388 (5.0). Fletcher's rapid rise was aided by the other top 4 RB's either quitting or being injured. In '07 Fletcher rushed for a school record 1,586 (Sam Dejarnette 1,545 '82) with Tory Harrison adding 393 (4.1). True frosh VJ Floyd (5'10" 196 Sr) was the #3 RB (93, 3.9). Fletcher opened '08 with 222 (10.6) vs UL and 260 (7.6) vs UTEP. After two more 100 yard efforts, Fletcher was inj'd (miss 2) but still finished with 1,313 (6.0). Harrison was the #2 RB with 254 (4.8) and Floyd had 246 (4.2). Last year they added 3 solid true frosh who HC Larry Fedora was high on. They RS VHT Kendrick Hardy (PS#16) but Tracy Lampley (PS#86) was a dangerous returnman and #4 with 122 (5.8). Desmond Johnson had 72 yds (10.3) but only played in 1 gm. Fletcher had 78 in the bowl and barely crossed 1,000 with 1,015 (4.6) becoming the 9th RB in NCAA history to top 1,000 for four straight years. Harrison rushed for 647 with an impressive 6.2 ypc. Surprisingly Floyd (PS#209) played in just 7 (59, 3.5). Not in the PSL are Blaine LeBlanc (5'8" 173 So) and FB's Bruce Johnson (5'9" 227 rFr) and Kyle Clark (6'0" 280 Jr). It sure is going to be strange watching a SM game without Fletcher or Harrison in the backfield as they have been the top 2 for four straight years, but I like the caliber of their replacements.

RECEIVERS - In '08 SM had their top 2 rec back in TE Shawn Nelson and WR Torris Magee plus the tremendous addition of 6'6" DeAndre Brown (PS#7). Magee was injured then quit midyear (10 rec). Nelson had his best season (557, 10.5) while Gerald Baptiste had 460 (13.1). Brown lived up to his VHT billing (1st Tm CUSA) with 1,117 (16.7) before a gruesome broken tibia in the bowl. He was not 100% to open '09, as he added 15 lbs of muscle but never quite regained his speed. Brown still led with 785 (16.7) while Baptiste improved to 558 (14.7). Leroy Banks, who was a bigger TE, was #3 with 375 (12.9). Freddie Parham (PS#44JC) was #4 with 328 (12.6). RFr Quentin Pierce (PS#158QB) became one of Davis' favorite targets in spring but had just 247 (9.9). This year they must replace Parham (9 st), Baptiste (8 st) and Banks (6 st). Not listed below are Justin Sims (5'7" 165 rFr), Francisco Llanos (5'8" 159 rFr) and TE Jamie Wheat (6'2" 236 So). Despite the loss of 3 of their top 5 rec's, with Brown close to 100%, I look for this unit to be more explosive as they add PS#29JC Kelvin Bolden (IFS).

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2008 SM had to replace 3 st'rs (45 car sts ret) and finished with 192 ypg rush (4.7) with 29 sks allowed (6.3%). Last year they had to replace 3 OL (comb 23 sts). Surprisingly the more exp'd unit slipped to 181 ypg (4.6) but with just 16 sks (4.1%). This year they lose 1st Tm CUSA RG Ryan Hebert (13 st, 2Y st'r), LG Micah Brown (13 st, 2Y st'r), RT Brennan Houston (13 st), LT Kyle Burkhart (13 st, 2Y st'r) and Trevor Newsom (9 gm). This is a lightly exp'd unit and the 26 career starts returning (#112 FBS) all belong to C Cameron Zipp.

DEFENSIVE LINE - SM is known for its strong rush D's but surprisingly in former HC Bower's final 6 yrs, they allowed 3.8 ypc or higher five times. In '07 they had six seniors in the 2 deep incl all 4 st'rs and yielded 134 ypg (3.8). Naturally, the losses were heavy in Fedora's first year and 9 diff DL's started including 1 true, 2 rFr, 3 soph and a JC. Surprisingly they only allowed 140 ypg rush although their 4.2 ypc was the worst since '04 and the D had just 20 sks (lowest S/'97). Last year they lost 2 DL (comb 9 sts) but the top 7 DL tkl'rs were back. DE Roshaad Byrd was lost after 6 sts but they improved to 131 ypg (3.6) with 34 sks. Not listed below is Andrew Burns (6'4" 265 Jr). This year they lose DE Terrance Conner (7 st, 43 tkl, 5 sk) and DT Rolando Barragan (13 tkl, 2 sk). I expect a bigger impact from Arkansas transfer John Henderson (PS#143JC) and USF transfer Khyri Thornton (6'3" 324). This looks like CUSA's top D-line (8 w/st exp).



NT Anthony Gray

LINEBACKERS - SM LB's were named CUSA DPOY 4 out of 5 years from '03-'07. In '09 they had to replace 1st Tm CUSA Gerald McRath (#1 tkl'r, #4DC) and their #2 tkl'r. JUCO Hendrick Leverette took over McRath's #24 jersey but only had 14 tkls. Fedora was impressed with how quickly true frosh Jamie Collins (PS#31QB) picked up the D (48 tkls as DB) and moved him to LB this spg. Korey Williams led with 121 tkl (7.5 sk) and soph Ronnie Thornton (4 tkl rFr) was #2 with 114 (10.5 tfl). This year they have the entire 2 deep back (#1, #2, #3, #9 tkl'rs) and this unit will resemble the strong LB corps that you associate with the Golden Eagles.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Since 1995 SM had just 1 finish lower than #51 in my PDR and that was with an injury plagued group in '05 (#70). After a #51 finish in '08, SM had all 4 st'rs back last year. It was very surprising they dropped to #72. This year they lose their top cover CB Andre Watson (12 st, 76 tkl, 10 pd), 1st Tm CUSA FS Eddie Hicks (13 st, 64 tkl, 5 int, 3 pbu) and CB Michael McGee (2 st, 14 tkl, 1 int). SS Chico Hunter had 9 sts in '08 but none last year (44 tkl) and they add Alabama transfer Alonzo Lawrence (PS#28). Despite being less exp'd and losing, arguably, their top 2 DB's, I'll actually call for SM to move up in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Former HC Jeff Bower typically had fine ST units. In his last 4 years they finished #25, #23, #84 and #43. Fedora also puts an emphasis on ST and surprisingly in his first year they finished #87 as missed FG's potentially cost them 2 or 3 wins. Last year they had to replace their top P/K. Justin Estes (15-22 FG in '07) hit 8 straight FG's before he missed vs Tulane (23 yd, 2 xp). SEL transfer Danny Hrapmann (PS#32) was ahead of Estes in Aug but suffered a quad injury. He took over vs Houston (4-7 FG on yr). The key ST play of the year happened on a blk'd xp which would have given SM the lead at EC but instead it was ret'd for 2. Hrapmann had 6 TB on 80 KO. True frosh P Peter Boehme avg'd 38.5 (36.4 net) while fellow true Tracy Lampley was the top PR (14.5, 1 TD, HM CUSA), Sr Freddie Parham was the top KR (25.3) with Lampley having 17 KR (27.6, 1 TD). Overall the unit moved up to #18. This year they only lose Parham but should have another strong unit.

COACHES - Larry Fedora is in his 3rd ssn here and was the OC at Okla St ('05-'07) and Fla ('04). Under Fedora, OSU was balanced in '07 avg 243 ypg both rush and pass. OC Darrell Wyatt left for Kansas so Fedora promoted Blake Anderson to OC (QB cch L2Y). He was OC/QB cch at Louisiana ('07), co-OC at Middle Tenn ('02-'04) and RB/WR cch at NM ('99-'01). The DC is Todd Bradford who was at Okla St for 3Y (LB cch) prior to arriving here in '08. He has 22 yrs coaching exp (8 diff schl) and was the OC at BYU for 2 yrs.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Jeff Bower spent 29 years here and was forced to resign after his 17th season as HC. In the first four years of CUSA play, SM was an outstanding 21-2 but in the next 3 were 13-9. They rebounded to go 8-0 in CUSA play in '03 and after a couple of 5-3 CUSA finishes, won the CUSA East (6-2) in '06 but came up short in the title game vs Houston. It was actually the first time in 5 yrs that they had outgained league foes (+29.6 ypg). In '07 SM was the preseason favorite to win the CUSA Title but they finished 4th in the East. They were however +69.6 ypg (2nd best East). They went 4-0 on the road in CUSA play and came up just short vs #20 Cincy in the bowl in Bower's final game. Larry Fedora inherited just 10 ret st'rs (fewest CUSA). In 2008 MM Roberts Stadium underwent a $31.5 mil expansion. They set a school att record drawing 180,475 (30,079 per gm). It appeared they were headed for their first losing season in 14 yrs as they suffered their first 5 game losing streak since 1976. They opened 2-6 (worst S/'93) but SM swept their final 4 taking advantage of a couple of depleted teams and then overcame a 27-17 deficit vs Troy in the bowl and emerged with a winning 7-6 record. Despite their 4-4 CUSA record, SM was +99.3 ypg (best East). SM did benefit from +13 in turnovers in '08 but were a much more veteran team in '09 (18 ret sts). SM opened with a couple of easy wins (up 26-13 late vs UCF) but then trailed Virginia 27-10 at the half before rallying back for the 37-34 win. SM was tied with KU into the 4Q but could only muster 31 yds in their final 4 drives. On a short week at UAB, they were without RB Fletcher and WR Brown and despite outgaining UAB 345-245, lost 30-17 with QB Davis being inj (OFY). Martevious Young got his first road start at L'ville but UL got a 32 yd FG with :30 left to pull out the 25-23 win (SM led 16-7 half). They blew out Memphis and Tulane. Versus Houston the D gave up 750 yards and after SM got a TD with :57 left to tie it, UH got a TD with :21 left for the win. They were outgained by Marshall (363-294) but pulled out a 27-20 road win as Marshall lost RB Darius Marshall and TE Cody Slate in the 2Q. They earned their first perfect home record (6-0) since 1999 as they beat Tulsa 44-34 (FHG for 19 seniors). In the game to decide the CUSA East Title at ECar, they got the apparent go-ahead TD but their xp was blk'd and ret'd for 2 and SM trailed 22-20 instead of leading 21-20 and fell 25-20. In the bowl, SM led 17-14 at the half but couldn't stop Dwight Dasher and lost by 10 to match '08's 7-6 record. SM was +10 in TO's and was only +2.5 ypg in CUSA play. They had 5 close losses (2 net) and return QB Davis, WR Brown and 9 starters on D. SM draws the top 2 teams out of the West (UH and Tulsa), has a young O-line and plays UCF on the road. They will be the preseason favorite to win the CUSA East but have a tougher road to travel than UCF.

Sep. 2	at South Carolina (Thur)	G					First meeting. Golden Eagles are 2-11 in road openers including 5 straight losses by 15 ppg. Including bowls, SM has dropped 10 in a row vs current BCS teams away from home.
Sep. 11	Prairie View A&M	A					First meeting. Panthers went 9-1 LY (only loss to FBS NMSt 21-18) winning the SWAC crown and have posted B2B 9-1 records. Southern Miss has won 11 straight home openers.
Sep. 17	Kansas (Fri)	A					LY was the 1st meeting. SM was down 28-14 but tied it in the 4Q. KU then had a 50 yd KR & a TD 4 plays later while SM was int, punted twice & was SOD on their final 4 drives.
Sep. 25	at Louisiana Tech	A					SM is 5-1 vs LT but the L/gm was in 1992 (SM won 16-13). The Golden Eagles dropped their last trip to Ruston ('91) 30-14. 43rd meeting and Southern Miss leads series 29-13.
Oct. 2	Marshall	A					HT is just 1-4 (3 straight losses). Last time hosting MU ('08) S Miss got a TD w/1:33 left to pull within a score & got the ball back (w/1:11) but could only advance to the MU35.
Oct. 9	East Carolina	A					LY SMU tied it at 20 but had the xp blocked and returned for 2. QB Austin Davis DNP LY (inj) but in '08 (L/gm in Hattiesburg) tossed a school rec 97 yd TD pass in the win.
Oct. 16	at Memphis	A					LY SM led 10-6 at HT then got a 50 yd PR TD (1st for Southern Miss S/'03) that sparked them to score 20 of the next 23 pts. UM had the yd edge but committed 11 pen for 105 yds.
Oct. 23
Oct. 30	UAB	A					SM has outgained UAB in each of the L4Y by 201 ypg. LTH UAB QB Davis set a SM rec w/5 rushing TD's as SM had a 610-223 yd edge in the 56 pt win (70 pts most ever in a CUSA gm).
Nov. 6	at Tulane	A					LY SM never punted as 7 of their 10 drives resulted in a score (miss FG & 2 fum the other 3). Last time at the dome ('06) SM only led 10-3 after 3Q's before a 21 pt 4Q burst.
Nov. 13	at UCF	G					LY SM jumped out to a 14-0 lead after 1Q & played w/a DD lead for most of the 2H. SM is 2-0 in Orlando & in '08 after falling behind 6-0 held UCF to just 90 yds in the final 3Q's.
Nov. 20	Houston	A					Eagles are 4-0 hosting the Cougars (last visit '06). Last year SM tied the game w/:57 left but allowed UH to go 77/5pl in just :36 sec for the winning TD. Eagles are 7-1 in home finales.
Nov. 26	at Tulsa (Fri)	A					There were 7 lead changes in LY's gm (50 min 4Q weather delay) as SM was down 28-27 late 2Q but scored 17 unanswered to put the gm away. SM has never won in Tulsa (0-2-1, L/gm in '06).

UAB BLAZERS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Joe Webb DNP in the first 10 as a rFr in 2006 but threw for 426 and rushed for 122 (gross) in the final 2. In 2007 Webb had 8 starts at WR (30 rec) while throwing for 679 (56%) with a 5-1 ratio (288 rush). In 2008 Webb was the clear-cut starter and was #3 in the FBS in QB rush yards with 1,021 (5.2) and 11 TD's while throwing for 2,367 (59%) with a 10-16 ratio and only 1 int the last 3 games. They managed to RS true frosh David Isabelle (PS#200). Last year, in Webb's senior season he started all 12 and led all FBS QB's in rush yards with 1,427 (6.3) and 11 TD's. Webb threw for 2,299 yards (59.8%) with a 21-8 ratio and also had 2 rec (1 for a TD). He was a #6DC MIN. Isabelle played in all 12 hitting just 6-14 passes for 39 yards but was the team's #2 rusher with 288 (9.0). Battling Isabelle will be Bryan Ellis, Jonathan Perry (PS#288) and Emmanuel Taylor, who avg'd 229 ypg pass and 68 ypg rush at JUCO last year. Naturally replacing a player who accounted for 8,545 rush and pass yards in his career with 65 total TD's will be tough.

RUNNING BACKS - The Blazers have operated a TB-by-committee approach that has not produced a 1,000 yard rushing season by a RB since 1996. The unit has been injury plagued for the last 6 years. In 2008 Rashaud Slaughter led the RB's with 514 (4.5) while Justin Brooks added 218 (4.1). Last year Slaughter had a hamstring injury and missed the opener (limited the next 3) and in the first 6 totaled just 13 carries (59 yds). Slaughter still led the RB's with 250 (5.7), their lowest total for a leading RB rusher since joining IA. He added 173 rec yds (12.4). Brooks was the #2 RB with 211 (4.7) playing in just 9 and Daniel Borne missed 2 and rushed for 188 (3.8). This year they lose Slaughter (3 st), Dexter Barnett (2 st, 101 yds) and Jim Mitchell (21 yds). They should have solid improvement over '09's numbers, in which the RB's combined for just 771 (27.9%) of the team's 2,759 rush yards.

RECEIVERS - UAB had a very inexp'd receiving corps in '07. RFr Frantrell Forrest, led with 563 (11.5) while QB/WR Joe Webb was #2 with 459 (15.3). The #3 was true frosh Mario Wright (7 st), who had 272 (10.1). In '08 they added a pair of JC's in Roddell Carter (206, 12.9) and Mark Ferrell (177, 13.6) and Forrest led again with 536 (12.8). Last year the unit ret'd intact and Forrest led for a 3rd straight year with 558 (16.4). TE Jeffery Anderson was #2 for a 2nd straight year with 398 (15.3). Ferrell added 320 (13.9), Nick Adams had 277 (18.5) and Carter had 225 (16.1). Not listed below are TE's Ed Pruitt (6'3" 230 rFr) and Jordan Longoria (6'4" 195 rFr). This year they lose Ferrell (10 st), TE Zach Lankford (3 st, 2 rec) and Justin Harris (7 rec) but the unit has a combined 322 career rec making them one of the more experienced in the country.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Neil Callaway was the OL coach at three SEC schools so you know this position is a priority. In his first year 3 frosh started 5+ games and the OL opened holes for 110 ypg (3.7) while allowing just 16 sks (3.6%). In '08 they had to replace 3 st'rs but still improved to 169 ypg (4.7) with 23 sks (6.5%). Last year all 5 starters ret'd but Terence Edge RS (acad). They had 78 career starts returning. Having a mobile QB like Joe Webb (1,427 rush) helps an OL's stats and the Blazers paved the way for 230 ypg rush (6.0) with 24 sks (8.2%). This year they lose 1st Tm CUSA C Jake Seitz (12 st, 4Y st'r), RG Jared Koechner (3 st), LG Daniel Seahorn (11 gm) and LT Willie Thompson (11 gm). It sure will be strange to watch a UAB game without #53 snapping the ball as he played 2,975 of the team's 3,019 offensive snaps (48 con sts) since the beginning of '06 and never had a true backup. They have 4 starters back plus Edge returns (91 car st) and while they may not match last year's numbers with Webb's departure, this unit is even stronger.

LT Matt McCants

DEFENSIVE LINE - UAB's D was nicknamed "The Steel Shield" and allowed just 1.9 ypc rushing in 2001. That D-line included 1st and 2nd round DC's. The rush D slipped the next six years never allowing less than 3.7 ypc. In 2007 they had to replace 3 st'rs and the unit was run over allowing 257 ypg (5.7) with just 17 sks. In '08 they had all 4 st'rs back but three of them were soph. The unit did progress allowing 86 ypg (3.0) over the last 3 and trimmed the numbers to 167 ypg (4.8). Last year they had 7 of the top 8 back. Elliott Henigan went from 240 to 275 lbs and became the team's top DL. JUCO DE Derek Slaughter had 4 sts and QB Webb says he has a non-stop motor. The Blazers improved again allowing just 144 ypg (4.2) with 19 sks. This year they lose DE Anthony Barnes (8 st, 24 tkl, 2.5 tfl) and DT Nick Davison (3 st, 16 tkl). While this unit does not remind me of the "The Steel Shield," it should show improvement for a 3rd straight year.

LINEBACKERS - Last year UAB had to replace their #1 tackler Joe Henderson but added JUCO Darrion Wilson and true frosh Daniel White. When UAB starts a NB they play mostly in the box and are similar to a LB. Coaches (both UAB and opp) were high on the athletic talent of this unit but acknowledged that they were young and inexp'd. Keon Harris (47 tkl '08) was the veteran of the group but only started 4 (33 tkls). This year the unit returns intact but White (43 tkl) may move to DE, and the 4 true frosh that drew starts are now sophomores.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - UAB finished #81 in my PDR in Callaway's first year and despite having a veteran unit, slipped to #100 in '08. Last year they had to replace 3 st'rs and the unit was the biggest question mark on the team. They slipped down to #110 allowing 65% with a 27-11 ratio. This year they lose Brandon Carlisle (12 st, 57 tkl, 1 int, 9 pbu). Carlisle started the first 6 at CB but moved to FS when Chase Daniel got injured. They return 3 who have been full-time starters plus Marquis Coleman who started the last 5 (8 ret that started in '09). They also add JUCO's S Jamie Bender and CB TJ Ballou (great spring, both may start). Not in the PSL are Caleb Lester (5'10" 175 rFr), Jerry Young (5'10" 185 rFr), DeJuan Franklin (5'9" 170 Sr), '09 Scout Tm POY Stephen Allen (6'1" 200 Sr) and Justin Smartt (5'11" 175 Jr). UAB should have their best finish in my PDR in over 5 years (#34 in '03).

SPECIAL TEAMS - Despite the depth problems in '07 (only 63 scholarship players), Swayze Waters almost single-footedly guided the team to a #29 finish in my ST rankings. Waters hit 22 of 28 FG's (L/52), 19 TB on 57 KO and had a net punt avg of 35.6. In '08 Waters had a 37.8 tm net, hit 19-24 FG's (long 50) and had 14 TB on 61 KO. The return game was very poor and the Blazers dropped to #47. Last year they had to replace Waters and the ST unit was a problem once again. P Trey Ragland avg was solid 42.8 (36.0 net). True frosh Josh Zahn hit 14-21 FG's (long 51) but had 0 TB on 59 KO (Ragland 0-5). UAB was avg on returns and below avg on kick coverage and finished #108. This year all of the key players are back and they can only improve.

COACHES - Neil Callaway played for Bear Bryant ('74-'77) and had asst coaching jobs at EC, Wyoming and Houston. He was also the OL coach at Aub ('81-'92), the OC at Bama ('98-'00) and the OC at UGA ('01-'06). He became HC of UAB in '07. He made a great hire in DC Eric Schumann who had been Tulane's DC from '02-'06. Schumann was previously the DC at SMU. Callaway made another excellent hire in OC Kim Helton who was the HC at Houston from '93-'99 and also OC at Miami, Fl from '79-'82. He was the Toronto Argonauts' RB coach in the CFL in '06. Both coordinators enter their 4th year here.

PHIL'S FORECAST

UAB did not have a football team until 1991. When Watson Brown showed up in January of 1995, they had only filled half of their allotted scholarships and did not have a football office or locker room. They joined CUSA five years later and had an amazing record (for such a young program) of 30-29 in conference play under Brown. In '06 UAB had 5 close losses and could have finished as high as 8-4 but they were -53.5 ypg (3rd weakest CUSA). Sixteen starters missed at least one game and by Wk 12, thirteen were out for the season. It was UAB's worst season in their short history at 3-9. Neil Callaway took over in '07 and they had to replace 27 scholarship seniors and with the coaching change, suffered a large amount of attrition over the summer. Not counting freshmen, only 40 players were on scholarship when the new coaches arrived. They had just 8 ret st'rs (2nd fewest FBS) and had 6 frosh and only 6 senior st'rs by yrs end. As expected, they were on the short end of many blowouts going just 1-7 in CUSA play (-188.1 ypg, 109.6 ypg worse than #11). They finished a school record worst 2-10. In '08 they were a more veteran team with 14 st'rs back. After finishing '07 with 63 scholarship players, they began '08 with 73. While they technically finished last in CUSA East they were in a 3-way tie for 4th at 3-5. They improved to -60.5 ypg in CUSA (4th best East, 7th overall). They also could have had a much better record than their 4-8 finish (see '09's Forecast). Last year UAB had 17 ret st'rs including dynamic QB Joe Webb and I said it was BY FAR the Blazers' best team under Callaway as they finally had depth (79 scholarship players) especially at LB and DB. UAB once again showed improvement. They waxed a rebuilding Rice in the opener 44-24 but came up a 2 pt conv short (:13 left) to SMU and lost at home. They were outgained 551-285 at Troy and the next week, perhaps looking ahead to their Thurs night game vs SMiss, lost 56-19 to Texas A&M. SM was without their top RB and WR and outgained UAB 345-245 but UAB got a 13 pt win in a rare Thurs night home game. Unfortunately they did not have another HG for over a month. They lost at Miss and Marshall, as expected, but then despite being outgained 607-375 at UTEP, came away with a 38-33 win (did lead 38-20 4Q). Florida Atlantic was without QB Rusty Smith and UAB rolled 56-29 and the next week in Tommy West's FHG at Memphis, UAB prevailed 31-21. They had a 520-325 yard edge at ECar but ST's hurt them including a 99 KR TD and they lost by 16. In the season finale with bowl eligibility a possibility, they trailed UCF 31-14 into the 4Q and despite a 527-435 yd edge, lost by 7 at home. UAB was 4-4 in CUSA play and their +15.5 ypg was the 5th best mark. This year UAB has 16 ret st'rs but loses QB Webb and last year benefitted from being +9 in TO's. While the '09 team was based on Webb, this year's squad has more balance. Six of my 9 sets of power ratings call for bowl eligibility.

Sep. 4	Florida Atlantic	A					Third of 5th scheduled meetings. HT is 2-0 outgaining the visitor in both by 127 ypg. UAB is 12-2 in home openers. UAB's 622 yds LY vs FAU was the 3rd most in school history.
Sep. 11	at SMU	A					UAB is 1-18 (6 str losses) in road openers. LY UAB trailed 28-7 at HT before 20 unanswered in the 3Q. The Blazers went 60/8pl for a TD w/:13 left but were stuffed on the gm-tying 2pt conv.
Sep. 18	Troy	A					Eighth instate meeting (1st gm in '93 as IAA foes). LY UAB was outgained by 266 yds but the LTH ('06) they held Troy to 202 yds all'g just 4 plays in the redzone (after fum) w/6 sks.
Sep. 25	at Tennessee	G					UAB is 0-3 vs Tenn being outgained in each by 172 ypg. The Blazers lost 35-3 ('08) in the last meeting vs the Vols allowing 548 yds. UAB has lost 10 straight BCS road gms by 23 ppg.
Oct. 2
Oct. 6	at UCF (Wed)	G					Visitor has won the L/3 and UAB has outgained UCF each of the L2Y by 134 ypg. UAB got a shutout their L/trip to Orlando as UCF reached UAB territory just twice in 9 drives.
Oct. 16	UTEP	A					Last and only time hosting UTEP (2006), UAB led 10-9 mid 2Q & only trailed by 5 to start the 4Q but had 2 TO's in their final 3 poss which ended any comeback chance.
Oct. 23	at Mississippi St	G					UAB is 1-2 vs MSU dropping the L/2 ('06 & '07, 1st gm in '04). In the L/gm UAB had the lead the entire gm up till the 4Q but were outscored 21-0 & outgained 138-18 in the final quarter.
Oct. 30	at Southern Miss	A					UAB is 1-9 vs Southern Miss (0-4 in Hattiesburg) but last year won its 1st ever in the series. UAB never trailed turning 3 SM TO's into 17 pts incl a 40 yd IR TD w/just 1:05 left to seal the win.
Nov. 6	Marshall	A					L2Y UAB has outrushed MU 447-217 (5.5-3.2). LY UAB was only outgained by 18 yds but were held to a ssn low 7 pts because of 15 pen costing them 135 yds incl having a TD called back.
Nov. 11	East Carolina (Thur)	A					Blazers have dropped 3 straight vs the Pirates after opening the series going 4-2. UAB held EC to a season best 14 FD's & 325 yds LY but allowed a 99 yd KR TD & an 89 yd IR.
Nov. 20	Memphis	A					Including 2 str yrs the Blazers have outgained the Tigers in 5 of the L/6. Last time here ('08) UM kicked a 25 yd FG w/:02 left for the win. UAB has dropped 5 straight home finales.
Nov. 27	at Rice	A					Visitor has lost all 3 meetings. LY UAB led 20-0 & never looked back as Joe Webb rushed for 194 yds (9.7) breaking the CUSA record for most rush yds in a game by a QB.

MARSHALL THUNDERING HERD

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - The Thundering Herd have had a pair of #1 DC's at QB in Chad Pennington and Byron Leftwich. Since Leftwich departed in '03 this unit has struggled. Bernard Morris had a good year in '07 throwing for 3,149 (64%, 17-10) and became Marshall's only QB to top 1,000 career yards rushing. Four QB's battled for the job in '08. Brian Anderson (PS#105) who struggled in his only start in '07 and rFr Mark Cann (6'4" 237 Jr, PS#85) were the top two. Cann started 11 and struggled but when Anderson replaced him he also had little success (3-12) vs UCF but started vs Tulsa and had a better QB rating than TU's David Johnson (14-19-177, 3-0 ratio). In '08 the Marshall QB's combined for 173 ypg (lowest since joining IA) 50% completions and a 17-14 ratio. Last year they added Florida's Mr Football AJ Graham (PS#100) who threw for 3,870 as a HS Sr (38 TD, rush 564, 4.65 speed) and also signed Press Taylor (6'1" 210 Sr, PS#189JC, IFS) who threw for 2,294 (61%, 22 TD) at JC in '08 (17-1 as st'r). Anderson won the job and threw for 2,646 (58%, 14-13). His backup was Taylor who played in 7 (3 att). Everyone is back and they add Clemson transfer Willy Korn (PS#2). I look for The Herd to have their best passing numbers in at least 3 years.

RUNNING BACKS - Marshall has had only three 1,000 yard rushers since Doug Chapman in 1998 and Ahmad Bradshaw (PS#34) was arguably the top RB The Herd has ever had. The Virginia transfer rushed for 1,523 (6.1) as a junior in '06 but opted to leave early for the NFL (helped Giants win SB). In 2007 true frosh Darius Marshall (PS#51) led with 631 (5.1) in 9 sts while Chubb Small added 424 (6.1). In 2008 Marshall had 1,095 (4.9) and was the leading KR (26.3, #2 CUSA all purp). Small had 430 (4.5) and rFr Terrell Edwards-Maye (PS#142) added 154 (5.5). Last year they had to replace Small and Marshall was bigger, stronger and faster. He was however, susp'd for the opener and injured vs SMiss (miss 2.5 gm). He had 186 vs BG (72 yd run null pen) then ran for a career high 203 vs Memphis and finished with 1,131 (5.0) and 11 TD's. Martin Ward (PS#57) and Edwards-Maye replaced Marshall vs SMU and became the first MU duo to each top 100 vs an FBS opp since '03. Ward finished #2 with 393 (4.8) and was MVP of the bowl (2 TD) while Edwards-Maye (10 rush yds, wks 2-9) had 217 (3.7). Speedy Andre Booker had 73 (4.9) as a true, and RB cch JaJuan Seider compared him to WV's Noel Devine, but faster (4.3 spd). Not in the PSL is Aaron Slusher (5'10" 211 rFr, PS#388). Darius Marshall left early for the NFL (undrafted) but there is decent talent here.

RECEIVERS - Marshall has had great WR's including their most famous alumnus, Randy Moss. Darius Watts became the MAC's career leader in rec's and yards in '03 (Mike Barber MU rec yd record leader '85-'88). Josh Davis topped the receptions (306) and was 3rd in yds. In '06 TE Cody Slate led with 684 (15.9) and led again in '07 with 818 (12.4). In '08 Darius Passmore was #1 with 945 (16.9). Slate missed 2 (knee inj, not 100%) and dropped to 510 (12.8). Last year they had to replace Passmore. They had two of the NCAA's best TE's in Slate and Tenn trans Lee Smith (PS#9). They needed a feature WR and the talk of August was Courtney Edmonson (deep threat). Edmonson was injured and RS and the leading returning WR transferred. Snyder talked about the new additions bringing size and speed to the unit. Troy Evans (fastest) was lost after 3 (brk foot, 4 rec) and rFr Antavious Wilson led with 724 (12.1). Slate (607, 12.1) was #1 but was lost (torn ACL) with 3 games left. Slate topped Sean Doctor's career TE rec mark ('88). True frosh 6'3"Aaron Dobson became the deep threat (24.1 ypc!). Chuck Walker (PS#150JC, RS in '08) had 350 (10.6). This year they lose Slate and Jamal Wilson (3 st, 17 rec) but everyone else is back and they have some nice additions.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Marshall had 2 OL starters back in '08 and avg 157 ypg rush (4.5) with just 13 sks allowed (3.7%). Last year they had 3 st'rs ret but RT CJ Wood (12 st '08) lost his spot. They did get back Daniel Baldridge (11 st '07). Even with Darius Marshall in the backfield, the numbers dropped to 143 ypg with 25 sks allowed (6.2%). This year they lose RG Jimmy Rogers (12 st) and 2nd Tm CUSA RT Baldridge (13 st, 2Y st'r). Six return with starting exp and this unit is improved.

RG Chad Schofield

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '06 Marshall had an inexp'd front but thanks to the emergence of Albert McClellan (CUSA Def POY), they trimmed the ypg rush allowed to 139 (4.1). In '07 they had to replace 2 st'rs then McClellan suffered a torn ACL and JC Montel Glasco was also lost after 3 sts (ACL). They allowed 191 ypg rush and their 4.8 ypc was the worst S/'01 (only had 13 sks). In '08 they had to replace 2 st'rs but McClellan ret'd. Although he became the first MU player to be named 1st Tm CUSA twice, he was not 100% (2.5 sk). MU still made strides allowing 164 ypg (4.0). Last year DL cch Bob Fello said the DL was the deepest he'd ever coached (33 yrs). DT Johnny Jones (245 lb frosh) was up to 290 (now 301). McClellan was limited (ankle) at times but the D improved to 135 ypg (4.3) with 27 sks. This year they lose 2nd Tm CUSA McClellan (12 st, 54 tkl, 3 sk), DT James Burkes (9 st, 21 tkl) and DE John Jacobs (1 st, 33 tkl, 3.5 sk). Five return with starting exp and while less exp'd, this still looks like a quality group.

LINEBACKERS - Maurice Kitchens and Mario Harvey ("Thumper") are big LB's. EC TE Rob Kass (faced WV & NCar D's) said the hardest hitter he played was Harvey. Last year they had to replace #2 tkl'r Kitchens but Harvey ret'd (#1 tkl'r) along with Brandon Burns (#5 tkl'r). Corey Hart (33 tkl '08) was susp'd early and had just 5 tkls (left tm). Kellen Harris (better vs run) and Tyson Gale (better vs pass) battled over the open spot all season. This year they lose WLB Burns (13 st, #6 tkl'r, 6 tfl) and Andre Portis (8 tkl). Harvey was 1st Tm CUSA (#1 tkl'r, 7 sks) and Harris was the #4 tackler, so this is one of CUSA's top LB corps.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Marshall had a veteran unit in '07 but used 9 diff st'rs and surprisingly plummeted to #112 in my PDR. They had 2 st'rs back in '08 and moved up to #61. Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs and finished #71. They ret'd CB's DeQuan Bembry and TJ Drakeford but TJ missed 8 (inj). John Saunders started the first 3 at FS, then was lost vs BG. Bembry missed 2 sts but earned 2nd Tm CUSA despite being susp over the summer. Not in the PSL are Chris Maxwell (5'11" 167 Jr) and Tyrone Carper (5'9" 180 Sr). This year they lose HM CUSA SS Ashton Hall (89 tkl, 9 pd), Saunders (14 tkl) and Drakeford (3 st, 12 tkl). DeQuan Bembry was arrested for a 3rd time in 2 years and is currently suspended and is questionable to play in 2010.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Last year MU only had to replace their top PR. The ST had their moments but also had some poor games (ST cost them SMiss gm). Craig Ratanamorn was 1 of 20 Lou Groza semifinalists hitting 15-17 FG's (long 50) and had 11 TB on 60 KO. Kase Whitehead, who avg 41.7 as a senior in HS, worked hard in the weight room but still only improved his punting from 38.7 to 39.2 (net 33.4). True frosh Andre Booker was dangerous on PR's (20.4!) while Darius Marshall was the top KR (22.1). They finished just #78 in my ST rankings and have to replace Ratanamorn, Darius Marshall and 1st Tm CUSA LS Sean McClellan.

COACHES - The clock ran out on Mark Snyder in '09 who finally got The Herd back to a bowl but was let go anyway (22-37 5 yrs). Marshall lured longtime WV coach/alumnus Doc Holliday to Huntington to take over. Holliday spent the last 2 yrs as WV's Assoc HC (recruit coor). He was an asst at WV from '79-'99 and also spent 3 yrs as Assoc HC at Florida from '05-'07 under Urban Meyer. Holliday is widely considered one of the best recruiters in the nation. Co-OC Bill Legg was the OC at FIU ('08-'09) and spent 5 yrs as the OL coach and then co-OC (L/2) at Purdue. Co-OC Tony Petersen was an Asst HC at South Dakota last year and QB coach at Iowa St ('07-'08). Petersen was a record-setting QB at Marshall in the late '80's. The new DC is Chris Rippon who was Rutgers' ST coor in '09 and ST coor/DB coach at Ole Miss under Ed Orgeron ('05-'08). He also served as DC and ST coor at Syr for 12 yrs under Paul Pasqualoni.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Marshall stepped right in from IAA and dominated the MAC winning the conf 5 of the first 6 years. In 2005 Mark Snyder inherited just 5 ret starters. He did not take over until AFTER spring practice and it was MU's first year in CUSA. Marshall also removed their AstroTurf and reduced the huge crown (elevation at midfield) from 20 to 6 inches which had been a big part of their home edge. I didn't make a lot of fans in Huntington happy when I called for MU to finish LAST in CUSA East, even below UCF (0-11 yr prior)! The Herd trailed in all 11 (incl 1AA W&M). They had three very fortunate wins and finished 4-7. In '06 they had 13 ret st'rs and a tough non-conf schedule. They were 5-6 and needed a win at SMiss to become bowl eligible but were thumped 42-7. The Herd finished 3rd in CUSA East (4-4) despite -9 in TO's. In '07, Marshall had 13 ret st'rs but lost '06 CUSA Def POY Albert McClellan (ACL). MU opened 0-7 but won 3 of the last 5. MU was -10 in TO's. Twenty-eight scholarship players left the program in Snyder's first 3 yrs. In '08 the Herd had just 15 lett lost with 15 st'rs back and also got back DE McClellan. They were motivated when SI pegged them as the #115 team in the FBS (proj 1-11). It was the first year under Snyder that they had the full allotment of 85 scholarships. They did snap a 9 game road losing streak by beating SM at The Rock. They lost to eventual CUSA Champ ECar by 3 in OT, lost by 3 to Tulsa and 2 to UAB and improved their record, but only to 4-8. They were -64.7 ypg in CUSA (5th worst) and had just 9 sts lost to injury (15th fewest FBS). Last year they had 15 ret st'rs. Marshall made my Most Improved List which meant I thought they would make it to a bowl. They got past S Illinois (by 3) but after an expected loss to VT, beat BG at home and Memphis on the road to rise to 3-1. They could have easily beaten EC except a controversial SOD call in the 4Q gave them a 4 pt home loss. After beating Tulane, they had an expected loss to WV despite an 11-2 FD edge in the 1H. They blasted UAB to stand 5-3. They led 20-7 in the 4Q vs UCF and had the ball but fumbled at their own 30 with 2:12 left setting up UCF's game winning score. They were int'd twice inside the SM10 and lost despite a 363-294 yd edge. Marshall beat SMU 34-31 in the cold at home but travelling 1,420 miles into 3,700 feet elevation, they lost to UTEP 52-21. Despite landing a Little Caesars Pizza Bowl berth, Snyder was fired and DC Rick Minter was named the interim HC for the bowl. They had a 275-123 yd edge over Ohio in the 21-17 win. They managed to lure Doc Holliday away from WVirg and have 14 ret st'rs but lose RB Marshall, TE Slate and DE McClellan. There are factors pointing towards a downturn this year but they have a favorable CUSA schedule and are capable of becoming bowl eligible again.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score MU	Final Score Opp	W / L
Sep. 2	at Ohio St (Thur)	A					MU has lost 10 str rd openers by 23 ppg. The Herd are 1-13 (9 str losses) vs ranked FBS foes (only win vs #6 KSt in '03). MU is 0-5 vs the Big Ten (avg score 40-16).
Sep. 10	West Virginia (Fri)	A					Holliday is a WV alumni (LB from '76-'78 & served on cching staff L2Y). LY MU had a 7-3 HT lead w/a 11-2 FD & 139-84 yd edge, but gained just 53 yds in the 2H on 29 plays.
Sep. 18	at Bowling Green	A					Marshall has won 4 of 5 but the visitor is 2-12. Last year with the game tied at 7 in the 4Q RB Marshall had a career high 80 yd TD run. LTH was 2004 in a 56-35 loss.
Sep. 25	Ohio	A					Including LY's bowl, MU has outgained OU in 7 of the L/9 meetings by 203 ypg (S'97). MU shutout OU 28-0 in the Bobcats last visit ('03). 54th meeting in the "Battle for the Bell".
Oct. 2	at Southern Miss	A					LY MU had the yd edge (+69) but all'd 7 sks, a KR TD and was also -3 TO's. The Herd fmbl'd a PR (TD next play) & trailing 27-20, tossed an int on each of its L/2 drives (at SM2 & SM7).
Oct. 9
Oct. 13	UCF (Wed)	A					Marshall has lost 5 str in this series as both schools were MAC members from '02-'04. Last game at home ('08) both teams combined for 11-46 passes (24%) for just 113 yds.
Oct. 23	at East Carolina	G					Marshall has dropped 4 of 5 to EC and last time here lost in OT. LY MU trailed by 4 heading into the 4Q but threw 2 int's & were SOD on their L/3 poss in the 4 pt loss.
Oct. 30	UTEP	A					The day after the UTEP loss LY, Mark Snyder announced his resignation. MU only trailed 20-14 at the half LY but allowed 5 drives of 80+ yds that all resulted in TD's taking no less than 3:36.
Nov. 6	at UAB	A					MU is 4-1 vs UAB (1st gm in '05) but lost their last trip to Birmingham ('08). They led 14-2 early 2Q but trailed by 2 w/2:50 left 4Q as a 37 yd FG went wide right (did get ball back but w/just :03).
Nov. 13	Memphis	A					Herd have won B2B gms vs the Tigers. LY Darius Marshall had career highs w/203 yds (8.1) & 3 TD's. LY MU trailed 7-3 after 1Q but scored early 2Q never giving up the lead again.
Nov. 20	at SMU	A					LY MU was without RB Marshall & TE Slate but true Fr Aaron Dobson had 127 rec yds. The game was tied 3x's but MU went on a 17-7 run at the end of the 3Q to seal it.
Nov. 27	Tulane	A					Marshall has won all 3 meetings, the last 2 by 21 pts each. Last year MU was outgained 404-323 but a 4Q 29 yd FR TD put them in control. MU is 12-2 in their home finales.

EAST CAROLINA PIRATES

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - EC has had some fine QB's including David Garrard, Jeff Blake and Marcus Crandell. James Pinkney left after '06 as the #2 career passer. Rob Kass (5 gm '06) won the starting job in '07 but was susp for the opener and PS#88 Patrick Pinkney (no relation to James) played. Kass ret'd in Wk 2 and started. Pinkney (5 sts) led with 1,358 (61%, 11-4) and was the #2 rusher (306). Kass threw for 1,164 (55%, 9-4). In '08 Pinkney was the clear-cut starter but lost 5 fumbles in the first 6. He alternated with Kass but started all 13 and threw for 2,675 (61%,13-7) including 296 in the bowl while Kass threw for 321 (46%, 2-2). Pinkney was granted a 6th year in '09 and Kass moved to FB. Pinkney threw for 2,947 (59%, 15-12, 81 rush). The backup spot was battled for by rFr Josh Jordan (PS#105) and true frosh Rio Johnson (PS#111). Jordan appeared in 3 (7 att) while Johnson RS. Those two will battle BC transfer Dominique Davis (PS#68JC) for the starting job. Davis had 3 starts as a rFr at BC in '08 throwing for 741 (46%, 6-4, 48 rush). Walk-on Brad Wornick threw for 226 yds and 2 TD's in the spring game. Remember new HC's like using their own recruits and whoever the starter is, the numbers won't drop as much as you might think.

RUNNING BACKS - Chris Johnson rushed for 1,423 with an outstanding 6.0 ypc and 17 TD's in '07 (NCAA bowl rec 408 all-purp yd) and has become one of the NFL's top RB's. The entire Pirate team was hit hard by susp and injuries in '08. Dominique Lindsay (#3 '07, 205, 3.1) was the proj starter but RS (inj). Brandon Simmons rushed for 474 (3.5) but Norman Whitley (5'9" 186 Sr) led with 698 (4.9). Last year they had to replace Simmons but got Lindsay back and also added Giavanni Ruffin (PS#163JC power back, 6'1" 215 lbs) who had 308 (3.7). Kentucky transfer Brandon Jackson (PS#110) had 316 (3.8). Former HC Holtz said that all of his RB's when he arrived were 180-185 lbs but LY he had 4 that were 200+. Lindsay was clearly the top guy but had to play through shoulder and ankle injuries (miss 2). He had 151 in the bowl to finish with 1,180 (4.9). Whitley had just 3 att's. Jonathan Williams (PS#117) had 380 (5.1) in '08 but missed most of '09 (knee inj). This year they lose Lindsay, Jackson (dismissed) and FB Rob Kass (5 st, 18 rec yd). Ruffin was susp'd in spring. They figure to be less productive with the top 2 RB's gone and less emphasis on the rush game in the new offense.

RECEIVERS - The EC receivers were inexp'd in both '07 and '08 and last year they had to replace TE Davon Drew (#1, 695) but ret'd their #2-6 rec's in Dwayne Harris (654,11.3), Darryl Freeney (352, 16.0), Alex Taylor (310, 13.5), Joe Womack (230, 13.5) and Jamar Bryant (216, 11.4). Harris was used in the Wildcat formation and on returns. Dropped passes have plagued this unit and last year there were a couple of games in which the EC rec's developed "gator arms". Jamar Bryant (PS#35) missed 6 and only had 205 (9.3). Harris (PS#60) led with 978 (11.8) while Darryl Freeney was #2 (718, 15.0). Alex Taylor had 367 (10.5). This year they lose Taylor (11 st), Bryant (8 st) and Reyn Willis (107, 17.8). Not in the PSL are Gray Mazzone (5'9" 170 rFr), Jeremy Davis (5'10" 176 So), Torrance Hunt (5'8" 160 rFr, PS#159), Michael Bowman (5'9" 165 Jr PS#107), TJ Terrell (5'10" 173 Sr) and TE Zico Pasut (6'3" 245 rFr). I'll call this an improved group and they will have more impressive stats in the new offense.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 EC had a very exp'd OL but it was banged up and they dropped to 126 ypg (3.4) rush with 28 sks allowed (6.7%). Due to injuries in '07 and '08 they ret'd 114 career starts last year. I finished my OL write-up LY by saying if they can stay healthy, they should be one of the FBS's most improved O-lines. They accomplished the first part (all 5 OL started all 14) and they improved to 152 ypg rush (4.0) with just 14 sks (3.1%). This year they lose 1st Tm CUSA C Sean Allen (14 st, 2Y st'r), 2nd Tm CUSA LG Terence Campbell (14 st, 3Y st'r), RG Stephen Heis (201 pl), RG Doug Palmer (123 pl) and LG TJ Harper (136 pl). Not in the PSL are Chris Edwards (6'4" 270 rFr) and CJ Brown (6'4" 315 rFr, PS#308). They do have a new HC and while less experienced (82 career st), they do have 3 starters returning and this is a quality O-line.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '07 EC had 7 DL back with starting exp and allowed 142 rush ypg (3.9). In '08 the line ret'd intact and while they lost 2 players for the year with injury, 3 did start 13+ including CJ Wilson (10.5 sk). They improved to 136 ypg rush (3.8) with 31 sks. Last year they only had to replace one st'r and had 78 career sts back. Wilson was the preseason CUSA DPOY. The numbers improved to 120 ypg rush (3.8) but with 28 sks. Gone this year are 1st Tm CUSA NG Linval Joseph (#2DC NYG, 60 tkl, 3 sk), 1st Tm CUSA DE Wilson (#7DC GB, 57 tkl, 5.5 sk), DE Scotty Robinson (41 tkl, 5 sk, HM CUSA) and 2nd Tm CUSA DT Jay Ross (47 tkl, 1.5 sk). All 4 started all 14. This year the unit has zero career starts and is my biggest concern on the team.

LINEBACKERS - EC had a banged up LB corps in '08 and last year had to replace 2nd Tm CUSA Pierre Bell (#2 tkl'r). They did return their #1 tkl'r Nick Johnson, their #5 tkl'r Jeremy Chambliss and converted S Chris Mattocks (0 st '08, 5 st '07). Holtz felt the starting LB's were the best in his tenure. This year they lose Chambliss (13 st, #4 tkl, 11.5 tfl), 2nd Tm CUSA Nick Johnson (14 st, #2 tkl, 7.5 tfl) and Mattocks (12 st, #3 tkl'r, 5.5 tfl). Not in the PSL are Wes Pittman (5'11" 203 Sr, 9 tkl), Daniel Drake (6'0" 242 So, Marshall trans) and James Craig (5'10" 200 So). They go from a veteran unit to one that has just 11 career sts (36 in '09).

DEFENSIVE BACKS - EC had a veteran secondary in 2008 and moved up to #27 in my pass D rankings (#98 in '07). Last year they had to replace 3 players (comb 21 sts) but did return 6 with 63 career sts. Starting CB Dekota Marshall was lost after 9 (broken leg). EC finished #55 allowing 60.9% (24-17 ratio). This year they lose CB Levin Neal (10 st, 62 tkl, 2 int, 6 pbu, HM CUSA) and 1st Tm CUSA FS Van Eskridge (14 st, #1 tkl'r, 6 int, 9 pbu) but have 6 of the top 8 back including 3 who have been full-time starters. CB Emanuel Davis was 1st Tm CUSA. This unit is equal to '09 in experience and they add PS#132JC Bradley Jacobs (IFS). Not in the PSL are Fraqwan Jones (5'9" 176 So), Jullian Vann (5'11" 170 rFr) and Justin Nunery (5'10" 170 Sr).

CB Travis Simmons

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '07 EC finished just #106 in my ST rankings. Ben Hartman hit 13-22 FG's (long 52) along with a school record 59 straight xp's. In '08 they had to replace KR Johnson (28.0) but moved up to #32 as P Matt Dodge improved his net punting from 32.8 to 37.9 and Hartman hit 21-31 (long 51). Last year everyone ret'd. Hartman did battle a hip injury in Aug and struggled at times (4 misses in bowl) but still hit 20-30 (long 49) and Dodge (#7DC NYG) was 1st Tm CUSA (39.1 net!). Dwayne Harris set a school record with 3 KR TD's (27.0) while Travis Simmons handled the PR's (12.6). EC was #15 but now must replace Hartman and Dodge and will drop a few notches.

COACHES - Louis "Skip" Holtz had great success here taking the Pirates to 4 straight bowls and prior to '08 was given a contract extension through 2013. He was hired away by USF in mid-January, opening the door for Ruffin McNeill to return to his alma-mater. McNeill spent the last 10 years as an asst at Texas Tech including the last 2 as DC. He led TT to a 41-31 win in the Alamo Bowl serving as the interim HC. The new OC is 27 year old Lincoln Riley who was the WR coach at TT the last 3 years. The new DC is Brian Mitchell who was the CB coach at TT (4 yrs) and prior to that he spent 11 yrs as a defensive asst at his alma mater, BYU.

PHIL'S FORECAST

EC had a string of 4 straight non-losing seasons snapped in 2002 and surprisingly fired the school's all-time winningest HC, Steve Logan. EC brought in John Thompson and with the team going through the coaching change, they went just 1-11 and 2-9 (-128.8 ypg CUSA worst) and Thompson was let go. Skip Holtz inherited a veteran squad with 17 st'rs ret in '05. He brought discipline in and susp numerous players (2 for season). EC was 4-4 in CUSA (-6.4 ypg) and 5-6 overall. In '06 they had a tough non-conf slate (3 BCS tm & Navy) but Holtz got them to 5-3 in CUSA and their first bowl since '01. They had been picked #6 in CUSA East by the media but finished 2nd (+16.3 ypg, #6). Had Rice not hit a FG with :03 left, they would have been in the CUSA Title game! That squad did have 22 seniors. In '07 Holtz had just 12 ret st'rs and a brutal opening schedule vs 4 bowl tms including #9 VT and #5 WV on the road. The DL, OL and LB's were banged up. They did benefit from +17 in TO's and finished 8-5. In the bowl, Boise was without their top RB and WR and EC led 38-14 in the 3 point win. They set a single season record for points (403). While EC was 6-2 in CUSA play, they were -29.3 ypg. In '08 they had 16 ret st'rs, but lost star RB Chris Johnson. They did have one of the league's weakest schedules and I called for them to win the CUSA East. EC upset #17 VT and dominated #8 WV. There was plenty of talk about being a BCS buster and they got as high as #14 as they started 3-0. EC was very banged up in '08 (41 sts lost to inj, 10th most). They had 4 net close wins. They got to the CUSA Title game and much like their season, they were outgained 399-278 but thanks to +6 TO's, won 27-24. They were only +2.8 ypg in CUSA play. I was conflicted on EC winning again in '09 due to all of those factors but they had a veteran team (16 ret st'rs). App St was without their starting QB and EC led 24-0 but only won 29-24. They had double digit losses to WV and NC on the road and got past UCF by 5 at home. Despite being outgained (306-286) they beat Marshall on the road 21-17. They lost to SMU by 7 to fall to 3-3. They handily beat Rice and Mem and then in their first Thurs night HG since '01 lost to VT by 13. They dominated Tulsa on the road and despite being outgained 520-325 by UAB, won by 16. They faced SMiss for the CUSA East Title and SM got the apparent go ahead TD but EC blk'd the xp and ret'd it for a 2 pt lead and won by 5. They hosted Houston in the CUSA Title gm which was the FHG for 28 seniors. Despite being outgained 557-413, they were +3 in TO's and won by 6. While they had some fortunate wins in CUSA play, the should have beat Ark in the bowl as they had 24-10 FD and 393-283 yd edges and were firmly in control at the half (led 10-0). This year looks like a rebuilding season as they have just 8 ret st'rs (fewest CUSA) and last year was the polar opposite of '08 with only 4 sts lost to injury. EC was only +49.5 ypg in CUSA play (4th best) and they had 3 net close wins and were +11 in turnovers. Skip Holtz left for USF mid-January so they have a new coaching staff and a big change in offense, not to mention the loss of their entire defensive front 7! EC has won 2 straight CUSA Titles but I will call for a losing season in their rebuilding year of 2010.

Sep. 5	Tulsa (Sun)	G					The home team has lost 3 str (upsets the L2Y). In the last visit from Tulsa ('06) EC never had the lead being held to just 241 yds. The Pirates have won 5 str (2 vs BCS tms) home openers.
Sep. 11	Memphis	G					The tms have played every yr S'90 (1st meeting) and EC is 6-2 hosting UM, incl a win in '08 when the Pirates held the Tigers to just 2 FD's & 44 yds (2.2 ypp) in the 2H after trailing 10-7 at HT.
Sep. 18	at Virginia Tech	G					This series is currently in the midst of a recent 9-gm agreement. EC is 1-7 vs VT S'93. EC trailed 13-0 last year & ran just 13 plays in VT territory. EC is 1-7 in road openers.
Sep. 25							BONUS: Coming into 2010, EC is 14-3 in CUSA HG's including 8 str wins by 15 ppg L/4 yrs.
Oct. 2	at North Carolina	G					EC is 2-9-1 vs NC and has been outgained by 150 ypg in their L/2 trips to Chapel Hill ('01 & LY). The Pirates lead LY 7-0 but allowed a TD after a fumble, allowed a blk'd FG & 2 sks.
Oct. 9	at Southern Miss	A					EC did win LY but is just 3-11 vs SM. EC claimed home field in the CUSA Title gm w/the win LY as they blk'd an XP & ret it for 2 pts w/the gm tied late 4Q holding SM on its final 2 drives.
Oct. 16	NC State	G					EC is 2-4 (B2B losses) vs NC St being outgained in 5 of 6 by 82 ypg. In the L/gm ('08) EC came in ranked #15 but allowed a 55/7pl TD w/1:12 left to force OT (then fumbled on 1st series).
Oct. 23	Marshall (HC)	G					Pirates are 45-10 on Homecoming. EC is 8-3 vs Marshall incl a perfect 5-0 in Greenville. Last year EC trailed late 3Q but after a TD held MU to 19 yds on 12 plays in the 4Q.
Oct. 30	at UCF	G					Pirates are 8-1 vs the Knights w/4 str wins (L/2 by a ttl of 8 pts). EC did trail 7-0 LY but led 19-7 before all'g a late TD w/1:06. UCF did rec the on-side kick but EC got an int the next play.
Nov. 6	Navy	G					Just one prior meeting in '06, EC lost 28-23 (trailed 28-17 4Q) allowing 403 rush yds (5.8). Coming into 2010, EC has lost 7 str vs non-conf FBS opp's by an avg of 11 ppg.
Nov. 11	at UAB (Thur)	A					The visitor is just 2-7. Last year EC was outgained by almost 200 yds but forced 2 TO's that resulted in 10 pts. Last time here EC went 55/9pl for a TD w/2:20 left for a 17-13 win.
Nov. 20	at Rice	A					LY EC never trailed as they had a 28-10 HT lead. In the only prior trip to Houston ('06), EC lost 18-17 as Rice nailed a 40 yd FG w/:03 left. EC led 17-9 after 3Q's but was outgained 191-0 in the 4Q!
Nov. 26	SMU (Fri)	G					Pirates have won 5 str home finales by 16 ppg. LY EC was bothered by the flu then had a 42 yd FG blocked & ret 63 yds for a TD, allowed a 96 yd TD pass & SMU had a 53 IR TD.

MEMPHIS TIGERS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In 2007, Martin Hankins threw for 3,220 (61%, 25-12). Will Hudgens started 2 throwing for 587 (50%, 5-0). In 2008 I projected Wash St transfer Arkelon Hall (PS#17) to start. When Hall and Hudgens were both injured they took the RS off Maryland transfer Tyler Bass (PS#135). Bass hit 9 of 10 for 107 vs S Miss but was lost for the year. Hall threw for 2,275 (57%, 12-7). Hudgens and Bass combined for 224 yds, 4-2 ratio. Hall struggled in the first 2 of '09 and Bass took over. Bass threw for 673 (65.4%, 6-4) with 180 rush (4.3) but then was lost with an injury. Hudgens took over as the starter and Hall was #2. Hudgens threw for 1,544 (60.6%, 7-6). Hall started the finale in the near upset of Tulsa. This year they lose Hudgens (6 st) and Hall (3 st). Bass had shoulder surgery but should be 100% and will battle Will Gilchrist (6'2" 200 rFr, PS#72), Miami Fl transfer Cannon Smith (PS#64), Andy Summerlin (PS#61JC, IFS, but suffered shoulder inj) and true Ryan Williams (IFS). Smith's father is the CEO of FedEx and a big Memphis booster. I will call for improved numbers, no matter who wins the job.

RUNNING BACKS - DeAngelo Williams left after '05 as the school's all-time leading rusher. Joseph Doss led in rushing in both '06 (910, 4.1) and '07 (806, 4.6). TJ Pitts (PS#108) had 481 (4.5) in '07. In '08 they had to replace Doss and Pitts was inj'd. The star was JUCO Curtis Steele who became Memphis' 4th 1,000 yard rusher gaining 1,223 (5.6) despite missing 1 start. Last year Steele ret'd and rushed for 1,239 (6.3) with 15 TD's despite missing 3 sts. The offense was much more productive when he was healthy. Pitts rushed for 343 (4.1) but also missed 2. They added Wisconsin transfer Lance Smith (impressive in Aug) but he only had 149 (3.2) in 8 gms. This year they lose Steele (9 st) and Pitts (1 st) and Smith looked good in spring until suffering a broken leg (hopes to return in Aug). Not listed below are Ark transfer Darcel Johnson (6'0" 235 Jr), Gregory Ray (5'10" 205 Sr, PS#313JC), Brandon Hayes (5'9" 200 Fr) and Stephen Daniel (5'11" 190 So). HC Larry Porter signed Jerrell Rhodes (PS#102, IFS). No matter who wins the starting job, I cannot see them matching the production of Steele.

RECEIVERS - Over the past few years Memphis has had one of the tallest receiving corps in the NCAA. In '07 Duke Calhoun (6'4") led with 890 (14.4) and (6'8") Carlos Singleton was #2 with 767 (15.0). In '08 Calhoun (torn ACL Jan) saw his numbers drop to 487 (12.2) with just 1 start so Singleton led with 791 (15.2). Last year they had to replace 3 of their top 5 but Calhoun regained his form and led with 923 (13.6). Singleton was the clear-cut #2 with 507 (13.0) while 6'4" Steven Joachim was a distant #4 with 235 (11.2). Unfortunately, this year they must replace 2nd Tm CUSA Calhoun (12 st), Singleton (12 st), Joachim (1 st) and TE DajLeon Farr (5 st, 14 rec). The top returnee is 6'4" Marcus Rucker who had 241 (13.4) as a rFr. They add Miami, Fl transfer Jermaine McKenzie (PS#46). Not only do they have to learn a new system, but this is the least exp'd rec corps they've had in 4 yrs and a shorter one as well.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Tommy West usually had good success even with inexp'd O-lines. In '08 they had 3 st'rs back and the OL paved the way for 195 ypg rush (4.7) with 16 sks allowed. Last year they had to replace 4 st'rs and 3 bkps. Their 28 career starts returning were #111 in FBS. The numbers did not drop as far as you would think and OL coach Rick Mallory called them a physical, tough group. They averaged 158 ypg rush (4.4) with 17 sks (4.2%). New HC Larry Porter inherits a veteran unit with the only losses being G Malcom Rawls (8 gm) and G Paul Edwards (2 gm). All 5 starters return (9 of top 10) and if they adjust to the new schemes quickly, they should be one of the top O-lines in CUSA.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2007 Memphis allowed 5.1 ypc rush, their highest in over 18 years and had just 15 sks. In '08 they had 3 starters back but one lost his spot. Memphis still improved allowing 153 ypg (4.7) with 23 sks. Last year they had to replace 3 starters and it surprised me that Memphis' spring prospectus said the DL would be their most talented and deepest position. They added Tim McGee (PS#66JC), Justin Thompson (PS#139JC) plus had 2 back who had been full-time starters (6 w/starting exp). The unit was hit hard by injuries and they moved in OL Kellen Heard to help. No surprise to me, the rush D weakened allowing 174 ypg (4.4) with just 19 sks. This year they lose DE Greg Terrell (11 st, 29 tkl, 2 sk, Tm Def MVP), DE Jada Brown (7 st, 11 tkl, 1 sk), DE Josh Weaver (5 st, 37 tkl, 4 sk), DT Steven Turner (3 st, 17 tkl, 1 sk) and DT Heard (6 tkl, 1.5 tfl). They should see a bigger impact from McGee and Thompson (combined 1 st, 31 tkl LY) and add 3 yr starting LB Winston Bowens and PS#8 (in '07) D'Angelo McCray. This group has potential (6 with starting exp) as long as they stay healthy.

LINEBACKERS - After having either inexp'd or injury plagued units the previous few years, Memphis appeared to be in great shape last year as they ret'd their #2, #5 and #6 tacklers, added Miss St transfer Jamon Hughes (PS#136, 65 tkl '07) and VHT LSU transfer Derrick Odom (PS#21). Odom played in just 5 (2 tkl, inj). Greg Jackson missed 3 and surprisingly Memphis allowed 7.6 ppg more than '08. This year they lose Greg Jackson (9 st, #4 tkl'r, 6.5 tfl), Jeremy Rockette (4 st, #7 tkl, 2.5 tfl) and Kevin Hubbard (7 tkl). Jeremy Longstreet (9 sts '08) was inj'd (4 st, 18 tkl) and is back to battle Odom at one spot. They return their #1 tkl'r Hughes and should improve upon '09's poor numbers.

MLB Jamon Hughes

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Memphis was #73 in my PDR in '08. Last year they had to replace 2 DB's (combined 19 sts) but had 3 back with 10+ sts in '08 and added Auburn transfer DeRon Furr (PS#30) and Flor St transfer Marcus Ball (PS#9). Ball missed the first 3 (academics) and then did not start the final 3 (inj). CB DA Griffin missed the final 4 and the unit was thin at the end of the year (allowed 413 ypg, 71%, 18-2 the last 4 gms). This year they lose CB Deante Lamar (12 st, 73 tkl, 8 pbu), FS Alton Starr (10 st, 51 tkl, 1 pbu) and Chris Hobbs (3 tkl). Not listed below are Malcolm Jones (6'2" 195 Sr, 24 tkl 3Y), Randy Powell (6'0" 200 rFr), Clay Lee (6'0" 215 Jr), John McArthur (6'0" 195 Sr) and Mitch Huelsing (6'2" 195 So). Seven return with starting exp including 2 VHT's and the Tigers should improve upon their poor #113 PDR of '09.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Tommy West's 9 years, Memphis finished above #69 in my ST rankings just once and that was in 2005 (#12) thanks to K Stephen Gostkowski (#4DC NE). The Tigers were #85 in '08 and had to replace their P and KR and I said they should finish in the same area in '09. The Tigers did just that finishing #85 again. Matt Reagan hit 11-16 FG's (long 48) and also took over the P duties with a nifty 45.5 avg and NCAA top ten 38.8 net (#8). True frosh Marcus Hightower was the top KR (22.3) but Memphis avg just 3.0 on PR's (#119 FBS). True frosh Paulo Henriques (PS#25) had 4 TB on 54 KO. This year they lose Reagan but have everyone else back. It will be interesting to see if they can improve upon last year's bottom third finish.

COACHES - Memphis failed to reach a winning record for 8 consec seasons prior to Tommy West achieving a 9-4 record in '03 (3rd yr). West led UM to bowls in 5 of the last 7 years, but was let go after a 2-10 year in '09. Larry Porter returns to his alma mater as HC after spending the last 5 yrs as asst HC/RB coach at LSU where he was twice named Nat'l Recruiter of the Yr by Rivals. Porter was the RB coach at Okla St under Les Miles from '02-'04. The new OC is Eric Price, who is the son of UTEP HC Mike Price. Price served as the WR coach of the KC Chiefs ('08-'09) and prior to that was the OC at UTEP ('04-'07). The new DC is Jay Hopson, who was Michigan's LB coach the last 2 yrs. Prior to that, Hopson had 2 stints at Southern Miss serving as DC from '05-'07 and DB coach '01-'03.

PHIL'S FORECAST

After finishing 3-9 with -14 turnovers in Tommy West's 2nd year (2002), Memphis was the typical Turnovers=Turnaround team in 2003. They won more than 7 games for the first time since 1973, with their first bowl since 1971. They were a CUSA best +151.3 ypg. In '03 & '04 they had B2B 8+ win seasons including being ranked for the first time ever in the AP poll in '04 (#25). In '06 they had 11 ret starters. I called for them to finish last in the CUSA East on these pages and Memphis did just that (2-10). They went 1-7 in CUSA play (-68.2 ypg, 2nd worst). They had 20 players miss games (inj) and their 10 losses were the most in any season since 1986. That team did have 6 net close losses (pg 299) and was actually 10 plays away from being bowl eligible. In '07 Memphis made my Most Improved List. West said it was mostly a soph/Jr team as they had just 13 seniors. Memphis went 7-6 (6-2 CUSA) but only outgained CUSA foes by 5.8 ypg. In '08 they had 15 ret starters and were now a Jr/Sr team. They lost FIVE gms in which they outgained their opp and then lost their starting QB to injury. They still went 6-6 and were just the 2nd CUSA team to face a BCS conf tm in a bowl and were waxed by USF 41-14. Despite their 4-4 CUSA record and QB injuries, Memphis was +62.5 ypg (2nd best in East). Last year they had just 12 ret starters (2nd fewest CUSA). Memphis played better than the final score indicated vs Ole Miss trailing just 24-14 mid 4Q. Most teams on a short week to open '09 lost as did the Tigers going down to Middle Tenn by 17. RB Steele was inj'd in the 2Q and ret starting QB Hall lost his job. After beating UT Martin, Marshall travelled to Memphis and left with an 11 pt win. Memphis led UCF 14-9 late 3Q but then new QB Tyler Bass was inj'd and Memphis lost by 18. After upsetting UTEP at home, they dropped their final 6 including five by double digits. After a 56-28 loss to Tenn, West was let go. In West's final game at Tulsa, the Golden Hurricane got a TD with :32 left to force OT and won it there for a disappointing 2-10 season. They finished 2nd in the CUSA East in 3 of the last 5 years. After having lost 7 straight to rival SMiss, West was 5-4 vs them. Ex-HC Rip Scherer (fired in 2000) says that the facilities at James Madison (HC from '91-'94 prior to 1st yr at UM) and William & Mary put Memphis' to shame and West (after being let go) talked about the lack of support and facilities. They have just 13 ret st'rs and last year were -75.8 ypg (3rd worst) and -9 in TO's. They draw Tulsa and Houston out of the West and their 4 CUSA HG's are against the top 4 teams in the league meaning most of their winnable games are on the road. Playing 4 of their first 6 on the road does not help. The Tigers could be an underdog in 11 games this year, so it looks like a rebuilding year.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score UM	Opp	W L
Sep. 4	at Mississippi St	G					UM has lost 10 straight vs MSU but the L/gm was in '03. UM had a 568-381 yd & 29-18 FD edge but lost 35-27. This is the 13th time in UM history these 2 tms have met in a ssn opener.
Sep. 11	at East Carolina	G					First time S'95 UM will open a ssn up w/2 AG's. UM has dropped the L/4 vs EC (all by at least 15 pts) being outgained in each by 117 ypg. LY UM had 4 TO's resulting in 21 EC pts.
Sep. 18	Middle Tennessee	A					UM hasn't beat MT S'54. The Tigers have dropped both gms since ('07 & '09) being outgained by no less than 210 yds in each. UM has dropped 3 str home openers.
Sep. 25	at UTEP	A					LY RB Steele had a career high 240 yds (6.2, also career high 39 attempts) helping the Tigers jump out to a 14-3 1Q lead. UM's def also bottled up UTEP RB Buckram, just 58 yds (3.2).
Oct. 2	Tulsa	A					Memphis has dropped all 3 CUSA meetings. In Tommy West's final gm as the UM HC the Tigers lost LY. They led 30-23 but allowed a TD w/:32 left & in OT were int on their 2nd play.
Oct. 9	at Louisville	A					UM is 2-11 S'92 vs UL but have outgained them by 116 ypg in the L/4. In '08 (L/gm) UM had a 182 yd edge (+14 FD's) but allowed a 95 yd KR, 60 yd blk'd FG & a 21 yd FR, all forTD's.
Oct. 16	Southern Miss	A					The home team is 7-3 and UM has outgained SM in 6 of the last 7. Last time here Memphis led 14-0 after 1Q but needed a pair of 4Q TD's to pull the 36-30 upset.
Oct. 23
Oct. 30	Houston	A					Memphis has dropped B2B meetings vs UH including LY when they allowed a ssn high in yds (689). They got behind 35-7 before HT and never were closer than 21 pts after.
Nov. 6	Tennessee	A					New HC Larry Porter was the RB/Asst HC at LSU the L5Y. UM is 1-21 vs UT (only win in '96 w/6 str losses). LY UM trailed Tenn 49-7 early 3Q & they've been outgained by 202 ypg the L/5 gms.
Nov. 13	at Marshall	A					Visitor is 1-4. UM has dropped both gms in Huntington ('06 & '08) but has outgained the Herd in each. Last time here the Tigers had a 1&gl at the 8 but were held to a 4Q FG.
Nov. 20	at UAB	A					Tigers are 4-8 vs the Blazers in the "Battle of the Bones" including a loss LY as they found themselves down 31-7 after 3Q's but scored two 4Q TD's to make it look respectable.
Nov. 27	UCF	A					UM is 1-5 vs UCF with the win coming in the 1st meeting in 1990. Last time here UM had a 305-194 yd edge but lost. UM is 5-1 since 2004 in regular season finales.

PHIL STEELE'S 2010 WAC FORECAST

1. BOISE ST - Boise St figures to open up at #3 in the AP poll and play its toughest 2 games of the season on the road vs Virginia Tech and the #2 team in the WAC, Nevada. They not only have a great shot at getting back to their 3rd BCS bowl game in 5 years, but have a legitimate chance of playing in this year's National Championship game if they overcome those two road tests.

2. NEVADA - The Wolf Pack outgained WAC foes by +165.6 ypg which was even a better mark than Boise St did last year and this year they get the Broncos home on a Friday night at the end of the year. They have 3 tough road games in the WAC including a trip to Fresno St but have 15 returning starters and could surprise everyone by winning the WAC which most will concede to Boise St.

2. FRESNO ST - Last year Fresno St went on the road vs Wisconsin and Cincinnati and basically outplayed both showing they can play with anyone, anywhere. While I think it will be tough for them to win on the blue turf at Boise St, they get the key game vs Nevada at home and could easily finish higher in the WAC standings. Fresno has not finished above 3rd in the WAC since 2003 and has yet to win an outright WAC title. They are back in their preferred role of hunter and don't discount the possibility of Fresno St shocking everyone and taking the conference.

4. LOUISIANA TECH - Usually when a team has a new HC and some drastically different schemes, I usually look for a rebuilding year. Sonny Dykes steps into a great situation, however, as they have a lot of returning talent and some VHT transfers boosting their skill positions. Last year's LT squad was much better than their 4-8 record as their +27.9 conf ypg was the 4th best mark in the league. LT makes my list of Most Improved Teams which means of course I believe they'll have a winning year.

5. HAWAI'I - UH opened last season just 2-6 but won 4 in a row and almost made it to their 4th straight bowl. Last year's squad had just 1 returning starter on defense and this year they have 7. My biggest concern is their O-line which has just 1 starter back but this is an improved Hawai'i squad and one capable of getting to the plus side of the ledger.

5. UTAH ST - I probably would have picked the Aggies higher had RB Robert Turbin not torn his ACL in Feb. He is now ? for the fall and may even RS. Previous HC Brent Guy left Utah St in much better shape than he inherited it and HC Gary Andersen is now in his 2nd year and loses just 15 lettermen with 16 starters back. The Aggies have a shot at bowl eligibility.

7. IDAHO - I don't think anyone forecasted Idaho to get to a bowl last year and generally I'm right on top of those things. Idaho had a 1-15 record in the WAC the previous 2 years but went 4-4. This year's Idaho squad could even be stronger. In fact, they have just 11 lettermen lost which is the 2nd fewest in the league and benefited from extra bowl practices. Unfortunately, the schedule is tougher this year as they have very tough HG's vs Boise St and Nevada and most of their winnable games are on the road. Eight wins was a great story last year and I enjoyed every one of them but I think it will be difficult to get back to the post season this year.

8. NEW MEXICO ST - Last year I pegged New Mexico St for last in the WAC and they finished in the basement (tied with SJSt). NMSt was -10 in turnovers and was a very inexperienced squad with only 8 returning starters. Now in HC DeWayne Walker's 2nd year they have 15 returning starters and figure to be much stronger on both offense and defense. They have a lot of ground to make up as they were -230.3 ypg in WAC play but I think they will be improved enough to escape the cellar.

New Mexico St
CB Davon House

9. SAN JOSE ST - Dick Tomey's final year as head coach did not go as planned as SJSt was -139.9 ypg in WAC play and finished in a tie for the basement. While 15 starters return for new HC Mike MacIntyre, a lot of them are shifting positions so they are not as experienced as you would think. With the changes in schemes and personnel moves, plus the fact they play New Mexico St, Hawai'i and Idaho all on the road, I will call for the Spartans to have a 2nd straight finish in the basement of the WAC.

WAC Notes: The WAC had the highest rated non-BCS team at the end of the season in 2 of the last 4 years and has THREE BCS bowl berths in that span. In '06 I had Boise as my top non-BCS team on page 22 and they delivered knocking off Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl. They finished #5 despite not being ranked by the AP in the preseason (they made mine). In '07 I called for Hawaii to go to the Sugar Bowl and they did just that after going 13-0. I had Utah as my top non-BCS team in '08 but Boise was back at the top last year and they did not disappoint finishing #4 after knocking off undefeated TCU in the Fiesta bowl. This year Boise will be the highest rated preseason team ever for the WAC. Boise St is an amazing 61-2 in the WAC over the last 8 years. In 2005 the WAC added 3 Sun Belt teams and it greatly improved each of the previous WAC members records as the Sun Belt transfers went just 6-66 vs the established WAC teams. A surprising stat to me is that Fresno coach Pat Hill does not have any outright WAC titles with zero first place finishes this past decade. It also surprised me in '08 that Fresno was the media preseason favorite as I had Boise St but last year Boise was everyone's choice and will be again this year. The WAC earned 4 bowl berths in '07, 5 in '08 and 4 last year and is 4-9 in those but was 2-2 in '09. The WAC went 5-12 vs BCS conferences in '08 and the 3-11 (21.4%) record was the 2nd best non-BCS conference mark in '09. They were 18-11 vs non-BCS/non-conf teams and had 5 players selected in the draft. The WAC will most certainly be decided in a 3 week period as Fresno plays Nevada and Boise in B2B weeks on Nov 13th and Nov 19th while Nevada hosts Boise on Nov 26th.

BOISE ST BRONCOS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Boise has had some fine QB's that excelled in their system in recent years with Bart Hendricks being the Big West Off MVP twice ('99 & '00) and Ryan Dinwiddie becoming the career leading passer (9,819) from '00-'03. Dinwiddie broke Danny Wuerffel's NCAA record for career pass eff (168.9). In 2006 Jared Zabransky (3 yr st'r) threw for 2,587 (66%, 23-8). Four QB's battled for the job in 2007 but Taylor Tharp won and had a fine season in his only year as a starter throwing for 3,340 (68%, 30-11). Michael Coughlin was 2nd string in '07. Bush Hamdan (16 car att) was the most exp'd of the 4 QB's battling in '08 and that included VHT rFr Kellen Moore (PS#24). Hamdan led out of the spring but I projected Moore as the starting QB and he narrowly won the job in Aug. Moore was the first frosh to start the season opener for Boise at QB and showed how much success a VHT could have in this system. He threw for 3,486 hitting a super 69% with a 25-10 ratio. Moore had a sensational 2009 season finishing #2 in the FBS in pass eff (161.5) throwing for 3,536 (64.3%) with an amazing 39-3 ratio. Coughlin played in 8 (12-19-50). Joe Southwick (6'1" 195 rFr, PS#41) was #3 and Mike Tamburo (5"11" 192 rFr, PS#77) ran the scout team until tearing an ACL. Moore is one of the best QB's in the country but it will be tough to top last year's stats.

QB Kellen Moore

RUNNING BACKS - Ian Johnson wrapped up his 4 year career in '08 as the school's #2 career rusher. He became the first Boise RB to have B2B 1,000 yard seasons ('06-'07) since '01-'02 but in his senior year, had just 766 (5.1) and was only 2nd Tm WAC. Spelling Johnson were Jeremy Avery (614, 5.5) and DJ Harper (265, 4.8). Harper (4.43 spd) stepped to the forefront last year and led with 284 (6.5) after just 3 but tore his ACL. Doug Martin, who had 107 (4.5) in '08 and moved to DB, was moved back to RB to split duties with Avery. Avery led with 1,151 (5.5) and Martin added 765 (5.9). RFr Matt Kaiserman (6'0" 185 So) played in just 4 (150, 4.5). This year they return 100% of their rushing yardage and not listed below are Raphiel Lambert (5'7" 202 So, PS#76), Malcolm Johnson (5'10" 188 rFr, PS#91), Jarvis Hodge (5'9" 205 Sr, 102, 4.9), Carlo Audagnotti (5'7" 168 So), Drew Wright (5'9" 200 So) and FB's Jake Hess (5'10" 227 So, PS#220), Dave Wilson (6'1" 231 Jr) and Joey Paul (6'0" 226 rFr). They do lose FB Richie Brockel (4 st). This deep unit should be one of the top RB corps in the country.

RECEIVERS - VHT Jeremy Childs (PS#39) set a school record with 82 grabs (12.7) in '07. True frosh Titus Young (PS#152) and Austin Pettis (PS#127) finished #2 and #3 with 639 (14.5) and 465 (10.1), respectively. All 3 ret'd in '08 but Young played in just 3 (susp) and had 168 (16.8). Jeremy Childs and Vinny Perretta combined for 1,380 (12.8) and 9 TD's. Last year they had to replace 3 of their top 4 rec's with the top returnee being Pettis (567, 11.6). Pettis had 855 (13.6) but fractured his leg and missed 1. Young led with 1,041 (13.2) and TE Kyle Efaw was #3 with 444 (14.3). Tyler Shoemaker (missed 2) had 345 (16.4). Not in the PSL are Geraldo Hiwat (6'4" 197 rFr), Derek Hill (5'11" 158 rFr), Tyler Jackson (6'0" 198 So, PS#87), Aaron Burks (6'2" 189 rFr) and TE's Chandler Koch (6'2" 242 So, PS#54), Sean King (6'3" 244 Sr) and Gabe Linehan (6'3" 229 rFr, PS#44). This year the unit returns intact and should remain healthier.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '06 with 3 st'rs back (lost #2DC) this unit paved the way for 5.1 ypc, their best IA ypc ever. The '07 unit featured their most exp'd line this decade (4 st'rs ret) and they allowed just 4.1% sks. Boise's ypg rush did drop to 185 (4.6). In '08 they had their least exp'd O-line of the decade as 5 of the top 6 were gone (lost 101 car sts). Their one returnee was 1st Tm WAC LT Andrew Woodruff. They used 9 different OL combos and as expected, the numbers dropped again to 152 ypg (4.4) with 13 sks (3.0%). Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs and had 40 career sts ret (#101 FBS). The more exp'd unit improved to 186 ypg (5.1) and allowed a paltry 5 sks (1.1%, #1 NCAA). This year they lose RG Kevin Sapien (12 st, 2 yr st'r) but return 1st Tm WAC LG Nate Potter. Their 88 career sts (9 w/st exp) ranks #28 in the FBS although Cory Yriarte (2 st '08) is not expected to play TY (2nd ACL tear). Not in the PSL are Matt Paradis (6'1" 269 rFr) and Jake Broyles (6'4" 268 rFr, PS#210). Boise has a Top 20 O-line (see pg 13).

DEFENSIVE LINE - Boise had 7 of their top 8 DL's back for the 2nd straight year in '06 and allowed just 89 ypg rush (3.2), their best since joining IA. They had to replace 2 st'rs and 3 bkps in '07 and slipped to 131 ypg (3.8), their most since 2000. They had to replace 2 st'rs (1 bkp) in '08 and improved to 118 (3.2) and DE Ryan Winterswyk earned 1st Tm WAC. Last year they had to replace 4 DL (comb 34 sts) but returned Winterswyk. The numbers slipped but only to 120 ypg (3.8) while the sks dropped (34 to 26). This year they have their most exp'd front in a long time as the entire 2 deep returns and they add PS#39JC Tyrone Crawford. Not in the PSL are Ricky Tjong-A-Tjoe (6'3" 301 rFr), Greg Grimes (6'0" 273 So, PS#149) and Justin Jungblut (6'4" 255 rFr, PS#164). Winterswyk was 1st Tm WAC again (9 sk) and DT Billy Winn earned 2nd Tm WAC and Boise could top 2006's dominant rush D totals.

LINEBACKERS - In '08 Boise ret'd all 3 st'rs who were then their #1, #3 and #4 tkl'rs and all veteran seniors. One of the 3 lost his job. Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs (#3, #7 tkl'rs). The one returnee, Derrell Acrey, lost his job. PS#99JC Daron Mackey won a starting spot but was lost to an ACL after 8 sts and Acrey started 4. This year the entire 2 deep returns (8 w/st exp) with 4 having been full-time starters including 2nd Tm WAC Winston Venable. Last year they incorporated the NB into the D, which I include with the LB's. They add in PS#30 Byron Hout, who moves back from DE. Adding depth are Allen Mooney (5'10" 219 rFr, PS#107), Dustin Kamper (6'0" 219 rFr), Tommy Smith (6'1" 227 So), Billy Derome (5'11" 191 rFr) and John Michael Davis (6'0" 210 rFr).

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Boise always finishes strong in my pass D rankings. In fact, over the last 8 years ('02-'09) they have been #8, #6, #15, #52, #15, #20, #4 and #11. Last year they had all 4 st's back including CB Kyle Wilson (2nd Tm AA). This year they only lose Wilson (13 st, 43 tkl, 3 int, 4 pbu, #1DC NYJ) and Garcia Day (3 tkl). Not in the PSL is Quaylon Ewing (6'0" 183 rFr, PS#313). They return 5 with starting exp including 2-time 2nd Tm WAC SS Jeron Johnson (#1 tkl'r). Despite the loss of their top guy this unit could be just as strong.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Boise has always had a top-notch ST unit and from '99-'08 they finished #32, #23, #28, #28, #2, #4, #19, #59, #10 and #2. All of their key players were back last year and I had them rated as the number #1 ST unit in the country in the preseason and they did not disappointment me, finishing in my #1 spot. Kyle Brotzman has had exceptional nets in each of the last 2 years (39.6, '08 & 38.3, '09) and hit 18-25 FG's (long 52) LY but had just 7 TB on 97 KO (Trevor Harman may take over KO's). Kyle Wilson saw his PR avg drop from 14.2 in '08 to 10.4 in '09 and rFr Chris Potter avg 12.9. Titus Young led in KR with a super 26.9 (2 TD's). While they lose Wilson, Brotzman is back and this is one of the top ST units in the country once again.

COACHES - When Dirk Koetter left for Ariz St (after '00), asst Dan Hawkins took over as HC and went 53-11, achieving the school's then-highest finish ever in the AP poll in 3 consec years including #12 in '04. When Hawkins left for Colorado in '06, Chris Petersen (OC prev 5Y) took over. Petersen was a Broyles finalist (top asst) twice and his offenses, in a 3 year stretch from 2002-'04, avg'd 45.8 ppg. In his first year as HC Petersen achieved a 13-0 record and #5 finish. He has a remarkable record of 49-4 with 3 undefeated regular seasons in his 4 years! Last year Petersen's Broncos finished 14-0 (#4), and he became the first coach ever to win the Paul "Bear" Bryant COY Award twice. Petersen has turned down numerous offers from other schools. He will remain at Boise and signed a 5 year extension in Jan. His OC is Bryan Harsin, who is in his 10th season on the Bronco staff (grad asst '01, TE from '02-'05) and played here from '95-'99. DC Justin Wilcox left to become the DC at Tennessee and Petersen elevated DL coach Pete Kwiatkowski to DC for 2010.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Boise St dominated the WAC from 2002-'04 with a perfect 24-0 record in league play (+208.4, +176.4 and +191.3 ypg). In '05, Boise had the fewest lettermen lost in the league (13). For the first time Boise was ranked in the preseason coaches' poll (#18). Not bad for a school that was in just its 10th year of IA ball. They had their streak of 31 straight WAC wins end at Fresno (27-7) and saw their home win streak end at 31 in their loss to BC in the bowl. Their 4 losses (3 vs rank tms) were the most in 5 years. Boise still became the first team since BYU (1989-'93) to win 4 straight WAC Titles. Boise was +70.1 ypg vs WAC (3rd best). I pointed out that the last time they were -8 in turnovers, they rebounded with a 12-1 record (2002). In 2006's magazine I projected Boise St to earn a BCS bowl berth. I had to sweat out a couple close games (WY and SJSt) but Boise ran the table and then beat Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl. They finished #5 in the AP (5th straight WAC Title). In '07 they had to replace their QB and had just 5 ret off starters. Boise came into '07 ranked #24 but a loss to Wash moved their record to 0-13 on the road vs BCS schools and stopped their win streak at 14. In the battle for the WAC Title they lost to UH on the road by 12 and then dropped their bowl (also in Hawaii) to EC by 3. They were without RB Johnson (inj'd after 4 att) and top WR Childs (susp). Boise outgained WAC foes by 136.4 ypg. In '08 I was surprised Boise was picked 2nd in the WAC by the media (behind Fresno) as I had Boise my clear #1. They received a brand new blue surface on their field. They rolled to a dominating 12-0 season and ended their streak of road losses to BCS schools by upsetting #17 Oregon 37-32. At that point, they finally entered the polls at #17. Their only close game was Nevada, a 7 point win but they did lead 24-3. They made a point in the finale to wax Fresno 61-10. Boise outgained WAC foes by 188.3 ypg (better than their 13-0 team in '06) winning by an avg of 43-12. They did lose their bowl to TCU by 1. Last year I listed Boise as the #1 non-BCS team despite having to replace their top RB and WR and they did not disappoint me. Boise crushed Rose Bowl bound Oregon in the opening game, not allowing a FD until 7:07 was left in the 3Q. They did have a couple of close games but went undefeated and landed another Fiesta Bowl bid vs #3 TCU. After being outgained by TCU 472-250 in '08 they were the stronger team this time and won 17-10 and finished #4, their highest finish ever. Boise has now made 8 straight bowl appearances. Last year's squad had just 11 returning st'rs and this year 20 of 22 return. They were +144 ypg in the WAC (#2). They had only 8 sts lost to injury LY and were +21 in TO's. Boise figures to be AP Preseason #3, has not lost a reg season HG since 2001 and is now 68-4 in WAC play (62-2 since '02). Last year's squad had the fewest scholarship seniors in the country (4) with the next fewest being 9. If Boise beats Virginia Tech in the opener, they will be a National Title contender.

Phil's Homefield Edge-6.0 2010 Schedule Difficulty-#87 Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score BSU	Opp	W L
Sep. 6	† Virginia Tech (Landover) (Mon)	G					Played at FedEx Field home of the Redskins. First meeting. The Broncos have beaten 4 of their last 5 BCS opp's including 2 wins the last 2 years (both over Oregon).
Sep. 11							BONUS: Coming into 2010, BSU is an amazing 36-0 in WAC home games!
Sep. 18	at Wyoming	A					BSU is 4-0 vs WY (1st gm in '02) but the L/2 have been close as BSU was actually outgained in '06 & in the last matchup ('07) led just 7-0 at HT & finished w/only a +41 yd edge (FD's even).
Sep. 25	Oregon St	A					BSU is 2-4 vs OSU but the home team has gone 5-1. The Broncos won the L/gm ('06) 42-14 w/a 407-263 yd edge. Boise St is 11-1 in home openers incl 8 str wins (4 vs FBS tms).
Oct. 2	at New Mexico St	G					The L3Y BSU has outscored NMSt 149-7 (2 shutouts) & outgained them on avg 548-143. LY BSU led 42-0 after 3Q's & the only NMSt score came after a Broncos fumble on their own 17.
Oct. 9	Toledo	A					First meeting. Into 2010, BSU has won 20 straight non-conf gms on the blue. BSU is 7-3 vs current MAC teams and in the last 10 years they've won all 6 meetings by 30 ppg.
Oct. 16	at San Jose St	A					The Broncos have won all 10 vs the Spartans with an avg score of 45-16. LY BSU and SJSt were tied mid-2Q 7-7 but Boise ended the gm on a 38-0 run holding SJSt to just 87 yds.
Oct. 26	Louisiana Tech (Tues)	A					Last year Boise St was up 27-7 at HT w/a 235-82 yd edge but allowed LT to get within 2 (30-28) early 4Q. Eight straight series wins & the four at home have been by 36 ppg.
Oct. 30
Nov. 6	Hawaii	A					BSU is 8-1 vs UH & have never dropped a home contest to the Warriors. L2Y BSU has handcuffed the UH offense holding them to 18 pts & 58 yds below their avg in '08 & 14 pts & 131 yds LY.
Nov. 12	at Idaho (Fri)	A					Since 2001 these instate schools have played for the Governor's Trophy and the Broncos have never given it up (9-0). Boise has dominated the last 6 years winning by 38 ppg.
Nov. 19	Fresno St (Fri)	A					Boise St is 8-1 vs Fresno St in WAC meetings & at home has gone 4-0 w/the avg MOV by 35 ppg outgaining the Bulldogs in each by at least 200+ yds (avg +235 ypg).
Nov. 26	at Nevada (Fri)	A					Broncos have outgained the Wolf Pack by an avg of 239 ypg their L/4 visits to Reno. LY they met for the "WAC championship" & QB Moore tied a career high w/5 TD passes.
Dec. 4	Utah St	A					In WAC meetings (BSU 5-0), the Broncos have scored no less than 45 pts in any gm & outgained the Aggies by 254 ypg the L4. LY's gm was tied at 14 before BSU scored 28 unanswered.

NEVADA WOLF PACK

QUARTERBACKS - In '07 UN lost starting QB Nick Graziano vs Fresno and the Colin Kaepernick era began. UN was a huge underdog at Boise but in his 1st start, Kaepernick passed for 243 (rush 177) in a 4OT, 2 pt loss. For the season he threw for 2,175 (54%) with an amazing 19-3 ratio (593 rush, 5.6) and was the WAC FPOY. In '08 Kaepernick threw for 2,849 (54%, 22-7) while adding 1,130 rush (7.0). He became just the 5th player in NCAA history to have 2,000 passing and 1,000 rushing in a season and was the WAC OPOY. Graziano hit 15 of 32 for 145 and opted to transfer to Ark Tech. Kaepernick improved his 40 time to 4.58, his bench to 280 and his VL to 33" and had another fantastic season in '09 rushing for 1,183 (7.3) with 16 TD's while throwing for 2,052 (58.9%, 20-6) becoming the FIRST player to ever have B2B 2,000/1,000 yd seasons (Brad Smith, Missouri only other player twice, '02 & '05). Tyler Lantrip played in 7 (3-9 for 31 yds, 8 rush att). Adding depth are Mason Magleby (6'2" 195 rFr, PS#280) and David Fisher (6'1" 205 rFr, PS#281). Transfer Corbin Louks, who played QB at Utah, will be a DB. It will be tough for Kaepernick to improve his stats but if he stays healthy, he will be one of the NCAA's most dangerous offensive players. He needs just 94 rush yards to become the 2nd QB in WAC history to have 3,000 rush/3,000 pass in his career (Beau Morgan, AF '94-'96).

RUNNING BACKS - It's not too hard for HC Ault to recruit RB's for Nevada. In 2005 BJ Mitchell led the WAC in rushing with 1,399 (5.4). In '07 Luke Lippincott led the WAC with 1,420 (5.3). Lippincott was lost in Wk 2 of '08 and Vai Taua led the WAC with 1,521 (6.4). Last year Lippincott was granted a 6th year. He and Taua both topped 1,000. Taua finished with 1,345 (7.8!) but as UN's top RB was "just" #2 in the WAC. Lippincott finished with 1,034 (7.7!) as UN finished as the NCAA's #1 rush attack despite both RB's missing the bowl. Their fastest RB, Lampford Mark (6'1" 200 Jr), had 182 (4.2) in '08 and 376 (6.4) last year. Mike Ball (PS#90) was impressive as a rFr with 184 (12.3) and 5 TD's vs UNLV but surprisingly had just 36 (5.1) the rest of the year. Courtney Randall (5'10" 215 Sr) had 435 (4.6) from '07-'08 and in '09 added 154 (7.0). Not listed in the PSL are Stefphon Jefferson (5'11" 190 rFr) and Cameron Loeffler (6'0" 195 rFr). This year they lose Lippincott as well as Brandon Fragger who had 800 (4.3) in 3 yrs. The Wolf Pack should have a RB lead the WAC in rushing this year but as a group they are not quite as deep.

RECEIVERS - After having a depth-shy receiving corps in '05, Ault recruited heavily for speed in '06. Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs including their #1 rec, Marko Mitchell (1141, 18.7). With a heavier reliance on the rush attack, the passing numbers were down. They expected rFr Brandon Wimberly (GS at Oregon St), who was the Scout Tm POY here in '08, to have a big impact. He was banged up in August and didn't start the opener but led with 733 (13.8). Tray Session was #2 with just 368 (12.3) and Chris Wellington (PS#133) who had 632 (15.0) in '08, only had 327 (13.6). They talked about possibly using 5 TE's but Virgil Green was clearly the best and had 260 (11.3) and won one of the team's rare Striker Awards (for dominating play). This year they lose 2 TE's and a WR (comb 4 st, 8 rec) and not listed below is Joseph Huber (6'0" 180 rFr). This group is more exp'd and after a down year production-wise, should have better numbers in 2010.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 Nevada had 4 st'rs back and paved the way for a school record 278 ypg rush (6.1) while allowing just 19 sks. Last year they had to replace a 1st Tm WAC C and 4 bkps (comb 14 sts). They did return a pair of 2nd Tm WAC OT's in Alonzo Durham and Mike Gallett. Gallett was susp'd after 5 sts. The unit still managed to pave the way for an amazing 345 ypg rush and 7.4 ypc while allowing just 12 sks (4.1%). This year they lose 2nd Tm WAC C Kenneth Ackerman (13 st, 2Y st'r), 1st Tm WAC WT Durham (12 st, 3Y st'r) and Gallett. They return just 46 career sts and while "The Union" will be one of the WAC's top O-lines, they will be down a notch from '09.

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Wolf Pack basically had just 1 starter back in '07 and switched to a 4-3 at midseason. They allowed 174 ypg rush (4.4). In '08 they had to replace 1.5 st'rs (2nd Tm WAC DE) but made tremendous improvements finishing #6 in the FBS in rush D allowing just 89 ypg (3.1) with 36 sks. Last year they were the only team in the country to return 2 DL who recorded double digit sack totals in '08 in DE's Dontay Moch (11.5) and Kevin Basped (10). They only had to replace 1 starter. Basped was banged up (miss 1) but still had 9.5 sks. Surprisingly the rush D slipped a little to 112 ypg (3.6) with 31 sks. This year they lose 2nd Tm WAC Basped (10 st, 32 tkl), DT Nate Agaiava (12 st, 27 tkl, 2 sk) and DT Chris Slack (7 tkl). Moch, despite having his sks drop to 6.5, had 13.5 tfl and was the WAC DPOY. They add 4 JUCO's and even with the loss of Basped, they should be close to 2009's level.

DE Dontay Moch

LINEBACKERS - In 2008 with a 3-man LB corps, no LB managed to start all 13 due to inj's. Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs (#3 and #8 tkl'rs). The 3 st'rs were #6, #11 and #13 in tkl's in '08 and all 3 started all 13 in '09 as the Wolf Pack improved to allowing 28.5 ppg on D. This year they lose MLB Mike Bethea (13 st, #2 tkl'r, 5.5 tfl), Jared Silva-Purcell (12 tkl) and Andre Davis (6 tkl) but return their #3 and #6 tacklers. James-Michael Johnson earned 2nd Tm WAC and this is a more experienced group with good size.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Nevada has an excellent run D but their pass D has struggled and in 2008 they yielded 312 ypg (54%) with a 31-16 ratio to finish #62 in my PDR. They did face one of the toughest slates of opposing QB's in the pass-happy WAC as well as Graham Harrell and Chase Daniel. Last year they only had to replace 1 st'r but allowed 298 ypg, 61.5% with a 33-8 ratio. This year they lose 2nd Tm WAC FS Jonathon Amaya (12 st, 89 tkl, 1 int, 9 pbu), SS Mo Harvey (12 st, 61 tkl, 1 int, 2 pbu), CB Antoine Thompson (8 st, 22 tkl, 3 pbu) and DB Cameron Bayne (4 tkl). They also add rFr Chris Metcalf (PS#35). Corbin Louks (PS#139QB) who played QB on Utah's undefeated team of '08 (218 rush yds, 104 pass, 4.42 spd) and 2 JUCO's. They can only improve upon '09's #117 PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Ault has not had great success with the ST units since his return. In his first 5 yrs back they finished just #96, #99, #71, #99 and #112 in my ST rankings. In '08 their P was #3 in the WAC but their net punting was just #6 forcing them to go into a new punt formation LY. Brad Langley, who avg 44.0 (34.5 tm net in '08) missed the spring but punted all year and avg 41.1 (37.4 net). The big improvement came at K as Ricky Drake has a booming leg on KO. Drake recorded 20 TB and UN improved their KR D from 26.1 to 21.3. While not called on often for FG's, Drake hit 6 of 9 but surprisingly with a long of just 40. Vai Taua started as the PR but lost his spot after a pair of fumbles (tm 3.1). RFr Mike Ball (PS#90) was explosive on KR (24.8). The Wolf Pack moved up to #49. This year all of the key players are back and with improved PR and a healthier P, should have their best finish in recent seasons.

COACHES - Chris Ault led Nevada to 7 conf titles and a 163-63-1 record from 1976-'92 and '94-'95 and is in the College Football Hall of Fame! He was the AD here from 1986-'03 and fired Chris Tormey despite him having an improving record each year. Ault took over as HC in '04 for his 3rd tenure here and vacated his AD duties. He has guided UN to 5 bowls in the 6 years of his latest stint. DC Nigel Burton left to become the HC of Portland St and 6 year OC Chris Klenakis left for Arkansas. They have a run game coor in Cameron Norcross and Ault will coor the passing game. The new DC is Andy Buh who was the LB coach and co-DC at Stanford the L/3Y.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Chris Tormey got the team pointed in the right direction with win totals of 2, 3, 5 and 6 but was let go after the 2003 season. When Chris Ault took over in 2004, 13 players left the team over the summer and he had just 70 on scholarship. They benefitted from playing a soft schedule (#105) and went 5-1 at home (42-27 avg win). On the road they were 0-6 (42-18 avg loss). In '05, Nevada had a dream season getting its first winning season since 1998. Seventy-two of their 73 players attended summer workouts and Ault commented they were bigger, stronger and faster. They ended a 5 game losing streak to rival UNLV and won their final five, including victories over #16 Fresno and an OT win vs UCF in the bowl. Nevada finished 9-3 and received votes in the AP poll. They were 7-1 and WAC co-Champs but just +59.6 ypg (4th best). In '06 they had 13 st'rs back. After opening 0-2, they won 8 out of 9 to stand at 8-3 before a 10 game home winning streak was snapped by Boise, 38-7. They went 5-3 in WAC play, (+41.7 ypg, 3rd best). They came up 1 point short against Miami in the bowl despite a 23-13 FD edge. The defense allowed just 19.2 ppg which was the best since 1991 (in IAA). Nevada did benefit from +12 TO's. In 2007 UN had a showdown vs LT for a bowl spot and destroyed the Bulldogs 49-10. It was a strange season as they almost beat the 2 top teams in the WAC (Boise and Hawaii) losing to both by 2 but also almost lost to the worst teams (NMSt and Utah St). In the bowl they shockingly had the NCAA's longest streak without being shutout (329 games, 1980) end vs New Mexico, 23-0 and finished 6-7. UN was 4-4 in the WAC but was +123.5 ypg which almost topped Boise. In '08 they were picked for 3rd in the WAC (cch & media). Nevada was +120.5 ypg (2nd best WAC) but thanks in part to 2 IR TD's lost to Boise St by 7. They also lost at Hawaii despite a 481-331 yard edge and were upset at home by NMSt 48-45 despite being favored by almost 3 TD's. Ault said they would not accept a bowl bid unless they beat LT in the finale and they trailed 31-14 with 4:00 left in the 3Q but rallied for the win to make it to a school record 4th straight bowl. They lost to Maryland by 7 in the Humanitarian Bowl. I pointed out there were some good signs in Nevada's favor last year as they had 3 net close losses in '08, had a defensive ypp of 12.4 (pg 299), had 39 sts lost to injury (15th most FBS) and had 13 ret st'rs. They shockingly started out the year 0-3 including a shutout loss to ND but would win their next 8. At 8-3 they were playing for the outright WAC Title and trailed Boise 20-0 and lost 44-33. Nevada became the first offense in NCAA history to have three 1,000 yard rushers but unfortunately played the bowl without 2 of them (Lippincott and Taua) and were thrashed by SMU 45-10. In their 5 losses, UN avg just 183.8 ypg rush and in their 8 wins avg 445.6. UN does have 15 ret st'rs and last year their +165.6 ypg was BEST in the WAC. They get the WAC's biggest game (Boise St) at home on a Friday night making them a prime contender for the WAC Title. They will top last year's 8 win total.

NEVADA WOLF PACK

Reno, Nevada
Weather (775) 673-8130

Phil's Homefield Edge-4.25 2010 Schedule Difficulty-#91
Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score UN	Opp	W/L
Sep. 2	E Washington (Thur)	A					UN is 7-1 vs EW as they played from '84-'91 in the Big Sky Conf. Eagles went 8-4 LY incl a 59-7 loss to Cal making it to the FCS playoffs. UN is 7-2 in home openers (2 L's vs BCS tms).
Sep. 11	Colorado St	A					Nevada is just 1-9 vs Col St but did win 28-10, in the Rams last visit to Reno ('06). Last year UN trailed 14-0 at HT & 35-6 in the 4Q and gained 220 of 420 yds in the 4Q.
Sep. 17	California (Fri)	A					UN is 1-22-1 vs Cal (only win in 1903) but the only recent meeting was in '96 (misleading final) as UN lost 33-15 despite a 520-381 yd edge (-2 in TO's). UN's lost 7 str vs BCS tms by 22 ppg.
Sep. 25	at BYU	G					UN is 1-4-2 all-time vs BYU but won the L/meeting in '02, 31-28. The Wolf Pack has lost 14 str road openers & they are 2-10 away vs non-conf opp losing by 26 ppg (2 wins vs UNLV).
Oct. 2	at UNLV	A					UN has rushed for 1,003 yds (8.9) the L2Y vs rival UNLV. LY both tms had to be restrained by coaches after jawing at each other in warmups, they combined for 24 pen (-256 yds).
Oct. 9	San Jose St	A					LY vs SJSt, Nevada tied a NCAA record with 4 players topping 100+ rush yds (Neb in '01). Nevada is 7-1 vs SJSt and in the 7 wins they've avg'd 42 ppg and 505 ypg.
Oct. 16	at Hawaii	A					The visitor is just 1-10 since 1968 in this series as Nevada hasn't won on the island since 1948! UN fell behind 14-0 LY vs UH but scored 28 unanswered to put the gm away.
Oct. 23
Oct. 30	Utah St	A					Nevada's 3 WAC wins over Utah St in Logan have been by 4 ppg but the 2 wins in Reno have been by 35 ppg. LY UN battled back from a 21-7 deficit for the 35-32 victory.
Nov. 6	at Idaho	A					Nevada has won its last 3 trips to the Kibbie Dome handily, outgaining UI by 250 ypg with 35, 38 & 35 point wins. UN only led 28-24 at HT LY but scored 42 2H points.
Nov. 13	at Fresno St	G					UN has won 2 str vs FSU & the last time they won 3 in a row in this series was from 1945-'49. The Wolf Pack has outgained the Bulldogs the L3Y by an avg of 603-472.
Nov. 20	New Mexico St	A					The home team is just 1-7. UN has outrushed NMSt on avg 339-84 (7.0-3.0) last 5 meetings. UN was upset as a large fav in 2 of 3 at home by identical 48-45 scores.
Nov. 26	Boise St (Fri)	A					Wolf Pack have dropped 10 str to the Broncos (avg loss by 34 ppg) as the D has all'd at least 38 pts in each gm. UN trailed 27-3 late 2Q LY and their comeback was too little too late.
Dec. 4	at Louisiana Tech	A					Nevada has won 5 straight vs LT outgaining them in every gm the last 5 yrs (+206 ypg). Last time here the winner went to a bowl and UN erased a 31-14 late 3Q deficit.

FRESNO ST BULLDOGS

QUARTERBACKS - Tom Brandstater is 6'5" 220 with a cannon for an arm, a quick release and nimble feet but never quite had the season expected of a 3 year starter. In '08 he threw for 2,664 (60%, 18-12). Ryan Colburn played in 4 (5 att) as a rFr in '07. In '08 he surprisingly DNP. Last year Brandstater departed (#6DC DEN) and they talked about bringing in more of the pistol offense which would have favored the mobile rFr Ebahn Feathers (PS#71). Coming out of spring it was a battle for the job between Colburn and true frosh Derek Carr (PS#56) with HC Pat Hill having some designed plays for Feathers. Last year I pointed out that despite the loss of a 3 year starter the drop off probably would not be as much as expected. In fact Colburn, who started all 13 despite a heated battle with Carr in Aug, had similar stats throwing for 2,459 (60.7%, 19-11). Carr appeared in 5 (10-14-112). Feathers played in 7 (3 pass att, 11 rush att) and transferred. This is a much more exp'd unit than '09's and they will likely RS Carr if he does not start with the newcomers battling for the backup role.

RUNNING BACKS - Fresno had a streak of 6 straight 1,000 yard rushers end in '07 with an inexp'd group. Ryan Mathews led with 866 (6.0), Clifton Smith (PS#42) had 625 (6.3) and Lonyae Miller had 609 (4.6). In '08 the top 3 combined for 2,240 (5.9) in Anthony Harding (822, 5.6), Miller (812, 6.8) and Mathews (606, 5.4). Everyone ret'd last year and Mathews dropped his 40 time from 4.6 in '08 to 4.42. Mathews led the NCAA in rushing ypg despite missing 1 with injury. He had 144 in the bowl which tied him for a WAC record eleven 100 yd games (LaDainian Tomlinson, TCU). Mathews finished with 19 TD's and a school record 1,808 (6.6) topping Rodney Davis (1,586 in '02). Miller had 354 (5.2) and Harding just 32 (2.1). True frosh Robbie Rouse led with 75 (3.6) vs LT and finished #2 (479, 5.8). This year they lose their star Mathews (#1DC SD), Harding, Miller (2 st) and FB Reynard Camp (10 st, 16 rec yd). Not listed below is FB Dylan Cruz (5'11" 225 So). This unit is far less exp'd and while HC Pat Hill will form a decent group, I don't see them matching the numbers from the last couple of years.

RECEIVERS - In Hill's first season ('97), FSU had zero scholarship WR's but has upgraded the program almost every year since. In '05 he brought in a WR corps of Seyi Ajirotutu, Chastin West, Marlon Moore and Jason Crawley who were called the "Fab 4" and they RS. The unit has been injury plagued the last 4 yrs. In '08 Ajirotutu led with 795 (16.9). TE Bear Pascoe had 400 (10.0), speedy Devon Wylie (4.25) had 269 (12.2), Moore 258 (11.2) and West had 214 (11.9). Last year Ajirotutu started 10 and led again with 677 (13.8). Soph Jamel Hamler (5 rec true '07, Scout tm POY '08) emerged with 503 (13.6). West was #3 with 472 (15.7), Moore had 317 (21.1) and Wylie (missed 3) had 259 (15.2). This year they lose Ajirotutu, West (8 st), Moore (2 st), Darren Newborn (1 st, 8 rec) and TE Isaac Kinter (3 st, 5 rec). Not listed below are Taylor Stewart (6'0" 185 rFr), Alex Jefferies (6'1" 180 Fr), Jake Peterson (6'5" 205 Fr, PS#170) and TE's Michael Butler (6'3" 240 So, PS#84) and David Gory (6'4" 235 rFr, PS#105). This year's rec corps is not as talented or exp'd as the past few yrs but if they maintain better health, they could become more of a focal point of the offense.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Hill used to be an OL coach so this unit is always a priority. He also likes converting DL's to OL's because he feels they have quicker reaction speed. In '08 FSU had 3 st'rs back and rushed for 182 ypg (4.9) with 17 sks (4.6%). Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs. The team felt Andrew Jackson was perhaps the best OL on the tm and Hill called C Joe Bernardi the heart and soul of this unit. Bernardi missed the final 5 st (ply'd 10) while Jackson missed 2. FSU improved to 229 ypg (5.4), their best since 1992, but allowed 21 sks (6.5%), the most since '03. This year they lose C Richard Pacheco (6 st) but they do have 9 of the top 10 back (107 career sts, #9 FBS). Not in the PSL are Douglas Spacht (6'3" 285 So, PS#152), Lars Bramer (6'5" 260 rFr, PS#273) and Nikko Motta (6'3" 275 rFr, PS#307). This is my #14 rated O-line (see pg 13).

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2007, Fresno had an inexp'd and injury plagued D-line and allowed 181 ypg rush (5.0), despite the D having 36 sks. In '08 they had to replace 3 st'rs including DE Tyler Clutts (led WAC sks). Injuries plagued the unit again and FSU slipped to 210 ypg and a ghastly 5.6 ypc (just 18 sks). Last year they had to replace 3 DL (comb 25 sts) and lost DL coach Kerry Locklin. Wilson Ramos (5 st '08) and Mark Roberts (9 st '08) were both banged up (comb 0 sts, 18 tkl '09). I looked at '08's numbers (worst since 1995) and figured they would improve their rush D but I was wrong. FSU allowed 214 ypg rush and a horrific 6.0 ypc with just 11 sks. This year they lose DE Kenny Borg (12 st, 22 tkl) and DE Ramos (11 tkl). FIVE return who have started 6+ in a season. Not listed below are Tristan Okpalaugo (6'5" 220 So) and Ryan Bouchma (6'4" 235 rFr). Unless they suffer the attrition they did last year, the D-line should be a vastly improved defensive front.

LINEBACKERS - Fresno had a poor rush D in '08 yielding 5.6 ypc. I chalked that up partly to an inexp'd LB corps. Last year they had 2.5 LB st'rs back (#1, #4, #8 tkl'rs). While the D improved to allowing 28.4 ppg, they still allowed 6.0 ypc rush. This year they lose Nico Herron (13 st, #7 tkl'r). They return 1st Tm WAC MLB Ben Jacobs (#1 tkl'r) and #6 tkl'r Kyle Knox. Shawn Plummer (#11 tkl'r) did draw 3 sts. Not listed below are Sonny McCree (6'0" 230 Sr) and Stephan Plevney (6'2" 205 rFr). While equal to '09 in exp, I look for improved production.

CB Desia Dunn

DEFENSIVE BACKS - After 6 seasons with an avg finish of #37 in my pass D rankings, Fresno has been just #99, #61, #75 and #66 the last 4 years. In that span, FSU has the fewest number of int in the FBS with just 5, 4, 5 and 8 (DB's 13 int in 3 yrs). Last year they had 2 st'rs returning (6 w/st exp). Lorne Bell is a hard hitter earning the nickname "human missile." CB AJ Jefferson (6'0", sub-4.4 speed) was their top cover corner. This year they lose Jefferson (12 st, 36 tkl, 4 pbu), 2nd Tm WAC SS Moses Harris (13 st, 63 tkl, 1 int, 3 pbu), S Marvin Haynes (3 st, 22 tkl, 1 pbu) and CB Damion Owens (15 tkl). Two st'rs return including 2nd Tm WAC FS Bell and with a stronger front 7, could continue to move up in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Hill's lowest finish in my ST rankings in 8 of the first 9 years was #68. Since '02 FSU is #1 in the NCAA in blocked kicks (49). Former ST cch John Baxter had units finish #14 in '03, #24 in '04 and #5 in '05. In '06 they dropped to #105 and I called for a turnaround and they didn't disappoint finishing #9 in '07. AJ Jefferson led the FBS in KR (35.8). In '08 they had to replace their K, P and LS. K Kevin Goessling (PS#36) missed 3 FG's vs Wisc and 2 key FG's in an OT loss to Hawaii but amazingly hit a 58 yd game winner vs Utah St as Fresno fell to #67. Hill said during preseason last year that Goessling would be one of the best K's to pass through Fresno and he didn't let his HC down hitting an outstanding 15-16 FG's (school record 15 in a row). Robert Malone (31.8 net '08) improved his net to 38.7 and Andrew Shapiro had 8 TB on 70 KO. Overall FSU climbed to #20. This year they lose P Malone, KR Jefferson and ST cch Baxter (to USC). FSU has blk'd just 3 punts the last 3 yrs (15 previous 4). They bring in VHT PS#2 Matt Darr as P (orig commit to USC).

COACHES - I like Hill's attitude, as he's willing to take on any team, anywhere, anytime to build his program and he has pulled some big upsets. He is now in his 14th year. After his team almost upset #1 ranked USC in '05 and was #16 in the polls, Hill interviewed with four different NFL teams and was a hot commodity. For 5 consec seasons, Hill had to replace his OC, but this year both co-OC's Jeff Grady (Pass Gm coor) and Derek Frazier (Run Gm coor) return. Last year was the first time in Hill's 13 years he had to replace both coor's as longtime DC Dan Brown opted to retire and then succumbed to cancer. This year DC Randy Stewart returns making 2010 the first time that Hill hasn't had to replace a coordinator in the last 6 yrs.

PHIL'S FORECAST

A surprising stat to me is that Fresno has not finished higher than 2nd in the WAC since 1999 and its last outright conference title came in 1989 (Big West). This despite the fact that FSU has pulled a lot of upsets, flirted with BCS bowl contention and has been one of the marquee teams in the WAC. In 2001, FSU was ranked #8 at one point and finished 11-3 including upsets over Colo, Oregon St and Wisc in 3 straight weeks. They were 6-2 in the WAC in both '02 & '03. The 2004 season featured one of Hill's most exp'd squads (15 ret st'rs). Fresno beat Wash 35-16 before destroying defending Big 12 champ #13 K-St 45-21 on the road. Surprisingly, FSU lost 3 games in WAC play (9-3) but did win its 3rd consec bowl over a BCS foe (UVA). In '05, FSU led Oregon 17-0 but ended up losing by 3. They then appeared to have clinched the WAC Title when they destroyed Boise St 27-7 to move to 8-1 and #16. There was talk that they were the greatest team in school history. FSU travelled to face #1 USC and nearly came away with the upset but they suffered 4 int including 2 in the EZ and fumbled at their own 15. At that point FSU stood 8-2 with both losses to teams that finished in the Top 10. FSU accepted the bid to the Liberty Bowl and it was all downhill from there as they lost 10 of their next 11. In '06 they ended a streak of 7 straight bowls with their first losing season since 1998. FSU had 7 straight losses, its worst stretch in 77 years (1929). They did win three of their final four. In '07 FSU had an inexp'd squad (9 ret st'rs) and Hill said it was his most injury-plagued team yet. Seven st'rs were lost for the year and they were without their top 7 tkl'rs from '06. They had a shot at the WAC Title but lost to Boise St 34-21 at home but did beat Big 12 member K-St 45-29 and then whipped GT in the bowl 40-28 to finish 9-4. They were 6-2 in the WAC but amazingly -55.4 ypg!! It surprised me that FSU was the preseason WAC favorite in '08 (I picked Boise). Fresno struggled to a 7-6 season (lost to Boise 61-10). They led CSU 28-20 in the 3Q of the bowl but lost 40-35. Last year they had 15 ret st'rs and were coming off a season where they were -11 in TO (see pg 312). They also went back to being the hunter and not the hunted and faced 3 BCS teams on the road. FSU was actually stronger than their 8-5 record. I felt they outplayed Wisc and Cincy (#16 and #8 end of season) and did well vs Boise St (#4). They had the FD edge in all 3 by a combined 66-49! They won their next 5 but were buried by Nevada 52-14 on the road. They got a miracle win vs Illinois getting a TD with :02 left and then the QB threw the 2 pt conv up for grabs and it was batted into the hands of an OL who bowled 4 yds into the EZ (53-52 win). Fresno appeared to have the bowl in control but WY scored 11 pts in the 4Q including a FG with :20 left to force OT and the Bulldogs lost it there. FSU only improved its record to 8-5. While FSU was 6-2 in the WAC, they were just +0.3 ypg. FSU was -10 in TO's and have 15 ret st'rs. They have 7 HG's for the 1st time S/'94. One of my 9 sets of power ratings calls for a 10-2 season but most are in the 7, 8 and 9 win area. I give them a solid shot at topping last year's 8 win total.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score FS	Final Score Opp	W/L
Sep. 4	Cincinnati	G					LY was the schools 1st meeting & FS trailed by DD's 3 separate times & never led vs UC despite a 43:42-16:18 TOP edge. FS is 10-1 in home openers incl 3-1 vs BCS tms.
Sep. 11
Sep. 18	at Utah St	A					Bulldogs have won 3 str (4 of 5 WAC meetings) vs the Aggies but have gone 3-3 their L/6 trips to Logan ('85). The losses have been by 4, 1 & 1 pts while the wins are by 16 ppg.
Sep. 25	at Mississippi	A					First meeting. Under Pat Hill, the Bulldogs are 11-22 vs BCS teams away from home (4-2 L/6). Fresno St is 0-3 vs the SEC being outscored by 37 ppg (last gm vs LSU in '06).
Oct. 2	Cal Poly	G					FS is 30-10-2 (5 str wins) vs instate CP, L/meeting in '85. The Mustangs went 4-7 LY w/2 losses to FBS tms Ohio (28-10) & SJSt (19-9). 2Y ago CP beat SDSt & lost by just 1 pt to Wisconsin.
Oct. 9	Hawaii	G					FS is 3-6 vs Hawaii. The last time FS beat a visiting UH squad they hung 70 on them in '04. FS has outgained UH the L2Y (+112 ypg) after being outgained the previous 3 (-83 ypg).
Oct. 16	New Mexico St (HC)	G					FS has won every meeting with NMSt but 3 of the last 4 yrs have been decided by 7 pts or less. Last time here it was tied at HT at 17 & Fresno pitched a 2H shutout.
Oct. 23	at San Jose St	A					LY the Bulldogs scored 34 unanswered after the Spartans took an early 14-7 led. FS has won 15 of 16 (L/3 by 21 ppg) with the only loss being the '06 trip to San Jose.
Oct. 30
Nov. 6	at Louisiana Tech	A					Fresno St is 8-3 vs LT but the visitor is just 2-5 the last 7 years. The Bulldogs have been outgained in each of the last 3 games losing the rush battle on avg 203-136 (5.2-3.6).
Nov. 13	Nevada	G					FS is 13-6 vs UN but just 2-3 the L5Y. LY QB Ryan Colburn passed for a career high 362 yards (69%) vs UN as FS led 14-10 after 1Q but was outscored 42-0 the final 3Q's.
Nov. 19	at Boise St (Fri)	A					LY RB Ryan Mathews rushed for a career high 234 yds (12.3) vs Boise St on a Fri night (3rd most rush yds in a single game in FS history) but FS couldn't overcome an early 24-3 deficit.
Nov. 27	Idaho	G					The L3Y FS has beat Idaho by DD's but have been outgained in each (-49 ypg). LY vs UI RB Mathews scored on a 77 yd TD run just :19 into the gm leading to a 7th str win.
Dec. 3	Illinois (Fri)	G					LY's 1st meeting featured 8 lead changes & a DD comeback for FS. FS went 67/11pl for a TD with :02 left but still trailed by one only to have an OL catch a tipped 2 pt conv pass for the win.

LOUISIANA TECH BULLDOGS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Tech has produced some fine QB's including Hall of Famer Terry Bradshaw. Tim Rattay finished as the #2 career passer in FBS (currently #10) despite playing just 3 seasons. LT led the NCAA in pass offense in both 1998 & '99. In 2000, true frosh Luke McCown was forced to start and he left 4 years later #3 in FBS in career total offense (now #9). In former HC Derek Dooley's first year ('07), Zac Champion (ret st'r) threw for 2,221 (57%, 13-10). RFr Ross Jenkins, who had not played all year, hit 2 of 5 in the finale and was the only exp'd QB in '08. Jenkins battled Auburn trans Steven Ensminger (PS#50) and GTech trans Taylor Bennett (PS#107), who was a late signee over the summer. Bennett hit 19 of 26 for 326 vs WV in the Gator Bowl and in '07 threw for 2,136 (50%, 7-9) in 13 sts for GT. Bennett won the starting job but had a rough go (40%, 2-6). Jenkins started final 8 (team went 6-2) and threw for 1,155 (53%, 7-3). Last year I called for them to significantly improve upon the combined 46% and 9-10 ratio of '08. RFr Colby Cameron beat out SMiss transfer Randy Hardin for the #2 spot. Dooley called Jenkins (2095, 59.3%, 17-5) a game manager and he took a lot of criticism during the year. Cameron (PS#325) hit 53.8% for 142 yds in 5 gms. This unit's numbers improved to 58.9%. Added to the mix is Doak Raulston (6'2" 190 rFr, PS#154). Ensminger moved to backup TE in '09 but thrived at QB in the new offense this spring and could beat out Jenkins.

RUNNING BACKS - In '04, Ryan Moats broke the single-season school rushing record with 1,774 (6.2). True frosh Daniel Porter drew some comparisons to Moats and had 464 (5.7) in '06. In '07, Patrick Jackson led again ('06, 854) with 950 (4.7) but Porter had the best ypc (6.0, 592). Jackson had offseason toe surgery in '08. He started the first 4 but Porter was instrumental in LT's win streak down the stretch. Porter led with 1,164 (5.2) while Jackson had 653 (4.6, #3 rec). Last year they lost Jackson but Porter became the 2nd player in LT history to have consec 1,000 yard seasons (Moats). Porter had just 134 in the first 3 but finished with 1,132 (5.4) and 11 TD's. True frosh Tyrone Duplessis (PS#97) was #2 with 277 (4.0) and ST standout Myke Compton (5'9" 210 Sr, PS#133) added 186 (3.9). True frosh DJ Morrow (5'10" 200 So, PS#237) had 150 (4.8, 1 st). Porter leaves as LT's career leading rusher. They add Tenn transfer Lennon Creer (PS#6) and converted WR Lyle Fitte. Adding depth are Drexel Perkins (6'0" 195 Jr), Tristan Broussard (5'11" 235 Sr) and Bobby Gorman (5'11" 210 rFr). Despite the added talent, I'll call for this unit to be down a few notches with the loss of their top guy.

WR Phillip Livas

RECEIVERS - In '08 the Bulldogs had their top 4 receivers back. It was an average group and in fact the first TD pass to a WR did not happen until Wk 11 as LT completed just 46%. The explosive Phillip Livas led with 607 (14.1). Last year they had to replace their #2 and #3 rec's (comb just 464 yds). Dooley was pleased with the progress of his young WR's. Houston Tuminello (PS#144) and Adrian Linwood quit by Wk 6 (comb 20 rec). Livas suffered turf toe and in many games saw action only on ST (205, 10.2). TE Dennis Morris led with 623 (16.4) and TE Dustin Mitchell had 216 (10.3). The top WR was rFr Cruz Williams (PS#43) who had 259 (17.3) and soph RP Stuart had 249 (14.6). This year they lose Morris (11 st, #6DC WAS) and Mitchell (7 st). Not in the PSL are Colt Linster (5'8" 180 rFr), Cornelious Nickelson (5'11" 205 So, 3 st LY), Erick Thomas (6'2" 222 So), Ben Dickerson (6'3" 195 So), Hayden Slack (5'9" 179 rFr) and TE Giles Menard (6'2" 240 So). They add Tenn transfer Ahmad Paige (PS#9) and LSU transfer Tim Molton (PS#66) plus have Livas healthy. Despite losing their top guy this is their most talented group in years and will catch a lot more passes in the new offense.

OFFENSIVE LINE - LT had an exp'd OL in '08 and paved the way for 187 ypg rush (4.7) with 25 sks (7.3%). Last year they only lost one backup (2 st) and had 91 career sts back (tied for #15 FBS). They did lose RT Cudahy Harmon after 7 sts (inj). Three frosh started the final 3 in Jordan Mills (L/5), Kevin Saia and Stephen Warner. LT's O-line numbers slipped a bit to 184 ypg (4.4) with 27 sks (8.4%). This year they lose LG Ben Harris (9 st, 2Y st'r) but once again have 9 of the top 10 ret (8 w/st exp). Their 126 career sts are #3 FBS and I look for improved numbers despite learning new schemes. Not in the PSL are Matthew Conger (6'4" 215 So), Vincent Cano (6'2" 295 rFr) and Chris Tusch (6'3" 275 Sr).

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2006, LT had to replace five of their top 6 DL's and allowed a ghastly 5.7 ypc rush and a school record 2,930 rush yards while the D recorded an FBS low 9 sacks. In '07 almost everyone ret'd and naturally they were much stronger allowing 137 ypg (3.9) with 22 sks. In '08 the unit had to replace 3 st'rs but I speculated they could improve due to some solid additions incl JUCO Kwame Jordan. LT did just that allowing 104 ypg (3.1) with 27 sks. Last year the unit figured to be one of the team's strengths with 3.5 st'rs back including D'Anthony Smith (1st Tm WAC '08). Smith earned 1st Tm WAC again but surprisingly LT allowed 163 ypg rush (4.3) with 22 sks. This year they lose Smith (12 st, 51 tkl, 3.5 sk, #3DC JAX), DE Jordan (12 st, 35 tkl, 3.5 sk) and DT Adrian Logan (7 st, 36 tkl, 1 sk). While last year's numbers were disappointing, this year's D-line is less exp'd and figures to be down a few notches.

LINEBACKERS - Last year LT had to replace 2 LB st'rs (#4, #8 tkl'r). Brian White started the first 5 in '08 until an inj and ret'd along with 2 who combined for 8 sts and 73 tkls. White played in just 7 in '09 (18 tkl) and departs along with Dominique Faust (7 st, #7 tkl'r) and Tank Calais (12 st, 4 at LB) moves to S. Four return with starting exp and some frosh could break into the 2 deep. The #1 and #3 tkl'rs return and they are led by 1st Tm WAC Adrien Cole.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Tech finished #89 in my PDR in '08 and last year had to replace 2 st'rs. They did have 61 career starts returning and were anchored by 1st Tm WAC FS Antonio Baker but he broke his leg after 9 sts in '09. I noted that despite being a little less exp'd than '08, they should improve and they did moving up to #57. They took the RS off true frosh CJ Broades for just the final 4 (2 sts). Not in the PSL are Ryan McKoy (5'11" 175 rFr), Markeith Woolridge (5'10" 195 So) and Jared Edwards (6'1" 215 rFr). This year they lose Baker (9 st, 51 tkl, 2 int) and CB Deon Young (12 st, 4 int, 4 pbu, 48 tkl) but have 6 who had 2+ sts in '09. I expect them to continue to move up in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - LT was #102 in my ST rankings in '06. Dooley brought in Eric Russell who was the ST coach at N Texas (5 yr, #10 ST in '03!). Tech ret'd their K and P in '07 but Dooley did not even list a PR or KR on the opening day depth chart. LT still moved up to #39. In '08 Phillip Livas avg 25.8 on KR and 15.3 on PR. P Chris Keagle had a net of 36.1. LT moved all the way up to #6. Last year they had to replace their K & P but had Livas back and also ret'd Myke Compton (ST POY in '07 and '08). ST were hit hard by injuries and new P Cade Glasgow avg just 37.3. Adrian Linwood took over (44.3) but then quit (tm net 32.9). True frosh K Matt Nelson (PS#38) had just 3 TB's on 64 KO's, but hit 12-16 FG's and 3 misses were from 50+ (56 yd miss vs Idaho had distance, wide left). He will be one of the WAC's top K's. Livas avg 27.0 on KR and 13.4 on PR despite injuries and teams kicking away from him. This year the unit returns intact and after a poor #75 finish, figures to make a huge climb in 2010.

COACHES - Derek Dooley left for Tenn after 3 years (17-20) as HC. Sonny Dykes takes over and is the 2nd straight HC here that is the son of a coaching legend. At 40 years old, he is the 7th youngest FBS coach. Dykes was the OC at Arizona from '07-09 and an asst at Texas Tech from '00-'06 under Mike Leach making him a spread expert (co-OC L2Y). Dykes retained DC Tommy Spangler who has been the DC here the last 3 years improving the ypg allowed each season (see L/7Y on right). The new OC is Tony Franklin who was Middle Tenn's OC in '09, Auburn's OC in '08 and Troy's OC from '06-'07.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In 2005, LT had an outstanding 7-4 year (beat #24 Fresno on road) but was -11.1 ypg in conf play benefitting from +13 in turnovers. Those two factors pointed to a down season in '06. With one of the youngest D's in the FBS, LT was #119 in total defense and the 41.7 ppg allowed was the most in school history. The offense had 7 st'rs back but avg just 18.6 ppg (10.1 less than '05). Their 3-10 record was their worst since 1993 (2-9) and they were -157.5 ypg (WAC worst). That team had 35 sts lost to injury and was -8 in TO's. All of those factors pointed towards an upward direction in '07 with 15 ret st'rs for new HC Dooley. LT nearly derailed Hawaii's undefeated season (lost OT). They had a 21-14 FD edge vs Fresno and a 301-232 yd edge vs Ole Miss but lost both. The winner of the '07 LT/Nevada game would go to a bowl but NV dominated 49-10. LT finished 4-4 in the WAC (-38.9 ypg). In '08 LT had just 13 ret st'rs and expectations were low but 2 of my then-8 sets of power ratings said they would be bowl eligible. LT surpassed everyone's expectations with an 8 win season. Miss St was the first current SEC team to visit Ruston since 1908 and LT grabbed a 22-14 win over the '07 bowl squad. LT opened 2-3 then switched QB's to Ross Jenkins and finished 8-5 with a bowl win over NIU and were 2 close wins from a 10-3 season. Last year Dooley appeared to have his best team yet with 16 ret st'rs and they were in the 3rd year of his system. Some signs pointed downward as they benefitted from +9 in turnovers in '08 and despite their 5-3 WAC record (2nd place tie) they were just +12.0 ypg. They also had to play 7 road games (4 vs bowl tms) and drew Boise at home. LT only trailed Auburn 13-10 at half and was int'd at the 2 but lost 37-13 in the opener. They led Navy 14-0 but were outscored 32-0. On a Wed night they beat Hawaii at home 27-6 to move to 2-2 and then as expected, lost to Nevada and blew out NMSt and were 3-3. LT trailed Utah St 23-7 into the 4Q but missed a 2 pt conv which would have taken it into OT. They outgained Idaho 547-461 but UI got a 2 yd TD run with :52 left to pull out the win. The highest ranked team to ever visit Joe Aillet Stadium was #5 Boise St and LT only lost by 10. The next week vs #9 LSU LT had 3 st'rs out and 9 questionable but still had a 322-246 yard edge on the road and led 13-10 at the half but ended up 8 points short. LT led 28-27 in the 4Q but Fresno got a 35 yd FG with no time left (LT 436-358 yd edge). They beat SJSt 55-20 to finish 4-8. Surprisingly LT was +7 in TO's last year and had an offensive ypp of 12.8 (pg 299). They did have 3 net close losses and have 13 ret sts. Despite their 3-5 WAC record, they were +27.9 ypg (4th best). The big news in the offseason was the departure of HC Derek Dooley and the arrival of Sonny Dykes with his spread offense. They added several VHT transfers to the offense. Surprisingly all 9 sets of my power ratings call for them to be bowl eligible this year so LT makes my Most Improved List.

Sep. 4	† Grambling St (Shreveport)	A					First meeting even though the schools are only 5 miles apart & inaugural "Port City Classic". LT last played here in their '08 bowl. The Tigers went 7-4 LY incl a 56-6 loss to Okla St.
Sep. 11	at Texas A&M	G					Dykes is a '93 graduate of A&M's rival TT, later coaching the WR/Co-OC from '00-'06. LT is 0-9 vs A&M (last gm '06). Bulldogs have dropped 6 str "true" road openers by 35 ppg (all vs BCS).
Sep. 18	Navy	A					Last year in the schools only meeting, LT jumped out to a 14-0 lead but could only muster 167 total yds & 10 FD's. LT is 9-1 in Joe Aillet Stadium openers including 6 str wins.
Sep. 25	Southern Miss	A					The Bulldogs are 1-5 since '83 vs the Golden Eagles but the last meeting was in '92 (SM won 16-13). Into 2010 LT has won 8 str non conf home games by 15 ppg (4 were FCS).
Oct. 2	at Hawaii	A					LY the Bulldogs kept the Warriors out of the EZ for the 1st time in 62 gms as they had 7 sks pulling away in the 2H vs an unfocused UH squad. Visitor is 1-5 losing by 24 ppg.
Oct. 9	Utah St	A					The home team has won 3 of 4 meetings & the last 2 have been decided by 7 or less. Last time here LT was outgained but had a pair of defensive TD's (40 yd & 60 yd IR's).
Oct. 16	Idaho (HC)	A					Home team has won B2B gms after dropping the 1st 3 meetings (1st gm in '05). LT's last drive vs UI LY went 38/7pl but Matt Nelson's 56 yd potential GW FG was wide left as time exp.
Oct. 26	at Boise St (Tues)	A					LT has dropped 8 str vs the Broncos by 24 ppg getting outgained in each (-170 ypg avg). Their last & only win on the blue turf was in 1997. Into 2010, LT has lost 10 str vs ranked opp's.
Oct. 30
Nov. 6	Fresno St	A					Two yrs ago the gm was decided w/1:37 left on a 43 yd TD run (tied 3x's) & LY (tied 3x's as well) LT was up 28-24 after 3Q's eventually losing on the gms final play (FSU 35 yd FG).
Nov. 13	at New Mexico St	G					The Bulldogs have held the Aggies below 75 yds rushing the last 3 years (avg allowed 59 ypg, 2.1). Last time here LT needed a 68 yd TD pass w/3:52 left for the 35-31 win.
Nov. 20
Nov. 27	at San Jose St	A					LT is 5-4 all-time vs SJSt (5-2 in WAC play). DB Tank Calais had a 96 yd IR TD LY vs SJSt (school record). LTH the Bulldogs got their 1st shutout S/96 & allowed just 6 FD's.
Dec. 4	Nevada	A					LY the Bulldogs jumped out to a 7-0 lead but allowed 23 unanswered by the Wolf Pack. Last time here LT led 31-14 (Mid-3Q) but allowed 71/9pl, 75/10pl & 80/4pl TD drives.

HAWAI'I WARRIORS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In 2005, UH had to replace Timmy Chang who is still the only passer in NCAA history to top 17,000 yards. Colt Brennan came off the bench in the 2nd game of '05 and led the FBS in TD passes, finishing with 4,301 yds (68%, 35-13). Surprisingly, the UH record for completion % in a season was just 60% (Chang) and Brennan thrashed that. Brennan was the best QB in college in '06 throwing for an amazing 5,549 (73%) with a 58-12 ratio (#1 NCAA pass eff). Tyler Graunke threw for 501 (74%, 4-0). In '07, Brennan threw for 4,343 (70%, 38-17). Graunke started 2 and threw for 1,234 (66%). The last two years this unit has been inexp'd, hit hard by injuries and had a new OC. Due to the injuries in Aug '08, Greg Alexander (PS#29JC) started vs Florida and struggled. Inoke Funaki started 6 throwing for 1,184 (58%, 7-12). Graunke had 1 start (388, 52%, 3-4). Alexander started the last 6 and finished with 1,895 (63%, 14-5) and was the clear-cut starter in '09. Funaki was moved to RB. Alexander led the NCAA in total offense (446 ypg) and was #5 in pass eff after 3 gms but his career ended with an ACL tear vs LT. Walk-on Bryant Moniz was #4 in August but moved to co-#2 with Brent Rausch (6'4" 180 Sr, PS#171JC, 6-14, 3 gm '08). Rausch won the bkp job but inj'd a finger and DNP. Moniz took command but suffered a concussion in the 1Q vs Boise St (later DNP SJSt, ribs). Shane Austin was battling for #2 in Aug but was demoted (mental reps only) and then suffered an off field inj in Oct but ret'd to start vs SJSt (299 pass yds). In 4 gms, Austin threw for 545 (62.4%, 2-3) and Moniz for 2,396 (57.1%, 14-10). Moniz missed most of spring (personal) and Austin got a lot of #1 reps while David Graves (6'0" 190 rFr) shot up the depth chart. Adding depth are Corey Nielsen (5'11" 185 rFr, PS#96) and Cayman Shutter (6'1" 190 rFr, PS#124). This unit is about as exp'd as '09 but can only remain healthier and improve upon their 25-17 ratio.

RUNNING BACKS - In '07 UH added VHT Nebraska transfer Leon Wright-Jackson (PS#8). Surprisingly the leading rusher was Kealoha Pilares (388, 5.7, 249 rec). Both ret'd in '08 and I was amazed that the leading rusher was 5'8" walk-on Daniel Libre who had 443 (4.5) while Pilares added 300 (5.4). Wright-Jackson had 219 (6.6) in '07 and while inj'd in '08, started 3 (102, 3.6). Last year they had to replace Libre but moved QB Funaki in and added Alex Green (PS#44JC). Wright-Jackson led with 554 (7.5!) including 63 in the 1Q vs Fresno and a career high 167 with 3 TD's vs Utah St. He and Green (110) became the first UH RB tandem to crack 100 in the same game since 1993. Green had 453 (5.3). This year they lose Wright-Jackson (13 st) and Funaki (34 yd). Not listed below are Kainoa Carlson (5'11" 225 Jr), Kahekili Kalalau (5'9" 220 Jr) and Jordan Monico (6'2" 225 Jr). Despite the loss of their top guy, this unit looks just as strong.

RECEIVERS - The Warriors use 4 WR's, rarely using a FB or TE. In '08 they had to replace all 4 st'rs including three 1,000 yard rec's (#4 had 859). Walk-on Greg Salas fractured his finger vs Florida and played with a wrap but still led with 831 (14.6). Diminutive Michael Washington (5'7") was #2 with 789 (12.7). Malcolm Lane (6'1" 180 Sr, 4.45 spd) was the team's deep threat and had 613 (17.5). Last year they had to replace Washington (#2 rec) then Lane was forced to RS. The #2 leading returnee was converted RB Kealoha Pilares (546 yds ttl off '08). Salas was #4 in the FBS in ypg but came up just 3 catches short of setting the school record finishing with 1,590 (15.0). Pilares was #2 with 690 (10.5). 5'8" Jon Medeiros was #3 with 589 (12.5) despite missing 3. JUCO Jovonte Taylor (1 of tms fastest) started 11 (445, 13.5). Rodney Bradley was #2 when he broke his leg vs Idaho and had 575 (18.5) in just 6 sts. The only losses are Medeiros (7 st) and Taylor (11 st). Not listed below are Justin Clapp (6'2" 180 rFr), Jeremiah Ostrowski (5'9" 170 So) and Corey Paclebar (5'7" 175 Fr). This is a much more exp'd unit and one of the WAC's best.

WR Greg Salas

OFFENSIVE LINE - Former HC June Jones did an outstanding job developing the line and in his 9 years here had 7 OL's drafted. In '08 they had to replace 2 st'rs (1st Tm AA) and one returnee started just 6. UH allowed a near-NCAA record (58, ND in '07) 57 sks (11.6%) while "improving" their rush ypg to 95 ypg (thanks to 133 more rush att, ypc dropped to 3.2). Last year they had to replace 2.5 st'rs and began the year with 5 fifth year seniors. RT Laupepa Letuli was lost after 3 but has been granted a 6th yr. As expected, the unit showed improvement with 100 ypg rush, while improving the ypc to 4.5 with 36 sks (6.3%). This year they lose 1st Tm WAC C John Estes (13 st, 4Y st'r), 2nd Tm WAC LT Aaron Kia (13 st, 2Y st'r), LG Ray Hisatake (13 st) and RG Raphael Ieru (13 st). This unit is clearly less exp'd (24 car sts, #113 FBS). In Dec, OL Coach Shaw did say he had 12 potential starters for this year.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2008 the Warriors had to replace 3 DL starters with the lone returnee starting only 3 (inj). Having a veteran LB corps helped the rush D to only drop to 142 ypg (3.9) with 36 sks. Last year the D-line had 1 starter back and DE John Fonoti missed 3. The LB's were also inexp'd and as you would expect, UH's rush D dropped to 202 ypg (4.9) with just 19 sks. This year they lose DT Tuika Tufaga (13 st, 47 tkl, 7.5 tfl), Fonoti (10 st, 39 tkl, 4.5 tfl), DT Rocky Savaiigaea (5 st, 19 tkl) and DE Victor Clore (10 tkl, 2 tfl). The unit is the most exp'd in 3 yrs and they also add Arizona transfer HT Kaniela Tuipulotu (PS#65, 7 sts 12 tkl '08) Not listed below are Joshua Manapuna (6'2" 285 Jr), Ikaika Mahoe (5'11" 280 Sr), Mike Maracle (6'4" 245 Sr) and Ho'oikaika Cavaco-Amoy (6'2" 235 So).

LINEBACKERS - UH had the best LB corps in the WAC in '08 as the Warriors returned a pair of 1st Tm WAC LB's. Unfortunately they lost both those guys last year (#1, #2 tkl'rs) then their lone ret starter, Brashton Satele, missed the year. RJ Kiesel-Kauhane (bench 225 35x, 38" VL) started 13 and was the #2 tkl'r. Blaze Soares, who missed '08, earned 1st Tm WAC. He was called the team's top edge rusher and was their #1 tkl'r. Unfortunately this year both depart and Satele was not granted a 6th year. This time 4 return with starting exp plus they add PS#95JC Aaron Brown who played in 3 (10 tkl) but RS (inj). Despite the loss of their top 2 tkl'rs, this group is a little more experienced.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - UH had a veteran secondary in its magical '07 Sugar Bowl season and finished #28 (16-20 ratio) in my PDR (#60 in '06). In '08 they had to replace 3 st'rs (1st Tm WAC CB) plus 3 bkps. Their returning FS had just 3 st. DB Coach Rich Miano said Ryan Mouton (4.3 spd) was the best corner they've had in 9 years (1st Tm WAC). Still the inexp'd unit dropped to #76. Last year they had to replace 8 DB's (comb 58 sts). Of the 7 who started in '09, they had a comb 38 career tkls going into the yr (0 car sts, lowest FBS). As you would expect, the Warriors dropped even further to #107. This year they are a polar opposite as the entire two deep is back. UH may have the most improved PDR in the NCAA.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In HC McMackin's first year ('08) everyone ret'd but surprisingly UH slipped to #116 in my ST rankings. Last year they had to replace their K and I summed up by saying that despite being less exp'd they could only improve. The Warriors did just that moving to #67. They added Australian Alex Dunnachie who had booming punts (5.0+ hangtime). While he averaged just 39.2 in his first year of American football (net 36.5), he should be one of the nation's best P's. Scott Enos had 6 TB's on 57 KO's while hitting 12-19 FG's (long 47). He did almost lose his job at the end of the year. With everyone but KR Jovonte Taylor (24.8) back, they should move up again.

COACHES - Former HC June Jones had a storied 9 years here taking over an 0-12 team and eventually guiding UH to a BCS bowl. HC Greg McMackin had some big shoes to fill. McMackin was the DC at TT from '00-'02 and was the assoc HC/LB with the 49ers from '03-'05. He was the UH DC in '99 and ret'd in that role here during their Sugar Bowl season. McMackin went from earning $110,000 as DC to $1.1 million as the HC. His '07 defense improved from #93 to #34. He was the HC at Oreg Tech ('86-'89) and was named COY 2x. Ron Lee took over as OC in '08 but is now the asst OC and the new OC is Nick Rolovich (QB cch '08-'09) who played QB here. Cal Lee (Ron's brother) was the DC in '08-09 and is now the asst HC and the new DC is Dave Aranda who had been the DL coach ('08-'09).

PHIL'S FORECAST

In 1999 I called for UH to be the Most Improved Team in the NCAA and they did not disappoint going from 0-12 in '98 to 9-4, the biggest single season turnaround in NCAA history. They had a rebuilding year in 2000 (3-9) but rebounded with 4 consec winning seasons (3 bowls). In 2002, UH was ranked in the Top 25 (Coaches) for the first time since 1992 and went 10-4 despite being -14 in turnovers. In 2003, UH upset Alabama, had a 26-21 FD edge in their loss to USC and finished 9-5. In '05, UH had to replace the NCAA's all-time leading passer in Chang and had 26 lettermen lost (most in WAC). UH was much better statistically at +79.3 ypg (2nd best) but finished 4-4 in the WAC. In '06 they had 9 st'rs back on offense and I called for them to have their best ppg since 2001 (40.3) which they easily topped with 46.9 ppg (#1 NCAA) and they went 11-3 (beat Ariz St bowl). In '07, I called for the Warriors to break the school record in wins as all then-8 sets of my power ratings called for them to have an undefeated season. I also projected UH to play in the Sugar Bowl which was laughed at by some. UH gave me a couple of scares, barely getting past LT in OT and trailing SJSt 35-21 with 4:00 left. A 45 yd FG with :11 left pulled out a 28-26 win over Nevada and they trailed UW 21-0 in the 1Q needing a TD with :44 left to win. UH finished getting blown out by Georgia in the Sugar Bowl 41-10. McMackin stepped into a tough situation as it was impossible to match the previous year's 12-1 record and they had road trips to Fla, Oreg St, Fresno and Boise, plus had to replace QB Brennan and his star WR's. They had just 8 ret st'rs (fewest WAC). I called for UH to be bowl eligible but have more losses in '08 than they had the previous 2 yrs combined (4). UH did get their first win over a ranked foe on the road in school history when they beat #22 Fresno 32-29. They led Big East champ Cincy 24-10 in the 4Q but lost by 5. UH was waxed by ND in the bowl and finished just 7-7. UH finished in a tie for 2nd in the WAC at 5-3 (-7.1 ypg, 4th best). Last year they had to replace 12 of their top 13 tkl'rs (Satele hurt) and I said that keeping their streak of 3 straight bowls alive would not be easy. UH struggled to get past C Ark 25-20 but then for the first time in seven tries, defeated a BCS team (Wash St) on the road to open at 2-0. UH then stayed on the mainland for 2 more weeks losing both games and lost QB Alexander to injury. UH dropped 6 straight but then rebounded to roll up 697 yards vs Utah St. They beat the WAC's weakest team (NMSt) 24-6 then knocked off the 2nd weakest SJSt, in OT 17-10. UH upset Navy and needed a win over Wisconsin to land a bowl bid but were thrashed by the Badgers 51-10 for a 6-7 finish. UH was -11 in TO's (see pg 312) and now has 12 ret st'rs. Last year's squad had 33 sts lost due to injury which was 12th most in the FBS and despite their 3-5 record in the WAC they were +35.4 ypg (3rd best). Five of my 9 sets of power ratings call for 7 or more wins.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score UH	Final Score Opp	W / L
Sep. 2	USC (Thur)	A					UH is 0-6 vs USC and in the L/3 gms ('99, '03 & '05) have allowed 60+ pts in each (avg score 62-19). UH is 7-4 in home openers w/3 str wins vs FCS opp's & the 2 losses were vs USC.
Sep. 11	at Army	A					Furthest trip east in school history. UH and Army hooked up on the island in '03 (only meeting) w/the Warriors winning 59-28 with a 741-398 yd edge. UH is just 3-12 in road openers.
Sep. 18	at Colorado	G					Hawai'i is 2-11-1 vs the B12 and shutout CU 13-0 in HI (only meeting) but that was in 1925. The Warriors have gone 1-6 S/'03 on the road vs BCS teams, being outscored on avg, 41-16.
Sep. 25	Charleston Southern	A					In the only meeting in '07, UH rolled CSU 66-10 w/a 510-311 yd edge. The Buccaneers play in the Big South & went 6-5 LY incl losses to Florida & USF by a combined 121-3.
Oct. 2	Louisiana Tech	A					UH is 6-2 vs LT incl 4-0 hosting the Bulldogs (all wins by DD's) & the home tm is 5-1. LY UH was clearly not focused as a day prior to the gm a tsunami hit Samoa affecting 45 players & 6 coaches.
Oct. 9	at Fresno St	G					Visitor has won 4 of 5 and Hawai'i has won B2B trips to the Valley ('08 upset #22 FSU). Last time here UH won 32-29 in OT marking their first ever road win vs a ranked opp.
Oct. 16	Nevada	A					Two completely different home advantages and the host is 10-1. Last time here Hawaii needed a 77/9pl drive and a 24 yard TD pass w/:20 left for the 38-21 win.
Oct. 23	at Utah St	A					Hawaii is 4-1 in this series winning with an avg score of 54-27. Last time here in the loss the Warriors failed to score on three seperate 1st & gl opportunities.
Oct. 30	Idaho (HC)	A					Last year's loss snapped a 7 game Hawaii series win streak. The Warriors never led at any point last year & could only cut into the deficit 21-17 early 4Q vs Idaho.
Nov. 6	at Boise St	A					The Warriors are now 1-8 vs the Broncos including B2B losses by a combined 81-16. Last time here UH trailed 10-7 at HT but four 2H TO's led to all of BSU 17 2H pts.
Nov. 13
Nov. 20	San Jose St	A					Series is tied up 16-16-1 but the Warriors have won 9 of L/11 gms. The L3Y have all been decided by a TD or less. Last time hosting SJSt, UH had 5 2H TO's & all'd the GW 47 FG w/1:49 left.
Nov. 27	at New Mexico St	G					In their 6 wins vs NMSt no gm has been closer than 12 pts and UH has outgained the Aggies in every WAC meeting (+105 ypg). LY WR Salas set a UH record w/16 rec vs NMSt.
Dec. 4	UNLV	A					LY UNLV allowed a 67/14pl drive (4:40 TOP) as the Rebels scored the winning TD w/:36 left. Despite splitting the L/4 UH has won the yardage battle in each by an avg of 155 ypg.

UTAH ST AGGIES

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - The Aggies most exp'd QB (40 att '07) quit in Aug '08 so they entered the season with 1 career att. Sean Setzer, who threw for 2,034 at JC (pocket passer) won the job over mobile Diondre Borel who played 6 at WR & QB as a true frosh. The two split time early but Borel was the starter in Wk 4 and never looked back. He became one of 7 QB's in the FBS to lead his team in rushing (632) and passing (1705, 56%, 11-10). Setzer only played in 9 (653, 58%, 5-4). Borel added 15 lbs of muscle last year and was the clear-cut starter. Jeff Fischer who threw for 2,063 (64%, 23-4) at JC in '08 was the backup but true frosh Kane Wilson may have played had Borel gone down. Borel topped 300 passing 5x. He was #5 in the WAC in pass eff throwing for 2,885 (58.5%, 17-4) and was the #2 rusher (458, 2.6). His mark of 3,343 total offense set a school record (Anthony Calvillo, 3,260 in 1993). Fischer played in 1 (0 att). Wilson left the tm in spg. Borel returns and they add true frosh Alex Hart, JC Steve Vincent (IFS) and rFr TJ Canales (PS#93). As long as Borel stays healthy, he could top his 2009 stats.

RUNNING BACKS - Utah St had some excellent RB's from 1999-2002 with Demario Brown breaking the Utah St single season rushing record (1,536) in 1999. Emmett White led the NCAA in all-purp yds in 2000 (2,628) and twice topped 1,300 rushing. The team had a 100 yard rusher in 51 of its previous 77 games heading into '02 but had just 9 in the next 7 yrs (2002-'08). In '07 Derrvin Speight led with 504 (3.9) and Curtis Marsh had 302 (3.7). In '07 & '08 the team had just one 100 yard effort (PS#331 Robert Turbin 123 vs Idaho '08). Turbin was the top RB rusher in '08 with 485 (4.6) while Marsh had 185 (4.4) as Speight was injured. The new coaching staff was very high on Turbin calling him a star in the making (NFL potential). They also added speedy, elusive JUCO Michael Smith (4.35 spd) who rushed for 1,002 at JC in '08. Turbin became the first Aggie 1,000 yard rusher since '01 with 1,296 (6.3) and was also the #2 receiver with 418 (13.9) with 18 total TD's. He and Smith became the first tandem to both rush for 100+ in a game here since 1989 (Turbin also 100 rec in that gm). Smith rushed for 290 (6.3) and Speight had 210 (5.0). Not listed below are Speight (5'9" 209 Sr), Josh Flores (5'5" 166 Jr), Kerwynn Williams (5'9" 185 So) and this year's true frosh. Turbin tore his ACL in Feb and will miss at least the 1st month of the season and likely will not avg the 6.3 ypc he did last year if he returns.

RECEIVERS - The '08 unit was lightly exp'd with the leading returnee being Otis Nelson (189, 9.4). Nelson led with 455 (12.3). Nnamdi Gwacham was #2 with 370 (18.5) and 5'9" Stanley Morrison was #3 as a rFr (291, 11.2). Omar Sawyer (also 5'9") started 5 (246, 12.9). Last year they had to replace Nelson but were still more exp'd. Morrison, who also hit 4-6 passes (#5 rusher) led with 616 (18.7). Air Force transfer Eric Moats was the #2 WR with 400 (14.8). 6'3" Xavier Bowman had 346 (15.0) and Sawyer added 333 (10.7). Gwacham broke his leg vs Hawaii (236, 15.7). This year they lose Gwacham (4 st), Bowman (9 st), Sawyer (12 st) and TE Jeremy Mitchell (3 st, 6 rec). HC Gary Andersen expected 6'2" Matt Austin, who had 1,134 (16.0) and 13 TD's at JC in '08, to have an impact but he RS. Also moving to TE are DE's Tage Clifford (6'1" 241 Jr) and Steven Clark (6'4" 267 Jr). While this unit is not quite as exp'd, it is one of the NCAA's fastest and newcomer Dontel Watkins has posted a 4.26 40. I look for continued improvement.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In former HC Brent Guy's first year (2005) he said they would have liked to use zone blocking schemes, but since the OL was so light they were unable to. They had to use DL's and TE's to plug holes. His line showed improvement in each of his four years. In '08 they had to replace 2 st'rs (#4DC) and rushed for 138 ypg rush (3.8) but allowed 32 sks (9.4%). Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs but had 8 with starting exp. The numbers improved to 193 ypg (4.7) with 32 sks (8.5%). HC Andersen said that one of the reasons for the close losses LY was the wilting play of both his OL and DL and that many plays were made by Borel and Turbin and not so much the offensive front opening holes for them. This year they only lose C Brennan McFadden (12 st, 2Y st'r). They have 91 career sts, better depth (7 w/st exp) and should be much improved.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Utah St has produced some great DL's like Merlin Olsen and Rulon Jones. In '05, DE John Chick led the WAC in sacks (12.5) and the Aggies allowed just 144 ypg rush (3.9), their best since 1998 (123). In Guy's final season ('08) they had to replace 2 st'rs but allowed just 162 ypg rush (4.5). Last year only 1 starter departed but DT Alan Bishop (6 st '08) lost his spot and DT Casey Davis (6 st '08) and DE Darby Golden (10 st '08) missed the year. Andersen said the lack of depth on the D-line hurt them late in games. The Aggies slipped to allowing 206 ypg rush (5.3) with just 17 sks. This year they lose DE Antonio May (4 st, 11 tkl, 1 sk), DT Bishop (8 tkl) and Golden. They move DE Junior Keiaho to OLB but are a much deeper, more exp'd group.

LINEBACKERS - In '06, Paul Igboeli was the WAC FPOY. Last year they had to replace their #1 tackler in 2nd Tm WAC Jake Hutton (3Y st'r) but ret'd Igboeli (#2 tkl'r) and Bobby Wagner (#6). Igboeli had his streak of 38 consec starts snapped (missed 5 st) and was only the #8 tkl'r. This year they lose Igboeli (7 st, 33 tkl, 3 tfl), Adrian Bybee (5 st, 19 tkl) and Chris Williams (2 st, 13 tkl, 1 sk). They return their #1 tkl'r in 1st Tm WAC Wagner and #4 tkl'r Kyle Gallagher. Adding depth is Nick Ciancone (6'2" 213 rFr) and they moved several in during spring and DE Keiaho (12 st) will stick here. This unit should be just as strong.

DE Devin Johnson

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Aggies finished #48 in my PDR in '03 but finished just #100, #103, #119, #101 and #91 the next 5 yrs. Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs and 3 bkps (who comb for 7 sts). Andersen said their strength defensively was man coverage and also said S James Brindley was one of the best in the conference. The Aggies moved up to #64 in my PDR. This year they lose S Brindley (10 st, #2 tkl'r, 3 int, 6 pbu) and CB Kejon Murphy (12 st, #6 tkl'r, 2 int, 4 pbu). They moved RB Marsh (804 ttl yd '07-'08) to CB last year (4 st). They add 2 JC newcomers in Gavin Jones and Alfred Bowden (both IFS) and are even a little more exp'd than the 2009 version. Not in the PSL are Brett Davis (5'9" 183 So), Isaiah Jones (5'10" 188 So) and Cache Morgan (5'10" 192 So).

SPECIAL TEAMS - Utah St finished #35 in my ST rankings in '07. Kevin Robinson left as the school's career PR leader (4 ret TD's in '07). He finished 1st in the FBS in PR (18.9) and 6th in KR (29.3) breaking Emmett White's record for career all-purp yards with 6,479. In '08 they had to replace Robinson and their P. Peter Caldwell avg 41.9 on punts (36.8 net) and hit 10 of 12 FG's (long 42). Chris Ulinski hit a 56 yd FG and had 21 TB's on 55 KO's. Kejon Murphy took over as the KR (24.2) and PR (8.8) and the Aggies dropped to #84. Last year Caldwell avg'd 42.2 (35.4 net). Ulinski did well as a K at home but struggled on the road and finished 13-21 (long 48, 1 miss 56). Stanley Morrison was the top PR (8.0) and speedy true frosh Kerwynn Williams was the top KR (25.1). This year they lose Ulinski but true frosh K Nick Diaz who had 90% TB in HS takes over. The Aggies were #63 in '09 and better depth should equal improvement.

COACHES - Gary Andersen was the asst HC and DC at Utah for 5 years prior to coming here. He was the HC at S Utah in '03. OC Dave Baldwin was NM's OC from '07-'08 and was also the OC at Mich St from '03-'06. He was the HC at SJSt from '97-'00 compiling an 18-27 record. The DC is Bill Busch, who was the safeties cch and ST coor at Neb from '05-'07. Andersen is the Aggies' 8th coach in the last 26 years and the last coach to leave here with a winning record was Bruce Snyder ('76-'82).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Gary Andersen stepped into a much better situation than Brent Guy did. In Guy's first year, he had to replace 22 lettermen and had less than 70 scholarship players. Twelve frosh started at least 1 (3rd highest IA). While they were 2-6 in WAC play in '05 (tied for 6th), they had the best ypg of those three 2-6 teams at -54.4. In '06, Utah St had 11 st'rs back and surprisingly had their first one-win season S/'84. They were -142.2 ypg in league play (2nd worst). In '07 they lost their starting QB (mission) but still had 17 st'rs back. The Aggies lost 3 gms by a TD or less and opened 0-10 but rallied to win their last 2 for their first 2 game win streak S/'03. Utah St was finally up to 85 scholarship players as Guy built the program the right way bringing in frosh as opposed to the quick-fix of JUCO's. In Guy's first spring they had 56 players participate but had 97 in '08. They had 14 ret st'rs and only 14 lettermen lost. They won 3 WAC games for the first time since joining in '05 and almost upset Fresno (58 yd FG last play). While Guy's final record of 9-38 is the worst % ever for a Utah St HC, I feel he did a great job at getting this program turned in the right direction. In '08, Guy had non-conf games vs #18 Oregon, #22 Utah and #8 BYU (toughest sked WAC). After Guy was fired the team was 2-9 but they then blasted NMSt 47-2. Utah St was -11.4 ypg in conf play, their best since '03 (Sun Belt). Andersen inherited 15 st'rs including exciting QB Borel. The '08 team had 2 net close losses and an 11.9 def ypp (pg 299). In '09, 82.4% of their offensive yards ret'd (#31 FBS) but only 56.5% of their tackles (#97 FBS). In '08 only 6 players benched 300+ and last year 32 players did, which shows they bought into the system. Once again the Aggies drew 3 tough non-conf games (Utah, A&M and BYU) and naturally opened 1-3. They had a 429-230 yard edge vs NMSt but somehow lost. The next week they scored a late TD and only lost by 3 to Nevada. They led LT 23-7 in the 4Q and held on for a 23-21 win. The next week USU led 27-17 at the half vs Fresno but gave up a TD with 4:53 left and lost by 4. They faced a UH team coming in with 6 straight losses but yielded 697 yards in their worst game of '09 (49-36 loss). After beating SJSt on a cold and snowy day (Turbin 190 rush), they were tied at 14 with Boise late 1H before being waxed 52-21. In the finale they jumped out to a 31-7 lead but trailed 35-31 after 3Q's before prevailing over Idaho, 52-49, for a 4-8 season. They matched 2008's WAC record of 3-5 and were -11 ypg but led at halftime in 5 of the final 7 gms. This year the Aggies have 16 ret st'rs. If RB Turbin had not torn his ACL in Feb (? for fall) Utah St definitely would have made my Most Improved List. They should top last year's 4 win total and sweep their 3 November games.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score USU	Final Score Opp	W/L
Sep. 4	at Oklahoma	G					USU is 0-4 vs OU and in the last gm ('07) were outgained by 464 yds (54-3 after 3Q). The Aggies have dropped 12 straight road openers by 20 ppg (3 vs BCS teams).
Sep. 11	Idaho St	A					USU is 15-2 vs ISU (last meeting in '02). Gary Andersen was the DL cch at ISU from 1992-'94. The Bengals went 1-10 LY including losses to Oklahoma (64-0) & Arizona St (50-3).
Sep. 18	Fresno St	A					LY USU led 27-24 mid-4Q but allowed a 78/3pl TD drive & couldn't stop FSU from running out the final 3:13. The home team is 7-1 with the only loss on a 58 yd FSU FG LTH.
Sep. 25	at San Diego St	G					The Aggies are 1-9 vs the Aztecs but the L/gm was in 1977. Since joining the WAC in 2005 Utah St has gone 0-8 in non-conf/non-BCS road gms losing by 21 ppg (all vs MWC).
Oct. 1	BYU (Fri)	A					80th meeting and S/'75 Utah St is just 3-26 vs BYU (10 str losses). LY the Aggies only trailed 37-31 late 3Q but USU's L/7 poss resulted in 3 punts, 2 int, a saftey & a FG (off fum PR).
Oct. 9	at Louisiana Tech	A					The Aggies led 23-7 LY after 3Q's & despite allowing LT 14 pts & 170 yds in the 4Q held on for the win. USU is 3-4 vs LT but LY's win was their 1st victory in WAC action.
Oct. 16							BONUS: In USU's 116 ssns of FB, they've had 6 HG's only 6x's (1952, '78, '95, '96, '98 & '08).
Oct. 23	Hawaii (HC)	A					Home team is 4-1. Utah St has been outgained in every conf meeting vs Hawaii, by an avg of 163 ypg. LY USU led 7-0 but allowed 35 unanswered to put the gm away by the half.
Oct. 30	at Nevada	A					USU is 4-16 vs Nevada including 0-5 in WAC gms being outgained by 136 ypg (43-9 avg loss in Reno). USU led vs UN LY until 9:02 in the 4Q coming up 3 pts short.
Nov. 6	New Mexico St	A					LY USU allowed a 28 yd FG as time expired despite being +8 in FD's & +199 in yds (USU missed a 26 yd FG & had a PR fum result in 7 pts). USU hasn't lost 2 str in this series S/1966 & '67.
Nov. 13	at San Jose St	A					LY RB Turbin had a career high 190 yds (7.9) vs SJSt. Aggies haven't beat the Spartans 2 gms in a row S/'77 & '78. The visitor is 1-5 in the series & USU has lost 8 str in San Jose.
Nov. 20	Idaho	A					USU has won 3 str vs Idaho and incl LY this series has seen 5 upsets in the L/8 meetings. Last year QB Borel had career highs in passing yards (369) & TD passes (4).
Nov. 27
Dec. 4	at Boise St	A					USU has been outgained in each of their L/8 gms vs BSU (avg 185 ypg). Aggies have dropped 9 str vs the Broncos. USU has lost by 28, 25, 39 & 35 pts their L/4 trips to the blue turf.

IDAHO VANDALS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Idaho has had some outstanding QB's with Scott Linehan, John Friesz, Doug Nussmeier, Ken Hobart, Ryan Fien and John Welsh all producing 3,000+ yard seasons. While no QB has thrown for that amount since 2000, Nathan Enderle nearly accomplished it last year. In 2007, Enderle took all but one snap in the first 4 and threw for 423 vs NIU. He was inj but reclaimed his starting job a few games later and finished with 1,787 but completed just 44% (10-18 ratio). Enderle made significant improvements in '08 throwing for 2,077 (54%, 20-17). Last year they brought in JC Brian Reader to push him for the #1 spot. Enderle spent extra time on the practice field and in the film room. He held off Reader and then-QB coach Jonathan Smith said that the '09 version of Enderle was by far the best QB UI's had in 6Y. Enderle threw for 2,906 (61.5%, 22-9). He threw 2 int in the 4Q vs SJSt and was actually pulled for Reader, who led the game winning TD drive. Enderle suffered a rotator cuff inj and missed Fresno and Boise. Reader (2 st) threw for 801 (58%, 6-6). This year both QB's return and not listed in the PSL are Logan Bushnell (6'1" 194 So), Taylor Davis (6'3" 202 rFr) and Derek Todd (5'11" 185 rFr). If Enderle improves like he did last year, he will be one of the WAC's best and the unit has good depth.

RUNNING BACKS - Two RB's (Brian Flowers and Jayson Bird) topped 500 in '06 and both ret'd in '07 but Deonte' Jackson took command and rushed for 1,175 (4.9). He did wear down by season's end but the other two combined for just 550 (4.6). In '08, HC Robb Akey lightened Jackson's workload (240 to 161 att) and he had just 696 (4.3) while battling a back injury. Princeton McCarty was the fastest of the backs and rushed for 160 vs NMSt finishing with 480 (6.2). True frosh Troy Vital was the power back and rushed for 210 (3.9) including a crucial 26 yds in the 4Q vs NMSt. Last year those 3 ret'd and they added De'Maundray Woolridge who had (312, 6.0) as a true at Wash St ('05). He had 86 in less than 2Q's vs a tough Auburn D in '06 (330, 4.2) before transferring from WSU. I called the unit one of the WAC's best. Powerback Woolridge led with 979 (5.7) and McCarty had 680 (5.9). Jackson added 387 (4.4) while Vital RS. Not listed below are Kama Bailey (5'9" 200 Jr, from WR), Vital (6'0" 212 So, PS#257), Corey White (5'9" 194 Jr, PS#106) and Bryce Davis (5'9" 212 So). Even with the loss of their top guy, the top two returnees combined for 13 sts LY and this group should come close to '09's standards.

RECEIVERS - The Vandals' top receiver in '08 was by far Eddie Williams, who had 687 (12.7) and ended up on an NFL roster in '09 (WAS). Max Komar had 445 (14.8, 11 st) in '07 but had just 2 st in '08 (298, 11.5). He had a much better offseason prior to '09. Eight different WR/TE started last year and Komar led with 1,052 (16.7) and 11 TD's. TE Daniel Hardy was #2 with 691 (17.7) despite missing a game. Maurice Shaw was the team's home run threat and despite being tied for 4th in receptions, he was #3 with 666 (20.8) and 6 TD's. Eric Greenwood, who is 6'6" with a 35" VL, had 8 st and 401 (12.5). Preston Davis (PS#116) added 460 (13.9). This year they lose Komar (6 st), TE Peter Bjorvik (9 st, 64, 10.7) and TE Kevin Small (7 st, 4 rec). Not listed below are Landon Weaver (5'11" 182 Jr), Kyle Kerfoot (5'7" 159 rFr) and TE's Derek Wieting (5'11" 222 Jr), Daniel Micheletti (6'3" 212 rFr) and Patrick Mealey (6'2" 198 So). Despite the loss of their top guy, this unit has a little more experience.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08, Idaho had 9 of the top 10 back with 110 career sts (5th best FBS). Surprisingly, Akey said the line would be a work in progress as they were trying to find their best 5. RFr Matt Cleveland easily won the LT job but broke his leg in August. It was surprising to me that the veteran unit regressed to 133 ypg rush (3.8) with 36 sks (9.5%). Last year they had to replace 1st Tm WAC C Adam Korby (47 straight sts at C) as well as 2 other st'rs. They did have 5 back with starting exp including RG Adam Juratovac (15 sts '06-'07, bkp '08). I mentioned that despite their career starts dropping to 54, they had a chance at topping '08's underachieving numbers. The unit was led by LG Mike Iupati who earned 1st Tm AA honors and was #1DC SF. They improved to 164 ypg rush (4.7), which was their best since 1998, with just 25 sks (6.3%). This year they lose Iupati (13 st, 3Y st'r), Juratovac (13 st, 2Y st'r), C Irvin Stevens (13 st) and RT Bryce Sinclair (13 st, 2Y st'r). While 6 of the top 10 return, they only have 19 career starts (#116 FBS) and it's not often that a player the caliber of Iupati plays at Idaho. The line is, however, the largest in the FBS (st'rs avg 334 lb).

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Vandals had an exp'd def front in '08 but surprisingly allowed 210 ypg rush and their 5.6 ypc was by far their worst in IA ball (14 yrs). Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs and were equal to '08 in terms of exp but I said they could only improve on their poor '08 numbers. The Vandals only allowed 155 ypg rush (4.7) with 15 sks. This year they lose NT Faleoga Faumui (1 st, 13 tkl LY, 10 st '08). They have 7 of the top 8 back including DT Jonah Sataraka (4 sks) who benches 445 and 2nd Tm WAC DE Aaron Lavarias and add PS#118JC Aaron Strumski. I look for continued improvement from the Idaho front.

SLB JoJo Dickson

LINEBACKERS - In 2008 the Vandals' LB unit was wiped out by graduation (lost #1, #2, #5 tkl'rs & 2 bkps). Surprisingly last year their #2 and #3 tacklers from '08 left in the spring so the unit was a question mark again. Their 3 st'rs had a spattering of exp with 12 comb sts but the tm allowed 6.8 ppg less than '08. Not in the PSL are John McKinley (6'0" 225 Jr), Brad Marboe (6'4" 198 So, PS#269) and Tyler Brooks (6'0" 225 Jr). This year the unit returns intact including 2nd Tm WAC JoJo Dickson and the starting trio was #2, #3 and #7 in tackles with backup Tre'Shawn Robinson #8. They also add PS#143JC Homer Mauga and field their most exp'd LB corps in years.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '08 the Vandals had to replace 2 st'rs then lost '07 Tm MVP SS Shiloh Keo after 4 sts to injury. They added Cal trans Virdell Larkins (PS#36) and he started all 12 (#1 tkl'r). Idaho still finished #115 in my pass D rankings. Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs including Larkins who unexpectedly left in August. They did, however, get Keo back and he led in tackles (113) and int (3). The Vandals still finished #119 allowing 66.2% and a 34-7 ratio. This year they only lose SS Jeromy Jones (9 st, 58 tkl, 1 int) and have 7 of the top 8 back (6 with starts LY) and add ex-QB Quin Ashley. Keo earned 1st Tm WAC and should spearhead UI's best finish in my PDR since '05 (#76).

SPECIAL TEAMS - Idaho was #79 in my ST rankings in '05 and #101 in '06 (all-conf K tore ACL). In '07 they brought in a new ST coach, Roderick Plummer (now at Yale), whose tms set 5 school records at Cornell. All of the key players were back and as expected, UI moved up to #40. Shiloh Keo set a school record with a 100 yd PR TD vs NIU (#6 FBS in KR's). In '08 everyone ret'd (except Plummer) and punter TJ Conley led the NCAA with a 47.4 avg (37.8 net). Keo was lost in Wk 4 (4 PR) and his replacement Kama Bailey avg 0.9 but was the top KR (23.3). UI finished just #73. Last year they had to replace their K and P and I noted it would be tough to improve. Keo returned to form on PR (10.2) but Bailey's KR #'s dropped (20.6). They had some ball security issues vs Nevada and that got true frosh Justin Veltung (4.39 spd) into the lineup. Veltung (25.0) got the first KR TD here since Antwaun Sherman in 2004. Bobby Cowan performed well at P with a 43.0 avg (net 34.0). Trey Farquhar (PS#74) hit 13-19 FG's (2-5 50+) and had 10 TB on 75 KO. This year the unit returns intact and I look for them to greatly improve upon last year's #99 finish.

COACHES - Nick Holt unexpectedly left after '05 to become an asst at USC. Former Vandal HC Dennis Erickson stepped in for a quick one year stint in '06. Robb Akey, who was the DL coach at Wash St (99-'02) and the DC there from '03-'06, became the 3rd HC here in 3 seasons. In his 3rd year LY, Akey took his team from 2-10 to 8-5 with a bowl win! Akey brought in OC Steve Axman (QB cch Montana '06) who was his boss at N Arizona in the 1990's. Axman's offenses at N Ariz finished near the top of the IAA each year and Akey thinks his team has an advantage of playing in a dome. Axman also had stops at UCLA, Wash, Minny, MD, Stanford, Ariz and Illinois. The DC is Mark Criner who was the LB/ST coach at Minny in 2006 and DC at MT ('05), Cincy ('03) and Portland St ('00-'01).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Idaho had just one losing season from 1982-1999 but had suffered 9 straight losing years heading into last year. Idaho plays its home games in the Kibbie Dome (116-61-1 there since 1975) but they went just 19-29 this past decade. Idaho's last winning conf record came in 2000 (Big West). UI was in the SBC from 2001-'04 and joined the WAC in 2005. Heading into 2009 they were 6-26 in WAC play. In Dennis Erickson's one year stint in '06, they won their first 3 WAC games but after a close loss to Boise, were outscored 175-30 in their final 4. After that 3-0 start, they went 1-20 in conf action. In Robb Akey's first year they went just 1-11 but some factors pointed towards improvement in '08 as they were -9 in TO's and allowed 11.3 ypp on defense. While UI was 0-8 in the WAC they were "only" outgained by 95.1 ypg (2nd worst). In '08 they only lost just 11 lettermen and had 6 HG's. While Idaho did improve to 2-10 (1-7 in WAC), they were -151.6 ypg, by far the league's worst. One of their wins was vs FCS Idaho St and only 2 of their losses came by less than 23 pts. Coaches are usually poised for success in their 3rd year and Akey was coming off a season where the team was -14 in turnovers and had an 11.0 def ypp. They had a veteran QB (20 st), a 1,000 yard rusher and some solid skill players. Idaho had a better season than expected. The Vandals beat NMSt on the road 21-6 and then upset SDSt at home 2 wks later. They caught NIU the week after the Huskies upset Purdue and returned the favor beating them 34-31. Idaho trailed Colo St 14-0 after 1Q but rallied for a 31-29 win. QB Enderle threw 2 int in the 4Q vs SJSt and they pulled him but backup Reader came in and directed the game winning TD drive with 1:10 left. Idaho became one of 13 teams to reach bowl eligibility after 7 games with a 35-23 win at home vs Hawaii (UH started bkp QB). They trailed Nevada just 28-24 at the half but were blown out. UI scored the game winning TD with :52 left to get past LT 35-34. After losses to Fresno and Boise, they trailed Utah St 31-7 but rallied for a 42-38 lead before losing by 3. In the bowl, Idaho allowed a 51 yard TD pass with :32 left and trailed 42-35 but got a TD with :04 left and the 2 pt conv for the win, 43-42, and an amazing 8-5 season. They had 4 net close wins (pg 299) and had only 4 sts lost to injury all season. A surprising factor is that Idaho was actually -8 in turnovers and allowed a def ypp of 12.0. This year they have 14 ret st'rs and last year were +8.0 ypg in WAC play (5th best). They do have the edge of extra bowl practices and 10 starters back on D. None of my 9 sets of power ratings call for a winning season (but of course none did last year either).

Sep. 2	North Dakota (Thur)	A					First & only meeting was in '54 (UI won 54-0). IU has won 4 str Kibbie Dome openers. The Fighting Sioux are just in their 3rd yr removed from DII status & went 6-5 LY incl a 38-13 loss at TT.
Sep. 11	at Nebraska	A					First meeting. UI is 0-5 vs current Big 12 tms with the avg loss by 28 ppg. The Vandals are 1-9 in road openers but did win LY (avg loss by 30 ppg) & have lost 20 str vs BCS tms by 29 ppg.
Sep. 18	UNLV	A					UI is 2-3 vs UNLV with the last meeting in '05 (UI lost a shootout 34-31 w/a combined 52 FD's & 933 yds). The Vandals went 2-0 LY hosting FBS non-conf opp's (both from the MWC).
Sep. 25	at Colorado St	A					Idaho is 3-3 vs Colorado St but 2-0 since 1992. LY the Vandals trailed 14-0 after 1Q & 20-7 late in 2Q but completed the 2H comeback & sealed the win with an int w/1:04 left.
Oct. 2	at Western Michigan	A					UI has dropped both gms vs WM ('72 & '08). "Very disappointing" HC Akey after the last gm as it was tied 14-14 w/12:39 left 3Q before allowing 23 3Q pts (UI had FD & yd edges).
Oct. 9
Oct. 16	at Louisiana Tech	A					Home team won the L/2. LY UI trailed 28-14 at HT being outgained 360-183 before their 2H comeback. After UI scored TD's w/5:51 & :52 left LT missed a 56 yd FG on the last play.
Oct. 23	New Mexico St (HC)	A					Idaho has won 4 of the 5 WAC meetings (12-4 vs NMSt all-time). LY Idaho led 21-0 at HT coasting in the 2H as they had just 4 poss (2 were 3 plays or shorter w/just 79 yds).
Oct. 30	at Hawaii	A					UI has dropped 5 straight trips to the island (only win 1960) by 31 ppg. Even despite winning LY vs UH, UI has been outgained in each of the L6Y (-167 ypg). Idaho is 2-8 vs Hawaii.
Nov. 6	Nevada	A					Vandals are 0-5 vs the Wolf Pack in WAC action being outscored on avg 53-20 & have been outgained in every gm by at least 150 yds. The 70 pts UI all'd LY was a series high (27 gms).
Nov. 12	Boise St (Fri)	A					LY Idaho had 7 TO's (5 int & 2 fum) that turned into 28 pts for BSU. The Vandals have dropped 11 straight vs the Broncos (all by at least 15 pts, avg loss by 33 ppg).
Nov. 20	at Utah St	A					Idaho was down 31-7 mid-2Q LY vs USU before scoring 28 unanswered to take the lead but a costly late fum spoiled the comeback. Incl LY there has been 5 upsets in 8 years.
Nov. 27	at Fresno St	G					Idaho has lost 7 str in this series and last beat FSU in 1967. LY UI spotted FSU 24 pts before they got going outgaining the Bulldogs 367-107 in the 2H but it was too little too late.
Dec. 4	San Jose St	A					Last years win snapped a 4 game series losing streak. IU trailed 14-12 at halftime, then led 22-14 into the 4Q but needed a 67/9pl TD drive w/1:10 left for the win.

NEW MEXICO ST AGGIES

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - NMSt ran an option offense prior to former HC Hal Mumme's arrival in '05. He did not have the proper QB's in '05 for his "Air Raid" offense and the team completed just 57% but over the next 3 years they avg'd 399 (69%), 332 (69%) and 301 ypg (67%) with Chase Holbrook as the starter all 3 seasons. Last year they converted back to the run and had to replace Holbrook. I called for Jeff Fleming to win the job as he threw for 1,900 (60%) with 24 TD's and was the JC conf POY in '08. Fleming is also a mobile QB which fits HC DeWayne Walker's system the best. Trevor Walls is a big QB (6'5" 221, PS#252) with a strong arm (pocket passer) who battled him all season long. Fleming started the first 3 then Walls was named starter in wk 4, but Fleming led a late TD drive for the win over New Mexico and won back the job. He lost it again and Walls started 4 but Fleming started the last 5. The two QB's combined for just 88 ypg pass (49.4%) with a horrible 6-17 ratio! This year both QB's return. Not listed in the PSL are Scott Galland (6'3" 207 Jr) and Rush Atkinson (6'0" 192 rFr). Don't discount the chance of Walker signee rFr Tanner Rust (PS#95), one of this year's newcomers Matt Christian (PS#139JC, IFS) or true frosh Andrew Manley (PS#57) winning the job. I am not going too far out on a limb here by calling for much improved passing numbers by whoever wins the Aggies' QB job.

RUNNING BACKS - Naturally in Hal Mumme's pass happy offense, the RB's got very little rushing yards and in '08 Marquell Colston led with 384 (4.7) while Tonny Glynn had 214 (3.2). You had to expect improved rushing numbers in '09. Colston was suspended then dismissed after 6 gms (249, 4.2). Ronald Opetaia (85, 3.9 '08) was used as a blocker with just 1 rush att (4 rec). The only productive offensive player was Seth Smith and he did one of the better jobs of any RB in the country. Despite opp's knowing they did not have to fear the passing game and keying on him, Smith rushed for 1,016 (4.1) and also had 11 rec. Smith was slightly less effective in the 2H of '09 as he was the workhorse (banged up). This year Smith should be one of the top RB's in the WAC. While he became their first 1,000 yard rusher since 2000 (9th school hist), I look for this unit to top last year's numbers as they add 24-yr-old Kenny Turner, who rushed for 1,513 (6.4) at JUCO in '09. Besides Colston they only lose Glynn (1 st, 295, 4.5). Not listed below are Robert Clay (5'10" 190 So), James Hall (5'8" 170 rFr), Marquese Dunn (6'2" 217 Fr) and FB's Brandon Perez (5'8" 231 Sr) and Eli "Teka" Salicido (5'11" 220 Sr).

RECEIVERS - In '06, Chris Williams (fastest on tm) finished #1 in the NCAA in rec ypg (118) with 1,415 yds (15.4). Derek Dubois had 800 (15.1) and AJ Harris 789 (11.1). In '07 Williams missed 5.5 gms (inj) but still led with 772 (13.8) while Dubois was #2 with 709 (12.9). In '08 they had to replace Dubois and Williams was banged up late in the 2H of the year and had 1,271 (14.8). Harris added 713 (9.1) and Marcus Anderson (PS#126JC) had 617 (12.3). You probably will not see numbers like that anytime soon in the DeWayne Walker era. They had to replace the top 2 in '09. Anderson tweaked his knee and missed 2 (9 sts). Naturally, with a run heavy offense and inexp'd QB's, his numbers dropped drastically to 208 (9.5). Todd Lee (shoulder) was in and out of the lineup (only miss 1) and finished #2 with 280 (10.0). Marcus Allen, who had 1,131 (19.5) at JC in '08 led with 308 (11.8). TE Kyle Nelson missed most of August and only started 5 and finished #4 with 112 (9.3). This year they lose Anderson but the WR's are much more exp'd along with the QB's, so I look for much improved numbers. Not listed below are Mark Hilgers (5'11" 165 rFr), Joe Cordova (6'8" 198 So), Barry Huntley (6'0" 185 Sr) and Spencer Diaz (6'5" 209 Sr).

OFFENSIVE LINE - Naturally when you go from an option attack to a pass offense, the rushing numbers will greatly decrease and that was the case in Hal Mumme's four years here. In 2006 they set a then school single season record for lowest ypg rush (76). In Mumme's final year ('08) he had 3 OL st'rs back but hit a new low of 55 ypg rush (2.1) with 44 sks (8.9%). Two ret st'rs did combine for just 12 sts. Last year they were switching schemes again and had to replace 3 st'rs. With more of a run based attack, they improved to 142 ypg (3.7) with just 23 sks (8.6%). The unit did maintain better health (4 OL started all 13) with only 3 sts missed. This year they lose LG Joseph Palmer (13 st), RT David Norman (10 st), RT Joe Suder (3 st) and 2nd string C JR Saulietis. They actually add a VHT in Aundre McGaskey (PS#22 '07, 11 gm at TX). Despite the losses this is still an exp'd line with 70 career starts.

RG Sioeli Fakalata

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08, NMSt tried to install the 3-3-5 defense but the unit allowed 220 ypg rush (5.2) with just 19 sks. Last year they converted back to a 4-3 defense but had 5 career starts in the unit to work with so they were very inexp'd and learning a new system. This time they allowed 221 ypg and the 5.6 ypc was their worst in over 15 years. The DE combo of Donte Savage and Pierre Fils combined for 13 sks (tm 21). Fils' 7 sks were the most by an Aggie since 1992. This year they lose DT EJ Cannon (8 st, 8 tkl) and Chris Romero (2 st, 15 tkl). This should be a vastly improved defensive front.

LINEBACKERS - Last year they had to replace 1 starter (#4 tkl'r) but then lost Nick Paden (#2 tackler in '08) in August. They had 5 seniors (comb 31 sts) and those 5 started all but 2 games (Sr DB st'd other 2). This year they lose Jason Scott (13 st, #1 tkl'r, 5.5 tfl), Ross Conner (11 st, #2 tkl'r, 4.5 tfl), Jamar Cotton (6 st, #10 tkl'r, 2.5 tfl), Sam King (5 st, 15 tkl) and Justen Alford (2 st, 13 tkl, 2 sk) This unit has just 1 career start returning.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '08, NMSt finished #53 in my pass D rankings but that was mostly because opp's ran at will on their defense (only 300 pass att) for 159 ypg. LY they had to replace 2 st'rs (one 2nd Tm WAC) but surprisingly moved up to #47 allowing just 53.6% (18-7 ratio). This year they only lose Chris Buckner (3 st, 41 tkl) and SS Junior Fasavalu (12 tkl). All 4 starters return and they are the top 4 ret tacklers on the team. While it will be tough to move up much in my PDR, this is a more exp'd group.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Mumme's first three years here ('05-'07) NMSt finished #53, #85 and #113 in my ST rankings. In '08 JUCO Marcus Anderson was the top KR (23.7) and Kyle Hughes took over as the P and as the KO man and the unit moved up to #63. Hughes had a 35.1 net punt avg and hit 7-11 FG's (long 44). Walker did not want Hughes handling all 3 jobs last year so Jordan Davenport began as K but he missed from 36 and Hughes took over (9-15 long 42). Hughes had some memorable games like vs Utah St when he had a TB on a KO, 10 punts (45.5) and the game winning FG. His P avg was 41.8 (net 35.3). Hughes also had an outstanding 12 TB's on 39 KO's. Tonny Glynn avg'd 22.2 per KR and set a school single season record for KR yds and attempts, while Anderson led the WAC in PR avg (11.4). This year they lose Anderson and Glynn but have Hughes back and could improve upon LY's #77 finish.

COACHES - DeWayne Walker was UCLA's DC from '06-'08 and was the interim HC in the '07 Las Vegas Bowl, in which the Bruins nearly upset #19 BYU. Prior to UCLA, Walker was the DB coach for the Washington Redskins ('04-'05). OC Timm Rosenbach was fired after only 1 year because the Aggies finished last in the NCAA in total offense (229 ypg). Mike Dunbar takes over as OC. Dunbar was the OC at Minnesota from '07-'08, OC at Cal in '06 and OC at N'wstrn from '02-'05 under the late Randy Walker. Dunbar was the HC of N Iowa from '97-'00 (29-15). HC Walker also serves as the DC and almost took the Seattle (NFL) DC job which pays more than the $375K he gets as the head man here.

PHIL'S FORECAST

This team has had FOUR winning years since 1967 (42 yrs!). When you shift from an option attack to a pure pass offense, it's usually a 3 to 4 year process. Former HC Tony Samuel ('97-'04) ran an old school Nebraska wishbone and Mumme brought in his pure pass offense in 2005. As expected, the team struggled and in fact had their first winless season since 1989 at 0-12! A good portion of their points came in garbage time when they trailed big. The Aggies were a WAC worst -124.2 ypg and were also -23 in TO's. In '06 everything pointed to a much better season and the Aggies had 3 net close losses or could have actually had a winning year. In '07, NMSt had 17 ret st'rs and opened 4-4 but lost to NM despite a 30-20 FD edge. They lost QB Holbrook to injury and suffered some tough losses. NMSt was 1-7 in the WAC (-71.5 ypg, 3rd worst). Everything pointed to a winning season in '08. NMSt was -15 in TO's in '07 and had poor ypp's. HC Mumme said the team was deeper than they'd been and he was as optimistic as he'd been at any school he'd coached. NMSt amazingly knocked off Nevada on the road 48-45 to open 3-2 and a bowl seemed inevitable. NMSt had a 17-11 FD edge vs SJSt but lost thanks to 90 and 43 yd IR TD's. The O-line had all 5 st'rs out vs Idaho and the injury plagued team struggled down the stretch including a 47-2 loss at Utah St in the finale. Last year I pointed out the Aggies were in transition again, this time shifting back to a run based attack and they had just 8 ret st'rs (4 on each side). I said the Aggies would have a tough time topping the previous year's 3 win total but they actually caught a few breaks. They beat Prairie View A&M by only 3 but then vs NMex they were outgained 356-218 but still pulled out a 20-17 win. Against Utah St they were outgained 429-230 and once again prevailed 20-17 and amazingly opened the year 3-3. They did lose their final 7 and despite their 3-10 record they had 2 net close wins. On the positive side, NMSt qualifies for my Turnovers=Turnaround (-10), had poor off and def ypp's (pg 299) and is a much more veteran unit with 15 ret st'rs in the 2nd year in Walker's schemes. This is a much improved team and they should escape the WAC basement but may not top last year's 3 win total with a tough non-conf slate.

Sep. 11	San Diego St	G					NMSt is 1-7-1 vs SDSt (only win in 1955). LY's gm was tied at 17 early 4Q before the Aggies allowed 17 unanswered. The Aggies all'd a ssn best 252 yds to the Aztecs LY.
Sep. 18	at UTEP	A					Visitor is just 3-10 in this series but NMSt won 34-33 LTH. LY the Aggies trailed 31-0 after 3Q's (gm delayed 3 hrs in 1Q due to weather). NMSt is 3-18 in road openers but did win LY.
Sep. 25	at Kansas	A					NMSt is 2-19 vs the Big 12 & 1-1 vs Kansas & this is the 1st game since 1991. The Aggies have dropped 17 straight road gms vs BCS tms (since 2000) with the avg score 44-10.
Oct. 2	Boise St	G					NMSt has dropped all 10 meetings vs Boise St and has allowed no less than 33 pts in every gm (avg score 46-19). In the L/3 games vs BSU, NMSt has been outscored 149-7.
Oct. 9	New Mexico	G					101st edition of the Rio Grande Rivalry. NMSt has won B2B gms just once S/'69 ('98 & '99). LY's gm saw 5 lead changes as NMSt went 59/17pl (7:00 TOP) for the winning TD w/:39 left.
Oct. 16	at Fresno St	G					The first meeting was in 1972 and New Mexico St has gone 0-16 vs Fresno St. LTH the Aggies were tied into the 4Q then after a 4&1 pen at the FS19 they were sacked.
Oct. 23	at Idaho	A					NMSt is 1-5 in the Kibbie Dome dropping the L/2 by just 8 & 6 pts. NMSt has been upset by UI 4x's in the L6Y. Both schools were Sun Belt members prior to joining the WAC 5 yrs ago.
Oct. 30	San Jose St	G					NMSt is just 2-15 vs SJSt and the Aggies have never beat the Spartans in Las Cruces (0-8). LY NMSt trailed 10-0 but tied it up after 3Q's only to lose on a 19 yd FG w/:34 left.
Nov. 6	at Utah St	A					NMSt is just 3-12 in trips to Logan but have won 2 of their last 5. LY despite getting outgained by 199 yds NMSt got a 56 yd PR then went 18/5pl for a GW 28 yd FG on the final play.
Nov. 13	Louisiana Tech	G					The Aggies have lost 3 straight vs the Bulldogs but the home team is 4-1 in WAC action. LY NMSt trailed 45-0 late in the 4Q & their only points came on a 38 yd FR TD.
Nov. 20	at Nevada	A					NMSt is 2-11 vs UN but the 2 wins have been in Reno incl their last trip w/both teams topping 500+ yds & 8 lead changes. NMSt did lead 3-0 LY but after 1Q they were down 28-3.
Nov. 27	Hawaii	G					New Mexico St is 0-6 vs Hawaii (1st meeting in '78, 0-5 in WAC play). NMSt has allowed 300+ pass yds in every conf gm vs UH, all'g 396 ypg (66%) with a 21-2 ratio.

SAN JOSE ST SPARTANS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - The Spartans have produced some accomplished QB's in Jeff Garcia, Steve DeBerg, Ed Luther and Mike Perez. Numerous players split the position from 2004-'06 but in '07, Adam Tafralis threw for 3,022 (63%, 18-11) and left as the career passing leader. Tafralis was the first QB in Spartan history to start four straight season openers. In '08 they returned Sean Flynn (6 gm, 18 car att), Chad Bozzo (3 gm, 33 att) and Myles Eden (15 gm, 22 att, 159 rush). I expected Cal transfer Kyle Reed (PS#18) to win the job but he missed the spring. In the opener Reed came off the bench and guided 2 late drives for TD's including a 4th down TD pass with :08 left for the win. Reed would start 8, throwing for 1,563 (64%, 9-6). Eden started 3 and threw for 452 (62%, 2-5) and Sean Flynn started one (298, 51%). Last year Reed was battling Jordan La Secla (10-21-77 in 7 gm 2Y). Eden dropped to #3 and would get in just 4 games (6 att). La Secla started 8 and threw for 1,926 (59.9%, 10-11) while Reed started the first 2 and the last 2 and threw for 489 (58.4%, 3-3). This year they lose Reed and Eden and battling La Secla will be Dasmen Stewart (solid arm, athletic), walk-on Cory Murphy (6'1" 160 rFr) and JUCO Matt Faulkner (IFS, orig w/Fresno, 3301, 30 TD's at JC LY). No matter who wins the job, I look for improved numbers.

QB Jordan La Secla

RUNNING BACKS - In '06, Yonus Davis rushed for 1,007 (6.2) but RS in '07. Patrick Perry (454, 4.5 in '06) was lost in Aug so '07's top RB was Jacob French (PS#82JC), who had just 331 (3.3). Perry sat out '08 (inj) but Davis ret'd and rushed for 558 (4.7). Brandon Rutley (PS#182) had 4 sts as a true frosh and rushed for 356 (4.5). Chris Reese rushed for 92 (3.7). Last year they had to replace Davis but Perry was awarded a 6th year and they added PS#8JC Lamon Muldrow. It surprised me that Muldrow saw little action in the first 3 but in his first start vs Cal Poly, he rushed for 184 (9.2). He had 8 sts and led but with just 592 (4.5). Perry was #2 with 208 (3.1). Rutley, who is a speed back, was bothered by an ankle injury and had just 59 (2.0). This year they lose Perry (3 st) and 3 bkps (comb 16 rushes). Not listed below are Marcos Garces (5'10" 176 Jr), Matt McCoy (6'0" 250 Sr) and Osa Aigbuza (5'10" 185 So). Muldrow should be in better shape and perhaps the new coach will utilize him more effectively. SJSt can only improve upon their 77 ypg rushing (2.6).

RECEIVERS - In '07, SJSt had an inexp group but moved S Kevin Jurovich in and he set a school record with 85 rec (13.9) becoming just the 3rd Spartan to top 1,000 rec yds (Edell Shepherd 1500 '01, Guy Liggins 1208 '87). They also added VHT David Richmond (PS#6JC) who was #2 with 852 (15.5). Jurovich RS in '08 (inj) and Richmond led with 832 (11.6) which was almost triple the yards of #2, TE Terrance Williams (288, 13.1). Last year they had to replace Richmond and 3 of the top 5. Jurovich ret'd and led with 777 (12.9). Marquis Avery (PS#83JC) had 465 (11.1) and 6'4" Jalal Beauchman had 378 (10.8). Soph Josh Harrison had 296 (8.5). Williams was injured and only started the last 4 (5 gm, 11 rec). This year they lose Jurovich (10 st) and Williams. TE Ryan Otten caught the HC's eye in spg and will be a vital piece for the new offense. Not listed below are James Orth (6'2" 190 So) and TE Avelino Valencia (6'5" 250 Sr). This unit has good depth but I am not sure who the feature WR will be.

OFFENSIVE LINE - The Spartans had exp'd O-lines in '07 and '08 but avg just 84 ypg (2.6) and 87 ypg (2.7) rushing respectively. Last year they had 4 st'rs back (93 car sts) so the unit appeared to be a strength but surprisingly they only opened holes for 77 ypg (2.6) while allowing 34 sks (8.4%). They did lose Rimington Trophy candidate C Ronnie Castillo after 6 sts (8 gm). This year they lose Castillo (3Y st'r), RT John Konye (8 st, 2 yr st'r), RG Nathaniel Timo (4 st), G Steve Lightsy (3 st) and RT Garrett Faulconer (1 st). With 22 starts lost I will list 3 st'rs returning but under the new coach some of the returnees (95 car sts) may lose their spots (all were proj'd st'rs out of spg). They can really only improve over the last 3 years' production.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Six times in the 10 years prior to Tomey's arrival ('05), SJSt allowed 5.0 ypc rushing or more. In former HC Dick Tomey's first 4 seasons ('05-'08) they were much tougher allowing 3.5, 4.1, 4.5 and 4.0. In '08 they had to replace 1 st'r but added VHT USC transfer Jeff Schweiger (PS#3) although he was just their 3rd best DL. The Spartans allowed just 141 ypg rush and the D's 33 sacks were their most since joining the WAC ('96). Last year they had to replace #3DC DE Jarron Gilbert (9.5 sk) and Schweiger but ret'd Carl Ihenacho, who Tomey said could be the best player to play for SJSt (2nd Tm WAC '08, 18.5 tfl). They lost DE Mohamed Marah (6 st '08) in the opener, Ihenacho was lost after 7 and the entire unit was hit hard by injuries as no DL started more than 8. Even so, it was very surprising that the Spartans' rush D collapsed to allowing 259 ypg rush and 6.1 ypc. This year they lose 2nd TM WAC, DE Ihenacho (42 tkl, 4 sk, 2 tfl), DT Adonis Davis (8 st, 13 tkl, 1 sk), DT Kalvin Cressel (3 st, 16 tkl) and DE Liam Smith (2 st, 9 tkl). Due to injuries, LB Justin Cole started 6 at DE and he is also gone. Five return who started last year and they can only improve.

LINEBACKERS - After having an inexp'd LB corps in '08, all 3 st'rs ret'd last year and the unit missed no starts to injury. I was very surprised that SJSt saw its ppg allowed rise from 21.6 to 34.5. This year they lose LB/DE Justin Cole (5 st LB, 6 st DE, #5 tkl'r, 9 tfl), Travis Jones (12 st, #4 tkl'r, 6 tfl) and Eric Bucholz (6 tkl). In the 4-2-5 they played last year I listed the ROV at LB and Duke Ihenacho earned 1st Tm WAC (#2 tkl'r). Pompey Festejo (#3 tkl'r), who started when Cole was at DE, also returns. This yr in a true 4-3 Duke Ihenacho goes to S while Tiuke Tuipulotu moves from S to OLB. Despite being less exp'd, this year's LB's could be improved.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Dick Tomey always fielded a top-notch secondary and finished of #52 in my PDR in '06 and #39 in '07. They had to replace a #4DC in '08 and had just one st'r back but Tomey said that CB's Christopher Owens and Coye Francies were the best CB's he'd had in his 4 years. Remember, he had Dwight Lowery, the team's first 1st Tm AA since 1971 (Dave Chaney) in '06. The '08 unit finished #6 in my PDR. Last year they had to replace 3 st'rs (#3 and #6 DC's) then Devin Newsome (12 st '08) lost his job after 5 sts. As you would expect, they dropped to #78. At the end of the year the st'rs were 3 soph and a frosh. This year they move in Dominique Hunsucker from RB (has ply'd S before). With the entire 2 deep returning (Newsome moves to WR) and the addition of Duke Ihenacho, SJSt figures to have a much improved secondary.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Tomey had four Top 20 ST finishes at Arizona. He inherited a team that finished #93 in my ST rankings. SJSt moved up to #75 in '05 and #46 in '06. In '07 his kickers were so shaky (10 straight misses) that they opted to go for it on 4th down 7x vs Fresno (SOD on 6). The Spartans plummeted to #111. They moved up to #75 in '08 and last year had to replace their K and top PR. P Philip Zavala, who avg 36.6 in '08 (33.3 tm net), improved to 42.2 (37.6 tm net). Tyler Cope hit 7-11 FG's (long 46). Naturally when you have a team short on depth hit by injuries, the return unit struggles and SJSt avg 1.7 on PR (allowed 10.7) and 18.5 on KR's (allowed 22.1). Zavala had 3 TB's on 37 KO's. This year they lose their lone bright spot in Zavala and may not improve much from last year's #112 finish.

COACHES - Dick Tomey retires with a 183-145-7 career record (25-35 in 5 yr here). He did guide SJSt to its first bowl in 16 years. Mike MacIntyre comes in as the new HC. MacIntyre spent the last 2 years as the DC of Duke under David Cutcliffe and was named AFCA FBS Asst of the Year in '09. Duke's defense improved from allowing 33.2 ppg in '07 to 23.4 in '08 and 28.3 in '09. The total ypg allowed improved from 424 in '07 to 357 in '08 and 369 last year. Prior to Duke, MacIntyre spent 5 years coaching DB's in the NFL for NYJ ('07) and Dallas ('03-'06). He also spent 4 years at Ole Miss ('99-'02) under Cutcliffe coaching WR's and DB's there. The new OC is Tim Landis who has had HC stints at Bucknell, Saint Mary's (CA) and Davidson (85-98-1 car rec). He originally hired Hugh Freeze, but he left for the OC job at Ark St. Kent Baer was the LB coach here the last 2 yrs and is now the DC. He was previously at Washington as the DC from '05-'07.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Tomey inherited a SJSt team that was 2-9 in 2004 and only had 13 ret st'rs. He never had an 8 loss season in his career until '05 (3-8). Tomey installed an electric atmosphere at home where they went 3-2 but their streak of road losses increased to 13. SJSt's win over Idaho was its first win in a finale since 1997. They had 3 net close losses and could have been 6-5. In '06 they benefitted from playing 7 HG's (most S/'48) where they went 6-1 (with 33 of former HC Fitz Hill's recruits). The most HG's Hill ever had was 5 (9 AG's '02). SJSt had just 2 ret st'rs on D in '06 and it was amazing that their D allowed just 20.8 ppg (best since 1990!). SJSt faced just three FBS teams that finished with a winning record and lost all 3 but finished 9-4. In '07 they only had 5 HG's and a much tougher schedule plus the '06 version benefitted from +9 in TO's. SJSt had 2 close losses including one in OT to undefeated Hawaii (which made a BCS bowl) and dropped to 5-7. Despite their losing record, SJSt was +13 in TO's and was 4-4 in the WAC (+12.7 ypg). That '07 squad snapped a streak of 89 straight games without being shutout (actually shutout twice in '07). In '08 SJSt had just 12 ret st'rs but did add Cal transfer QB Reed and two other BCS conf VHT's not to mention RB Davis (1,000 yds '06) returned. Things looked pretty good early. After struggling on the WAC road (3-17) they won their first 3 conf away games. They opened 6-4 but after dropping their last 2, FAU beat them out for the final bowl slot. On the negative side for 2009, SJSt benefitted from 3 net close wins and was +8 in TO's in '08. Last year they were the only team to face 2 BCS bowl winners from '08 and played them the first two games. The Spartans switched to FieldTurf (from grass) in their 76 year old stadium to cut down on inj but ironically, they were hit hard by them in a disastrous year. They opened an expected 1-3 but allowed Idaho a TD with 1:10 left and lost, changing the fortunes of both teams. They then faced the WAC's top 3 teams (2 on road) and lost by a combined 148-35. In the cold and snow at Utah St they suffered loss #8 and Tomey announced he would be stepping down. They lost to Hawaii in OT but got Tomey a win in his FHG, ending up 2-10 overall and -139.9 ypg (2nd worst) in WAC play. They had 35 starts lost to injury last year. With a new HC, new schemes, 27 lettermen lost plus many of the returnees switching positions, this looks to me like a rebuilding year. I will call for a 2nd straight losing season.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score SJSt	Final Score Opp	W L
Sep. 4	at Alabama	G					First meeting. San Jose St has dropped 7 straight road openers by an avg score of 46-10. The Spartans have dropped 14 str away vs BCS tms by 30 ppg (last win at Illinois in '02).
Sep. 11	at Wisconsin	A					In 1997 (only meeting), San Jose St hosted Wisconsin and lost 56-10. SJSt was only trailing 14-10 in the 1Q but UW wore them down w/a 23-12 FD & 579-278 yd edge.
Sep. 18	Southern Utah	A					In the only meeting, SJSt beat SUU 47-7 in '00 w/a 494-347 yd edge. The Thunderbirds went 5-6 LY incl losses to SDSt (35-19) & Utah St (53-34). SUU is 1-17 vs current FBS schools.
Sep. 25	at Utah	A					Spartans are 1-5 vs the Utes and won their last trip to Salt Lake City but that was in 1974. In the 2 recent meetings ('98 & '09) SJSt has been outgained in both by 160+ (-199 ypg).
Oct. 2	UC Davis	A					SJSt is 4-3-2 vs UCD but the last loss was in 1931. In '08 (last gm) SJSt escaped a defensive battle 13-10. The Aggies went 6-5 LY incl losses to Fresno St (51-0) & Boise St (34-16).
Oct. 9	at Nevada	A					San Jose St is 1-8 vs Nevada and hasn't won in Reno since 2000 (4 straight losses by at least 16 pts). LY's 62-7 loss was the worst at home in San Jose St football history.
Oct. 16	Boise St	A					The Spartans have dropped all 10 meetings vs the Broncos w/an avg loss by 28 ppg. As WAC members the L9Y SJSt has been outgained in every meeting by an avg of 215 ypg.
Oct. 23	Fresno St	A					SJSt has dropped 3 straight to Fresno St and are just 1-15 since 1991. The home team has won in 4 of the L5. LY SJSt led 14-7 after 1Q but allowed 34 unanswered pts.
Oct. 30	at New Mexico St	G					Even though SJSt has won every WAC meeting (5-0), the visitor has been outgained in each (-88 ypg). LY in HC Tomey's FHG the Spartans went 82/12pl & kicked a GW 19 yd FG w/:34 left.
Nov. 6
Nov. 13	Utah St	A					Spartans did lose last year, but are 11-2 vs the Aggies. Last year's game time temp was 28 degrees (snow flurries) & it was the first time since 1986 that SJSt played in snow.
Nov. 20	at Hawaii	A					Visitor has won 4 of 5 in this series. SJSt has been outgained in each of the last 11 yrs vs UH (L/4 by 220 ypg). SJSt lost in OT LY as UH's only regulation TD came after an int.
Nov. 27	Louisiana Tech	A					SJSt has dropped 3 str to LT but the home team is 6-1 in WAC play. LY SJSt led 14-7 early but allowed 31 2Q pts (171 yds) vs LT. The Spartans have won 4 of 5 home finales.
Dec. 4	at Idaho	A					The Spartans are 4-1 in WAC play (2-0 at Kibbie Dome) vs the Vandals and haven't lost 2 str in this series S/'64 & '65. Four of the 5 conf meetings have been decided by 8 pts or less.

PHIL STEELE'S 2010 INDEPENDENT FORECAST

1. NOTRE DAME Brian Kelly steps into a tremendous situation as ND has not had a lot of success in recent years (16-21) and he has a talented team. Luckily it doesn't matter who the QB is for Kelly's offense to be successful and Dayne Crist (PS#5) was impressive in the spring. They should have a vastly improved defense with 9 st'rs back and a move back to the 3-4. My main set of power ratings call for them to have double digit wins this season.

2. NAVY The Middies have good experience returning with 13 starters back which is actually their most since 2006. QB Ricky Dobbs is exciting and I like the stable of RB's led by FB Vince Murray and SB Marcus Curry. The Navy secondary could be one of their best in the last 2 decades. It should be another successful season which means Navy will be headed to the Poinsettia Bowl.

3. ARMY This is the Cadets most experienced team (16 ret st'rs) since 2004 and it is also the second year of Rich Ellerson's schemes. Army almost made it to a bowl last year at 5-7 with a couple of near misses. This year my main set of power ratings calls for them to get to bowl eligibility and that would put them in the Armed Forces Bowl. This is easily Army's best team since their 1996 bowl squad.

Independent Notes: With just 3 independents left and one of them being a BCS team loaded with VHT players and the other two being service academies, it is tough to do a balanced All-Independent team. Three years ago Navy beat ND for the first time in 44 years and Army and ND both finished 3-9. Navy beat ND again last year and has finished as the #1 Independent for 3 straight years with a 26-14 record in that span. Notre Dame is a distant 2nd at 16-21 over the 3 years and Army follows with a 11-25 record. All 3 teams have a great shot at getting to a bowl this year after just one went to the postseason in both '07 and '09. I still feel Army would be a great fit for the MAC (14th team to balance schedule). Navy has beaten Army EIGHT straight years which is the longest streak in that storied series. This year Army will play Notre Dame at Yankee Stadium, in just their 2nd meeting since 1998. All 3 Independents will play each other giving us a true "Independent Champ" this season.

NOTRE DAME FIGHTING IRISH

QUARTERBACKS - Since Lou Holtz left following 1996, the Irish have signed a total of 16 QB's. Just 3 - Jimmy Clausen, Evan Sharpley and Brady Quinn played their entire college career as a ND QB. Quinn left after '06 as the career passing leader. With a veteran offense in '06 he threw for 3,426 (62%, 37-7). Quinn's backup, Sharpley (PS#13) played in 8 (2 att) and battled true frosh Clausen (PS#5) in '07. Clausen underwent elbow surgery in June and was not 100% in Aug. Demetrius Jones (PS#6) started the opener but was benched and then transferred to Cincy to play for Brian Kelly. Clausen (8th frosh QB to start S/'51) started in Wk2. Clausen (1254, 56%, 7-6) became physically worn down and was benched for a few games. Sharpley had 2 sts (736, 55%, 5-3). Clausen added 20 lbs in '08 and threw for 3,172 (61%, 25-17). Sharpley played in just 3 (5 att). Clausen played his way into being an AA contender in '09 throwing for 3,722 (68%, 28-4) despite a nagging foot inj. RFr Dayne Crist (PS#5) was the backup (4 gm, 20 att) before a torn ACL vs Wash St. Sharpley had 0 att. This year they lose Clausen (#2DC CAR) and Sharpley. Battling Crist will be true frosh Tommy Rees (IFS) and Andrew Hendrix (PS#12) along with soph Nate Montana who opted to play at Pasadena CC last year but could not win the starting job (31-88 for 324, 2-5). He did receive 40% of the snaps in spring with Kelly wanting to prep 3 QB's and Crist was less than 100%. Not listed below are Matt Mulvey (6'2" 191 Jr) and Brian Castello (6'2" 210 Sr). Naturally there is a large drop off but do keep in mind that Brian Kelly (great QB developer) won the Big East Title playing 4 different QB's in 2008 and Crist is talented enough to become the 4th QB to stick in South Bend.

RUNNING BACKS - In 2006, Darius Walker led with 1,267 (5.0) however the top RB has not come close to reaching 1,000 the last 3 yrs. In '07 the leading rusher was James Aldridge (PS#2) who had just 463 (3.8) while Armando Allen (PS#13, 348, 4.0) was #2. Powerful Robert Hughes (PS#9) had 294 (5.5). In '08 Allen led with 585 (4.4) and had 50 rec's while Hughes added 382 (3.4) and Aldridge had 357 (3.9). Last year Allen missed 3 but still led with 697 (4.9). Hughes had 131 (5.5) vs Wash St and finished #2 (416, 4.7). Aldridge moved to FB (17 yds, 6 gm, inj). Jonas Gray (5'10" 225 Jr, PS#5) has 209 (3.8) in 2 years. This year the only loss is Aldridge and added to the mix is rFr Cierre Wood (PS#4). Just once at Cincy did Kelly have a back avg more than 10 att's per game but this should be the most productive ND RB corps since '06.

RB Armando Allen

RECEIVERS - The Irish's career reception leader was Tom Gatewood (1969-'71) and he was also the team's last 1,000 yard rec until Weis arrived in '05. Weis produced five 1,000 yard receivers in his 5 years. Jeff Samardzija left after '06 as the school's career leader. In '07 ND had inexp'd WR's and was led by TE John Carlson (372, 9.3). In '08 WR Golden Tate (PS#27) led with 1,080 (18.6) and 6'3" Michael Floyd (PS#2) was #2 with 719 (15.0). TE Kyle Rudolph had 340 (11.7). Last year I called them the #1 receiving corps in the country. Tate became the first Irish WR to win the Biletnikoff Award (1496, 16.1). Some of ND's struggles happened after Floyd was inj'd against Michigan (miss last 6:00) and again vs MSU (collarbone) and he DNP in 5 gms. Floyd finished with 795 (18.1) while Rudolph added 364 (11.0) despite missing 2. This year they lose their top guy Tate (#2DC SEA) and Robby Parris (6 st, 227, 9.1). They have plenty of VHT's ready to step in including Duval Kamara (PS#8) who has 781 (10.4) in 3 yrs plus 3 who played as frosh last year (comb 20 rec, 11.2). Not listed below are Dan Franco (5'10" 188 Sr), Chris Gurries (5'10" 186 Sr), Patrick Coughlin (6'0" 195 Sr), Derry Herlihy (6'0" 198 Sr) and TE's Bobby Burger (6'2" 245 Sr, 1 st) and Jake Golic (6'4" 230 rFr, PS#21). This still looks like a premier group even with the loss of their top guy.

OFFENSIVE LINE - The Irish OL is made up almost exclusively of VHT's but despite fielding exp'd fronts from '02-'06, their best year was '03 with 157 ypg and 4.0 ypc. The other 4 yrs were just 3.4, 3.3, 3.6 and 3.9 ypc. In '07 they had to replace 3 st'rs (#3, #7 DC's) and 2 bkps. They had three first time st'rs and the inexp'd OL struggled. They set a school record by allowing an NCAA worst 58 sks (14.9%) and only avg 75 ypg (2.1) rush. That total was 50 ypg less than in any other season in the last 60 years. In '08 they had to replace 2 st'rs and they improved (110 yds, 3.3, 22 sk). Last year they only had to replace 1 st'r (1 st'r lost to inj). In Weis' schemes the RG was the most isolated position and he felt Trevor Robinson was best suited for that spot. Robinson did miss Navy and parts of others. They only improved to 128 ypg rush (3.8) with 25 sks (5.6%). This year they lose RT Sam Young (12 st, 4Y st'r, #6DC DAL), LT Paul Duncan (12 st, 2Y st'r) and C Eric Olsen (12 st, 3Y st'r, #6DC DEN). Naturally 9 of the 10 in the 2 deep are VHT's. This is a less exp'd line and must learn new schemes but this is also the top OL talent-wise that Kelly has coached and he usually produces a solid group.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2007 the Irish had to replace 3 st'rs (#2, #5DC's) and switched to a 3-4 (2 ret st'rs). The less exp'd front allowed 195 ypg rush (4.3) which was the most here since 1991 (D just 19 sks). In '08 they only had 18 sks until they added 8 in the bowl. They did improve the rush D to 134 ypg (4.1). Last year they moved back to a 4-3 and had to replace 2 st'rs but added in rFr Kapron Lewis-Moore (PS#40), who coaches compared to former #1 overall NFL DC Steve Emtman. The D played well early but collapsed over the final 4 giving up 263 rush ypg and 5.7 ypc. That dropped the season totals to 170 ypg (4.8). This year they lose DE John Ryan (7 st, 20 tkl, 2 sk) and again switch back to the 3-4. I would expect significant improvement from the Irish front.

LINEBACKERS - Last year the Irish had just 1 ret st'r ('08's #5 tkl'r) to a new 3 man LB unit. They added in PS#1 true frosh Manti Te'o and he lived up to his advanced billing starting 9 gms with 57 of his 63 tkls (#4 tkl'r) in the last 8 gms. This year they only lose Toryan Smith (3 st, 15 tkl) and Scott Smith (21 tkl). Three st'rs return (#2, #4, #10 tkl'rs) to the much improved new 4 man group which made my Top 20 (see pg 14).

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In 2007 ND had to replace 2 st'rs (#6 & #7 DC's) but moved up to #26 in my PDR allowing just 162 ypg (53%), their lowest total since 1996. In '08 they had to replace one starter (#3DC) and then CB Darrin Walls (11 st '07) DNP. The Irish slipped to #32. LY they had to replace 2 st'rs (#4DC) but moved LB Harrison Smith (#4 tkl'r '08) to FS. They also faced 3 true frosh QB's but unfortunately 2 of them (Forcier and Barkley) earned the Davey O'Brien QB of the Week Award vs them. The veteran unit dropped to #81. This year they lose S Kyle McCarthy (12 st, 101 tkl, 5 int, 5 pbu) and CB Raeshon McNeil (1 st, 9 tkl) but return 4 who started 7+ last year. Adding depth are James Redshaw (5'9" 175 Sr) and Ryan Sheehan (5'10" 177 Sr). They can only improve upon LY's PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Charlie Weis' units finished #39, #64, #93, #30 and #74 in my ST rankings. P Eric Maust (35.1 net '08) struggled and split duties with true frosh Ben Turk (PS#10) LY. The 2 combined to avg just 37.2 (33.6 net). K Brandon Walker (14-24 in '08) had back problems and lost his job to true frosh Nick Tausch (PS#6). Tausch missed his first FG but then connected on a school record 14 in a row. He missed his last 2 and DNP in the final 3 when David Ruffer hit 5-5 FG's. The Irish have had just 4 TB's in the last 3 yrs (2nd fewest in FBS). Theo Riddick was the top KR (22.9) while Golden Tate improved his PR avg to 14.2. This year they only lose Tate. Brian Kelly's ST units at Cincy were #21, #1 and #8 in his 3 yrs there! The Irish should have their best finish in my ST rankings since 2000 (#2).

COACHES - Charlie Weis' 3 Super Bowl rings didn't spell success in the college game and he was ousted after a mediocre 35-27 record in 5 years. Brian Kelly takes over after leading Cincinnati to B2B BCS bowls including a 12-0 regular season last year and he was named the BE COY all 3 seasons there. He boasts a 171-57-2 record in 19 years as a HC with 13 yrs as HC of Grand Valley St (Div II), 3 yrs at C Mich and then 3 yrs at Cincy. Kelly hired Charley Molnar as his OC. Molnar has coached with Kelly the last 3 yrs at Cincy (WR cch/pass gm coor) and was the QB/WR coach at CM under Kelly in '06. Bob Diaco takes over as DC after leading a Cincy defense with 1 returning starter in '09 to 110 tfl (#3 NCAA). Prior to that he was the LB coach/ST coor at Virginia for 3 years. Diaco also coached under Kelly as co-DC of CM in '05.

PHIL'S FORECAST

When Ty Willingham took over in '02, he converted the team from an option-style rush attack to a pro-style pass attack and that is usually a 3-to-4 year process. In '05 Charlie Weis stepped into a great situation as it was the 4th year after the change of offense and the team possessed a pro-style QB, pro-style WR's and an OL that was used to pass blocking. He also inherited 10 ret st'rs on offense and they rolled up 36.7 ppg. They upended #3 Mich on the road, the highest ranked team that ND had beaten since 1993, and got the Irish to a BCS bowl (Fiesta) where they were outgained by Ohio St 617-348 in their 8th straight bowl loss. Weis was named the FWAA COY. In '06 they had 16 ret st'rs and the Irish opened at #2 (AP). The Irish rolled to a 10-1 record (#6) but lost to #3 USC by 20 then were thrashed in the bowl by 27 vs LSU. They also had a 26 pt home loss to Mich. It looked like a rebuilding year in '07 but Weis refused to use those words. The Irish went from a veteran unit to one with just 9 ret st'rs and a true frosh QB. It ended up being a record breaking year for all of the wrong reasons. They opened the season 0-5 (all 5 by DD) and finished 3-9. Nine true frosh started at some point. It was their 4th losing season since 1999 (13th school hist). In '08 the Irish were my #1 Most Improved Team and went from a losing season to a bowl. Three times however the Irish blew a DD lead. They did get their first bowl win since 1993. Heading into last year their 15 losses the previous 2 years were the most in school history and Weis had 15 ret st'rs and a very manageable schedule. It was another frustrating year for the Irish. Things started out well with a 35-0 shutout of Nevada but then despite outplaying Michigan, they allowed a late TD and lost by 4. They had a narrow escape vs Mich St and then got a TD with :25 left to escape at Purdue (Clausen missed about half). They had another narrow escape vs Wash with the Huskies blowing 11 shots at the EZ from inside the 5 on 2 poss which could have put it away and ND won in OT. Against USC they were at the 4 and fired incomplete 3 times to end it. After escaping vs BC, they steamrolled Wash St and were talking BCS bowl (6-2). Amazingly they blew 3 chances inside the 10 vs Navy and lost by 2 and came up 5 pts short vs Pitt. They led Conn 14-0 but lost in 2OT and once again vs Stanford, had the ball at the end but came up short. At 6-6 they opted not to go to a bowl and got rid of Weis, who actually had a weaker win percentage than his predecessors, Bob Davie and Tyrone Willingham. All six of the Irish's losses were by 7 or less but they did also had 4 close wins. The D with veteran DC Tenuta calling the plays allowed a program worst 398 ypg. This year they do have 14 ret st'rs incl WR Floyd. Of course Kelly knows how to produce top-notch QB's and has a solid talent to work with in Dayne Crist. I feel he steps into a tremendous situation here after the Irish have underperformed the last 3 seasons. ND has only had 2 DD winning seasons since '93 while their new HC Kelly has produced 3 straight 10+ winning years at Cincy, a team that had only one (1951) in their 120 year history prior to his arrival.

Sep. 4	Purdue	G					The HT is 10-4 & 6 of the L/7 gms have been decided by an avg of 17 ppg w/none closer than 13 pts. LY a hobbled QB Clausen returned and threw the GW TD w/:25 to play.
Sep. 11	Michigan	G					There has been an upset in 5 of the L/6 yrs in this series (7 in the L/10 gms). The HT is 9-2. LY ND battled back from an 11 pt 4Q deficit but lost as UM scored a TD with :11 left.
Sep. 18	at Michigan St	G					The Fighting Irish are 3-10 in road openers. The visitor is 7-2 but has dropped the L/2. ND has been outgained vs MSU in each of the last 4 years by an avg of 71 ypg.
Sep. 25	Stanford	G					LY ND blew an 8 pt 4Q lead as SU scored TD's on their L/2 drives (last one w/:59) & the Irish ended at the SU31. The loss snapped a ND 7 gm series win streak but they have won 7 str at home vs SU.
Oct. 2	at Boston College	A					ND snapped a 6 gm losing streak to BC LY but in their last trip to Chestnut Hill were shutout (largely due to -5 TO, as they had FD & yd edges). In the L/8 gms these tms have avg just 37 ppg.
Oct. 9	Pittsburgh	G					ND is 12-4 vs Pitt S/'88 but have dropped B2B gms. Four of the L/5 meetings have been upsets. LY ND trailed Pitt 27-9 in the 4Q before coming up 5 pts short on the comeback.
Oct. 16	Western Michigan	G					Just the 3rd meeting as ND is 2-0 vs WM w/both gms being shutouts but the last gm was played in 1920. HC Kelly is 3-1 vs WM as the HC of CM ('04-'06) & Cincy ('06 bowl).
Oct. 23	† Navy (East Rutherford)	A					This game will be played in the new Meadowlands Stadium. ND has dropped 2 of L/3 after beating Navy 43 str. LY ND trailed 14-0 at HT, 21-7 into the 4Q and scored with :24 left.
Oct. 30	Tulsa	G					First meeting. Notre Dame is 23-3 vs current CUSA members as their last loss was to SMU in the '84 Aloha Bowl. Coming into 2010, ND is just 9-11 at home last 3 years.
Nov. 6							BONUS: ND plays 5 non BCS teams this year which is the 1st time since 1945. BONUS: Notre Dame is 12-4 since 1994 in home finales.
Nov. 13	Utah	G					First meeting. The Irish are 28-8 vs current MWC members. ND has gone just 1-8 the L/2 yrs in November Including 0-4 LY, (LY's 4 losses were by a combined 17 pts!).
Nov. 20	† Army (Bronx)	G					This will mark the 1st football gm played at the new Yankee Stadium. From 1924-'46 these schools played at the old Yankee Stadium 22x's. ND has beat Army 13 str gms (last loss in 1958).
Nov. 27	at USC	G					ND has been dominated by USC the L8Y being outgained in 7 (yds even in '06) by 259 ypg. LY ND trailed 34-14 and after 2 TD's had 5 chances at 1st & gl but couldn't score.

NAVY MIDSHIPMEN

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In '08 Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada was in his 3rd year as a starter but played only 3 complete games due to inj's. He left last year with the 2nd best career int % in Navy history (3.8%) while his 9.0 ypa was #2 all-time. He and Jarod Bryant each started 6 and as a unit, the QB's threw for just 61 ypg (6-5 ratio) while Navy's team rushing totals dropped to 292 ypg with their 5.3 ypc being the lowest since '04. Ricky Dobbs (1 st) is a power running QB (strongest arm) and earned the nickname "Backdoor Ricky" due to his escapability. He guided the miracle win over Temple (trailed by 20 in 4Q) and the comeback try vs ND (14 pts last 2:00). Dobbs had a fine '09 season and despite missing basically 2 full games had 27 rush TD's breaking Tim Tebow's NCAA record for rushing TD's by a QB and also setting the school record for TD's in a season (Bill Ingram in 1917). One reason for Dobbs' TD's was that Navy FB's and SB's were continually tackled at the 1 and he was their best option in short yardage. When he was injured, Kriss Proctor did well although he did not att a pass in the win vs WF (4 att yr) and on the season rushed for 223 (4.2). Dobbs had 1,203 (3.8) while throwing for 1,031 (53.3%, 6-3). This year both QB's return. Not listed below are Tyler Lynch (6'3" 205 So), Travis Keating (6'1" 200 So) and Gordy Law (6'0" 183 So, PS#261). Dobbs has been called the best passing QB in the triple option era and is Navy's first legitimate Heisman candidate since Roger Staubach won it in 1963.

FB Vince Murray

RUNNING BACKS - Navy's triple option offense uses a FB and 2 slotbacks with the FB getting the bulk of the carries. Last year they had to replace 2 of their most athletically gifted RB's in SB Shun White (1092, 8.3) and FB Eric Kettani (982, 5.2). They usually have a big, powerful FB and Alexander Teich (212 lbs) opened as the starter. Top SB Marcus Curry missed all of Aug and at 200 lbs is one of the biggest SB's the team has ever had. SB Bobby Doyle (solid blk'r) was called "Big Play Bobby" due to huge plays (6 touches, 104 yds vs WKU). Teich was inj'd vs AF and the Vince Murray era began. Murray (217 lb) became the first Navy RB to rush for 100 yds in 4 consec gms since Napoleon McCallum in 1985. Murray missed Delaware (inj) but was the top RB rusher with 971 (5.3). Curry missed 3 but had 585 (7.3) with a tm high 287 yds on just 10 rec while Teich added 376 rush (5.4). True frosh Gee Gee Greene (PS#336) had 253 (6.2) and Doyle had just 116 (4.8) but was the #2 rec with 198 (19.8). This year they lose Doyle (14 st) and Cory Finnerty (1 st, 133 ttl yds). Not listed below are Cyril Ontai (5'10" 205 So PS#261), Kevin Eckel (6'1" 226 So), Jarred Mack (5'9" 200 So), Austin Beaty (6'2" 220 So), Prentice Christian (5'11" 204 So, PS#410), JJ Cosh (5'9" 183 Sr), Trey Reed (5'8" 195 So), and John O'Boyle (6'0" 185 So). I expect the FB's to be bigger and overall this unit is more exp'd and stronger.

RECEIVERS - Navy's WR's do not get a lot of touches but are excellent blockers. They sometimes call themselves "wide tackles". In '08 Tyree Barnes was clearly the go-to WR and led with 400 (20.0). Last year they had to replace Barnes and the leading returnee was Mario Washington (3 rec). Washington led the WR's (#3 on tm) with 165 (18.3) while Greg Jones had 149 (24.8) and Mike Schupp added 61 (10.2). This year the only loss is Nick Henderson (3 st, 2 rec). Not in the PSL are Darin Hess (6'3" 215 So), Hal Bowron (6'1" 195 Jr, PS#334) and Matt Shibata (6'0" 194 So, PS#360). With both st'rs back and some promising depth, Mario Washington was able to move to CB in spring.

OFFENSIVE LINE - It really didn't matter how many OL ret'd during Paul Johnson's tenure at Navy. In '06, they had 4 st'rs back and paved the way for a school record 327 ypg rush (5.6) and in '07 had to replace 3 st'rs and 4 bkps but broke the record again, improving to 349 ypg (5.6). In Ken Niumatalolo's first year Navy had just 25 career sts ret (5th fewest FBS) and the numbers dropped to 292 ypg (5.3) with 10 sks (10.8%). Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs and had 36 career starts ret but surprisingly slipped to 281 ypg (4.8 ypc-weakest S/'01). They allowed a mind boggling 20% sks (22/110 pass att). This year they lose C/RG Curtis Bass (14 st, 2Y st'r), LG Osei Asante (14 st), RG Andy Lark (4 st) and T Austin Milke (13 gm '09, 4 st '08). Six players return with starting exp and 9 from the final 3 deep and their 57 career sts (Jeff Battipaglia 27 straight sts) make them the most exp'd OL of the Niumatalolo era.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2001 Navy allowed 4.8 ypc rush. In Paul Johnson's first 5 years, Navy improved from allowing 4.3 ypc rush to 4.2, 3.9, 3.8 and 3.6. The '07 DL had to replace all 3 st'rs and slipped to 4.3 ypc (12 sks). In '08 they only had to replace one starter although Michael Walsh (13 st '07) was lost after 4 sts. Navy improved to 135 ypg (3.8) with 17 sks. Last year it appeared the entire D-line would return (Walsh granted a 5th yr). Unfortunately their top DL, Nate Frazier, was dismissed and their NG's were banged up with all 3 inj'd vs Air Force. DE Walsh was forced to start at NG vs Rice and SMU and DE Matt Nechak (knee) was not 100% all year. The veteran unit still improved to 122 ypg (3.9) with 22 sks. This year they lose Nechak (13 st, 39 tkl, 1 sk), Walsh (2 st, 18 tkl) and NG Jordan Stephens (5 st, 9 tkl). This unit is slightly less exp'd but should maintain better health.

LINEBACKERS - In '07 Navy had an extremely inexp'd LB corps and the D yielded 36.4 ppg. They had 3 st'rs back at LB in '08 and improved allowing 22.0 ppg. Last year they had 7 of their top 8 back only losing their #2 tkl'r and the D improved again allowing just 19.4 ppg. This year they lose all 4 st'rs. Gone are Ross Pospisil (14 st, #1 tkl'r, 4 sk), Tony Haberer (14 st, #2 tkl'r, 7 tfl), Ram Vela (13 st, #5 tkl'r, 4.5 tfl), Craig Schaefer (6 st, #8 tkl'r, 8.5 tfl) and Clint Sovie (8 st, #12 tkl'r, 3.5 tfl). They do return Tyler Simmons who despite being a backup tied as the #3 tackler. This unit is my biggest question mark on this 2010 squad.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In 2007 Navy's DB's were inexp'd and inj plagued and finished dead last in my pass D rankings allowing a ghastly 69.9% with a 32-10 ratio. With a more exp'd unit, they only climbed to #108 in '08. Last year they had to replace 3 st'rs but the less exp'd unit surprisingly rose to #59 allowing 58.9% (15-13 ratio). ROV Wyatt Middleton is the team's top defensive player and CB Kevin Edwards is 6'2" and a sprinter on the track team. Emmett Merchant emerged at S and had a key int off Ohio St's Pryor and a FF off Pitt QB Stull. This year all 3 of their top DB's return. They do lose CB Blake Carter (14 st, 51 tkl, 6 pbu) and FS Jesse Iwuji (1 st, 5 tkl). This unit should even top last year's fine finish.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Heading into '07 Navy's last KR TD was in '97 and their last PR TD was in '96 (longest FBS drought) with their last punt block coming in '99. Navy finished #76, #113, #69 and #107 in my ST rankings from '03-'06. In '07 Reggie Campbell broke the KR drought with 2 KR TD's (27.5 KR, 14.3 PR avg). Navy also finally blk'd a punt and skyrocketed to #15. In '08, they only ret'd their K and I called for a drastic drop and they fell to #81. Matt Harmon did hit 19-22 FG's (long 49) and P Kyle Delahooke avg 41.6 (34.4 net). Last year they had to replace Harmon and their LS. While they ended their PR TD streak, it wasn't a typical PR TD as it was just 3 yds with Temple's P trying to avoid being tackled in the EZ. Navy had just 109 (6.8) total PR yds. Delahooke improved to 43.1 (38.3 net!). K Joe Buckley lost his job to Jon Teague (PS#35, stronger leg, 3 TB's on KO). Teague hit just 1-2 and Buckley retook it and at one point hit 7 straight FG's (10-13). He had 50 and 41 yd FG's in the pouring rain vs WF. Not listed below are LS's Brian Ackerman (5'11" 188 Jr) and William Coats (6'4" 225 So). This year all of the key players return and they should finish in the upper half of my ST rankings after a #80 ranking in '09.

COACHES - Ken Niumatalolo (1st Samoan HC in NCAA history) served as asst HC and OL coach under Paul Johnson. He was the OC at Navy from '97-'98 and the off play caller at UNLV ('99-'01). His first game as HC was the '07 bowl. Niumatalolo's 8 wins were the most by a Navy first year HC since 1934 and he became just the 2nd Navy coach to win a CIC Trophy in his first year. Last year's 10 wins tied a Navy all-time record (1905, 2004). Ivin Jasper is in his 3rd year as OC (10Y Navy QB cch prior). The DC is Buddy Green who surprisingly left NCSt (alum), where he held the same post, to come here in '02.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Navy was just 11-45 from '98-'02 which includes Paul Johnson's first season. They got their first bowl bid since '96 in 2003 and amazingly have now gone to 7 straight. Navy has won 7 straight Commander-in-Chief's Trophies and they have won 15 straight vs their military rivals. Their average win over Army is 27 ppg in the last eight. Service academies usually do not return a lot of starters but in '04 Navy had 14 back and finished 10-2 including a bowl win over NMex. Their 10 wins were the most in 99 years of football. It was the first time they finished the season ranked (#24) since 1963 and the first time they appeared in a poll since 1979. Against a tougher schedule in '05 they went 8-4 including a bowl win over Colo St despite just 5 ret starters (NCAA's fewest). Navy lost to a pair of BCS schools by 3 pts each. In '06 Navy played its best ball down the stretch and went 9-3 before losing by a pt in the Meineke Car Care Bowl to Matt Ryan and BC, despite a 403-315 yd edge (key late fmbl). However, only one of Navy's wins in '05 and '06 combined came vs a IA team that finished with a winning record. In '07 Navy's D was wiped out by graduation and injuries and they allowed the most pts in school history (473) with the previous high being '02 (436). The '07 offense did score the most pts in Navy history (511) breaking a record set in 1917 (442). Navy went 8-4 and made it back to the Poinsettia Bowl where they lost by 3 to Utah. Despite the coaching change in '08, Navy matched '07's win total. They upset #16 WF (1st win over an AP ranked foe S/'85). Navy ret'd 2 blk'd punts for TD's vs AF and trailed Temple by 20 in the 4Q before getting a FR with :37 left to force OT and won by 6. Unlike '05 and '06, Navy beat 4 teams that made it to bowls. Last year they had just 10 ret starters. Navy did trail Ohio St 29-14 but pulled within 2 only to have their 2 pt conv int'd and ret'd (2 pt) in a 4 pt loss. After trailing LT 14-0, they scored the final 32 pts. They were outgained by Pitt 369-218 to drop to 1-2. After an expected win over WKU, as usual they were outgained by AF but won (7th straight) by 3. They waxed Rice on the road and trailed SMU 21-7 at half but won in OT. In their 4th meeting vs WF in the 3 years, they did not att a single pass in a driving rain and won 13-10. They led Temple 24-17 but allowed a 41 yd TD run with 2:41 left in the 3 pt loss. Notre Dame fumbled at the 1 and was int'd at the 5 and Navy won their 2nd straight in South Bend, 23-21. They were outgained by Delaware 370-320 but won by 17. They moved up to #31 in the AP poll but playing at 10:30 pm in 82°, lost at Hawaii 24-17. They trailed Army 3-0 at the half but won 17-3. In the bowl, they rolled up 515 yards for their 3rd ever 10 win season. The Mids have 13 ret starters which is the most in 4 years and did have 29 sts lost (inj) last year. They did however have beneficial ypp's on both offense and defense (pg 299) and were +9 in TO's. Navy has bowl commitments signed through 2013 with the Poinsettia Bowl their destination in 2010.

Date	Opponent			NAVY	Opp	L
Sep. 6	† Maryland (Baltimore) (Mon)	A					Navy is 14-6 all-time vs their instate rival, but lost the last meeting 23-20 in 2005. Navy has 16 wins over BCS tms since '03, tied with Utah for most by non-BCS teams.
Sep. 11	Georgia Southern	A					First meeting. GS is 36-43 all-time vs current FBS tms incl a 42-12 loss to NC LY. The Eagles went 5-6 in 2009 and new HC Monken is a former Navy asst cch ('02-'07).
Sep. 18	at Louisiana Tech	A					Navy won 32-14 LY with a 393-167 yd, 23-10 FD and a 41:11-18:49 TOP edge. Navy is 1-2 all-time vs current WAC tms (splitting LY's 2 gms incl a loss at Hawaii).
Sep. 25
Oct. 2	at Air Force	A					Navy has won 15 straight vs Service Academies winning 7 consecutive CIC Trophies. Navy has won 7 in a row vs AF, winning 6 of those by a TD or less incl LY in OT.
Oct. 9	at Wake Forest	A					Navy is just 4-7 all-time vs WF but 2-2 since '07. LY Navy pulled out a 13-10 win in Annapolis behind bkup QB Proctor. FB Murray rushed for a career high 175 yds.
Oct. 16	SMU	A					Navy is 7-7 all-time vs SMU winning 6 of the L7 incl LY's 38-35 win in OT. QB Dobbs ply'd through a knee inj but still had 100 rush yds & 2 TD's & FB Murray had 141 rush yds.
Oct. 23	† Notre Dame (E Rutherford)	A					Navy has now won 2 of the last 3 in this series after stopping a 43 gm losing streak to ND in 2007. The last 3 gms have been decided by a combined total of 10 points.
Oct. 30	Duke (HC)	A					Navy is 6-16 hosting BCS tms in Annapolis but 6-4 S/'97. Navy is 20-13-5 all-time vs Duke winning 4 of the last 5 in this series but they lost the last meeting 41-31 in 2008.
Nov. 6	at East Carolina	G					In the only previous meeting Navy rolled up 403 rush yds in a 28-23 win in 2006. Navy is 22-26-1 vs current members of CUSA incl winning a pair of games last year.
Nov. 13	Central Michigan	A					The only previous meeting was a 63-34 Navy (-20) win in 2003 in Annapolis. The Midshipmen are 18-14 all-time vs current MAC teams including 4-3 since 2007.
Nov. 20	Arkansas St	A					First meeting. Navy has only faced 2 Sun Belt members all-time (North Texas '07 & WKU '09) winning both with the games averaging 98 total ppg (avg score Navy 56-42).
Dec. 4
Dec. 11	† Army (Philadelphia)	G					Navy has won a series record 8 in a row over their biggest rival winning by an avg of 36-9. Navy has held Army without a TD for the last 12 quarters dating back to 2006.

ARMY BLACK KNIGHTS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In '05, Zac Dahman became Army's career passing leader (6,904). In '06, Carson Williams started the final 4 throwing for 577 (57%, 4-10) then started the last 10 in '07 (1770, 53%, 11-12). Williams, who is a pro-style QB, was not a good fit for the new option offense in '08. He still started 3 and threw for 273 (49%, 1-3). Chip Bowden (PS#213), who QB'd the JV team in '07, started 9 and threw for 282 (43%, 2-3) while rushing for 572 (2.9). Bowden was #1 out of the spring but HC Rich Ellerson was excited about "true frosh" Trent Steelman (Army prep tm '08). Ellerson called Steelman the best operator and threat as a triple option QB and he became the first Army frosh QB in the modern era to start the season opener. Steelman suffered a cracked rib in the opener (not 100% all year) then had a hip injury in the 2Q vs Iowa St which forced him out in the 2H, a key to their loss. Carson Williams was used at times as a passing QB but hit just 10-24 for 118. Bowden played in 9 (9-26-106, 59 rush). Steelman became the first Army QB since 1992 to top 600 yds rush (net) and led the team with 706 (3.5) while also throwing for 637 (49.1%, 3-2). This year they lose Williams and added to the mix are Max Jenkins (6'2" 195 Jr, PS#95), Jimmy Reitter (6'0" 191 Jr) and Taylor Hall (6'0" 180 Jr). As long as Steelman stays healthy, the Cadets will have improved QB numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - In '06, the Knights had to replace Carlton Jones who became just the 3rd player in Army history (Mike Mayweather, Glenn Davis) to lead the team in rushing for four straight years. Diminutive Wesley McMahand (5'5") led with 654 (4.4) while Tony Moore added 399 (3.8). Both ret'd in '07 and they added Patrick Mealy (PS#154) who broke the USMAPS rushing record in '06. Tony Dace broke a streak of 24 straight games without a 100 yard rusher (104 vs Navy). Dace led with a paltry 330 (3.4). Mealy was #2 with 302 (3.2) with McMahand #3 (213, 2.9). They had a veteran group in '08 and in the new option offense FB Collin Mooney got 231 carries which was 188 more than the #2 RB, McMahand (43 att). On the last play of the season, former HC Stan Brock called a time-out and Mooney's final rush gave him the single season rushing record with 1,339 (Mayweather 1338, '90). McMahand had with 339 (7.9) and FB Bryson Carl added 227 (6.1). Mealy quit early on but the players allowed him to return and his numbers dropped to just 97 (5.4). Last year they had to replace Mooney and McMahand so the top returnee was Carl who DNP (ankle). Mealy had 208 on 15 carries in the first 2 and was the top RB rusher with 673 (6.1). The FB's were banged up. CeDarius Williams (scout team POY in '08) was lost after 2. Kingsley Ehie was banged up early but finished #3 with 473 (4.1). They called Brad Gallik (scout team) out of the stands in the 2H vs Duke. He played in 3 (10 yd). Mealy even started a gm at FB. The longest run by an Army FB LY was 26 yds (only 2 rush TD by FB's). The other top SB, Malcolm Brown, missed 6 (112, 4.3). This year Ehie moves to LB. The biggest addition is FB Jared Hassin who may finally give them the power FB needed and is a potential 1,000 yd rusher. Not in the PSL is Kelechi Odocha (5'7" 185 So PS#296). The Cadets should have much more production from this unit in 2010.

RECEIVERS - Jeremy Trimble was Army's top rec for 3 straight years ('05-'07) with his best season coming in '07 (912, 14.7) and left as Army's career leading receiver (2,330). This unit was inexp'd in '08 and Jameson Carter led with just 157 yds, the lowest of any FBS school's leading receiver, and Damion Hunter added 134 (12.2). Those two ret'd last year and they made the unusual switch of LT Ali Villanueva (6'10" 283) to WR. Villanueva was used around the EZ for jump ball catches but surprisingly struggled blocking in the open field. Still, Villanueva led with 522 (15.4) and he had all 5 of Army's TD rec while Hunter (4.36 spd) was #2 with 162 but just 6.2 ypc. Having to replace their fastest (Hunter) and biggest (Villanueva) WR's, this group figures to be down a few notches.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2008, Army had 5 OL back with starting exp making it one of their most exp'd O-lines as Army does not usually have a lot of ret st'rs. They also moved to the option so it was a no-brainer for me to call for vastly improved numbers and that they did, going from 88 ypg rush (2.6) with 28 sks in '07 to 241 ypg rush (4.6) with just 12 sks in '08. Last year was your typical Army year as they lost 4 st'rs and 2 bkps. The unit performed well gaining 204 ypg rush (4.1) with 10 sks (6.2%). This year they lose LG Fritz Bentler (7 st, brk leg) and OT Kenric Lull (12 gm). They also get the unexpected return of 3Y st'r RT Jason Johnson (granted rare 5th yr). Their 72 career sts ret (#55 FBS) is very high for the Cadets and this figures to be their best O-line in quite some time.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08, Army had 2 st'rs back to the D-line and allowed 145 ypg rush (4.0) and recorded 19 sks. Last year they had to replace one starter then DT Fritz Bentler (10 st in '08) moved to OL so they again had 2 st'rs back. The Cadets allowed 152 ypg (3.9) with 23 sks. This year they lose DT Victor Ugenyi (11 st, 42 tkl, 2.5 sk), DE Brad Marren (11 st, 34 tkl, 1.5 sk) and DE Dean Lisante (5 tkl). Their sack leader in '09 (12.5 sk Army single ssn rec) is back in DE Josh McNary but he missed spring (shoulder surgery). With 2 st'rs back and not much depth at DT, Army installed a Bandit position (hybrid DE/LB) in spring.

MLB Stephen Anderson

LINEBACKERS - The Black Knights had to replace 2 st'rs (#1 and #5 tkl'rs) but ret'd the #2 tkl'r in Stephen Anderson LY. Anderson struggled early but the light bulb went on vs Ball St (15 tkl) and he would have been the #1 tackler had he not missed the last 3 (ACL). Andrew Rodriguez finished #1 in his first year as a starter. This year the unit returns intact (#1, #2 and #3 tkl'rs) and they add FB Ehie who is a solid athlete (10 st in '08) making them a much more veteran unit.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '08, Army had 2 career sts ret at DB but still moved up slightly to #92 in my PDR. Last year they basically had 3 st'rs back with S Donovan Travis the signal caller of the defense. Ellerson said he slept better knowing he was in the middle of the D. Travis had 4 int in the first 6 (0 after). The more veteran unit slipped to #99. They did yield just 55.6% (13-13) vs a light slate of opp QB's (3 option offenses). This year they lose CB Mario Hill (12 st, 27 tkl, 2 int, 6 pbu), SS Desmond Lamb (1 st, 6 tkl) and FS Chase Prasnicki (10 tkl). This is a veteran unit (60 car sts) and should make a good sized climb in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In former HC Bobby Ross' final season, Army finished an outstanding #23 in my ST rankings. In '07 they only had to replace their K but dropped to #59. In '08 Army had to replace all of their top players and fell to #111. Matthew Campbell hit 8-12 FG's (2 miss 50+). Last year they had to replace their P and top PR and Alex Carlton (18-24 FG) took over the FG duties from Campbell (1 TB, 47 KO). Jonathan Bulls used rugby-style line drive punts with little hang time. He averaged 39.2 (34.2 net). Army allowed 2 return TD's last year giving them 5 allowed the last 2 yrs. The Cadets only moved up slightly to #106. Ellerson coaches ST and this year they only lose their top KR (20.5). I will call for a good sized jump in my ST rankings.

COACHES - Ellerson brought in the triple-option offense from Cal Poly last year. He had three Great West Titles in 8 years at CP and in '08 his squad upset SDSt and missed 3 xp's in a 1 pt OT loss to Wisconsin. Ellerson learned the triple option from GT HC Paul Johnson when they coached together at Hawaii ('87-'91) and Navy HC Ken Niumatalolo (QB) and Navy OC Ivin Jasper (QB/SB) both lettered on those tms. The OC is Ian Shields who was the OC at Cal Poly. Ellerson has co-DC's in Payam Saadat (DC at CP for 3 yrs) and Chris Smeland who spent 12 seasons as the DC under John L Smith at Mich St, L'ville and Utah St.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Army used to be one of the NCAA's powerhouses winning three straight National Titles from 1944-46 while notching 14 Top 25 finishes in their history. Those years have long passed. They have not beaten a Top 20 team since 1972. Heading into last year, Army was 30-108 ('97-'08) and had not won more than 4 gms in a season since their last bowl year (1996). HC Bob Sutton took the team to a bowl in 1996 when the team was 10-2 but after 3 straight losing seasons, he was let go in 1999 and Army made a fatal mistake by shifting from the option to a passing offense in 2000. The next 4 years ('00-'03) they set all kinds of records going just 5-42 including in 2002 when they set a school record for losses with 11 and then became the first ever IA team to go 0-13 in '03. Bobby Ross came in and converted them to a pro-style attack but it was a slow process (9 wins, 3 yrs). Surprisingly Ross stepped aside prior to '07. His OL coach, Stan Brock, took over and won 3 in his first year and made the commitment to the option in '08. It was again a slow process. Army opened 0-3, then almost upset Texas A&M, won 2 straight and led eventual MAC Champ Buffalo 24-10 in the 4Q but lost in OT. They knocked off Indep Bowl champ LT, 14-7 to move to 3-5 but then dropped their last 4 and Brock was let go. Last year Ellerson stepped into a tremendous situation as Army has been softening their schedule and went through the initial growing pains of switching to the option in '08. Army was -14 in TO's in '08 and had an offensive ypp of 19.5 (pg 299). Last yr I mentioned if the Knights caught a few breaks they could have their first winning season since 1996. Army beat EM in the opener then outgained Duke 385-236 but gave up 2 IR TD's in :16 late in the 4Q and lost by 16. They were outgained by 110 yds but beat Ball St to move to 2-1. After an expected loss at Iowa St, Army gave up a FG to Tulane with 2:20 left and lost by 1 (led 16-7 4Q). They knocked off an SEC team in Vanderbilt in OT, 16-13. After losing to Temple by 14 in which an int was overturned by a 10 min review, they were handled by Rutgers in just the 9th night game in 86 yrs at Michie Stadium. Army controlled the 1H vs Air Force (tied 7-7) but lost by 28. They rebounded to edge VMI 22-17 and then despite being outgained 447-287, beat NT on the road 17-13. Army would have gone to the Eagle Bank Bowl if they knocked off Navy. They led 3-0 at half but came up short. The 5 wins however, were the most S/'96. They did have 3 net close wins and just 3 sts lost to injury all year. On the positive side, they have an unusually high (for a service academy) 16 ret st'rs. Army has a great shot at its first bowl since 1996 and if eligible would go to the Armed Forces Bowl.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score ARMY	Final Score Opp	W/L
Sep. 4	at Eastern Michigan	A					In L/2 vs EM, Army has rushed for 300+ yds in each gm. LY's win vs EM was the first time ever Army won a ssn opener on the road and ended a 12 year drought in season openers.
Sep. 11	Hawaii	A					HC Ellerson's alma mater is Hawaii and he served 3 stints on the UH staff (DL cch in '77, DL/LB/ST cch from 1981-'83 & OC from 1987-'91). Army is 2-11 in home openers (2-2 L4).
Sep. 18	North Texas	A					Army has won all 3 gms vs NT incl LY's misleading final. The Black Knights were outgained by 160 yds (-12 FD's) but had a 5-0 TO edge & a blk'd 4Q FG propelled them to victory.
Sep. 25	at Duke	G					Army hasn't won in Durham since 1959 (0-5). The Black Knights committed 4 TO's LY vs Duke that directly resulted in 21 pts. Army has dropped 8 straight road gms vs BCS opp's.
Oct. 2	Temple (HC)	A					In the L3Y the winner in this series has actually been outgained in each (-76 ypg). LY tied 13-13 (4Q) Army was SOD at their own 24 on 4 & inches & Temple scored twice in 2 mins.
Oct. 9	at Tulane	A					Army has won 2 of 3 vs Tulane. LY after leading 16-7 early 4Q, they allowed 166 4Q pass yards & 10 points but still had a shot for the win but missed a 37 yard FG w/:12 left.
Oct. 16	† Rutgers (East Rutherford)	A					This gm will be played at the New Meadowlands Stadium which is home to the NFL NY Jets & Giants. Army led 3-0 early LY but 3 TO's & a RU blk'd punt TD were costly.
Oct. 23
Oct. 30	VMI	A					Army is 13-1 vs VMI (only loss in '81). LY QB Trent Steelman threw 174 yds & RB Patrick Mealy rushed for 136 yds (8.5), both career highs. The Keydets went 2-9 last year.
Nov. 6	Air Force	A					Last time Army beat AF at West Point was in '96 (2-19 L21). HT has outgained the visitor in 6 of L/7 by 136 ypg (3 str). Army has won 6 of the 34 Commander-n-Chief trophys (last in '96).
Nov. 13	at Kent St	A					Army actually had more passing yds than Kent St (104-92) but were outrushed 198-171 (4.8, 3.6) in the schools only meeting in '06. Into 2010, Army is just 4-16 in true AG's.
Nov. 20	† Notre Dame (Bronx)	G					Army has been outgained by an avg of 224 ypg in the 2 most recent meetings vs ND ('98 & '06). Army was up 3-0 after 1Q in '06 but #6 ND scored 41 unanswered in the blowout.
Nov. 27							BONUS: At New Yankee Stadium, teams met 22x's at original Yankee Stadium.
Dec. 4							BONUS: Army has lost 6 straight at Lincoln Financial Field incl the Temple loss LY.
Dec. 11	† Navy (Philadelphia)	G					Last year Army forced 3 fum but a pair of missed FG's, a lost fum and an int were too much to overcome vs Navy. Army has now lost and been outgained by 150 ypg in 8 str vs Navy.

PHIL STEELE'S 2010 MAC FORECAST

MAC EAST

1. TEMPLE - Temple looked like the best team in the MAC last year at 7-0 but without RB Bernard Pierce (MAC #1 rusher), they lost to Ohio on the road in the finale. They finished as MAC East Co-Champs and did not get to the title game. This year they return 16 starters and lose just 14 lettermen and 8 of my 9 sets of my power ratings call them the most talented team in the league. They do have to play N Illinois and Kent St on the road but host Ohio and should appear in their first ever MAC Title game. Most magazines had them picked 5th last year (I had them 2nd) but I imagine most will have them #1 this year.

2. OHIO - Last year I went out on a limb and picked the Bobcats to win the MAC East and coach Frank Solich and company did not let me down. They were picked as low as 6th by some major publications. This year they have one of the top teams in the MAC again and their key to repeating may be the Tuesday night game on Nov 16th (at Temple). They have my #3 rated D in the MAC and despite losing their top QB, RB and WR could top '09's 25 ppg.

2. KENT ST - Kent St has had some near misses and tough breaks the last few seasons. Last year they finished 4-4 in the MAC and this year could have HC Doug Martin's best team yet. They have 8 starters back on offense and my #1 rated D in the league and of course, defense wins championships. They also have my #2 rated special teams and I will call for Kent St to have their first winning season since 2001. They also get Ohio and Temple at home and could be the surprise of 2010. They are a legit MAC East contender.

4. BUFFALO - The Bulls were the classic Turnovers=Turnaround team last year as in 2008 they were -38 ypg but +19 in TO's and finished 8-6. Last year they were a much improved team as they were +62 ypg but were -7 in TO's and had a losing record. They had 31 starts lost to injury, 2 net close losses and outgained MAC foes by 51.4 ypg (2nd best) and should improve upon last year's 3 MAC win total.

5. BOWLING GREEN - BG is one of the youngest teams in the MAC this year, but they do have talent. They fared better than I thought they would last year and I have to give a lot of credit to HC Dave Clawson for that. They are however the only East team that does not get to face Akron this year. While they are young at LB, they are more athletic there and could have an improved D despite just 4 returning starters on that side of the ball. The offense will of course miss BG's #2 all-time QB Tyler Sheehan and their #2 all-time WR Freddie Barnes.

5. MIAMI, OH - There are a lot of signs pointing up for the RedHawks this year. They were -24 in turnovers last year, have the most veteran team in the MAC with 19 returning starters and are the only one of the bottom 3 in the East to draw Eastern Michigan out of the West. While they were +35 ypg in the MAC, a lot of those yds came during garbage time. They do have to play the top 3 East tms at home while playing 3 of the 4 that I picked 5th or 6th on the road. One of my 9 sets of power ratings calls for a 6-2 MAC year which makes it scary picking them here.

5. AKRON - Akron did not catch any breaks last year as they lost their starting QB early (susp after 2 gm) then the backup was inj (OFY) 3 games later. They lost some close games and were -5 in TO's. They figure to have better fortune in those areas but now have a new HC and must learn new schemes on both sides of the ball. The Zips do not get to face a rebuilding BG and draw the top 3 teams out of the MAC West.

MAC WEST

1. WESTERN MICHIGAN - Under HC Bill Cubit, WM has the 2nd best record in the MAC the last 5 yrs at 24-15. While they lose QB Tim Hiller, a 1,000 yard rusher and their top 2 tacklers, they have a much more veteran defense and perhaps the most athletic front 7 of the Cubit era. I like their replacements at QB and RB and they have my #1 rated receiving corps. WM has followed their last 2 losing seasons with big winning years and I'll call for them to make an appearance in the MAC Title game.

2. NORTHERN ILLINOIS - All 9 sets of my power ratings give NIU a slight talent edge over WM. How can I possibly call for them in the #2 slot? The answer is the schedule. The best team in the league is Temple and NIU has to face them while WM does not. NIU also has to face both Ball St and WM on the road and they are their toughest two foes in the West. This is, by far, Coach Jerry Kill's best team yet with 15 returning starters and they are a legitimate MAC Title contender.

3. BALL ST - Ball St was just 2-10 last year and their 4 MAC road games are all against bowl caliber teams but there is hope. Despite the tough schedule, they host the top 2 tms from the West (WM & NIU) making them a darkhorse MAC West contender. Their 19 returning starters are tied for the most in the MAC and they were -7 in TO's.

3. TOLEDO - The Rockets disappointed me last year as I thought they would actually have a stronger season. They are now in the 2nd year of Coach Tim Beckman's schemes and my power ratings have them as the #2 most potent offense in the league. They were -10 in TO's last year so they didn't catch many breaks but they do need to show improvement on the defensive side to move up any further in the MAC West.

5. CENTRAL MICHIGAN - C Michigan, by far, had the best record in the MAC over last 5 years at 32-7 with the next closest being Western (24-15). This year they lose some key players incl NFL DC QB LeFevour, their top 2 WR's (incl an NFL DC) and their top RB. They are also making scheme changes on both sides of the ball under a new HC. All of those factors have me pointing towards a rebuilding season and I will call for their first losing MAC record since 2004.

6. EASTERN MICHIGAN - The Eagles had the worst record in the MAC this past decade at 19-58 and are coming off an 0-8 MAC season. They are much improved in Ron English's 2nd season but last year were -159.4 ypg which was 90.8 ypg worse than the #12 team. That means they have a lot of ground to make up and it seems like most teams in the West are much improved as well, so I'll call for them to finish in the basement for a 3rd consecutive year.

MAC Notes: The MAC made big strides with 5 wins vs BCS conf schools in '07 which was tied with the Big Ten, Big 12 and Pac-10. In '08 they upped it to 6 which tied them with the SEC and put them ahead of the Big Ten and Pac-10 (5 each). Last year they slipped to 3-28. The MAC is 28-26 vs FBS teams not in a BCS conf the last 4 years. Coming into last year the MAC East had produced 5 different champs the previous 5 years in Miami, Akron, Ohio, BG and Buffalo and while Temple got to 7-0 and co-champs it was Ohio that repeated last year. There have been 3 upsets in the 6 years of the MAC title game since it moved to Detroit. In 2009 the MAC had 10 NFL DC's (2nd most among non BCS conf) but slipped to 5 last year. The MAC has had 11 different bowl teams since 2004 with only Kent St (last bowl '72) and E Michigan ('87) not being to one in that span. The MAC was 5-3 in bowls from '03-'05 but just 2-15 since then. They stopped a streak of 14 straight bowl losses with C Michigan's win over Troy which made the MAC 5-0 vs Sun Belt teams last year. At least 3 teams make my most improved list and I will call for Kent St to end their 39 year bowl drought! Look for improved numbers from the MAC in 2010.

TEMPLE OWLS

QUARTERBACKS - In 2005, Temple used 3 QB's who combined to avg just 164 ypg (48%) with a 4-13 ratio. In '06 true frosh Vaughn Charlton (PS#142) and soph Adam DiMichele (orig @ Penn St), battled for the job. DiMichele started 9 and Charlton 3 as the team improved to 60% (13-15 ratio). In '07, DiMichele was lost after 8 sts but was still the team MVP. Charlton threw for 808 (57%, 3-1). In '08, DiMichele threw for 1,911 (58%, 18-6) but missed 3. His four career 300+ games tied a Temple record (Henry Burris, 1993-'96). DiMichele was #2 in the MAC in pass eff. HC Al Golden was able to RS Charlton as rFr Chester Stewart (PS#134) started 3 and threw for 524 (50%, 4-7). Last year Charlton was the starter and completed just 50.2% with a 10-11 ratio. After hitting 5-17 vs Navy (37, 0-2), Stewart surprisingly started the next 4. Stewart's numbers were underwhelming (40%, 3-3). The team had the weakest totals of the Golden era with 146 ypg (47.5%, 13-14). This year Charlton has moved to TE. Added to the mix are Mike Gerardi (PS#173), Chris Coyer (PS#241) and Fr Conner Reilly (PS#119). Stewart is #1 into fall and I expect better play from the Owl QB's this year.

RUNNING BACKS - In 2008, Golden moved Kee-ayre Griffin (PS#105) from DB to RB vs Miami and despite playing only the final 7 at RB, he led with 394 (4.1) while rFr Joe Jones (6 st) was #2 with 275 (2.8). Golden moved LB Lamar McPherson (PS#63) to RB and he began '09 as the starter. True frosh Bernard Pierce was not cleared until 2 days prior to the opener. Griffin was the top rusher the first 2 but the Pierce era began in Wk 3 (116 vs Buf). He had 180 vs EM and then became the first Temple RB to have B2B 200+ yd gms since Paul Palmer (1986, #2 Heisman). Pierce had 212 vs Toledo and 267 vs Navy. While he had 178 vs Miami and 97 vs Akron, he was inj on his first carry vs KSU and missed the final 2 and had just 12 att in the bowl. He topped 1,000 after 8 gms and finished with 1,361 (5.8) and was the MAC FPOY. Matt "The Bug" Brown is 5'5" 167 and had 156 vs Kent St and 172 vs Ohio finishing #2 with 529 (5.9). Griffin added 335 (4.2) and McPherson 102 (3.0). This year they lose McPherson (3 st) while Griffin moves back to DB. Not listed below is Ahkeem Smith (6'0" 215 So, PS#237). Pierce is the star and is the top RB in the MAC.

RECEIVERS - Bruce Francis led in receiving 4 straight years but left after '08 (#2 car rec). The leading returnee last year was ex-RB Jason Harper (9 st RB '06 & '07) who had 9 st at WR in '08 (571, 17.3). They had to replace 4 of their top 5 rec's. Surprisingly, soph James Nixon (PS#94, 4.3 spd) only had 12 rec but avg 27.2 and finished #3. Harper was only #4 with 228 (19.0). Converted RB Jones (PS#244) was #2 with 387 (13.8) and Michael Campbell was #1 with 419 (15.5). Dy'Onne Crudup had 12 sts in '07-'08 (594, 10.8) but RS '09. TE Steve Maneri (6'6" 275) was an outstanding blocker. This year they lose Maneri (13 st, 12 rec) and Harper (5 st, 12 rec), while Nixon moves to CB. Not listed below are Deven Baker (6'2" 195 So, PS#182), Delano Green (5'10" 170 Sr), Ryan Alderman (5'9" 168 rFr) as well as TE's Chris Parthemore (6'4" 240 rFr, PS#332DL), Cody Booth (6'5" 252 rFr), Cameron Wise (6'3" 250 So) and Matt Brookhart (6'4" 240 rFr). After an underwhelming season, I look for considerable improvement especially with the addition of Charlton at TE.

OFFENSIVE LINE - When Golden took over in '06 he said the O-line had not had a full year in the weight room and they would improve after that season. In his first year they had just 54 ypg rush (1.9) with 48 sks. As projected, they have made improvement each of the last 3 seasons. Last year they had to replace C Alex Derenthal (school record 47 straight sts) and another 2 year starter. They had 75 career starts ret (#36 FBS) and I called for them to top 100 ypg rush for the first time since 2004. The Owls' OL did not disappoint as they paved the way for 187 ypg (4.4) with just 21 sks (7.5%). This year they are even more exp'd. They lose 2nd Tm MAC LT Devin Tyler (13 st, 3Y st'r) but return 4 st'rs (107 car sts, tied #9 FBS). This line should show improvement for the 4th straight year and is the best Golden has fielded.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Here's an interesting stat, this past decade Temple has actually had 3 Top 20 finishes in the NCAA rankings in rush D. Two were at the beginning of the decade and they had some horrible years including allowing 5.0 ypc in '04 and 6.0 ypc in '06 (worst in 2 decades). TU has made strides under Golden. Last year they had to replace 1st Tm MAC DT Terrance Knighton (#3DC JAX) and then lost a DE (8 st, 7.5 sk in '08) prior to the year. They ret'd Andre Neblett who drew constant double teams and Adrian Robinson earned MAC Def POY with 13 sks. Temple went from allowing 166 ypg (4.1) with 18 sks in '08 to the #18 rush D in the FBS at 108 ypg (3.2) with 34 sks in '09. This year they lose 1st Tm MAC NT Neblett (13 st, 43 tkl, 9.5 tfl) and DE Brian Sanford (8 tkl, 2 sk), while DE Amara Kamara (9 st) moves to LB. They will not be as tough vs the run without Neblett but this is easily one of the MAC's top D-lines (two 1st Tm MAC ret).

LB Elijah Joseph

LINEBACKERS - After having just 4 career sts returning heading into 2007, Temple has fielded exp'd units the last 2 yrs. They had all 3 st'rs back (#3, #4, #5 tkl'rs) in '08. Last year all 3 st'rs ret'd again (#2, #5 & #7 tkl'rs). This year they lose 2nd Tm MAC MLB Alex Joseph (13 st, #1 tkl'r, 5.5 tfl) and OLB John Haley (13 st, #6 tkl, 2.5 tfl). They add Zach Kane, who orig signed at Miami, FL (PS#135 in '08) and return 1st Tm MAC Elijah Joseph and move in 2 DE's incl Kamara (30 car sts). This is another top-notch Temple LB corps but it's less exp'd. Adding depth are Stephen Johnson (6'1" 225 Jr), Mike Beatty (6'1" 225 rFr) and Matt Falcone (6'3" 209 So).

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In 2008, Temple had 3 st'rs (9 w/st exp) returning. They had their best finish in my PDR since 1996 at #69. Last year they had just 2 st'rs back. VHT Marquise Liverpool (PS#26) earned 7 sts at CB (moved from off) and FS Jaiquawn Jarrett was 1st Tm MAC. Surprisingly, Temple dropped down to #96 (even with a 19-16 ratio). Teams did have to throw more often with a tougher rush D and they faced a low opp ranking. This year they lose 3rd Tm MAC SS Dominique Harris (13 st, 71 tkl, 1 int, 9 pbu), CB Anthony Ferla (7 st, 34 tkl) and CB Wilbert Brinson (1 st, 19 tkl, 1 int). Deonte Parker (PS#274JC) was the Scout Tm POY and Liverpool is now in his 2nd year on defense. Not in the PSL are Kwame Johnson (5'11" 182 Sr, PS#408JC) and Josh Hutchison (5'10" 176 Sr). The Owls should make a large jump in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In the 2 years prior to Golden's arrival ('04 & '05), Temple finished #112 and #119 in my ST rankings. In '06 and '07 they had freshmen-laden squads and finished #113 and #117. In '08 the unit ret'd intact and I called for a big upswing. They did not let me down finishing #38. Travis Shelton avg 31.3 on KR's (Jamal Schulters 29.7). K Jake Brownell hit 8 of 14 (long 45) while P Jeff Wathne had a 33.5 net. The KR D allowed just 18.8. The ST MVP was true frosh Kevin Kroboth. Last year they had to replace Shelton and Schulters but as expected were strong once again (#51). True frosh K Brandon McManus (PS#45) connected on his first 6 FG's but was just 11-18 after that (2 miss 50+) and he had 9 TB's on 78 KO's. He and RB Pierce tied the school record for pts scored in a ssn (96). Wathne saw his net drop to 32.5. Nixon led in KR (29.2) and Delano Green was a top-notch PR (11.6, 3rd Tm MAC PR) and each had 2 TD's. This yr the unit returns intact and should improve.

COACHES - Al Golden was the youngest DC (31) in the NCAA in '01. He was an asst at Penn St (2000) and Virginia's DC from '01-'05. UCLA, Syr, Cincy, Virg and ND are just a few of the openings he's been rumored for. Last year he guided Temple to its first bowl since 1979 with a 9-4 record. Matt Rhule, who was the TU QB coach in '06-'07, was elevated to OC in '08. DC Mark D'Onofrio played for the GB Packers and coached ILB's in '05 and TE's in '04 at Virginia. He was also the LB cch at Rutgers ('01-'03). Both coor's played at Penn St with D'Onofrio being one of Golden's teammates.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Coming into last season, the Owls had not had a winning season in 18 straight years and in 2008 they topped 4 wins in a season for the first time since 1990. The Big East booted Temple out in 2004. Playing as an Independent without any chance of winning a conf title and taking on a killer schedule, they went 0-11 in '05 (9 foes bowl elig) and had 5 proj starters ruled ineligible. The Owls were outscored by an avg of 45-10! Bobby Wallace resigned as HC. Golden stepped into a pure rebuilding situation as the Owls had just 6 ret starters and played an NCAA high 21 true frosh. Nine opp's were bowl eligible and Temple was 1-11 (avg loss 41-11). In '07, TU switched its helmets and uniforms to match the ones from 1972-'88 and officially joined the MAC. Golden remarked that there were very few guys in the '06 graduating class who would have started for them "right now." TU had just 2 seniors on the roster and opened 0-5. They got a 39 yd FG with :09 left to beat NI then a 19 yd TD pass with :27 left to beat Akron, their first B2B conf wins in 40 years. They won their 3rd in a row for the first time since 1990, with 17 frosh starting, when they beat Miami, Oh. TU finished 4-4 in the MAC (-56.6 ypg). In '08 with only 2 lettermen lost they nearly became bowl eligible. Three times Temple lost on the final play and finished 5-7. That TU team was actually -70.7 ypg in MAC play (3rd worst). Last year they had to replace QB DiMichele. Temple had 54 schl players in '06, 63 in '07, 72 in '08 and were finally up to their full allotment in '09. Temple had 3 net close losses in '08 and had 83.9% of their tackles returning but had just 48.7% of their offensive yds back. I pegged the Owls as one of my Most Improved Teams meaning I expected them to go from a losing season to a bowl. The season started off on a poor note. They led Villanova by 10 in the 4Q but lost to their in-city FCS rival (456-357 TU yd edge). Villanova did go on to win the FCS Championship. After being whipped by Penn St 31-6, Temple won an amazing single season school record 9 games in a row. At a perfect 7-0 in the MAC, they needed a win over Ohio to get to the MAC Title game but were outgained 494-378 and finished as MAC East Co-champs. Temple landed UCLA in the bowl and while they led 21-10 at half, they came up short. One problem was that RB Pierce missed the last 2 with inj (minimal bowl action, just 12 att). Temple figures to be 2010's favorite to win the MAC as they have 16 ret starters. However, working against them, they benefitted from 2 net close wins, had an offensive ypp of 11.3 (pg 299), had only 6 starts lost to injury (#13 FBS) and despite their 7-1 MAC record they were only +4.8 ypg (8th best). Eight of my 9 sets of power ratings call them the best team in the MAC and they have a great shot at double digit wins for just the 2nd time in team history (1979).

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score TU	Final Score Opp	W / L
Sep. 3	Villanova (Fri)	G					This cross-city rivalry is played for the Mayor's Cup. TU has dropped 3 straight to VU including LY when the Owls blew a 10 pt 4Q lead. Wildcats were 14-1 LY & FCS Champions.
Sep. 11	Central Michigan	G					Just the schools 3rd meeting, TU has dropped first 2 by 10 & 16 pts. Last meeting in 2008, the Owls had the yard edge (FD's even) but 4 TO's proved too much in the 24-14 loss.
Sep. 18	Connecticut	G					Owls are 7-4 vs the Huskies but have dropped 3 str (outgained in each) incl the last game in 2008 in OT. Temple led 6-0 before allowing two 4Q FG's (29 + 31 yd drives).
Sep. 25	at Penn St	G					TU is 3-35-1 all-time vs PSU dropping 27 str. L4Y TU has been outgained by 267 ypg & outscored on avg 39-2. Five members of the TU staff, incl HC Golden played under Paterno.
Oct. 2	at Army	A					This will be the 4th str yr these schools have met & the Owls have been outgained the L/2. LY's gm was tied 13-13 after 3Q's but the Owls scored two 4Q TD's in a 2 min span for the win.
Oct. 9	at Northern Illinois	A					Fourth overall meeting (TU trails 1-2) but just the 2nd as MAC opp's. In the L/gm ('07) the Owls went 56/12pl kicking a 39 yd FG w/:09 left for the 1 pt win (1st as a MAC member).
Oct. 16	Bowling Green	G					The Owls are 3-7 vs the Falcons but the home team is 6-1 S/'96. In 2007 (L/game) it was tied 21-21 at HT but the Owls allowed 17 unanswered 3Q pts in the 48-35 win.
Oct. 23	at Buffalo	A					Temple has dropped all 6 trips to Buffalo but did win LY as the Owls celebrated their 1979 Garden St Bowl Championship squad holding the Bulls out of the EZ until the 4Q.
Oct. 30	Akron	G					TU has won 3 str over Akron w/the avg score 36-14. LY the Zips led 17-7 in the 1Q but the Owls ended the gm scoring the final 49 pts holding UA to just 146 yds (43 on final drive).
Nov. 6	at Kent St	A					The visitor has lost 3 straight. LY Fr AA RB Bernard Pierce went down with an injury on TU's 1st off series & Matt Brown rushed for career and ssn highs (156, 8.7).
Nov. 16	Ohio (Tues)	G					The Owls are 5-14 in home finales but are riding a 3 gm win streak. Home team is 3-0 in this series. The loss to OU LY eliminated TU from playing in the MAC title gm.
Nov. 23	at Miami, Oh (Tues)	A					Temple has a 3 gm winning streak in this series after dropping the 1st meeting in '05. LY TU blew 21-3 & 31-13 pt leads needing a 63/6pl drive for a gm winning 18 yd FG w/:03.

OHIO BOBCATS

OT Joe Flading

QUARTERBACKS - In HC Frank Solich's first 2 years ('05-'06) the team avg just 118 (45%) and 129 (54%) ypg passing. In '07, Illinois transfer Brad Bower (PS#30) threw for 1,766 (55%, 11-10). When he struggled some at midseason JC transfer, Theo Scott started 3 and threw for 743 (58%, 5-3) and was the #2 rusher (120, 3.0). The Bobcats improved to 214 ypg (56%). In '08, Scott battled another JC transfer in Boo Jackson. Jackson took his snaps out of the shotgun at JC and struggled. He outperformed Scott in the spring game but Scott started the opener hitting 26-35 for 224 but he was inj and lost for the year vs Ohio St. Jackson QB'd the rest of the year throwing for 2,355 (61%,19-12) with 333 rush (19 pass TD's - school record). Brandon Jones (6 gms true '05) threw for 193 (44%, 1-0). Jackson had an 8-1 ratio in his final 2 as OU improved its passing stats again. Last year Scott and Jackson battled again but Jackson was injured in the 4Q vs NT and RS. Scott had one bad game vs Kent St when he had flu-like symptoms but had a fine year throwing for 2,369 (57.8%, 20-11, new pass TD rec). True frosh Tyler Tettleton got ahead of senior Jones as the backup. Tettleton (5'11" 201 So, PS#109) played in 10 (9-23-128). OU ran the pistol because of Scott's ability to run the ball and this year he departs as does Jones. Jackson will battle Iowa St transfer Phil Bates, who hit 11-24 for 137 yds with a 2-1 ratio (166 rush) in the first 5 games of '08 with the Cyclones but after not playing in Wk 6 transferred. With the loss of Scott, I'll call this unit down a few notches in 2010.

RUNNING BACKS - In 2008, OU had to replace their all-time career leading rusher Kalvin McRae who had 1,434 (4.9) in '07. It was a 4-man battle in the spring of '08 between WR Chris Garrett, Donte Harden (PS#193), Vince Davidson (5'11" 191 Sr) and LJ Flintall. Due to injuries and coaching decisions, they ran a TB by committee. Three of the 4 backs were leading rushers in a game as Garrett led the way with 529 (4.5) while Harden had 454 (5.2). Davidson added 170 (3.9) and Flintall had just 4 atts. Last year injuries and coaching decisions once again saw a TB by committee. Garrett led again with 621 (4.2), Davidson had 260 (3.9) and Harden had 237 (3.9). This year they lose Garrett (11 st) and Flintall (84, 4.7) while Harden is susp for the first 6 gms. They do add JC Kenny Ashley, who will challenge immediately. Not in the PSL are Casey Meridieth (5'7" 211 Jr), Ryan Boykin (6'1" 222 rFr), Joey Inks (6'0" 206 Sr) and Devin Favors (5'11" 207 Sr). Even with the loss of their leading rusher from last yr, I look for better production from the Ohio RB's.

RECEIVERS - Last year OU ret'd their top 2 rec's in Taylor Price (694, 13.6) and LaVon Brazill (384, 11.3). Price was named to the preseason Biletnikoff list. Tennessee DB coach Art Evans mentioned that OU's WR corps was the best they had faced so far (they had already taken on Florida and UCLA). Last yr the #3 leading returner, Riley Dunlop (278, 12.6 in '08), played in just 6 (2 st, inj, 122, 10.2). Price led again with 784 (14.0) while Brazill added 702 (13.2) and 6'4" Terrence McCrae (PS#111), who trimmed his 40 time to 4.41, emerged with 545 (15.6). The 6'2" Vanderbilt transfer Steven Goulet (PS#166) had 230 (11.0). This year they lose their career reception leader in Price but have everyone else back. Not listed below are Deonte Wiggins (5'10" 172 Jr), Brian Albrecht (6'3" 222 Sr), Rob Anzuini (6'0" 202 Jr), Nicolas Secrest (6'3" 200 Jr), John DiBattista (5'10" 187 Sr) Adam Alderman (6'0" 178 rFr) and TE Zac Clark (6'3" 272 Jr). Despite the loss of a #3DC (Price to NE), I expect a big year, especially out of McCrae.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2008, OU had 3 st'rs back but due to injuries, had to use 9 different starters. OL coach Keven Lightner said the one OL they could not afford to lose was C David White, who missed 2. Their numbers dropped to 129 ypg rush (3.9) while allowing 23 sks (6.0%). Last year they had to replace 4 st'rs and 2 bkps (two of those lost were proj'd st'rs that Solich had been banking on). They had just 32 career sts ret and Lightner knew the OL would be young, but did say it was one of the most talented group's he'd coached and that they would play better at the end of the year. The young group did struggle as the numbers dropped to 112 ypg (3.4) with 30 sks (7.5%). The OL did not allow a sack in 5 consecutive games (longest streak in Solich era) but then allowed 7 vs Kent St. This year they lose RT Cole Bunner (4 st), 3rd Tm MAC LT Chris Rodgers (14 st) and C David White (14 st, 3Y st'r). Seven of the top 10 return and LY 10 different players started. Not listed below are Matt Britain (6'3" 288 So) and JD Bales (6'5" 307 So). They have 39 career sts back and should have a much improved unit.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2007, OU had to replace 2 st'rs and one backup and slipped to allowing 186 ypg rush (4.5), its worst total since '01. In '08 they had 2 st'rs back and saw the return of Ernie Hodge (11sts '06, susp '07). Inj's hit this unit (7 diff st'rs) but they improved to 158 ypg (4.1). Last year they had to replace a 2nd Tm MAC DT then over the summer lost 2 DL (comb 15 st '08) so it was like having 2 st'rs back. DE Kris Luchsinger was lost after 6 sts. The only returning starter who played all year was Hodge who has been regarded as their best DL (3rd Tm MAC). They did get more production out of large Marcellis Williamson (340 lb, 3 tkls in '07- '08) with 14 st and 46 tkl in '09. OU improved to 154 ypg rush (3.9) with 22 sks. This year they lose DE Luchsinger (24 tkl), DE Conor Reilly (6 tkl '09, 9 st '07/'08). The 4 who started the final 8 return and this should be one of the MAC's top D-line's. Not listed below are Preston Oglesbee (6'5" 252 rFr), Desmond Kenner (6'3" 279 rFr), Nic Barber (6'3" 221 rFr), Corey Hasting (6'0" 246 So) and Tyler Duncanson (6'3" 246 rFr).

LINEBACKERS - Last year OU had to replace their #5 (2 st) and #7 tkl'rs (10 st) but ret'd #1 Noah Keller and #2 Lee Renfro. They were again 1-2 in tackles with Keller earning 1st Tm MAC. Keller will contend for MAC DPOY this season as Solich said he wouldn't trade him for any other player in the league. This year they lose 1st Tm MAC WLB Renfro (14 st, 110 tkl, 9 tfl) and SLB Errik Ejike (9 st, #13 tkl'r). Not listed in the PSL are Ben Boerner (6'3" 215 Jr), Joe Wheeler (5'9" 218 Jr), Byron Brown (6'0" 222 Jr) and Cory Hart (6'1" 226 So). They return 4 LB's who combined for 110 tkls last year plus Keller (17 tkl in bowl, 155 tkl is highest at OU in 15 yrs) so this is still a solid LB corps despite the loss of 2 st'rs.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Bobcats ret'd 7 of the top 8 in '06 and climbed to #36 in my pass D rankings. In '07 they had to replace 1st Tm MAC CB TJ Wright (18 pbu) and three others (comb 10 st). OU slipped to #75. They had 3 st'rs back in '08 and moved up to #67. Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs (#2 DC) and then 3rd Tm MAC FS Steven Jackson was lost after 4 sts. The much less exp'd unit moved all the way up to #20 (highest finish ever) allowing just 53.5% with a 17-20 ratio. RFr Gerald Moore led with 6 int. This year they lose SS Patrick Tafua (14 st, 72 tkl, 3 int, 7 pbu), CB Thad Turner (14 st, 60 tkl, 1 int, 6 pbu) and CB Idris Lawrence (12 st, 40 tkl, 5 pbu). They add twin brothers PS#166JC Omar and PS#336JC Octavius Leftwich. Not listed in the PSL are Ryan Clark (5'9" 169 So), Phillip Furbay (6'0" 177 So), Jamil Shaw (6'0" 186 rFr, PS#461), Justin Szink (6'0" 177 rFr), Andy Fay (6'1" 199 Jr), Ian Elmore (6'1" 194 Sr), Chad White (5'11" 181 Jr), Storm Timson (5'10" 186 rFr) and Issa Braithwaite (5'10" 205 Jr). With the return of Jackson (extra yr) and Julian Posey (9 sts '07, injuries '08-'09), this unit is close to '09 in terms of exp, but with the loss of 3 st'rs will not match LY's outstanding finish.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Bobcats have generally been good in this area this decade as they were #4 in my ST rankings in 2000 and #21 in 2002. In Solich's first year ('05), they were just #116 but made it to #5 in '06 and #12 in '07! They surprisingly slipped to #52 in '08 and last year only had to replace their K. RFr Matt Weller (PS#49) led all frosh kickers with 29 FG att. He missed 3 FG's vs Cal Poly early but finished 21-29 and was 2-3 from 50+. Weller had just 3 TB's on 71 KO's but OU blocked 5 kicks and had 4 PR TD's and finished #19. Brazill is already the team's all-time career PR (school rec 4 career PR TD's). Garrett departs as the school's all-time leading KR (703, 27.0 in '09). P Matt Schulte had a 32.2 net. This year they lose Garrett and Schulte but should still be one of the MAC's premier ST units.

COACHES - Solich is from Cleveland so a return to his home state was a solid move. He spent 6 years as HC at Nebraska compiling a record of 58-19. He was Big 12 COY in '99 and '01 and produced at least 9 wins in 5 of his 6 seasons. Solich was MAC COY in '06 in his 2nd season. Last year I named Solich my 2009 MAC COY. The coordinators also enter their 6th year here. The OC is Tim Albin, who was the OC at NDSt in '04 and was at Neb from '01-'03 (passing gm coor '03). The DC is Jimmy Burrow who was the DC at NDSt and a Neb asst in '01 and '02.

PHIL'S FORECAST

After a 4-7 season in '04 Bobcat fans were energized when Ohio hired Solich and he has delivered. He had two losing seasons, including his first one (4-7), but in '06 guided them to 9-5 record incl a win at Illinois and a GMAC bowl bid. In '07 they had just 10 ret sts (fewest MAC) and while Bobcat fans were disappointed, I thought Solich did a great job getting them bowl eligible at 6-6. In 2008, a season where almost every MAC team was loaded with returning starters, OU was at the bottom with just 13. OU suffered a lot of tough losses and could have easily opened the season at 4-0 but stood 0-4 despite having the MAC's #1 D at 313 ypg allowed. OU rebounded to win 4 of their last 8 and finished 3-5 in the MAC (+8.1 ypg). OU was -12 in TO's so last year they were primed for a Turnovers=Turnaround. They flew under the radar of most but I pegged them to win the MAC East Title and called them my #2 Most Improved Team in the country. The season did not start as expected as they lost at home to Conn, a game in which they allowed two 100 yard rushers. They barely escaped versus NTexas the next week, 31-30 in 2 OT (won on 2-pt conv). After dispatching an FCS foe, they were 2-1 and surprisingly led Tenn 14-7 and were only outgained by 59 yds. The Bobcats beat BG and Akron in their 2nd & 3rd straight road games and then dispatched rival Miami. They were outplayed by Kent St at home (372-164 yds) but won their final 4 MAC games, the last one vs Temple in the battle for the MAC East Title (OU 494-378 yd edge). The Bobcats were banged up in that game and lost the MAC Title game to CM 20-10, then lost to Marshall in the bowl by 4 (trailed 21-0). OU's senior class went to 2 bowls & had more wins (28) than any Bobcat team in 40 years. This year, just like last, they have just 12 ret st'rs and last year they benefitted from 3 net close wins and were +13 in turnovers. They also had an offensive ypp of 12.5 (pg 299) and despite their 7-1 record in MAC play, they were actually -23.9 ypg (9th best). OU figures to be leading the MAC East after 6 games but finishes at both Temple and Kent St. While it won't be easy to top last year's 9 win total they have a shot at it.

Sep. 4	Wofford	A					First meeting. The Terriers went 3-8 LY including losses to FBS schools USF (40-7) & Wisconsin (44-14). Ohio has lost B2B home openers but has won 4 str vs FCS teams.
Sep. 11	Toledo	A					The Bobcats have lost 11 str vs the Rockets with an avg score of 31-20 (last win 1988). The last game in '07 vs UT, Ohio racked up 560 yds but 7 TO's cost them the win.
Sep. 18	at Ohio St	A					Ohio is 0-6 vs Ohio St but in the last gm in 2008 in Columbus they almost pulled the huge upset taking a 14-13 lead into the 4Q & were ultimately done in by a 69 yd PR TD.
Sep. 25	at Marshall	A					OU is 1-9 vs MU. LY these schools played in the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl, Ohio spotted MU a 21-0 lead and their comeback fell short (L/3 poss: missed 29 yd FG, punt & int).
Oct. 2	at Eastern Michigan	A					Ohio has won 6 of the L/7 meetings vs E Michigan including the L/gm in '07 (48-42). The Bobcats jumped out to a 28-0 lead and held off the Eagles comeback (never trailed).
Oct. 9	Bowling Green	A					Ohio has been outgained in 8 of the last 9 years vs Bowling Green by 188 ypg. The home team has lost 4 straight by an avg of 14 ppg with 3 upsets incl last year.
Oct. 16	Akron (HC)	A					Ohio has won 3 of 4 vs UA but has been outgained in the last 3 games. The home team is 7-2. The Bobcats are 47-39-1 all-time on Homecoming (won last year vs Miami).
Oct. 23	at Miami, Oh	A					In 7 of the last 8 meetings the winner has outgained the loser by at least 124 yds. Last time here Ohio led 10-6 mid-2Q then scored on 6 of 7 possessions for a 41-19 lead.
Oct. 30	Louisiana	A					These schools only prior meeting was in '07 as Ohio won 31-23 in Lafayette despite being outgained 534-416. Bobcats are 3-1 all-time vs current SBC tms (only loss in 1939 to WKU).
Nov. 4	Buffalo (Thur)	A					Ohio is 7-14 in home finales S/'89. Including the '06 MAC title gm, the Bobcats are 10-3 in November the last 4 years. Ohio is 8-4 vs UB S'97 (LY's win snapped B2B series losses).
Nov. 16	at Temple (Tues)	G					Bobcats are 2-1 all-time vs the Owls and have outgained Temple in each meeting by at least 110+ yds (195 in '07, 124 in '08 & 116 LY). LY Ohio scored on its opening drive and never trailed.
Nov. 20
Nov. 26	at Kent St (Fri)	A					Ohio has been outgained the last 3 years vs Kent St. The visitor has gone 8-2. Last year Ohio only trailed 6-3 after 3Q's but was outgained 241-94 in the 2H and lost by 9.

KENT ST GOLDEN FLASHES

QB Spencer Keith

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Prior to 2009, two of Kent St's previous 3 QB's were very successful and are now playing big roles in the NFL, but at different positions. Joshua Cribbs was the only QB in school history to have over 1,000 yards rushing and passing in the same season and he did it twice. He finished as the school's career leading passer and is a WR/RS with the Cleveland Browns. In 2006, mobile JUCO Julian Edelman won the starting job. He threw for 1,859 (55%, 10-11, 658 rush). Edelman threw for 1,318 (52%, 7-9, 455 rush) in '07 but broke his arm (gm 8). Kent St played 4 others at QB which was a main reason they finished the season with 7 straight losses. They even took the RS off Giorgio Morgan (6'4" 207) and he hit 23 of 36 for 274 with 3 TD's but was injured. In '08, Edelman managed to play all 12 and became the 2nd KSU QB to top 1,000 pass & rush with 1,820 (56%, 13-11) and 1,370 rush (6.4). Edelman played WR for the Patriots in '09. Anthony Magazu, (1 st, 27 att '07) was the backup in '08 (23 att) and they managed to RS Morgan. Last year Morgan was the starter but suffered an ankle injury in the opener. True frosh Spencer Keith (PS#153) made his first start vs Iowa St. Morgan started vs Miami but Keith outplayed him. The same thing happened vs Baylor. HC Doug Martin said Spencer had the best vision of any freshmen QB he'd had. He is a 4.0 student and learned the playbook in 3 days. Keith was leading the team to a fine season when he was injured in the 2nd to last game. Morgan and Magazu combined to hit just 8-24-55 in the last 6Q's of the season. Keith threw for 2,147 (57.1%, 14-11) while Morgan and Magazu combined for under 48% (0-5 ratio). This year they only lose Magazu and not listed below is Sal Battles (5'11" 218 Jr, PS#167). Keith should be one of the top QB's in the MAC this year.

RUNNING BACKS - In 2005, HC Martin said the RB would be true frosh Eugene Jarvis and it was not even close between him and the #2 man. Unfortunately, he was ruled ineligible and Jerry Flowers led with just 304 (3.2) in the "Texas Tech" spread offense. Jarvis missed one game in '06 but led with 798 (4.3). He is only 5'5" and hid behind Kent St's 6'4" 302 lb avg O-line. Jarvis is not only fast, but also quick and elusive and in '07 he tied a school record with 5 straight 100 yard games (Don Fitzgerald in '66). He went on to break Eric Wilkerson's 1988 single season rush record with 1,669 (6.0!) while also finishing #1 in rec yards (306, 13.3). Jarvis was the first Kent St RB to lead the MAC in rushing since 1988. In '08 he was the leading returning FBS rusher. He missed 3.5 gms but still rushed for 801 (4.9). Andre Flowers had 319 (4.0) while true frosh Jacquise Terry added 170 (5.0). Last year Jarvis suffered a lacerated kidney and was OFY when tests revealed he only had one kidney. Terry (three 100 yd gms) led with 649 (4.7). Dri Archer had 93 vs Buffalo but only finished with 246 (4.2) and Andre Flowers (5'11" 220) added 180 (3.1). Not listed below is Lamar Washington (6'0" 215 Jr). Everyone returns as Jarvis was granted a 6th year and he is one of the MAC's best and needs just 564 to become KSU's career leader.

RECEIVERS - Shawn Bayes was by far the best WR in '08 with 642 (16.5) as the #2 WR was Phil Garner with just 192 (11.3). A true frosh made a big impact on Kent St in '09 as Tyshon Goode started 9 and led with 755 (14.2). Soph Kendrick Pressley added 301 (14.3) and HB Jameson Konz added 298 (14.2). Garner was the #4 WR with 204 (9.3). This year they must replace Konz (12 st, #7DC SEA), Derek McBryde (2 st, 5 rec), Garner (2 st) and TE Lester Troutman (2 st, 3 rec). Not listed below are Ed Cazenave (6'2" 199 rFr) and TE's Markus Burton (6'2" 215 Jr), Nick Masters (6'4" 244 Sr) and Mike Levandowski (6'5" 230 rFr). I look for continued improvement from the Golden Flashes' receiving corps.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2005, Kent St had a disastrous switch to the Texas Tech offense and was injury prone averaging just 46 ypg rush (1.8) with 33 sks. They made strides in each of the next 3 yrs. In '08 the OL had just 2 ret st'rs but rushed for 231 ypg (5.3) while allowing 21 sks (7.0%). Of course having a mobile QB like Edelman and an outstanding RB like Jarvis helped. Last year the O-line ret'd 4 st'rs, while true frosh Brian Winters (1 of tms strongest) earned a starting spot. With the loss of Edelman (1,370 rush vs 85 yds comb from 3 QB's) and Jarvis the numbers dropped to 115 ypg rush (3.5) although they allowed just 19 sks (4.8%). This year they lose RG Dante Campbell (10 st) and RG Mike Roder (2 st in '09, 11 in '08) but finished with 3 true frosh in the 2 deep. LT Pat Reedy (11 st '09) does move to TE but I still look for improvement.

DEFENSIVE LINE - I list Kent St in a 4-3 classifying the BUCK position (DE/LB) as a DE. In '08, for the 4th straight year, they lost a 1st Tm MAC DL (and 1 other st'r) and Kent St slipped to allowing 179 ypg with their 4.5 ypc being the highest and the 18 sks being the lowest since 2003. Last year they only had to replace 1 st'r and 1st Tm MAC DT Sam Frist returned. Unfortunately, Frist (2 st) was injured and lost his spot. It was like having 2 ret st'rs minus a 1st Tm MAC DL. Kent St's rush D, however, improved to allowing 137 ypg (3.6) with 33 sks. This year they lose DE Kevin Hogan (12 st, 37 tkl, 4.5 sk), DT Aaron Hull (12 st, 33 tkl, 5.5 sk) and NT Frist (14 tkl, 2 sk) but they do return 2nd Tm MAC BUCK Monte Simmons (56 tkl, 8 sk). Despite starting just 7, Simmons led KSU (#2 MAC) with 16 tfl and this year's unit is on par with 2009.

LINEBACKERS - Last year Kent St had to replace their #1 (11 st), #9 (3 st) and #12 tkl'r (8 st). Mich trans Cobrani Mixon (PS#25) lived up to his VHT billing (#1 tkl'r in '09). While having just one starter back, they did have 4 with starting exp and improved the ppg allowed to 22.4 (31.7 '08). This year they lose Anthony Mirando (11 st, #8 tkl'r, 2.5 tfl) but have 5 of the top 6 back including Mixon and should be one of the MAC's top LB corps.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '06, the entire 2 deep ret'd including exceptional top cover CB Jack Williams. Kent St moved up to #25 (53%, 8-16 ratio) in my PDR (#62 in '05). They had to replace 2 st'rs in '07 and Williams was banged up and they dropped all the way down to #110. While they had to replace Williams (#4DC) in '08, a more exp'd unit moved up to #95. Last year they lost 2 DB (comb 17 sts) but ret'd their star FS Brian Lainhart. Lainhart snagged 7 int's (#2 tkl'r) and earned 1st Tm MAC honors. He was a big reason why Kent St rose all the way up to #31. Not in the PSL are Dylan Farrington (6'2" 180 Fr, IFS) and Brian Hummer (5'10" 202 Jr, PS#309). This year they lose CB Danny Sadler (8 st, 43 tkl, 9 pd), CB BG Walters (4 st, 29 tkl) and SS Adam Richey (7 tkl). Lainhart, 2nd Tm MAC CB Josh Pleasant (#3 tkl'r) and SS Dan Hartman (#4 tkl'r) return, plus Kirk Belgrave (7 sts '07-'08, proj st'r '09 inj) is back. This looks like the MAC's best secondary.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Perhaps the asst coach with the biggest impact on any position in the country last year was Zane Vance. Vance correctly pointed out that Kent St had 3 losses in '06, 4 in '07 and 3 in '08 due to poor ST play and posted it on the lockers prior to the year. Vance brought a new attitude to the unit and players were battling to get on to this unit and were excited to be a part of it. In the previous 4 yrs Kent St finished #107, #117, #82 and #117 in my ST rankings. Last year with a frosh K and soph P they moved all the way up to #44. Freddy Cortez hit 13-19 FG's (long 46) but had just 2 TB's on 51 KO's. Kent St allowed just 15.0 per KR (#1 FBS) and Matt Rinehart improved his net from 33.7 to 35.8 and was 1st Tm MAC. Last year's top returnmen were both juniors, so this year everyone is back and the unit has gone from a weakness to a strength.

COACHES - Doug Martin took over as the HC in 2004 after being the OC here in '03 and at East Carolina the prior 7 yrs. He handled the OC duties himself initially, but promoted AJ Pratt to that spot LY. Pratt departs this year (TE/OT cch WKU) giving Martin the OC duties once again. The DC is Pete Rekstis, who enters his 7th year in that role. Rekstis was the DC at Youngstown St for 3 years prior to coming here.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Kent St had THREE alumni selected for the 2008 NFL Pro Bowl in Joshua Cribbs, Antonio Gates and James Harrison! KSU, however, has had just two winning seasons since 1977 and one came in QB Cribbs' first year as a starter in 2001. It was very surprising that it was his only one in 4 seasons. In '04, Kent St had 3 close losses to start 1-6 but became the hottest team in the MAC and in Cribbs' final 4, had 4 blowout wins and out gained league foes by 123.7 ypg (2nd best). In '05, KSU had to replace Cribbs and switched to the TTech offense. They avg'd just 46 ypg (1.8) rushing and the scoring dropped from 30.5 to 16.4. They also suffered a cluster of injuries and finished 1-10. In '06 I pointed out that Kent St was -11 in turnovers (pg 312), had 4 net close losses (pg 299) and were more exp'd than their 15 ret st'rs due to the '05 injuries. I called KSU one of the Most Improved teams in the country in '06 saying the MAC East Title game would come down to the Ohio/Kent St matchup (2 teams combined for 3 MAC wins in '05). Kent St opened the year 5-2 beating all of the teams that tied for the MAC East Title in '05 and controlled their MAC East destiny. It was the first time they'd opened 4-0 in the MAC in school history (joined 1951). It was also the first time they had 5 straight wins since 1976. KSU had a tough loss to Ohio. Edelman was not 100% in the L/4 but they were still bowl eligible at 6-6. In '07 after they beat Big 12 member Iowa St on the road 23-14, not much went right. They had a 16-6 FD edge at the half vs Kentucky but lost. Kent St lost Edelman to injury and went through 4 other QB's in the 2H of the season and finished 1-7 in the MAC (-44 ypg). Improvement was expected in '08 as they were -11 in TO's in '07 and had 3 net close losses plus returned 15 st'rs. Kent St went just 4-8 in '08 blowing several opportunities. Despite their 3-5 MAC record, they were +40.6 ypg (#2 MAC, best East). Last year Kent St appeared to have 15 ret starters including RB Jarvis and after underachieving the previous 2 years, I mentioned that 3 of my 9 sets of power ratings said Kent St could become bowl eligible. They opened 1-1 but lost QB Morgan and RB Jarvis (OFY) to injury prior to Iowa St. They lost that game 34-14 but rebounded to beat Miami 29-19. After an expected loss at Baylor (31-15), they led BG 35-23 in the 4Q but BG got TD's with 4:29 and :05 left basically costing Kent St bowl eligibility. Kent St rallied and dominated EM (28-6) as well as Ohio (372-164 yd edge). They handled WM 26-14 to move to an unlikely 5-4 with 3 games left. Unfortunately, in a 1 pt game at HT, Akron beat Kent St by 8. Kent St led Temple 10-9 at the half but lost QB Spencer Keith to injury and was blown out 47-13. In the finale, Buffalo got a 22 yd FG with :05 left to pull out the win. The offense was much more explosive with true frosh Keith at QB. Kent St improved to 4-4 in the MAC but was -34.6 ypg. They did have 2 net close losses and this year not only have 15 ret starters but Eugene Jarvis was granted a 6th season. Kent St is back on my Most Improved List and I will call for their 2nd winning season since 1987.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score KSU	Final Score Opp	W L
Sep. 2	Murray St (Thur)	A					First meeting. The Racers went 3-8 last year including a 65-7 loss to NC State. Kent St is 8-1 their last 9 home openers, all wins vs FCS opp's (loss vs Minnesota in '06, 44-0).
Sep. 11	at Boston College	A					Kent St is 3-29-1 in their first game away from home (3rd yr vs BC). Last year BC lead 34-0 after 3Q's and Kent St got 65 yards (36%) on their final drive in garbage time.
Sep. 18	at Penn St	G					Kent St is 0-2 vs Penn St with the last meeting in '03 (lost 32-10 & outgained by 226 yds). Coming into 2010, KSU has dropped 6 straight AG's vs BCS schools by 28 ppg.
Sep. 25
Oct. 2	at Miami, Oh	A					KSU has benefitted from a +11 TO ratio the last 2 years vs UM as LY they were outgained by 302 yards but still won 29-19. The visitor had won 4 straight prior to last year.
Oct. 9	Akron (HC)	A					KSU has played Akron just 4x's (last in '98) on HC in their 63 yr history (3-1). Schools are just 11.6 miles apart & this is the 40th battle for the Wagon Wheel (KSU just 2-11 S/'97).
Oct. 16	at Toledo	A					The last time KSU won at the Glass Bowl was in 1977, since then they have dropped 9 straight by 18 ppg. KSU did win the L/gm in '06 (40-14) but are 2-7 S/'88 vs Toledo.
Oct. 23	at Bowling Green	A					LY the Flashes allowed 505 pass yds (most ever) vs the Falcons (allowed a combined 510 the previous 3 years). KSU is just 1-16 at BG S/'74 (only win in 2006, 38-3).
Oct 30	Ball St	A					Kent St is 5-19 vs Ball St (1-14 L/15 meetings). KSU lost 41-20 in their L/meeting in '08. Coming into 2010, KSU is 3-9 L3Y in MAC HG's (2-2 last yr with a 3 and 1 pt loss).
Nov. 6	Temple	A					This will be the 5th str yr these schools have played. Home tm has won the last 3 gms. Last time here KSU had a ssn high 329 yds rushing & 561 ttl yds in a 41-38 win.
Nov. 13	Army	A					These schools have had just one prior meeting in '06. KSU scored a late 4Q TD to force OT but lost 17-14 as KSU fumbled 2 plays into OT & Army won it 4 plays later on a 36 yd FG.
Nov. 20	at Western Michigan	A					Kent St snapped a 12 gm series losing streak LY to W Michigan. The Flashes trailed 7-3 in the 2Q but scored the next 17 to go up by DD's in the 2H. KSU is 1-9 L5Y in Nov AG's.
Nov. 26	Ohio (Fri)	A					LY Kent St held Ohio to a school record -9 rush yds as the defense had 7 sks & 3 int. The Golden Flashes are just 5-14 since 1991 in Dix Stadium finales (0-3 last 3).

BUFFALO BULLS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In '08, I called for QB Drew Willy to have his best season yet and that he did throwing for 3,304 (65%) with an excellent 25-6 ratio. His backups were a pair of true frosh in Zach Maynard (PS#253) and Jerry Davis (PS#106). Willy became the career passing leader and set a school record with 284 passes w/o an int. Maynard was the clear-cut starter heading into '09 and his mobility added to the offense (#3 rusher). Maynard threw for 2,694 (57.5%, 18-15). He was susp in the 1Q vs Ohio and Jerry Davis started and hit a 76 yard TD pass. Davis hit 8-15 (145 yds) in 5 gms. Walk-on Cory Jorgensen (6'2" 213 Jr) was the 3rd string QB in '08 & '09, signaling in the plays and returns. This year Maynard transferred to Cal so battling Davis is rFr Alex Dennison (who has a strong arm) but new coaches do like their own recruits so I project Rudy Johnson as the st'r. Last year they had just 3 car pass att's returning and now have 15. I was impressed with Maynard and this year's QB probably will not match his production. However, new HC Jeff Quinn did an excellent job at Cincy utilizing inexperienced QB's.

RUNNING BACKS - It's too bad Buffalo cannot trade a few RB's for some needs at other positions as they are ridiculously deep in this area. James Starks led with 1,333 (4.9) and had 361 (6.9) rec in '08 with 17 TD's. Brandon Thermilus had 454 (4.5) and the often injured Mario Henry added 130 (4.5). Starks, who was Buffalo's first FBS 1,000 yard rusher (B2B yrs), was lost prior to '09. Thermilus was the leading rusher in the first 4. Ike Nduka (PS#157) who had just 1 career rush att prior to '09 led with 172 (7.8) vs CM then became the first UB RB to have B2B 100+ games in his first 2 car sts (131 vs GW). With Nduka and Thermilus banged up, Henry led with 62 (3.1) vs Akron. Nduka had 172 (9.6) vs WM then with all of the RB's injured, they took the RS off true frosh Jeffvon Gill (PS#311) and he led with 172 (7.5) vs BG. Henry led with 43 (8.6) vs Ohio, then Thermilus with 126 (11.5) vs Miami and 123 (4.2) vs Kent St. I list the RB stats to the right (4 RB's 250+). This year they lose Starks (#6DC GB), Henry and FB's Lawrence Rolle (6 st, 1 rec) and Nick Sizemore (1 rec, 12 gms). Not listed below are Branden Oliver (5'8" 196 rFr, PS#241) and Josh Fuller (5'8" 190 So). This year they are a much more exp'd unit.

RECEIVERS - In 2006 true frosh QB Naaman Roosevelt moved to WR and was #2 with 429 (13.8). In 2007, Roosevelt led with 766 (12.2) and Ernest Jackson was #2 with 645 (12.2). Brett Hamlin, who led in '05 (371, 9.8, RS '06) had 415 (10.9). In '08, Roosevelt exploded with 1,402 (13.5) and was 1st Tm MAC. Jackson added 507 (11.3) and Hamlin had 459 (12.1). TE Jesse Rack had 205 (9.8). Last year they only had to replace Jackson. In August, then HC Turner Gill liked the explosiveness and hands of true frosh Alex Neutz and Fred Lee but both RS. For the first time in UB's IA history they had two 100 yd rec's in the same game (Roosevelt & Hamlin vs Pitt). Roosevelt (954, 13.6) went on to become UB's #1 career receiver despite missing the final 2. Hamlin improved to 898 (14.0) and Rack had 432 (14.4). Unfortunately, this year all 3 depart. The leading returnee is Terrell Jackson 250 (10.0) who did have 14 rec over the last 3 gms.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Buffalo's 90 ypg rush (2.8) in '06 was its lowest since joining IA. In '07, I called them one of the most improved OL's in the FBS and they improved to 130 ypg (3.7) while allowing 27 sks (7.1%). In '08 they only had to replace 2 st'rs and had 93 career st'rs ret (#13 FBS) and put up similar numbers (133 ypg, 3.8, 30 sks). Last year they had to replace 3 st'rs but an '07 starter, who missed '08, ret'd. QB Maynard was more mobile (300 rush in '09, Willy -115 in '08) and Buffalo improved to 164 ypg rush (4.5) with 20 sks (5.0%). This despite the fact that C Matt Bacoulis broke his leg (4 sts). This year they lose RT Andrew West (7 st, 2 yr st'r), C Bacoulis and RG Robert Colpoys (12 st) but return 4 st'rs including 2nd Tm MAC LG Peter Bittner (38 straight sts). LT Jordan Jerrold ('07 st'r, RS '08) started the last six in '09 and is healthier. This is an improved O-line.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In their MAC Title season of 2008, Buffalo allowed 173 ypg rush (4.9) while the D had just 14 sks. Last year they had to replace 3 DL (comb 35 sts) but had 2 back who had been full-time starters. DE Steven Means was a terror in the spring but was beat out by rFr Jerry Housey. Means started the last 7 and his 2 sks vs GW in Wk 6 were actually the first sacks by a DL in '09. He had the first B2B multiple sack gm for a UB player since 1999. Housey missed the last 5 (knee). Surprisingly the less exp'd unit improved allowing 132 ypg rush (4.1) with 22 sks. This year they lose Dane Robinson (7 st, 13 tkl, 1 sk), DT Kevin Johnson (4 st, 11 tkl) and DE Bruno Lapointe (12 st, 30 tkl, 6 tfl). Four are back with starting exp but Means will likely move to OLB. I do expect a bigger impact from Kenny Scott (PS#185, orig at Tulsa). There will be great competition with the change from the 4-3 to a 3-4 def front.

OG Peter Bittner

LINEBACKERS - Buffalo had a small, inexp LB corps in '08 but last year had all 3 st'rs back including their #1, #5 and #8 tkl'rs. Darius Willis, who turned down scholarship offers from Okla and A&M, started 2 gms but then suffered a shoulder injury. Temple's HC Golden said that Justin Winters may be the best LB in the conf but after 125 tackles in '08, his numbers slipped to 79 (inj, miss 2). This year the unit returns mostly intact again except for Willis, who left after spring and with the possible exception of Scott Pettigrew (#4 tklr) who suffered a knee inj this spg. They started a NB 6 times so only 27 sts return to this unit (#3, #4 and #8 tkl'rs). While also needing to fill another spot, they moved DE Means in. I look for continued improvement from this veteran LB corps.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In 2007 true frosh FS Davonte Shannon became UB's first ever 1st Tm MAC player and led all FBS frosh with 123 tkls as the Bulls were #82 in my PDR. In '08 everyone ret'd but surprisingly UB dropped to #98. Everyone ret'd again last year, although CB Domonic Cook (knee) did not start the final 4. I called it the MAC's top secondary and as you would expect, UB had their best finish ever at #46 (#54 in '05) allowing a 12-7 ratio. This year they lose 2nd Tm MAC FS Mike Newton (12 st, 85 tkl, 2 int, 8 pbu), CB Kendric Hawkins (6 st, 28 tkl, 5 pbu) and FS Chris Storr (7 tkl). Not in the PSL are Joe Petit (6'1" 183 Jr), Jevin Colbert (6'1" 175 rFr), Najja Johnson (6'0" 170 rFr) and Ryan Cotton (5'8" 188 So). Shannon goes for his fourth straight 1st Tm MAC season and could become the career tackle leader here. Even with the loss of a FS, who was billed the heart and soul of the defense, this group could be just as strong.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Coming into '06 the Bulls' ST units had only finished #111, #109, #98, #117, #119 and #118. The Bulls managed to climb to #94 in '06 thanks to the infusion of KR/PR Roosevelt. In '07, P Ben Woods had a 37.3 net while true frosh AJ Principe hit 15 of 20 FG's (long 47) and UB was #71. In '08, new P Peter Fardon only had a 33.2 net and Roosevelt was no longer the main returnman and UB dropped to #109. Last year they only had to replace their top KR. Fardon (34.6 avg after 4) was replaced. John Rachuna avg 43.7 but had 2 blk'd punts vs BG (lost them the gm) and Fardon reclaimed his spot. Principe was 10-13 FG's (long 36) but he was 0-2 from 40+. Rachuna had 4 TB on 53 KO. The return game was below average (see next page) and the Bulls finished #117. This year all of the key players are back and after ST's cost them a game or two last year, this year's unit should be stronger.

COACHES - Turner Gill took over a 1-10 team and in his 3rd year here won the MAC Title. LY they fell to 5-7 but Gill was still grabbed up by Kansas. New HC Jeff Quinn comes from Cincinnati where he was the OC/OL cch the L3Y and served as the interim HC in the Sugar Bowl when Brian Kelly departed. Quinn also served with Kelly (now ND HC) at C Mich and Grand Valley St (Quinn was also CM's bowl interim HC when Kelly left). Greg Forest is the new OC and was Cincy's QB cch the L3Y. Forest served under Kelly at CM and GVS working with WR/RB/TE. DC William Inge spent the L2Y as Cincy's ILB cch and prior 2 yrs as San Diego St's LB coach.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Buffalo joined the MAC and IA ball in 1999 and went from 0 to 2 to 3 wins in its first 3 yrs ('99-'01) but in the next five ('02-'06) totalled just 7 victories. In HC Jim Hofher's final season ('05) they escaped the basement of the MAC East at 1-7 (-41.6 ypg only 4th worst). UB also achieved its first MAC road win. In 2006 Gill inherited 12 starters and played a lot of young players. I gave Buffalo NO shot at a winning season and the Bulls went 2-10 (1-7 MAC). They came into '07 just 8-56 in 8 years of MAC play but had 17 st'rs back. While I called them a MUCH improved team, I still called for their 11th straight losing year and though Buffalo came close, they finished 5-7. In the season finale vs Kent St (playing with a backup QB) they trailed 23-16 but got a late TD to force OT and won a share of the MAC East Title at 5-3!! Buffalo's 5 conf wins were just 3 fewer wins than they had in their first 7 years combined. The Bulls were also +70.1 ypg (3rd best MAC). They had 16 starters back in '08 and a lot of things broke in their favor. They got a 35 yd Hail Mary pass on the final play to beat Temple, a game they led for just 1:49. They had a 46 yd FG bounce off the upright or they would have beaten CM. Buffalo trailed Army 24-10 but forced OT and won by 3. They needed 4 OT's to pull out the "W" vs Akron and trailed BG 27-7 in the 4Q but got a miraculous 2OT win there. Against Ball St in the MAC Title game, they were outgained 503-301 but got 2 long FR TD's (28 pt swing) and won the MAC Championship. In the bowl they were outgained 407-237 and lost to Conn 38-20. UB was actually -2.1 ypg in MAC play (8th best), despite winning the title, as they benefitted from +19 in TO's. The Bulls were the classic Turnovers=Turnaround team last year. They actually improved statistically from their 8-6 season. They avg'd 35 ypg more on offense and allowed 65 ypg less on defense. The key factor turned out to be -7 in TO's and despite going from being -38 in total ypg to +63 ypg, their record fell to 5-7. They upset UTEP in the opener getting a fortuitous call in the EZ wiping out a Miner TD. They led UCF 17-7 at half but lost by 6. Temple got a 95 yd IR TD late in the 1H for a 14 pt swing and rolled to a 24 pt win. Three times UB got inside CM's 20 but settled for 2 FG's and was SOD at the 11. After beating GW and Akron, the Bulls stood at 3-4 and were thinking bowl. They lost to WM in OT and then gave up 2 blk'd punts setting up 1 & 17 yd TD drives for BG and despite leading 29-16 in the 4Q, lost by 1. Ohio pulled out a 3 pt win (UB 441-384 yd edge) then UB rallied to win their final 2 vs Miami and Kent St, both on the road for a 5 win season. Gill opted to leave for Kansas and taking over is Quinn who has been the interim HC for 2 bowls (see Coaches). A lot points in their favor this year as they were -7 in TO's, had 2 net close losses, have 14 ret st'rs and despite a 3-5 MAC record LY were +51.4 ypg (2nd best MAC) while having to overcome 31 starts lost to injury. My only concern is the switch to the spread offense after being a dominating rush team under Gill. Quinn steps into a good situation and 5 of my 9 sets of power ratings call for bowl eligibility.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score UB	Final Score Opp	W / L
Sep. 2	Rhode Island (Thur)	A					UB is 3-0 vs RI (L/gm in '59). Rams went 1-10 LY (ended yr with 10 straight losses) incl a 52-10 loss to Conn. UB is just 2-9 in home openers since '99 (1st yr of 1A status).
Sep. 11	at Baylor	A					These schools only meeting was in 2007, UB lost 34-21 and had 5 TO's that resulted in 13 Baylor pts. The Bulls are 2-11 in road openers but did win 23-17 in El Paso, TX last year.
Sep. 18	UCF	A					Buffalo is 1-6 vs UCF but the home team is 6-1 all-time. LY Buffalo lead 17-7 at HT but was shutout in the 2H w/just 106 yds on 5 poss ending with 4 TO's (3 fum & int) & a punt.
Sep. 25	at Connecticut	G					UB is just 4-13 vs UC (1-10 S'95). They last met in the '08 International Bowl as UB lost 38-20 being outgained 407-237. UB did lead 20-17 at HT due to 5 lost UC fumbles in the 1H.
Oct. 2	at Bowling Green	A					The last 2 years the visitor has pulled the upset. Including the BG game last year UB lost 5 of its 7 games by 7 points or less. Buffalo is 3-8 in MAC openers (2-1 L3Y).
Oct. 9
Oct. 16	at Northern Illinois	A					Buffalo hasn't beat NIU since the 1st meeting in 1968. UB has dropped 5 str incl the L/gm (31-13 in '06). The Bulls have been outgained by at least 140 yds in all 4 MAC meetings.
Oct. 23	Temple	A					Buffalo is 12-2 vs Temple. In the schools 3 conference meetings the Bulls have outgained the Owls in each (+140 ypg). The home team is 3-1 including the last 2 years.
Oct. 30	Miami, Oh	A					Buffalo joined the MAC in 1999 and into 2010 they're 13-31 hosting conference foes (6-6 the L3Y). UB has outrushed MU by a combined 456-232 (7.0-3.6 ypc) the L2Y.
Nov. 4	at Ohio (Thur)	A					The visitor is 3-9 (2-0 L2Y). LY UB never led vs OU but did tie the gm mid-4Q before allowing a 47 yd FG after a 53/12pl drive w/1:25 left (UB was int at the OU23 next drive).
Nov. 12	Ball St (Fri)	A					UB is 1-6 vs Ball St but did win the last meeting in the '08 MAC title gm. It was a misleading final as the Bulls outgained by 202 yds but took advantage of 5 Cardinal TO's.
Nov. 20	Eastern Michigan	A					UB is just 1-12 in home finales (5 str losses). This will mark just the schools 4th meeting as UB is 0-3 with the last game in '05 (2 of the 3 gms were decided by 4 pts or less).
Nov. 26	at Akron (Fri)	A					Into 2010, UB is 7-3 the last 2 years in weekday games. UB is 3-8 vs UA (3 straight wins) but have been outgained in each meeting except for its last visit to Akron (+2 yds).
Dec. 3							BONUS: This is Buffalo's first trip to Akron's new stadium as last trip to Akron was the final game in the Rubber Bowl (4 OT's).

BOWLING GREEN FALCONS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - BG has had some top-notch QB's in recent years. Josh Harris (#6DC) threw for 3,813 (830 rush) setting a then-school record with 27 TD passes in '03. He was 22-6 as a starter. Good-sized Omar Jacobs (6'4" 226, 4.59 spd) posted a 41-4 ratio while throwing for over 4,000 as a soph in '04. He missed 2 sts in '05 but threw for 2,591 (61%, 26-7). Tyler Sheehan threw for just 192 (0-4 ratio) in '06. Sheehan who had the best arm, beat out incumbent Anthony Turner in '07. He became just the 4th QB in BG history to top 3,000 with 3,264 (64%, 23-11). Sheehan's passing yards dropped in '08 to 2,610 but he improved his accuracy to 67% (20-9). Sheehan opened 2009 under center but in most games he went back to his preferred shotgun and he had an outstanding year (4051, 64.9%, 27-7). Aaron Pankratz (1 gm, 5-13 vs Boise) battled true frosh Matt Schilz (PS#188) for the backup spot. Schilz was originally headed to K-St to play for OC Warren Ruggiero but both came here and Schilz RS. Sheehan departs as the #2 career passer but finished #1 in pass att, comp and comp%. With the shift to more of a West Coast offense and going from a 3 yr starter to just 13 career attempts, I look for a big drop in the passing numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - Eric Ransom (PS#147JC) started in '07 but was lost after 2 and converted QB Anthony Turner led with 519 (4.9). Willie Geter, who then-coach Gregg Brandon called "a special guy," had 203 vs Kent St. Geter had 90 in the 1H vs Ohio but was injured and had just 17 att the last 3 (432, 6.1). Chris Bullock, who is more of a between-the-tackles runner finished with 281 (4.4). In '08 everyone ret'd but the unit was hit hard by injuries. Turner started just 4 at TB (never 100%) and led with 400 (4.5). Bullock had 384 (4.2) while Geter (miss 4) rushed for 301 with a super 6.7 ypc. Walk-on Jason Rice (top 4 inj'd) had 91 vs Kent St. Last year they lost Turner and Ransom. The diminutive Geter (5'7" 175) led with 705 (4.0) and was the #4 rec, while Bullock had 322 (5.1). They took the RS off true frosh John Pettigrew (PS#208) but he played mostly on ST (24, 3.4). This year they lose Bullock. Not listed below are Steve Dunlap (5'8" 177 Jr), Mark Mays (5'10" 170 rFr, PS#377) and FB Jake Thompson (6'0" 235 rFr). HC Dave Clawson feels Geter will top 1,000 this year.

RECEIVERS - In '07 they were inexp'd and ex-QB/RB Freddie Barnes (PS#60) led with 962 (11.7). Soph Chris Wright had 370 (14.2) and Corey Partridge (658, 12.0 in '06) was banged up and limited to 453 (9.8). The top 4 ret'd in '08. Barnes missed 3.5 games (knee) and his numbers dropped to 355 (8.9) and Partridge led with 562 (9.7). Last year they had to replace 4 of their top 6 rec's including Partridge but Barnes had a phenomenal year setting a school record with 17 rec vs Marshall then topping that with 22 vs Kent St (1 away from NCAA rec). He set an NCAA record for rec in a season (155) and was a Biletnikoff finalist. His impressive bowl performance (17-219) featured 3 TD's. Tyrone Pronty (9 st '06-'08) won a starting spot but was lost in the opener. Wright was #2 with 582 (12.7) and soph Adrian Hodges added 417 (9.1). This year they lose Barnes (13 st), Wright (12 st) and TE Jimmy Scheidler (9 st, 320 yds). Not listed below is TE Nick Tuminello (6'4" 240 So). Just like last year, only 2 of the top 5 rec's return but it will be tough to replace the production of Barnes (1770, 11.4).

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08, BG's 36 career starts returning were #102, however, the less exp'd group actually put up improved numbers (134 ypg rush, 4.0, 21 sks). Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs and learn a new system. I was concerned because Clawson's system at Tenn was tough to pick up and the Vols' O-line, despite 4 ret st'rs, had much weaker numbers in '08 under him. The same 5 started the first 7 here in '09 but C Ben Bojicic missed 3 and LT Brady Minturn missed 2. BG's numbers dropped to just 87 ypg rush (3.1) while the sacks climbed to 29 (4.9%) despite 3 ret st'rs. This year they lose LT Minturn (11 st, 2Y st'r), 3rd Tm MAC LG Shane Steffy (13 st, 3Y st'r), RG Scott Albert (13 st) and bkp C Marc Stevens. This group is less exp'd (52 car sts) but is now in the 2nd year of Clawson's system and could produce better numbers.

BLACKBURN

DE Angelo Magnone

DEFENSIVE LINE - BG had an injury-plagued unit in '07 allowing its worst ypc rush in over 15 years (4.7) while yielding 208 ypg. In '08 they had 2 st'rs back (7 w/st exp) and the more veteran group trimmed the numbers to 163 ypg (4.2). Last year the unit was wiped out as all 4 st'rs departed (8 car sts ret). Their top sack man on the DL was Kevin Alvarado, who had just 2.5. As you would expect, the numbers were poor as they allowed 194 ypg and their 5.4 ypc rush allowed was their worst in recent history. Eight different DL started including 2 true frosh (5 st). This year the only losses are DE Brandon Jackson (10 st, 29 tkl, 1 sk), DE Carlos Tipton (2 st, 10 tkl) and DT Nick Torresso (8 st, move to OL). Clawson said a focal point of recruiting was the D-line as it lacked playmakers and size. This should be one of the most improved DL's in the country and Clawson is high on his depth at DT.

LINEBACKERS - After having 3 st'rs back in '08, BG had to replace their #2 and #4 tkl'rs in '09. They ret'd their #6 tkl'r Jerett Sanderson and #9 Cody Basler, who earned MAC East DPOW in one of his two '08 sts. This year they lose Basler (13 st, #1 tkl'r, 5.5 tfl), 4th Tm MAC Sanderson (13 st, #3 tkl'r, 7.5 tfl) and James Schneider (13 st, #2 tkl'r, 5 tfl). Nine of the 13 LB's are Clawson recruits making it a very young unit. The most exp'd are Eugene Fells (#8 tkl'r) and Dwayne Woods (#15). This is a more talented group than '09 and could surprise.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - BG was just #88 in my PDR in '07 and I wrote in '08 that I expected a significant climb in the PDR and they did not disappoint (#26). Last year they had to replace 1st and 2nd Tm MAC DB's and then their star, PJ Mahone, was susp for 6. Not coincidently the team was 2-4 without Mahone (5-2 with him) and Clawson called him as valuable on defense as Freddie Barnes was on offense. The less exp'd unit still finished #42. This year they lose FS Jahmal Brown (13 st, 81 tkl, 0 pbu), CB Roger Williams (13 st, 76 tkl, 4 int) and SS Mahone (7 st, 74 tkl, 1 int, 3 pbu). Keith Morgan started the 6 Mahone missed plus 3 others (extra S) and is the leading returning tkl'r (#7). This unit is equal to '09 in terms of experience.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Former HC Urban Meyer had been a Notre Dame ST coach and in his 2 years at BG they finished #22 and #12 in my ST rankings (7 blk punts '02). BG kept the tradition going for the next 2 years finishing #46 and #34 but then dropped to #93, #119, #89 and #83 in Gregg Brandon's last 4 yrs. Last year BG had to replace their top KR, PR and K. The blk'd punt tradition continued as they had 2 blocks vs both Buffalo and Toledo (keys to both wins). Roger Williams became the school's all-time KR. Freddie Barnes was the top PR (9.8). P Nick Iovinelli's net dropped from 35.8 to 33.8. Jerry Phillips had 7 TB's on 73 KO's but the team's KR D rose from 19.2 to 22.9. Phillips hit 8 of 13 FG's (long 44) and Matt Norsic (Phillips inj) hit 4 of 8 (long 40). Even with the presence of Williams, this unit finished just #97. This year they lose Iovinelli, Williams and Barnes and probably will not rise too much in my ST rankings.

COACHES - Dave Clawson was the HC at Richmond (from '04-'07). The Spiders were 11-3 in '07 and had a school record 8,817 yards in 2005 and 2006 combined. He was also the HC at Fordham for 5 years ('99-'03). He is a 2-time IAA National COY. Clawson was much maligned as the OC at Tenn in '08, but proved to be a good fit here as he took the Falcons to a bowl in his first year. His OC is Warren Ruggiero who was the K-St QB coach in '08. His DC is Mike Elko who was the DC at Hofstra ('06-'08).

PHIL'S FORECAST

In 2002 BG outgained MAC foes by 94.9 ypg and ranked as high as #20 in the polls. In Gregg Brandon's first year ('03) BG rose as high as #15 beating a ranked team (#16 Purdue) on the road for the first time since 1972 (#18 Purdue) while also knocking off #12 N Illinois. Two losses to Miami however, knocked them down to #23 in the final polls. In '03, BG was +144 ypg in MAC play. In '04, they had to replace star QB Harris but had 16 st'rs back and Omar Jacobs had an incredible 41-4 ratio. They finished 9-3 but a 2H collapse vs Toledo (led 27-7) cost them a share of the MAC West Title. Their avg win in '04 was by 32.3 ppg as they benefitted from +15 in turnovers. BG's had just 12 ret st'rs (the 2nd fewest MAC) in '05. Their rush D allowed 175 ypg (4.1). QB Jacobs was inj'd in the 1Q vs WM. Without Jacobs they dropped two straight MAC games for the first time since 2000. BG still had a shot at winning the MAC East but lost to Toledo in 2OT. BG was +69.6 ypg (#1 MAC East). In '06 they had just 9 ret st'rs, had to replace Jacobs, basically had 8 road games and 25 freshmen played (15 true) by Wk 4. While BG opened 4-3 they stunningly lost their last five, including a 28-14 loss to Temple ending the NCAA's longest losing streak. BG was 3-5 in the MAC but +21.6 ypg (5th best). It was their first losing season in six years. In '07 BG made my Most Improved List which meant I thought they would go from a losing season to bowl eligibility. They upset Minnesota in OT (led 21-0 at half). Their 8 reg season wins were more than any other MAC team but Miami won the tie-breaker and played in the MAC Title game. After a 44 day layoff, BG had the worst loss in bowl history losing 63-7 to Tulsa. Despite BG's 6-2 MAC record, they were only +1.6 ypg with 5 senior starters. With 16 ret st'rs, BG was picked to win the MAC East in '08. They had the most favorable schedule (faced bottom 3 of West). When BG played up to their potential they were arguably the best team in the MAC in '08 but they were beat by the "Miami Whammy" again, NI got a 30 yd FG with :20 left and they blew a 27-7 lead in the 4Q vs eventual MAC Champ Buffalo (lost 2OT). They were +38 ypg (3rd best) despite their 4-4 record. Last year they had only 10 ret st'rs and a new HC but were coming off of 3 net close losses. BG surprised me when they rallied from a 14-0 deficit at home and beat Troy 31-14. They led Missouri 20-6 mid 3Q on the road but came up 7 points short. At 1-4 it appeared to be a rebuilding year and they trailed Kent St 35-23 in the 4Q but rallied for a 36-35 win (TD :05 left). That turned their season around. Ball St lost their starting QB in the 2Q and BG rolled to a 31-17 win. After a loss to CM they trailed Buffalo 29-16 in the 4Q but once again rallied with an 18 yd TD pass with :39 left to win. They ended the "Miami Whammy" with a 35-14 win. The Falcons trailed Akron 10-9 at half but won 36-20. They blocked Toledo's first 2 punts to jump out to a 14-0 lead. The game was tied at 24 but BG won 38-24. After getting many come from behind wins, they suffered a comeback loss in the bowl as Idaho scored a TD with :04 left and got a gutsy 2 pt conv and won despite BG having a 27-19 FD edge. This year BG has just 8 ret st'rs (fewest MAC) and despite being 6-2 in MAC play last year, were only +15.0 ypg (6th best). My personal take on this team is that this is a rebuilding year as last year's team was dominated by Sr's and Fr. Clawson surprised me LY with that 6-2 MAC finish but will he do it again in 2010?

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score BG	Final Score Opp	W L
Sep. 4	at Troy	A					In LY's ssn opener these schools played for the 1st time. BG was down 14-0 early 2Q before dropping 31 unanswered on the Trojans holding them to just 110 yds the rest of the gm.
Sep. 11	at Tulsa	A					Bowling Green is 0-2 vs Tulsa getting hammered in both defeats including the L/gm in the 2007 GMAC Bowl were they were outgained 562-229 (down 35-0 at HT).
Sep. 18	Marshall	A					BG is 20-8 vs MU but just 1-4 S/'99. LY the Falcons lead 7-0 at HT but could do very little in the 2H (did have a 1D on the MU15 on the final drive). BG is 8-1 in home openers.
Sep. 25	at Michigan	A					Only meeting was in Ann Arbor in '00 as BG lost 42-7 to #6 UM. Falcons are 4-10 vs current BCS schools. LY vs its only BCS opp Missouri, BG lead 13-0 & 20-13 in the 4Q.
Oct. 2	Buffalo (HC)	A					The Falcons are 7-2 in their last 9 HC gms. The home team has dropped 3 straight. LY BG came back from a 13 pt 4Q deficit scoring the winning TD w/:39 left on a 75/11pl drive.
Oct. 9	at Ohio	A					The visitor has won 4 straight. Last year BG's only lead was 3-0 early. They had the ball on the OU14 w/1:22 left but their 4th & 2 pass was bobbled & knocked down.
Oct. 16	at Temple	G					BG has won 7 of 9 but both losses were in Philly incl the last trip in 2006 (28-14). Coming into 2010, BG is 10-2 the L3Y in MAC road games w/6 straight wins by 18 ppg.
Oct. 23	Kent St	A					BG has dominated going 31-4 (16-1 at home). LY BG was down 35-23 & KSU had the ball w/under 5 min left but BG got a 45 yd TD pass, held KSU to a 3 & out and went 74/14pl for the GW TD w/:03.
Oct. 30	at Central Michigan	A					LY BG held the explosive CM offense in check most of the day & trailed just 14-10 at HT. However, they could only muster 138 2H yds and their 5 poss resulted in a fum, 3 punts & downs.
Nov. 6
Nov. 10	Miami, Oh (Wed)	A					The Falcons are just 2-9 since 1998 vs the RedHawks but they did win LY as the defense recorded 6 sks. Bowling Green went a perfect 5-0 LY on weekday games.
Nov. 17	at Toledo (Wed)	A					These instate rivals are just 26 miles apart. Visitor has gone 2-10. BG has won 3 str vs UT incl LY when them jumped out to a 24-0 lead (2 blkd punts on UT's 1st 2 poss).
Nov. 26	W Michigan (Fri)	A					The last meeting was in '05 (BG lost 45-14) which snapped the Falcons 3 gm series win streak. Bowling Green has gone 1-3 in home finales not involving Toledo.
Dec. 3							BONUS: This is the first time since 1999 that BG does not close the regular season vs rival Toledo.

MIAMI REDHAWKS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - From 1997 to 2005 Mike Bath, Ben Roethlisberger and Josh Betts threw for a combined 24,382 yards and they comprise the top three career leading passers here. Mike Kokal started in '06 and threw for 2,419 (59%, 14-8) with 277 (2.0) rush. In '07, Daniel Raudabaugh took over for an injured Kokal throwing for 2,431 (55%, 12-12). In '08, Raudabaugh started 9 throwing for 1,960 (59%, 8-9). Miami did not score in the first 10 Q's of '09 but then rFr Zac Dysert (PS#85) led the team to 2 scores during garbage time vs WM and HC Mike Haywood handed him the starting job. Dysert threw 16 int and was prone to taking sacks but still put up numbers comparable to Roethlisberger's frosh year (259 ypg, 63%). Overall, Dysert threw for 2,611 (237 ypg) completing 62% (12-16). Raudabaugh became the 5th MU QB to top 5,000 career yards passing but did not play games 4-11. In the FHG he came off the bench and hit 11-20 for 101 and finished the season with 670 (53%, 3-5). Not listed below is Drew Jackson (6'2" 236 rFr). This year they lose Raudabaugh but good-sized Dysert should be on his way to a very productive 4 year career.

QB Zac Dysert

RUNNING BACKS - Miami had a 1,000 yard rusher 8 times in 10 yrs from 1994-2003 but has had just one since (2005). In '08, Thomas Merriweather (PS#48) led with 547 (3.9) while JR Taylor added 427 (4.9) and Andre Bratton (PS#173) had 366 (4.6). At the end of Aug, rFr Danny Green was running with the first team as all the RB's were banged up. Merriweather started the first game but Bratton was the most impressive and fastest back. Due to injuries, Bratton played in just 6 (183, 4.6). Surprisingly, Green had just 46 (4.2). Merriweather led with 291 but only avg 2.8 ypc. They took the RS off of true frosh Roman Lawson and he got his first start vs N Illinois with 104 total yards (only 26 rush). Lawson finished #3 among RB's with 70 (3.9). Not listed below are Erik Finklea (6'1" 196 So, PS#305) and FB's Sascha Miller (5'11" 208 So) and Justin Semmes (6'2" 226 rFr, PS#194). Last year's banged up RB corps' top rusher (291) was the school's 2nd lowest (Andre Bratton, 285 yds, 2006) since joining the MAC in 1947 and this unit can only improve.

RECEIVERS - Coming into '07, Miami had a remarkable run as Michael Larkin became MU's career leading receiver in '04 then Martin Nance topped him in '05 and Ryne Robinson topped him in '06. MU had a very young group in '07. Dustin Woods was the top returnee (506, 20.2) and led with 603 (15.1) in '07. The #2 through #5 rec were all frosh in Eugene Harris (542, 11.8), Armand Robinson (471, 14.3), Chris Givens (430, 17.2) and Jamal Rogers (173, 9.1). Naturally this was an exp'd unit in '08 but still had problems with drops. Givens led with 513 (14.7) followed by Woods (377, 10.8), Rogers (359, 8.5) and Harris (286, 8.7). Last year they lost 2 TE's (#7DC's KC, GB) and the group was then hit hard by injuries. Rogers was the only WR to play all 12 (#2, 505, 9.4). Armand Robinson (PS#137) led with 788 (11.8) and Brayden Coombs wrapped up his career in fine fashion with a school record 14 rec vs Buffalo (#3, 392, 9.8). Harris, who missed 5, added 284 (10.9) and Woods had 244 (12.2) in 9. This year they lose Woods (5 st), Coombs (3 st) and Harris (4 st). Not listed below are Aaron Mickens (6'3" 209 So), Jason Earle (5'10" 173 rFr), Max Warren (6'0" 172 rFr), Kevin Bresnahan (6'1" 194 So) and TE Brian Slack (6'5" 253 rFr, PS#60). This unit should have better health and be more productive.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Miami had 3 st'rs back in '08 (st'rs avg 300 lbs) and surprisingly dropped to 107 ypg rush (3.4) but with just 19 sks (4.1%). Last year they had to replace a pair of 3 yr st'rs, a 2 yr st'r and, of course, had to adapt to new schemes. As you would expect, the numbers dropped to 70 ypg rush (2.4), their lowest total since 1989 (69, 2.1). They also allowed the most sks in the NCAA at 58 (10.9%). Basically they had the poorest numbers of any OL in the FBS despite the fact they had just 1 start missed all year. The unit returns intact including 2nd Tm MAC LT Brandon Brooks and they should make significant improvement over last year's poor numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '06, MU had to replace 3 st'rs including both DT's. Miami allowed 4.8 ypc, which was the highest avg since prior to 1949. The D had just 20 sks (lowest S/'98). In '07, they once again had to replace 3 st'rs but still improved to 4.2 ypc rush (32 sks). In '08, they had 2.5 st'rs back but surprisingly the more exp'd unit yielded new records of 208 ypg (5.4) with just 13 sks. Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs but had 7 with starting exp. The unit improved to 187 ypg (4.9) with 14 sks. This year they lose DT Martin Channels (6 st, 20 tkl) and DT Mark Paun (5 tkl). Due to injuries last yr, 10 DL started and 9 return and they add Iowa transfer Jason Semmes. Two true frosh started vs Ohio including Wes Williams, who got the first IR TD by a RedHawk in 4 yrs. I look for continued improvement.

LINEBACKERS - In '07, Miami had 5 of their top 6 LB's back and the unit spearheaded the MAC's #1 scoring D with Clayton Mullins earning MAC DPOY. The unit ret'd intact in '08 and it was very surprising Miami's D allowed 32.7 ppg. Last year they had to replace all 3 st'rs (#1, #2, #4 tkl'rs). The lone returnee with exp, Caleb Bostic (12 st '07, 4 st '08), had just 2 sts. Jerrell Wedge (6 tkl '08) was 2nd Tm MAC and the #1 tkl'r with a MAC high 18.5 tfl. True frosh Evan Harris started 11 (#5 tkl'r). This year they only lose OLB Bostic (23 tkl) and add Conn trans CJ Marck (PS#156, 9 tkl '08) making this unit vastly more exp'd. Not listed below are Collin Boucher (6'2" 232 rFr, PS#299), Chris Wade (6'1" 226 rFr, PS#346) and Mitch Krotz (6'0" 219 rFr).

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '07, MU had to replace 2 st'rs but finished #62 in my PDR. In 2008 they had to replace 2 st'rs and shuffled the lineup due to injuries and plummeted to #111 with a 21-6 ratio. Last year they only had to replace 1 starter but neither Ben Bennett nor Peris Edwards (comb 10 st '08) played and SS Jordan Gafford was lost after 8 sts. MU still finished a respectable #58 vs a tough slate of opp QB's. This year they lose CB Jeff Thompson (11 st, 75 tkl, 8 pbu) and CB Wendell Brunson (1 st, 15 tkl). Eight return with starting exp and both CB Brandon Stephens and FS Anthony Kokal earned 3rd Tm MAC. This is a more exp'd group.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Miami has had some fine finishes in my ST rankings this past decade including #16 in '03, #12 in '04 and #28 in '08. They had to replace their K and P last year but it was still surprising that they plummeted to #119 in HC Mike Haywood's first season. Chris DiCesare was replaced as P vs Toledo by Jim Broadway and the team had a poor net of 29.3. Seth Philip had 5 TB on 37 KO. Trevor Cook hit just 7-12 FG's but set a school record with a 55 yarder vs Toledo. The return game and return defense were both below average. True frosh DL Austin Brown blk'd 2 FG's. This year they lose DiCesare but can only improve upon last year's poor finish.

COACHES - Miami is known as the "Cradle of Coaches" with Sid Gillman, Woody Hayes, Ara Parseghian and Bo Schembechler having coached here. Randy Walker moved on to N'western in '99 and Terry Hoeppner left for Indiana in '05. Mike Haywood is in his 2nd year as HC here. He was the OC at ND from '05-'08 and also the RB cch at Texas ('03-'04). Haywood also spent '95-'02 as the RB cch at LSU. OC Peter Vaas left after 1 year to become an asst at USF. The new OC is Morris Watts, who was the QB coach here in '09 and spent 1991 at Tampa Bay, '03 at Miss St, 3 stints at Mich St ('86-90, '92-94, '99-02) and 4 seasons at LSU ('95-'98). The DC is Carl "Bull" Reese, who was the DC for Texas from 1998-'03 and then out of coaching prior to coming here LY. Reese also was the DC at LSU ('95-'97), Vanderbilt ('91-'94), Navy ('89-'90) and Missouri ('77-'81, '86-'88).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Heading into '03, Miami had not been to a bowl since 1986 and had gone 16 straight years without a MAC Title despite nine straight winning seasons. In Roethlisberger's final season ('03) Miami won the MAC Title and their bowl, going 13-1 (only loss vs Iowa) and finished ranked #10. Shane Montgomery, who was the OC from 2001-'04, took over as the HC in '05. They were co-champs of the East in '05 nearly missing out on the outright title with 16 senior st'rs. In 2006 they had just 7 ret st'rs and were going for their 13th straight winning season (5th longest streak nationally) but I actually pegged MU 5th in the MAC East. Miami opened a stunning 0-6 and finished 2-10. After installing FieldTurf in '03, they were 13-2 at home the first 3 yrs but went winless (0-5) in '06! In '07, MU made my list of Most Improved teams and despite being hit hard by injuries, made it to the MAC Title game. They did, however, suffer their first shutout loss (42-0 vs Colo) since 1993. One of the reasons they ended up home for the postseason was they looked past Ohio (lost 38-29) prior to the MAC Title game and then lost the title game to finish 6-7. Proving my theory of close wins/close losses, they had 7 gms decided by 7 or less in '06 and went 2-5 in them. In 2007 they had 7 decided by 7 or less and went 5-2 and that was the difference between 5th in the East and playing in the title game. In '08 expectations were high but they surprisingly dropped to 2-10 and HC Montgomery was let go. In 2009 Haywood inherited 94.1% of the offensive skill yards from '08 (#7 FBS). They did have just 44.8% of the tackles returning. Miami was -96.5 ypg in MAC play in '08 (league worst) and had to replace their top 4 tkl'rs from a D that allowed 396 ypg. I summed it up by saying they would have a tough time topping 2008's 2 win total. Miami was non-competitive at the start getting blown out weekly with their only points coming in garbage time. At the end of the year, 20 true frosh or rFr filled the 44 positions on the 2 deep. Miami opened with 6 road games in the first 7. They managed a 31-24 win over Toledo and Temple needed an 18 yd FG with :03 left to beat them. They had their "Miami Whammy" end vs BG in a 21 pt loss then were thumped by Buffalo in their FHG played in front of about 300 rain soaked fans (7,983 announced). All year Haywood spoke of the need to get bigger, faster and stronger and play more physical. Miami's 11 losses were a single season record. There are a lot of signs pointing upwards this year and they were last in the NCAA at -24 TO's (see Turnovers=Turnaround). They also had poor offensive and defensive ypp's (pg 299) and this year their 19 ret st'rs are the most in the MAC. An amazing stat from last year (partially due to the garbage yds) was that despite a 1-7 record in MAC play they were +34.5 ypg (5th best). This is a much improved team and 2 of my 9 sets of power ratings actually call for a winning year. None of the other 7 do however and while stronger I will call for a 5th straight losing year.

AKRON ZIPS

QUARTERBACKS - In 2007 the 2 QB's battling for the job had 1 comb career pass att. After throwing for 1,623 (56%) with an 11-10 ratio (9 sts) in '07, Chris Jacquemain threw for 2,748 (58%, 20-14) in '08, taking almost every snap. Last year Matt Rodgers (PS#168) was pushing him in the spring (clear-cut #2). The Akron season took a turn for the worse when Jacquemain was susp'd for the year just prior to the Indiana gm. Rodgers made his first start with little work with the #1's and threw 4 int vs Indy. They still wanted to RS true frosh Patrick Nicely so the backup was walk-on rFr Jared Wackerly. Rodgers was lost for the year (ACL) vs Ohio. Nicely came in showing a lot of confidence and threw for 1,349 (54.1%, 6-6). They put an ad in the school paper looking for an exp'd HS QB for the #3 spot and student coach Tim Zetts rejoined the team (member '05 squad). Then HC JD Brookhart said Nicely can make any throw you need him to make and was the first frosh to start at QB here since Charlie Frye in '01. Nicely and Rodgers will battle it out and keep in mind new coaches like their own recruits. They are now taking snaps from under C which requires an adjustment by Nicely, but the unit should have improved numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - Akron joined IA ball in 1987 and did not have a 1,000 yard rusher until 2000. They have produced 4 in the last decade. Dennis Kennedy (orig signed Ohio St) narrowly missed with 914 (4.0) in '06 and led in '08 with 1,321 (5.5) and 17 rushing TD's. They had to replace their top 2 RB's last year. Their top returnee, Alex Allen, had a comb 572 (4.3) from '07-'08. Senior Joe Tuzze (5 st FB '06-'07) was the #2 ret rusher with 67 (4.8). Allen had hip surgery and Louisville transfer Dale Martin (PS#22) tore his Achilles in the spring. Both were limited in the fall. Former Ohio St commit DeVoe Torrence (PS#15) was not a great practice player so Brookhart didn't use him a lot. Allen lost 20 lbs rehabbing (never really 100%). The leading rusher turned out to be Tuzze who missed 3 (started 4) and had 244 (lowest #1 rusher here in over 50 yrs). Torrence, (39 yds over first 5) started vs Buffalo and rushed for 90 (6.9) but missed 5 (inj). They took the RS off Broderick Alexander (3 st) and he became the first frosh to start at RB here since 1973 rushing for 48 vs NI. Alexander finished #2 with 198 (3.4). Allen was #3 with 188 (3.2) while Martin had just 167 (6.7). Not listed below are Nate Burney (5'6" 170 Sr, PS#398), Nathan Cope (5'9" 185 So), Larry Dawson (5'11" 195 So, PS#315) and FB's Blake Fraley (6'0" 225 rFr) and James Heiss (6'1" 220 rFr). They lose Tuzze, Torrence (3 st) and Norman Shuford (2 st, 57, 2.0). Normally when you lose your leading rusher you take a step back but Akron should have much improved rush numbers this year.

RECEIVERS - Akron's WR record for rec in a season has been broken or tied 5 times in the last 8 years. In '07, Jabari Arthur shattered the record with 86 (1171, 13.6) with the next closest WR, Stephen Fuqua, with 20 (155, 7.8). In '08 they had to replace Arthur (all-time leading rec) but added Deryn Bowser (PS#34JC) who led with 785 (12.3). Converted DB Andre Jones (PS#65) had 678 (14.4) and Jeremy Bruce (PS#82) had 345 (11.9) while Dashan Miller (PS#99) added 187 (11.7). While the top 4 WR's were back last year, Akron mentioned they would be pushed by the youngsters. They moved Jones back to DB. Bowser had 21 rec the first 6 but broke his fibula. Jones was moved back from DB (0 rec first 5) and became the go-to-guy, leading with 553 (16.8). Jeremy LaFrance (PS#236JC) had 126 vs Kent St and actually had 10 more rec (43, 12.1) than Jones for the season. This year they lose Jones (5 st @ WR), Bruce (5 st, 219, 7.6), Bowser (6 st) and Miller (10 st, 257, 16.1). Not in the PSL are Nolan Procter (5'9" 165 rFr), Dee Frieson (5'7" 165 rFr), Jerrod Dillard (6'4" 190 rFr), Charles Kennedy (5'10" 195 So), Kevin Rigano (5'9" 165 So) and TE Mike Polinski (6'1" 225 Sr). While the QB play could result in improved numbers this unit is not as experienced or talented as '09 even with the addition of DB Jalil Carter (7 st at SS).

OFFENSIVE LINE - I have learned that having a veteran line is not a plus for this team. In '06 the Zips had 9 of their top 10 OL's back but for the 2nd time in 3 years a veteran unit under performed as they avg 84 ypg rush (2.8), their worst since 1960 (83). In '07, they had to replace 4 st'rs (#3DC) but moved up to 128 ypg (3.5). In '08 they bucked their recent trend and with 4 ret st'rs improved to 165 ypg (4.6) with 17 sks. Last year they had to replace 1st Tm MAC LT Chris Kemme (4Y st'r) but had 4 ret st'rs (85 car sts, #27 FBS). The lightest member of the unit was 295 lbs. The Zips exp'd OL slipped to just 118 ypg rush (3.6) with 26 sks. This year they lose C Elliott Bates (12 st, 2Y st'r), RG Zack Anderson (12 st, 3Y st'r) and C Casey Estrada (3 gm). They return 84 career sts (tied #40 FBS) and even in a new system should produce better numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 they only had to replace one starter but Akron had 5 DL's injured in the first 3 and had a 4th stringer start at NG. The Zips allowed 187 ypg (4.5) with just 11 sks. Last year they only had to replace 1 starter from their 3 man front but projected starting DT Ryan Bain, (Iowa transfer, PS#14LB) DNP. They shifted to a 4 man front although just 3 played with their hands on the ground in a new scheme. The Zips improved to 172 ypg (4.3) but still had just 11 sks. This year Sean Fobbs (12 st, 41 tkl, 6 tfl) moves to LB. The unit includes former Virginia signee DT Almondo Sewell (PS#72), who has been either 2nd or 3rd Tm MAC 3 straight yrs and James Harvey, who started 10 last yr (6 at DE, 4 at NT). Antoine Jones, who had 8 sts at St Francis (PA) in '07, Dan Marcoux (10 st, 2 yr) and Joe Rash (3 st '08, miss most '09 inj) will provide depth. Not in the PSL are Nick Bridenbaugh (6'2" 270 So) and Derek Johnston (5'10" 260 rFr). This is the most exp'd D-line in the MAC and should be one of the best.

LB Brian Wagner

LINEBACKERS - Last year the Zips had to replace 2 st'rs (#1, #4 tkl'rs) and Wayne Cobham (#6 tkl'r) moved to FS so they had just one starter back to their 4-man corps. This year they only lose SLB Amin Kabir (5 st, 18 tkl), SLB Aaron Williams (6 st, 34 tkl) and Marcus Lemon (19 tkl). They return 1st Tm MAC Brian Wagner (#1 tkl'r in MAC as a rFr!) as well as their #2 and #9 tkl'rs (4-3 look in 2010) so this group is a lot more experienced.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '08, Akron had a very inexp'd secondary and dropped to #112 in my PDR. LY they only had to replace 2 st'rs and with ROV Wayne Cobham moving to FS, actually had 3 st'rs back. CB Miguel Graham set a school record with 6 pbu vs Kent St. The more exp'd unit moved up to #69. This year they lose 1st Tm MAC CB Graham (11 st, 52 tkl, 3 int, 12 pbu) and FS Cobham (10 st, 49 tkl, 2 int) while Jalil Carter (7 st, #3 tkl'r) moves to WR. They add in PS#201JC Diamond Weaver, who was inj after 2 in '09, but are less exp'd and will probably slip some in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Brookhart's first 3 years UA finished #72, #96 and #115 in my ST rankings. In '07, Brookhart coached the ST himself and the unit rose to #48 as KR's Bryan Williams (31.9) and Andre Jones (32.8 KR, 14.5 PR) were remarkable. In '08 they dropped to #91 with Andre Jones seeing his PR avg drop to 6.6. Last year P John Stec (32.8 net '08) shared the duties with Zack Campbell (tm net 31.9). Branko Rogovic and Igor Iveljic combined to hit just 7-17 FG's (1-6 from 40+). Rogovic did hit 4 of his last 5 (1 miss 50+) and had 3 TB's on 46 KO's. The team avg just 6.4 on PR but Dashan Miller did set a Zip record with 191 yds on 4 KR vs Syr (25.7 on yr). The Zips finished just #109 and lose Stec and Miller, but there is really only one way to go, right?

COACHES - JD Brookhart led the Zips to winning seasons in his 1st 2 years incl a bowl in '05, but followed that with 4 straight losing years (3-9 '09) and was let go. TY Rob Ianello becomes just the 4th HC here since the Zips started IA ball in '87. Ianello was the asst HC for offense at ND in '09 while serving as WR coach/Recruiting Coor there since '05. His OC is John Latina, who was ND's OL coach and Asst HC for Offense from '05-'08 and coached Ole Miss' OL under David Cutcliffe from '99-'04. The DC is Curt Mallory who spent the previous 5 years at Illinois, serving as their co-DC the last 3.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Lee Owens had 3 winning seasons over his last 5 and in his final season (2003), finished a solid 7-5 (+46.6 ypg MAC play) but he was let go. JD Brookhart inherited QB Charlie Frye and 12 st'rs in '04. Akron won 5 of their last 6 and was the only bowl eligible team in the NCAA that non-voluntarily did not go to a bowl. Brookhart's first Zips team went 6-2 in MAC play but was -48.9 ypg. In '05 they had the best schedule of any MAC East school but opened just 4-5. They not only won their final 3, but also had some of the right teams lose their final games. UA went 5-3 sharing the MAC East Title and won the tie breaker to make the MAC Title game. They got a TD pass with :10 left to upset NI and amazingly became MAC Champs, their first EVER conference title! That '05 squad became just the 31st team in NCAA history to have a 1,000 yard rusher, 1,000 yard rec and 3,000 yard passer on the same team. Two of those players had to be replaced in '06 and the Zips drew the toughest schedule of the MAC East teams. While they were pretty much the consensus pick to win the MAC East, I actually pegged them 3rd. They upset NCSt on the road but fell to 5-7 and finished tied for 3rd in the East (+4.5 ypg). In '07, Akron went 3-5 in the MAC but was a league worst -74.5 ypg. Akron had only 12 ret st'rs in '08 and was picked for last in the MAC East (MAC media). The new term "Akroned" was born meaning a team controlled the game vs the Zips but suffered a tough loss at the end. That happened for Akron numerous times in the Brookhart tenure including in '08 vs Kent St and EM. They beat Toledo 47-30 and were 5-4 and in first place in the MAC East but lost their last 3 including a 4OT effort vs Buffalo. Last year the Zips had 15 ret st'rs and opened their brand new on-campus stadium. It looked like it would be Brookhart's best tm. Akron had zero FD's at the half in the opener vs Penn St but routed Morgan St 41-0 in their first ever HG in InfoCision Stadium. QB Jacquemain (23 car sts) was susp'd prior to Indiana and Matt Rodgers had just 2 days of practice prior to his first start. The Zips lost by 17. Rodgers made his first road start at CM and they trailed 34-7 at the half. Rodgers was lost for the season vs Ohio. True frosh Patrick Nicely (PS#80) took his RS off vs Ohio and started the final 7. Akron missed 2 FG's and fumbled a punt while OU blk'd a punt for a TD giving the Bobcats the 19-7 win (UA 346-292 yd edge). The next week Buffalo got a TD with 5:59 left (Akron 334-312). They were tied at 14 early 3Q vs Syracuse but had a 6 yard punt set up a 28 yard TD drive for SU and the Orange would win 28-14. After losing to NI 27-10, UA beat Kent St by 8. They led Temple 17-7 at home but the Owls rolled off the last 49 pts. UA led BG 10-9 at the half but lost by 16. In the finale they led 28-14 and held on for a 28-21 win to finish 3-9 and Brookhart was let go after his 4th straight losing year. Rob Ianello was the asst HC for offense at ND in '09. The Zips have 13 ret st'rs and were 2-6 in MAC play (-68.6 ypg, 2nd worst). They figure to have better fortune (TO's & inj) in 2010 but have a new HC and must learn new schemes. It will be difficult to top LY's 3 win total.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score UA	Final Score Opp	W/L
Sep. 4	Syracuse	A					UA has split their 2 meetings the L2Y. LY UA had an early 7-0 lead & the gm was tied at 14 after a 98 yd KR TD to open the 2H but the Zips had just 35 yds (1.8 ypp) the rest of the way.
Sep. 11	Gardner-Webb	A					First meeting. Runnin' Bulldogs went 6-5 LY including losses to FBS opp's NC State (45-14) & Buffalo (40-3). This will be just the 5th FCS tm UA has played S/'96 (4-0, avg score 50-11).
Sep. 18	at Kentucky	G					Akron has dropped 16 straight "true" road openers by an avg of 28 ppg. First meeting. The Zips are 0-4 all-time vs current SEC schools (shutout 3x's) with the avg score 52-2.
Sep. 25	at Indiana	A					Akron is 1-20 vs current Big Ten schools. LY UA suspended their QB (Jacquemain) 2 days prior & while they only trailed 17-14 at HT they couldn't overcome four 2H int's.
Oct. 2	N Illinois (HC)	A					Home tm has won the L/3. LY Akron led 10-6 after 3Q's but was outscored 21-0 & outgained 138-30 in the 4Q. UA is 50-34-2 on HC & LY was its 1st on campus S/'39.
Oct. 9	at Kent St	A					UA has won 3 straight and 11 of 13 vs rival Kent St. Visitor is just 1-4. Last year the Zips led 14-13 at HT but outgained Kent St 188-31 in the 3Q and led 28-14 early 4Q.
Oct. 16	at Ohio	A					The visitor is 3-9 in this series. Akron has dropped 3 of the last 4 vs Ohio including last year when 5 TO's cost them (int at OU14 & fum into EZ, also missed 39 yd FG).
Oct. 23	Western Michigan	A					UA is 4-11 vs WM and the last & only time they won hosting WM was in '38 (6-0). UA trailed 38-31 w/:15 left in '07 (L/gm) but got a safety & a 78 yd KR TD as time exp for the miracle win.
Oct. 30	at Temple	G					Akron has been outgained in each MAC meeting (3 gms) by almost 100 ypg (-91 ypg). Coming into 2010, Akron is 3-13 in MAC road gms with 6 straight losses by 15 ppg.
Nov. 6	at Ball St	A					UA has dropped B2B gms vs BSU (L/gm in '08 lost 41-24). The Zips however have outgained the Cardinals in 4 of the L/5 meetings by 149 ypg. UA has lost 7 str Nov away gms.
Nov. 13							BONUS: All 5 teams UA is hosting will be making their 1st visit to InfoCision Stadium.
Nov. 17	Miami, Oh (Wed)	A					UA is 1-6 in this series. Since 1999 the home team has outgained the visitor in 8 by 125 ypg. The Zips are 14-5 the last 10 years in November home games.

WESTERN MICHIGAN BRONCOS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In '05, Ryan Cubit (HC's son) began as the starter but was injured and true frosh Tim Hiller (PS#89) started the final 5. Hiller would have been #1 in the NCAA in pass eff (178.85) had he played enough games. He threw for 1,334 (65%) with an outstanding 20-3 ratio (MAC Frosh of Yr). With Cubit back in '06, Hiller RS (knee inj '05 finale). Cubit threw for 2,138 (61%, 16-13). In 07, Hiller battled Thomas Peregrin (PS#47JC) and rFr Drew Burdi. HC Bill Cubit liked what Burdi's mobility could bring to the offense but Hiller threw for 3,021 (63%, 20-15) taking most of the snaps. In '08, Hiller improved his throwing motion and had a much better understanding of the offense. He set the WM single season passing record with 3,725 (65%) and a super 36-10 ratio despite tearing his ACL in the 2Q vs Illinois (played with it rest of yr). Burdi may have the best deep ball of the QB's and he also had a 42 yd TD run vs Idaho. Hiller missed last spring and wore knee braces all of '09. He threw for 3,249 (60.1%) but his ratio slipped to 23-13. He still became WM's career passing and total offense leader. Hiller departs #3 all-time in the MAC in TD passes. Burdi and Alex Carder fought for the backup job. Last year Burdi was called in to run the option offense and played in 5 (3 pass, 4 rush). Carder saw more action later (5-7 pass, 8 rush att) and was clearly #1 out of this spring. Added to the mix is Tyler VanTubbergen (PS#174), Alex Jagels (6'3" 205 Sr), David Stout (6'3" 227 rFr) and this year's true frosh. This unit goes from the career pass leader (4Y st'r) to a combined 24 career pass att's.

RUNNING BACKS - Cubit has done a good job producing 1,000 yard rushers. In his first season ('05), Trovon Riley led with 1,004 (4.6). In '06, Mark Bonds had 1,082 (4.3) and Brandon West (speed back) added 633 (4.8). In '07, West led with 848 (4.6) and was also #2 in rec (45, 8.1) while Bonds added 690 rush (4.4). With Bonds' departure, West led with 1,026 (5.0) in '08. Aaron Winchester (2023 rush, 29 TD in HS '07) has been compared to the NFL's Brian Westbrook (combo of power & speed). He was the #2 rusher as a true with 272 (3.9). Last year West kept the tradition going with 1,164 (5.4) and also added 217 (8.0) rec. Winchester was #2 with 148 (3.2) and Sr Glenis Thompson, who had 259 (3.5) in 3 sts over 3 yrs, rushed for 138 (6.3). West, who was also a dynamic KR, departs after setting the NCAA record for career all-purp yards topping DeAngelo Williams (Memphis). Not listed below are Jaron Deshazor (5'8" 193 Jr, 6 gm 2Y), Mark Onderlinde (5'10" 185 rFr) and Darius Green (5'9" 214 So). This unit is far less exp'd. Winchester is small but powerful and I will call for him to be yet another 1,000 yard rusher here.

RECEIVERS - Cubit has done a fine job molding NFL caliber WR's. In '06 WM had to replace WR Greg Jennings and TE Tony Scheffler (both #2DC). Jamarko Simmons led 3 straight yrs with 668 (11.0) in '06, 980 (11.7) in '07 and 1,276 (12.3) in '08 and signed with Green Bay. Last year only 1 rec ret'd with 100+ yds and that was Juan Nunez (701, 12.3). Nunez was leading with 435 (13.6) but missed the last 5 gms (6 overall) and finished #4. Cubit was extremely high on true frosh WR Ansel Ponder but he finished #5 with just 308 (7.9). With most of the top WR's out, converted QB Robert Arnheim (PS#90) led with 701 (11.9) and was also the #3QB. Jordan White (1 of team's fastest) added 681 (12.8) despite missing 3 and JUCO Chleb Ravenell had 513 (10.7). WM usually produces a top-notch TE but surprisingly Matt Stevens had just 116 (7.2). Not listed below are Eric Monette (6'6" 196 So), EJ Riley (6'0" 191 So) and TE's Chris Blair (6'3" 235 rFr), Clark Mussman (6'3" 236 rFr) and Jordan Brooks (6'2" 238 So, 1 st LY). This year they only lose TE Stevens (7 st). With an inexp QB, the stats may be down but this unit is the polar opposite of the backfield in terms of experience.

OT Anthony Parker

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2007, Cubit said of his frosh OL's, "They're the best looking group I've been around, at any school." In '08, WM had to replace 4 and 3 yr starters (1st & 3rd Tm MAC) plus 2 bkps (comb 7 sts). WM ran the ball 105 fewer times so the rush ypg dropped to 117 but the ypc improved to 4.2 and the sacks dropped to 14 (2.6%). Last year they only had to replace 1 st'r (82 car sts ret) and avg 316 lbs. It was surprising the OL struggled as Hiller was under pressure early and 3 diff RG's started. The numbers slipped to 112 ypg rush (3.9) with 24 sks (4.5%). This year they lose RG Paul Wasikowski (11 st, 3Y st'r) but not only do they have 9 of the top 10 back, they bring in Michigan transfer VHT Dann O'Neill (PS#20).

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2008, WM had one of the most exp'd D-lines in the country as the entire 2 deep ret'd (108 car sts). They improved to allowing 140 ypg rush (3.8) with 25 sks. Last year they had to replace 4 DL (comb 38 sts). Cubit has looked for an edge pass rusher for the last few years and has yet to uncover one. Last year he was hoping that JUCO TJ Lynch would fill that role (only 7 tkl, 0.5 tfl). The inexp D-line naturally dropped allowing 178 ypg rush (4.7) with just 19 sks. This year they lose DE Justin Braska (12 st, 63 tkl, 3.5 sk, 9.5 tfl), 3rd Tm MAC NG Cody Cielenski (10 st, 32 tkl, 4.5 sk) and DT Chris Pyant (3 st, 11 tkl). This is a more veteran group (4 w/ st exp) but I'm not ready to compare it to the '08 version.

LINEBACKERS - Last year WM had to replace 3 LB (comb 20 sts) who were their #3, #12 and #17 tacklers. They only ret'd their #2 and #14 tkl'rs. This year they lose their top man in 2nd Tm MAC Austin Pritchard (#1 tkl'r, 7 tfl) and bkp Matt Pickens (8 tkl in 3Y) but have 5 of the top 6 back (4 w/st exp) and add Wisconsin transfer Dex Jones (PS#73). Despite the loss of their top man, this unit has more overall experience.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '06, WM led the NCAA in int (24) and rose to #6 in my PDR. That unit had 3 solid soph starters and surprisingly the next 2 years with a veteran group, they only finished #59 and #52. Last year they had to replace 4 st'rs including a 1st Tm MAC FS (#2DC) and 2nd Tm MAC CB as well as a #7DC CB. They had to replace 168 car sts (9 car sts ret). They added Miami, Fl transfer Doug Wiggins (9 st). I mentioned in my magazine that they may not drop as much as you would think after 2 disappointing finishes and that was the case as they only fell to #70. Adding depth is Derek Bahri (5'11" 190 rFr). This year they lose CB Andy Dorcely (9 st, 31 tkl, 6 pbu) and CB David Lewis (12 st, 57 tkl) but are a vastly more exp'd unit (6 w/st exp).

SPECIAL TEAMS - Cubit inherited a group that finished #63 in my ST rankings in '04 and his first 5 units finished #56, #77, #38, #68 and #75. In '08 he had to break in a frosh K and P. K John Potter hit 11-16 FG's (L/45) in '08 and 10-15 in '09. He also led the MAC with a career best 15 TB (58 KO). Potter already holds the school record for career tackles by a K or P (16) as he is not afraid of contact. P Ben Armer avg 40.6 in '08 (33.0 net) and 39.0 last year (net 33.6). Brandon West became the NCAA's all-time leader in KR yardage (3,118) topping Jesse Henderson (SMU, '08). Jordan White was the top PR (8.5). This year they lose West and 4 year LS Tom Harrington. It's not often a team can lose an NCAA record holder and still improve their ranking but WM's ST unit may do just that as they finished #70 LY.

COACHES - Bill Cubit is an outstanding HC and a fine recruiter who brings a great deal of discipline to the program. Prior to serving at WM, he was the HC at Widener ('92-'96) where he compiled a 34-18-1 record. He's been the OC at Stanford, Rutgers, Missouri and here ('97-'99 when his off avg'd 30.4 ppg and went 22-12). In 2007, Cubit took over the OC duties himself. After a poor #101 ranking in total defense last year, Cubit hired former Hofstra HC Dave Cohen (18-27 4Y) as the new DC after being impressed in LY's meeting. Cohen was the DC at Delaware for 4 yrs prior to Hofstra (Pride dropped their football program).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Since 1990, WM has had just 6 losing seasons, and unfortunately, four of them came from 2001-2004. Then-HC Gary Darnell had established WM as a MAC power from 1997-2000. They finished #27 in the final polls in 2000 (3 shutouts) and led the MAC West for 24 straight wks until they fell out of first in 2001. In 2004, with just 11 st'rs back, a new QB and a tough schedule, the season was even worse than expected at 1-10 (MAC worst -152.1 yds vs conf). That '04 squad was -13 TO's. They returned 13 st'rs in '05 and I said they would have the most improved record of any MAC team and could actually flirt with a winning season. Only 30 players stayed to workout over the summer of '04 but 70 remained in '05 under new HC Cubit. After opening 0-2 and trailing FCS S Illinois by 11, they ended their 12 gm losing streak. QB Ryan Cubit was inj'd early but QB Hiller earned MAC FPOY. WM won the Michigan MAC Champ (beat EM and CM). In the season finale vs NIU they lost Hiller (inj) and the game. Despite a 7-4 record, they were not invited to a bowl and became the first MAC team to lose 8 conf games one year and win 5 the next. Bill Cubit was named MAC COY. They only had 21 upperclassmen and had 35 frosh play in '05 (most in NCAA) setting an FBS record with 17 frosh starting. However, WM was just -91.3 ypg in conf play. In '06, they had to replace a 1,000 yard rusher and 2nd rnd NFL DC's at WR and TE. WM's offense dropped from 32.2 ppg to 23.0. The key was a defense that ret'd 8 st'rs and went from allowing 31.1 ppg to just 19.9 (275 ypg). WM upset Virginia on the road and nearly upset Fla St. They made their 1st bowl appearance since 1988 (went 8-5) and were a MAC best +63.8 ypg. In '07, WM had 16 ret st'rs but did not catch a lot of breaks. They faced 4 BCS foes (2 finished in the Top 6) and were 5-7. In '08 I called for them to reach their 4th bowl game in school history. They had 25 seniors and at times looked like the best team in the MAC. They opened 6-1 and upset Illinois, a game in which WM lost 2 WR's, a TE, a RB, a CB and QB Hiller tore his ACL. With Hiller less than 100%, WM lost at Ball St then to Rice in the bowl, but had 9 wins for just the 3rd time in school history. There were signs pointing downward last year. First, they had just 10 ret st'rs (3 on D). The '08 group benefitted from 4 net close wins. They also had to play 7 AG's in '09, 3 at BCS schools. After a loss to Michigan in the opener they only trailed Indiana 23-19 but fumbled at the 5 at the end. They got expected wins vs Miami and Hofstra to climb to 2-2 but at a windy Huskie Stadium were spanked by NIU 38-3. After the embarrassing loss, Cubit called the team out and they responded with a 58-26 rout of Toledo. They had a 27-19 FD edge at CM but 3 trips inside the 15 resulted in zero points and they lost 34-23. WM beat Buffalo in OT but then lost at Kent St and was pounded by Mich St. Needing 2 wins to become bowl eligible, they dispatched EM and had a 463-226 yd edge in their FHG vs Ball St but lost 22-17. Pointing in a positive direction, the team was 4-4 in MAC play and +8.5 ypg (7th best) and they were -6 in TO's. They have 13 ret st'rs but lose their leader, QB Hiller as well as 1,000 yard rusher West plus their top 2 tkl'rs on D. However, WM is back on my Most Improved List and gets my call to win the MAC West.

Sep. 4	at Michigan St	G					WM is 2-9 all-time vs MSU (last win 1919). LY WM was down 35-0 at HT as they ran just 36 1H plays (1.0 ypp!). The Broncos have lost 15 straight road openers by 24 ppg (all vs BCS).
Sep. 11	Nicholls St	A					First meeting. WM is 12-1 in home openers. The Colonels finished 3-8 LY incl 2 losses to FBS LTech (48-13) & AF (72-0). NSU has scheduled 2 FBS schools in 4 of the L5Y (includes 2010).
Sep. 18	Toledo	A					WM has outgained UT in each of the L3Y and in the L/4 gms hasn't allowed a sk. In LY's win WM's 58 pts scored was most ever vs Toledo. WM has won 4 straight in series.
Sep. 25							BONUS: This is the 5th straight year with at least 2 BCS teams on the schedule.
Oct. 2	Idaho (HC)	A					WM has won the only 2 meetings w/Idaho ('72 & '08). In '08 WM was outFD'd & outgained but it was tied 14-14 mid-3Q. The Broncos went on to score TD's on 5 of 6 drives.
Oct. 9	at Ball St	A					The visitor is 4-1 in the series but has been outgained in each of the L3Y (-116 ypg). Last year WM dominated with a 463-226 yd & 24-10 FD edge but had a 5-1 TO deficit.
Oct. 16	at Notre Dame	G					WM was shutout 53-0 in 1919 & 42-0 in 1920, their only 2 prior meetings vs Notre Dame. Coming into 2010, Under HC Cubit, the Broncos are 3-11 vs BCS teams.
Oct. 23	at Akron	A					The visitor is 4-1 since '96 in this series. In the last meeting in '07 the Broncos were outgained (by just 10 yds) but in the 3 prior matchups had at least a 135+ yd edge.
Oct. 30	Northern Illinois	A					The Broncos have been outgained in 5 of the L/7 meetings (2 str) vs the Huskies by 175 ypg. LY's 35 pt loss to NIU was WM's largest in terms of pts since '05 (also vs NIU).
Nov. 5	at C Michigan (Fri)	A					Both lost all-time pass leaders from LY but WM has shredded the CM secondary the L3Y avg 397 ypg (67%). LY the gm was tied but WM allowed 2 TD's in the final 1:20 of the 1H.
Nov. 13	Eastern Michigan	A					W Michigan is 15-3 (9 gms decided by single digits) since 1992 vs E Michigan. LY EM scored first then Western scored 28 pts aided by a ssn high 6 forced TO's.
Nov. 20	Kent St	A					WM hasn't lost to KSU in Kalamazoo S/'88 (6 str wins by 24 ppg). The Broncos are 15-5 in home finales (4-1 under Cubit). WM's only 2 TD's LY came after interceptions.
Nov. 26	at Bowling Green (Fri)	A					Western won the last meeting (2005) but dropped the previous 3. They scored 45 pts the last time here tying the most ever in Bowling Green.
Dec. 3							BONUS: In 2009 WM became the 1st Michigan team to play every instate FBS team in the same season.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS HUSKIES

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In 2007, Dan Nicholson started 9 and threw for 1,633 (61%, 9-14). Nicholson's shoulder was not 100% in '08 and he played in just 5 (3 st, 447 pass yd). RFr Chandler Harnish (PS#98) was the top rushing QB here since Stacey Robinson (1990). He finished as the team's #1 rusher with 539 (4.6) and threw for 1,528 (56%, 8-9). Ryan Morris, who had 3 sts in '06, had just 2 pass att. Another rFr, DeMarcus Grady (PS#100), who has excellent mobility threw for 138 (58%, 2-0) while rushing for 188 (4.8). Last year, Harnish was the clear-cut st'r and Coach Kill even compared him to CM's Dan LeFevour. Harnish hurt his right knee vs Toledo and had minor knee surgery and missed 3 before returning vs Ball St (not 100%). Harnish greatly improved to 64.1% throwing for 1,670 (11-6) and was #4 rusher (229, 2.6). Grady, who is a stronger runner than passer was the #3 rusher with 330 (5.6) while throwing for just 280 (58.1%, 3-2). This year the only loss is Morris (2 att) and added to the mix are Jordan Lynch (6'1" 212 rFr, PS#93), AJ Hill (6'2" 206 rFr, PS#110), Tommy Coughlin (6'2" 180 rFr, PS#230) and Casey Weston, who was the #1 JUCO in ypg passing in '09. Harnish missed the spring and will probably need to be close to 100% healthy to hold on to his job.

RUNNING BACKS - NI has surprisingly had 3 players lead IA rushing in Mark Kellar ('73), LeShon Johnson ('93) and Garrett Wolfe ('06). Heading into '08, NI had nine straight years with a 1,000 yard rusher as Justin Anderson (PS#54) rushed for 1,245 (4.5) in '07. In Jerry Kill's first season he rotated his RB's a lot as Anderson was coming off of knee surgery. Five different players led in rushing over the first 8. Anderson finished with just 209 (3.9). Kill recruit Me'co Brown (PS#202) was the #1 RB with 510 (4.6) while Chad Spann led in the bowl with 79 (5.6) and finished with 429 (4.9). Ricky Crider (5'9" 190 Sr, PS#209) added 208 (4.8). Last year the top 4 all ret'd and Brown and Spann emerged at the end of August with Kill calling them 'Bolt & Jolt'. Brown rushed for 150 vs Purdue but was banged up late gaining only 30 yds the last 4 and finished with 645 (4.4). Spann would lead with 1,038 (5.8, 1st Tm MAC) and an outstanding 19 rush TD's. Anderson added 151 (6.6) and Crider 37 (3.7). S Garrett Barnas had 1 rush att and 1 pass vs Ohio filling in. This year they lose Anderson and Brown (8 st, 3rd Tm MAC). Not listed below are Barrington Scott (5'11" 200 rFr, PS#499), Alan Smith (5'10" 208 Jr, PS#149) and FB's Connor Flahive (6'0" 235 Sr), Pat McAvoy (6'1" 227 Jr) and Calvin Smith (6'1" 240 rFr). This could be an improved unit even with the loss of Brown as they add Jasmin Hopkins, who rushed for 1,931 at JC in '09, finishing as the #1 rusher (NJCAA Off POY).

RECEIVERS - Former HC Joe Novak produced 4 NFL WR's and 3 NFL TE's during his 12 yrs. In Kill's first season they had the top 5 rec's all back but last year had to replace their top 2 although they had just 480 and 377 yds. The top returnees were Nathan Palmer (278, 23.2), TE Reed Cunningham (252, 11.5) and Landon Cox (126, 7.9). This unit was the biggest question mark on the offense. Two true frosh WR's emerged in August in Perez Ashford and Martel Moore. TE Jason Schepler missed 3 (elbow) and near the midseason mark six of NI's top WR's were frosh or soph. Cox emerged and became the first rec to top 100 in a gm with 132 vs Ohio and led with 535 (11.9). Marcus Lewis was #2 with 299 (10.3) and soph Willie Clark added 220 (11.6). This year they only lose Cunningham (8 st, 5 rec), Lewis (5 st) and Preston Williams (2 st, 1 rec). Not in the PSL are Furqan Muhammad (5'7" 165 Jr), Jamison Wells (5'11" 185 rFr), Matt Ng (6'0" 206 So) and TE's Adam Coleman (6'3" 259 Jr, PS#164, from DL) and Travis Bond (6'3" 218 So). This should be the most productive receiving corps by far in Kill's 3 years.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2008 NI returned 4 st'rs and improved to 171 ypg (4.4) while allowing just 16 sks (5.1%) despite learning a new system. Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs but had 4 back with 11+ career sts. The anchors of the unit were C Eddie Adamski and LG Jason Onyebuagu. The unit maintained better health as 4 OL started all 13 with just 2 sts lost to injury. I expected improvement and that they did to 195 ypg (4.8) while allowing 15 sks (5.5%). This year they lose 1st Tm MAC Adamski (13 st, 4Y st'r) and 1st Tm MAC Onyebuagu (13 st, 3Y st'r). They return 3 st'rs and are now in the 3rd year of the offense but with the loss of their top 2 players, I'll call the unit down a notch for 2010.

DE Sean Progar

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Huskies had an inexperienced and injury-plagued D-line in '07 and star DE Larry English was coming off a torn ACL suffered in the '06 bowl. NI slipped to allowing 210 ypg rush and 4.7 ypc, their worst numbers since 1997. In '08 the unit returned intact with English another year removed from injury and Craig Rusch (3 gm '07) back healthy. As you would expect, NI allowed just 137 ypg (4.1). While DE Brandon Bice (11 st '07) only had 1 start, he earned 3rd Tm MAC with 6.5 sks. Last year they had to replace their highest DC in school history in 2-time MAC MVP English (#1DC SD) along with 2 other productive starters and then lost their lone returning starter Mike Krause prior to the season. I was stunned to see that the Huskies actually improved their rush defense to 124 ypg (3.8) and the biggest surprise is they increased their sks to 34 (from 25). This year they lose 1st Tm MAC DE/NG Jake Coffman (12 st, 39 tkl, 8.5 sk) and 2nd Tm MAC DE Bice (13 st, 37 tkl, 5 sk). Six of the top 8 are back and they also get back Krause (13 st '08) so it's like having 4 returning starters. Not in the PSL are Rodderick Bell (6'2" 247 rFr) and John Hopkins (6'4" 262 Jr, PS#238). Despite the loss of a couple of quality players, this unit is more experienced and should continue to improve.

LINEBACKERS - NI had a veteran LB corps in 2007 and then returned the top 6 in 2008 dropping their ppg allowed from 30.8 to 18.0. Last year they had to replace 2 starters (#3, #5 tkl'r). They returned their #4 and #10 tacklers and had 4 back who had 50+ tackles in a season and Kill was very high on the LB corps. Despite the losses, NI still allowed just 21.6 ppg. This year they lose WLB Cory Hanson (13 st, #2 tkl'r, 4.5 tfl), Spencer Williamson (18 tkl), John Tranchitella (8 tkl) and Phil Brown (8 tkl). They return their #3 and #5 tacklers and this looks like another fine unit.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In Kill's first year ('08), NI finished #80 in my pass D rankings and last year had to replace 3 DB's who combined for 25 sts. One ret st'r, FS David Bryant, missed 5 (knee, inj). The Huskies finished #76 allowing 60.2% with an 18-8 ratio. This year they lose Bryant (5 st, 32 tkl) but have 7 of the top 8 back including #1 tkl'r FS Tracy Wilson (3rd Tm MAC). Not in the PSL are Jody Van Laanen (6'0" 203 So) and Boone Thorgesen (6'0" 198 Jr, PS#142). This is Kill's most exp'd secondary and will have their highest finish in my PDR since 2005 (#34).

SPECIAL TEAMS - Novak produced four players who earned MAC ST POY in 4 consecutive years and his units finished as high as #8 (2000) in my ST rankings. Generally when a team is injury plagued, it affects the ST unit due to a lack of depth and the Huskies dropped to #107 in '07. In Kill's first year they only had to replace their K and with better health, improved to #77. They blk'd 5 punts and JC K Mike Salerno had 16 TB's on 65 KO's and hit 18 of 24 FG's (tied schl rec 52 yd'r). Last year they had to replace their 4 year punter (33.6 net '08). The Huskies made the expected climb again, this time to #47. Me'co Brown had been the top KR (21.4) and PR (7.9) in '08 but after taking the feature RB duties, Kill went to rFr Tommy Davis as the KR (24.1) and PR (8.0). Salerno hit 19-25 FG's (3 miss 50+) and had 10 TB's on 72 KO's. He also att'd 5 onside kicks (NI rec'd 4) in 2 years and was MAC West STPOW twice. Perez Ashford took his first ever PR 44 yds for a TD vs Miami but only had 2 other returns. Salerno split the punting duties with Josh Wilber (tm net 33.7). This year they only lose Salerno.

COACHES - Jerry Kill was the S Illinois HC from '01-'07 and was the FCS Coach of the Year in 2007. Kill took a 2-10 Huskies squad and produced a 6-7 record in '08. He bettered that with a 7-6 record last year but has 2 bowl losses. Kill brought both of his coor's in 2008 in OC Matt Limegrover and DC Tracy Claeys who held the same positions at SI from 2001-'07. Overall, Kill brought 8 of his staffers along with him to DeKalb.

PHIL'S FORECAST

NI was -17 in TO's in '07, had 3 net close losses, had poor off and def ypp's and were one of the top teams in the NCAA in starts lost. They also went from being an inexp'd team to one with 20 seniors who had starting experience. Naturally, in HC Jerry Kill's first year, I made them one of my Most Improved Teams. NI could have achieved more but lost 4 gms by a total of 14 pts and then lost in the bowl by 7. They also went through 3 different starting QB's due to injuries. They did beat Toledo (38-7) at home for the first time since 1989. Despite having 3 net close losses, they went 6-6 and their AD did a tremendous job getting them into the Independence Bowl. In that game they outgained LTech 339-236 and had a 17-12 FD edge but lost and dropped to 6-7. Last year I called for NI to be bowl eligible for a 2nd straight year. After an expected 1-1 start, they upset Purdue on the road in a game they led 28-7. The next week, in a letdown spot, they were upset at home by Idaho (trailed 34-16 in 4Q). In windy Huskie Stadium, they waxed WM 38-3 but the next week had a FG blk'd on the last play (also had a PAT bkl'd) and came up 1 pt short, 20-19 at Toledo. They were banged up at QB but still won their next 4. Their MAC West Title hopes went out the door when they lost to Ohio by 7 and the next week, in basically a meaningless game for CM, NI still lost by 14 yielding 512 yards. They finished with a bowl game vs USF. It was the first time they played B2B bowl games since joining the major ranks in 1969 and they reached the 6-win mark for the 9th time in 10 years. Last year they had just 3 returning starters on D and this year have 8 with 15 overall. They were +49.9 ypg which was the 3rd best mark in the MAC. Coach Kill has done a fine job upgrading the talent level and team speed and this is his best version yet. All 9 sets of my power ratings call them the most talented team in the MAC West. I will call for them to knock off at least 1 BCS conf foe on the road and finish with their most wins since 2004.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score NIU	Final Score Opp	W / L
Sep. 2	at Iowa St (Thur)	G					The visitor has dropped all 3 meetings ('93, '03 & '04). In the last meeting (NIU lost 48-41) the Huskies had a 24-16 FD & 402-342 yd edge but lost the TO battle (-2).
Sep. 11	North Dakota	A					NIU lost to ND 37-20 in the '65 Mineral Water Bowl. The Fighting Sioux went 6-5 LY incl a 38-13 loss to Tx Tech & NIU is their 2nd FBS opp in '10 (open w/Idaho). Huskies are 8-2 in home openers.
Sep. 18	at Illinois	A					The Huskies have dropped all 3 meetings vs the Fighting Illini but the L/gm was in '01. Coming into 2010, N Illinois is 2-12 the last 6 years in non-conference away games.
Sep. 25	at Minnesota	A					NIU has lost both games vs Minn ('88 & '08). In '08 NIU came back from a DD 2H deficit to lead 27-24 mid-4Q but allowed a TD w/:22 left (their last pass knocked down in EZ as time exp).
Oct. 2	at Akron	A					NIU is 3-1 in reg ssn meetings vs Akron but in '05 did drop 2 (reg ssn & MAC title). Last year the Huskies trailed 10-6 to start the 4Q but scored 21 unanswered points.
Oct. 9	Temple	A					The only prior gm was in '06 as N Illinois hosted Temple. The Huskies led 40-0 in the 3Q & at that time sent the Owls home w/a nation leading 20th straight loss.
Oct. 16	Buffalo (HC)	A					Into 2010, the Huskies are 21-7 S/'03 in MAC HG's including a perfect 4-0 LY (avg score 35-10). NIU has ran for at least 200+ yds in every MAC meeting vs UB (avg 265 ypg, 5.9).
Oct. 23	Central Michigan	A					The L2Y N Illinois has outscored CM 37-7 in the 4Q but has failed to complete the comeback in either gm. Huskies have dropped 3 straight vs the Chippewas (9 wins in a row prior).
Oct. 30	at Western Michigan	A					Visitor is 3-7 in this series. LY NIU forced 4 WM TO's including 3 int's to help snap a 3 gm series losing streak. NIU is 6-3 vs WM (avg W by 22 ppg & avg L by 3 ppg).
Nov. 9	Toledo (Tues)	A					LY NIU held a 5 pt lead in the 4Q but allowed UT a 90/10pl TD drive w/7:05 to trail by 1 (2ptng). The Huskies had a 42 yd FG blk'd on their final drive & also had an xp blocked earlier.
Nov. 13
Nov. 20	at Ball St	A					N Illinois is 8-3 vs Ball St & won 4 out of 5 at Muncie. The Huskies have been outgained by the Cardinals in each of the L3Y (-140 ypg). The visitor has dropped 2 straight.
Nov. 26	at E Michigan (Fri)	A					NIU has shutout EM on B2B trips to Ypsilanti, outgaing them by 235 ypg. LY in the NIU win RB Spann had a career high 174 yds (15.8) on just 11 carries (65 & 79 yd TD runs on 1st 2 touches)!

BALL ST CARDINALS

QUARTERBACKS - In 2005, Joey Lynch set a school record with 18 TD passes. In '06, Lynch led the MAC in pass eff after 4 games but the switch was made to frosh phenom Nate Davis (PS#35), who had a cannon for an arm. Davis went on to a storied 3 year career. In 2007, he set Ball St single season records for passing att's, comp, TD's and yards, throwing for 3,667 (57%, 30-6) with 235 rush. In '08, he threw for 3,591 (64%) with a 26-8 ratio (312 rush). Tanner Justice played in 11 (2 att). Davis, the MAC OPY, opted to leave early for the NFL (#5DC SF). In '09 new HC Stan Parrish was high on rFr Kelly Page (PS#82) and said, "I think we're going to be a lot better than anybody thinks." Couple the inexp at QB with the young O-line and naturally Page got off to a slow start. In Wk 3, Parrish started bringing Justice in so each could observe what the D was doing from the sideline. Page was sk'd 5x vs Toledo but threw for 237 vs Temple. Unfortunately he was lost for the year vs BG (gm 7). Justice hit 6-21 for 92 yds vs BG and just 2-10 for 1 yd vs EM. His season high was 11-19 for 134 vs N Ill. They ran the Wildcat formation often with RB's Eric Williams and MiQuale Lewis. The two QB's combined for 1,613 (51.3%, 9-14) which was just 45% of Davis' '08 total. This year Justice departs but Parrish is very high on rFr Aaron Mershman (PS#114) and this year's true Keith Wenning. Last year's drop-off was expected but they should be one of the most improved this year.

RUNNING BACKS - Ball St was inexp at RB in '06 and diminutive (5'6") MiQuale Lewis was leading with 280 (5.8) when he was lost in game 6 at the end of a 54 yard run. Larry Bostic led with 545 (3.7). In '07, Lewis started the first 4 (447, 4.9) but tore his ACL. True frosh Frank Edmonds (PS#74) led with 531 (3.8). Then HC, Brady Hoke bemoaned the lack of a short yardage back and thought Lewis could provide that in '08. Lewis finally stayed healthy and broke Marcus Merriweather's school record (1,618 yds '02) with 1,736 (5.4). He also broke Mark Bornholdt's 1979 school record of 19 rush TD's (22). Lewis was also #3 w/35 rec. Surprisingly, Edmonds played in just 3 (27 yd, 3.0) while rFr Cory Sykes had 428 (5.5). Last year everyone ret'd but Edmonds moved to DB. Lewis, who does not have blazing speed, was not a good fit with the young O-line. He had just 263 (3.3) after 6 gms. Speedy youngsters Eric Williams avg'd 4.7 ypc and Cory Sykes avg'd 4.6 in that span. I used Lewis as one of my RB's of the Week on PhilSteele.com vs BG despite his 44 ypg avg and he didn't disappoint with 115 (6.4) and Williams added 88 (9.8) out of the Wildcat. The next week Lewis (301, 11.6) and Sykes (203, 8.8) became the first duo ever to have 300 and 200 yds rushing in the same game. Sykes actually led in rushing each of the last 3 (75, 85 and 70). For the season Lewis had 871 (4.8), Sykes added 559 (6.2) and Williams (5'10" 203 So, PS#131) totalled 362 (5.7). Adding depth are Ray Winkler (5'9" 183 Sr PS#168), David Brown (5'10" 198 rFr, PS#265), Dwayne Donigan (5'6" 171 So) and Michael Hunt (5'6" 172 Sr). With Lewis being granted a 5th season and a much stronger O-line, this becomes one of the MAC's best set of RB's.

WR Daniel Ifft

RECEIVERS - In 2007, Dante Love set the MAC record for all-purp yds in a season (2,690). Love was perhaps the top NFL prospect in the MAC in '08 and he was leading the FBS in rec ypg (144) after 3. Unfortunately, he suffered a career ending injury. True frosh Briggs Orsbon led with 813 (12.0) while TE Darius Hill added 670 (16.8). Love still finished #4. Last year they had to replace Hill, Love and their #3 rec. Jeremy Hill was labeled "the only home run hitter on the team." He (susp spring) missed all or parts of 4 (hamstring) and started just 4. Hill finished with 138 (12.5). Thanks to a much less exp QB, Orsbon's numbers dropped to 461 (9.0) and the #2 was 5'9" Torieal Gibson (337, 13.5). 6'3" Daniel Ifft (PS#104) had 6 sts (269, 13.4). True frosh Seth White was the star of the spring and started 2 but broke his collarbone. The key loss was TE Madaris Grant (6'5" 235) who they had a lot of the offense built around. He had 285 (11.0) in '08 but was injured in the opener (OFY). Grant has appealed for a 6th year and Parrish said "getting him back is critical." Not listed below are Jamill Smith (5'8" 137 rFr), Richard Saint Victor (6'2" 215 Jr), Trent Beane (6'0" 185 So) and TE Barry Flynn (6'5" 228 So, PS#261). With practically everyone back, this unit is much more experienced and should stay healthier in 2010.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In former HC Brady Hoke's first year (2003) the O-line was small (268 lb avg). In 2005, they were plagued by susp and injuries and allowed a MAC high 43 sks and had just 2.9 ypc. With 4 st'rs back in '08 they paved the way for 185 ypg rush (5.0) with just 14 sks (3.5%). Unfortunately, in '09 they had to replace three 1st Tm MAC OL and had 31 career sts ret (27 by Michael Switzer). They had just 3 sure st'rs 24 hours prior to the opener in Switzer, LT Cameron Lowry and C Kreg Hunter. Given that data, you would have expected a sharp drop in the numbers but they still had 159 ypg rush (4.4) with 30 sks (9.6%). This year they only lose LT Chad Davis (1 gm). They now have 92 career sts returning. This unit should be one of the MAC's better O-lines.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Heading into last year the Cards had not allowed less than 4.6 ypc rush since 2001. Even in their undefeated regular season of 2008, they yielded 163 ypg (4.6) which was best of the decade. Last year the unit ret'd intact. In the new 4-3 D, 33-yr-old Brandon Crawford moved outside to DE and Ball St's exp'd front yielded just 152 ypg (4.0) but had just 15 sks. This year they lose 2nd Tm MAC DE Crawford (35 tkl, 3 sk, 8.5 tfl, 39 straight sts), DT Drew Duffin (12 st, 53 tkl, 6 tfl) and DE Jeff Barker (15 tkl). They are in the 2nd year of the 4-3 and return 1st Tm MAC DE Robert Eddins (55 tkl, 7 sk) but are a little less experienced.

LINEBACKERS - Ball St switched to a 4-3 D and Parrish was excited about the signing of true frosh Travis Freeman, who he said could have as great an impact on the D as Davis did on the offense as a true frosh. They had to replace 2 st'rs (#3, #9 tkl'rs) but ret'd their #4 and #8 tkl'rs. This year they lose MLB Spain Cosby (1 st, 22 tkl) and SLB Sam Woodworth (2 st, 21 tkl). They return 4 soph (20 comb sts as trues) including Freeman (#2 tkl'r) along with #1 tkl'r Davyd Jones. I look for improved play this year and in years to come.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Between '02 and '07, Ball St finished #106, #102, #119 (last), #109, #104 and #95 in my pass D rankings. In '08 they only had to replace one starter and I called for their highest Hoke era finish and they moved up to #40. Last year they had to replace 1st and 3rd Tm MAC CB's (lost 3 CB, comb 94 car sts). Star FS Sean Baker also played with a bulky hand cast for a couple of weeks. As you would expect, Ball St dropped significantly down to #112. This year they lose SS Alex Knipp (12 st, 82 tkl, 1 int, 2 pbu), CB Brandon Carnegie (2 st, 15 tkl) and S Kyle Kuntz (1 st, 21 tkl). They have 3 CB's with starting exp (0 LY) and add Michigan transfer Artis Chambers (PS#66) and should have one of the MIP PDR's in 2010.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Ball St was a horrible #116 in my ST rankings in '04 but moved up to #65, #28, #50 and #16 from '05-'08. Last year they had to replace Chris Miller who one source tabbed the "MAC Punter of the Decade" and the only returnee was K Ian McGarvey (16-21 FG's, long 47). Surprisingly Ball St only dropped to #48. McGarvey hit an outstanding 18-21 FG's (long 48). RFr P Scott Kovanda (PS#51) avg 40.0 (net 35.9) and Miller said Kovanda was going to become a great punter. Charlie Todd was the top PR (11.7) and Eric Williams the top KR (23.9). This year all of the key players return and they could move up in my rankings.

COACHES - Hoke led BSU to a 12-0 reg ssn in '08 and moved on to SDSt. Stan Parrish, who is 63 years old, was the QB coach here in '05 and was the OC ('06-'08) with the team improving its offensive output from 21.2 ppg in '05, to 27.2 in '06 (1st yr) to 31.5 in '07 and 34.9 in '08. He was the HC at Marshall ('84-'85) and Kan St ('86-'88), the OC at Mich '00-'01 and in the NFL '02-'03 (TB). Parrish's OC is Eddie Faulkner, who has been with the program S/'03 as a grad asst and then RB coach. Last year's DC Doug Graber retired and the new DC is Jay Hood who was the DE coach here LY and with Miami, Oh from '05-'08 (DC in 2008).

PHIL'S FORECAST

The Cardinals have won 5 outright MAC Titles since joining the league in 1973 (1976, '78, '89, '93 and '96). The 2002 (6-6) team had its first non-losing season since 1996 with all six losses to quality foes. They brought Hoke in as HC in 2003. He opened 4-4 but then went just 7-24 the next 31. Hoke's first game was played in front of 23,549 under portable lights but the FHG of '04 was in front of just 5,309 (lowest S/'93). His 2005 team had just 9 seniors so they ret'd a MAC high 18 st'rs in '06. They had 5 MAC wins for the first time since 1996 and only lost to 3 Big Ten teams by a comb 19 points. Their offense set many single season records (incl yds pass). In '07 they renovated Scheumann Stadium and added FieldTurf. Ball St was 5-2 in MAC play (+53.3 ypg). When Miami lost the MAC Title game, the Cards made it to their first bowl in 11 years but were blown out by Rutgers, 52-30. In '08, Ball St had 18 ret sts, a much improved defense and had their best season ever (12-2, 12-0 start). The 12 wins were a school record. The previous best start in school history was 9-0 in 1965. They landed their first ever win over a Big Ten foe (42-20 over Indiana) and Hoke was named MAC COY. They were ranked for the 1st time ever and moved as high as #12 prior to the MAC Champ game. Ball St had a 503-301 yd edge vs Buffalo but 2 long FR TD's (28 pt swing) led to the loss. Without their HC they were crushed 45-13 by Tulsa in the bowl. Last year Parrish stepped into a tough situation as they had to replace NFL QB Davis, 3 of their top 4 rec's and 4 st'rs on the O-line. BSU lost its first 7 and Parrish caught national media attention as he had an 0-34-1 losing streak as a HC. Of course, Parrish was also the HC of a woeful Kansas St team from 1986-'88 in the pre-Bill Snyder era. In their 7 losses, many were close including Army where BSU had a 375-265 yd edge. Against Toledo they got a TD and then Parrish went for a gutsy 2 pt conv and the lead, (30-29 with :42 left) but Toledo got a TD :15 later. Five TO's did them in against Temple (only lost by 5). QB Page was inj'd in the 2Q vs BG. RB's Lewis and Sykes led them to a 29-27 come from behind win (trailed 27-13) vs EM on the road. Ohio got a TD with 3:11 left to pull out a 20-17 win. BSU suffered their 6th loss by 7 or less when NIU got past them by 6 despite the Cards having a 283-225 yd edge. After an expected blowout loss to CM, they upset WM in the final despite being outgained 463-226. BSU has a lot going in its favor this year as last season they were -7 in TO's, had a def ypp of 13.7 (pg 299), had 4 net close losses and are tied for #1 in the MAC with 19 ret starters. They do have 4 tough MAC road games but host the MAC West's top 2. Despite the tough schedule and the fact they were just 2-10 last year, Ball St makes my Most Improved List and is a legit MAC West contender.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score BSU	Opp	W / L
Sep. 2	SE Missouri St (Thur)	A					First meeting. RedHawks went 2-9 LY incl a 70-3 loss to FBS Cincinnati. SEMO is coached by Tony Samuel, former HC at NMSt from 1997-2004. BSU is 4-8 in home openers.
Sep. 11	Liberty	A					First meeting. The Flames went 8-3 LY incl a 33-20 loss to FBS West Virginia (gm tied 10-10 in 2Q). Liberty started its FB program in 1973 & has gone 2-7 vs current MAC tms.
Sep. 18	at Purdue	G					Ball St is 2-12 in road openers, (avg loss by 25 ppg). BSU has dropped all 7 meetings vs Purdue by DD's. In the 3 most recent ('97, '04 & '06) BSU has been outgained by 270 ypg.
Sep. 25	at Iowa	A					In the only meeting ('05) BSU was shutout 56-0 vs a #11 Iowa squad being outgained 441-144. BSU has lost 9 straight vs ranked teams but in the last 2 they only lost by 1 & 8 pts.
Oct. 2	at Central Michigan	A					BSU is 1-5 vs CM but did win its last trip to Mount Pleasant. Last year BSU had just 3 of their 10 drives go for 25+ yards vs CM ending in a FG, downs & an interception.
Oct. 9	W Michigan (HC)	A					BSU has won 3 str vs WM (7 of the L/9). LY was very misleading as BSU was outgained by 237 yds (-14 FD) but had a 5-1 TO edge. BSU led 13-0 and won the gm on a 87 yd 4Q PR TD.
Oct. 16	Eastern Michigan	A					The Cardinals have outgained the Eagles in each of the L3Y by 151 ypg. Coming into 2010, Ball St dropped all 4 MAC home gms LY after going 8-4 the prior 3 seasons.
Oct. 23	at Toledo	A					Ball St has won their L/2 trips at the Glass Bowl incl a shutout in 2008 (last visit). Cardinals' had a dominating 24-11 FD & 482-157 yd edge (UT just 20 1H yds).
Oct. 30	at Kent St	A					Ball St has won 6 straight in Kent (last loss 1985) and 14 of 15 overall. In 2008 (last game) WR Briggs Orsbon had a career high 10 rec (11.2) replacing an injured Dante Love.
Nov. 6	Akron	A					The home team is 5-2 since 1994 in this series. In '08 (L/gm) BSU forced 5 Akron TO's including 3 ints by SS Sean Baker (tied a BSU record) & also scored a TD on a 33 yd FR.
Nov. 12	at Buffalo (Fri)	A					In the 5 MAC meetings Ball St has outgained Buffalo in each incl B2B 200+ yd edges. The Cardinals were 11-0 (#12) when they lost the last meeting, the '08 MAC chmp gm.
Nov. 20	Northern Illinois	A					Series is played for the Bronze Stalk Trophy (started in '08). LY BSU led 7-0 but allowed 16 unanswered. They cut the deficit to 6 forcing a punt w/2:06 left but were SOD.

TOLEDO ROCKETS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In 2008, returning starter Aaron Opelt started all 12 and threw for 2,176 (60%, 12-7) while #2 QB JUCO Alex Pettee (PS#180) had just 2 pass att. Last year true frosh Austin Dantin (PS#118, Beckman recruit) jumped into the #2 spot. Opelt threw for 1,704 (61%) in the first 5 with a 14-5 ratio before suffering a partially torn rotator cuff vs WM. Dantin played decent vs WM after he fmbl'd his first snap. Dantin started vs NIU but inj'd his ankle. With the top 2 QB's out, Pettee started vs Temple (29-47-265, 1-2). Opelt ret'd vs Miami but was far from 100% (7-14-79) and all 3 played. Opelt and Dantin combined for 20-31-219 vs CM but then Opelt hit just 1-5 vs EM and missed the finale. Dantin hit 34-50 for 447 in the final 2 weeks. Overall, Dantin threw for 962 (66.4%, 4-4) and Pettee had 380 (63.8%, 1-2). This year they lose Opelt (8 st) and not listed in the PSL below is Michael Matthews (6'3" 177 rFr). While the unit probably will not get off to as good a start as '09, it should remain healthier and put up better stats in the 2nd year of OC Matt Campbell's system.

RUNNING BACKS - In 2006, the Rockets had to replace Trinity Dawson, who rushed for 1,294 (5.6) in '05. Jalen Parmele (PS#104) had 1,131 (5.5) in '06 and then 1,511 (5.5) in '07. DaJuane Collins (PS#86) had 261 (5.6) in '06 and 636 (6.4) in '07. In 2008 they had to replace Parmele. The 211 lb power back Collins got off to a great start, rushing for 360 and an outstanding 8.2 ypc (3 gm), before he suffered an ankle injury vs Fresno. Collins rushed for just 340 (4.1) in his last 7 (miss 2). Morgan Williams (PS#32) set a school record with 330 (11.8) vs Miami and had 153 (7.3) vs BG. He set a Toledo frosh rushing record with 1,010 (6.0). True frosh Jake Walker (5'11" 198 So) had 67 (4.2) and rFr Adonis Thomas (PS#131) had 40 (4.4). Last year Williams was susp'd the first 2 and had 41 vs Ball St (1st st). In the new offense, the numbers dropped with Collins barely ending the streak of 1,000 yard rushers (991, 5.6). Williams added 444 (6.0) and Thomas had 151 (5.6) and Walker RS. This year they lose their top rusher in Collins and not listed below are Darius Reeves (6'1" 192 rFr) and Johnnie Bush (5'10" 208 Jr). As long as Williams returns to his '08 form, this unit could put up stronger numbers.

RECEIVERS - Former HC Tom Amstutz produced the Rockets' top 2 career receivers in Lance Moore ('01-'04) and Steve Odom ('03-'06). In 2007 Stephen Williams earned 2nd Tm MAC with 1,169 (16.0) while Nick Moore added 731 (12.2). In '08 Moore was limited early (inj) but led in receptions and finished #2 with 779 (10.0). Williams was #1 with 781 (11.0) and TE John Allen had 265 (9.1). Amstutz said true frosh Kenny Stafford (Cris Carter's nephew) could be a special player (75 yds). Last year they had to replace Nick Moore (#4 career rec) and Allen. Williams was limited (shoulder) in a couple of games but topped '08's numbers with 1,065 (13.5). Eric Page set Toledo true frosh records and was the #1 FBS frosh receiver with 1,159 (14.1). TE Danny Noble was #3 with 257 (9.9) and Stafford was #4 with 222 (15.9). This year they lose their new career leader Williams (10 st), Robin Bailey (206, 9.4, 10 st) and TE Tom Burzine (117, 14.6). Despite the loss of a talent like Williams, Page returns (3 of top 4 receivers back) so it will still be a quality unit plus they add true frosh James Green (PS#52).

C Kevin Kowalski

OFFENSIVE LINE - The Rockets always had a quality O-line under Amstutz. In '08 they had to replace a pair of 4 year st'rs (#1DC) and 2 bkps and only opened holes for 146 ypg rush (4.7) allowing just 16 sks (4.2%). HC Tim Beckman inherited 97 career sts (#13 FBS) incl all 5 st'rs and each started all 12 last year. They threw the ball 69 times vs Purdue and did not allow a sack but only improved to 160 ypg rush (4.7) while allowing 18 sks (4.0%). This year they lose 3rd Tm MAC LG Jared DeWalt (4Y st'r) and 3rd string C Buster Garrett (1 gm '09, 7 st in both '07 & '08). LT Mike VanDerMeulen is an NFL prospect and this unit now has 100 career starts returning (#14 FBS) and should be stronger.

DEFENSIVE LINE - While Toledo only had to replace one starter in '07, they lost 2 st'rs in the first 3 gms resulting in their worst numbers in recent history, allowing 216 ypg rush (5.1) and a UT low 9 sacks (tied for last in FBS). In '08 they had 3 st'rs back and improved to 178 ypg (4.4) but was last again in the MAC with just 10 sks. One starter was susp after 7 so Maurice Hill started the last 5 and Alex Johnson (8 st, 51 tkl, 4.5 tfl '07) lost his spot (8 tkl). Last year they had 2 st'rs back but DE Skylaar Constant (12 st '08) lost his spot. They did trim the ypg allowed to 166 and increased the sks to 20 but the ypc still rose to 4.7. This year they lose DT Derrick Summers (12 st, 35 tkl, 4 sk), DT Hill (10 st, 32 tkl, 5.5 tfl) and Constant (18 tkl, 1.5 sk). This is not an overwhelming group but should be stronger as they add 2 JUCO's.

LINEBACKERS - The Rockets run a 4-2-5 but I list the STAR position at LB. Last year's STAR, Barry Church, who Beckman says would have played at Ohio St, was 6'2" 219. The '09 LB corps had all 3 st'rs back. Daris Quinn (12 st '08) missed the first 2 (susp) and did not regain his spot until Beau Brudzinski was lost with 2 wks to go. Archie Donald was the #1 tkl'r for a 2nd straight year and Church was #2 while adding 8.5 tfl earning 1st Tm MAC. This year they lose Church (12 st, 98 tkl), who was just the 2nd UT player to be named All-MAC 4 straight years, Brudzinski (10 st, #3 tkl'r, 3.5 tfl) and Quinn (2 st, #7 tkl'r). The unit does return their #1, #6 and #12 tkl'rs plus they add a JUCO but is clearly less experienced and lose their star.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Toledo had an exp'd secondary in '07 and finished #97 in my PDR but with an inexp'd unit was #96 in '08. Last year they had to replace 3 st'rs and 2 true frosh started. Surprisingly Toledo climbed to #67. This year they lose CB's Kenny Veal (4 st, 14 tkl), Walter Atkins (1 st, 14 tkl), Andreas Ashwood (2 st, 13 tkl) and SS Lester Richmond (12 st, 61 tkl, 2 int, 3 pbu). They have 3 st'rs back including Jermaine Robinson, who had 10 sts at FS as a "true" (Milford). They also get back Desmond Marrow who started the final 7 in '08 but had a torn ACL in '09 and add in PS#71JC Taikwon Paige. While they won't move up much in my PDR, this is a more veteran unit.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Under Amstutz, Toledo had some fine finishes in my ST rankings including #37 in '02 and #8 in '03. In the next 5 years they finished just #77, #61, #83, #69 and #104. Last year they had to replace their top PR & KR but had back excellent K Alex Steigerwald (16-21, long 48 in '08) and P Bill Claus (36.0 net). Claus struggled at times avg 37.4 while Steigerwald punted 10x (31.7). They suffered 5 blk'd punts. The team had an FBS low net of 28.7. Steigerwald had 5 TB's on 63 KO's and hit 12-16 FG's (long 50, 2 miss 50+). They struggled in the return game shuffling players in and out until true frosh Page took over (PR 10.8, KR 25.4). While they lose Steigerwald and Church (3 blk's), this unit finished dead last at #120 and can only finish higher this year.

COACHES - It was surprising to me that "Toledo Tom" Amstutz, who spent 30 years on the staff (last 8 HC), opted to step aside after the '08 season. He guided the team to 3 MAC Title games in his first 4 yrs ('01-'04) but unfortunately finished with 3 straight losing seasons. Last year Tim Beckman, who was the Ohio St CB coach ('05-'06) and Okla St's DC ('07-'08), took over. He was a BG asst from '98-'04. OC Matt Campbell was the BG run game coor in '08. Beckman has co-DC's in Mike Ward who was at BG from '92-'08 (DC L2Y) and Paul Nichols, who was the Marshall DB coach (2006-'08).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Amstutz inherited a team that was 10-1 in 2000 with 17 ret st'rs. He made a bold move by completely changing the offense from the run-oriented scheme to the spread. In his first year the team went 10-2 and won the MAC Title (#23 AP). Toledo would go 9-5, 8-4, 9-4 and 9-3 the next four seasons getting to bowls in 4 of Amstutz's first five years and winning 2 MAC Titles. In '06, UT had 14 ret st'rs (most S/'01), but shockingly after 12 straight winning seasons, fell to 5-7. In 2007, it appeared Toledo would have a much improved record but amazingly they lost 3 def st'rs in the opener. They did beat a BCS team (Iowa St) at home. At 5-5 they blew a 17-7 lead over Ball St and had B2B losing seasons for the first time since 1977-'78. Toledo was among the FBS leaders in starts lost and their 5-2 record at home moved them to 41-6 in the Glass Bowl this decade as they were actually +49.9 ypg in MAC play. In '08 they had 14 ret st'rs. They had the 2nd fewest senior starters in the MAC (5) and played a brutal non-conf schedule (AZ, Mich, Fresno) while drawing the MAC East's toughest foes. Their scholarships dropped to 79 due to NCAA APR penalties. Toledo got a 100 yd IR TD and upset Michigan which was the biggest win of the Amstutz era but then dropped 4 straight. Last year they had 15 ret st'rs and ret'd 89% of their lettermen. They had 81.9% of their tackles ret (#8 FBS) and 82.4% of their Off yards ret (#30 FBS). After a loss at Purdue, they caught Colorado on a short week and whipped them 54-38 on a Fri night. After an expected loss to Ohio St, they came up with a couple of impressive road wins over FIU and Ball St to rise to 3-2. QB Opelt was banged up and would not be 100% after that and missed 4 sts. After a loss to WM at home, they beat NIU 20-19 and had a bowl appearance in sight at 4-3. They were whipped by Temple then stunningly winless Miami upset them 31-24. After an expected loss to CM, UT beat EM to keep alive their post season hopes. In the season finale vs BG, 2 blk'd punts equalled a pair of BG TD's. Despite having a commanding 485-289 yd edge, Toledo lost by 14 to finish 5-7. This year the Rockets have just 12 ret st'rs and had only 9 sts lost to injury in '09. Toledo, despite their 3-5 conf record, outgained MAC foes by 44.6 ypg (4th best). Toledo's defense had a ypp of 10.8 (pg 299) and the Rockets were -10 in TO's. The Rockets just opened a new $9M indoor training facility and brought in the MAC's top recruiting class. This is a team capable of being bowl eligible. How they fare at home in Oct could be the key. They have one of the top offenses in the MAC and should have an improved defense.

Sep. 3	Arizona (Fri)	A					Since 2001, UT has hosted 6 BCS conf schools going 5-1 (only loss to Purdue in '07). UT is 0-2 vs UA being outgained by 208 yds in '08 (L/gm). UT is 14-4 in Glass Bowl openers.
Sep. 11	at Ohio	A					The Rockets have won 11 straight vs Ohio incl 5 in Athens. UT has a +8 TO edge the L/3 meetings ('04, '05 & '07). Toledo has dropped 4 straight road openers and 6 of the L/7.
Sep. 18	at Western Michigan	A					Toledo has dropped 4 straight to W Michigan being upset in 3 including LY when the Broncos charged out to a 20-0 lead in the gms first 5:06 (UT also trailed 41-6 late 2Q).
Sep. 25	at Purdue	G					HC Beckman's debut was spoiled LY as UT spotted PU a 21-0 lead and could never recover trailing by DD's the entire 2H. UT is 2-3 vs PU allowing 50+ pts in each loss.
Oct. 2	Wyoming (HC)	A					First meeting. The Rockets are 54-25 on HC but lost last year by 32 pts. Coming into 2010, Toledo is 15-3 at the Glass Bowl vs non-conference opponents since 2000.
Oct. 9	at Boise St	A					First meeting & UT is 4-4 vs WAC teams. Coming into 2010, the Rockets are just 3-13 away from home during the reg season vs non-conference opponents.
Oct. 16	Kent St	A					This will mark just the 2nd meeting since 2000 for these instate schools. UT lost in '06 by 26 pts being outgained by 114 yds. UT is 3-5 hosting MAC foes the last 2 years.
Oct. 23	Ball St	A					Home team in this series had won 5 str from 2000-'04 but over the L/5 yrs is just 1-4 being outgained by 247 ypg the L2Y. UT tossed a 51 yd TD pass w/:27 left LY for the victory.
Oct. 30	at Eastern Michigan	A					Toledo is 16-4 vs E Michigan with the avg win by 22 ppg & the avg loss by just 4 ppg. LY UT jumped out to a 16-0 advantage & EM was never closer than 9 pts.
Nov. 9	at N Illinois (Tues)	A					Rockets are 14-2 vs the Huskies but the visitor has lost 3 straight. LY QB Dantin made his first start and QB Pettee had his first action of the year in the 20-19 win over NIU.
Nov. 13
Nov. 17	Bowling Green (Wed)	A					UT lost LY vs rival BG despite a 196 yd edge (24-17 FD edge) as they were -4 in TO's including a fumble w/3 min left at the BG11 down 7. The home team has won 10 of 12.
Nov. 26	C Michigan (Fri)	A					UT had won 10 straight from 1995-2004 vs CM but since have dropped 5 in a row. The Rockets are 19-2 in Glass Bowl finales (15-1 not involving rival BG).
Dec. 3							BONUS: First time since 1999 that UT does not close regular season vs rival BG.

CENTRAL MICHIGAN CHIPPEWAS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - CM's top 3 QB's had a combined 3 att's heading into 2006. Brian Brunner (PS#89) won the starting job but was injured on the 2nd play and the Dan LeFevour era began. LeFevour set an NCAA record for most pass att's for a frosh (388) and was MAC FPOY. He led the MAC in total offense, comp % and TD passes (3031, 64%, 26-10) with 521 rush. I mentioned it would be tough for LeFevour to improve in '07 but he proved me wrong. His 19 rushing TD's were 2nd in the FBS to Tim Tebow. LeFevour (3652, 65%, 27-13, 1122 rush) became the first MAC QB to guide his team to conf titles as both a frosh and soph. He also set a CM record with 506 all-purp yds vs Ball St then topped that with 514 vs Akron. LeFevour became just the 2nd QB in NCAA history to have 1,000 rush and 3,000 yards pass in the same season (Vince Young, Texas). LeFevour's numbers were down a little in '08 (inj) as he threw for 2,784 (67%) with a 21-6 ratio (592 rush). Brunner started 3 gm (1 in '06, 2 in '08) in place of the inj'd LeFevour and earned MAC West OPW all 3 times. LeFevour stayed healthy last year (did miss a half vs BC, migraine). He became the 1st player in NCAA history to pass for 12,000 and rush for 2,500 and became the MAC's all-time leader in passing yards (12,905) and TD passes (102) while finishing #2 in the FBS with 15,853 yds of total offense. Backup Ryan Radcliff (PS#87) played in 7 hitting 10-21-115. This year they lose their remarkable QB (#6DC CHI) and like '06 have little exp. Battling Radcliff will be Derek Rifenbury (PS#366), AJ Westendorp (PS#339), Stefan Ede (6'3" 185 rFr, Saginaw Valley trans) and true frosh Kyle Smith (PS#116). CM QB's will have to adjust as they'll be taking snaps from under C this year.

RUNNING BACKS - QB Dan LeFevour (713, 3.9 LY) has been the leading rusher each of the last 3 years. The top RB in '07 was Notre Dame transfer Justin Hoskins (PS#20) who had 664 (5.8). In '08 Hoskins only rushed for 145 (4.8) and Ontario Sneed was the top RB with 548 (4.4). Last year the top returnee was Bryan Schroeder (PS#194) who had 208 (3.5) taking off the RS in '08 in Wk 6. HC Butch Jones ran a TB-by-committee as Schroeder started 6 (559, 5.6), Paris Cotton (PS#203) started 5 (220, 3.8) and Carl Volny started 3 (390, 4.8). Schroeder left the team prior to the spring (slight chance of ret). Not listed below are Zurlon Tipton (6'1" 210 rFr, PS#388), Tim Phillips (5'5" 163 So, PS#270) and James Falls (5'11" 229 Jr). This is not an overwhelming group but with less reliance on LeFevour's running, I expect more production from the CM RB's.

RECEIVERS - In 2006, rFr Bryan Anderson was 1st Tm MAC setting a school record with 73 rec (11.9). Anderson led again in '07 with 1,132 yds (12.6) but walk-on Antonio Brown, who was not even in the media guide, was the impact frosh of '07. Brown and Anderson both crushed the record as Brown led in rec with 102 (9.8). Brown (MAC FPOY) was a dangerous returnman and also set an FBS frosh record with 2,267 all-purp yds. After both WR's topped 1,000 in '07, their numbers dropped some in '08 as Brown had 998 (10.7) and Anderson had 865 (13.7). Kito Poblah was #3 with 532 (12.4). Last year they only had to replace their #4 rec (11 st). Anderson set an NCAA record with rec's in 54 consec gms and was #2 with 784 (12.3). Brown led with 1,198 (10.9) and added 341 rush (8.1). Cody Wilson (7 st) had 226 (9.0). TE David Blackburn had 8 st (12 rec). Not listed below are Jordan McConnell (5'10" 185 rFr), Sean Skergan (6'1" 203 Sr, 1 st LY), Connor Odykirk (6'3" 212 rFr), Cornelius Gallon (5'11" 185 Jr) and Reggie Brown (5'7" 158 So). This year they lose Anderson (12 st) and Brown (#6DC PIT)! Naturally with the loss of the MAC's #2 and #3 in career receptions this unit is weaker.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2008 CM had four starters back but surprisingly the rush numbers dropped to 134 ypg (3.6) with 30 sks. Last year they had to replace 3 including 1st Tm MAC LT Andrew Hartline (52 straight starts #1 FBS). They had 2 starters back (54 car sts). C Colin Miller missed 3 and rFr Jake Olson missed 2. Despite being less exp'd, the unit improved to 168 ypg rush (4.6) with just 17 sks (3.5%). This year they lose 1st Tm MAC RG Allen Ollenburger (14 st) but have 4 st'rs back (104 car sts, #13 FBS). With 9 of the top 10 back, the unit looks stronger but losing a mobile QB like LeFevour won't help their stats.

C Colin Miller

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2008 CM had a veteran but injury plagued D-line and improved allowing 137 ypg rush (4.1) with 35 sacks. Last year they had to replace 3 DL (comb 14 sts) but did have 4 back who had been full-time starters. DE Sam Williams (10 st '08) was lost after 7 gms (4 sts). DE Frank Zombo was 1st Tm MAC with 6.5 sks. CM improved again allowing 123 ypg (3.7) but the sacks dropped to 27. This year they lose DE Zombo (12 st, 45 tkl, 3Y st'r), 3rd Tm MAC DE Larry Knight (12 st, 37 tkl, 2.5 sk) and Williams (18 tkl). They return a pair of DT's who each started 14 incl Sean Murnane (B2B 3rd Tm MAC). Not listed in the PSL are Matt Maletzke (6'1" 231 So) and Aaron McCord (6'3" 290 rFr). This is a less exp'd unit that will be down a few notches.

LINEBACKERS - Last year CM ret'd all 3 st'rs (#1, #3 and #5 tkl'rs). Nick Bellore was the team's best def player the last 3 years setting a CM record for tkls (148 '08) and was 1st Tm in '08. Matt Berning was the #2 tkl'r and Jones brought in an excellent class of 4 true frosh in '09, two of which played (comb 28 tkl) and 2 RS. This year they lose SLB Tim Brazzel (11 st, #9 tkl'r) but return 6 of the top 7 including their top 2 tkl'rs. Adding depth are Shane Torzy (6'0" 221 Jr, PS#215), Kevin Sweet (6'1" 206 So), Kyle Torzy (6'2" 244 So, PS#417), Landon Carter (5'11" 214 Jr), Adam Fenton (6'2" 226 rFr) and Zach Watts. While returning one less st'r, they go from 49 career sts to 65 and this is the MAC's best LB corps.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In 2008 CM had a revolving door at DB using 6 different lineups and finishing #109 in my pass D rankings. Last year I called for a big jump in the rankings as they returned all 4 st'rs (8 w/st exp). CM's secondary did not disappoint as they finished #35 which was their highest finish ever. This year they lose 1st Tm MAC CB Josh Gordy (12 st, 43 tkl, 3 int, 11 pbu), CB Kirkston Edwards (14 st, 73 tkl, 6 pbu), FS Eric Fraser (13 st, 39 tkl, 1 pbu) and CB Tommy Mama (2 st, 21 tkl, 1 pbu). CB LaVarus Williams had 1 st at Purdue in '08 (9 tkl, 1 int, FF) before injury. This unit is much less exp'd and figures to take a sizeable drop in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - CM was #58 in my ST rankings in 2006. They slipped to #88 in Butch Jones' first year but in '08 improved to #55 almost topping the team's previous high (#53 in '95). Last year all of the key players were back. K Andrew Aguila got a 2nd chance to boot the game winning FG vs Mich St but said his most impressive play was the onside kick a few plays prior. Aguila hit 17-23 FG's (long 49, 1 miss 51) and had 7 TB on 78 KO. Brett Hartmann (PS#49) had a 34.6 net in '08 and again in '09. Antonio Brown avg 22.1 in '09 on KR but was even better on PR's avg 20.5 in '08 and 13.5 in '09 with a combined 3 TD's. CM had their best ST finish ever at #46, but with the loss of Aguila and Brown, will drop some.

COACHES - After CM's MAC Championship win in 2006, 3rd year HC Brian Kelly (19-16) left to become the HC at Cincy. Butch Jones, who was the OC at CM from 2001-'03 became the first coach to win the MAC Title in his inaugural season since 2001. Jones led CM to another MAC Title LY before exiting prior to the bowl to become the HC of Cincy again replacing Kelly. Dan Enos takes over after serving as an asst coach at Mich St (QB 2006, RB '07-'09). Enos was the QB coach at Cincy in '04 & '05 and the OC at NDak St in '03. He was also the QB coach at W Mich ('00-'02) under Gary Darnell. Mike Cummings is the new OC and this is his 4th stint with the Chippewas (OL '99, '92-'97, GA '88-'89). Cummings was also the OL cch/Recruiting coor at Marshall ('05-'09) and spent 3 yrs at W Mich in the same roles prior. Joe Tumpkin is the new DC coming here after a 2 year stints at Pitt ('08-'09) and SMU ('05-'07) as LB coach.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In 2003, CM slumped to 1-7 in MAC play (-140.1 ypg) so they opted to bring in new HC Brian Kelly. Kelly's Div II offense at Grand Valley St averaged 600.8 ypg in 2001. In 2004, CM ret'd a 1,000 yard rusher, its top receiver and 17 ret starters. CM also installed new FieldTurf. They were -60 ypg in MAC play and finished 3-5 (4-7 overall). In '05, veteran QB Kent Smith led CM to its first winning season since 1998. CM improved to 5-3 in the MAC (+74.9 ypg, 3rd best). In '06, CM was picked 4th in the MAC West by the media. I rated their OL #2 in the MAC and the DL #1 and the line play was the key as their top 2 players were frosh in QB Dan LeFevour and WR Bryan Anderson. They opened 6-0 in the MAC and defeated six IA foes in B2B years for the first time since 1984-'85. CM dominated Ohio 31-10 in the MAC Title game. CM then beat up MT in the Motor City Bowl giving them 10 wins for the first time since 1979. In 2007, they had to replace Coach Kelly, their OC and DC and became the only school in MAC history to have players drafted in each of the first two rounds by the NFL. HC Butch Jones concentrated on MAC West games. CM was blown out in non-conf games but went 4-1 in their division. They won their 2nd straight MAC Title whipping Miami by 25 then had a close 51-48 loss to Purdue in the bowl. CM finished 6-1 (reg ssn) in the MAC (+92 ypg, 2nd best). In '08 CM had 15 ret starters and the best set of skill players in the MAC and my #1 rated O-line. They did have just 4 Sr starters (fewest MAC). In essentially the MAC West Title game, they lost by 7 to Ball St at home. The next week they were ambushed by EM in HC Jeff Genyk's FHG. They then lost the Motor City Bowl (FAU) for their 3rd straight loss and finished 8-5. They ranked only 4th in the MAC West (7th overall) in ypg in MAC play (+4.8). Despite those factors, CM had 16 ret starters for '09 and was clearly the MAC's most talented team. They did have a tough schedule facing 7 teams all on the road that were bowl eligible in '08. CM got a late start in the opener vs Arizona (11:00 pm EST) but the next week upset Mich St with a FG on the last play. They moved to 7-1 before losing at BC but won their final 3 reg season games. In the MAC Title game they had 28-16 FD and 381-275 yd edges vs Ohio. They got to a school record 4th straight bowl vs Troy and despite having an interim HC, came away with a 44-41 2OT win for a 12-2 season and for the first time ever finished ranked (#23) in the final poll. There are some signs pointing downward this year. The most significant is the loss of Coach Butch Jones to Cincinnati. Dan Enos steps into his first HC job and has not been a coor at an FBS school and his OC & DC have never been coordinators at the FBS level. CM had 3 net close wins and their 12 ret st'rs is #10 in the MAC. They did outgain MAC foes by 143.6 ypg which was 92.2 ypg better than the #2 team. CM is changing schemes on both offense and defense and has just 5 HG's. Despite a solid defense, they will have a drastic drop from LY's 12 wins and may have a tough time achieving a winning season.

EASTERN MICHIGAN EAGLES

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Andy Schmitt had an injury plagued career but started 6 times in '06, 10 in '07 and 10 in '08. During '07 and '08 when Schmitt was inj'd Kyle McMahon started 4 (2 each yr). In '08, Schmitt was never 100% healthy until after a 2 week bye late. He was finally able to practice and had a phenomenal final 2. He att'd 76 passes without an int (NCAA single gm record) while throwing for 484 vs Temple and set the NCAA mark for completions in a game (58) with school records of 80 att's and 516 yards vs CM. Schmitt threw for 2,644 (63%, 15-8). Last year HC Ron English brought in a new system and Schmitt struggled during the spring and summer taking snaps under center. In 3 starts, Schmitt threw for 428 (63%) with a 2-5 ratio but unfortunately his career ended in the 2H vs Michigan (ACL). McMahon (who was to RS orig) and true frosh Alex Gillett (PS#194) split snaps with McMahon starting the next 6. McMahon threw for 634 (52.8%, 4-4). Gillett, who was the HS Div III POY in Ohio, played his first game in the Big House. Gillett took over as the starter in the final 3 and was the leading rusher in each (comb 285, 4.8). He threw for 763, but as you would expect from a true frosh, hit just 49.6% with a 3-7 ratio. McMahon transferred in the offseason. This year's potential starter is Devontae Payne (6'6" 231 rFr, PS#64). His HS coach, who coached 3 players who reached the NFL, said his potential is probably higher than anyone he's been around. Naturally in the 2nd year of English's system, I would expect significant improvement as '09's numbers were a combined 53.5% with a 9-16 ratio.

RB Dwayne Priest

RUNNING BACKS - EM has not produced a 1,000 yard rusher here since 2003. In '08, Terrence Blevins (PS#106) led with 575 (4.3) while Dwayne Priest had 474 (4.8) and rFr Corey Welch added 154 (6.2). Last year Blevins (12 gm, 1 st) had just 109 (2.8). Priest avg 100 ypg the first 3 but then had just 332 in the remaining 9 (633, 3.6). Welch had 81 vs CM but just 73 in his other 10 (DNP vs Kent St). With Welch and Priest sidelined vs Kent St, WR-turned-RB DeAnthony White had 73 and finished with 187 (6.7). This year they lose Blevins and White (3st@WR). They do add PS#65 Ben Axon who orig signed with S Carolina in '09! I look for increased production from the EM RB's.

RECEIVERS - EM produced their career leading receiver in 1999 then again in '02 and once again in '06 (see next page). In '08 they ret'd their top 3 rec and avg 269 ypg passing (most S/'97). Last year they ret'd 5 of their top 6 but TE Josh LeDuc (#3 rec '08) was injured (0 rec). The top returnee, Jacory Stone had 943 (10.7) in the spread offense in '08, saw his numbers drop drastically but still led with 347 (10.8). True frosh Kinsman Thomas (PS#106) was #2 (275, 18.3). TE Ben Thayer (4 st '08) was #3 with 261 (9.0) and Tyrone Burke added 253 (15.8). This year they must replace their top guy Stone (9 st), Dontayo Gage (5 rec), Marvon Sanders (1 st, 14 rec) and TE John Bonner (5 st, 8 rec). Not listed below are Donnavin Searcy (6'0" 204 So), Brandon Boyle (5'9" 171 rFr) and TE Ryan Kuhlman (6'4" 264 Jr). This unit will likely put up better stats than they did in '09 but talent-wise I'm concerned about the loss of Stone (3 yr leader, 1st Tm MAC in '08).

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2008, EM had 8 of the top 10 back but was one of the smaller units in the FBS. They still opened holes for 148 ypg rush (4.3) while allowing just 19 sks (3.8%). Last year they had to replace one starter. LT Bridger Buche (12 st '08) missed the year while C Eric Davis missed the final 3. They also had to go through a coaching change and the numbers dropped to 126 ypg rush (3.6) with 27 sks (8.3%). This year they lose 3rd Tm MAC LG Andy Fretz (11 st, 4Y st'r) and RT Stephen Johnson (12 st, 2Y st'r). With the return of Buche they basically have 4 full-time starters back (80 career st). I look for improved numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2007 it was very surprising that EM allowed 196 ypg rush (5.2) with 17 sks despite the presence of 1st Tm MAC Jason Jones and Tm MVP DE Eric Young. In '08, most of their DL's were frosh (lost both stars) but surprisingly yielded the same 196 ypg (5.2) with 16 sks. Last year they only had to replace one starter (5 back w/st exp). English said early in the year, "Right now we're not very big, we're having problems getting off blocks...and tackling." Again it was surprising that a more veteran unit was downright horrible vs the rush (last FBS) allowing 277 ypg and 6.3 ypc. One scout called the EM defensive front "really weak." This year they lose 3rd Tm MAC DE Brandon Downs (12 st, 57 tkl, 7.5 sk) but have 7 of the top 8 back and their 3 soph st'rs are now all juniors. This is still a weak D-line but should improve considerably from the poor performances over the last few years.

LINEBACKERS - EM had to replace 2nd Tm MAC Daniel Holtzclaw, who was the #1 tackler in '06, '07 and '08, but did have 5 of their top 6 back in '09. EM still allowed 38.3 ppg, their most in 5 years. This year they lose 3rd Tm MAC WLB Andre Hatchett (12 st, #1 tkl'r, 6 tfl), Jermaine Jenkins (2 st, 5 tkl) and Lorenzo Seaberry (4 tkl). Three return with starting exp and they add true frosh Darius Moffett (PS#53, GS '09). Despite the loss of their top guy, with 5 of the top 6 back for a 4th straight year, they should have an improved D.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In 2007, EM lost both starting CB's over the summer and with 2 st'rs back, surprisingly had their best finish in my PDR in the last decade at #66. RFr Ryan Downard started the last 10 at FS (6 int) and he helped the team climb from 7 int's in '06 to 16 in '07. It was a veteran unit in '08 that surprisingly dropped to #114. Last year they had to replace 3 DB (comb 20 sts) but had 3 back who started 6+. Downard was lost after 3 sts. CB Johnny Sears (PS#54, played 2 yr at Mich) took a starting CB spot. SS Chris May led with 6 int. Because teams ran the ball at will and led big, EM was actually #1 in the NCAA in ypg pass (D allowed 150.5 ypg). Teams only threw 225 times vs them (524 rush att) and that coupled with a 16-12 ratio, showed you the accuracy of my PDR as they finished #63. This year they lose May (8 st, 64 tkl, 6 int) and 4th Tm MAC Sears (9 st, 37 tkl, 7 pbu) but have 7 (all w/st exp) of the top 9 back and add L'ville transfer Latarrius Thomas (PS#84). While more exp'd, especially with Downard's return, they probably will not match last year's PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In 2007, EM lost K Andrew Wellock (1st Tm MAC) and Trumaine Riley (then MAC career KR leader). Despite their losses, former HC Jeff Genyk did a fine job (#45). P Zach Johnson (38.1 net '06) improved to 39.2 in '07 (Ray Guy Semi). In '08 they only had to replace their LS but Johnson was inj'd (never 100%) and the tm net dropped to 29.0 with Patrick Treppa having 23 punts. Johnson also lost his FG duties and Joe Carithers hit 10-14 (long 43). EM had 0 TB on 60 KO's. The unit fell to #119. Last year Johnson appeared to be back to his '07 form but was inj'd on a blk'd punt vs Ball St. Johnson avg 40.4 and Treppa had 17 punts with the team's net 33.7. Carithers hit 10-17 FG's (long 43, 2-6 40+). The team had 1 TB on 41 KO (3 in L3Y, lowest in FBS). Sears was the top KR (22.9) but the team avg just 4.9 on PR's. Overall EM was #111. Not in the PSL are two LS in Alexander Gudejko (6'5" 221 So) and Matt Bowman (6'0" 218 So). This year they lose their top K, P, KR and PR but there is really only one way to go in the rankings.

COACHES - Ron English was Michigan's DC in '06 and '07 and the DC at Louisville in '08. The DC is Phil Snow who coached with the Detroit Lions ('05-'08) and he was the LB coach his last 3 years there. The OC is Ken Karcher who was the QB coach at Toledo in '08. He was Pitt's OC from 1994-'96 and spent 3 years as the OC of the Rhein Fire (NFL Europe) as well as the HC at Liberty (21-46) from 2000-'05.

PHIL'S FORECAST

EM has not had a winning season since 1995 (6-5) and has not won more than 4 games in a season since then. They are 41-119 (26%) in that 14 yr span. EM has had only six winning seasons since 1974. The 2002 team set NCAA records for most points (566) and yards allowed (6,239). In '03 EM was -125.3 ypg in MAC play (3rd worst). They did rally to win 2 of their final 3 under interim HC Al Lavan to finish out of the basement at 2-6. The '03 defense allowed "only" 30.9 ppg and 393 ypg. In '04 they won the Michigan MAC Championship (beat WM and CM in 4 OT's) for the first time since 1986. That put EM at 4-2 and in the hunt for the MAC Title but they dropped their final 2. EM installed FieldTurf in '05 to help cut down on injuries. They finished with an identical 4-7 record in '05. They had 3 tough losses and could have easily had a 7-4 season (see '09 mag). EM was last in the MAC West but -28.8 ypg (7th best). That team benefitted from +10 in turnovers. In '06 they were breaking in a new QB and had most of their winnable games on the road. Because of those factors, I called for a 2nd straight year in the cellar. EM finished just that at 1-11 but had 6 losses by 8 or less. They were -81 ypg in MAC play (2nd worst). In '07 they had the 4th most ret sts (15) in the MAC (fewest lett lost) and improved to 4-8 including 3-4 in the MAC (-41.4 ypg). They won the Michigan MAC Championship with just 11 seniors. In '08 EM had what looked like Genyk's best team but were playing in a loaded MAC West. With the team just 2-8, QB Schmitt finally was able to practice and guided EM to 108 pts and 1,168 yds in the final 2. Prior to the final game, Genyk was let go and they beat CM for a 2nd straight time giving them the Michigan MAC Title for a 3rd time in Genyk's 5 years. While they were just 3-9 overall, their -25.4 ypg in MAC play was just the 4th worst and only 23.3 ypg behind league champ Buffalo. New HC English said the team did not have the speed he desired at the skill positions or the size on the defense last year. While he inherited 17 sts, he lost 2 prior to the season (inj) then QB Schmitt was lost vs Mich. They eventually went to true frosh Gillett at QB (st'd L3). EM had 3 net close losses but only once outgained a foe (Akron, wk 12 by just 10 yds). They started the 2nd most true frosh of any team in the country. While they had 14,000+ for the opener, just 1,535 were there for Ball St. EM was 0-12 and -159.4 ypg in MAC play (90.8 ypg worse than #12 team). This year EM has 15 ret sts and last season had 34 sts lost to injury. They also had poor Off and Def ypp's last year (see pg 299). Those factors call for an improved year but how can you not improve on 0 wins? EM could be an underdog in all 12 games this year and while much stronger, may not improve much in the win column.

PHIL STEELE'S 2010 SUN BELT FORECAST

1. MIDDLE TENNESSEE - When the Sun Belt was formed, it appeared MTSt would be the dominant member but they have yet to take home an outright SBC Title. This could very well be the year. Last year MTSt was 10-3 including a New Orleans Bowl win over Southern Miss. This year they return 14 starters including QB Dwight Dasher and get the all important game vs Troy at home on Oct 5th. Although it does concern me that they were +12 in TO's last year and had 2 net close wins, I will still call for them to get their first outright SBC Title.

2. TROY - Troy has by far, the best record in the SBC the last 3 years at 20-2 as well since joining the conference in 2004 (34-9). They may have the best talent in the league but with just 9 returning starters, are inexperienced on the defensive front 7 and at QB. Last year Troy outgained SBC foes by 150.9 ypg which was 57 yards better than the #2 team (MTSt). Troy has an excellent shot at three-peating and the SBC Title most likely will come down to their road game on Oct 5th.

3. NORTH TEXAS - This is by far Todd Dodge's best team yet. Despite the fact that last year's QB Riley Dodge has had to move to WR due to a shoulder injury, I look for their offense to be more potent. Defensively they made great strides last year allowing 12.0 ppg less and this year with 8 starters back, figure to have their best D since at least 2006. NT made my Most Improved List which means I think they will go from a losing season to bowl eligibility. In the last 4 years NT is 4-25 in SBC play and could win more games in conf action this year than they have in the last 4 years combined.

4. FLORIDA ATLANTIC - I have 2 concerns with this year's Owls squad. The first being that they have 0 returning starters on the O-line and the 2nd is they have just 4 home games. HC Howard Schnellenberger has a vastly improved defense and outstanding skill players on offense and should the O-line come around quickly, they have a shot at being 6-0 in the SBC when they enter the final 2 games vs the league favorites.

4. ARKANSAS ST - Arkansas St was one of the preseason favorites in the SBC last year but disappointed many as they finished just 3-5 and in a tie for 6th. Generally teams that disappoint like that surprise the next year and this year's team is capable. They have a more veteran O-line but do have just 11 returning starters and lose 25 lettermen. They have my #3 rated O-line and #4 rated D-line in the SBC and could pull some surprises.

6. LOUISIANA - UL fared better than I expected last year but did benefit from 3 net close wins. UL has been bowl eligible in 4 of the last 5 years and has one of the more veteran QB's in the league in QB Chris Masson. HC Rickey Bustle is 9-6 in SBC play the last 2 years and UL could surprise again.

6. FIU - FIU had just 11 returning starters and their -126.8 ypg in SBC play was the league's worst last year. This is HC Mario Cristobal's 4th year and with the addition of Miss St QB Wesley Carroll (PS#92), Syracuse RB Jeremiah Harden and the return on T.Y. Hilton from injury, they have plenty of top-notch skill players on offense. The defense, despite having just 5 starters back, should be stronger. The Panthers have a brutal schedule to start the year playing 4 BCS teams incl 3 straight on the road and have 7 of the first 10 away from home. This is an improved FIU team but probably won't top last year's 3 Sun Belt wins.

8. ULM - ULM was +42.1 ypg in SBC play (3rd best) but dropped a couple of winnable games or would have finished with a better record. This year they do have just 10 returning starters and a new HC. ULM has the 4th best record of any SBC team over the last 5 years at 20-16 but this looks like a rebuilding season for the Warhawks.

9. WKU - Last year looked like it would be a rebuilding year for WKU as they transitioned into IA ball and it was, as they finished 0-12 with just 10 returning starters. This year they are a much stronger team with 18 returning starters but have a lot of ground to make up. They were -122.5 ypg in SBC play and now have a new coach which means they must learn new schemes on both sides of the ball. They do host ULM on Oct. 16th so escaping the basement is a possibility, but they are probably a year or so away from exiting the cellar.

SUN BELT NOTES – North Texas dominated the first 4 years of Sun Belt play winning all 4 conference titles going 25-1! They are just 6-30 since. Last year Troy was able to repeat as Sun Belt champs breaking a streak of 4 straight years that the defending champ had been the preseason favorite but failed to win the title. Last year the Sun Belt added WKU to the league and that led to a conference win for each team as WKU went 0-8. The Sun Belt went just 2-20 vs BCS conference teams last year with Middle Tenn knocking off Maryland and Louisiana upsetting Kansas St. Troy has the best record in the SBC over the last 3 years (20-2), 5 years (29-7) and 9 years (34-9, joined in 2004). The three teams that left for the WAC were just 27-39 in their time in the league. MTSt is #2 over the last 5 years at 23-13 but their ypg in that span is only tied for 4th best behind Troy, FAU and Arkansas St. MTSt leads the league in preseason 1st team choices with 6 while North Texas has 5. FIU has 4 while Troy and UL follow with 3 each. The league has four 1,000 yard rushers returning. The top 8 players in tfl all depart. They were 1-1 in the bowls LY and their conf record 7 players picked in the NFL draft were more than the WAC, MAC and CUSA!

MIDDLE TENNESSEE BLUE RAIDERS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Clint Marks departed as the school's #2 all-time passer after '06. Strong armed Joe Craddock (75 yd '06) began '07 as the starter but was inj and true frosh Dwight Dasher started 7 (1 at RB). Dasher threw for 1,148 (56%) with a 9-3 ratio (led with 530 rush) while Craddock threw for 1,259 (62%) with a 12-5 ratio (122 rush). Craddock won the job in '08 and set an MT rec with 10 gms of 200+ yds pass. Craddock finished #2 in school history (single ssn) with 2,677 (65%, 15-7). Dasher threw for just 156 (39%, 2-3). Last year Dasher beat out rFr Brent Burnette (pocket passer). Dasher completed over 60% just 5 times and 5 times hit 50% or lower but did break Marks' school record for total off with 3,943 yds (#6 FBS) and Marvin Collier's schl record for rush yds in a season by a QB (1st ever MT QB 1,000+, 1154, 5.2). His 23 TD passes broke Mickey Corwin's 1984 schl record (21). Dasher threw for 2,789 (54.9%, 23-14) and was SBC OPW 3x. He was named MVP of the bowl (201 rush, 162 pass, 4 TD's). Dasher was susp the 1Q vs Miss St and Burnette started. Due to the diversity of the offense, 9 diff players att'd a pass. This year they lose Burnette (trans in spg). Not listed below is Spencer Wise (5'11" 193 rFr, PS#301). Dasher could top '09s outstanding stats.

RUNNING BACKS - Eugene Gross led in rushing 4 consec yrs ('03-'06) including a career high 882 (4.4) in '06. In '07, QB Dasher led in rushing (530, 4.4) and Phillip Tanner (1 st) was #3 with 299 (4.7) with 119 (19.8) rec. Desmond Gee (PS#61), who started 7 at WR in '07, had 162 (4.2) and 382 rec (13.2). In '08 HC Rick Stockstill commented on how he loved Tanner's passion, effort and the conviction he runs with and if not for a young O-line he would have easily topped 1,000 (714, 3.8). Gee had 205 (3.2) with 248 (10.3) rec. Last year Gee moved to WR and Stockstill liked all 4 true frosh signees. Tanner was the clear-cut starter but was inj in Wk 2 and RS. DD Kyles is as fast as any MT player when he has the ball in his hands. Stockstill commented that when Kyles was handed the starting job he did not practice as hard but a few weeks later changed those habits and emerged. He had three consecutive 100 yd efforts (incl 177 vs UL) and ended up with 857 (6.2). True frosh Benjamin Cunningham (5'10" 198, PS#316) had his first rec go 50 yds for a TD and was the #2 RB with 173 (3.8) but had just 4 more rec. Gee contributed 87 (2.2) and FB Marquise Branton (5'10" 218 Jr) added 51 (4.6). This year Tanner returns as does Kyles and also contributing are William Pratcher (5'7" 198 rFr, PS#288), Chris Roberts (5'10" 194 So), Charles Jackson (5'9" 204 So), Kennedy McGruder (5'11" 200 So) and FB Wesley Hale (6'0" 228 Jr, PS#204). This unit has added talent and is far deeper than 2009's.

RECEIVERS - In 2008, MT had an extremely young rec corps and true frosh Malcolm Beyah was #2 with 550 (16.7). JC Eldred King had his best games vs SEC tms (246 in 2 gms) and finished #1 with 598 (11.7). The most exp'd returneee, Patrick Honeycutt (328, 11.7 in '07) had 513 (10.1) and Sancho McDonald (PS#114QB), who moved to WR mid-Aug, had 308 (11.8). Last year they unexpectedly lost King and then Beyah was inj'd (8 rec) so basically they had to replace their top 2 WR's. Chris McClover who had 114 (8.1) in '08, led with 541 (15.5). JC Garrett Andrews had 530 (15.1) and Honeycutt was #3 (420, 11.4). Ex-walk-on TE Shane Blissard had 283 (14.9) and McDonald had 255 (10.6). This year they lose Honeycutt (6 st), McClover (10 st) and TE Gene Delle Donne (1 st, 7 rec). Despite the loss of their #1 and #3 guys, this is the most exp'd rec corps here in the last 3Y and they add two JC's (#138 & #165).

OFFENSIVE LINE - The O-line paved the way for 5.3, 5.5 and 4.7 ypc rushing from 2000-'02 but did not top 3.6 in the next 6 yrs. In '08 they had just 39 career starts and the unit was hit hard by injuries (only 7 schl OL at one pt). In the first 5, MT avg just 3.6 ypc. They got better and in the final two avg 5.9 ypc (0 sk) as they had 2 frosh and 2 soph starters. The O-line only opened holes for 107 ypg rush (3.1) but allowed just 15 sks (3.6%). LY their QB rushing totals went from 310 in '08 to 1,176 in '09. Couple that with a much more veteran O-line that had all 5 st'rs back (99 career st, tied #11 FBS) and as expected they improved to 186 ypg rush (4.7) with 19 sks (4.4%). This year they lose 1st Tm SBC C Mark Thompson (12 st, 4Y st'r), LG Jamal Lewis (6 st) and LT Jake Padrick (5 gm). They now have 93 career sts ret (tied #18 FBS) and also add Tennessee transfer Preston Bailey (PS#41).

DT Dwight Smith

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '07, MT had 3 DL st'rs back but surprisingly allowed 4.9 ypc (200 ypg), their worst S/99. DE Tavares Jones was the only DL in the entire NCAA to lead his team in tackles (61, 1st Tm SBC). In '08, Jones and 1st Tm SBC DE Erik Walden (#6DC) departed, but they did have a more exp'd LB corps. Despite being less talented up front, MT allowed just 154 ypg rush (4.1). In '09 they had to replace 2 st'rs again, but this time no 1st Tm SBC DL was lost and improved to 137 ypg (3.5) with 38 sks. This year they lose co-SBC Def POY DE Chris McCoy (13 st, 64 tkl, 7 sk, 13 tfl, #7DC MIA) and 3rd Tm SBC DT Brandon Perry (PS#26, 13 st, 23 tkl, 2 sk) but do have 6 of the top 8 back. Five frosh DL were signed in '09 (1 played) and they were dubbed "The Greenhorns" (Stockstill said best scout tm D he's had). Adding depth are Derrek Upshaw (6'3" 265 rFr) and Dearco Nolan (6'2" 249 rFr). While on par with 2009's exp, they lose arguably their top 2 as Perry required a lot of double teams. DT's Dwight Smith and SaCoby Carter were inj'd in the spring and are ? for the fall so this unit is down a few notches.

LINEBACKERS - Danny Carmichael was #1 tkl'r in '08 (89) and added 11.5 tfl and was the lone ret starter in '09. Their 4 OLB's had zero career starts. Carmichael was called the heart and soul of the D and was #2 tackler (2nd Tm SBC). WLB Cam Robinson earned 1st Tm SBC as #1 tkl'r adding 13 tfl. Their LB coach last year was very high on the 4 true frosh signees of Craig Allen, Roderic Blunt, Justin Jones and Stephen Roberts, 3 of whom RS. This year they lose Carmichael (13 st, 94 tkl, 6.5 sk) and Robinson (13 st, 113 tkl) but return their #8 and #10 tkl'rs (comb 11 sts). With the loss of their top 2 LB's, this unit will be down a few notches even though they match '09 with 1 ret starter. Stockstill says the new starters are faster and more athletic.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - MT usually does well in my PDR. After a #114 finish in '04, they were #57, #67, #46 and #65. Last year they had to replace one starter and I wrapped up my DB write-up by saying that MT would contend for the top secondary honors in the SBC. MT finished #29 in my PDR which was an SBC best. This year they lose 1st Tm SBC CB Alex Suber (57 tkl, 2 int, 12 pbu), CB Marcus Udell (PS#34, 1 st, 23 tkl) and CB Jawan Carson (3 tkl). Not listed below are Sammy Seamster (6'2" 198 So), Stuart Taylor (6'2" 174 Sr), Robert Hogg (5'9" 185 So) and Brian Armstrong (5'10" 181 So). My projected new st'r at CB is Arness Ikner. While they do lose their top cover corner, they ret 1st Tm SBC FS Jeremy Kellem and 2nd Tm SBC SS Kevin Brown and once again have a shot at being the SBC's top secondary.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Stockstill inherited a team that finished #82 in my ST rankings in '05. His first 2 finishes were #62 and #84. It surprised me that in '08 the unit ret'd intact yet dropped to #114. Last year everyone ret'd including career KR leader Gee, who had 41 KR's in '09 (22.2). PR Honeycutt FC's a lot and despite a long of 47, avg just 5.0 (6.2 in '08). K Alan Gendreau (PS#19) hit 18-22 (L/48) and was a Groza semifinalist (1 of 20). Marshall transfer P David DeFatta had a net of 33.5 and 5 TB's on 63 KO. MT only rose to #95. This year they lose DeFatta, KR Gee, PR Honeycutt and LS Adam Wade (2Y) but return their star in Gendreau. FS Kellem has 4 career blk punts (tied Markee Tate schl rec'd). FAU HC Howard Schnellenberger also commented that DT's Gary Tucker and SaCoby Carter helped MT block 3 punts (#2 FBS 8 blk '09). Despite the losses, this unit could improve.

COACHES - Rick Stockstill has been a coach under Lou Holtz, Steve Spurrier, Danny Ford, Ken Hatfield, Tommy West and Tommy Bowden. He was the OC at ECar in '03 and the recruiting coor at SCar from '04-'05. The former Fla St QB has recruited 19 NFL signees over the last 10 yrs. In his first year here ('06) he led MT to its 1st ever D-I bowl and was the SBC COY! Last year he led them to a bowl win (10-3). This year he loses both coor's. The new OC is Mike Schultz who is a 31 yr coaching vet. Schultz was the OC at Illinois in '09 and at TCU in '07 & '08. The new DC is Randall McCray who was a def asst with Wisconsin the last 4 yrs and the DC at Illinois St from 2000-'02.

PHIL'S FORECAST

MT looked like the class of the SBC when it was formed and was favored to win it each of the first two seasons. They were 8-3 in the first year but finished a co-champ. They then surprisingly had 4 straight losing seasons with just 1 winning mark in the SBC ('03) in that span. In '05 they were arguably the most talented SBC team but despite outscoring league foes by an SBC best 7.4 ppg, they ended up 3-4 and had a losing year. MT beat SEC member Vanderbilt (with Jay Cutler), and destroyed eventual league co-champ Ark St 45-7. They trailed Alabama just 9-7 at half and had an 18-8 FD edge vs NCSt. In '06 they were again arguably the best team in the SBC. They were #6 in the preseason SBC poll but I picked them #2. First year HC Stockstill only had 70 scholarship players (FBS 85 limit). They still had the SBC Title wrapped up with a 13 pt lead over Troy and the ball with 3:50 to go but somehow lost. They then suffered a blowout loss to CM in the bowl. In '07 they were exp'd with only 3 first time starters and 18 seniors. They opened 4-1 in SBC play with a shot at the SBC Title. Despite benefitting from +11 in TO's, they had a losing season at 5-7. In 2008 they had just 11 Sr's and 16 Jr's (youngest SBC) and still had only 71 schl players and their OL was banged up. MT had its chances but came up short at 5-7. They were 3-4 in the SBC and were -30.6 ypg, (3rd worst). Last year for the first time Stockstill felt he had a full fledged SBC team as MT had just 11 lett lost. QB Dasher also ret'd to his '07 form. After losing to Clemson in the opener, they caught Memphis on a short week and upset them 31-14. Maryland was bent on revenge but MT got a 19 yd FG on the final play to pull out a 32-31 win. After beating NT they lost to Troy on the road, 31-7. They susp'd Dasher and their starting C for the 1Q vs Miss St and got in a hole they never dug out of to fall to 3-3. After beating WKU they got a fortunate win over FAU (outgained 478-329). They blasted their next 3 SBC opp's, outgaining each by 200+ ypg. At ULM they were outgained 370-306 but won by 19. In the bowl they trailed SM 14-0 but Dasher had a huge 2H and they rolled to a 42-32 win for the most ever wins in school history at 10-3. MT has 14 ret sts and were +93.9 ypg in SBC play (2nd best). They did however have 2 net close wins and benefitted from +12 in TO's. The key game of the season is on Tuesday, Oct 5th when they host Troy. MT has lost 4 straight to the Trojans but are equal to Troy in terms of talent and have a great shot at the Sun Belt Title.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score MT	Final Score Opp	W / L
Sep. 2	Minnesota (Thur)	A					First meeting. This marks the 5th straight yr MT has played host to a BCS school (1-3, beating Maryland in '08). Middle Tenn is 2-6 in home openers but won LY (Memphis).
Sep. 11	Austin Peay	A					MT is 38-12-2 (11 straight wins) vs AP but the L/gm was in 1997. The Governors finished 4-7 LY and haven't played an FBS opponent S/'02 (MT was an OVC member from '52-'98).
Sep. 18	at Memphis	A					MT has won the L/2 gms vs Memphis ('07 & LY) outgaining the Tigers in both by 210+ yds. Stockstill was on the early list for the Tigers vacant HC job but withdrew.
Sep. 25	at Louisiana	A					The Blue Raiders have lost 5 of the last 7 in this series. LY MT was down 17-14 at HT but pulled the 2H shutout holding Louisiana to just 75 yds while recording 5 sks.
Oct. 5	Troy (Tues)	A					MT is 11-6 vs Troy dating back to their 1st meeting in 1936 but have lost 4 straight. LY on nat'l TV Middle Tenn got behind 24-0 as their first 10 poss all ended in punts.
Oct. 9
Oct. 16	at Georgia Tech	G					First meeting. Into 2010, MT is 7-14 vs non-conference opponents. Despite being 1-5 vs BCS teams the last 2 years MT has outgained 3 of them and all 6 collectively.
Oct. 23	ULM (HC)	A					Middle Tennessee is 8-2 vs ULM including 4 straight wins by 10 ppg. MT has been outgained in each of the last 3 (-90 ypg). MT has outsacked ULM 14-4 in the winning streak.
Nov. 2	at Arkansas St (Tues)	A					MT is 9-2 vs ASU but did lose the last trip to Jonesboro as 191 (61%) of their yds came after being down 24-0. Last year MT returned the favor jumping out to a 24-0 lead.
Nov. 6
Nov. 13	North Texas	A					MT has won 4 straight and benefitted from a +13 TO ratio in that span. LY MT was outgained but +5 in TO's led to a 37-21 win. Into 2010, MT has won 7 str SBC HG's
Nov. 20	at WKU	A					MT did trail LY 3-0 before scoring 31 unanswered on their way to ssn high in pts (62) & yds (646). This will be the 60th meeting as Middle Tennessee has gone 10-3 since '81.
Nov. 27	Florida Atlantic	A					LY QB Dasher had a 74 yd game winning TD run and the def stopped FAU on its own 23 for the win. MT has won the last 2 with fourth-quarter comebacks and has won 4 of 5.
Dec. 4	at FIU	A					Visitor has dropped all 5 in this series by 17 ppg. LY's 385 rush yds marked the 4th best in MT history as they led 34-0. FIU scored the next 21 but MT held them scoreless in the 4Q (3 ints, punt & SOD).

TROY TROJANS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In '08 Troy had a 4-man battle for the QB job with 3 soph's (comb 19 gm exp) and a transfer from Richmond, Levi Brown. They were replacing Omar Haugabook (2,975, 61%, 18-15, #2 rush). Soph Jamie Hampton (PS#111) was the most mobile and fit into then-OC Neal Brown's style. Hampton threw for 1,046 (62%, 9-8) in 5 but was inj. Brown edged Tanner Jones (6'1" 208 Sr, PS#99) for the job and threw for 2,030 (62%, 15-3, SBC Newc Yr). Brown set a school record vs NT with 40 comp. He did not have an int in his first 116 att's. Jones tore his ACL. HC Blakeney took the RS off of true frosh Dantavious Parker who played in 4 (3 att). With Brown being a senior, Troy opted to RS both Hampton and Jones to make them another year removed from inj. Parker saw plenty of action in the Wildcat (154 rush) and threw 19 passes. Brown set a school rec for passing yards in a season and broke Sim Byrd's 41 year old record for passing yards in a game (454 in 1968) with 469 vs NT. He then broke his own record with 477 (despite a bruised back) vs FAU and he became the first player in SBC history to top 4,000 (4254, 23-9). He had a streak of 256 passes without an int. This year's QB will not match those stats but then OC Brown said that Hampton got bigger and watched film weekly and keep in mind that he beat out Brown (#7DC BUF) in '07 for the starting job. Not in the PSL are Greg Jenkins (PS#217JC, IFS) and Corey Wilkes (5'10" 183 So). Corey Robinson also had a solid spring.

RB Shawn Southward

RUNNING BACKS - In '07 DuJuan Harris was the #3 rusher (372, 4.5). In '08 he became just the 5th 1,000 yard rusher in school history (1077, 5.1). He had 234 vs UL, just missing the school record (Eddie Brundidge 244 in '84). Last year Harris was expected to be the top RB of the SBC (Doak Walker watch list) but he seemed less focused and less aggressive. He was an expectant father during the year and only finished #2 with 583 (3.9). True frosh Shawn Southward (SBC FPOY) only started 2 but led with 602 with a more impressive 5.5 ypc. Colorado trans Maurice Greer (PS#28) added 246 (7.0). The only loss is Greer. Not listed in the PSL below are TJ Mitchell (5'7" 174 So, PS#391), Cordarell Grider (5'8" 185 Jr) and DJ Taylor (5'11" 226 So, 2 st HB LY). This year both top RB's return and expect Harris to regain his '08 form. They also add in Chris Anderson (5'10" 180 So, PS#83).

RECEIVERS - In '08 Troy lost their #1 and #2 rec. True frosh Jerrel Jernigan (PS#155QB) was #3 in '07 (337, 11.2). Despite missing 1.5 gm Jernigan led with 868 (11.3) and finished as the single season record holder with 77 rec (Danny Grant, 72 in 1968). Last year they had to replace 2 of 4 st'rs. They added Oklahoma transfer Josh Jarboe (PS#23). Jernigan was banged up early (shoulder) and was also double teamed often. He still had the 2nd highest yards in school history with 1,101 (15.5) and added 897 KR yds (23.0). LB Bear Woods called him the best rec in the SBC. Tebiarus Gill (PS#216JC) was #1 after 4 and finished #2 with 581 (12.4). Soph Chip Reeves added 363 (16.5). This year they lose Cornelius Williams (PS#99, 11 st, 341, 17.0 ypc), Andrew Davis (5 st, 156), Zack Marcum (6 st, 324), Patrick Cherry (2 st, 286) and TE Travis Boyd (1 st, 41). OC Brown called Jarboe "raw" LY but said when he's a finished product he will be really good. This unit is more experienced and stronger. Not listed below are Jaquon Robinson (5'11" 185 Jr, AF trans), Simon Collier (6'0" 180 Jr), Garry Williams (6'1" 194 So), Bryan Taylor (6'3" 207 rFr), Breylan Boyd (5'11" 212 Jr, Aub trans), and TE's Matt Stidham (6'3" 233 Jr), Gavin Ellis (6'6" 229 rFr), Donnie Crosby (6'1" 254 Sr) and Tyler Samuels (6'4" 240 Jr).

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '07 Troy had to replace 4 st'rs including 1st & 2nd Tm SBC OL's. In the 2nd year of the spread offense, the numbers actually improved to 183 ypg rush and a Troy IA best 4.7 ypc with just 18 sks (3.5%). That unit benefited by adding 2 JUCO's (IFS) and both started and 4 OL's started all 12. In '08 the entire 2 deep ret'd. After 2007's abnormal increase, a more veteran Troy OL had its rushing number decrease to 168 ypg (4.9) but just 13 sks (tied #4 FBS, 2.5%). Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs and 3 bkps. Projected starting LT Nic Riley missed the season and the unit slipped again (149 ypg, 4.4, 24 sks). This year they lose 1st Tm SBC C Danny Franks (13 st, 3Y st'r), RG Steven Adams (13 st, 2Y st'r) and bkp G Tyrell Curtis (13 gm). With 3 st'rs back (57 car sts). The unit could show improved numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Troy's D-line produced a #2 NFL DC in Osi Umenyiora ('02) and a #1 DC in DeMarcus Ware ('04). In '08 Troy allowed just 140 ypg rush (3.5) with 37 sks. Brandon Lang had 17.5 tfl, breaking Ware's school record and he and DE Cameron Sheffield (5.5 sk) both earned 1st Tm SBC. They added 3 VHT's in Nebraska transfer Kevin Dixon (PS#47JC), PS#31JC Eugene Kinlaw and LSU transfer Sidell Corley (PS#14). Corley joined the team late. Blakeney said it could be as good a D-line as he had coached but surprising to me was they allowed 138 ypg (4.2) while the sks dropped to 33. This year they lose 1st Tm SBC DE Brandon Lang (13 st, 73 tkl, 8.5 sk) and NT Eugend Kinlaw (13 st, 8.5 tfl), 2nd Tm SBC DT Kevin Dixon (13 st, 49 tkl, 4 sk), 2nd Tm SBC DE Sheffield (13 st, 66 tkl, 7 sk, #5DC KC) and NT Rashad Roussell (9 tkl). Corley will have a bigger impact and they bring in some JUCO's but keep your eyes on rFr Antonio Harper (orig Miami, Fl, 3 sk spring gm). While this unit lost 3 players to the NFL (2 FA, 1 DC), it could still the best in the SBC.

LINEBACKERS - Last year Troy had to replace 1st Tm SLB Terrance Moore (#4 tkl'r) but returned the "Killer Bees" in 1st Tm SBC Boris Lee and 2nd Tm SBC Bear Woods (#1,#2 tkl'r). Woods was susp the first 2 and the D was much better when he ret'd. This year they lose Woods (11 st, #1 tkl'r, 19 tfl), Boris Lee (13 st, #2 tkl, 16 tfl) and David McDowell (1 st, #11 tkl'r). Daniel Sheffield (#8 tkl'r) returns. Xavier Lamb did spell Boris Lee at times (#12) and Donnell Golden was #13. You know Troy will have an excellent LB corps but without a pair of 1st Tm SBC LB's, this group is clearly down a few notches.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Troy usually gets a lot of int's and ranks high in my PDR. They had 7 of their top 8 back in '07 including 1st Tm SBC's Leodis McKelvin and Elbert Mack (tied NCAA lead w/8 int's). Troy moved up to #49. They had to replace both CB's in '08 (incl a #1DC) but Trevor Ford (PS#35) started 13 and they added JC CB Jorrick Calvin (2nd Tm SBC). Troy moved up to #10 (18-21 ratio). Last year their lone ret st'r, Calvin, was lost over the summer as was a proj'd starter (1 car st ret). As you would expect, Troy fell to #105 (29-10 ratio). This year they lose FS Chris Bowens (13 st, 62 tkl, 7 pbu) and 1st Tm SBC SS Courtland Fuller (12 st, 61 tkl, 1 int, 6 pbu). Bryan Willis earned my 2nd Tm Frosh AA (13 st). They also add PS#33JC Jimmy Anderson and while they don't resemble the '07 and '08 units, they should have a much improved pass D.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Troy usually does well on ST under HC Blakeney and in '08 they finished #17 (#63 in '07). Last year they lost their star returnman over the summer. K Sam Glusman hit 7-9 (long 45) but was inj'd. KO man Michael Taylor (PS#18) had 16 TB on 83 KO and hit 11-14 FG's (long 46). P Will Goggans had a 36.5 net in '08 and 37.5 in '09. WR Jernigan avg 23.0 on KR. Troy always had an excellent PR game with team avg's of 12.0, 11.1, 16.8 and 11.2 but plummeted to 3.5 in '09 and that dropped Troy to #72. Kanorris Davis (5'11" 215 So) earned SBC ST POW honors vs UNT. Not listed below is LS Wes Henry (6'0" 230 Jr). This year they lose Glusman but almost everyone else is back and should have one of the SBC's top ST units, especially with an HT K.

COACHES - In Larry Blakeney's 19 years here he has guided Troy from Div II to IAA and finally to IA ('01). Troy won 3 Southland Conf Titles in the final 5 years of IAA and in '99 beat Cincy, USF and MT finishing #6 in IAA. In '08 Neal Brown became the youngest OC in the FBS at 27, but left this year for Texas Tech. The new OC is Kenny Edenfield (inside rec's cch here L2Y). DC Jeremy Rowell played QB at Troy from '91-'95. Rowell was the co-DC in '06 and took over the duties by himself in '07. Blakeney is 4th among active coaches in NCAA wins at their current school (153).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Troy went from Div II to IAA to IA in 13 years. The Trojans suffered their first losing season in 5 yrs in '02 as they upgraded their schedule to take on more IA teams. They expanded their stadium to 30,000 and switched to an AstroPlay surface in '03. Despite traveling the most mileage in school history (7,270) and having just 9 sts ret, they managed a 6-6 record. In '04, they had 17 ret st'rs led by an outstanding DL. I called them my #9 Most Improved team. Troy upset Marshall on the road, then beat #19 Missouri at home on ESPN which led to their first IA bowl berth. They were 7-5 but were actually -26.8 ypg in '04 (+11 in TO's). In '05 they had just 7 ret st'rs. The Trojans were picked 2nd in the preseason SBC poll but I did not make a lot of friends in Troy when I pegged them 6th. As I expected, Troy struggled (4-7). In '06, they had 10 ret st'rs (2nd fewest SBC) but benefitted from 4 close wins in SBC play including a miracle vs MT (trailed 20-7 w/3:33 left, winning TD w/:14 left). Troy thumped Rice 41-17 in the bowl. In '07, they had 13 ret st'rs and I called for them to have their best off ppg in the L/7Y and they did, avg 34.0 ppg (best S/'95). Troy had a brutal non-conf schedule (3 ranked SEC tms) but for the 2nd time ever they hosted a BCS school and for the 2nd time, upset a B12 member, Okla St (led 41-10). As expected, Troy rolled through the SBC and earned its first ever votes in the AP poll, though never officially ranked. They only had to beat FAU at home to wrap up the SBC but were upset and failed to even make a bowl (8-4). Troy was +155.7 ypg, almost 100 yards better than FAU, but only claimed a share of the SBC Title. In '08 Troy had 14 st'rs back (lost #1 DC and QB). After 3Q's Troy had FD and yard edges vs Ohio St and led defending National Champ LSU 31-3 in the 3Q but lost both games!! Their only SBC loss came vs ULM when they allowed a TD with :34 left. Troy won another SBC Title but this time lost in OT to SM in the New Orleans Bowl. They did have 3 net close losses (+77.6 ypg best in SBC). Last year they had 84.5% of their offensive yds ret. They led BG 14-0 early but surprisingly lost 31-14. After a 56-6 loss to Florida, Troy had a 551-285 yard edge in their win over CUSA member UAB. They recovered a fumbled punt with 9:58 left setting up a TD for a 30-27 lead vs Ark St and made it stick. Their next 5 were all vs the SBC and they dominated all 5 (avg win 20 ppg). After a 36 pt loss at Ark, they rebounded to beat FAU and Louisiana by 22 ppg. In their bowl they lost in 2OT to CMich to finish 9-4. This year Troy has just 9 ret st'rs (same as '03) but lose their QB. They had just 6 sts lost to injury last season. Their +150.9 ypg was tops in the SBC and they were -6 in TO's. Troy is 26-3 in SBC play with 2 straight conf titles. Despite the large graduation losses they have a solid shot at topping last year's 9 win total and a 3-peat.

Oct. 16	Louisiana	A					Troy is 5-1 vs ULL in SBC play rushing for 200+ yds in each of the L4Y. LY Troy was up 24-0 but trailed into the 4Q. They had 3 str scoring drives & a ST TD to secure a perfect SBC ssn.
Oct. 23
Oct. 30	at ULM	A					The visitor is 0-6 . Troy is 8-3-1 vs ULM but lost their last trip here in '08 as a last play 56 yd FG hit the crossbar. Last year WR Jernigan had 2 career highs (13 rec & 203 yds).
Nov. 6	at North Texas	A					LY Troy led 17-0 after the 1Q and 41-7 early 3Q before pulling its starters vs NT. The only time Troy lost to NT was in '03, they are a perfect 5-0 as SBC opp's outgaining them in every gm (+181 ypg).
Nov. 13	FIU	A					The Trojans are 6-0 vs the Golden Panthers with the avg win by 11 ppg outgaining FIU by 112 ypg. Troy moved up to the FBS in 2002 which was FIU's 1st yr as a FB program.
Nov. 20	at South Carolina	G					Troy has dropped their only 2 meetings vs SC ('04 & '05) being outgained in both by an avg of 136 ypg. Troy is 1-11 vs SEC members pulling a big upset over Miss St in '01 (transition yr from 1AA).
Nov. 27	WKU	A					Troy is 14-5 in reg ssn home finales. LY Troy only led 21-20 at HT (outgained WKU 305-92 in 2H). Fr RB Southward made his 1st start & was the 1st Troy RB in 13 gms to top 100 yds.
Dec. 4	at Florida Atlantic	G					The Trojans are 6-1 vs the Owls and LY QB Levi Brown set a school record with 477 passing yards in the win that secured the 4th straight SBC Championship for Troy.

NORTH TEXAS MEAN GREEN

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In 2007 NT ret'd 3 QB's who combined to avg just 115 ypg (54.4%, 9-19) in '06. I projected true frosh Giovanni Vizza to start. He took over as the starter in Wk 4 and went on to win SBC Frosh of the Year. Vizza threw for 2,388 (58.2%, 17-20). In '08 I thought true frosh Riley Dodge (PS#6, HC's son) had a shot. He ran the same offense in HS and was twice named Texas Gatorade POY. NT had 3 tough games to open and it made sense to start Vizza in those with Dodge seeing time at WR (3 gm) but Dodge was inj and RS. While Vizza increased his yards to 2,758 (62.7%), he still had a negative ratio (15-16). Nathan Tune (6'4") played in 6. Last year they had to replace Vizza and Dodge was the clear-cut starter. There were 2 games in the year (Ohio & FAU) where NT appeared in control and was leading by DD's when Dodge was injured and both times NT lost. Perhaps the HC opted to protect his banged up son by not starting him vs the 2 most ferocious D's they faced in Alabama and Troy as Tune started both. Tune played in 7 and threw for 646 (64.5%, 5-2). Dodge started 10 (1975, 67.7%, 9-15). He threw only 5 passes of 30+ yards but was #2 rusher with 463 (4.5). Due to a bad shoulder Dodge has moved to WR so battling Tune is 6'4" Derek Thompson. They took the RS off Thompson in '09's final game with the top 2 inj'd and in his ONE series he led a 68 yd drive for a TD. This is a less exp'd bunch but could improve on '09's 15-17 ratio. However, neither QB is the running threat that Dodge was and new OC Mike Canales likes mobile QB's.

RUNNING BACKS - The leading returning rusher in '08 was Micah Mosley (6'0" 224, PS#163) who had 1 start as a true (461, 4.9). Cam Montgomery (PS#90JC) RS in '07. Mosley played in just 5 in '08 (102, 4.9) and true frosh Lance Dunbar (PS#178) had 178 (4.6) in just 5. Montgomery led with 928 (5.5). Last year Montgomery opened with 149 vs Ball St but was injured and far from 100%. He had 4 carries or less in each game the rest of the year (265, 4.0). Dunbar bulked up to 202 lbs yet still had the type of speed to outrun defenders. He had some outstanding games like 187 vs Louisiana and 238 vs FAU finishing with 1,378 and an outstanding 6.9 ypc (also #4 rec). In 8 starts, he avg 148 ypg (15 TD's). James Hamilton (PS#104QB) was #3 among RB's with 47 (4.3). This year they lose Montgomery (4 st). Not listed below are Weston Squier (5'8" 154 Jr), Jeremi Mathis (6'1" 215 So, PS#257), Matt Ponce (5'11" 198 So), John Ekwerekwu (5'11" 208 Sr) and Shelton Gandy (5'8" 170 rFr). It could be tough for Dunbar to top last year's numbers but he could be the best RB in the SBC.

RECEIVERS - Last year the Mean Green had to replace their top 3 rec's (comb 1842, 10.1) losing 72% of their '08 rec yds. Their leading returnee was Alex Lott (201, 7.7). They brought in 2 JUCO's and a true frosh who became the top 3 rec's. Jamaal Jackson had 701 (9.9). True frosh Darius Carey had 509 (8.9) and Michael Outlaw had 473 (11.5). BJ Lewis (PS#376) missed the first 2 but finished #5 (265, 12.6) and Lott added 163 (7.4). They lose 5 WR/TE's (comb 1 st, 19 rec). They add Oklahoma transfer Tyler Stradford (PS#124) who RS LY and QB Dodge (PS#6). Not in the PSL are Greg Brown (6'1" 217 Jr), Casey Schutza (5'10" 170 So) and TE Austin Fitzpatrick (6'3" 200 rFr, PS#121). This unit did not have a lot of big plays last year but is vastly more experienced and I look for a big-time improvement in the team's 9.7 ypc.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Due to injuries in 2008 only 1 OL who started in '07 started the full season (began w/3 ret st'rs). In Dodge's 2nd year ('08) they improved to 127 ypg rush (4.1) with 25 sks (39 '07). Last year all 5 st'rs ret'd, but they also added in Tyler Bailey (5 st '08 inj) and the unit had 103 career sts (#8 FBS). I wrapped up the O-line writeup by saying I wouldn't be going out on a limb by calling it Dodge's best O-line and that they were as they paved the way for 185 ypg rush and an impressive 5.3 ypc while allowing just 12 sks (2.9%). This year they lose RG Bailey (12 st, 3Y st'r) and LG Gabe Hollivay (2 st '09, 12 in '08). Not listed in the PSL are Ryan Williams (6'2" 219 rFr) and Jacob Kaiser (6'7" 311 Jr). Their 113 career sts are #4 in the FBS and while stronger, they may not match LY's numbers with a less mobile QB.

OL Kelvin Drake

DEFENSIVE LINE - In Darrell Dickey's final season ('06) he ran a 3-4 D and they allowed just 149 ypg (3.9). In Dodge's first year they moved back to the 4-3 and only had to replace one starter but surprisingly yielded 230 ypg and a ghastly 5.7 ypc (only 14 sks). In '08 they only had 1 starter back and allowed 207 ypg (5.6) with 12 sks. Last year they had just one ret st'r in DE Eddrick Gilmore as 3 players (comb 10 sts) were lost over the summer. They added a couple of 300 lb JUCO DT's in Kelvin Jackson and Shavod Atkinson. They added speed at DE moving in LB Brandon Akpunku and he earned 2nd Tm SBC (6 sks). This year they lose DL Gilmore (8 st, 39 tkl, 3 sk). Not listed below are Joseph Nailor (6'2" 235 Jr) and LaChristopher Anyiam (6'4" 287 rFr). Six return with starting experience making it the most veteran and strongest defensive front of the Dodge era.

LINEBACKERS - In 2008 NT had to replace 3 LB's (93 car sts) including their #2 and #3 tkl'rs. They returned Craig Robertson (#7 tkl) who became the first LB since Brad Kassell (2000) to lead NT in int with 5 (most S/'80). Last year the unit ret'd 5 of the top 6 and added 2nd Tm SBC S Kylie Hill so the 3 man unit had 5 who started 5+ in '08. Tobe Nwigwe (111 tkls '08) was lost after 6 sts but still finished #3 (62 tkl). AJ Penson (12 st '08) started the last 6 at MLB (#6 tkl'r). Robertson led with 107 (#2 '08) and Kylie Hill (#3 tkl'r '08) had 43 in 8 sts in '09 (missed last 3). This year they lose MLB Nwigwe and OLB Kylie Hill. Jeremy Phillips (PS#134QB) had 3 sts and they add in PS#103JC Brad Graham and PS#141JC Forlando Johnson. This unit should maintain better health and continue to improve.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - From 2005-'08 NT finished just #113, #105, #111 and #118 in my pass D rankings. Last year the group had 4 ret sts (only 1 in '08) and the bkps were exp'd. Dodge said, "They're so much more athletic." I called for tremendous strides and NT moved up to #79. CB Antoine Bush (32 car sts) had just 4 tkls in 3 games (inj) and S Robbie Gordon was moved to CB to fill in. This year they lose CB Adryan Adams (12 st, 57 tkl, 6 pbu) and Bush (4 tkl). Four of the top 7 return and they add 4 JUCO's. DaWaylon Cook (PS#86QB) earned my 2nd Tm SBC honors and I look for continued improvement.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Darrell Dickey's final 4 years they finished #5, #66, #85 and #49 in my ST rankings. In Dodge's first year they fell all the way to #118. In '08 everyone ret'd but NT finished #120. They allowed 7 blk'd kicks and ranked dead last in the SBC in most categories. Last year they gave the ST coor duties to 3Y RB cch Shelton Gandy. They only had to replace their P. Jeremy Knott (12-17 FG '08 long 47) hit 10-15 (long 41, had 3 blk) and had 6 TB on 60 KO. Jamaal Jackson (27.2) and Royce Hill (26.3) were impressive on KR but they were -5.5 on avg PR. New P true frosh Will Atterberry (PS#55) who avg 42.4 as a Sr in HS, avg 39.0 (31.1 net). This year they lose Knott but could continue to climb in my ST rankings (#100 in '09).

COACHES - Former HC Darrell Dickey had an amazing 9 year career at NT which included 4 SBC COY Titles, but after B2B losing seasons Todd Dodge took over in '07. Dodge was a QB at Texas and coached Southlake Carroll HS the previous 7 years (98-11 record), winning Texas HS 5A Titles in 4 of his last 5 years. OC Todd Ford resigned this year to become a Texas HS HC. The new OC is Mike Canales who was USF's OC the last 3 years. He also coached Philip Rivers at NCSt as the passing gm coor there. In '08 Dodge brought in DC Gary DeLoach who was a NT asst from 1998-'02 (DC last 3 yr) with a stint at UCLA from '03-'07. NT had the #1 D in the SBC in '01 (356 ypg, 24.4 ppg) and '02 (291, 14.8). LY NT improved by 71 ypg and 12 ppg from '08.

PHIL'S FORECAST

NT has a massive enrollment of over 36,000, making it one of the largest universities in Texas. NT was the dominant team in the SBC with 26 straight conf wins heading into '05 (avg win by 16 ppg) with 4 straight bowls. In '04 NT benefitted from +13 in TO's and was only +15.3 ypg in SBC play, by far the weakest margin in their outstanding run. Out of the 12 preseason mag's and websites monitored by stassen.com in 2005, I was one of only 3 to forecast NT NOT to win the SBC Title which got the attention of some fans in Denton. NT had just 8 ret sts and was -67.3 ypg in SBC play and crashed to a stunning 2-9 record. They were winless at home (1st time S/'82) but their 5 SBC losses were by a comb 21 points. NT had 16 ret st'rs in '06 and had never trailed in SBC play by more than 14 prior to that ssn, but the Mean Green struggled to a 3-9 finish and were -15 in turnovers (-95.3 ypg, last in SBC). NT opted to fire Darrell Dickey and brought in Todd Dodge. Dodge inherited 14 ret st'rs and brought in his new spread offense. Dodge's first edition managed 2 wins (1 by 1 pt) and NT was 1-6 vs the SBC (-30.4 ypg). In '08 Dodge said they would be much more prepared for the speed of the college game. They did have to replace their top 5 tkl'rs and had just 11 ret st'rs. Dodge had to be disappointed in the results. NT opened 0-8 (worst start in program history) and for the first time since 1972 they went a full season without at least 2 wins. It was their first winless conf ssn since 1972 (0-7 Missouri Valley Conf). In their only win, WKU trailed by 5 and was at the NT1 on the last play but NT got a 97 yd IR TD for a misleading 51-40 win. That unit was -17 in TO's and last year NT ret'd 16 sts and naturally was poised for a better season. Things started off great when they beat Ball St (12-2 in '08!) with a 512-309 yard edge. They were beating Ohio but lost QB Dodge to injury and lost in 2 OT despite a 301-232 yard edge. They sat Dodge vs Alabama and had some blown opportunities vs MTSt (470-456 yd edge) and lost by 16. They only took just six seniors to Louisiana and UL got a TD pass with :27 left to pull out a 4 pt win. NT led FAU 19-7 when QB Dodge was injured again and ended up losing by 4. After an expected loss to Troy, they tied a school record with 68 points vs WKU in a 19 point win. After a 27 point loss to ULM they led FIU 28-14 at half and had a 513-258 yard edge but an IR TD and blk'd punt TD led to a 35-28 loss. NT had a 447-287 yard edge vs Army but had 5 TO's and a blocked FG and lost by 4. In the ssn finale they trailed Ark St 27-0 in another 4 pt loss. Naturally signs point upward this year. NT was -14 in TO's, their defensive ypp was 11.6 and they had an amazing 6 net close losses (pg 299). Their 17 ret st'rs are the most in the SBC and despite being 1-7 in SBC play they were only -17.5 ypg (5th best) which was 20.6 ypg better than 4-4 UL. NT makes my list of Most Improved teams which means they should break their streak of 5 straight losing years (10-49) and become bowl eligible.

Sep. 4	at Clemson	G					First meeting. NT is 0-16 all-time vs ranked opp's losing by an avg of 40 ppg. The Mean Green are 2-13 since 1995 (1st yr as a FBS member) in road openers but did win LY.
Sep. 11	Rice	A					This instate series in tied 1-1. Rice won the most recent meeting 77-20 ('08) as N Texas had 6 TO's that resulted in 35 Owl pts. NT's win was in '88 (33-17) as a I-AA program.
Sep. 18	at Army	A					Coming into 2010, the Mean Green are 4-24 vs non-conf opp's. LY vs Army NT did have the ball w/1:43 left but threw an int. In fact, all 5 of their TO's were inside Army territory.
Sep. 25	at Florida Atlantic	G					NT has dropped all 6 meetings (avg score of 31-21). LY NT rallied from a 37-19 deficit to lead 40-37 before losing 44-40. They were SOD at the FAU29 & NT42 the L2 drives.
Oct. 2	Louisiana	A					The home team has dropped 4 of the L/6. Last year the Mean Green blew a 10-pt fourth quarter lead as they allowed the game-winning TD with :27 left on a 58/8pl drive.
Oct. 9	Arkansas St	A					Former Southland & Big West Conf members. NT has dropped the L/5 in this series. LY NT trailed 27-0 and got within 4 but their onside kick w/1:23 was not successful.
Oct. 16	FIU (HC)	A					NT trails 2-3 in the series losing 3 str. The 7OT gm in '06 is tied for the longest game in NCAA history. Last year NT led 28-14 but 3 TO's led to 3 TD's and a 35-28 FIU win.
Oct. 23
Oct. 30	at WKU	A					NT has won all 3 gms vs WKU. LY NT tied a school record for most pts in a single gm (68 pts vs YSU in 1958) and QB Riley Dodge was responsible for 7 TD's (2nd most in NT history).
Nov. 6	Troy	A					North Texas is just 1-6 vs Troy and have been outgained by 288, 209 & 302 yds the L3Y. North Texas & Troy have either won or shared the SBC crown in 8 of its 9 years in existence.
Nov. 13	at Middle Tennessee	A					The Mean Green won the 1st 5 but have dropped 4 straight to the Blue Raiders by 28 ppg. LY North Texas was -5 in TO's (17 MT pts) allowing MT to jump out to a 30-7 HT lead.
Nov. 20	at ULM	A					North Texas is 1-4 overall vs ULM and 1-6 at Monroe. Last time here North Texas had a 31-16 FD & a 463-461 yardage edge but fell behind 28-0 in the 2Q and lost by 12.
Nov. 27	Kansas St	A					This will mark the final game at the 58-year old Fouts Field. NT is 1-4 vs KSU (4 str losses). In the L/3 gms ('00,'05 & '08) NT has been outgained by 367 ypg w/the avg score 51-8.

FLORIDA ATLANTIC OWLS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Mich St transfer Sean Clayton started the first 8 in '06 throwing for 926 (51%, 5-6). RFr Rusty Smith took over and threw for 1,285 (56%, 6-8). Smith won the job in '07 and HC Schnellenberger compared him to Bernie Kosar at the start of the year. Smith threw for 463 and 5 TD's vs Minn. For the season, Smith set the SBC record throwing for 3,688 (59%) with an outstanding 32-9 ratio (5 TD's in bowl). Clayton played in 6 (16 att) while Jeff Van Camp played in 3 (5 att). In '08 Smith was thought of as a potential high DC but several factors led to a miserable start. In the opener he separated his left shoulder, many long TD passes were dropped and TE Jason Harmon was OFY (inj). Smith had a stronger 2H once healthier, including 306 in the bowl (MVP) as he threw for 3,224 (54%, 24-14). Van Camp played in 4 (8-20-55). Last year Smith threw for 274 ypg (57%) with a 14-5 ratio but was lost vs MTenn. Van Camp started the final 5 and threw for 1,372 (59%) with a 12-2 ratio. Van Camp has size similar to Smith at 6'5" 210 and is backed by David Kooi (PS#128), who played in 3 (6 att), Graham Wilbert (6'6" 225 So, PS#140) and this year's true frosh. Smith is the Owls' career passing leader and FAU's 1st player to be drafted (#6DC TEN) but Van Camp might be able to match 2009's strong team passing numbers.

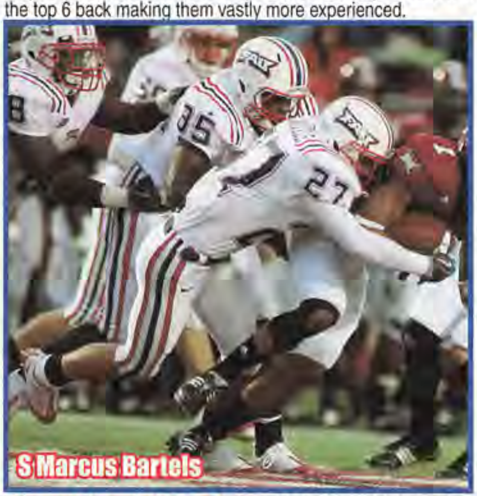
RUNNING BACKS - In '05, FAU had to replace its "all-time career leading rusher" and rFr Charles Pierre led with 517 (3.6) and 756 (3.7) in '06. In '07 he led again with 782 (4.6) but did not have a 100 yard effort (3 in '06). The #2 rusher was FB Willie Rose (333, 5.3). In '08 Pierre got 77 in the bowl to become FAU's first ever 1,000 yard rusher (1,014) and had a super 6.3 ypc. Rose added 308 (4.9). Last year Jeff Blanchard (57, 2.8 in '08) was expected to be the TB but tore his ACL. Alfred Morris (bkp FB) moved to TB and rushed for 131 in the spring game. In Aug, Schnellenberger said that he was the most complete RB they've had here and those words proved prophetic. Morris had 95 vs Neb (4th best mark vs NU in '09) and was by far the team's MVP rushing for 1,392 (5.3). FB Rose added 307 (5.0) and was the #6 rec (302, 10.4). RFr Xavier Stinson (PS#46) added 94 (3.1). Jeff Blanchard (5'9" 195 Sr) returns and not listed below are Mike Barasch (5'9" 200 So, PS#348), rFr Damian Fortner (5'10" 171), Tyrie Allen (5'9" 185), Travis Jones (5'10" 175) and FB Gregory Fashaw. This unit is much more exp'd but they do lose Rose (3 yr st'r). It will be interesting to see if Morris can match his numbers without the outstanding blocking of Rose and a young O-line in front of him.

RECEIVERS - I really liked the 2007 rec corps here but '08 was disappointing with dropped passes. Cortez "Snoop" Gent's numbers went from 1,082 (16.9) in '07 to 935 (15.6) in '08. Last year the unit ret'd intact plus they got solid TE Jason Harmon back (miss '08). Gent was susp'd the first 2 and saw his numbers drop to 395 (12.7). Chris Bonner (#4 in '08) had B2B 134 yd gms but finished with just 571 (17.8). Lester Jean was the top WR late in the year (501, 13.2). Harmon led with 649 (13.5) and his backup Jamari Grant had 304 (11.3). They were able to RS TE Rob Housler (3 st, 519, 16.2 in '08). This year they lose Harmon (7 st, 1st Tm SBC), Grant (5 st), Gent (2 st) and Bonner (11 st). Not in the PSL are TE's James Oboh (6'4" 210 rFr), Alex Fick (6'3" 200 Jr) and WR Alain Beauzil (6'0" 185 Jr). This group is much less exp'd than 2009.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 FAU had to replace a 2nd Tm SBC LG but had 101 career starts returning. Two ret 2nd Tm SBC players missed a comb 10 sts but they set "school records" with 139 ypg rush (4.3) while allowing just 16 sks (3.5%) despite not having a mobile QB (Smith -82 yds rush). Last year they had to replace 3 multiple year starters but returned 3 that started 8+ in '08 (52 car st back). They were Schnellenberger's biggest OL yet averaging 312 lbs and all 5 starters started all 12. The rush ypg number improved again to 152 (4.2) with 21 sks (4.7%). This year the losses are heavy. Gone are 2nd Tm SBC LG David Matlock (3Y st'r), RG Kevin Miller (2Y st'r), LT Lavoris Williams (2Y st'r), C Ryan Wischnefski (12 st) and RT Carl Spitale (12 st). This unit has ZERO career starts returning, is much smaller, is the least exp'd O-line in the country and of course is my biggest concern on this year's team.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 FAU basically had one returning starter but he earned 1st Tm SBC. While the team had just 13 sacks, they allowed only 4.4 ypc (179 ypg rush) which was actually their best number in 4 years. Last year they had to replace 3 st'rs so they were very inexp. As you would expect with the LB's also wiped out by graduation, FAU's rush D yielded 221 ypg and 6.1 ypc, both worst in school history. The D had just 12 sks. This year they lose 3rd Tm SBC DT Josh Savidge (12 st, 17 tkl, 1.5 sk) and Andy Czuprynski moves to the OL but they have 6 of the top 8 back and figure to be one of the most improved D-lines in the country.

LINEBACKERS - Last year LB was my biggest concern on the D as they had to replace their #1, #4 and #5 tkl'rs and the leading returnee was #9. David Hinds became the Owls' first true frosh starter on D since 2005 when he replaced Michael Lockley late in the year. Although Lockley was slowed by an illness, he was #1 tkl'r at the time (finished #2). Lockley has a 42" VL and only 3 players were higher at the '09 NFL combine. Malik Eugene also lost his spot for the final game to Yourhighness Morgan. This year they lose WLB Edward Bradwell (12 st, #3 tkl'r, 5 tfl) but have 5 of the top 6 back making them vastly more experienced.



S Marcus Bartels

DEFENSIVE BACKS - From 2005-'08 the Owls finished #51, #53, #80 and #87 in my pass D rankings. Last year they had to replace a pair of 1st Tm SBC st'rs but ret'd 2 st'rs plus Tavious Polo who had 13 sts and 7 int in '07 but lost his job in '08. They lost CB Tarvoris Hill after 8 sts and the unit dropped down to #115 allowing 67.4% with a 17-5 ratio. Not in the PSL are Treon Howard (5'10" 150 rFr), Terrell Bradley (5'10" 185 rFr), Brian Sirmans (6'1" 160 rFr), David Haugabrook (6'0" 190 rFr) and David Terrell (5'10" 195 Jr). This year they only lose CB Erick McIntosh (5 st, 53 tkl, 3 pbu) but have all 4 full-time starters back (7 w/st exp) and that should key a much improved pass D.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Owls were #33 in my ST rankings in '04 but plummeted to #117, #104, #105, #108 and #114 the last 5 yrs. Last year Ross Gornall hit 8-12 FG's (long 42) but did have 1 miss from 50. He hit a 62 yd FG in an Aug scrimmage. Four of Gornall's misses were blocks. Speaking of blocks, P Mickey Groody avg 40.6 (net 34.4) and they allowed just 61 yards in PR but allowed 3 blocks. Gornall had 8 TB on 61 KO. They were at a deficit at both KR and PR. This year they only lose Keegan Peterson who punted in '07 and '08 (3 punts '09). I am not exactly going out on a limb here by saying that FAU will have its best ST finish in 6 years.

COACHES - Howard Schnellenberger enters his 12th year with the program and 10th on the football field. He, of course, owns a IA National Title ('83) from his years at Miami, Fl when he took a struggling team and built them into a perennial national powerhouse. Schnellenberger was the HC at Miami from 1979-1983 and at L'ville from 1985-'94, helping that program become an annual bowl contender. OC Gary Nord moved on to Purdue prior to last year and Darryl Jackson was elevated to OC (WR cch L2Y). DC Kirk Hoza (9 yr) was let go and the new DC is Kurt Van Valkenburgh who has been on the staff as an asst since 1998. Van Valkenburgh has been to 5 bowls as a cch and has had stints at Purdue, Okla, L'ville, Maryland and Vandy. Schnellenberger is a perfect 6-0 as a HC in bowl games.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Florida Atlantic did not play its first true football game until 2001. Howard Schnellenberger did a remarkable job in 2003 guiding the team to an 11-3 (9-2 reg ssn) finish, beating a pair of ranked IAA teams and SBC member MT all on the road. They were the youngest startup program to make the IAA playoffs falling one game short of the title game (#4). In 2004 FAU moved to IA and had 19 st'rs back. They opened with five consecutive road wins including 3 upsets (Hawaii, NT and MT) with 2 of those squads going on to bowl games and finished 9-3. The '05 season was the first year they had to replace a senior class (just 6 ret st'rs). I pegged FAU 7th in the SBC and they finished 2-9 (T-7th). In '06 FAU had 15 st'rs back but had 4 consec road games vs BCS teams. While they lost all 4 by a combined 192-20, Schnellenberger said the schedule toughened the team up for SBC play and he was proven correct as the Owls won 5 of their last 8. In '07 the Owls were surprisingly picked for 6th in the SBC (cch) but I pegged them 2nd. They had 16 back who had started 20+ career games. FAU upset Troy and amazingly in their 4th year of IA ball, won a conf title, then spanked Memphis 44-27 in the bowl. The '08 squad had just 15 seniors (27 Jr, 22 So and 53 Fr) but they were the clear preseason SBC favorites. I pegged them there myself but I was troubled by the fact that they had benefitted from +18 in TO's and 3 net close wins in '07. QB Rusty Smith (inj) was not 100% until late in the year and FAU struggled in the 1H going 1-5. They made two 14 point comebacks in the season finale vs FIU and won in OT to get to 6-6 getting a Motor City Bowl invite. They upset CMich for a winning season. Last year FAU had just 11 ret sts but were -9 in TO's and tied for #4 in the FBS for starts lost to injury in '08. They did have to replace their top 6 tacklers and QB Smith was injured again. After opening against a couple of BCS bowl teams on the road, FAU was upset at home by ULM 27-25. They led Wyoming 28-24 but gave up a TD with 4:29 left and lost. They trailed NTexas 13-0 but QB Riley Dodge was inj'd in the 2Q and FAU rallied for a 44-40 win. They destroyed Louisiana with a school record 624 yards on offense in their 51-29 romp. Tied with MT 20-20, Dwight Dasher ran 74 yds for a MT TD. FAU had a FD on 4th & 4 ruled OOB and despite a 478-329 yard edge they had 2 punts and a FG blocked and lost, 27-20 in the key game of the season. Smith was injured with 5:00 left and missed the rest of the year. In Van Camp's first start they were thrashed by UAB 56-29. FAU bounced back with a 35-18 win over Ark St but in a game that eliminated them from bowl contention, Troy QB Levi Brown threw for a school record 477 yards in a 47-21 loss. FAU rebounded to beat WKU and FIU to finish 5-7. FAU was +38.4 ypg (4th best) in SBC play and tied for 3rd at 5-3. The Owls return just 11 starters and the only question on this 2010 squad is a rebuilt O-line that loses all 5 st'rs. They also have only FOUR home games and play 3 BCS teams away from home. This is still a talented team that can make some noise in the Sun Belt.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score FAU	Opp	W L
Sep. 4	at UAB	A					The visitor is 0-2 the L2Y being outgained by 127 ypg. In QB VanCamp's 1st start LY FAU never led as they got behind 14-0 all'g 622 yds. FAU has dropped 5 str rd openers (all vs BCS).
Sep. 11	† Michigan St (Detroit)	A					In only meeting in '08 FAU lost 17-0 being outFD'd 18-9 & outgained 347-225 in a steady rain. This will be played at Ford Field (home to NFL's Lions). FAU is 1-3 vs the Big Ten beating Minn in '07.
Sep. 18							NOTE: FAU moved the Sept 11th gm for attendance purposes. BONUS: FAU is 3-7 in home openers, but has won 3 of the last 4.
Sep. 25	North Texas	G					Last time here FAU outgained NT by a series high 252 yds. LY FAU outscored NT 30-6 in the 2Q and led 30-19 at HT but needed a 71/7 pl TD drive with 4:55 left for the win.
Oct. 2	at USF	G					FAU is 0-2 vs USF (was 1st FBS opp in '02). Last meeting ('07) FAU trailed just 28-23 in the 4Q but couldn't put a gm winning drive together vs #6 USF (1st time playing top 10 tm).
Oct. 9	at ULM	A					LY the Owls trailed 27-18 early 4Q. They went 81/11pl to cut the deficit to 2 w/3:05 left. They got the ball back with 2:00 left but ran out of time near midfield after 5 FD's.
Oct. 16
Oct. 23	at Arkansas St	A					LY FAU trailed 9-7 at HT but the 2H was a diff story as they scored TD's on all 4 poss. QB Jeff VanCamp had 242 yds (67%) w/a 3-0 ratio LY in place of the inj'd Rusty Smith.
Oct. 30	FIU (HC)	G					FAU has now won 4 straight and 7 of 8. The last 2 games have been decided by a TD after 22 & 31 point wins. First time these rivals haven't met in the final 2 games of the ssn.
Nov. 6	at WKU	A					The Owls are 2-0 vs the Hilltoppers (1st gm in '08) outgaining WKU in each (+71 ypg). Coming into 2010, Florida Atlantic is 15-9 visiting current SBC members (6-3 L3Y).
Nov. 13	Louisiana	G					The L3Y these tms have combined to score 71, 69 & 80 pts. LY FAU never trailed as they had a school record 624 yds vs Louisiana scoring on 6 of its L/7 poss, ending w/17 unanswered pts.
Nov. 20	at Texas	A					FAU lost 52-10 vs #11 Texas in '08 (only meeting), outgained by 211 yds. FAU is 0-7 vs ranked tms w/a avg loss of 51-13. Into 2010, FAU is 0-16 in non-conf AG's since starting play in the SBC ('05).
Nov. 27	at Middle Tennessee	A					FAU is 1-4 vs Middle Tennessee and last year lost a 20-13 4Q lead losing by 7 pts. The Owls have actually outgained the Blue Raiders in each of the L/4 by 103 ypg.
Dec. 4	Troy	G					LY FAU allowed a school record 651 yards vs Troy and in FBS meetings have been outgained in each (6) by 82 ypg. The Owls are 8-1 in reg season home finales (3 straight wins).

ARKANSAS ST RED WOLVES

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In '06 rFr Corey Leonard (PS#90) took over the starting job in Wk 5 and threw for 1,321 (49%, 8-8) with 331 rush. Leonard threw for 2,235 (52%, 16-15) in '07 and was the #2 rusher (547, 3.2). He then started all 12 in '08 throwing for 2,347 (54%, 16-8) and was the #3 rusher (516, 3.3). Last year Leonard was co-preseason SBC OPOY. His 3 year backup departed elevating rFr Ryan Aplin. True frosh Phillip Butterfield (PS#50) was lost in Aug (knee) as was Neely Sullivent (6'0" 193 Jr). Leonard's season did not go as expected. He had 120 rush vs FIU but was benched twice early. Each time he was benched, he rebounded with strong performances. Against Louisiana the offense had just 101 yds in 3Q's and Aplin entered late 3Q and led two 4Q TD drives. Leonard did not get a single snap vs FAU. He came off the bench vs MTSt but tore his ACL in the 3Q. Leonard departs as the school's all-time leader in total offense. Aplin threw for 889 (65.3%) but with a 3-6 ratio (#2 rusher w/253). Aplin missed spring (shoulder surg) but Butterfield looked solid grasping the new no-huddle offense. Not listed below is Seth Tripod (6'2" 198 rFr). While this unit is far less exp'd they should improve upon their 10-12 ratio of 2009.

RUNNING BACKS - In '06 rFr Reggie Arnold (PS#161, 440 bench) led with 1,076 (5.1). In '07 he was banged up but still had 1,060 (6.5). In '08 Arnold surpassed 1,000 again with 1,074 (5.5). With the top 2 bkps injured, rFr Derek Lawson was #2 with 695 and an impressive 7.2 ypc. Lawson was actually the #1 rusher after 6 with 551 (Arnold 490). Last year it appeared obvious that Arnold would depart as the school's career leading rusher but he went from 197 att to 168 and finished with 723 (4.3) and came up 14 yds short of Richie Woit (3,947 from 1950-'53). HC Roberts was very high on rFr Don Jones (speed) but costly fumbles vs Troy and Iowa limited his PT (149, tm high 6.2 ypc). Lawson was #2RB with 244 (4.4). This year they must replace Arnold (11 st) and Jones. Not listed in the PSL is James Walker (5'10" 190 rFr, PS#281LB). Last year's 135 ypg rushing was their lowest since 2000 (128, 4.2) so despite losing Arnold, this unit has a shot at improving statistically especially with a stronger O-line.

RECEIVERS - In 2008 the Red Wolves had to replace their top WR (701, 11.5) and the top returnee was Brandon Thompkins who was #2 with 503 (12.3). They added JUCO Jahbari McLennan who finished #2 with 451 (14.1) while Thompkins led with 511 (16.0). Roberts (concerned about WR height) added two 6'4" true frosh who both RS in '08. Last year they returned 3 of their top 4. Thompkins led again with 598 (12.7) but McLennan dropped to 168 (9.9). Taylor Clements (PS#195JC) was #2 (363, 13.0) and TE Trevor Gillott was #4 (283, 11.8). Taylor Stockemer was #3 with 347 (21.7!). Blocking TE JT Jordan (274 lbs, 1 rec) missed 6. This year they lose Thompkins (9 st), Clements (8 st), McLennan (6 st), Jordan (4 st) and Gillott (3 st). They lose 4 of their top 5 but could actually put up equal numbers.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Steve Roberts has pulled some magic on the O-line twice. In '05 the tm had just 1 ret st'r yet put up the best stats of the decade (at that time) with 193 ypg rush (4.8, 31 sk). In '08 Roberts had to replace 4 st'rs but topped '05's total with 203 ypg rush (5.0) with 29 sks (9.4%). Last year it appeared 2 st'rs ret'd but Dominic Padrta (10 st '08) was lost in the opener then C Tom Castilaw (6'3" 297) was lost after 4 sts. That left the OL with only 9 car sts into the ssn (would have been last in FBS). The inexp'd OL performed as expected. The rushing numbers dropped to 135 ypg (3.8) with 31 sks (9.4%). This year they only lose C Brian Evans (1 st). They may get Padrta back and return 9 others who started in their inj plagued '09 season. This should be one of the most improved O-lines in the country.

OG Drew Hilton

DEFENSIVE LINE - DL coach Kevin Peoples had 2 DL's in the NFL last year and has 7 All-SBC players (1st, 2nd or HM) that have been honored 11 times in his 7 year tenure. ASU has been very true to form as when they have an exp'd D-line their rush D and sack totals improve and when inexp, the numbers go down. Last year they had an exp'd front for the 4th straight year and for a 4th straight year improved their ypc. That '09 version only had to replace one starter and had back their star, DE Alex Carrington (1st Tm SBC) and 2 solid DT's including 2nd Tm SBC Bryan Hall. They allowed just 122 ypg (best S/'94) and 3.5 ypc (21 sks). This year they lose 1st Tm SBC DE Carrington (41 tkl, 9 sk, 5.5 tfl, #3DC BUF), DE Stanley Wakwe (11 st, 29 tkl, 2 tfl) and DT Khari Mays (12 st, 25 tkl, 2 tfl). Not in the PSL are Tim Pruitt (6'2" 228 rFr) and Darius Dunaway (6'5" 220 rFr). Hall returns and I know Peoples will fashion a solid DL but the rush D numbers will get weaker in 2010 with this much less experienced line.

LINEBACKERS - In '08 & '09 ASU had to replace their top tkl'r but had 5 of their top 6 back in '09. After returning their #3 and #7 tkl'rs in '08, they had their #5, #11 and #13 back LY. Daruis Glover (12 st '08) was lost in the opener. This year they lose Greg Hardy (10 st, #10 tkl'r). They return their #1 tkl'r, Demario Davis who was just a soph in '09, Javon McKinnon (25 car st, #4 tkl'r), Glover (#5 tkl'r '08) plus 2 others who drew a start LY including Nathan Herrold (#8 tkl'r). This is a much more exp'd LB corps.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - ASU had its 2 highest finishes in my pass D rankings under Roberts in '06 (#68) and in '07 with 4 senior starters (#60). SS Tyrell Johnson was SBC DPOY. In '08 they had to replace all 4 st'rs and shockingly they allowed a 14-15 ratio vs a tough slate of opp QB's and actually finished #14 in my PDR! Last year they had to replace one starter then lost FS Evan Van Dolah in the opener (12 st '08) so they had 2 st'rs back. They also lost 2 JUCO CB's over the summer. They were more exp'd but could not match the production (#89, 19-8 ratio) of '08. This year they lose 3rd Tm SBC CB Daylan Walker (12 st, 51 tkl, 1 int, 7 pbu), CB Cordarious Mingo (10 st, 43 tkl, 1 pbu), NB Marcus Brown (5 st, 50 tkl, 5 pbu), CB Greg Smith (2 st, 19 tkl) and FS Van Dolah. Not in the PSL are Jonathan Victorian (6'0" 176 Jr), Isaiah Shepard (5'11" 214 Sr) and Cole Lorigan (5'10" 161 So). They add PS#93JC Darron Edwards and despite being equal to '09 in exp, I look for them to move up in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Steve Roberts coaches this unit himself and in his first 7 yrs they finished #85, #105, #50, #64, #103, #64 and #78. Last year they had to replace their P, KR and PR. K Josh Arauco hit 14-17 FG's (only 1 att 40+). He leaves as the SBC all-time leader in FG's made (58) and points by a K (288). Ryan Wilbourn (PS#86) had 5 TB on 49 KO and also had 2 long FG att (made 49). He also avg a solid 42.3 (net 36.8) on punts. The Red Wolves' #40 finish was the highest yet under Roberts. This year they lose their K, P, KR and PR and will clearly drop in my rankings.

COACHES - Steve Roberts enters his 9th yr here after being the HC at N'western St (LA) in 2000-'01 (14-9). He was the HC at Sthrn Ark ('94-'99) going 26-5 over his final 3 yrs. Roberts has the 5th most victories among ASU's 26 all-time HC's with 41 (Larry Lacewell #1 has 69 from '79-'89). Roberts has a contract which runs through 2011 and was named SBC COY in '05. After a disappointing 4-8 season in '09, Roberts is on the hotseat and was forced to let go of his OC Doug Ruse (8 yrs). They hired Clay Helton as OC this yr but he then left for USC so the new OC is Hugh Freeze who was the AFCA Southeast COY in '09 leading Lambuth to a 12-1 record in NAIA (#6). He was an ass't with Ole Miss ('05-'07) and was 99-23 as a HS coach ('95-'04). DC Kevin Corless took over the post in '09 (was co-DC '08) and has been on the staff here since 2002.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Since 1995, ASU has had 7 seasons of 5+ wins and Steve Roberts is responsible for 6 of them. In '04 ASU led the SBC in lett lost (26) and faced three Top 25 foes and finished 3-4 in SBC play (-52.1 ypg). In '05 I gave ASU a shot at a winning ssn and they won the SBC getting to their first ever bowl gm. At times they started up to 6 frosh on def in '04 and allowed nearly 8 ppg less in '05. They won 2 in which they scored under 10 pts, the first time that had occurred since 1949. ASU had its first undefeated home record in Jonesboro since 1986 and ended the streak of 9 straight losing seasons (6-6). They did however benefit from 4 close wins in SBC play. In '06 they had to replace their QB and top two RB's (13 st'rs ret). Expectations were raised and their 5-2 start was the best since '87. They had 4 of their last 5 on the road (5,000+ miles travel) and won just 1 more as their 3 conf losses were by an avg of 24 ppg. ASU was an SBC best +50 ypg (4-3) and Roberts noted at the end of '06 that their 6-6 record with 8 road gms and no FCS foes was a "heck of a year" despite fan disappointment. In '07 they had 13 st'rs back (QB, top 3 rushers, 3 of their top 4 rec's and top 3 tkl'rs). They went 5-1 at home with a 3 yr record of 13-3. In '08 they changed their name to the Red Wolves and had a league low 11 ret st'rs with just 5 HG's. They actually upset TX A&M in the opener in College Station (415-303 yds) then won 83-10 vs Tx Sthrn setting 10 diff school records. In the finale with a shot at sharing the SBC Title, they were only outgained 337-332 vs Troy but lost by 26. They were +9 in TO's and amazingly had just 1 st lost all yr to inj. Expectations were high for Ark St prior to '09 and they routed MVSt (61-0). After an expected loss to Nebraska, ASU had a game they pointed to and that was their home battle vs Troy, (#1 vs #2 in the preseason SBC). ASU jumped out to a 10-0 lead and led 27-23 in the 4Q but were outgained 507-305 and Troy got an 8 yd TD pass with 7:53 left to go. Ark St caught Iowa the wk after their big win at Penn St and while they trailed 21-7, they only lost by 3. It was a rainy Tuesday night at ULM that they trailed 16-0 and lost by 6. They handled FIU 27-10 (430-223). Louisville started 5'10" walk-on QB Will Stein and ASU lost 21-13 on the road (outgained 408-348). Ryan Aplin led ASU to 15 4Q pts (trailed 21-3) in a 3 pt loss vs Louisiana. FAU was without QB Rusty Smith and still beat Ark St. They were blasted by MT by 24 but the next wk led NT 27-0 after 5 poss needing to hang on for a 30-26 win. In WKU HC David Elson's final game, ASU trailed 20-3 late 3Q, but thanks to a FR TD they won 24-20. It was a disappointing 3-5 SBC record (-20.4 ypg, 6th best). This yr the Red Wolves have just 11 ret st'rs but had 2 net close losses last yr, 37 sts lost to inj and were -5 in TO's. Roberts is on the hotseat. ASU figures to be under the radar this yr but will be dangerous after underachieving in '09. They have 5 rd gms in the first 7 but will have a stronger 2H of the yr. They have my #3 O-line and #4 D-line in the SBC and the last 2 times Roberts had 11 ret st'rs, they finished bowl eligible.

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score ASU	Final Score Opp	W / L
Sep. 4	at Auburn	G					Arkansas St lost 27-0 in 2006 vs Auburn (only prior meeting) being outgained 399-177. ASU is 1-17 in road openers S/'92 (1st yr at FBS level, only win was at Texas A&M in '08).
Sep. 11	at Louisiana	A					Including LY, 9 of the last 11 games in this series have been decided by 6 points or less. ASU is 5-14 since 1989 vs Louisiana incl 7 straight losses at Lafayette (L/win in '92).
Sep. 18	ULM	A					ULM & UL are 2 of ASU's top played rivalries. ASU has won 5 straight home openers. LY ASU trailed 16-0 at half and on the final drive got to the ULM20 but was SOD.
Sep. 25	at Troy	A					LY ASU was down 23-10 in the 2H before taking the lead 27-23. They allowed a 25/5pl TD drive after a costly fumbled PR and Troy ran all 5:52 off the clock on the final drive.
Oct. 2	Louisville (HC)	A					ASU has won 7 straight HC's. LY was the schools 1st meeting. ASU was down 21-3 but got within 8 and took over w/2:42 left getting to the UL8 but its 4D pass fell inc in the EZ.
Oct. 9	at North Texas	A					ASU dropped the 1st 4 SBC gms being outgained by 170 ypg but have won & outgained NT in each of the L/5 by 127 ypg. LY QB Aplin set a school Fr record w/362 yds of ttl offense.
Oct. 16	at Indiana	A					First meeting. ASU is 0-5 all-time vs current Big Ten foes including a narrow loss to #13 Iowa LY. Into 2010, ASU is 2-28 in non-conf games away from home since SBC play started in '01.
Oct. 23	Florida Atlantic	A					Home tm is a perfect 5-0 in this series and has outgained the visitor in each by 156 ypg. LY QB Aplin made his 1st career start vs FAU going 20-27-74%-168-1-0 w/82 rush yds.
Nov. 2	Middle Tenn (Tues)	A					Home team is 7-2 in SBC matchups. Incl LY, ASU has been outgained in 8 of those 9 conf meetings by 143 ypg. Into 2010, ASU is 8-3 in SBC HG's (2-2 LY but avg loss by just 3 ppg).
Nov. 6
Nov. 13	WKU	A					ASU is 4-1 in home finales. ASU is 2-1-1 vs WKU but LY was the 1st meeting S/'52. LY ASU trailed 20-10 heading into the 4Q but held WKU to just six 4Q yds in the comeback.
Nov. 20	at Navy	A					First meeting and 3rd vs a service academy. The Red Wolves beat Army in '06, 14-6 (+155 yd edge) but lost to the Black Knights 38-10 in '05 being outgained by 87 yds.
Nov. 27	at FIU	A					ASU is 4-1 vs FIU but did drop their last trip to Miami, as they led 21-15 in the 4Q w/2:04 left but allowed a big PR and a 38 yd TD pass on the next play (int'd on the final drive).

LOUISIANA'S RAGIN' CAJUNS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In 2007 the Cajuns had to replace 4 year starter Jerry Babb (#2 career passer). Michael Desormeaux had 4 sts in '05 and was 2nd Tm SBC all-purp in '06 playing on off, def and ST. In '07 Desormeaux started and was the #1 rusher with 1,141 (6.1), while throwing for 1,405 (55%, 10-10). In '08 Desormeaux guided the team to 529 total ypg in the first 6 but was injured vs NT. Brad McGuire led the win over Ark St. He played in 8 and threw for 67% (2-2) but had only 30 att. Chris Masson hit 6 of 9 for 72. Desormeaux topped 1,000 rushing again (1035, 7.2) in '08 and threw for 1,876 (63%, 13-11). Last year the group was lightly exp'd (39 car pass att). McGuire was more mobile and had the stronger arm but Masson was the more polished passer. Masson won a tight battle in Aug and brought the pass back to the attack throwing for 2,406 (59.5%, 10-8). His 222 comp were 2 short of the school record (Jon Van Cleave '01). Masson missed the 2H vs Neb and Troy. McGuire was brought in mostly to run (197, 3.7) and vs WKU had 7 FD's on 11 rushes. RFr Blaine Gautier (PS#161) saw spot duty when McGuire was injured and guided a TD vs Troy. He hit 9-17 for 119 (24 rush). Brady Thomas (6'2" 180 So, PS#325) DNP. This unit is vastly more exp'd than '09 even with McGuire moving to FB.

RUNNING BACKS - Prior to 2005, the Ragin' Cajuns had NEVER produced a 1,000 yard RB (QB Brian Mitchell was the only player to top 1,000 rush, '89). In '05 UL lost its starting RB Charles Johnson to injury and true frosh Tyrell Fenroy started the last 10 and rushed for 1,053 (5.9). Fenroy went on to become just the 8th RB in NCAA history to top 1,000 in 4 straight years. Fenroy did not have a clear backup in '08. True frosh Yobes Walker (recruited by Bama) was impressive in Aug and made the travel squad but RS. JUCO Undrea Sails rushed for 77 (4.1) in 6 games (inj). Fenroy left as the school's career leading rusher and in '08 had 1,375 (6.1). Last year Sails was the clear-cut starter and in six starts had 432 (4.5) but was lost vs WKU. Walker had 94 vs WKU and then in his first career start vs FAU had 105 (5.0). It was the most yards rushing in a game by a rFr RB here since 1991 (Steve Mocek, 116). The backfield lacked speed in the 2H of the year. Walker finished with 412 (3.6) and they moved WR Marlin Miller in midseason (184, 5.0). This year they lose Sails and FB Geoffrey McCullough (10 st, 23 yd). A prime candidate to start is Robert Walker (PS#129, GS). They have 3 quality FB's including QB McGuire and they add two solid newcomers at RB. Not in the PSL are Joel Banks (6'0" 215 rFr), Joe Jackson (5'11" 205 rFr) and FB Matt Desormeaux (6'1" 232 Sr, PS#373). This unit actually has more exp than '09 despite the loss of their top man.

RECEIVERS - UL is a run-oriented team and from '05-'08 had more rush than pass yards. Derrick Smith led the WR's with 551 (13.4) in '06 and 583 (16.7) in '07. Smith missed 6 in '08 (94 yds) and Jason Chery (#2 rec '06 & '07) led with 656 (14.3) and had 312 rush (12.5). They had to replace both LY with the leading returnees being TE Ladarius Green (268, 12.2, miss 3) and WR Richie Falgout (260, 14.4). In the season finale vs Troy, Green had 119 and fellow TE Luke Aubrey had 130 becoming the first pair here since '03 to each top 100 in a game. At one point with the top 3 TE's out, they used FB Matt Desormeaux and OL Colin Windsor. Green still led with 533 (16.7). Aubrey was #2 with 456 (11.1) while Miller was #3 with 325 (8.8). Falgout was #5 (221, 12.3) in 7 gms. This year they lose Aubrey (5 st) and WR Louis Lee (12 st, 312, 13.0). Not listed below are WR's Javone Lawson (6'1" 173 So, PS#267, 124 LY), Brandon Kensey (5'9" 175 rFr), Julien Troullier (6'0" 181 rFr), Vernon Wolfe (6'1" 183 Sr, PS#208JC), Ashton LeBlanc (5'10" 170 So) and TE Ian Thompson (6'4" 230 rFr). This unit is more exp'd and Green could be one of the top TE's in the country.

WR Marlin Miller

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '07 OL coach Ron Hudson shook up the line elevating 3 soph and 2 frosh to the 1st team. The unit also suffered numerous injuries but still opened holes for 252 ypg rush while their 5.6 ypc was the best in their IA history (1st yr '74). The mobility of QB Desormeaux helped. They had 4 st'rs back in '08 and improved to a school record 264 ypg (5.9) with 21 sks (7.3%). UL had just 1 start lost to injury all season. Last year all 5 st'rs ret'd (112 car sts). The rushing numbers dropped to 137 ypg (3.6) with 13 sks (3.2%). In '08 QB Desormeaux rushed for 1,035 and in '09 the QB's had just 413 combined. This year they lose B2B 1st Tm SBC LT Kyle Pirtle (12 st, 3Y st'r), B2B 1st Tm SBC LG Brad Bustle (12 st, 3Y st'r) and 1st Tm SBC C Chris Fisher (11 st, 4Y st'r). They have 7 of the top 10 back (65 car sts). While less exp'd, this unit could produce better numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - UL had an inexp'd D-line in '08 and yielded 213 ypg rush (5.3). Last year they only had to replace one starter. Hall Davis, who arrived at 213 lbs in '05, bulked up to 272 and became an NFL prospect (got a sack off LSU's Ciron Black). HC Bustle said the unit was faster and the veteran group trimmed the ypg allowed to 182 (4.6). This year they lose DE Davis (12 st, 22 tkl, 3 sk, #5DC STL), DT LaQuincy Williams (2 st, 9 tkl) and DE Chris Lanaux (16 tkl, 3 sk). Three st'rs return and they also get back Nate Douglas (#2 tm w/6.5 tfl '08, inj '09). Terrell Richardson (2Y st'r) is the brother of Trent (Alabama). Not in the PSL are Justin Anderson (6'3" 240 rFr, PS#350), Ben Duhon (5'11" 280 So), Barry Sterling (6'0" 237 So), Brendan Wilson (6'5" 224 So) and Trace Wilson (6'1" 243 So). Despite the loss of their top guy, this unit could continue to show improvement.

LINEBACKERS - One of the strongest positions for UL heading into '08 appeared to be LB but the unit was hit hard by injuries (7 diff st'rs). Last year all 7 ret'd (incl #1, #3, #5, #8 tkl's). With a veteran unit, the D improved but still allowed 30.3 ppg. This year they lose 2nd Tm SBC Antwyne Zanders (12 st, #1 tkl, 10 tfl) and Jezreel Washington (4 st, #3 tkl). They return 3rd Tm SBC Grant Fleming (#2 tkl) and Daylon McCoy who missed 3 LY and dropped to #5 (#1 tkl'r '08). Not in the PSL are Nick Barnfield (6'3" 230 rFr), Zack Payne (5'10" 196 rFr), Andrew Rumney (6'0" 207 So) and Taylor Vernotzy (6'1" 200 So). While not as exp'd as '09, it is still a quality group.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Ragin' Cajuns have produced 6 NFL DB's since 2000, but only once in that span did they finish higher than #80 in my PDR (#77 '08). Last year they had to replace 1 starter (2nd Tm SBC SS). Starting SS Chris Richard missed 5 and only 2 DB's started more than 8. UL dropped to #91. This year they lose S Gerren Blount (8 st, 36 tkl, 3 int) and S Phillip Nevels (3 st, 19 tkl). Not listed below are Seth Guilbeaux (5'9" 167 Sr) and Hunter Thibodaux (5'8" 192 rFr). They have 6 back who started last year and have a shot of topping their '08 pass D finish.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Ricky Bustle came from Virg Tech and knows the importance of this unit. UL finished #45 in my ST rankings in his first season (2002) but surprisingly dropped to #109, #100, #112, #91 and #112 the next 5. In '08 UL moved up #69. Last year they had to replace their outstanding K and top KR. P Spencer Ortego improved to 40.6 with an outstanding 37.6 net. The K battle was between Brett Baer (PS#48) and Tyler Albrecht. Albrecht fell behind in Aug with an injury and became inconsistent but was called on for his first FG att and he delivered with a 48 yard game winner vs Kan St (:32 left). Albrecht hit 8-11 FG's (long 49, 1 miss 50). Baer had 0 TB's on 47 KO's. The return game was below average. This group has now blocked 41 kicks since '02 (#3 FBS) and finished #73 in my rankings. Despite losing their top KR, I look for them to top last year's numbers.

COACHES - Rickey Bustle was the OC at VT from '95-'01. He enters his 9th year here. In his first four seasons ('02-'05) the team showed improvement each year going from 3-9 to 4-8 to 4-7 and 6-5 but has had just 6, 3, 6 and 6 wins the last 4 years. Bustle's contract was extended, but only for one year through 2011. In '08 Ron Hudson was elevated to OC (OL cch 3Y prior). Eastern Illinois' OC Jorge Munoz joined the staff in '08 as the passing game coor. DC Kevin Fouquier (4th yr) spent 5 years at MT and one at FIU where his squad finished #1 in the FBS in tfl and #1 in the SBC in total D in '06. The results have not been the same here as UL went from allowing 24.7 ppg in '06 to 35.8, 33.7 and 30.3 in his 3 years.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Prior to Rickey Bustle taking over, UL had gone through 6 straight losing seasons. In '04, UL was a hard luck 4-7. Despite losing 5 SBC games, they were +19.8 ypg. In '05 I called for UL to have its first winning season since 1995 and they were arguably the best team in the SBC. The Cajuns were 5-2 (+68.2 ypg) vs the SBC and finished 6-5. Hurricane Katrina affected the team early (130 miles from New Orleans). UL only lost to CUSA East champ UCF by 3 and did not have star QB Jerry Babb vs FAU, which was one of their two SBC losses (the other was lost on a last second 35 yd FG by Ark St). UL won its final 5 (longest win streak S/'95) including 3 straight road wins (first time S/'93). Bustle had 83 scholarship players in 2006 (a high in his 5 yr tenure) with 13 ret st'rs including Babb and UL was the preseason pick to win the SBC. They upset CUSA champ Houston 31-28 and opened 4-2. After 2 losses, their final 4 foes had a combined 8-26 record so things looked good. However, UL lost to ULM 39-20, losing a shot at a bowl. In '07 they were tied for the fewest ret st'rs in the SBC (12) and had to replace Babb. They had some tough losses and while they won 2 of their last 3, they finished just 3-9. Nine players earned 1st, 2nd or HM SBC in '07 with just 3 seniors among them. They had 52% underclassmen in the '07 2 deep (6th highest in FBS). I mentioned those as well as the fact that they ret'd their QB, top 4 rushers, top 5 rec and top 3 tkl'rs as some reasons for optimism. Other reasons were they had 3 net close losses in '07 and poor ypp on both Off & Def (see pg 299). I called UL one of the Most Improved Teams. Bustle said his '08 preseason camp was the finest he'd ever been involved in. The team did not disappoint as they became bowl eligible for the 3rd time in 4 years and could have achieved more if not for some key injuries including QB Desormeaux. UL nearly upset Illinois on the road and only trailed Kan St 42-37 late. UL finished 2nd in the SBC at 5-2 and was +34.6 ypg (#3). Last year they lost QB Desormeaux and their career leading rusher Fenroy and only ret'd 24.8% of the offensive yards from '08 (5th fewest FBS). They had 9 ret st'rs on defense. UL got a key win early when they upset Kan St. Amazingly Albrecht's first ever FG att was from 48 yds with :32 left for the win. After being beaten by LSU and Neb (comb 86-3), they were outgained by NT 444-295 and trailed by 10 after 3Q's but rallied for the win (blk punt, 70 yd IR TD). They beat WKU to climb to 4-2. After a home loss to FAU, they lost in OT to FIU. UL had a 376-239 yard edge in their 21-18 win over Ark St. Despite leading MT 17-14 at half they were outgained 506-293 and lost by 17. They trailed ULM 17-14 after 3Q's but pulled out a 21-17 win, their 4th in SBC play. After trailing Troy 24-0, they came back to lead 25-24 but still lost by 17 (563-513 yd edge). On the season, UL was 4-4 (5th SBC) but their -38.1 ypg was 7th best. They did benefit from 3 net close wins. This is a stronger UL team but they play a brutal non-conf schedule, so matching last year's 6 win total will be tough.

Sep. 4	at Georgia	G					First meeting. In 706 gms vs Division 1 opponents, the Ragin' Cajuns have never faced a school from the state of GA. UL has dropped 19 straight road openers by 25 ppg.
Sep. 11	Arkansas State	A					The home tm had won 9 straight in this series until LY. UL limited ASU to 101 yds in the 1st 3Q's taking a 21-3 led into the 4Q but had to hold on for the win getting a late interception.
Sep. 18							BONUS: The SBC opener for the Ragin' Cajuns is the earliest in school history.
Sep. 25	Middle Tennessee	A					LY marked just the 6th time in HC Bustle's 8 ssns that UL lost after leading at HT. This series had 5 straight upsets from 2003-'07 but the favorite has won the last 2.
Oct. 2	at North Texas	A					Louisiana has won 4 of the last 5 vs North Texas including B2B wins in Denton. The visitor has actually outgained the home team in each of the last 6 by 82 ypg.
Oct. 8	Oklahoma St (Fri)	A					Louisiana is 0-6 vs Okl St. In the last meeting ('03) UL lost 56-3 being outgained by 125 yds. UL is 2-3 since 1996 hosting BCS tms including LY's win over Kansas St.
Oct. 16	at Troy	A					After having ssn lows in yds (247) & pass yds (72) vs Troy in '08, UL had ssn highs in both (563, 415) LY. UL used 3 QB's LY & each passed for 100+ yds (Masson 187, McGuire 119 & Gautier 109).
Oct. 23	WKU (HC)	A					Louisiana is 3-0 vs Western Kentucky and last year marked the 1st SBC meeting. The Ragin' Cajuns are 37-25-2 all-time on Homecoming but did lose LY to FAU.
Oct. 30	at Ohio	A					These schools have had just one prior meeting in '07. UL lost 31-23 but outgained Ohio 534-416. UL is 1-7 since the SBC was formed ('01) in non-conf, non-BCS AG's.
Nov. 6	at Mississippi	A					UL is 0-2 vs Ole Miss (last meeting in '87). Louisiana is 0-50 all-time vs the SEC losing by 35 ppg. Coming into 2010, UL is 0-58 all-time on the road vs current BCS schools.
Nov. 13	at Florida Atlantic	G					LY RB Yobes Walker made his 1st start rushing for 105 yds (5.0). The Ragin' Cajuns are just 1-4 vs the Owls and have been outgained in 4 of the 5 meetings by 141 ypg.
Nov. 20	FIU	A					UL is 6-1 vs FIU but blew it LY, allowing a 69/13pl game-tying TD drive with :10 left incl a 4&3 TD pass. They then had a FG blocked in OT to lose 20-17. UL has dropped 3 of 4 home finales.
Nov. 27	at ULM	A					Visitor is 11-6 (4-1 L/5) in this rivalry. UL has outgained ULM the L3Y (160 ypg) & in 5 of 6. John Mackey watchlist TE Ladarius Green had career highs in rec (7) & yds (131) LY vs ULM.

FIU GOLDEN PANTHERS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - In 2007, Paul McCall, who had the strongest arm but limited mobility, battled Wayne Younger (more mobile). Younger started the first 11 then was injured. McCall was the #3 behind Colt Anderson but McCall hit 23-35 for 181 and then 228 with a 3-0 ratio in his first start and was carried off on the players' shoulders after their only win of the season vs NT. McCall then started all 12 in '08 throwing for 2,332 (53%, 15-9) while Younger played in 6 throwing for 249 (55%, 1-0). McCall was the clear-cut starter in '09. He had his foot stepped on in practice and missed 2 series vs Ark St but ret'd vs UL. He then hyper-extended his throwing elbow and missed MT and Younger got the start. Younger later got a 23 yd go-ahead TD run vs NT in the 4Q. McCall threw for 2,343 (56.2%, 14-8) while Younger threw for 257 (37.9%, 0-4). Younger returns but the starter figures to be Miss St transfer Wesley Carroll (PS#92). Carroll had 9 sts in '07 (All-SEC Frosh Tm) and started the first 4 in '08 for the Bulldogs and in 2 years threw for 1,952 (51%, 12-14) with 246 rush. He set an MSU record with 137 passes without an int, one away from tying the NCAA frosh record. Not listed below are Christopher Schirripa (6'0" 190 rFr) and Carlos Gonzalez (6'0" 200 So). Last year FIU QB's combined to hit 53.3% with a 14-12 ratio and despite losing their starter, I look for improved play this season.

RUNNING BACKS - The leading rusher for FIU had 537 (5.5) in '05, just 445 (4.7) in '06, 581 (4.1) in '07 and 481 (3.4) in '08. In 2008, they had to replace their top 2 and the leading returnee was Darriet Perry (PS#151) who burned his RS the last 2 gms as a true rushing for 173 (5.6). His 86.5 ypg were double that of the top man. Unfortunately last year Perry was banged up early and later missed the final 2 and finished with just 301 (2.9). Daunte Owens (PS#458), who had 185 (3.4) in 22 career gms, led with 376 (4.0). Kendall Berry, despite missing 5, finished with 264 (4.2). Berry was also the QB in the "Wild Panther" offense and had 93 rec yds (8.5). True frosh Darrian Mallary (PS#366) added 103 (3.1). Not listed in the PSL are Trenard Turner (5'9" 205 Sr, PS#467) and Saloney Joseph (5'11" 175 So). This year they lose their top rusher Owens, solid blocking FB John Ellis and suffered the tragic loss of Berry in March. Syracuse transfer Jeremiah Harden should lead a more productive group and could be the best RB here in "school history."

RECEIVERS - In 2007, the Panthers had to replace their top 2 rec (comb 1,122 yds). True frosh Jason Frierson led the inexp'd group in receptions (21, 9.0). True frosh Greg Ellingson was #1 with 304 yds (16.0). In '08 the unit got the addition of true frosh T.Y. Hilton (4.2 spd). Hilton easily set the school record with 1,013 yards rec (24.7 ypc!) along with his return exploits. Ellingson improved to 574 (16.4) and true frosh Junior Mertile had 245 (9.4) while TE Eric Kirchenberg added 157 (11.2). Last year all 4 ret'd but Hilton was not 100% and played just ST in some games. His numbers dropped to 632 (11.1). Ellingson had 528 (15.5) and Frierson (113, 11.3 in '08) was #3 with 368 (12.3). HC Mario Cristobal said true frosh Wayne Times was off to a faster start than Hilton but he finished with 234 (12.3). Converted QB Anderson was the top TE with 154 (12.8) after TE's Dudley LaPorte (2 gm) and Kirchenberg (0 gm) were inj'd. Mertile missed the final 10. Not listed below are Ariel Martinez (6'2" 215 Sr), Jairus Williams (6'5" 187 rFr, PS#307), Soloman Smith (5'10" 190 rFr), Armando Amin (6'2" 195 So), Joey Harris (6'3" 250 So) and Junior Delpe (6'3" 240 rFr). This unit should stay healthier and with everyone back, is one of the top receiving corps in the SBC.

WR/KR T.Y. Hilton

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2008, FIU had 3 st'rs returning but only opened holes for 99 ypg rush (2.8) while allowing 27 sks (7.7%). Last year they ret'd all 5 starting OL although Ula Matavao lost his LT spot to Andy Leavine. The more veteran unit improved but to just 104 ypg rush (3.0) and allowed 34 sks (7.9%). This year they lose a pair of 4 year starters in 3rd Tm SBC LT Leavine (12 st) and RT Joe Alajajian (7 st). They also lose G Mario Caraballo (12 st, 2 yr st'r) as well as LG Luis Abril (3 st) and LT Matavao (5 gm '09, 12 st '08). PS#40JC Cedric Mack (missed 4) only started the last 4 at RG. C Brad Serini earned 2nd Tm SBC for a 2nd straight year. They do have 55 career starts returning but will be down a few notches.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2008, FIU had 2 st'rs back and the unit improved to 156 ypg rush allowed (3.9) which was 2nd best in school history, but the D had just 18 sks. Last year they had to replace 3 st'rs and true frosh Tourek Williams was the #2 tackler on the D-line. As you would expect, the much less exp'd unit allowed 233 ypg rush (5.4) with just 20 sks. This year the losses are heavy again as gone are DE Armond Willis (12 st, 29 tkl, 3.5 sk), DT Jonas Murrell (12 st, 18 tkl, 3.5 tfl), DT Justin West (11 st, 16 tkl, 2.5 tfl) and DE Cody Pellicer (3 st, 11 tkl). This unit has 11 career sts returning while last year's had 46 but they could still show improvement over 2009's weak numbers.

LINEBACKERS - Last year the Panthers had to replace 2 LB's who combined for 12 sts but who were #3 and #4 tkl'rs. The 2 returning st'rs were #1 and #6. Tyler Clawson (12 st '08) lost his spot but started the final 6 after Winston Fraser was injured. This year they lose 2nd Tm SBC SLB Scott Bryant (12 st, #1 tkl'r, 5.5 tfl) and WLB Clawson (6 st, #8 tkl'r, 4 tfl) while Jarvis Wilson (4 st, #9 tkl'r) slides to DE. Three return who started 4+ last year including their #3 and #5 tacklers. Even with the loss of the top guy, this group could be stronger as the 245 lb Aaron Davis and soph Larvez Mars could be among the best in the SBC.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - FIU was #118 in my pass D rankings in '04 and dead last at #119 in '05. They improved to #75 then #103 and in '08 with 3 st'rs back, surprisingly moved up to #38. Last year they had to replace a 1st Tm SBC CB and then lost FS Ashlyn Parker in the first game for the 2nd straight year. They basically had 2 st'rs back but plummeted to #95. This year they lose SS Jeremiah Weatherspoon (11 st, 56 tkl, 2 int), CB O'Darris D'Haiti (6 st, 44 tkl, 1 int, 2 pbu) and CB Peter Riley (2 st, 20 tkl, 1 int, 4 pbu). Not in the PSL are George Palmer (6'0" 175 Jr), Derreck Jones Jr (5'9" 190 So, PS#571) and Antwoine Bell (5'11" 185 So). Hopefully Parker will last longer than one game and they have 5 back who started 3+ last season and should have an improved pass D.

SPECIAL TEAMS - FIU was #105 in my ST rankings in '05, #118 in '06 and #97 in '07. In '08 they added exciting true frosh Hilton and the unit moved all the way up to #31. Last year P Carlos Munera, who was listed as a letterman lost in the spring, was granted a 6th year. Munera, despite being banged up late, still had a net of 37.4! Dustin Rivest hit 10-14 FG's (long 41) and had 2 TB on 42 KO. Hilton was banged up but was still the top KR (28.8) and Jason Frierson took over the PR (12.2). This year they lose Rivest and Munera but have their exciting returnmen back as well as Wayne Times (21.8 KR LY). As long as the new specialists perform adequately, FIU could notch its 3rd straight finish in the upper half of my ST rankings (#34 in '09) and Hilton is one of the most exciting ST players in the country.

COACHES - In 2007 the coaching staff was brand-new. Mario Cristobal was the first Cuban-American HC in FBS history. He was an All-Big East OT at Miami and was the TE coach there from '04-'05 and the OL coach in '06. Cristobal was just 36 years old when he took over here. OC Bill Legg left to become the OC at Marshall so the new OC is Scott Satterfield who was the QB coach/Pass gm coor at Toledo last year. DC Phillip Galiano was let go after '09 and the new DC is the very enthusiastic Geoff Collins, who was the LB coach and recruiting coor at UCF the last 2 years.

PHIL'S FORECAST

FIU is the youngest program in the FBS as they just started playing football in 2002. The 2006 season was FIU's first ever year with graduation losses (28 lett lost). They plummeted from 5-6 in '05 to 0-12 in '06 and Don Strock resigned with 3 games to go. Surprisingly, FIU had the #28 defense in the IA allowing just 301 ypg and was #1 in the IA in tfl. Despite their winless record, they were a few plays away from opening 5-1 but then had 18 players susp'd (9 st'rs) after a fight with Miami and the shorthanded team limped to a winless season. In '07 FIU had to replace 5 of its top 6 tacklers. FIU was the youngest team in the FBS with 73% (68 of 93) of its roster being underclassmen. Their first 4 foes were all BCS teams and the nation's longest losing streak would climb to 23, the 7th longest streak ever. FIU was thrashed by MT in the SBC opener with the Blue Raiders' 47 points in the 1H being a school record. They led Ark St 16-10 into the 4Q but gave up a FG with :02 left to lose by 3. After a blowout loss to FAU, FIU stood 0-11 but finally ended the losing streak with a win over NT. In '08 I said the Panthers would be a vastly improved team as they ret'd 15 sts (most in SBC) and almost every offensive yard from '07. They were -14 in TO's and had poor ypp's on both offense and defense (pg 299) in '07. Forty-five of the 71 Panthers who saw playing time in '07 were underclassmen. They did have just 5 HG's in '08 with one being vs Big East power USF. HC Cristobal had played 11 true frosh after 4 games. FIU opened up 0-3 losing by a combined 99-19 but rallied to win 5 of their final 9. They would have been bowl eligible but blew a pair of 14 point leads against FAU and lost in OT. Last year FIU again had 15 ret st'rs and was optimistic. After an expected 0-2 start with losses on the road vs BCS teams (incl Alabama), they lost at home to Toledo by 10 and at ULM were outgained 577-391 and lost by 13 to open 0-4. In a battle of winless teams they beat WKU 37-20 and led Troy 10-7 early and trailed just 28-20 at the half in a 9 pt loss. FIU lost at Ark St 27-10 with QB McCall missing practice during the week. They got a TD with :10 left on 4th & gl from the 3 to force OT and got past Louisiana but the next week trailed Middle Tenn 34-0 in a 27 pt loss which clinched a losing season. FIU beat NTexas 35-28 despite a 513-258 yd deficit. After an expected loss to Florida (62-3), they had a bye prior to FAU but gave up TD's with 9:58 and 2:23 left to trail 28-14 before getting a TD with :57 left. FIU lost a projected st'r to academics and had 25 sts lost to injury. Urban Meyer was quoted as saying FIU was a good team that will be in a bowl within 2 years. FIU led Alabama early in the 2Q only trailing by 6 at the half. Their star offensive player, Hilton, was also hobbled most of the year. On the negative side, they have just 11 returning starters and despite a 3-5 SBC record, were a league worst -126.8 ypg. They have a brutal opening stretch vs 4 BCS teams and then four of their first six Sun Belt games are on the road. This is a much improved team but it may not translate into wins.

Sep. 11	Rutgers	A					Panthers are 2-6 in hm openers & will open up in Miami for the 1st time since the inaugural '02 ssn. LY FIU trailed 23-0 w/8:06 left as 145 of their 260 yds (56%) came on the final 2 drives.
Sep. 18	at Texas A&M	G					First meeting. FIU is 0-4 vs Big 12 opponents being outscored on avg 47-9. Golden Panthers are 1-7 in road openers (only win in '04 at Youngstown St in OT).
Sep. 25	at Maryland	G					FIU is 0-2 vs MD but did outgain them in the 1st meeting ('06). In '07 both offenses struggled combining for 433 yds & 22 FD's. (FIU had a -3 TO ratio but a 4-0 sk edge).
Oct. 2	at Pittsburgh	G					First meeting. The Golden Panthers are 0-6 vs ranked opponents w/the avg loss by 39 ppg. Coming into 2010, FIU is 0-17 vs BCS schools (0-15 on the road) losing by 30 ppg.
Oct. 9	WKU	A					FIU is 3-2 vs WKU but has won 3 straight outgaining the Hilltoppers in each by an avg of 168 ypg. Golden Panthers are 9-13 hosting current SBC members (6-3 L/9).
Oct. 16	at North Texas	A					Golden Panthers are 3-0 vs NT despite being outgained in each by 112 ypg (+8 in TO's). LY they trailed 14-0 & 28-14 before getting a IR TD and shutting out NT in the 2H.
Oct. 23
Oct. 30	at Florida Atlantic	G					Ninth edition of the Shula Bowl. FIU is 1-7 vs their I-95 rival incl 4 str losses. LY it was tied at 14 into the 4Q but FIU was SOD twice both times allowing the Owls to score TD's.
Nov. 6	ULM	A					ULM was the 1st FBS school FIU beat in program history. FIU has dropped 4 straight & last time here had a 3&gl at the 1 but settled for a 40 yd FG and then was SOD (lost by 4).
Nov. 13	at Troy	A					LY FIU led 10-7 but all'd 21 unanswered before closing the gap trailing 28-20 at HT. Troy outgained FIU 163-45 in the 3Q to pull away. Into 2010, FIU is just 3-21 on the road vs current SBC tms.
Nov. 20	at Louisiana	A					The Golden Panthers outgained the Ragin' Cajuns for the 1st time in series history LY after being outgained in each of the 1st 6 by 139 ypg. LY FIU's 1st lead of the gm was in OT.
Nov. 27	Arkansas St	A					HT is 3-0 & has outgained visitor in each by 115 ypg. LY FIU battled back from a 17-0 deficit to get within 7 in the 4Q but a fum resulted in a 14 yd TD drive for ASU ending any chance of a comeback.
Dec. 4	Middle Tennessee	A					FIU has outgained MT in both meetings in Miami ('05 & '08). In Kendall Berry's Final FB game (RIP), the converted WR turned RB had 103 yds (5.4) LY vs MT (FIU single player high on ssn).

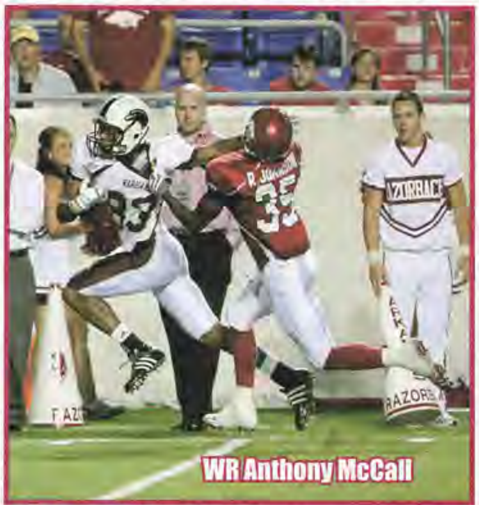
ULM WARHAWKS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Steven Jyles departed in '05 as the SBC and ULM's career passing leader (8,987). Kinsmon Lancaster played a slash role as a rFr in '05 but started the next 3 years and in '08 threw for 2,040 (59%) with an 18-7 ratio. Due to injuries, Trey Revell (PS#191) started 1 game in '07 and 1 in '08 and in 14 combined games he threw for 364 (49%, 4-3) while rushing for 214 yards. Revell was the clear-cut starter in '09 and his backup was rFr Cody Wells (PS#285). Revell had a fine season but hurt his thumb in the 1H vs Ark St (gm 6) and Wells started 2. Revell threw for 1,739 (57.6%, 12-12) and Wells for 762 (55.7%, 6-7). Revell was the #2 rusher with 354 (3.7). Kolton Browning, who travelled with the team in '09, had an impressive spring and was pushing for the #1 spot. This year's unit is much more exp'd and Revell should be one of the SBC's best and I like the depth.

RUNNING BACKS - No ULM RB had led the conf in rushing since 1993 (Irving Spikes, IAA). Calvin Dawson ended that drought leading the SBC in rushing in both '06 (1210, 5.7) and '07 (1414, 5.0). In 2008, Frank Goodin (PS#207) took over as the feature back after rushing for 596 (5.1) earning HM SBC in '07 as a rFr. He started 11 and led with 783 (4.3). Rodney Lovett was the #2 RB with just 188 (4.8). Both ret'd last year. Goodin stayed healthy and in 12 sts rushed for 1,126 (5.1) and he plays bigger than he is. True frosh Isaiah Newsome got plenty of work in Aug and rushed for 158 (7.2) in 1 game vs TxSth but managed to RS. The #2 RB was Lovett again with 273 (3.7). This year they only lose Gary Frazier (12 yd). Not listed below are Monterrell Washington (5'10" 195 rFr, PS#421), Jyruss Edwards (5'11" 186 rFr, PS#376) and Carl Elie (5'8" 199 So, PS#155). I look for continued improvement from the ULM RB corps.



WR Anthony McCall

RECEIVERS - In 2006, ULM had to replace 4 of its top 5 rec. LaGregory Sapp led with 796 (18.5) while TE Zeek Zacharie added 405 (13.5) and Darrell McNeal had 276 (11.0). All 3 ret'd in '07. With the blocking TE lost to injury, Zacharie had to take on more pass blocking but still had 437 (12.1). McNeal led with 502 (9.3) and Sapp was #2 with 486 (14.7). In '08, Sapp was ineligible and McNeal (sups opener) started just 5. McNeal still led with 558 (10.9) while Zacharie improved to 510 (11.1). RFr Anthony McCall was #3 with 406 (14.5) and JJ McCoy had 207 (9.0). Last year the only loss was Zacharie and they got Sapp back so big improvement was expected. Sapp led with 784 with an outstanding 19.6 ypc but put his arm through a window and missed the final 2 which were costly for the team (both losses). McNeal was #2 with 542 (14.3) and soph Luther Ambrose (160 yds '08) had 455 (13.4). TE Alvin Jordan had 250 (10.4) while McCoy added 147 (13.4) and surprisingly McCall slipped to 71 (10.1). This year they lose 3rd Tm SBC McNeal (7 st), 1st Tm SBC Sapp (10 st) and McCoy (5 st). Not listed below are TE's Ty Kittle (6'2" 234 Jr) and Ronnie Anderson (6'3" 231 Jr). With the loss of their top 2 rec's, this group figures to be down a few notches.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2007, ULM had one of the most exp'd OL's in the country (128 career sts). LT Kyle Cunningham and C Adam Hill ended up starting every game in their 4 year careers (46). ULM improved to a school best (FBS) 209 ypg and 4.5 ypc. OC/OL coach Steve Farmer's first 2 units allowed just 9 sacks in both '04 and '05 but allowed 18 (5.4%) in '07. In '08 they had just 1 starter back but added 2 JUCO's (IFS). As expected, the numbers slipped to 153 ypg rush (4.3) with a Farmer-era high 31 sks (8.9%). Last year they had to replace 2nd Tm SBC RT Larry Shappley (4Y st'r) and 2 bkps. They switched to the no-huddle offense so the unit had to be in shape. Two ret st'rs, Doug Stroud and Ryan Dercher lost their jobs so they really only had 2 st'rs back. Walk-on C Emmanuel Lockett set the ULM team bench press record. ULM improved to 184 ypg rush (4.5) and trimmed the sacks to 16 (4.9%). This year they lose 2nd Tm SBC LT Mitch Doyle (12 st), C Lockett (12 st), LG Brett Thompson (11 st, 2Y st'r), LT Dercher (9 gm '09, 12 st '08) and Stroud (9 gms '09, 12 st '08). The unit has to shift blocking schemes with the new staff and has just 35 career starts (#107), so matching last year's numbers will be tough.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08, ULM had to replace 3 st'rs and while then HC Charlie Weatherbie brought in a pair of 300 lbs JUCO's who combined to start 11, the D allowed 213 ypg rush and a ghastly 5.7 ypc with just 13 team sks. ULM moved to a 3-3-5 last year and while they had to replace 2 st'rs, 5 DL (comb 38 sts) were back and they had one less position to fill. DE Aaron Morgan was on my 1st Tm SBC team in '08. As you would expect, the unit was vastly improved yielding just 110 ypg rush (3.3) with 27 sks. This year they lose two-time 1st Tm SBC DE Morgan (12 st, 52 tkl, 9 sk, 7 tfl), 3rd Tm SBC NT Aaron Williams (11 sts, 36 tkl, 1.5 tfl) and DE Jameson Jordan (7 tkl, 1 sk, 5 st '08). Troy Evans earned 1st Tm SBC with 6.5 sks and is the only returnee to the 3 man front. Naturally this unit is less exp'd.

LINEBACKERS - Last year ULM switched to a 3-3-5 D and I listed the HAWK in the LB write-up. In '08, the unit ret'd 3 of 4 starters only losing their #6 tackler while returning #1, #4 and #7. Cardia Jackson became the SBC's career tackle leader with 381 and led the SBC in tackles in '09 (#20 FBS). This year the unit losses SBC co-DPOY Jackson (12 st, 117 tkl, 7 tfl), 3rd Tm SBC Josh Thomas (12 sts, #2 tkl'r, 7 tfl) and HAWK James Truxillo (11 st, #4 tkl, 3 tfl). They return #6 tkl'r Theo Smith and add rFr Antonio Hoskins (PS#103) who orig signed with Miss St, QB Zach Rhodes (SMU transfer) and should get more out of LSU transfer Troy Giddens (PS#71) who has been injured. This unit is clearly less exp'd.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - ULM had to replace 3 st'rs (#5DC) in '07 but surprisingly moved up to #68 in my PDR (#74 in '06). They had to replace 3 st'rs in '08 but were still #78. Last yr it appeared the unit ret'd intact but 2nd Tm SBC SS Josh Thompson (12 st '08) was lost. They still ret'd 3 st'rs incl FS Greg James who set SBC and school records with 17 career int's. Not surprisingly ULM had their highest finish yet in my PDR at #40. This year they lose 1st Tm SBC FS James (12 st, 73 tkl, 4 int, 4 pbu) and CB Otis Stamps (12 st, 36 tkl, 2 int, 7 pbu). Both returnees are solid and SS Darius Prelow earned my 3rd Tm SBC honors last year. Coupled with a weaker def front 7, this unit figures to drop in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - ULM's highest ever finish in my ST rankings is #86. They came close in '07 (#87) and '08 (#89). Last year they had all their top players back but surprisingly slipped to #113. P Scott Love (34.1 net in '08) was listed as an NFL prospect but avg just 38.6 (34.9 net). Radi Jabour only hit 6-12 FG's (long 48) in '08 and hit 12-20 (long 48) in '09. Grant Clayton had 4 TB on 51 KO LY. ULM was at a deficit in both KR and PR. This year they lose P Love and K Clayton but can probably only improve upon last year's poor ranking.

COACHES - Charlie Weatherbie was let go after 7 yrs here finishing with a 31-51 record and achieving two 6-6 marks in the last 3 yrs. The new HC is another former military academy cch in Todd Berry. Berry was the HC of Army from 2000-'03 with a 5-36 record and HC at Illinois St from '96-'99 (24-24). Berry spent the last 3 years ('07-'09) as the OC of UNLV. He was the Miami, Fl QB cch in '06 and was the OC at ULM in '04 & '05. His OC is Steve Farmer who was OC at Illinois St in '09 and spent 5 yrs prior to that as an asst at ULM (last 2 as OC). Troy Reffett is now in his 2nd yr as DC coming here after 5 years as a secondary coach (DC in '08) at New Mexico. Last year ULM allowed 98 ypg less than in '08.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Charlie Weatherbie stepped into a difficult situation, taking over the team in May 2003 after spring ball. His first year was also hit hard by bad luck with 6 close losses and they were -19 in turnovers and finished 1-11. With 15 st'rs back in '04 (2nd most SBC), I pegged the 1-11 team to finish 4th in the SBC and that is precisely where they finished as they were projected near the basement by most others. ULM moved up to 5-6. In '05 had they won their season finale vs UL they would have won the SBC Title (blown out 54-21) and their opening day loss to FCS NW St (ULM led 23-0 at half) kept them from a winning record. In '06, ULM missed four key 2 pt conv and had they made them, they could have been 6-4 instead of 2-8 after 10 gms. ULM had 5 net close losses (4-8) and led MT 21-14 at half and UK 34-33 after 3Q's. In '07, I called them Weatherbie's best team yet and ULM had their first non-losing season in 13 years at 6-6. They opened '07 w/4 opponents that had gone to a bowl (0-4) but went 6-2 after, including an upset of Alabama on the road. ULM finished tied for 3rd in the SBC (+12.3 ypg, #3). In '08 they had 4 conf HG's and Malone Stadium went through a $200K renovation, its first since it opened in 1978. ULM had Ark beat on the road (led 24-6 3Q, 24-17 4Q) but missed a 45 yd FG on the final play and lost by 1. ULM dealt Troy its only loss in SBC play in 2 years with a 31-30 upset but finished only 4-8 with 3 losses by a combined 5 pts. They led the FBS in starts lost to injury with 54 in '08 and had my #2 rated O-line and #3 rated D-line in the SBC in '09. ULM made my Most Improved List and had 16 ret st'rs. Once again Weatherbie's crew did not catch many breaks. After expected losses at Texas and Ariz St, they opened SBC play with 3 straight wins and stood 4-2 overall. They outgained Kentucky 377-330 but lost on the road. The next week at Troy they lost by 3 TD's. After a romp over NTexas, WKU missed a 32 yd FG with 1:22 left and ULM won 21-18 to move to 6-4. At Louisiana they led 17-14 in the 4Q when they missed a 27 yd FG and Louisiana drove 80 yards for the game winning TD. ULM was trying for their first unbeaten home season in school history and had a 370-306 yd edge vs MTenn but lost by 19. ULM let Weatherbie go and Todd Berry takes over as the head man (see Coaches). On the positive side, last year's ULM team at 5-3 was tied for third in the SBC and their +42.1 ypg was also 3rd best. They also had a defensive ypp of 12.7 (pg 299) and were -5 in TO's. They had just 7 sts lost to injury and this year return just 10 st'rs (fewest SBC). When a new coach comes in they have to learn the players' strengths and weaknesses and the players must learn the new schemes. This looks like a rebuilding year for the Warhawks.

Phil's Homefield Edge-3.0

Date	Opponent	TURF	LINE	Final Score ULM	Final Score Opp	W L
Sep. 4							ULM moved the opener to Little Rock for attendance purposes.
Sep. 11	at Arkansas (Little Rock)	A					Since moving back up to IA in '94 ULM has played at least one SEC foe every ssn. ULM is 0-8 vs Ark but in '08 (L/gm, also at Little Rock) led 24-6 mid-3Q but all'd a TD w/1:22 left for the loss.
Sep. 18	at Arkansas St	A					The visitor is 1-6 in this series (avg win by 7 ppg). LY Cody Wells relieved Trey Revell (thumb injury) at QB in the 2Q and ULM held on after leading 16-0 at HT on espn2.
Sep. 25	SE Louisiana	A					These schools played every year from 1951-'85 (L/meeting). Both were members of the Gulf States Conf. Lions went 6-5 LY incl a 52-6 loss to Ole Miss. ULM is 3-1 in home openers.
Oct. 2	at Auburn	G					ULM is 0-7 in the series (outscored on avg 43-10) incl B2B shutouts the L/2 gms ('04 & '08). New HC Todd Berry was a grad asst/TE cch at Tenn in '83 & WR cch at Miss St from '89-'90.
Oct. 9	Florida Atlantic	A					The home team is 0-6 but every gm has been decided by a TD or less. Five of the 6 meetings in this series have been upsets & ULM has been outgained in each of the L/3 by 70 ypg.
Oct. 16	at WKU	A					The visitor is just 1-4 but last year was the first meeting since 1955. Last year RB Goodin had a career high 169 yds (8.9) as ULM scored the final 14 pts in the comeback.
Oct. 23	at Middle Tennessee	A					With a win over MT LY ULM would've been guaranteed a bowl but despite holding MT to 114 yds below their ssn avg & just 4 FD's & 87 yds in the 2H they were done in by 2 int (led to 2 MT TD's).
Oct. 30	Troy (HC)	A					Last year ULM got behind 14-0 but only trailed 21-14 at HT limiting Troy to just 3 rush yds (0.2). They had a -3 TO ratio and only scored 3 times in the 8 trips inside Troy territory.
Nov. 6	at FIU	A					LY vs FBS schools ULM had a ssn high 577 yds including 304 (5.7) rush yds vs FIU, but the Warhawks did get off to a slow start as they had just 1 FD on their 1st 4 poss.
Nov. 13	at LSU	G					These schools have met once (2003) as ULM lost 49-7 vs a #14 LSU squad being outgained by 234 yds. ULM is 0-20 vs ranked opp's with the avg loss by 35 ppg.
Nov. 20	North Texas	A					ULM is 10-4 vs NT incl 4-1 in the L5Y. In the last 6 gms ULM has outgained NT in 5 (including LY) by 129 ypg. Last year DB Greg James had 3 ints (ULM/SBC all-time career leader).
Nov. 27	Louisiana	A					ULM has dropped the L/2 in this "Battle of the Bayou". There were 5 lead changes LY on a cold/rainy night but ULM missed 27 yd FG & 2 ints in UL territory (at the UL27 & UL11).

WKU HILLTOPPERS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2010

QUARTERBACKS - Justin Haddix left after '06 as the school's #2 career leading passer throwing for 2,186 (61.3%, 14-9) that year. In '07 Brandon Smith (5 att '06) was the most exp'd QB but the battle was between ND transfer David Wolke (PS#44) and rFr KJ Black. The two combined for 64% with a 13-15 ratio. In '08 both ret'd and Wolke got the bulk of the snaps but the team dropped to just 142 ypg pass (51.9%, 9-12). In his first 3 years, Smith played in 12 throwing for 120 (47%, 1-1). Last year Smith won the job battling rFr Kawaun Jakes (PS#129). Jakes came in periodically early on incl when Smith was injured vs C Ark. In Jakes' first start (Navy) he threw for 276 yards, the school's best passing single-game high since Haddix in '06 as he hit his first 10 passes. Jakes started the rest of the year and threw for 1,516 (60.7%, 9-9) and was the #2 rusher (366, 3.0). Smith saw little action down the stretch and threw for just 210 (47.6%, 1-2). This year they lose Smith and as always with a new coach, his own recruits have a chance. They are also switching to the West Coast which may fit JC Matt Pelesasa (IFS) better than Jakes. Jakes was injured in a pickup basketball game and missed the last 2 weeks of spring which did not make HC Willie Taggart happy. Pelesasa was the #1 QB out of spring. The unit is much more exp'd and should have improved numbers, even in the new offense.

RUNNING BACKS - In '07, the Hilltoppers had to replace their all-time leading rusher in Lerron Moore who had 891 (4.6) in '06. The leading returnees were Andrew McCloud (443, 5.8) and Tyrell Hayden (315, 4.9). Hayden had an outstanding year rushing for 1,134 (5.5). McCloud was just #6 with 142 (3.8). JUCO Stephen Willis had 438 (7.8) and Marell Booker added 381 (7.6). The group ret'd intact in '08 but Hayden, due in part to a much tougher schedule, had greatly reduced stats. Bobby Rainey was the team's top RB and had 248 all-purp yds vs Kentucky. Unfortunately, he was injured vs FAU (#1 rusher at the time) and finished with just 259 (6.2). Five different players led in rushing over the last six. It surprised me that Hayden had just 388 (4.2) while Booker had 285 (4.3). Last year almost everyone ret'd and they moved in Braxston Miller from LB. Miller looked great in Aug scrimmages but had just 3 carries. Rainey emerged down the stretch with 134 vs ULM and then a new career-high with 144 vs FAU and finished with 939 (6.5) while earning 2nd Tm SBC honors. QB Jakes was the #2 rusher and Booker had 252 (5.2) while Hayden added 215 (5.0). Not listed in the PSL are Keshawn Simpson (6'0" 227 rFr, PS#328), Brandon Pierce (5'6" 199 So), William Simmons (5'8" 178 So), FB's Rod Johnson (5'11" 258 Sr), Larry Taugher (6'0" 229 So) and Nick Baisch (5'11" 245 rFr). This year they lose Hayden and Booker but with the return of their top guy should be a stronger unit.

RECEIVERS - In '08, WKU had to replace its all-time leading receiver Curtis Hamilton. Jake Gaebler was #3 in '06 with 416 (11.6) and #2 in '07 (426, 12.2). True frosh Quinterrance Cooper moved from QB and had 255 (11.6) in '07. In '08 those two ret'd and Derrius Brooks, who was one of the fastest, most athletic WR's, led WKU in rec after 3 and WR coach TJ Weist said Brooks is "really the guy we look to for a big play." Brooks, however, was lost for the season in Wk 5. Gaebler was hampered by back pain and basically missed 3 gms but finally broke out with 10 rec vs Ball St and led with 588 (10.9). Wenquel Graves was #2 with 257 (10.3) and surprisingly Cooper had just 235 (11.8). Last year Gaebler became the all-time leader in rec's (#5 in rec yards) and he led with 494 (11.5). They brought the TE into the offense and rFr walk-on Jack Doyle was #2 with 365 (9.9). Cooper's numbers dropped to 151 (7.6), converted QB Marcus Vasquez had 176 (9.3) and Brooks added 108 (9.8). This year they lose Gaebler and Anthony Shepperd 106 (10.6, 11 gms). Not listed below are Maurice Bullard (6'1" 210 So), Blake Ayers (5'11" 190 Jr), Dexter Haynes (6'4" 186 So, PS#285QB) and Andrew Pettijohn (5'8" 174 rFr). Even with the loss of their top guy, this unit's numbers were well below expectations last year and I look for an increased output.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08, WKU lost 3 starters but got back '05/'06 starter Greg Ryan so it was like having 3 starters returning. They transitioned to a full FBS schedule and as you would expect the numbers decreased to 144 ypg rush (4.0) with 25 sks (7.9%). Last year they had to replace Ryan and then C Lloyd Pressley missed the year (RS, inj) so they had 3 starters back. The rush numbers (mobile QB) improved to 173 ypg (4.7) but with 39 sks (12.5%). This year they lose C Cody Hughes (9 st, 3Y st'r), G/C Shelly Anthony (6 st) and Pressley but have 4 starters back (65 car sts). I look for continued improvement.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2006, WKU allowed 170 ypg rush (4.7), its worst since 1996. They had to replace 2 DL starters in '07 but improved to 135 ypg (3.7). In '08 they had to replace 1 starter and a backup then a ret starter lost his spot. That, coupled with a tougher schedule, had WKU allowing 162 ypg (4.4) with 21 sks. Last year the top 5 DL departed and the 3 starters were 2 rFr and a true soph (18 career tkl). Making matters worse, rFr Jamarcus Allen was lost after 4 st's. As you would expect, they allowed a poor 245 ypg (5.6) and the D had just 10 sks. The entire 2 deep returns this year including 6 who earned starts. This should be a vastly improved D-line and they shift to a 4 man front.

LB Thomas Majors

LINEBACKERS - Last year the Hilltoppers had to replace their #3 and #9 tacklers then lost their top LB Blake Boyd in the offseason (#2 tkl'r). They returned the #6, #7 and #8 tkl'rs. OLB Taurean Smith was said to have the most upside of any def player and JC Thomas Majors may have ended up at Tenn if not for academics. This year they lose Smith (12 st, #3 tkl'r, 5.5 tfl), LJ Harbison (19 tkl '09, 49 tkl, 5 st '08) and Darius Baughman (4 st, 11 tkl). Not in the PSL are Chris Young (6'0" 239 So, PS#509), Chris Riggs (5'11" 210 So, PS#418), Tavis Ciochetty (5'11" 232 So) and Caleb Stahl (5'9" 214 rFr). Five of the top 8 LB's return (all w/st exp). Majors was the #1 tackler while Chris Bullard was #7 and Mike Gothard #10. They shift to a 3 man group and are more experienced.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - WKU allowed 213 ypg (63%) with an 18-11 ratio in '08. Five players had 3+ starts in '08. Last year they had to replace 2 st'rs (#1 tkl'r) and one returning starter, Ryan Beard, was susp (only 1 st) so the unit basically had 1 ret starter. WKU struggled finishing dead last in my PDR allowing 67.8% with a 27-6 ratio. This year they lose CB Jihad Morris (9 st, 54 tkl, 7 pbu), Trent Calhoun (3 st, 16 tkl) and Erik Jones (1 st, 13 tkl) but have everyone else back including Beard giving this unit 7 with starting exp. Not in the PSL are Kiante Young (5'11" 208 rFr) and Tyler Julian (6'0" 221 So). Naturally there is only one way to go in my PDR and this is a much more experienced unit.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Had WKU been eligible in my ST rankings in '07, they would have finished #45. In 2008 I figured with a tougher schedule they would drop some as they also had to replace their top KR and K. Rainey was leading in both KR and PR when he was injured in the 8th game. Jeremy Moore avg just 36.9 punting (32.5 net) but WKU still finished a respectable #72. Last year they only had to replace their kicker and Rainey did a fine job on KR's (23.9) with Gaebler (7.8) and Rainey (7.2) splitting the 8 PR. Moore improved his avg to 43.3 and the net to 36.6. Casey Tinius had just 2 TB on 37 KO but hit 14-19 FG's (long 47). WKU moved up to #62. This year they lose Moore and Gaebler. Rainey is the feature RB (which could mean less KR) so they may not move up much in my ST rankings.

COACHES - David Elson didn't survive moving up to the FBS (2-22) and was fired after a 39-44 seven year record. New HC Willie Taggart spent the last 3 years as Stanford's RB coach tutoring Heisman finalist Toby Gerhart. Prior to his stint at SU, Taggart spent 8 yrs ('99-'06) on the WKU coaching staff including 2 as co-OC ('01-'02) and the L3Y ('03-'06) as asst HC. He is his own OC. New DC Clint Bowen came over from Kansas (DC L/4Y). Bowen was also the ST coor for 5 yr at KU.

PHIL'S FORECAST

WKU had an outstanding streak of 12 straight winning years heading into 2008. They made the IAA playoffs five times this decade. In 2007 they made the step from IAA (FCS) to a transitional FBS team and while they played six FBS teams, they were a respectable1-2 vs SBC teams. WKU took care of business vs its non-FBS foes winning all 6 and finished 7-5. They put up great stats for the year, due to blowout wins of 87-0 vs WV Tech, 56-7 vs Ind St, 50-14 vs NC Central and 52-12 vs Morehead St. They did surprisingly outgain Troy (416-363). In '08 they had just 2 FCS teams on their schedule and 5 matchups vs SBC opp's. WKU had 13 starters back and had to face 5 teams on the road that were bowl eligible in '07 plus took on conf favorites FAU (SBC) and Ball St (MAC) at home. I called for an end to WKU's streak of winning seasons and as you would expect, they dropped to just 2-10. Their 2 wins came vs EKU and Murray St by a combined 87-22 and taking those away they were outscored by an avg of 30-12 vs FBS teams. Last year they entered their first year of full eligibility in the SBC and FBS. They lost 21 scholarship seniors and ret'd just 12 scholarship Sr's and 17 Jr's. Their 10 ret st'rs were the fewest in the SBC and it figured to be a true transition year. It turned out just that way. WKU was blown out by Tenn and USF and then was a surprising underdog to C Ark and lost by 21. They were only outgained 473-434 by Navy in a 16 point loss and only trailed FIU 17-14 in the 3Q but lost by 17. WKU also only trailed UL 20-14 at the half and lost by 8 but then was blown out by MTSt. They led NT 35-28 at half but lost by 19 yielding the final 26 pts. WKU only trailed eventual SBC Champ Troy by 1 at the half but lost by 20. Elson was let go at 0-9 and the team played extremely hard for him in the final 3. ULM got a TD with 5:09 left to pull out a 21-18 win. FAU got a 27 yd TD with 6:59 left. In the season finale vs Ark St, WKU led 20-3 but fmbl'd twice (one set up a 4yd/1pl TD and the other a 27 yd FR TD) in :61 and lost by 4. Naturally, coming off an 0-12 season, all signs point towards improvement. The team was -12 in TO's in '09, allowed a defensive ypp of 12.1 (pg 299), had 3 net close losses and return 18 starters which is the most in the SBC. They were -122.5 ypg which was only 2nd worst in the SBC. This is a much more exp'd team but with the coaching change and tough schedule, it will still be a lean year in the win column.

Sep. 4	at Nebraska	A					First meeting. The Hilltoppers have dropped 9 straight road openers (avg score of 41-9). WKU is 0-3 vs Big 12 schools and enters 2010 on an 11 game road losing streak.
Sep. 11	at Kentucky	G					In only prior matchup WKU lost 41-3 in '08 being outFD'd 23-8 & outgained 398-157. First gm of a new 4 yr contract (2011 & '13 gms will be in Nashville at LP Field & are designated WKU HG's).
Sep. 18	Indiana	A					In the schools only prior meeting ('08), WKU lost 31-13 being outgained by 168 yards. This will be just the 2nd BCS school to visit here. WKU is 13-1 in home openers (lost LY to USF).
Sep. 25	at USF	G					In last year's 1st ever meeting, WKU actually led 3-0 late 1Q & was only down 21-13 heading into the 4Q. The Hilltoppers are 0-6 at BCS schools with an avg score of 42-8.
Oct. 2							BONUS: Prior to 1926 WKU's athletic teams were known as the "Pedagogues" or "Teachers". BONUS: Into 2010, WKU is 0-8 vs SBC schools at home since moving up to the FBS level.
Oct. 9	at FIU	A					LY The Hilltoppers trailed 17-14 early 3Q but the Golden Panthers scored on 4 straight poss to put the game away. WKU is 1-7 in Sun Belt road gms since moving up to the FBS.
Oct. 16	ULM	A					WKU is 3-2 vs ULM. LY WKU led 12-7 at HT & 18-14 mid 4Q before allowing a 58/11pl TD drive w/5:09 left. They had a 1st & goal but after 2 penalties they missed a 32 yd FG.
Oct. 23	at Louisiana	A					WKU's 1st trip to Lafayette S/'98. LY WKU trailed just 20-14 mid 3Q & after a TD (2pt conv) were down by 8 w/5:11 left. They elected to KO but UL ran out the clock w/9 straight runs.
Oct. 30	North Texas	A					Home team has outgained the visitor in each of the 3 meetings by 108 ypg. LY WKU led 49-42 late 3Q (2x's had a 2 TD lead) but allowed 26 unanswered over the final 15:50 vs NT.
Nov. 6	Florida Atlantic	A					LY RB Bobby Rainey had a career high 144 yds (9.6) vs FAU but after cutting the deficit to 6 WKU elected to KO but couldn't stop FAU as the Owls ran out the final 4:59.
Nov. 13	at Arkansas St	A					WKU was only outgained LY by 23 yds vs ASU despite allowing a ssn high 8 sks (-62 yds). The D played its best gm of the yr allowing only 247 yds (160 less than any other '09 opp).
Nov. 20	Middle Tennessee	A					MT is the most common 2010 opp. WKU is 6-3 since 2001 in home finales but has dropped the L/2. WKU beat MT in 2007 which was the 1st win as an FBS member.
Nov. 27	at Troy	A					WKU is 0-7-1 vs Troy. LY WKU had a 310-147 yd edge possessing the ball for 22 min in the 1H but still trailed 21-20. QB Kawaun Jakes had 306 total yds incl a career high 121 rush (6.7).

WHAT EXACTLY IS A PS NUMBER??

One very important part of my College Football Preview Magazine is an individual player's "PS#". You will see them on almost every page and I find them vital in my analysis of a team. If you have purchased my magazine before, I am sure you are very familiar with what each player's PS# stands for. This article is for those of you picking up my magazine for the first time and are asking the question listed at the top of the page.

A simple definition for a PS# is my ranking of the players at their positions coming out of high school. I personally do not scout the high school games and rate each player. Covering college football as I do takes 52 weeks of the year as it is. I compile my PS#'s based on the many different recruiting services across the country. I not only like to use all of the biggest and best, but use regional reports as well. On the bottom left of this page, I list the top recruiting services that I count on annually.

When we receive a recruiting magazine, we translate each player's ranking into a point system from 1-100. Jessica, Loree and Brandon then log each and every player into the computer and give them a point total from each source. This is a very time-consuming process. This year's 2010 Freshmen List has 25,102 players on it!!! Many players are listed by just one or two sources. The higher ranked recruits are mentioned by almost every source. The more they are mentioned and the higher they are rated in each publication, the more total points they accrue. After months of entering all of this information, I sort the list by each position and by total points. Naturally, the QB with the most total points then becomes PS#1QB for that year. If a player is PS#99QB, that means he ranks 99th in total points of all QB's coming out of high school that year.

Some positions simply do not have as many players as others. For example, this year's PS#100TE totaled just 226.5 points in my system, while this year's PS#100OL has 527.6 points!! The reason is simple. There are FIVE offensive linemen and just one TE on the field. Naturally, there are 5 times as many OL's to choose from as TE's, making it much more competitive. A player with 226.5 points on the offensive line is rated PS#384OL this year. The PS# is not their overall rank in the freshmen class, but their overall rank AT THAT POSITION in the freshmen class.

I also track JUCO's. A JUCO is a player who went to a Junior College after high school and played football there. They use up a year of their college eligibility for every year they play and most come in as juniors. They are older, seasoned players, and usually can make an immediate impact.

So what is the big deal about where they are ranked out of high school? I equate it to where a player ranks in the NFL draft. Obviously, there are some outstanding players in the NFL who were low-round draft picks or even signed as undrafted free agents. However, the majority of the all-stars in the NFL are higher round draft picks and 1st round picks usually make an impact much quicker.

WR DeSean Jackson of California was PS#1 in 2005 and has 2,068 yds (16.7) in just two years with Philadelphia. He also avg'd 11.2 per PR w/3 TD's.

Colleges are much the same. There are plenty of players without a high PS# who end up making it big. For example, Adam Archuleta was an unheralded walk-on at Arizona State who arrived as a slender 180 lb freshman. He left the Sun Devils' program as one of the most feared defenders in the Pac-10. He increased his weight to a chiseled 215 lbs, while bench pressing over 225 lbs 31 times with 4.36 speed, going as the 1st DB in the 1st round of 2001's NFL Draft. Some kids enter college at 17 or 18, undersized and not yet matured, but then grow into big, strong, fast players and make all-conference teams. Just like the NFL, there are a good number of these types of stories. For example, 2000 MVP Kurt Warner was not drafted and played in NFL Europe and the Arena Football League. Other notable UFA's are QB Tony Romo (Dallas), RB Earnest Graham (Tampa Bay), RB Ryan Grant (Green Bay) and TE Antonio Gates (SD). Also, just like the NFL, there are MORE cases of those players who come in highly ranked out of high school, becoming stars and making an immediate impact.

Here are some examples of the previously mentioned highly ranked high school players that made an immediate impact in the NFL: In 2006, Percy Harvin was a PS#1WR. Last year he was the #1DC (22nd pick) of Minnesota and was named the NFL Rookie of the Year with 790 yds (13.2). In 2005, Jonathan Stewart was a PS#1RB. He came out early as the #1DC (13th pick) of Carolina and finished the 2008 NFL season with 836 yards (4.5) and 10 TD's. In 2004, Adrian Peterson was a PS#1RB and had an amazing season of 1,341 yards. In 2006, Vince Young (PS#2QB) stepped in and led Tennessee to a 6-1 finish; LaVar Arrington was PS#1LB in 1997 and ended up the #2 overall pick in the draft; Peyton Manning was PS#2QB in 1994 and started as a true frosh; TE Tony Gonzalez was PS#1TE; Orlando Pace was PS#1OL and started as a true frosh and, like Manning, was the first overall pick in the NFL draft. In 1995, the top 2 RB's were PS#1 and PS#2 (Kevin Faulk and Ahman Green) while Randy Moss was PS#1WR. In 1996, Tim Couch was PS#1QB. Ron Dayne was PS#3RB and rushed for over 2,000 yards as a true frosh. Corey Dillon was PS#3JC and he powered the Washington Huskies' offense. In 1998, John Henderson was PS#1OL while Julius Peppers was PS#6DL and Carson Palmer was PS#6QB. In 1999, Chris Simms was PS#1QB and Andre Johnson PS#2WR. These are just some examples but as you can see, the stronger the PS#, the better chance the player has of making a big impact in college.

Many times after players graduate, the talent behind them is unknown because they have not played a lot of college ball. You would expect a 1st or 2nd round draft pick in the NFL to be able to step into an open starting spot quickly and the higher-rated players can usually do just that. That is the value of a PS#.

On each individual team page we list the Top Newcomers which includes both freshmen and JUCO's. These are ranked by each player's combined frosh rating (not by PS#'s) so therefore the top player listed earned the highest ranking in the comb frosh rating (which does take into account total points).

Before I wrap this article up, I would like to go over a couple of commonly used abbreviations that are in this magazine. Now you know just what a PS# is. Naturally, the PS stands for Phil Steele, or my rating for the players out of high school. I also use HT often. HT is a Highly Touted athlete. In the past this has been a player who ranks in the Top 100 at his position out of high school. With 50 states that comes out to be about 2 players per state at each position. A VHT (Very Highly Touted) is a player rated among the Top 20 out of HS. I have changed the HT and VHT guidelines in the past couple of years. At K, the ratings drop to Top 10 for VHT and Top 35 for HT. At TE it is Top 15 for VHT and Top 75 for HT. QB is Top 30 for VHT and Top 100 for HT. WR and RB have two spots on most teams, therefore, the HT number is up to #150 and the VHT is up to #50. Most teams play 3 or 4 LB's so that number moves to #200 for HT classification and #60 for VHT. The DL's and DB's generally have 4 players on the field. The HT classification is now up to #250 at those positions, while a VHT is among the Top 60 out of HS at their position. The offensive line, which has 5 spots, is also up to #250 as an HT and up to #100 for a VHT. Many recruiting publications do not distinguish between OL and DL for their lineman. As a general rule, we put them into the OL category so that position has, by far, the largest amount of players.

A quick note about the players in my write-ups. Sometimes on the offensive line I will mention that a player was a top-notch wrestler in high school. To me, a top wrestler has very good body control and athleticism which makes for a quality lineman. I also list when a player is from Canada. I do this because not all of the recruiting services cover Canada so those players are generally rated lower in the PS#'s than their U.S. counterparts. Many times the top player out of Canada is an NFL prospect but only has a PS# around 150 or 200. Therefore, they are often more talented than their PS# would give them credit for.

On page 295 are all of this year's top freshmen and JUCO's. By the end of the year, many will have played and some will already be stars. If you like this type of information, you will love my 2005-2010 Complete Freshmen Recruiting Report. It is just $15 and lists all of the top recruits for all of the different positions over the last 6 years.

RECRUITING SOURCES

I do not scout the high schools personally, but I rely on some great sources to complete my top frosh lists. I subscribe to each of these sources. The colleges themselves use these services' information. Should you want to get the latest on college recruits, I recommend the following sources:

CONFERENCE BY CONFERENCE 2010 RECRUITING RATINGS

Here are my 2010 recruiting rankings for each conference. They take into account the strength of the Top 5 signees, the Top 10 signees and the average signing grade per player for the overall class. This list is not about the quantity of the freshmen signed but the overall quality of the class. Sometimes a team with a small class of just 15 players may rate higher than one with 30. Here are some interesting notes on this year's signing ratings. Despite losing Pete Carroll to the NFL, USC continued its recruiting dominance as they signed the top class in the Pac-10 for the 9th straight season and also claimed the top overall spot for the 5th time in 6 years!! Florida brought in the top class in the SEC (#3 overall) and there are 5 SEC schools in the Top 10 for the 2nd consecutive year. Joe Paterno and Penn St signed their best class since 2000, which was the last time a team other than Ohio St or Michigan finished #1 in the Big Ten. Obviously, recruiting rankings are a good tool to predict a team's future success, but are clearly just a part of a team's success. A good example of this is Cincinnati who has won back-to back Big East Titles despite finishing no higher than 6th in conference or #62 nationally since 2005. The rankings for Air Force, Army and Navy are not complete because the academies do not release official signee lists until summer (and even then most recruits head to Prep schools). I hope your favorite team did well in the recruiting wars.

FOR BETTER OR FOR WORSE

By Phil Steele

Close Wins, Close Losses

Give me a computer full of NCAA football statistics and an entire offseason and I'm always going to try and uncover something new. A few years ago I was thinking, What happens if a team was fortunate and won a lot of close games? I figured that those teams would probably not be as fortunate the next year. On the flip side, I was thinking that if a team suffered a lot of close losses the previous year, they would be undervalued. A few years back we did the research from the previous six years and logged in all of the teams that had close wins and close losses (games decided by a TD or less) the previous year. I then ranked the category by NET close wins and losses.

For example: In 2007 Hawaii benefited from 5 close wins with 0 close losses. Therefore, they had a total of 5 NET close wins. Also, Tennessee had 4 close wins and 1 close loss for 3 NET close wins. Minnesota, had one close win and 6 close losses for a total of 5 net close losses. I then ran the records for each of the past 8 years to see how the teams did and I'm pleased to report the trends came up just as expected.

While I use a TD or less as the standard for a close win and loss, if there is a late misleading score, I will either include or exclude it accordingly.

Looking back over the past eight years, there have been a total of 200 teams that had a NET of 2 close losses or more the previous year and of those 200, just 46 had a worse record the next year, giving this idea a 77.0% grade. The last 3 years there were 15 teams with 4 or 5 net close losses the previous year and 12 had a better record. Last year SMU (5 net close losses in '08) went from 1-11 to 8-5!! Memphis went from 2-10 to 7-6 in '07 and in '08 Minnesota went from 1-11 to a bowl (7-6). Illinois which went from 2-10 in '06 to the Rose Bowl in '07! A couple of examples from 2006 were Arkansas which went from 4-7 in '05 to 10-4, San Jose St (3-8 to 9-4) and BYU (6-6 to 11-2). In 2004 Penn St had 2 net close losses and improved from 4-7 to 11-1. Navy had 3 close losses in 2002 (2-10) and improved to 8-5 in 2003. California had 2 net close losses in 2001 and went from 1-10 to 7-5 in '02. Last year there were 13 teams that had 3 or more net close losses in '08 and 11 improved their record, 2 had the same record and ZERO had a weaker record!

Listed below is a chart analyzing data from the last eight years. The chart lists the total amount of teams that had 2 or more net close losses, how many improved the next year, how many had the same record and how many actually had a worse record. As you can see, the success rate is 77%.

	Total Last 8 Years	Stronger Next Year	Same Next Year	Weaker Next Year	% BETTER or Same Next Yr
Previous Year 4+ Net Close Losses	36	28	3	5	86.1%
Previous Year 3 Net Close Losses	67	48	7	12	82.1%
Previous Year 2 Net Close Losses	97	61	7	29	70.1%
2 or More Net Close Losses	200	137	17	46	77.0%

Here are the teams that had the bad fortune of 3 or more net close losses last year:

	2009 Wins By TD or ↓	2009 Losses By TD or ↓	NET CLOSE LOSSES		2009 Wins By TD or ↓	2009 Losses By TD or ↓	NET CLOSE LOSSES
North Texas	0	6	6	Oklahoma	1	4	3
Maryland	2	6	4	Stanford	1	4	3
Ball St	2	6	4	Wake Forest	2	5	3
Purdue	1	5	4	E Michigan	0	3	3
UTEP	1	5	4	Arizona St	1	4	3
Air Force	0	4	4	WKU	0	3	3
Louisiana Tech	0	3	3	Clemson	1	4	3

These are the teams that had 2 net close losses: Arkansas St, Buffalo, Colorado St, Connecticut, Kent St, Nebraska, New Mexico, Notre Dame, Southern Miss, Tennessee, Texas A&M, Tulsa, Vanderbilt

Naturally there are some teams that are used to winning close games and I did discover a little difference in the last 8 years. Teams that had 3 or more net close wins the previous year did see their record either stay the same or get weaker the next year 79% of the time, but teams with just 2 net close wins, the same entry level we used for the close losses, did improve their record 37 out of 100 times, meaning they were the same or weaker the next season just 63% of the time.

	Total Last 8 Years	Weaker Next Year	Same Next Year	Stronger Next Year	% WEAKER or Same Next Yr
Previous Year 6 or 7 Net Close Wins	3	3	0	0	100%
Previous Year 4 or 5 Net Close Wins	36	28	4	4	88.9%
Previous Year 3 Net Close Wins	73	47	7	19	73.9%
Previous Year 2 Net Close Wins	100	55	8	37	63.0%
3 or More Net Close Wins	112	78	11	23	79.5%
2 or More Net Close Wins	212	133	19	60	71.7%

Let me give you some examples. Over the last 3 years, 16 teams were coming off a season of 4 or more net close wins and 13 had a weaker record (2 were same). In 2003, TCU benefitted from 6 net close wins to finish 11-2, but the next season dropped to 5-6. In 2002, Notre Dame had 5 net close wins and finished 10-3 and in '03 went just 5-7. In 2001, Illinois went 10-2 and won the Big Ten Title, benefitting from 4 net close wins, and the next year they fell to 5-7. Tennessee went from 10-3 in 2004 with 5 net close wins and finished 5-6 in '05. Fla Atlantic, who benefitted from 4 net close wins dropped, from 9-3 in '04 to 2-9 in '05. In '08 Hawaii led the chart with 5 net close wins and went from 12-1 to 7-7. This year there are 19 teams that benefitted from 3 or more net close wins last year and I list them in the chart below.

Here are the teams that had the good fortune of 3 or more net close wins last year:

	2009 Wins By TD or ↓	2009 Losses By TD or ↓	NET CLOSE WINS		2009 Wins By TD or ↓	2009 Losses By TD or ↓	NET CLOSE WINS
Wyoming	6	0	6	Louisiana	4	1	3
Idaho	5	1	4	Army	4	1	3
Oregon	4	0	4	South Carolina	4	1	3
Georgia Tech	5	1	4	Wisconsin	4	1	3

Cincinnati	4	0	4	Houston	5	2	3
SMU	6	3	3	Boston Coll	4	1	3
UCF	5	2	3	California	3	0	3
Ohio	5	2	3	BYU	3	0	3
				East Carolina	5	2	3

These are the teams that had 2 net close wins: Alabama, Boise St, Georgia, Hawaii, Iowa, Kansas St, Middle Tenn, New Mexico St, Oklahoma St, Temple, Texas, ULM, USC, West Virginia

Much like a stock broker, my job is to find value. The same is true in the magazine business and I am very proud of our #1 Most Accurate Title over the last 12 years. I would attribute that Title to the fact that I work on nothing but football 365 days a year and I am always looking to uncover any system or trend that would give me an edge. Here are two more methods for uncovering those underrated teams.

YPP Factor

Seven years ago I did an article on ypp and every year there are some solid charts for you to review. First of all, let's explain what ypp is exactly. A ypp is simply yards per point. An offense is more efficient when their ypp is a lower number. If a team had an offensive ypp of 10.0, that would mean for every 200 yards they gained, they scored 20 points. Meanwhile, if they had an offensive ypp of 20.0, then for every 200 yards they gained, they only scored 10 points. On the other side of the ball, defenses want to have a higher ypp. Inverting the same thought, if a team allowed 200 yards and had a 20.0 ypp, that means they would allow just 10 points for every 200 yards the opposition traveled, whereas a 10.0 ypp would be 20 points for every 200 yards allowed. When I started this research in 1990, the average ypp for a team was 15.44 and the median was 15.49. It surprises me how much the median has dropped inside this decade.

Last year the avg was just 15.65 and the median was 14.38. I found teams that have a high offensive ypp (move the ball but do not score) the previous year generally have a stronger record the next season. Let's look at teams that had an unusually high ypp the previous year (an inefficient offense). If you look at the chart to the right you will see that 27 teams have had a ypp greater than 22.3 since 1990 and ALL 27 have had a stronger or identical record the next year. Wyoming (23.35 in '08) went from 4-8 to a bowl last year. As you can see, the chart goes to 17.5 which still has a solid success record, as teams will either have the same or a stronger record 82.0% of the time.

OFFENSIVE YPP • PREVIOUS YEAR SINCE 1990

PREV YR YPP GREATER THAN	Happen Times S/1990	Stronger Record Next Yr	Same Record Next Yr	Weaker Record Next Yr	BETTER Or Same S/1990
22.3	27	26	1	0	100.0%
20.3	71	54	5	12	83.1%
18.4	178	125	18	35	80.3%
17.5	283	209	23	51	82.0%

The teams that fall into this category this year are:
Miami (OH) 22.04, Washington St 20.72, San Jose St 20.65, New Mexico St 20.01, Tulane 19.46, New Mexico 19.31, Hawaii 19.21, Vanderbilt 18.76, Louisville 18.47, Army 17.96, Iowa St 17.76

Teams that had an extremely low ypp the previous year usually have a weaker record the next season. The statistics are not as dominant as the high ypp, probably because there are some teams like USC that benefit from turnovers on a yearly basis, keeping their ypp low. Still, according to the chart to the right, teams whose ypp were less than 11.56 the previous year had either a weaker or the same record 73.3% of the time the next year. There are a lot of teams that fit into the category of 11.56-13.56, so look on the individual team pages for those numbers. Looking at the history of offensive ypp, these teams should have a weaker record this season.

OFFENSIVE YPP • PREVIOUS YEAR SINCE 1990

PREV YEAR YPP LESS THAN	Happen Times S/1990	Weaker Record Next Yr	Same Record Next Yr	Stronger Record Next Yr	WEAKER Or Same Record S/1990
11.56	105	62	15	28	73.3%
13.56	667	389	59	219	67.2%

This year's teams that fall into the top category are: Boise St 10.67, Texas 10.72, Temple 11.29, Rutgers 11.31 and Oregon 11.42. Teams that just missed the cut Cincinnati 11.59, Clemson 11.64.

Now let's take a look at the teams under the defensive ypp that were fortunate and not so fortunate last year. As the chart to the right shows, if a team allows a defensive ypp of 13.29 or lower (meaning they gave up a lot of points but not a lot of yds), their record improves or is the same the next year 69.0% of the time. Teams that allowed a lot of yards but not a lot of points, sound like a bend but don't break D, but generally, as shown below, teams whose defensive ypp was 17.35 or greater the previous year have a weaker or the same record the following year 64.8% of the time. In 2007 just 5 fit the 20.35 and higher standard and ALL 5 had the same or weaker record (4 weaker). Last year USC was the "leader" with an incredible 24.64 ypp in '08 and they dropped from 12-1 to 9-4.

DEFENSIVE YPP • PREVIOUS YEAR SINCE 1990

PREV YEAR YPP IS LESS THAN	Happen Times S/1990	Stronger Record Next Yr	Same Record Next Yr	Weaker Record Next Yr	BETTER Or Same Record S/1990
11.25	52	34	3	15	71.2%
12.53	292	190	22	80	72.6%

There are a lot of teams that fit this category: Rice 10.77, Toledo 10.82, Miami (OH) 11.04, E Michigan 11.17, Tulane 11.53, North Texas 11.59, NCSt 11.59, New Mexico 11.66, Idaho 12.03, Syracuse 12.07, WKU 12.08, San Diego St 12.52, Colorado 12.59, Maryland 12.68.

Of the 213 teams listed in both methods the last 3 years an outstanding (72.7%!) had their record get stronger or weaker, as was forecast by the ypp chart. Over the last 5 years 230 of the 304 teams have had their record get stronger or weaker (or stay the same) as was forecast by the ypp chart for an 75.7% success rate!

PREV YEAR YPP IS GREAT THAN:	Happen Times S/1990	Weaker Record Next Yr	Same Record Next Yr	Stronger Record Next Yr	WEAKER Or Same Record S/1990

17.35	383	216	32	135	64.8%

Here are the 13 teams whose defensive ypp was 17.35 or better: Nebraska 26.08, Penn St 22.44, Ohio St 20.92, Alabama 20.85, Florida 20.37, LSU 20.18, Iowa St 19.04

2010 NFL DRAFT A DAY FOR VHT'S!!!

By Phil Steele

The NFL Draft is always a big day for the top graduating seniors, some high-quality juniors as well as a few sophomores in college football. It is the chance to move on to the NFL and make a living playing the sport they have participated in for most of their lives. For first round draft picks it means millions of dollars and sudden wealth. Colleges benefit by having former players being drafted highly as it allows them to use it to attract future recruiting classes. While lower round draft picks do not make millions, everyone has the potential to make a substantial income and that is why a big final year in college is very important.

Being a first round draft pick does not guarantee success. The NFL has lots of stories of first round "busts" over the years, players who never lived up to their potential due to injuries or just poor performance. Every franchise has had some #1 pick who never panned out or who never even started an NFL game. However, the majority of 1st round picks do make it big and have an impact on their team and the NFL. In 2008 the Patriots selected Jerod Mayo 10th overall. Mayo played every defensive snap in 2008 and won 49 of the 50 votes for 2008 Defensive Rookie of the Year. 2008 was also a banner year for QB's Matt Ryan and Joe Flacco who became the 4th and 5th rookie QB's since 1970 to start all 16 games. Last year the Jets traded up and snared Mark Sanchez with the 5th overall pick. Sanchez had his ups and downs as many rookies do but was key in the 2nd half of the year in leading the Jets to the AFC Championship game.

How does a player get to be a first round draft pick? A good starting point in determining a player's grade coming out of college is how that player performs on the field. In most cases, you must be among the most productive players in the college game. However, productivity is not the only criteria. Timmy Chang is the all-time career passing leader in college football with 16,190 yards but he went undrafted. Colt Brennan put up solid numbers at Hawaii with a 70.4% completion rate in his career but a poor bowl game and Combine performance saw him drop to the 6th round in 2008. The top three reception leaders of all-time in FBS ball are Taylor Stubblefield (316), Josh Davis (306) and RB Taurean Henderson (303) and not one of the 3 were drafted. Texas Tech QB Graham Harrell passed for 15,599 yards and had a 134-34 ratio in his career. He spent one year in the CFL and is currently a free agent.

NFL scouts concentrate primarily on players' size, speed and strength ratings. A player could have a great senior year, but if his performance in the 40 yard dash is disappointing, he could drop a round or two in the draft. If a player shows up at the NFL Combine out of shape, he'll probably cost himself a large chunk of money in his contract, as he will be drafted lower than expected (Alabama DT Terrence Cody). It's all about how many reps a player can do at 225 pounds in the bench press and other measurable physical characteristics.

Even after all the number crunching, there are plenty of stories about players who were very late round DC's or not even drafted who went on to great success in the NFL. In 2008 Clifton Smith from Fresno St became the 3rd rookie UFA to make the Pro Bowl. After spending the 1st half of the season on the Bucs practice squad, Smith tallied a PR and KR for TD's with 259 return yards vs KC. Two undrafted players from Kent St, Antonio Gates and Josh Cribbs, both earned spots on the 2000's NFL All-Decade team at TE and KR respectively. These stories are great, but the majority of the stars in the NFL are the players who were graded high enough to be upper round draft picks.

Colleges do not have a draft of high school players, but every school is given an allotment of scholarships and has to recruit players from around the country to fill their needs. Most high school athletes will take the big name schools scholarship offers over the smaller ones. If you are lucky enough to have Florida, Ohio St or USC offer you one of their precious 15 to 25 scholarships, you usually jump at it. Schools like Hawaii or Middle Tennessee do not even bother to recruit most of the top athletes coming out, as they really have little chance to land them (unless it's a local kid).

Since there is no draft, how do you rate players out of high school? I rely on some great recruiting sources and have a computer rating system that ranked over 22,000 high school and junior college players this season. I then assign every player a PS# which shows how highly rated each player is out of high school or JC. I have an entire page devoted to how I determine a PS# (see page 294).

I have come up with my own terminology for the players' ratings out of high school on that page. An HT (Highly Touted) is a player who is rated highly at his position. Out of the 22,000 or so kids who are on my list coming out of high school, the top 1,660 fall into the HT category (about 7.5%). A VHT (Very Highly Touted) is similar to a first round draft pick. There are only 535 of these players each year (2.4%), with varying amounts at each position. That comes out to just 10.7 players per state, so we are talking about the crème de la crème of recruits.

Brian Orakpo (PS#45DL) originally went to Texas to play basketball and weighed 210 lbs. The former Longhorn DE (4.6 spd) now benches 515 lbs and can squat 600 lbs. He won the Lombardi, Nagurski and Hendricks Awards and was drafted 13th by the Redskins. Orakpo would go on to lead NFL rookies with 11 sacks in 2009. When a player moves into a college program, he benefits from vastly upgraded weight rooms and nutritional programs. Players will show much greater gains in size, speed and strength in their 3 to 5 years in college than they do once an NFL team drafts them. The recruiting ratings are not an exact science. However, much like the NFL, you will find that the most sought after kids out of high school usually turn out to be the stars of the college game. There are many cases of VHT players stepping in and starting in their true freshman seasons.

This year, I once again look at the end product of the college game. In late April, after the 2010 NFL Draft was complete, I went back and looked at the PS#'s of all the top picks. What I found was that 2010 was a very deep draft for VHT's!! Overall, 21 of the top 30 players were VHT's, which is pretty good. Even more impressive was that 13 of the top 16 draftees (81.3%) in 2010 were VHT's!! In 2008 and in 2009, 14 of the top 23 players were VHT's. In 2007, 21 of the top 27 players were VHT's (78%). 2006's draft featured VHT's in 17 of the top 23 picks (74%). In 2005 of the top 26 draftees, 14 were VHT's. There are around 3,000 players who are signed to a scholarship by FBS schools each year. Since there are just 535 players who meet my criteria for a VHT, that means that roughly 18% of all signees are classified as a VHT. In the last 11 years 85 of the 132 top 12 picks in the draft have been VHT's!! That means 64% of the top spots were VHT's and that proves the significance of the rating. Here is a list of this year's Top 30 NFL Draft selections and how they were rated out of high school. As you can see, the 2010 NFL Draft was another VHT day.

It will be interesting to see if VHT's dominate the 2011 NFL Draft as well. Over the last 10 years I have provided my list of top players for the upcoming NFL Draft. In 2006 of my top 24 players only ONE was not selected in either the 1st or 2nd round and that was Michael Bush, who suffered a broken a leg in the 1st game and was slow to heal, affecting his draft status! Twenty of the 31 players listed were either FIRST round draft picks or returned for their senior season. In 2008, two of my 32 projections came out early and were taken in the 2007 Supplemental Draft (OT Jared Gaither and CB Paul Oliver.) Of the remaining top 15, 8 were 1st RD DC's and 3 were 2nd RD DC's. For 2009 the top 12 were drafted in the 1st (8) or 2nd (3) rounds, 17 players were selected in the 1st or 2nd round, 24 of 32 were drafted overall with 7 players returning (1 UFA). Of the 32 players I listed, 75% of them were either a 1st or 2nd round pick or opted to return for 2009. In 2010 there were 7 1st RD DC's and 4 2nd RD DC's in the top 11 picks. Overall 21 players were taken in the 1st (14) or 2nd (7) RD's with another 2 players (Mark Herzlich and Marvin Austin) returning for 2011. Obviously draft positions often will be affected by a player's 2010 performance. Here are my top players for the 2011 Draft.

"Without question your College Football Preview is the best ever. I read my first college preview in 1941 (Street & Smith) and have not missed a year of reading the various publications since."

Pat Forde

"Phil Steele owns the genre. How valuable is his book? I left mine on a plane and nearly had a seizure when I discovered it was missing...If you want to know every meaningful stat from last year --individual and team, including game-by-game team breakdowns--Steele has'em. If you want six-year statistical trends by team, every coach's career record, a three-deep at every position and the top 20-25 newcomers for every team...yes, Steele has 'em."

2009 SPECIAL TEAMS RATINGS

In the text of the team write-ups, I have ranked each special teams unit. I devised a formula which takes into account net punting, kick returns, punt returns & kick return defense. The total opportunities each team had was also factored into the equation. As an example, in 2006, Utah St punted EIGHTY ONE times and returned only 14 punts all year. Their net punting average was weighed 5.78 times as much as their punt return average ranking due to the difference in attempts. I also have a net TD/Blk's category. A negative number means a team allowed more blocks & TD's than they garnered. A positive number means that they blk'd more kicks and scored more TD's than they allowed. If a team blocked a punt AND returned the same punt for a TD, I only give credit for one TD/Blk. However, if a team fumbled a punt snap and the other team recovered I counted that as a blocked punt. I do not count blocked FG's in the category as a missed FG has the same result and is not a game-changing play. The only time I count a blocked FG is if it was returned for a TD.

A few years ago I added a formula to grade the kickers taking into account 6 categories. The first was overall accuracy and that % was multiplied times 5 (everything graded on a scale of 1-5). Then I took the amount of FG's made and divided it into the largest amount of FG's made in the NCAA and that percentage was multiplied by 5. Each counted for 30% of the overall grade. Then I factor FG's from 40-49 yds (both # of kicks and %) and did the same and they counted for 30% of the grade each. I then factor FG's of 50+ yds and they counted for 10% of the grade. This factored in kickers with stronger legs. Speaking of kickers, my KR Defense grade includes a formula for TB's on kickoffs. It grades a TB as a 15 yard return (avg KO goes to the 5) and an OOB KO as a 30 yard return and adds them to the actual KR defense numbers so my numbers will differ from the schools in that column as mine factor in both adjustments. The NCAA moved to a 1" tee in 2006, so there were fewer TB's. In 2007 they moved the KO's back another 5 yards, making dangerous KR's a bigger factor in games.

In past years I have listed a special teams rating, a kicker rating and a couple years ago added a combined special teams ratings. The K rating accounts for about 26% of the overall grade. This year I just list them by the combined rating but for you long-time readers looking for the individual ratings, they are in the chart listed below.

Several years ago I adjusted NET PUNTING averages, which now deducts 20 yards for touchbacks. This means net punting averages will for the most part be lower than in years past. We found that the NCAA site did this for all teams. For years we have used the individual team stats but found that some were using the net WITHOUT touchbacks (which would mean higher net punting avg's) and over 60% were now subtracting the 20 yards for touchbacks from the net. You'll find that almost every school is now uniform by deducting the touchback yards from the net punting.

PHIL STEELE'S DRAFT GUIDE

On Page 1 of the magazine, I thanked you for purchasing my Phil Steele's College Football Preview & you do have my heartfelt thanks for that!! I could have also noted the additional bonus you receive in my 2010-'11 Draft Guide, as it is basically included in the magazine! Let me explain:

In the front of the magazine I list my Top QB's, RB's, WR's, etc. for each season with a heavy emphasis on who I think will be taken in next year's draft. On this page are some of 2009's AA Team. For the 2nd year in a row WR's had a quality year. In both 2008 & 2009, 12 of the top 15 were drafted with the other 3 players being offered rookie FA contracts. In what had been billed as a poor year for QB's 8 were drafted, 3 offered UFA contracts & 3 returned to their schools. Overall, 2010 was very solid for the Draft Guide as 130 players were drafted or signed a UFA contract (79.8%).

Over the past 7 years on this page of "Tops" there have been 1,210 players listed. Of those 1,210 only 59 players (4.9%) fall into the category of not being drafted, not signed as a free agent or not returning which means 95.1% found a home!!! There have been 174 players who signed as UFA's (Undrafted Free Agents) in the 7 years (14.4%). That means 977 (80.7%) were either drafted or returned to school for another year.

Thanks for purchasing my NFL Draft Guide. See pages 7-15.

2009 PASS EFFICIENCY DEFENSE RANKINGS

Here are my rankings for pass efficiency defense. Taken into account are total yards, TD's, int and completion % just like the NCAA does. THE KEY DIFFERENCE between the NCAA pass D rankings and mine is that I also factor in the strength of opposing pass attacks. For example, Maryland (5-6) finished #8 in the NCAA Pass Efficiency Defensive rankings in 2004. They allowed opposing QB's just 48.3% completions with a 7-6 ratio (TD-interceptions). When I factor in the strength of their opponents' pass attacks, they ranked only #41 in my rankings. Their toughest pass offense faced was #52 Temple and not only did their other 10 opponents finish in the bottom half of the pass offense rankings, 5 were in the bottom 32! Conversely, USC which won the National Championship, finished only #34 in the NCAA Pass Efficiency Defense rankings, but was #1 in my rankings as they took on NINE team's rated higher than Maryland's toughest pass attack faced, including the #5, #7 and #12 attacks. They still yielded just 53.8% with a 13-22 ratio, that is a pretty clear example of how factoring in the strength of opponent makes these ratings more precise.

Let me show you a couple of overrated and underrated secondaries on the NCAA pass D chart from the past few years. Army was 3-9 in 2007 but ranked #16 in the NCAA pass D rankings. One of the main reasons is they only allowed 190 ypg passing. Another reason is that teams ran the ball at will on them, as they were #117 in rush D. When teams did pass they allowed 64.6% completions and a 12-7 ratio. Another reason they allowed just 190 ypg was their opponents. Air Force and Navy were last and second to last in pass offense as both run the option. Rhode Island also runs an option offense and had the #110 pass offense of FCS teams (out of 116!). They also faced the #76 pass offense of Ark St, #73 Temple, #100 Akron, #84 Wake Forest, #89 Tulane and #98 of Georgia Tech. They only faced 3 other teams that ranked in the top 70 in pass offense all season. Those three teams hit a combined 90 of 126 (71.4%) and 349 ypg! Does this sound like the #16 pass defense in the country? My pass D rankings had Army at #100!!!

Florida St finished 9-4 in 2008, but their #26 finish in the NCAA pass efficiency D rankings was definitely misleading. Florida St's opponents only completed 51% for 162 ypg, but the Seminoles faced the #113 set of opposing QB's and still allowed a 15-9 ratio. They faced NONE of the top FBS pass offenses (#58 Clemson was the high), played 2 FCS teams (#60 and #99 in FCS rankings) and faced the #116 ranked pass offense of Georgia Tech and #111 Virginia Tech. FSU's pass D was obviously overrated in the NCAA rankings as they finished #60 in my rankings.

Oklahoma finished 12-2 in 2008 and went to the BCS Title game, but finished #46 in the NCAA pass D rankings. They did allow 252 ypg game passing but that came against the 7th toughest slate of opposing QB's. The Sooners faced 8 of the top 17 QB's in the NCAA's pass efficiency rankings. The Big 12 was loaded at QB as Okla faced Heisman runner-up Colt McCoy (#3, 3859 yds), Zac Robinson (#5, 3064), Graham Harrell (#8, 5111), Chase Daniel twice (#10, 4335), Joe Ganz (#14, 3568), Todd Reesing (#17, 3888) and not to mention #1DC Josh Freeman (#34, 2945), all in conference play. They also faced the '07 Heisman winner Tim Tebow (#4, 2746) in the Title game. The Sooners only allowed 55.4 % comp with a 22-19 ratio against a star-studded class of QB's. Clearly, the Sooners were better than the #46 pass defense in the country and my PDR ranked them #11.

Vanderbilt was 2-10 last year but ranked #33 in the NCAA pass D rankings. One of the main reasons for the high ranking is that they only allowed 165 ypg passing. It was however more of a reflection of their opponents poor passing attacks than Vanderbilt's defense. Georgia Tech and Army were #116 and #120 in pass offense as both run the option. Vanderbilt also faced the #113 pass offense of Mississippi St, #114 Kentucky, #97 LSU and #84 Rice. They also faced Western Carolina who had the #91 pass offense of FCS teams! Overall, Vanderbilt did not face one pass offense that ranked in the Top 40 and my ratings had them at #77!

Listed below are the raw numbers for the 2009 season as well as my final grade, taking into account the strength of the opponent faced. If you would like to get my PDR updated weekly, go to PhilSteele.com on Friday and get my current pass D rankings which take into account the strength of opponent faced, FREE.

PHIL STEELE'S 2010 PLUS/MINUS POWER RATINGS

If you have read the other parts of the magazine, I am sure you are familiar with the fact that I have NINE different sets of power ratings that I create each preseason to give me 9 different ways of analyzing a team. The last few years I have provided you with one of those sets here. It is the one that will most closely resemble the Top 25 polls as it is based on last year's scores with adjustments made for this year. Let me take a minute of your time to give you a little history of my fascination and dependency on power ratings when analyzing a team in the preseason and during the season. I am in my late 40's and I started following college football with great intensity at about 10 years old. At that time (being a numbers guy) I devised my own set of power ratings which was based mostly on where the preseason magazines I was reading ranked the teams. I even awarded points at that time for how many pictured players each team had in the magazines. I updated those ratings during the season based on the final scores of the games.

One of the reasons for this particular article is that a few years later after compiling my ratings (and no longer counting pictures), I stumbled upon the GamePlan magazine. In the front of the magazine was a set of power ratings for each team!! I now had two sets of power ratings on each team and I updated them both during the year giving me two different ways of looking at the strength of a team. This year I thought for all of you who like to use a set of power ratings that I would provide you with one of my 9 sets. Is this the main set of ratings I use? No, that would be my Power Poll rankings which are a combination of the 9 sets. This is a solid set of numbers and what I have noticed is it most closely resembles what the general perception of each team is heading into 2010.

Let me tell you about some of my other power ratings. One of my main sets is the talent rating. For this, I rank each position on every team from 4 for the weakest to 10 for the strongest in the country. They are ranked to the decimal. For example, I will rate a QB position at 7.87 if I feel they are a hair weaker than a 7.89 team. I add all of the positions up, add in special teams and coaching and that set is ready. The second set to look at is the Power Plays numbers. I take a look at last year's final numbers, which not only take into account the score of the game, but the strength of each team's offensive rush and pass and also the defensive rush and pass. When doing my power ratings I always award what I call a Plus/Minus for each position. If a team had an All-American VHT QB last year and is going to an inexperienced one who is not a VHT, then they would rate a minus 6. If a team had no experience at a position and suffered through injuries last year with poor production but now has everyone back, including the injured players who are more experienced while adding new talent to the mix, they would rate a plus 6. Everything else falls in between. To make my Power Plays numbers for THIS year I looked at last year's and applied the Plus/Minus for each position to them to develop the computer projection. I mentioned that I rank each position from 4 to 10, which gives me a fresh set of numbers based just on this year and I have a formula which takes the talent of each position (example: pass offense would be QB plus WR plus O-line) and converts it to a Power Plays number. I compare the two Power Plays numbers derived from two different methods then put my own thoughts into refining the figures and come up with an opening number for the next season. I could write a book (or a magazine for that matter) on how I devise each of the 9 sets but that gives you some idea of how I do two sets of my power ratings.

As for the ratings listed below, these are my Plus/Minus ratings. I first take last year's final Plus/Minus ratings, which are calculated mostly by the score of each game last year and the strength of opponents played. Losing to Alabama by 5 would move a team up in the ratings (Alabama would have been expected to win big), while beating WKU by 15 in 2009 would probably have moved the same team down. I then take my aforementioned Plus/Minus ratings and add them to the totals. Some teams are weaker than last year and drop in the rankings, while the ones that are improved move up. As mentioned this is just ONE set of power ratings. A note here is that on page 315 I rank the teams based on the Power Poll, which is all 9 ratings combined, so that page does indeed differ with this one as far as rankings. The Plus/Minus ratings are a good set of ratings but I personally put more weight into the Power Poll. Below I list my current 2010 Plus/Minus ratings for the upcoming season. I hope you find them useful.

#1 TWELVE STRAIGHT YEARS!!

by Tim Sullivan

Coaches change. Players change. Conferences change. Bowls change. Heck, even uniforms change these days in college football.

But isn't it nice to know that in this new era, there are still — and will always be — some constants in this great game. The simplicity of Penn State's attire. Not going anywhere. The time-tested tradition at Alabama. Not going anywhere. The passion and pageantry of that sun-soaked Jan. 1 afternoon for the Rose Bowl. Not going anywhere.

The programs — Southern Cal, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Texas, Oklahoma, Florida, even the aforementioned Nittany Lions and Crimson Tide — that can always be counted on for, if nothing else, excitement, energy and enthusiasm on Saturdays. Not going anywhere.

Yes indeed, as modern as the game may get — what with pistol and spread offenses, multiple overtimes, instant replay, the list goes on — it is always nice to know that some things do not change.

Phil Steele knows. And more importantly, his loyal readers do to.

Every year — like the Nittany Lions, Fighting Irish, Crimson Tide, Trojans, Buckeyes, Longhorns, Sooners and Gators, among so many others — he walks up to the starting line with the rest of the competition. Every year, he starts on a level playing surface and surveys the field. And seemingly, every year, four months later, he's looking down at most of them.

Just like the statistics can back up Florida's and Alabama's recent run of SEC dominance, or Texas' and Oklahoma's assault on the Big 12 seemingly season after season, the numbers don't lie when it comes to Phil, either.

In three of the last six seasons, his publication has been at the top of the list. And over the past 12 seasons, he has a clear-cut cumulative edge over his rivals. It's case closed.

Where can we see this edge? What kind of edge are we talking about? Loyal readers know those answers, most likely. Newer readers, have no fear. Everything you need to know about the competition, is below.

There's an all-inclusive preseason publication website out there that college football fans should be made aware of. When you get a chance, surf over to www.stassen.com. Chris Stassen orchestrates a two-pronged survey that evaluates all of the publications. It weighs the books' in-depth coverage (i.e., completeness) and then, after each season, he grades the accuracy of each.

The Stassen survey began in 1993, so Phil's publication was something of an expansion franchise in the competition, as he didn't even know about Stassen until 1997. Not that the slow start has hurt the standings, or anything.

In that first year, Phil finished sixth, a ranking that was a tad slanted, because Phil knew that his preseason Top 25 identified more bowl-bound teams than his competition did. But the drawback in this scenario, was that Stassen's assessment was based on final conference standings.

Phil's ratings, on the other hand, were geared toward how many wins a team would garner at the conclusion of the full season. These two schools of thought are similar and related, of course, but it's not uncommon for the weaker of two teams to finish with a better record in conference play. In 1997, there were many cases where this was true. Phil was thus penalized for not configuring his forecasts to fit the Stassen style.

No worries, though. When in Rome, right? Phil simply, in 1998, fine-tuned his publication in accordance with the Stassen competition. In doing so, he adjusted forecasts and analyzed more teams to better satisfy the yardstick of information quality.

For example, in 1995, he had just 88 teams capsulized. By 1998, his list of teams included all programs in Division IA. By 2002, he was up to 117 teams. Now, there's 120 in what they call the Bowl Subdivision, and the weight of that amount, you now feel in your hands.

That initial year — keep in mind what Western Kentucky did last season in its first full year in the FBS (0-12 for those of you keeping score at home) — wasn't easy, wasn't full of headlines and wasn't spectacular to say the least. Phil finished fifth — the margin from 1-5 wasn't great — but that simply wasn't enough, no matter how you slice it. It served, looking back on it now, as motivation ... and the other publications would probably agree.

Since 1998, Phil is tops in overall score — before we get into the points system, keep in mind golf, where the lower the better. In 2008, he cruised to a title, with a four-point lead over the rest of the field. And last season, he finished third at 140, eight points behind GamePlan, and seven points behind Sports Illustrated.

In those 12 years, however, his overall score is 1,683. The closest magazine to him, is Athlon at 1,717. That's 34 points. That's almost five touchdowns, folks! Think about how many games are won by 34 points in college football these days. Not many.

Still the one. First place never gets old. Good to be the king. Insert your top-of-the-mountain cliché here. They all fit Phil.

Now, let's break down that point system for a clearer picture.

Stassen tabulates each publication's forecasting accuracy by comparing the predicted finish with the actual finish of each team in each conference. In cases where two or more teams shared a placement by finishing with identical conference records, the score for that team is derived from the most favorable of the tied positions.

To better illustrate, take a look at the final standings in the Mid-American Conference East Division last season. As you'll remember, Ohio — en route to an appearance in the conference title game, as well as the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl, resulting in some quality end-of-season television time for a smaller program — edged Temple on a tiebreaker, and finished at least one game better than the rest of the seven-team field.

The official breakdown, in the end, went like this: Ohio (7-1), Temple (7-1), Bowling Green (6-2), Kent State (4-4), Buffalo (3-5), Akron (2-6), and Miami, Ohio (1-7).

Well, no one's perfect. Phil wasn't exactly on the money. But, he came darn close. Phil nailed the Bobcats winning the East, and the eventual 1-2 finish. He also had Miami, Ohio pegged for a last-place tie, and the RedHawks did him one better, by finishing last ... all by themselves.

In the end, Phil called five of the MAC East's seven teams within one point of their actual finish. He closed the division with 10 total points, matched only by Sports Illustrated. The rest of the competition? No better than 11 points, and as worse as 27!

THE MOST ACCURATE PRESEASON MAGAZINE THE LAST 12 YEARS!

The Stassen site is so complete that it keeps tabulations of how the magazines have fared in each of the past seasons and also has charts based on the past 3 and 5 years. It even has an all-time chart which rates just the 5 magazines that have been around from 1993-2008. Steele's magazine did not get placed on the all-time list because it was not around until 1995. It did however come up #1 overall in the past 12 years (1998-2009) in the category of Prediction Accuracy. The accompanying table shows the complete results.

But let's do one better. Let's break down the Atlantic Coast Conference Atlantic Division. Now, that's a division that is always in the headlines, always on television — a branch that all of the so-called experts are supposed to know about, right?

Well, at least Phil can attest to that. Phil — again proving his worth at both the top and bottom of the standings — nailed the division champion, Clemson, as well as the branch's bottom-feeder, Maryland. Two others — Florida State, and Wake Forest — Phil missed by just one point. He missed NC State and Boston College by just 1.5 points each.

In the end, he finished with a grand low total of just five points, easily better than the field. The closest outfit to his, was USA Today, at eight points. Everyone else? In double digits, folks.

Stassen tabulates all of the conferences and then creates the overall standings based on accuracy. There have been many a season in which the difference between the top and bottom tiers are minimal. Last year though — in another stellar Steele title season — close wasn't the case. Phil, who finished third (140), joined GamePlan (132) and Sports Illustrated (133), in a tier that was at least four points better than the rest of the 10-team field.

Of course, in today's day and age, the world of preseason publications goes well beyond predictions and accuracy. You want everything — schedules, rosters, rankings, previous results — at your disposal. Look no further. Phil offers a one-stop, all-inclusive, everything-you-ever-wanted-to-know-about-college-football-but-were-afraid-to-ask publication that is an absolute must.

Trust me. I've been in college football press boxes for years. And the thing you see most in those rooms — other than the free donuts and coffee — is reporters walking around with the publication you're reading right now.

Let's take a look at some of the statistics, some that are key to gaining a grasp on what a team might or might not be able to accomplish this season. How about returning starters? A returning starter, in theory, is one who started more than half of the program's games. But some programs readjust that — taking players who failed to meet that requirement — and placing them under the same umbrella. It makes the team look a little stronger, and where ever they can get an edge, they usually grab it.

But you need an edge, too. You need to know how many legitimate returning starters there are, and how many didn't meet the requirements. Well, been there, done that. Phil has that for you, and again, don't bother trying to break it down on your own. Don't surf the team websites, don't call the beat reporters. Just drop a mere $8.95, and have it all on your coffee table from now until the national title game.

Phil breaks down the number of starts for each player on the two-deep depth chart for each team. That takes care of your returners, but let's not forget about the newbies. Phil doesn't. He identifies the blue-chippers, the can't-miss kids who go from the prom in June to the college gridiron in August. Don't worry about who's who, he's already taken care of that. You just sit back, and reap the rewards of his research.

Of course, with all of this information, things are going to have to be shortened, right? Isn't this, after all, the era of abbreviations? From text messages to emails, OMG, it's an abbreviated world out there.

Phil's down with the trend. He was Mr. Abbreviation before it was even cool to be. His abbreviations, who knows, may end up on those quarterback playsheets they wear on their wrists nowadays.

In the interim, let's call them what they are. A few examples of the deep, dark ones, the ones that may even throw off a few die-hards. How about KD? Knockdowns. How about TFL? Tackles for loss behind the line of scrimmage. How about VHT? Isn't that a music cable television station? No, that's VH1. VHT, well, that's a very highly touted recruit.

But, listen, we can go on and on, breaking down everything under the sun about college football, and you, as readers, will know, in the end, the result. That Phil's publication is tops.

Instead of crunching more numbers, let's examine a real-world example. After all, in this age of blogging, and forums, and chat rooms, this world is now about people having their say, right?

Well, look no further. As a college football columnist and Heisman Trophy voter at the New York Post, I need as much information as possible. I start my research in June, I analyze most every game from Labor Day past New Year's Day, and everything in between. I'm on conference calls, I speak with other beat writers, I'm at practices, I'm in press boxes, you name it.

But I never go anywhere without Phil's publication. Believe me, I have an office full of school-issued media guides, stacked to the ceiling, that combined, don't have the amount of information one Steele publication has.

I write a weekly forecasting column, handicapping 17 games a week for 17 weeks. My picks are calculated and placed in a competition against seven other writers from The Post each season. I've done it for five years. I won the competition three years, I finished over .500 in all five years, and every time I sit down to write the column on Wednesday mornings, Phil's publication is to the right of my keyboard. That fact is about as consistent as his forecasts.

So, is anyone still asking, who's the most accurate? Like we said, the case is closed. Steele Phils that bill.

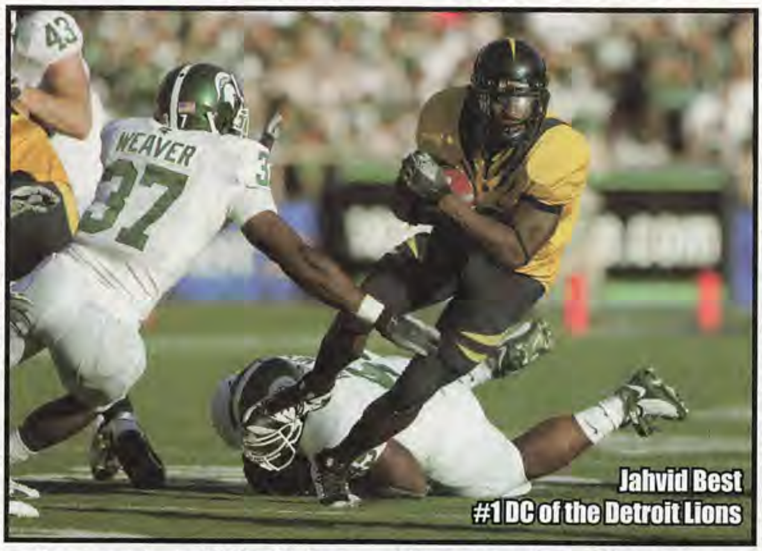
DRAFT DAY PARTY HANGOVER

Draft day is an exciting day for many college football players, as they find out which professional team they have a shot at playing for in the future. Many players who will be 1st or 2nd round draft picks have draft parties to celebrate their high selection and the upcoming riches they will receive by signing an NFL contract. Networks often broadcast from high profile draftees living rooms showing them celebrating when and where they get drafted. College football teams also enjoy draft day, as having players selected to the NFL gives coaches a future recruiting edge. They can then tell incoming high school recruits how many different players they have sent on to NFL careers. The more successful programs will always land the top-notch athletes who seek a pro career.

While there is a lot of happiness on draft day, it can be a precursor for trouble for many college programs. My staff and I went back and researched how teams did after having a large amount of players selected in the draft. We found almost 7 out of every 10 teams that rank among the top in the NCAA in players drafted struggle the next year and have a weaker record. I call it the Draft Day Party Hangover Effect.

Let me explain how I came up with this theory. I have taken the last 13 drafts and analyzed not only the amount of players selected, but also the rounds in which they were selected. Let's face it, there are only 32 players in all of college football who end up being a 1st round draft pick in a season. Replacing a player with that ability is often very difficult. For the system I created, 7 points are awarded if a player was picked in the 1st round. A 2nd round pick garnered 5 points, a 3rd round pick four, 4th round three and a 5th round two. In the NFL there's not much difference between a 6th or 7th round pick and a high quality undrafted free agent signee so I award 1 point to a 6th or 7th round pick. I do not lend a high level of merit to being picked in the last 2 rounds. Using this point system I went back and plugged in the last 13 years' draftees and found some interesting results. I limited my research to those teams that totaled 12 or more points, which makes them among the best in the NCAA.



Jahvid Best
#1 DC of the Detroit Lions

I do eliminate a team from my list that totalled 12 or more points if that is less than the previous year's total. Let's face it, some programs turn out lots of draft picks every year and 12 is a low total for some teams. For example, in 2006 Oklahoma "earned" 25 points but did not make the list because in 2005 they earned 41 points. The 2006 squad was in much better shape than the draft-ravaged 2005 squad and would have been a National Title contender if not for the officiating in the Oregon game.

In the past 13 years I have gone thru year-by-year and recapped how the teams that earned 12 or more points have fared. The results have been VERY consistent. In the 13 years there have been 236 teams that have earned 12 or more points while having more points than what they earned the previous year. Of those 236 teams, 158 or 66.9% had a WEAKER record the next season and 21 had the same record (8.9%). Only 57 (24.2%) managed to improve their record. That means basically 7 out of every 10 teams that earn 12 points or more in the draft will have a weaker record the next year. pThe best year for this system of NFL Draft Hangover was 1998 when 18 of the 21 teams had a weaker record the next year. I will give you a couple of examples and then fine-tune the system even further to reveal systems that have hit 87% over the 13 years!!!

I will now review these results for you year-by-year. Here are some examples of the teams that earned 12 points and how they have done from one year to the next. In 2000, Alabama (20 pts) went from 10-3 and thinking National Title, to a massively disappointing 3-8 season, and Marshall (17 pts) went from a perfect 13-0 to an 8-5 season. In 2001, Kansas St (18 pts) went from 11-3 to 6-6 and Washington (12 pts) from 11-1 to 8-4. In 2002, Stanford (14 pts) went from 9-3 down to 2-9 and BYU (14 pts) went from 12-2 in '01 to a losing record of 5-7 in '02. Oregon went from 11-1 (BCS bowl) to 7-6 after earning 21 draft points. In 2003, Notre Dame (16 pts) went from 10-3 to 5-7 and Illinois (13 pts) went from 5-7 to 1-11. In 2004, Mississippi (12 pts) went from 10-3 to 4-7, Washington (17 pts) went from 6-6 to 1-10 and Maryland (14 pts) went from 10-3 to 5-6. For 2005, Utah earned 14 pts and went from 12-0 down to 7-5. In 2006, NCSt had 26 pts (3 #1 DC's) and dropped from 7-5 to 3-9. A great example for 2007 was when Notre Dame (21 pts) went from 10-3 to 3-9. In 2008, the 5 best examples were: Ariz St (13 pts), Auburn (18 pts), Kansas (14 pts), Purdue (14 pts) and Virginia (15 pts) as they combined for a 48-17 (74%) record in '07 but fell to a combined 27-34 (44%) in 2008 with 4 of the 5 having losing records! In 2009, Maryland returned from a successful 8-5 season highlighted by an upset win over Nevada in the Humanitarian Bowl, only to drop to 2-10. As you can see, losing a lot of quality players to the NFL does have an impact on teams the following year and as mentioned, 75.8% of teams that earned 12 or more points had weaker or the same record the next year.

In 2006's magazine I went through the records of teams in the chart and noticed that of the TOP 7 I had listed, ALL 7 had a weaker record in 2006! The 2006 results verified my theory that the more points a team earns (which means the bigger the draft losses), the higher chance they would have of a weaker record the next year. If you go back over the last 13 years, there have been 58 teams that have accumulated 24 or more points. Of those 58 teams, 47 have had a weaker record the next year (2 same record). That means 49 of the 58 teams (84.5%) failed to improve their record the next year after earning 24 or more draft points. Here are some notable losers from this segment of draft casualties. In 2001, Wisconsin (29 pts) went from 9-4 to 5-7. In 2000, Michigan St (24 pts) went from 10-2 to 5-6. West Virginia was 8-4 in 1998 but after earning 26 points dropped to 4-7 in 1999. In 1997, Colorado (24 pts) went from 10-2 to 5-6. Florida, Oklahoma, Alabama, Texas, Tennessee, USC & Iowa all have 24 or more points for '10.

In 2004, Ohio St set an NFL record for the number of players drafted in a 7 round draft and, in the process, earned 51 draft points in my system. The Buckeyes went from 11-2 to just 8-4. My next question is, how do the biggest draft losers fare the next season? In the past 13 years there have only been 15 teams that have earned 35 or more points. Thirteen of 15 had a weaker record the next season with the '06 Ohio St Buckeyes and '08 USC Trojans being the only teams to have a better record. The biggest fall from this group was '03 Penn St, which went from 9-4 to just 3-9. Florida (45) is in this category this year. For 2010, I did make one tweak as Oklahoma came up with 35 but Jermaine Gresham a #1 pick (7 pts) did not play a down so I took his numbers out (see asterisk below).

Over the last 13 years teams that earned more points than the previous year and accumulated....

12 or more points - Weaker or same record 179 of 236 (75.8%)
24 or more points - Weaker or same record 49 of 58 (84.5%)
35 or more points - Weaker record 13 of 15 (86.7%)

With that in mind, this year there were 21 teams that earned 12 points or more from their losses in the NFL draft. Three teams on that list have LESS points than last year in USC (25), Oregon (12), Mississippi (12).

One thing I pointed out in past years is that the National Champ does have a good shot at appearing on these lists. In the past 13 years there have been 14 National Champs (LSU and USC were co-champs in '03) with 12 of the 14 having earned 12 or more points in the draft the previous year. The only exceptions were '06 Florida (7 pts) and '08 Florida (11 pts). The two teams that overcame the biggest draft losses and still managed to win a title were the 2001 Miami Hurricanes, who had 34, and the 1998 Tennessee Volunteers (32). Seven of the 14 actually earned 20 or more points in the draft loss category. Last year's champion Alabama had 19 points in the draft loss category.

According to past history, in reviewing the 18 teams in the box below, only 4 or 5 will manage to improve their record this year, BUT the National Champ is very likely to be one of the 18 teams on the Draft Day Hangover List.

NCAA EXPERIENCE CHART

For 7 years I had listed an experience chart which broke down the number of Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen each team had in the two deep and rated the teams experience level with a formula I devised. In 2009 I made the experience chart FIVE TIMES better. I am just listing the Senior starters, and the seniors in the two deep and the points accumulated by using the system. In the chart listed below I have now included 4 other factors. The 2nd factor listed is the % of lettermen returning. I devised a point system for this and go into it in depth on page 319. The next part that was added was the % of offensive yards returning. I took the total yards passing, rushing and receiving for each team and added them up and then got the stats for just the players returning and the yards returning % listed below is that figure. I did the same with the total tackles from last year and the % of tackles returning. This gives us an idea of the defenses experience. The final factor is the career starts returning for the offensive line. These players are not included in the stats but are a vital part of the offense. I then devised a formula that factors all 5 into the total points equation and then turned the point total into a number from 100 to 0. A 100 would be a team with 25 seniors (NCAA scholarship limit) in the two deep and every yard and tackle returning but 120+ career OL starts. A 0 would be a team with no experience and 0 seniors in the two deep. Just like in years past the first number is where each team ranks in the NCAA.

TURNOVERS = TURNAROUND

BY PHIL STEELE

Turnovers can have a huge impact on games and on a team's season. They can also lead to many misleading final scores. During the season I list all of the previous week's misleading final scores on philsteele.com on my Monday Daily Blog. By reading about them each week you can uncover some underrated and overrated teams throughout the season.

Here are a couple of examples from last year. Iowa St benefitted from +8 in TO's vs Nebraska and pulled out a 9-7 win. Nebraska turned it over 4 times inside the 5 yard line and lost despite a 362-239 yard edge. The next 2 weeks Iowa St was overrated and they lost by a combined 69-18 vs Texas A&M and Oklahoma St despite only being slight underdogs in each.

Florida St appeared to pummel BYU 54-28 on the road but they only had a 512-475 yard edge as they benefitted from +5 in TO's. The next week FSU entered the Top 25 but lost to USF at home as a 2 TD favorite 17-7. BYU bounced back with a 42-23 whipping of Colorado St.

In 2008, Ole Miss should have beaten Vanderbilt as they had a 385-202 yard edge but they were done in by -4 in turnovers. The next week Ole Miss went into the Swamp and dealt the Florida Gators their only loss of the year in a huge upset (+2 in TO).

In 2007, Nebraska was mauled by Kansas 76-39 as they finished -5 in turnovers. The next week they were even in turnovers and despite being a home underdog to Kansas St they rolled to a 73-31 win.

In 2006, Arkansas was -5 turnovers vs USC which led to a 50-14 loss. I picked Arkansas, which had finished 4-7 the previous year, #13 in my magazine and took some flak for that prediction. Arkansas recovered from that disappointing performance, WON the SEC West and finished #12 in the final regular season poll.

In '06 Vanderbilt whipped Mississippi everywhere but on the scoreboard. Vandy had a 23-7 FD edge and 400-179 yard edge. They held the Rebels to 31 yards passing but thanks to -3 in TO's they somehow lost to Ole Miss by a 17-10 margin for a very misleading final. The next week an underrated Vandy squad traveled to #16 Georgia and pulled off a huge 24-22 upset.

In '06 Virginia Tech lost to Boston College 22-3 and their season appeared shot. Coming off that "blowout" loss they had a tough upcoming schedule. In reality they only allowed 264 yds to BC but were done in by -4 in TO's. Not only did they destroy Southern Miss the next week 36-6, but they were an underdog at home vs #10 Clemson and beat them 24-7 the following week. They won their last 6 games of the year including a road win at Miami and whipped the eventual ACC champ Wake Forest 27-6 (Wake had just beaten FSU 30-0 the previous week thanks in part to +4 TO's).

I could list many more examples, but as you can see, turnovers can determine the outcome of a game. On my website, philsteele.com, I have many more examples listed. TO's can not only make a difference in a game but can make the difference between a winning and losing season.

One of the best examples is Southern Miss. In 1991 they were 4-7 and had only 4 returning starters in 1992. What looked to be a tough year turned out surprisingly well as Southern Miss went 7-4! The reason was +14 turnovers! The next year, this 7-4 team had 16 returning starters and a bowl seemed in the works. Their 1993 record was a stunning 2-8-1! How could this be? The Eagles were -11 in turnovers.

The majority of 1999's big turnaround seasons were by Air Force, Arizona, Tulane and UCLA, which all finished with positive double digit turnover margins in 1998. Those 4 were a combined 46-4 for the '98 season!!! In 1999, those 4 were just 19-26!! Wow, turnovers can indeed equal turnaround. The NCAA's largest single season turnaround happened in 1999 when Hawaii went from 0-12 to 9-4. The Warriors made this article that year as they were -10 turnovers in '98 but finished +1 in '99.

Last year there was another GREAT example. In 2008, Buffalo won the MAC Title thanks mostly to being +19 in turnovers. They were actually outgained by an avg of 408-370 during the season! Last year they had 13 returning starters and this time outgained foes 405-343. That means they went from -38 ypg to +62 ypg (100 ypg better) but their record dropped to 5-7 as the TO's were -7.

In 2006, there were 13 teams that made this article in the "Going Down" box. Of those 13 only 3 managed to improve their record (all very slightly). FOUR of the teams in the box had MAJOR dropoffs going from a winning season to a poor year. Those 4 teams were Iowa St, Louisiana Tech, Miami, Oh and UCF (CUSA Champs) who went from a combined record of 29-18 (62%) in 2005 to just 13-36 (27%) in 2006!

In 2007, eleven teams made this article in the "Going Down" box. Of those 11 only ONE (Boston College) managed to improve its record and that was from 10-3 to 11-3. The biggest drop-off was Minnesota which went from a bowl game to just 1-11. Two others went from bowls to losing seasons.

In 2008, Kansas went from 12-1 in '07 to 8-5 in '08 and LSU went from 12-2 to 8-5. Both were in the Going Down box in '08.

Last year 17 teams were in the "Going Down" box and only 4 managed to improve their record and all 4 were slightly including VTech which went from 10-4 to 10-3. The teams with the biggest dropoffs were Rice which went from 10-3 to 2-10 and Oklahoma (12-2 to 8-5).

Teams that benefitted from double-digit turnovers the previous year rarely get a repeat of that good fortune. In the last 17 years, 252 teams have had plus double-digit turnovers. Of those 252, 162 have had weaker records the following year (64.3%). Only 58 teams (23.0%) have improved their record and the other 32 had the same record. Teams with a positive double-digit TO ratio had the same or weaker records 77.0% of the time since 1996. Listed below are last year's most fortunate teams:

GOING DOWN?

Air Force	+22	Ohio	+13
Boise St	+21	Middle Tenn	+12
Rutgers	+20	East Carolina	+11
Alabama	+19	Pittsburgh	+10
Ohio St	+17	Southern Miss	+10
Arkansas	+15

Let's take a look at some teams who had terrible luck (lots of turnovers) in one year then drastically improved the next year without those turnovers.

In '06 ten teams made the "Going Up" box and EIGHT of the ten improved their records with FIVE of them going from a losing season to bowl eligibility. Those 5 teams were Oregon St, Oklahoma St, Rice, Kent St and Wyoming.

In 2007, 11 teams made the "Going Up" Box on this page. I even had a picture of Illinois, the #2 team listed on the page, showing that I felt they would make a dramatic change and they went from 2-10 in 2006 to the ROSE BOWL in 2007!!! Of the 11 teams, two had a weaker record including New Mexico St which lost their QB for a few games and went from 4-8 to 4-9. Three of the 11 had the same record and 6 improved their record.

In 2008, 13 teams made the "Going Up" box. Of the 13, 9 had an improved record, 3 had a weaker record and 1 had the same record. Ole Miss went from 3-9 to Cotton Bowl champs, Minnesota went from 1-11 to 7-6 and a bowl. Both Northern Illinois and Nebraska improved by 4 wins with the Huskies going from 2-10 to a bowl and Nebraska from a losing record to a New Years Day bowl win!

Last year a record high 17 teams made the "Going Up" box which meant they had suffered negative double digit turnovers in 2008 and were poised to receive better fortune. Of the 17 teams 13 (or 76.5%!) had a better record than 2008, 1 had the same record and only 3 of the 17 (17.6%) had a weaker record. There were SIX teams on that list that went from a losing season to a bowl game! Those 6 teams were SMU, Idaho, Ohio U, Wyoming, Texas A&M and UCLA!!

As I previously stated, if a team received bad breaks the year before, they will usually be headed for better fortune the following year. In the past 17 years, there have been 208 teams that have finished the season minus double-digits in turnovers. Of those 208 teams, 143 (69%) have had better records the next year! Teams with a negative double-digit TO ratio had the same or stronger records 80% of the time since 1996. Which teams are headed for better fortunes and better seasons?

GOING UP?

Miami (OH)	-24	NC State	-11
Georgia	-16	Hawaii	-11
Tulane	-16	Toledo	-10
North Texas	-14	New Mexico St	-10
WKU	-12	San Diego St	-10
Michigan	-12	Fresno St	-10

If you like this type of information, you will love the News and Notes section which is updated weekly at philsteele.com. I review such information as "Misleading Final Scores" and much, much more. Keep tabs on all of these teams this year and watch how turnovers WILL EQUAL turnaround in 2010!

I finally wrap-up the magazine in early May. My next month is spent going over each individual game for the upcoming year. I look at all the history between the teams, read the last 2 years of past histories for the matchups and then analyze the matchup to see if there are any mismatches (big, strong O-line vs small, weak DL, etc). At this point my staff is hard at work on the regional magazines which have 4 full pages on each team. Last year we revamped the NFL magazine with 6 full pages on each NFL team in full color (see page 325). It came out even better than I expected with more NFL information at your fingertips than any other magazine and last year I predicted 7 of the 8 NFL Division champs, the best in the country! There was only one magazine in the country that had New Orleans even winning its DIVISION and that was mine. All others had either Atlanta or Carolina! In June and July, I go through the NFL for the upcoming year and do hundreds of radio shows. Before you know it, it's August and time to start watching the games. I pride myself in being the Most Accurate Preseason Magazine over the last 12 years and there is a lot of information on these pages.

To help you out a little bit, I will give you a few guidelines on the best ways to use this magazine. I will go over some of the abbreviations and things that you normally do not see in other magazines.

First of all, let's take a look at the player rankings in the front of the magazine. As mentioned on page 303, I feel that you are also getting a quality NFL draft guide with my individual position ratings. These ratings do not always match the conference rankings of the players. This year I will go over a couple of things that stand out. I have turned the top player rankings in the magazine into a pure NFL ranking. I have eliminated all true and redshirt frosh as well as true sophomores from the list. If you check out my All-American teams you will see RB Dion Lewis of Pitt and CB Stephon Gilmore of S Carolina who starred as true frosh. They are on my All-American list but not listed under my Top 64 RB's or Top 72 CB's because they are not eligible for the 2011 draft. You will also notice that sometimes I have a player rated 1st Team All-Conf and yet in the front of the magazine he is listed behind a player whom I list 3rd Team. My All-Conference lists are how I think the players will perform this year in college football. The lists in the front are where I think they are in terms of NFL draft possibilities. A clear example from 2008 was Texas Tech QB Graham Harrell who was 4th in the Heisman voting throwing for 5,111 yards (71%) with a 45-9 ratio. Harrell was a super college QB and had a tremendous 2008 season but was not drafted! In 2006 Troy Smith of Ohio St took home the Heisman Trophy and 1st Tm AA honors but was not selected in the draft until the 5th round and was the 8th QB taken overall. During the season I got a lot of flak from Ohio St fans about how I had him rated the 10th best QB. I actually may have had him a little overrated at #10 as 3 of the QB's I had listed before him were coming back in 2007! Deep teams like USC actually have 5 or 6 NFL prospects on my list at a position like RB but do not rate highly on the All-Pac-10 Team. The reason is that they split the carries with so much talent in the backfield, and they are not likely to produce a 1,000 yard back unless someone steps to the forefront this fall and takes over as the feature back.

Sometimes my overall rankings do not coincide with my conference predictions. This is not sloppiness on my part but rather being meticulous. This year I have Pitt tied for first in the Big East with West Virginia and list Pitt 1st because if they beat WV at home they will have the tie-breaker and represent the Big East in a BCS bowl game. I have West Virginia rated higher than Pitt in my preseason Top 40. Pitt has to face both Utah and Notre Dame on the road as well as host Miami, Fl in their non-conf slate. WV has to face only two squads that were bowl eligible LY, road trips to LSU and Marshall. If Pitt plays in a BCS bowl they will have a tougher bowl foe than WV does and bottom line is I think they will tie for the Big East but WV will finish with a win or two more overall and therefore finish higher in the final polls. My conference predictions are based on what each team's record will be in conference play and where they will finish in the final standings. As I mention in the Top 40, my Power Poll Ranking (pg 315) is the overall strength of each team. Sometimes teams will be ranked a lot higher or lower in my Top 40 than the Power Poll ranking. This is due to scheduling.

On each conference page I list unit rankings and I feel they are the best set of unit rankings you will find. Each conference was done by me so they will be more consistent than the other magazines. One area that may raise some questions is the coach's ranking. I take into account years at the program as it is usually a two to three year process for new head coaches to get up to 100% speed at their new school. A new head coach has to learn the strengths and weaknesses of all the players and the players have to learn new schemes on both offense and defense and many times that is a slow process. Listen to any 2nd year HC talk about the upcoming year and he will say they are light years ahead of where they were the year before. Also a new HC sometimes does not mix with the previous coaches recruits and we see a large number of players quitting or transferring over the spring and summer. I have most first year HC's ranked lower than you would normally think due to this process and then bring them up in the rankings the next 2 years. In their 3rd year over half the team is their own recruits and that is when I rank them completely according to their coaching productivity.

On the right hand pages for each team I have listed several interesting notes about each series. I have very little space on the two lines provided, so if a specific stat is given that was produced by a player or a team and the year is NOT mentioned, then it is about last year's game.

As you can tell by going through the magazine there is very little advertising and as I wrapped this article up I found out I needed one more page in the magazine. One of the pages I wanted to add was an article on starters lost during the year. Remember when Oklahoma won the National Title in 2000? Not a single OU starter lost a single start due to injury! My research has shown that teams that benefited from very few injuries, in this case 6 or less, usually have a weaker season the next year. I go into great detail with a lot of numbers backing up my research at PhilSteele.com.

The bottom line is, teams that have suffered a lot of injuries the previous year will generally have a better year the next season. A lot of backups were forced to play during the injury-riddled year, hence gaining valuable experience and the team figures to not be so injury-prone the next year. In a study over the last 6 years, my research shows that if a team had 32 or more starts lost to injury the prior season, they improved or had the same record the next year on 48 out of 58 occasions for an 82.8% success rate. How about teams that are really banged up? Well from 2001-2005 12 teams went through seasons of having 40 or more combined starts lost and ALL 12 had the same or better record the next season. It surprises me that 17 teams met that criteria in 2006-'07 but only 7 had a stronger record the next year and 9 had a weaker record.

In 2008, Utah was at the top of the chart with 51 starts lost to injury and they went from 9-4 to 13-0 and #2 in the country! Last year was another solid year as 11 teams had 40 or more starts lost to injury in '08 (Indiana had 42 but was left off last year's page) and 8 of the 11 improved their records (72.7%!). For space purposes I will just list those with the highest amount of starts lost in 2009 due to injuries or suspension. For a complete list check out PhilSteele.com.

MOST STARTS LOST TO INJURY

1. Washington St (67)
2. Tennessee (44)
3. Oklahoma (42)
3. Vanderbilt (42)
5. Syracuse (41)
6. Oklahoma St (40)
7. Colorado St (38)
8. Arkansas St (37)
9. San Jose St (35)

Now let's look at the teams that had great fortune with very few injuries. With teams playing a 12 game schedule, I went for the magic number of 6 lost, figuring that is less than one half of one starter lost to injury during the year. Over the past 6 years only 17 of the 47 teams (36.2%) that had this good fortune managed to improve their record the next year (one did have same record LY)! There were a lot of teams (16) that had this good fortune last year. I do not have the space to list all 16 so I will list the 9 teams (same as above) that are most likely to have a drop in their record.

LEAST STARTS LOST TO INJURY

1. Oregon St (2)
2. Rutgers (4)
2. Duke (4)
2. Idaho (4)
2. New Mexico St (4)
2. East Carolina (4)
7. Clemson (5)
7. UNLV (5)
9. Wyoming (6)

In 2008, Illinois (2 sts lost) went from the Rose Bowl to a losing season and Purdue (4 sts lost) went from 8-5 to 4-8. Last year Tulsa (5 sts lost 2008) went from 11-3 to 5-7. You can get the remainder of the teams on PhilSteele.com right now.

PhilSteele.com will have a page updated weekly dedicated to starts lost again this year. We will track each team's starts lost for the 2010 season so you can see which teams are really banged up and those that have remained very healthy. We even include start charts for each of the teams and also update them weekly!

Finally, I told you about most of my "Football Only" months but my most relaxing months are over the summer as those are the months I get to talk to my readers. We will have a list of all the radio shows I will be doing on PhilSteele.com and if you can't talk to me on the radio then you can email me your football questions from the website. I also answer all questions that are posted on my PhilSteele Fan Site on Facebook. I really do appreciate each and every person who buys my magazine and I hope to get the chance to talk with you in the next couple of months!

THE POWER POLL TOP 120

Once again, I would like to thank EVERYONE who has sent in their questionnaires over the last few years for taking the time to let me know your feelings about my magazine. Again, I am overwhelmed by the kind comments from those of you who appreciate all the hard work that goes into this magazine each year.

As I clearly point out in the front of the magazine, MY College Top 40 is based solely on where I think each team will finish and NOT how I rate the teams talent-wise. I stress each year that my Surprise Teams are often teams that have decent talent but a GREAT schedule. An example from this year is Middle Tenn which is just #75 in my Power Poll but #32 in my Top 40 as they face my 120 schedule and should have double digit wins. Miss St is #29 in my Power Poll but is unranked as they face the 4th toughest schedule.

To come up with the order for this article I could have continued on from teams I list in my Top 40 article and extended the list to #120 using that method. However, the weakest teams listed in my Top 40 may be those that faced the toughest schedules, so I did not feel that would be a fair representation. Therefore, I decided to give you my Power Poll Top 120. Let me explain why I call it the Power Poll and how it was derived.

A few years back, before computers became part of the BCS rankings system, there was without a doubt some flaws in the polls. Teams rated #2 or #3 in the country really were not that talented and were maybe the 5th or 6th best. One internet site decided to produce a poll of some of the top analysts and experts each week and invited me to join. I myself work 365 days a year. During magazine time (March, April, May) and throughout the football season (August through January) there are many 15-18 hour days put in and all of them are spent solely working on FOOTBALL. When they invited me to join the poll, I wanted to give them the best set of power ratings in the country to help make the poll as accurate as possible. The dilemma I had was which set? As I mention throughout the magazine, I now have NINE sets of power ratings that are based on different factors. One is based on the individual talent level and performance of each position on each team and those are added up for the rating. Another is based on my Power Plays numbers which include rushing and passing offenses, defenses and special teams. Another is a continually updated power rating based on the score of the games and the strength of opponent.

What I decided to do was combine all nine into one rating which gives me a very solid overall ranking for each team. The rating takes into account EVERY factor, using it as my main set of power ratings. These numbers will differ from my "Plus or Minus" ratings on page 305 as THAT set is just one of the NINE used to compile this main number. As mentioned earlier, these numbers will differ from my Top 40 because the Power Poll is concerned ONLY with the strength of the team and does not factor in who they will play for the upcoming season or how many games they should win in 2010. Keep in mind, this is basically MY COMPUTER'S Top 120. Without further adieu and at YOUR REQUEST, here is my 2010 Preseason Power Poll:

Phil Steele is very proud to be a participant on the voting committee for the John Mackey Award.

The prestigious John Mackey Award, presented by the Nassau County Sports Commission, is awarded annually to the most outstanding Tight End in FBS college football. The NCSC presides over the award, managing the watch list, supervising the voting by the distinguished selection committee and honoring the recipient at its annual award dinner. In addition to demonstrating outstanding athletic prowess on the field, the recipient must demonstrate positive sportsmanship-like behavior, be in good academic standing and strive to embody the leadership abilities of John Mackey both on and off the field.

Throughout his career Mackey vigorously supported many organizations and served on the Board of Advisors to the Leukemia Society of America, the Syracuse University Business School and the Board of Directors for the Syracuse University Alumni Association. He has also been Chairman of the Board of Advisors of the Community for Education Foundation and its "Overcoming Obstacles" program.

The Nassau County Sports Commission is an organization where every dollar raised is another child, senior citizen or differently-abled athlete experiencing the thrill of sports and competition. Contributions to the NCSC will enrich the quality of life for Nassau County residents, enhance the economy and aid in the development of events, programs and facilities.

The non-governmental, non-profit NCSC is dedicated to "improving lives through sports" and operates the "Let's Do It!" children's sports programs. Since its inception in 1992, the NCSC has quietly accomplished many of its original mission objectives, establishing exceptional participatory and educational youth sports programs, partnering with County government to enhance sports facilities and attract sporting events and organizations to the heart of Long Island, Nassau County. The Commission has quietly built an impressive track record of success in providing sports programming and attracting sporting events and businesses to Nassau County.

The Commission has set ambitious goals for the future. These goals involve the advancement of youth, amateur and professional sports from the grassroots to the elite level; the development and dissemination of brochures, such as "How Sports Can Combat Childhood Obesity" for elementary school students and the "Perils of Performance Enhancing Drugs" for middle and high school students; the organization of more conferences, workshops and clinics; the implementation of new initiatives; bringing new sports events and businesses to the County; and most importantly, the expansion of our youth programs to serve a broader spectrum of the community and a greater number of children.

O'BRIEN QUARTERBACK AWARD

DAVEY O'BRIEN
NATIONAL QUARTERBACK AWARD
Est. 1977

MISSION

To honor the nation's best college quarterback of the year and inspire student-athletes to triumph both on and off the field

WHAT WE DO

- What began in 1977 as the Davey O'Brien Memorial Trophy, awarded to the best player in the Southwest Conference, was expanded in scope and limited to the quarterback position in 1981, becoming the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award® (The O'Brien).
- The O'Brien is awarded to the nation's best collegiate quarterback, evaluating each candidate on the criteria of quarterback skills/athletic ability, academics, reputation as a team player, character, leadership and sportsmanship.
- The O'Brien inspires student-athletes to achieve success through embodiment of the attributes of football legend Davey O'Brien. The award includes a $10,000 grant to the scholarship program of the recipient's university.

WHO WE ARE

- The O'Brien Award honors the legacy of Davey O'Brien, the first player ever to win the Heisman, Maxwell and Walter Camp trophies in the same year, while leading TCU to one of their two National Championships.
- The Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award is overseen by the Davey O'Brien Foundation, which is headquartered in Fort Worth, Texas, and provides scholarships and university grants to help high school and college athletes transform leadership on the field into leadership in life.
- The O'Brien finalists exemplify Davey O'Brien's enduring character while exhibiting teamwork, sportsmanship, leadership and character in both the athletic and academic arenas.

VOTING PROCESS

- Throughout the season, quarterbacks are voted upon by a Selection Committee comprised of prestigious journalists and previous winners.
- The watch list is refined into semi-finalists and finalists before The O'Brien winner is announced on The Home Depot College Football Awards Show on ESPN in December.
- 2007 marked the inaugural year for the inclusion of the Fan Vote. Fans will have the ability to vote for their favorite quarterback throughout the season, and unlike any other award in college football, their vote will count as 5% of the final tally.

Phil Steele is proud to be a member of the O'Brien Selection Committee.

WHICH TEAM PLAYS THE TOUGHEST SCHEDULE?

The question arises each year, "Who plays the toughest schedule?" At the beginning of the season, the NCAA usually releases a rating of each team's schedule based on their opponents' win/loss record from the previous season. This is a good method but it does have its obvious flaws.

The first flaw is basing the ratings on opponents' records from the previous season. Let's look at a couple of examples. At the start of 2007 I had Illinois rated as one of the top teams in the Big Ten and they went on to knock off #1 Ohio St and play in the ROSE BOWL. My ratings had them as an above avg opponent at the start of the year and they finished the regular season #13 (AP). Using 2006's record as the criteria for determining the strength of an opps' schedule however, you would count them as a 2-10 team! In 2008 I had teams like Ole Miss and Minnesota on my MIT List (pg 19) meaning I thought they were bowl caliber but using the previous year's record you would have counted them as 3-9 and 1-11 teams (both made bowls, Ole Miss finished #14). On the flip side of the coin Notre Dame was in an obvious rebuilding year in '07 yet was still counted as a 10-3 team if you based strength of schedule on 2006's record, and they were far from a January bowl team in 2007 at just 3-9!

The second flaw is basing it on pure overall records. If a team plays a FCS (IAA) school that was 11-1 in 2007, that counts as a MUCH tougher game in the NCAA ratings than facing a team like Alabama who was 7-6 in '07 but #1 at the end of '08 reg ssn! My ratings had Bama ranked as a much tougher team than any FCS foe. To give you an example from 2002, my ratings foresaw that teams playing Kansas St were facing a Top 10 team based on my preseason ratings. The NCAA strength of schedule ranking rated a game against Kansas St as just a game vs a 6-6 opp (2001 record). Kansas St finished #7 in the AP poll for 2002 and walloped their opp's by an avg of 45-12, not exactly numbers from a typical middle-of-the-road opponent. On the flip side let's look at 2009's Ball St team. They were in an obvious rebuilding year and my power ratings had them only winning 2 or 3 games. My methods gave teams credit for a weak foe when facing Ball St but basing it on the previous year's record, teams were given credit for playing a 12-2 team which is what they finished in 2008! That is a MAJOR flaw!

Let me delve a little further into 2003's ratings. Coming into the season, I rated Notre Dame as the team that would face the NCAA's toughest schedule. When the season was over, they did indeed face THE TOUGHEST schedule. The NCAA rankings at the start of the year only had ND's schedule ranked as the 49th toughest. The Irish faced 10 bowl eligible teams. Their opp's in 2003 finished a combined 97-55. Once again, my strength of schedule is based on THIS YEAR'S strength of opponents NOT on opponent records from the previous year. Basing it on their opponents' final records of 2002, it looked like a mediocre slate. They ended up facing teams that were ranked #1, #6, #9, #11 and #18 in the final AP poll, plus bowl squads from Pitt, Navy, Mich St and BC. Hardly a mediocre schedule as they faced 9 teams with winning records, the 2nd highest total in the FBS that year!

I have many more examples from years past on my website PhilSteele.com for those of you who want a little more in-depth history on strength of schedule. These examples clearly show that basing schedule strength on last year's opponents record is inaccurate.

One chart that I find very helpful is comparing this year's schedule with last year's and I will delve into that more in a bit but here is my list of who ended up playing the toughest schedules in 2009. The 2009 bowl eligible teams are in boldface. Boise St took on the #114 toughest schedule and made it to a BCS bowl. Of the teams that faced the 16 toughest schedules, 6 finished with losing records and only 3 managed to top 8-5 with Miami, Fl and USC going 9-4 and Virg Tech 10-3. Powers like Oklahoma, Auburn, Georgia and Florida St finished 8-5 or worse.

Now let's turn our attention to 2010. This year I again decided to see what the NCAA method would come up with for toughest opp's faced and compare them to my chart, which I always list in the magazine. Let's first look at the NCAA rankings. In the right hand column is a chart of all 120 teams and the combined 2009 opponents' records from last year. It is ranked in order of highest % of opponent wins (or toughest schedule) to lowest % of opponent wins (or easiest schedule).

On the next page are my rankings for the nation's toughest schedules this year. These rankings take two major factors into account. The first is my 9 sets of Power Ratings. This ensures that an FCS team is rated much lower than Oklahoma and USC, two Top 10 teams that were just 8-5 and 9-4 last year.

The second factor is the amount of home and away games played. As an example, this year some teams will have as many as 8 home games, while others play as many as 8 on the road.

Listed on page 318 are this year's toughest schedules rated from the most difficult to the easiest. The toughest schedule this year according to my rankings belongs to Iowa St while the easiest belongs to Middle Tenn.

Let's pick out some teams to show you the flaws of just using last year's overall opponent records. Based on 2009's opponent records Temple plays the 37th toughest schedule while Clemson takes on an easy #95 slate. Clemson's "cupcake" #95 schedule features Auburn, Miami Fl, NC, GT, BC, Fla St and South Carolina, all teams capable of playing in Jan 1 bowls (10 BCS tms). Temple's much "tougher" slate has ONE team capable of a Jan bowl and Penn St won't be in the top 3 in the Big Ten preseason poll. Clemson faces SEVEN teams on ESPN's preseason Top 41 and Temple faces 1. Put Clemson vs the #37 Temple schedule and they are thinking unbeaten season. Temple will be favored in 10 or 11 games this year vs their #37 schedule but would be favored in two games vs Clemson's #95 schedule. Do you really think Al Golden would trade schedules? For the record my SOS has Clemson's schedule at #31 and Temple's at #84.

Look for a Blog on PhilSteele.com in June where I will compare and contrast 10 other teams to point out more obvious flaws.

Here are the teams with the biggest discrepancy in the two methods of determining toughest schedule and you can check out each team's schedules to see which method you think is better. I list the difference in rankings between the two in ( )'s. Most UNDERRATED schedules (i.e. teams that face a tougher slate than NCAA % rankings): 1. Clemson (64), 2. Oregon (49), 3. Missouri (43), 4. USC (42), 5. Boston College (38), 6. Stanford (34), 7. California (33), 8. Purdue (32), 9. Colorado (31), 10. BYU (29).

Here are the most OVERRATED schedules (i.e. teams that face an easier slate than NCAA % rankings): 1. Temple (47), 2. Miami Oh (42), 3. VT (40), 4. Rutgers (36), 5. Louisville (35), 6. San Jose St (34), 7. Northwestern (33), 8. Wyoming (31), 9. USF (31), 10. West Virginia (28).

Naturally teams would much rather face a team from a non-BCS conference like Louisiana that went 6-6 last year vs playing a team like Michigan that went 5-7 last year but will be in a bowl this season. Some teams that really will throw off the SOS if you based it on last year's records are Central Michigan (12-2 LY) and on the other side of the coin Maryland (2-10) last year. I guarantee you if Maryland and Central met at a neutral site this year the Terps would be favored but based on last year's record CM is a vastly superior squad.

In 2004 on these pages, I looked at Iowa St's schedule and forecasted a turnaround season. Of their 11 foes, only 1 ranked in my Top 25 at the start of the year. While teams like N Illinois, Kansas and Nebraska all had great seasons in 2003, they were far from powers in 2004. Based on 2003's records, Iowa St faced the 8th toughest schedule in the country!!!!! My ratings had their schedule at #60 and I felt only 1 of their foes would be in the Top 25 and just 5 or 6 in bowls (which is a low number for a BCS school). When the dust cleared, Iowa St faced only 5 bowl teams and came within a missed FG of winning the then weak Big 12 North, hardly the 8th toughest schedule in the land.

As a comparison, I also said that based on 2003's record, Kentucky had the 105th toughest schedule or 14th easiest in 2004, with their opponents just 63-76 (45%). I looked at their schedule and saw 5 Top 25 contenders, as well as projected 2004 bowl teams like South Carolina and Louisville. I said that Kentucky clearly played a much tougher schedule than Iowa St, yet based strictly on 2004's records, Iowa St played the 8th toughest and Kentucky the 15th easiest. UK's foes finished the year at 72-56 (#20), hardly an easy schedule.

If you go to PhilSteele.com you will find out that teams that play a Top 20 schedule normally do not fare well. How accurate are my SOS ratings at the start of the year? Flip to page 318 of my '09 magazine and look at the teams that I forecast to play the Top 26 toughest schedules in 2009. Of those 26 NINE were ranked at the start of the year and 4 were in the top 11 including #3 Oklahoma and #4 USC. At the end of the year the teams that faced my preseason Top 26 toughest schedules had a combined 4 ranked teams and none were higher than #10 Virg Tech!

Conversely in 1996, Army & Wyoming faced the two easiest schedules and were a combined 20-2 during the regular season. In 1998 (in this article) I pointed out that Tulane had a similarly soft schedule and they simply went UNDEFEATED! In 1999, I asked, "Who will be this year's Tulane?" I answered myself by saying Marshall. The Herd then thundered their way to another UNDEFEATED season!!! In 2003, I noted the strongest teams playing the easiest schedules. I said TCU, facing the #96 schedule, was one of my surprise teams and they again flirted with an undefeated season. In 2004, I listed both Utah and Boise St as non-BCS teams with talent, an easy schedule and a shot to run the table and both finished the regular season unbeaten!!! In 2005 Ark St played the #119 schedule and made it to a bowl after going 3-8 the previous year! In 2006 Boise St faced the 11th easiest schedule and went undefeated while winning a BCS bowl. In 2007 Hawaii faced the 2nd easiest schedule. I called for them to get to a BCS bowl and they played in the Sugar Bowl! In 2008 Ball St faced the #120 slate and went 12-0 during the regular season. Tulsa had my projected #120 schedule in '08 and flirted with an unbeaten season until late in the year. Last year Boise had my #117 schedule in the magazine and went 14-0 and finished #4.

In 2004 I added a new feature to this article and took a look at the teams who have much easier, or much tougher schedules than the previous year. I listed the 10 teams who took on the most improved (softer) schedules in 2004 than 2003. Out of the 10 teams, NINE had better records in 2004 than 2003 or 90%!!!!! Overall the 10 teams had a combined record in 2003 of 51-75 40% and improved to 69-50 58% in 2004, including Auburn, which went from 8-5 to a perfect 13-0 and Iowa St which went from 2-10 to a bowl!! In 2005, of the 10 teams in the "Going Up" box, EIGHT had better records than in 2004. Four teams went from a losing season to a bowl. In 2006 of the 10 teams in this box, 8 ended up with better records including Wake Forest and Arkansas, who both went from losing seasons to January Bowls!!! Also Hawaii, Purdue and Texas A&M went from losing years to playing in a bowl. In 2007 I listed 12 teams in the box and 9 had the same or better record than in 2006 with teams like Virginia, Indiana and Memphis going from a losing season to a bowl. In 2008 8 of the 10 teams improved their records including Utah which went from 9-4 to 13-0 and #2 in the country and Notre Dame, Arizona and NC who all went from losing records to bowls. Last year of the 10 teams in my Going Up Box, SMU had the biggest improvement (1-11 to 8-5!). In the 6 years of the Going Up Box 48 out of the 62 teams 77% have the same or a better record the next year!!

Here are 12 teams with easier schedules that should have better success in 2009 and the number in the parentheses is the difference (easier) from last year's schedule:

GOING UP???

1. Kansas (51)
2. Georgia (40)
3. Virginia Tech (39)
4. Oregon (38)
5. Purdue (37)
6. West Virginia (36)
7. UCF (33)
8. Maryland (32)
9. Michigan St (32)
10. USC (31)
11. Virginia (30)
12. Arkansas (28)

In 2004, I took a look at the 10 teams that faced a tougher schedule and said their records may drop because of it. Those ten teams combined for a 72-55 57% mark in 2003 but the same 10 were just 44-67 39.6% in 2004!!!! Once again, 90% of the teams saw their record get weaker and the only team that did not was Vanderbilt, which went from 2-10 to 2-9 because they played one less game!! The most notable drops that made the list were Kansas St and Maryland who were coming off 11 and 10 win seasons respectively and both had losing seasons!! In 2005 only ONE of 10 teams in the "Going Down" box managed to have a better record. In 2006 8 of the 10 teams in the "Going Down?" box had weaker records, including Iowa St and Virginia who went from being in a bowl to a losing record. In 2007 I had 8 teams in the box and surprisingly only 5 had a weaker record. In 2008 eight of the ten teams I listed had a weaker record with Arkansas, Ohio, Virginia, Purdue and New Mexico all going from a bowl season to a losing year. Last year only 7 teams made the box and only ONE improved their record. The 7 teams had a combined record of 51-39 57% in '08 and went to just 35-52 40% in '09 with Tulsa falling from 11-3 to 5-7. That means over 6 years 82% of the teams in the "Going Down" box have had the same or a weaker record the next year. Here are the teams with harder schedules that may see some dropoff in 2010 and the number in the parentheses is the difference (harder) from last year's schedule:

GOING DOWN???

1. Iowa St (65)
2. Penn St (57)
3. Duke (54)
4. UNLV (43)
5. NC State (38)
6. Oregon St (32)
7. Idaho (29)
8. Boise St (27)

The computer shows me that there are some other teams that one or more of my sets of Power Ratings call for them to have undefeated seasons. Naturally, if a team is projected at the top of my Power Ratings, it has a greater chance of going unbeaten. In 2002, three sets of my ratings called for Ohio St to go unbeaten and the Buckeyes were the surprise team of the country. In 2003, 11 teams were rated in two or more sets of my Power Ratings with a perfect record. Basically any team that has finished unbeaten in the past 8 years has made this list. Check out my June 15 blog on PhilSteele.com for my complete list for this year (and there are some surprises on it!)

Keep in mind that good health, a positive turnover ratio and a little luck are needed to go unbeaten. I hope your favorite team has a favorable schedule.

LETTERMEN RETURNING/LOST SYSTEM

BY PHIL STEELE

For the last couple of years I have put an experience chart in the magazine which counts the number of Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors each team has and adds them up with a point system. Last year I went back and looked at percentages of lettermen returning and lost. Using percentages is more reliable than the amount of returning or lost lettermen because schools give out letters in different manners. Some schools hand out a lot of letters and others far fewer. Getting a letter at Syracuse under Paul Pasqualoni was tough, as he handed out just 38 total letters in 2004 and 40 in 2003. This year the low's went to North Carolina St and Western Michigan with 49 each. Nebraska in 2001 handed out 82 letters or over double what Syracuse was giving out. It was also the most given out by any school in the previous 6 years. In 2007, Ohio broke all records with an amazing 91 letters given out while Hawaii had 90! Last year Ohio was at the top again with 82 and USC had 80.

The first category I looked at was teams with a high percentage of lettermen returning. I tossed the numbers into an Excel spreadsheet. Common sense would say teams that had a high percentage of lettermen returning should be much stronger the next year and have a better record. In the last 9 years a total of 96 teams have had 79% or more lettermen returning. That comes out to about 11 per year. Of those 96, 72 have had the same or better record the next year or 75%. Last year 8 out of 9 teams in this category did as expected with Middle Tenn being the most productive going from 5-7 to 10-3.

I was looking for a higher percentage so I started to eliminate some groups. Naturally, when I limited the group of teams that had 79% of their lettermen returning to those that also had at least 16 starters returning, the percentage went up. Out of the now smaller group of 53 teams, 44 or 83% had the same or better record and 73.6% or 39 of 53 had an improved record. In 2008, I mentioned in this article that Florida, which was coming off a 9-4 season, made the group and I called for them to win the National Title and they delivered. Overall those are, once again, nice numbers but I wanted an even higher percentage so I narrowed the group further.

I devised a rather simple formula to cut the group. I multiplied the returning lettermen by 100 which means 87% returning lettermen would count for 87 pts, 67% for 67 points, etc. I then multiplied the returning starters by 5. A team with 19 returning starters earned 95 points, a team with just 9 returning starters only earned 45 points. A final factor I added in was QB experience. If a team had a returning starting QB they got an additional 25 points. I ran these numbers through the computer and found some magic numbers. Since 2001 there have been 71 teams that accumulated 185.1 points or more of experience from the previous year. Of those 71, 59 (83%) had a stronger or equal record to the previous year. By tightening it a little further I found that 89.5% of teams that had 190.1 points or more (34 out of 38) had a stronger or the same record the next year!

Let me give you a couple of examples. In 2006, I called Arkansas the Most Improved Team in the country. They had 80% lettermen returning (19 starters). The Hogs, who were 4-7 in 2005, vaulted to 10-1 and a #5 ranking before a disappointing finish left them at "only" 10-4 (#15) for the year. They were the SEC West Champs and went from 4-7 to a New Year's Day Bowl. Wake Forest was just 4-7 in 2005 but had 83% lettermen returning (19 starters). Wake had low expectations and then lost their starting QB and RB to injuries. They still managed to improve to an amazing 11-2 when they not only got to play in the ACC Title game but also WON THEIR FIRST ACC TITLE SINCE 1970 (37 years!). They had been picked last in the preseason ACC poll! In 2004, Mike Price inherited a team with 17 ret starters (195.2 exp pts) and UTEP went from 2-11 to an 8-3 reg season and the Houston Bowl. In 2001, Colorado made my Most Improved List AND Surprise Team List and after a 3-8 2000 season they went 10-2, won the Big 12 Title and came within inches of playing in the National Title game. In 2006, Boise St was coming off a 9-4 season but with 195.7 exp points they went undefeated and knocked off Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl! Also in 2006 Ohio had 193.1 exp pts and went from 4-7 to a 9-3 reg season and the MAC Title game. In 2008, the most successful member on the 190+ group was Northern Illinois which went from 2-10 to the Independence Bowl. Last year a couple of members of the +185.1 club were Central Michigan, which went from 8-5 to 12-2 and MAC Champs and Washington, which was 0-12 in '08 but knocked off USC and just missed out on a bowl at 5-7. Three teams made the 190.1 exp pts box last year and all 3 improved their record.

Teams that have 185.1 (but less than 190.1) experience points returning this year and an 83.3% chance of improving their record are WKU and South Carolina. There are 5 teams this year that have 190.1 or more experience points returning which means they have an 89.5% shot at an improved record this year and I list those 5 teams in the box below:

190.1+ Exp Pts
Ret Lettermen,
Ret Starters
QB Experience
89.5% chance improve

- Boise St
- North Carolina
- Ball St
- Arkansas
- Rice

Now, let's look at the opposite end of the spectrum, teams that have a low percentage of lettermen returning. If you look at teams that had 60% or less lettermen returning, there are 86 in the last 9 years. As you would expect, 55 of those had a weaker or the same record the next year or 64%.

In 2008, I noted that of the teams with 60.5% or less returning lettermen, 11 or less returning starters AND no returning starting QB almost always regressed. Teams in that category had a worse record the next year, 70% of the time, and the same or weaker record, 78.7%. It has happened 32 times in the last 9 years and only 6 teams managed to improve their record with two of those being the 2006 Temple team, which went from 0-11 to 1-11 and the 2006 Ole Miss team, which went from 3-8 to 4-8. That means that only 4 of the 32 had less losses than the previous year or just 12.5%. The biggest four dropoffs have happened over the past six years. In 2004, Kansas St had been a dynasty under Bill Snyder but could not overcome the "60.5%, 11, 0 QB Plan" and went from a very successful 11-4 season to just 4-7, a huge drop of 7 wins! The next year Florida Atlantic had just 50.8% returning lettermen, 8 ret starters and a new QB. They went from 9-3 in 2004 to just 2-9 in 2005, another 7 game drop. In 2006, Miami, OH had just 58.9% returning lettermen, 7 returning starters and an inexperienced QB. They not only had a great streak of ELEVEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS snapped but dropped from 7-4 to just 2-10! In 2007, Notre Dame was one of 3 teams on this list (Florida and Baylor also had weaker records) and the Irish plummeted from a Sugar Bowl berth in 2006 to 3-9 the following year! Last year the system suffered a rare loss as Navy beat it. We accidently listed Miss St in this spot but they had a returning starter at QB and I apologize for letting that slide through.

This year only two teams fall into the final category of 60.5% or less lettermen returning, 11 or less returning starters and an inexperienced QB. These teams only have a 12.5% chance of improving their record. They are Oklahoma St and East Carolina.

Now let's look at the experience points system I devised. Since 2001 there have been 80 teams that have accumulated 114.5 or less points on the chart. Of those 80 teams, 65 have had a weaker or the same record the next year or 81.3%! The last two years 11 teams made the list with only 2 improving their record. Teams that have 118.55 or less points returning have the same or weaker record 89 out of 113 times (78.8%) In 2008, Michigan (116.2) suffered its first losing season in 40 years. Last year Ball St (117.3) crashed from 12-2 to 2-10. In the box below I list the six teams that are in the 114.5 category that are most likely headed down this year. I take a lot of pride in the fact that 99.8% of the stats in this magazine are 100% accurate. Once again Miss St slipped through last year and with a returning starting QB they should not have been listed. Maybe the magazine stats are only 99.4% accurate. The teams in the 78.8% category are Arizona St and Florida.

SPRING GAME NOTES. . .

For years you have checked out the back pages of my magazine to get all the latest news from the spring games. Unfortunately there are only so many pages in my magazine and in the past I could only allot 3 pages for the spring notes. My website PhilSteele.com has UNLIMITED PAGES that I can devote to spring ball. Instead of trying to write just a paragraph for half the teams, we will write a full summary of what happened in the spring for all 120 teams! We will even include boxscores. Just go to PhilSteele.com today and get all the latest spring game information and more. My goal is to make it like having 120 different media guides all in one location and one format. You will be able to access school records, career leaders, all of this year's information and more. While you could go to each school's website and try to find the info on each team, I will have it in the same format and all at one website. (Did I mention PhilSteele.com?)

Last 13 Years Matchups on Every FBS Game This Year... Only at PhilSteele.com

PhilSteele.com is loaded with information but the chart above is my favorite type of info on the site and it is exclusively at PhilSteele.com. When you click on this year's schedule for each team you can click on any opponent and the past matchups chart will pop up. I used the Texas/Oklahoma matchup as it is one of the top rivalry games. The chart not only gives you the score of each of the past 13 years but it gives you the complete box score and much more. You will notice the matchup above is from the Texas team page. Therefore Green numbers are GOOD for Texas and RED numbers are bad. At a glance you can see that Texas had a streak of 5 straight losses to open the last decade but have won 4 of the last 5 since. A check of the last column quickly shows you 7 red numbers in the last 10 years highlighting that the Horns have been outgained in those games and many by wide margins. If you look at the ranked columns to the left you see that both teams have been ranked 9 of the last 10 years and surprisingly neither was ranked in either '97 or '98. The "Upset column" lets you quickly see how many upsets there have been in the series (4) the last 13 years and the final column shows you who had the yardage edge. This is available RIGHT NOW for EVERY FBS game being played this year! Go to PhilSteele.com and become an expert on every matchup for 2010!

THE LOTT TROPHY

The Lott Trophy was named in honor of Ronnie Lott – a two time All-American for USC and College Football Hall of Fame inductee. Ronnie Lott went on to win four Super Bowl rings with the San Francisco 49ers, made 10 trips to the Pro Bowl and earned a spot in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Always known as a fierce competitor, he was a leader who had an IMPACT both on the field and off.

The Lott Trophy was established by The Pacific Club IMPACT Foundation to honor college football's Defensive IMPACT Player of the Year. The award is unique because it represents the first trophy to give equal weight to personal character as well as athletic performance.

The Pacific Club IMPACT Foundation awarded $115,000 of scholarships to the general scholarship funds of the universities of Lott Trophy finalists. Since 2004, The Pacific Club IMPACT Foundation has donated more than $900,000 for scholarships and programs that support America's youth.

WARNING: This page is for Hardcore Fans ONLY. If you need MORE information than was provided on the individual pages, You've come to the right spot!

For those of you who wanted more information in this year's magazine, on this page we will feature some information that just wouldn't fit!!!!!!!

ARKANSAS - In 1962, Billy Moore set two different records which had stayed in the Arkansas record books for 47 years. One was a rushing record and one was a passing record. Moore hit 12 of 14 passing vs Tulsa in 1962 which set the single game completion % record. He also had a 90 yard TD run that same game. Naturally the chances of one of those records falling in 2009 were small, but amazingly both records were broken by two different players in the same game. Broderick Green ripped off a 99 yard TD run vs Eastern Michigan and in that game Ryan Mallett hit 14 of 16 passes for 248 yards for 87.5%. Two records, one rushing and one passing that lasted 47 years were broken the same game by two different players! Even more ironic about those records. Green had been a little used backup who came into the game with 46 carries for 121 yards (2.6) in the previous 7 games. Was there a hint that Mallett would break the completion % record? In the 2 games prior vs Florida and Mississippi, Mallett had hit 24 of 61 passes for a paltry 39.3% and against Alabama hit 12 of 35 for 34.3%. BOSTON COLLEGE - Sr LB Mark Herzlich, who missed 2009 while undergoing treatment for cancer, received an honorary Lott Trophy. It was only the second time an honorary Lott Trophy has been awarded, the first going to the family of Pat Tillman in 2004. BYU - Riley Stephenson's career long 60 yd punt (gale force winds) tied a BYU bowl record (Jesse Soward, 1999). COLORADO - Dan Hawkins made headlines late in the season when he said if he had to do it all over again he wished his son wouldn't have followed him... The OL coach said of the 36 sacks allowed (first 9 games), only 19 were the responsibility of the O-line. CONNECTICUT - In their final year of IAA ball, UC was just 4-7 then 3-8 in their inaugural IA season (2000). In 2003, they reached the full allotment of 85 scholarship players for the first time and I called for their first winning season since 1998. They did not disappoint as they went 9-3 outgaining 11 of 12 foes. In 2004, they had a senior QB in Dan Orlovsky, two veteran TB's and an O-line with 4 st'rs back giving them an explosive offense (30.3 ppg). UC destroyed Toledo 39-10 in the Motor City Bowl. HOUSTON - In 2007, UH achieved their 8-5 record despite being -7 in TO's but they had just two starts lost to inj. In 2008, UH had just 11 ret starters (tied for 2nd fewest CUSA) and UH outgained CUSA foes by 137.3 ypg in '07 (2nd best). My main concern was how they would adjust to the new playbook but Sumlin's offense increased the ppg to 40.6 (best S/'90). UH finished with an identical 8-5 record but probably had a more successful season. In the 3rd week, due to a hurricane, they were forced to play their HG vs Air Force in Dallas in front of a few hundred people at 10:00 am. AF, being a military academy, adjusted better to the poor weather conditions and UH lost by 3. The next week UH was still displaced and practiced in Dallas. The Cougars were int'd in the EZ with :02 left vs Col St. At 1-3 they were able to practice back at home and dominated #23 EC on the road 41-24 with a 621-275 yd edge. They trailed UAB 20-3 at the half but outscored the Blazers 42-0 in the 2H. They were fortunate to leave SMU with a victory as they trailed 35-23 going into the 4Q before getting a TD with :24 left. In cold weather at Marshall they trailed 30-3 in the 3Q and lost. They rebounded to beat Tulane 42-14 then in an apparent showdown for the CUSA West Title, they got revenge for the previous year's 56-7 loss to Tulsa by rolling to a 70-30 win. The next week they trailed UTEP 28-9 but got the biggest comeback in school history rallying for a 42-37 win. If they had beaten Rice in the "Bayou Bucket" game, they would have won the CUSA West Title but they lost 56-42 trailing 35-21 at the half. They got their first bowl win since the 1980 Garden State Bowl when they got revenge vs Air Force. MINNESOTA - There were rumors that HC Tim Brewster was leaving for Kansas and basically the AD said he'd let him go but then turned around and gave him another contract extension...The spring was rough on the secondary as Kim Royston broke his leg and Kyle Theret was susp'd but both are expected to return. NEBRASKA - NU held 9 of 14 teams LY to under 50% comp LY... With so many players on the roster at Nebraska, we've taken some of the Huskers you may see on the field and placed them in the Hardcore Fans section: RB Austin Jones (5'10" 210 Jr), WR's Joe Broekemeier (6'4" 210 Sr), Tyson Clark (6'4" 205 rFr), KC Hyland (6'6" 210 So, PS#367), Tim Marlowe (5'10" 175 So) and TE Robert Barry (6'8" 240 rFr). OL's Dwight Jones (6'4" 275 rFr), Luke Lingenfelter (6'4" 280 Jr), Seung Hoon Choi (6'2" 295 So) and Spencer Long (6'4" 285 rFr). LB Devin Paulsen (6'2" 215 rFr), DB's Lazarri Middleton (6'1" 190 rFr, PS#207) and Jim Ebke (6'0" 210 Jr, PS#126QB).... Nebraska had 3 sts lost due to injury, #3 NCAA (pg 314). OREGON - The Ducks have had a solid history of QB play from NFL Hall of Famers Norm Van Brocklin and Dan Fouts to the present, with 7 NFL DC at the position since 1987 including #1 Chris Miller ('87), #4 Bill Musgrave ('91), #7 Tony Graziani ('97), #1 Akili Smith ('99), #5 AJ Feely ('01), #1 Joey Harrington ('02) and #5 Dennis Dixon ('08). TCU - Tanner Brock and Daryl Washington ran down a reverse vs Air Force and Patterson said "I don't know if there's another team in the country that have LB's that could run down a reverse."...TCU had a 14 game winning streak, matching the school record set by the 1938 team led by Heisman Trophy winning QB Davey O'Brien that went 11-0 and clinched the team's only AP national championship. The school also claims a National Title in 1935, the only other time the Frogs won 12. TEXAS A&M - Mike Sherman was not amused when Texas Tech coach Mike Leach brought up QB Stephen McGee's draft position amid questioning NFL teams' draft decisions on TT's star players. Sherman was still unhappy when, despite Leach saying he didn't mean to offend, he wondered aloud where Sherman would have drafted McGee if he were still an NFL coach. Leach was upset that WR Michael Crabtree slipped to #10 overall DC and QB Graham Harrell wasn't picked at all and commented that McGee was a #4DC of DAL. "I'm happy for Stephen McGee," Leach said, "The Dallas Cowboys like him more than his coaches at A&M did." TEXAS TECH - HC Mike Leach got on the bad side of "fat little girlfriends" everywhere when he used that term to describe people who told Tech players they'd win easily against Texas A&M. "As coaches, we failed to make our coaching points more compelling than (the players') fat little girlfriends," Leach said. "Fat little girlfriends have some obvious advantages. For one thing, their fat little girlfriends are telling them what they want to hear, which is how great you are and how easy it's going to be." Tech was a 3 TD favorite and lost 52-30 to the Aggies, ending the Red Raiders' 12 game home winning streak and knocking them out of the rankings. Leach said he'll do all he can to keep another letdown from happening. "As coaches, we have to solve our failure on reaching them, and the players have to listen," Leach said. "I'm willing to go to fairly amazing lengths to try to make that happen. I don't know if I'll be successful this week or not, but I am going to try and there will be some people inconvenienced, and if it happens to be their fat little girlfriends, too bad." ... Late additions to the roster that may play are WR's Josh Talbott (6'0" 199 Fr), Garrick McCray (6'3" 184 So), Tim Graves (5'8" 170 Fr) and Marlon Kraus (6'2" 199 Fr). DL's Omar Ontiveros (6'2" 230 Fr), Taylor Boss (6'3" 255 Fr), Cody Rogers (5'11" 286 Fr) and Travis Malone (6'1" 224 So). Adding depth at LB are Tanner Foster (6'3" 209 So), Bonner Morren (6'0" 217 So) and Rodney Darrington (5'9" 192 Fr). Available at LS are Jesse Smitherman (6'4" 235 Jr) and John Weidenhof (5'8" 213 Fr) plus K Jeremy Elder (5'9" 160 Fr). UCLA - USC and UCLA used to battle it out annually for the Pac-10 Title. Just a decade ago the Bruins' program was clearly ahead of the Trojans. Unfortunately, this decade UCLA is just 41-43 in Pac-10 play (USC 64-20). In 2005 the Bruins caught a lot of breaks and at one point stood 8-0 and were talking Nat'l Title but finished 10-2 (6-2 P10, -72.9 ypg). That group was aided by four 4Q comebacks and naturally in '06 they came crashing back down at 7-6. UCLA appeared to be heading to a losing season but upset #2 USC, knocking the Trojans out of the Title game. WEST VIRGINIA - Prior to the season HC Bill Stewart said he would not have K Tyler Bitancurt attempt any FG's from a range of 25-35 but Bitancurt actually hit 5-6 from 40+ (long 45). He did have a 52 yd FG in HS. WYOMING - Josh Biezuns moved from FB to OLB in '09 and won the starting job (#7 tkl'r) and should be improved in his 2nd year on defense.

MAXWELL AWARD

FEW HONORS FOR COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYERS CAN RIVAL ONE WHICH BEARS THE MAXWELL NAME!

The Maxwell Award for College Player of the Year is presented each year by the Maxwell Football Club, a group dedicated to helping young people realize their fullest potential as leaders through football at all levels!

The award is named for Robert W. (Tiny) Maxwell, a college football player, coach and sportswriter. Maxwell was only 37 when he died of complications stemming from an automobile accident. To honor his memory and his many contributions to football, the Robert W. Maxwell Memorial Football Club was founded in 1935 to present awards in his name and to promote football safety.

Phil Steele is proud to be a participant on the voting committee for the Maxwell Award.

My Power Plays Projections take into account the strength of opponent faced. Each week during the season it projects a box score for each upcoming game with yards rushing, passing and points, etc. I thought it would be fun to plug in the Power Plays numbers vs their opponents' ratings and project the entire season. The chart to the left is projected statistics for the 2010 season.

WE VALUE YOUR OPINION

The College Football season is just around the corner and I really appreciate your purchase of my College Football Preview Magazine this season. I want to make it the very best magazine available and I really value YOUR opinion of it. In all of my magazines I have a questionnaire about the publications. This has helped me improve each of them on a yearly basis and almost every addition to each is because YOU, the reader, asked for it. This is the 16th edition of my College Football Preview Magazine and I really do want YOUR opinion on everything that you like or dislike about this year's edition. Please take a few minutes and fill out the form below. I have listed most of the different sections that are in the magazine and have broken down the team pages into the 4 different sections that I include on each team. If you really enjoy any or all of the sections, please mark how you feel below with a "Great" vote. If there is part of the team pages or other areas that you do not read, please let me know. I want the pages to have the information YOU want to see. If there is a statistic or chart you would like to see next year, please note it below. As my thanks to you for taking your valuable time to fill out this questionnaire, you can use it as a coupon for a 10% discount on any of my Phil Steele Publications. Simply check the box at the bottom as to which discount you would like. Remember to check out the other side of this page for information on my 2010 Pro Football Preview! Please mail this form to Phil Steele's Publications, 25935 Detroit Rd, Suite 183 • Cleveland, OH 44145. Limit one completed questionnaire per address/customer (ONLY one discount per product). Thank You.

WHO WILL WIN THE HEISMAN?

Since 1935, the best college football player of the season receives the Heisman Trophy, the most talked about award in college football. Every week, sports shows list which prospective candidates are rising & falling on the list to win the Trophy. Phil Steele is proud to be a member of the Heisman voting committee.

Predicting who will win the Heisman is a tough task, even with a couple of weeks left in the regular season and there is always plenty of debate. With just a few weeks left in 2002's race, Carson Palmer was not even in the top 5 but he still ended up winning. Naturally, it is even tougher predicting the winner four months prior to the season.

Houston QB Case Keenum

In 1998 I listed Ricky Williams (Texas) as my Heisman Trophy favorite. Things did not look good for Ricky when Texas was humiliated by UCLA and Kansas St in B2B weeks and he had just average games in both. At the time it looked like his Heisman chances were GONE. When the smoke cleared Ricky broke the NCAA career rushing record and was the recipient of the coveted trophy.

In 1999 I listed Ron Dayne of Wisconsin as my Heisman favorite. Much like Ricky, Ron's chances of winning the Heisman appeared to go out the window after Michigan shut him down and then he fumbled late in the Badgers' upset loss to Cincinnati. When the season was over, Wisconsin was in the Rose Bowl and Dayne had broken Williams' career rushing mark and won the Heisman.

In 2000 I had the only preseason publication in the country which called for Chris Weinke to win the Heisman and he was not even on many folks' lists at the start of the year. This long shot simply delivered my THIRD straight winner, despite the big odds. Michael Vick was by far the preseason favorite in 2000 but came up short.

In '01 I missed with Chris Simms but did have Heisman winner Eric Crouch listed as #3 coming into the year. It would have been tough to pick who was going to win the Heisman that year, even on the morning of the presentation, as the voting was one of the closest ever.

In 2002 NO ONE pegged Carson Palmer to win the Heisman prior to the year and he was about a 100-1 long shot over the summer but I did have him #7 on my list of Preseason Heisman Favorites.

In 2003 Jason White was posted at 30-1 odds to win the Heisman with 20 players listed ahead of him so another darkhorse won the award. In 2004 White finished 3rd in the voting but one of the favorites, Matt Leinart, took home the trophy.

In 2005 Leinart was my pick but he didn't become the 2nd two-time winner with his teammate Reggie Bush beating him out. Had the vote taken place AFTER the bowls, Vince Young most likely would have won it.

In 2006 the QB of the #1 team in the country led from start to finish in the Heisman race as Troy Smith took home the award in a landslide. In 2007 Tim Tebow became the first soph to win it and in '08 Sam Bradford became the 2nd soph to win. Last year RB Mark Ingram became Alabama's first ever Heisman Trophy winner despite the preseason favorites being Tebow, Bradford and Colt McCoy. Stanford RB Toby Gerhart finished a very close 2nd!

MY FAVORITES

1. Terrelle Pryor, Ohio St

Pryor's career is mirroring Vince Young's and Young would have won the Heisman as a junior if the vote was taken after the BCS Title game. Pryor is 6'6" 233 lbs with 4.33 speed and a strong arm. He should have his best year yet as a passer and is of course a dangerous runner. Troy Smith led Ohio St to an unbeaten regular season in '06 and won the trophy and the Buckeyes have a great shot at an unbeaten season.

2. Mark Ingram, Alabama

Ingram probably has to have an even better season than last year to repeat as the winner but he must be listed as one of the favorites. He rushed for 1,658 (6.1) with 17 rush TD's and added another 3 TD's and 334 (10.4) rec yds in 2009. He seemed to have his best games vs the toughest teams last year (150 vs VT, 189 total yds vs FL). He can also stay fresh for the 4Q as they have super backup Trent Richardson (PS#2) who ran for 751 (5.2) as a true frosh.

3. Case Keenum, Houston

In 1998 and 1999 I picked two guys who I thought would break the NCAA record for career rush yards to win the trophy (Ricky Williams and Ron Dayne) and both rewrote the record book and took home the Heisman. Keenum should set the NCAA record for career pass yards this season and Houston has a shot at running the table which includes 3 games vs BCS conference teams.

4. Landry Jones, Oklahoma

Could Jones become the 2nd OU soph QB to snag the Heisman in 3 years? He unexpectedly was thrown into the fire last year when Sam Bradford was injured and did well. Now with a full offseason of reps with the #1's and 10 starts under his belt this 6'4" 216 lb QB should lead OU to an undefeated season and have a solid year throwing the ball, especially with a much more experienced O-line in front of him.

5. Andy Dalton, TCU

Dalton threw for 2,756 (62%) with a 23-8 ratio last year and added 512 (4.4) rush. Dalton's offense avg 26.1 ppg in his first year as a starter, 33.6 in his 2nd and 38.3 LY. He is the leader of a Horned Frogs squad that has a great shot at an undefeated year and has a legitimate shot at playing in the title game.

6. Kellen Moore, Boise St

Moore is 26-1 as a starting QB at Boise throwing for 7,022 yards (67%) with an incredible 64-13 ratio. If he put up those stats in a BCS league, he would likely already be a two-time Heisman winner. Moore does face WAC defenses but threw for 211 vs TCU's super defense in the bowl. If he has a big game vs Virginia Tech's tough D in the opener and Boise runs the table, he will be in the mix.

7. Ryan Mallett, Arkansas

Take a guy with perhaps the strongest arm in the FBS, mix in a WR corps with blazing speed and an AA candidate at TE. Put that mixture in a pass happy offense and it's easy to see why Mallett will be near the top of the passing charts. Last year he threw for 3,624 with a 30-7 ratio in his first year as the Hog starter.

Arkansas QB Ryan Mallett

8. Ryan Williams, Virg Tech

Williams will have to share the "star" billing at VT with QB Tyrod Taylor and RB Darren Evans (1,265 in '08, inj LY). Williams rushed for 1,655 (5.6) with 21 TD's and was a Frosh AA and VT is a National Title contender.

CONTENDERS

This list is heavy on experienced QB's and RB's who could put up big stats for National Title contenders, which has been the formula for 8 of the last 10 Heisman Trophy winners.

Jacory Harris, Miami, Fl

Harris had some Heisman-type games in '09 as a soph. He will improve on his 24-17 ratio and Miami is my favorite to win the ACC.

Matt Barkley, USC

Barkley started as a true frosh LY and USC had most of their toughest games on the road. This year their toughest are at home and he and the Trojans should have a much better year.

LaMichael James, Oregon

James rushed for 1,546 (6.7) as a frosh behind an inexperienced O-line and UO is a title contender.

John Brantley, Florida

Brantley will have better passing numbers than Tebow and the Gators figure to win a lot of games.

Colin Kaepernick, Nevada

Kaepernick is one of the most exciting players in college football and Nevada could surprise.

Noel Devine, West Virginia

Devine can score any time he touches the ball. If he stays healthy all year, look out.

Dion Lewis, Pitt

Lewis made 2nd Tm AA as a true frosh. He had 1,799 yds rush (5.5) and 18 total TD's and will be even stronger in 2010.

Christian Ponder, Florida St

Would have been one of the top passers LY but was injured after 9 starts. Super O-line in front of him.

BJ Daniels, USF

Daniels led USF in rushing as a rFr and is an exciting playmaker at QB. USF has Skip Holtz now as HC, so they should win more games.

Evan Royster, Penn St

Royster needs 480 yards to break Curt Warner's Penn St career rush record. He's been the Lions leading rusher the last two years and should have a fine senior season.

Jacquizz Rodgers, Oregon St

He's very exciting and the Pac-10 race is wide open.

POSSIBILITIES

Here are some quality players who will put up big stats but aren't likely to be playing for a National Title contender or may play for a Title contender but could split votes with other prime players:

DeMarco Murray, Oklahoma
Ryan Broyles, Oklahoma
Ricky Dobbs, Navy
Kendall Hunter, Oklahoma St
Daniel Thomas, Kansas St
Roy Helu, Nebraska
Michael Floyd, Notre Dame
Julio Jones, Alabama
AJ Green, Georgia
Tyrod Taylor, Virginia Tech
